He proueth that which he sayd before of faith, by the example of Abraham, 3 6 and the testimonie of the Scripture: and ten times in the Chapter he beateth vpon this word, Imputation.

WHat shall we say then, that Abraham our father hath found concerning the [a] flesh?

2 For if Abraham were iustified by works, he hath wherein to reioyce, but not with God.

3 For what saith the Scripture? Abraham beleeued God, and it was counted to him for righteousnesse.

4 Now to him that [b] worketh, the wages is not [c] counted by fauour, but by debt:

5 But to him that worketh not, but beleeueth in him that [d] iustifieth the vngodly, his faith is counted for righteousnesse.

6 Euen as Dauid declareth the blessednesse of the man, vnto whom God imputeth righteousnesse without works, saying,

7 Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiuen, and whose sinnes are couered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord imputeth not sinne.

9 Came this [e] blessednesse then vpon the circumcision only, or vpon the vncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousnesse.

10 How was it then imputed? when hee was circumcised, or vncircumcised? not when hee was circumcised, but when he was vncircumcised.

11 And [g] after, hee receiued the [h] signe of circumcision, as the [i] seale of the righteousnes of the faith which he had, when he was vncircumcised, that hee should be the father of all them that beleeue, not being circumcised, that righteousnesse might be imputed to them also.

12 And the father of circumcision, not vnto them onely which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham which he had when he was vncircumcised.

13 For the promise that hee should be the [k] heire of the world, was not giuen to Abraham, or to his seed, through the [l] Law, but through the righteousnesse of faith.

14 For if they which are of the [k] Law, be heires, faith is made void, and the promise is made of none effect.

15 For the Law causeth wrath: for where no Law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promise might be sure to all the [l] seed, not to that onely which is of the Law: but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham who is the father of vs all,

17 (As it is written, I haue made thee a [16] father of many nations) euen before [m] God whom he beleeued, who [n] quickneth the dead, & [o] calleth those things which be not, as though they were

18 [17] Which Abraham aboue hope, beleeued vnder hope, that he should be the father of many nations: according to that which was spoken to him, So shall thy seed be.

19 And he [p] not weake in the faith, considered not his owne body, which was now [q] dead, being almost an hundred yeere old, neither [r] the deadnesse of Saras wombe,

20 Neither did he doubt of the promise of God through vnbelieefe, but was strengthened in the faith, and gaue [s] glory to God,

21 Being [t] fully assured that he which had promised, was also able to do it.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousnesse.

23 Now is it not written for him only, that it was imputed to him for righteousnesse,

24 But also for vs, to whom it shall be imputed for righteousnesse, which beleeue in him that raised vp Iesus our Lord from the dead,

25 Who was deliuered to death for our [u] sinnes, and is risen againe for [u] our iustification.

a A new argument of great weight, taken from the example of Abraham the father of all beleeuers: And this is the propositon: If Abraham be considered in himselfe by his works, he hath deserued nothing wherein to reioyce with God. a By works, as appeareth in the next verse.

b A preuenting of an obiection: Abraham may well reioyce and extoll himselfe amongst men, but not with God.

c A confirmation of the propotition: Abraham was iustified by imputation of faith, therefore freely without any respect of his works.

d The first proofe of the confirmation, taken of contraries: to him that deserueth any thing by his labors, the wages is not counted by fauour, but by debt: but to him that hath done nothing: but beleeueth in him which promiseth freely, faith is imputed.

e To him that hath deserued any thing by his worke.

e Is not reckoned nor giuen him.

d That maketh him which is wicked in himselfe, iust in Christ.

f Another proofe of the same confirmation: Dauid putteth blessednes in free pardon of sinnes, therefore iustification also. 6 A new propolition: that this maner of iustification belongeth both to the vncircumcised, and also to the circumcised: as is declared in the person of Abraham.

e This saying of Dauid, wherein he pronounceth them blessed. 7 He prooueth that it belongeth to the vncircumcised (for there was no doubt of the circumcised) in this sort: Abraham was iustified in vncircumcision, therefore this iustification belongeth also to the vncircumcised. Nay it doth not appertaine to the circumcised in respect of the circumcision, much lesse are vncircumcised shut out for their vncircumcision. 8 A preuenting of an obiection: why then was Abraham circumcised, if he were already iustified? That the gift of righteousnes (saith he) might be confirmed in him. f Circumcision, which is a signe: as we say, the Sacrament of Baptisme, for Baptisme which is a Sacrament. g Circumcision was called before a signe, in respect of the outward ceremony: now Paul sheweth the force and substance of that signe, that is, to what end it is vsed, to wit, not onely to signifie, but also to seale vp the righteousnesse of faith, whereby we come to possesse Christ himselfe: for the holy Ghost worketh that inwardly indeed, which the Sacraments being ioyned with the word, doe represent.

h An applying of the example of Abraham to the vncircumcised beleeuers, whose father also he maketh Abraham. 10 And applying of the same example, to the circumcised beleeuers, whose father Abraham is but yet by faith. 11 A reason why the seed of Abraham is to be esteemed by faith, because that Abraham himselfe through faith was made partaker of that promise, whereby he was made the father of all nations. h That all the nations of the world should be his children: or by the world may be vnderstood the land of Canaan. i For works that he had done, or vpon this condition that he should fulfill the Law. 12 A double confirmation of that reason: the one is, that the promise cannot be apprehended by the Law, and therefore it should be frustrate: the other, that the condition of faith should be ioyned in vaine to that promise which should be apprehended by works. k If they be heires which haue fulfilled the Law.

13 A reason of the first confirmation, why the promise cannot be apprehended by the Lawe: because the Law doth not reconcile God and vs, but rather denounceth his wrath against vs, forsomuch as no man can obserue it. 14 The conclusion of this argument. The saluation and iustification of all the posteritie of Abraham (that is, of the Church which is gathered together of all people) proceedeth of faith, which layeth hold on the promise made vnto Abraham, and which promise Abraham himselfe first of all layed hold on. l To all the beleeuers.

15 Whist is to say, nor onely of them which beleeue and are also circumcised according to the Lawe, but of them also which without circumcision, and in respect of faith onely, are counted amongst the children of Abraham. 16 This fatherhood is spirituall, depending onely vpon the vertue of God, who made the promise. m Before God, that is, by a spirituall kinred, which hath place before God, and maketh vs acceptable to God. n Who restored to life. o With whom these things are already, which as yet are not in deed, as he that can with a word make what he will of nothing. 17 A description of true faith, wholly resting in the power of God, and his good will, set foorth in the example of Abraham. p Very strong and constant. q Void of strength, and vnmeet to get children. r Acknowledged and praised God, as most gracious and true. s A description of true faith. 19 The rule of iustification is alwayes one, both in Abraham and in all the faithfull: that is to say, faith in God, who after that there was made a full satisfaction for our sinnes in Christ our mediatour, raised him from the dead, that we also being iustified, might be saued in him. t To pay the ransome for our sinnes.

CHAP. V.

1 He amplifieth 2 Christs righteousnesse, which is layed hold on by faith. 5 who was giuen for the weake, 8 and sinfull. 14 He compareth Christ with Adam, 17 Death with Life, 20 and the Law with Grace.

THen being [a] iustified by faith, we haue peace toward God through our Lord Iesus Christ.

2 ✣ By whom also through faith wee haue [b] had this accesse into this grace [b] wherein wee [c] stand, 3 and [d] reioyce vnder the hope of the glory of God.

3 4 Neither that onely, but also we ✣ reioyce in tribulations, [e] knowing that tribulation bringeth forth patience,

1 Another argument taken of the effects: we are iustified with that, which truely appeaseth our conscience before God: but faith in Christ doth appease our conscience, and not the Law, as it was before sayd, therefore by faith wee are iustified, and not by the Law. ✣ Ephes.2.18. 2 Whereas quietnesse of conscience is attributed to faith, it is to be referred to Christ, who is the giuer of faith it selfe, and in whom faith it selfe is effectuall. a We must here know, that wee haue yet still this same effect of faith. b By which grace, that is, by which gracious loue and good will, or to that state wherevnto wee are graciously taken. c We stand stedfast. 3 A preuenting of an obiection against them, which boulding the dayly miseries and calamities of the Church, thinke that the Christians dreame, when they bragge of their felicitie: to whom the Apostle answereth, that their felicitie is layed vp vnder hope in another place: which hope is so certaine and sure, that they doe no lesse reioyce for that happinesse, then if they did presently enioy it. d Our mindes are not onely quiet and setled, but also they are marueilously glad and conceiue great ioy for that heauenly inheritance which waiteth for vs. 4 Tribulation it selfe giueth vs diuers and sundry wayes occasion to reioyce, much lesse doth it make vs miserable. ✣ Iam.1.2. 5 Afflictions accustome vs to patience, and patience assureth vs of the goodnesse of God, and this experience confirmeth, and fostereth our hope, which neuer deceiueth vs,

The ground of hope is an assured testimonie of the conscience, by the gift of the holy Ghost, that we are beloued of God, and this is nothing els but that which we call faith: whereof is followeth, that through faith our consciences are quieted.

Wherewith he loueth vs.

y A sure comfort in aduersitie, that our peace and quietnesse of conscience be not troubled: for he that so loued them that were of no strength and while they were yet sinners, that he died for them, how can he neglect them being now sanctified and living in him? f In time fit and conuenient, which the father hath appointed. g Rom. 9. 15. 2. Pet. 3. 18.

8 An amplifying of the loue of God toward vs, so that we cannot doubt of it, who deliuered Christ to death for the vnrisit, and for them of whom he could receiue no commoditie, and (that more is) for his very enemies. How can it be then that Christ being now aliue, should not saue them from destruction, whom by his death he iustifieth and reconcileth? g In the stead of sinne vnfit man. o He setteth out his loue towards vs, that in the middest of our afflictions we may know assuredly, he will be present with vs. t While sinne reigned in vs. u From affliction and destruction.

9 He now passeth ouer to the other part of iustification, which consisteth in the free imputation of the obedience of Christ: so that to the remission of sinnes there is added moreouer and besides, the gift of Christes righteousnesse, imputed or put vpon vs by faith, which swalloweth vp that vnrighteousnesse which flowed from Adam into vs, and all the fruits thereof: so that in Christ wee doe not onely cease to be vniust, but we beginne also to be iust.

10 From Adam, in whom all haue sinned, both guiltinesse and death (which is the punishment of the guiltinesse) came vpon all. t By Adam, who is compared with Christ, like to him in this, that both of them make those which are theirs, partakers of that they haue: but they are vnlike in this, that Adam deserueth sinne vnto them that are his, euen of nature, and that to death: but Christ maketh them that are his, partakers of his righteousnesse by grace, and that vnto life. m By sinne is meant that disease which is ours by inheritance, and men commonly call it originall sinne: for so he vseth to call that sinne in the singular number, whereas, if we speake of the fruits of it, he vseth the plurall number, calling them sinnes. n That is, in Adam.

11 That this is so, that both guiltinesse and death beganne first after the giuing and transgressing of Moses Lawe, it appeareth manifestly by that, that men died before that Law was giuen: for in that they died, sinne, which is the cause of death, was then: and in such sort, that it was also imputed: wherevpon it followeth that there was then some Law, the breach whereof was the cause of death. o Euen from Adam to Moses. p Where there is no Law made, no man is punished as faultie and guiltie.

12 But that this Lawe was not that vniuersall Lawe, and that death did not proceed from any actuall sinne of euery one particularly, it appeareth hereby, that the very infants which neither could euer knowe nor transgresse that naturall Lawe, are notwithstanding subiect as well as Adam. q Ouer infants. r Not after that sort as they sinne that are of mete yeeres, following their lusts: but yet the whole posteritie was corrupt in Adam, when as hee wilfully sinned.

13 Now that first Adam answereth the latter, who is Christ, as it is afterward declared.

14 Adam and Christ are compared together in this respect, that both of them do giue and yeeld to theirs, that which is their owne: but herein first they differ, that Adam by nature hath spread his fault to the destruction of many, but Christs obedience hath by grace ouerflowed many. s That is, Adam.

15 An other inequalitie considered in this, that by Adams one offence men are made guilty, but the righteousnesse of Christ imputed vnto vs freely, doth not onely absolue vs from that one fault, but from all other.

17 16 For if by the offence of one, death reigned through one, much more shall they which receiue that abundance of grace, and of that gift of that righteousnesse, u reigne in life through one, that is, Iesus Christ.

18 17 Likewise then, as by the offence of one, the fault came on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifying of one, the benefit abounded toward all men to the z iustification of life.

19 18 For as by one mans y disobedience z many were made sinners, so by that obedience of that one, shall many also be made righteous.

20 19 Moreouer, the Law a entred thereupon, that the offence should abound: neuertheless, where sinne abounded, there grace b abounded much more:

21 That as sinne had reigned vnto death, so might grace also reigne by righteousnesse vnto eternall life through Iesus Christ our Lord.

v To the sentence of absolution, whereby we are quit, and pronounced righteous.

16 The third difference is, that the righteousnesse of Christ being imputed vnto vs by grace, is of greater power to bring life, then the offence of Adam is to addict his posteritie to death.

w Be partakers of true and euerlasting life.

17 Therefore to be short, as by one mans offence, the guiltines on all men, to make them subiect to death: so on the contrary side, the benefit of righteousnesse is imputed to all beleeuers, iustifieth them, that they may become partakers of euerlasting life.

x Not onely because our sinnes are forgiuen vs, but also because the righteousnesse of Christ is imputed vnto vs. 18 The ground of this whole comparison is this, that these two men are as it were two stocks or rootes, so that out of the one, sinne by nature, out of the other, righteousnesse by grace doth spring forth vpon others. y So them sinne entred also: vs onely by following the steppes of our forefathers, but we take corruption of him by inheritance. z To his end, Adam, is set against this word, Aeon. 19 A preuenting of an objection, why then did the Law of Moses enter thereupon? that men might be so much the more guiltie and the benefit of God in Christ Iesus be so much the more glorious. a Beside that disease which all men were infected withall by being depried with one mans sinne, the Law entred. b Grace was powred so plentifully from heauen, that it did not onely countervaile sinne, but aboue measure passed it.

CHAP. VI.

1 He commeth to sanctification, without which, that no man putteth on Christes righteousnesse, he proueth 4 by an argument taken of Baptisme, 12 and therevpon exhorteth to holinesse of life, 16 briefly making mention of the Law transgressed.

1 He passeth now to another benefit of Christ, which is called sanctification or regeneration.

a In that corruption. for though the guiltinesse of sinne be not imputed to vs, yet the corruption remaine is still in vs: the which Sanctification that followeth Iustification killeth by little and little.

WHat c shall wee say then? Shall we continue still in a sinne, that grace may abound? God forbid.

2 2 How shall we, that are b dead to sinne, liue yet therein?

3 3 Know ye not, that ✠ all wee which haue beene baptized into c Iesus Christ, haue beene baptized into his death?

4 ✠ We are buried then with him by baptisme into his death, that like as Christ was raised vp from the dead d to the glory of the Father, so e wee also should walke in newenesse of life.

5 4 ✠ For if wee be planted with him to the

2 The benefit of Iustification and Sanctification are alwayes ioyned together inseparably, and both of them proceed from Christ by the grace of God: Now Sanctification is the abolishing of sinne, that is, of our naturall corruption, into whose place succeedeth the cleannesse and pureuesse of nature reformed. b They are said of Paule to be dead to sinne, which are in such sort made partakers of the vertue of Christ, that that naturall corruption is dead in them, that is, the force of it is put out, and it bringeth not forth his bitter fruits: and on the other side, they are said to liue in sinne, which are in the flesh, that is, whom the spirit of God hath not deliuered from the seruitude of the corruption of nature. 3 There are three parts of this Sanctification, to wit, the death of the olde man or sinne, his burriall, and the resurrection of the new man, descending into vs from the vertue of the death, burriall, and resurrection of Christ, of which benefit our baptisme is the figure and pledge. c Gal. 3. 27. c To the end that growing vp in one with him, we should receiue his strength, to quench sinne in vs, and to make vs new men. ✠ Colos. 2. 12. d That Christ himselfe being discharged of his infirmitie and weaknesse, might liue in glory with God for euer. e And wee which are his members rise for this ende, that being made partakers of the selfesame vertue, we shall begin to leade a new life, as though we were already in heauen. y Ephes. 4. 23. Colos. 3. 8. Heb. 12. 1. 1. Pet. 2. 1. 4 The death of sinne and the life of righteousnesse, or our ingraffing into Christ, and growing vp into one with him, cannot be separated by any meanes, neither in death nor life, whereby it followeth, that no man is sanctified, which liueth still to sinne: and therefore is no man made partaker of Christ by faith, which repenteth not, and turneth not from his wickednesse: for as he sayd before, the Law is not subuerted, but established by faith. ✠ 1. Cor. 6, 14. 2. Tim. 2, 12.

f In so much as by the meanes of the strength which commeth from him to vs, we so die to sinne as he is dead.
g For we become euery day more perfit then other: for we shall neuer be perfectly sanctified, as long as we liue here.
h All our whole nature, as we are conceiued and borne into this world with sinne, which is called olde, partly by comparing that old Adam with Christ, and partly also in respect of the deformation of our corrupt nature, which we change with a new.
i Our corrupt nature is attributed to Christ, not in deede, but by imputation.
k That naughtines which sticketh fast in vs.
l The end of sanctification which we shoote at, and shall at length come to, so wil, when God shall be all in all.
m He pronueth it by the effects of death, vsing a comparison of Christ the head with his members.
n Once for all.
o With God.
6 An exhortation to contend and striue with corruption and all the effects thereof.
p By reigning. Saint Paul meaneth that chiefeste and high rule, which no man sturreth against, & if any do, yet is it in vaine.
q To sinne, as to a lord or tyrant.
r Your mind and all the powers of it.
s As instruments to commit wickednesse withall.

7 Hee graunteth that sinne is not yet so dead in vs, that it is vtterly extinct: but he promised victory to them that contend manfully, because we haue the grace of God giuen vs which worketh so, that the Lawe is not now in vs the power and instrumen of sinne. 8 To be vnder the Law and vnder sinne, signifie all one, in respect of them which are not sanctified, as on the contrary side, to be vnder grace and righteousnesse, agree to them that are regenerate. 9 Ouer the e are contraries, so that one cannot agree with the other: Therefore let righteousnes expel sinne. ✠ John 8.24. 10 By nature we are made seruants to righteousnesse, and therefore free from sinne. t This kinde of speech hath a force in it: for hee meaneth thereby that the doctrine of the Gospel is like vnto a certaine mould which wee are cast into to be framed and fashioned like vnto it. u Righteousnesse had no rule ouer you. 20 An exhortation to the studie of righteousnes and hatred of sinne, the contrary endes of both being set downe before vs. ✠ The reward or payment. 21 Death is the punishment due to sinne, but we are sanctified freely v vnto life euerlasting.

CHAP. VII.

1 He declareth what it is, to be no more vnder the Law, 3 by an example taken of the Lawe of marriage. 7 12 And lest the Lawe should seeme faultie, 14 hee prooueth, that our sinne is the cause, 15 that the same is an occasion of death, 17 which was giuen vs vnto life. 21 He setteth out the battell betweene the flesh and the spirit.

KNow ye not (brethren, for I speake to them that know the Lawe) that the Law hath dominion ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2 ✠ For the woman which is in subiection to a man, is bound by the Law to the man, while hee liueth: but if the man be dead, shee is deliuered from the Law of the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueth, shee taketh another man, shee shalbe a called an ✠ adulteresse: but if the man be dead, she is free from the Lawe, so that she is not an adulteresse, though shee take another man.

4 a So ye, my brethren, are dead also to the Law by the b body of Christ, that c ye should be to another, euen vnto him d which is raised vp from the dead, that we should bring forth e fruit vnto f God.

5 g For when we were in the e flesh, the h affections of sins, which were by the g law, had h force in our members, to bring forth fruit vnto death.

6 But now we are deliuered from the Law, he i being dead k in whom we were l holden, that we should serue in m newnesse of Spirit, and not in the oldnesse of the n letter.

7 ✠ What shall we say then? Is the Law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knew not sinne, but by the Law: for I had not knowen o lust, except the Law had sayd, p Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne tooke an occasion by the commandement, and wrought in me all maner of concupiscence: for without the Law sinne is dead.

9 q For I once was aliue, without the q lawe: but when the commandement came, sinne reuiued,

10 But I r died: and the same commandement which was ordeined vnto life, was found s to be vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne tooke occasion by the commandement, and deceiued me, and thereby slew me.

12 t Wherefore the Lawe is ✠ holy, and the t commandement is holy, and iust, and good.

a Representing the similitude of a marriage, he compareth the state of man both before and after regeneration together. The law of matrimony, saith he, is this, that so long as the husband liueth, the marriage abideth in force, but if he be dead, the woman may marry againe. ✠ 1. Cor. 7. 39.
b That is, fore shall he an adulteresse, by the consent of all men. ✠ Matth. 5. 31.
c An amplification of the similitude thus: So, saith he, doeth it fare with vs for now we are ioyned to the spirit, as it were to the second husband by whom we bring foorth children: we are dead in respect of the first husband, but in respect of the latter, we are as it were raised from the dead.
d That is, in the body of Christ, to giue vs to vnderstand how straight and neere that fellowship is betwixt Christ and his members.
e He calleth his children, which the wife hath by her husband, fruit.
f Which are acceptable to God.
3 A declaration of the former saying for the occupiscence or concupiscence of the flesh, of (saith hee) which the law stirred vp in vs, wherein vs as I proue before, we were dead, and consequently be ing deliuered from ✠ force of that killing law, we haue pastled into the gouernance of the spirit. So that we bring forth now, not those rotten and dead, but liuely children. e When we were in the state of the first marriage, which he calleth in the next verse following, the oldnes of the letter. f The motiues that egged vs to sinne, which shew their force euen in our minds. g He saith not, of the law, because they spring of sin which dwelleth within vs, & take occasion to worke thus in vs, by reason of the vehemence that the law maketh, not that the fault is in the law: but in our selues, bicause of their strength. h As if he said, The bond which bound vs, is dead, and vanished away, in so much, that sinne which held vs, hath not now where with to hold vs. k For this husband is we him vs. l Satan is an vniust possessor, for he holdeth vs in bondage of sinne and himselfe deceitfully: and yet notwithstanding so long as we are sinners, we sinne willingly. m As becometh them, which after the death of their old husband are ioyned to the spirit: & whom the spirit of God hath wedded to new men. n By the letter he meaneth the law, in respect of the corruptions that were before that our will be framed by the holy Ghost, the law speaketh vnto men, & therefore it is dumbe & dead to vs, as to whom the spirit of God giueth life. o An obiection: What then? are the law & sinne all one, and do they agree together? nay, saith he: Sinne is reproued and condemned by the law. But because sinne cannot abide to be reproued, & was not in a maner felt vntill it was proued, & so stirred vp by the law, it taketh occasion thereby to be more outragious, and yet by no fault of the law. p By the word, Lust, in this place he meaneth not euil lusts themselues, but the fountaine from whence they spring: for the very heathen philosophers themselues condemned wicked lusts, though somewhat darkly, yet as for the fountaine of them, they could not so much as suspect it, and yet it is the very seat of the naturall and vncleane lust and filthinesse. ✠ Exo. 20. 17. Deut. 5. 21. q Though sinne be in vs, yet is it not knowen for sinne, neither doth it so rage, as it rageth after that the law is knowen. s He setteth him selfe before vs for an example, in whom all men may beholde, first, what they are of nature before an example, in whom all men may beholde, first, what they are of nature before they earthelily thinke vpon the law of God: to wit, blockish, and ready to sinne and wickednes, without all true sence and feeling of sinne, then what manner of persons they become, when their conscience is reproued by y testimonie of the law, to wit, stubburne, and more enflamed with the desire of sinne, then euer they were before. q When I knew not the law, then me thought I liued in deed: for my conscie nce neuer troubled me, because yt knew not my disease. r When I began to vnderstand the commandmẽt, I sinne, or by sinne. ✠ The conclusion: That the lawe of it selfe is holy, but all the fault is in vs which abuse the law.

1 He concludeth that there is no condemnation to them, who are grafted in Christ through his Spirit, howsoever they be accused burdened with sinnes. 9 For they liue through that Spirit. 14 Whose testimonie, 17 driueth away all feare. 28 And reioyceth our present miseries.

NOw 1 there there is no condemnation to them that are in Christ Iesus, which a walke not after the a flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 3 For the b Law of the Spirit of c life which is in d Christ Iesus, hath e freed me from the Law of sinne and of death.

3 4 For (that that was f impossible to the Law, in as much as it was weake, because of the g flesh) God sending his owne Sonne, in the similitude of c sinfull flesh, and for 1 sinne, h condemned sin in the flesh,

4 That that i righteousnes of the Lawe might be fulfilled 2 in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 6 For they that are after the m flesh, sauour the things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 7 For the wisedome of the flesh is death: but the wisdome of the Spirit is life and peace,

7 8 Because the wisedome of the flesh is enimitie against God: for it is not subiect to the Law of God, neither in deed can be.

8 10 So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 11 Now ye are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, because ŷ spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not ŷ Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.

10 12 And

1 A conclusion of all the former disputation from vers. 16. of chap. 1. euen to this place: Seeing that wee being iustified by faith in Christ, do obtaine remission of sinne and imputation of righteousnes, and are also sanctified, it followeth hereof, that they that we grafted into Christ by faith, are out of all feare of condemnation.

2 The fruits of the Spirit, or effects of sanctification, which is begun in vs, doe not ingraft vs into Christ, but doe declare that wee are grafted into him.

a Follow not the flesh for their guides: for he is not sayd to liue after the flesh, that hath the holy Ghost for his guide, though sometimes he step away.

3 A preuenting of an obiection: seeing that the vertue of the Spirit which is in vs, is so weake, how may we gather thereby, that there is no condemnation to them that haue that vertue? because faith he, that vertue of the quicking spirit which is so weake in vs, is most perfit and most mighty in Christ, and being imputed vnto vs which beleeue, causeth vs to be so accounted of, as though there were no reliques of corruption, and death in vs. Therefore hither to Paul disputed of remission of sins, and imputation of fulfilling the Law, and also of sanctification which is begun in vs: but now he speaketh of the perfit imputation of Christs manhood, which part was necessarily requisite to the full appeasing of our consciences: for our sinnes are defaced by the blood of Christ, and the guiltines of our corruption is couered with the imputation of Christ obedience: and the corruption it selfe (which the Apostle calleth sinfull sinne) is healed in vs by little and little, by the gift of sanctification, though yet it lacketh besides that another remedy, to wit, the perfect sanctification of Christes owne flesh, which also is to vs imputed. b The power & authority of the Spirit, against which is set the tyranny of sin. c Which mortifieth the olde man, and quickneth the new man. d To wit, absolutely and perfitly. e For Christs sanctification being imputed vnto vs, perfiteth our sanctification which is begun in vs. 4 Hereof no argument here, but rather pououdeth the mystery of sanctification, which is imputed vnto vs: for because faith he, that the vertue of the law was not such (and that by reason of the corruption of our nature) that it could make man pure and perfit: and for that it rather kindled the disease of sin, then did put it out and extinguish it, therefore God cloathed his Son with flesh like vnto our sinfull flesh, wherein he vtterly abolished our corruption, that being accounted thorowly pure and without fault in him apprehended & layd hold on by faith, we might be found to haue fully that singular perfection which the Law requireth, & therefore that there might be no condemnation in vs. f Which is not proper to the Law, but common by our fault. g In man not born anew, whose disease the law could paint out, but it could not heale it. h Of mans nature which was corrupt through sin, vntil he sanctified it. i To abolish sin in our flesh. k Shewed that sin hath no right in vs. l The very substance of the Law of God might be fulfilled, or that same which the law requireth, that wee may be found iust before God: for if with our iustification there be ioyned that sanctification which is imputed to vs, we are iust, according to that perfect forme which the Lord requireth. 5 He reiecteth to that which he said, that the sanctification which is begun in vs, is a sure testimony of our ingrafting into Christ: which is a most plentifull fruit of a godly & honest life. 6 & reason why we walke after the flesh, agreeth not to them which are grafted in Christ, but to walke after the Spirit agreeth and is meet for them: because, saith he, that they which are after the flesh, sauour the things of the flesh, but they that are after the spirit, the things of the spirit. m Vnder that line as the flesh leadeth them. 7 He proueth the consequent: because that whatsoeuer the flesh sauoureth, that ingendreth death: and whatsoeuer the spirit sauoureth, that tendeth to ioy and life euerlasting. 7 A reason and proofe, why the wisedome of the flesh is death: because, saith he, it is the enemy of God. 9 A reason why the wisdome of the flesh is enemy to God, because it neither will neither can be subiect to him. And by flesh he meaneth a man not regenerate. 10 The conclusion: therefore they that walke after the flesh, cannot please God: whereby it followeth that they are not ingrafted into Christ. 11 He commeth to the others, to wit, to them which walke after the spirit: of whom we haue to vnderstand contrary things to the former: and first of all he defineth what it is to be in the spirit, or to be sanctified; to wit, to haue the spirit of God dwelling in vs; then he declareth, that sanctification is so ioyned and knit to our grafting in Christ, that it can by no meanes be separated.

12 He confirmeth the faithfull against the reliques of flesh and sinne, greeting that they are yet (as appeareth by the corruption which is in them) touching one of their parts (which he calleth the body, that is to say, a lumpe) which is not yet purged from his earthly filthines, in death: but therewithall willing them to doubt nothing of the happy successe of his combate, because that euen the litle sparke of the Spirit, (that is of the grace of regeneration) which appeareth to be in them by the fruits of righteousnesse, is the seede of life.

a The flesh, or all that whereo as yet sticked fast in the slesh of sinne, and death.

13 A confirmation of the former sentence: You haue the selfe same Spirit, which Christ hath: Therefore at length it shall doe the same in you, that it did in Christ, to wit, when all infirmities being vtterly layd aside, and dead ouercome, it shall cloath you with heauenly glory.

b By the vertue and power of it, which shewed the same might first in our head, and day by worketh in his members. 14 An exhortation to oppresse the flesh dayly more and more by the vertue of the Spirit of regeneration, because (saith he) you are debters vnto God, for so much as you haue receiued so many benefites of him. 15 Another reason of the profit that ensueth: for such as striue and fight valiantly, shall haue euerlasting life. 16 A confirmation of this reason: for they be the children of God, which are gouerned by his Spirit, therefore shall they haue life euerlasting. 17 He declareth and expoundeth by the way, in these two verses, by what right this name, to be called the children of God, is giuen to the beleeuers: because faith bee, they haue receiued the grace of the Gospel, wherein God sheweth himselfe, not (as before in the publishing of the Law) terrible, and fearefull, but a most benigne & louing Father in Christ, to that with great boldnes we call him Father, the holy Ghost sealing their adoption in our hearts by faith.

c By the Spirit is meant the holy Ghost, whom we are said to receiue, when he worketh in our minds. d Which feare is stirred vp in our minds, by the preaching of the Law. e Which sealeth our adoption in our minds, and therefore exerteth our mouthes. 18 A proofe of the consequent of the confirmation: because that he which is the Sonne of God, doeth enioy God with Christ. f Partakers of our fathers goods, and that freely, because we are children by adoption. 19 Now Paul teacheth by what way the sonnes of God doe come to that felicitie, to wit, by the crosse, as Christ himselfe did: and therewithall openeth vnto them fountaines of comfort: as first, that we haue Christ a companion & fellow of our afflictions: secondly, that we shallbe also his fellowes in that euerlasting glory. 20 Thirdly, that this glory which we looke for doeth a thousand parts surmount the misery of our afflictions. g All being well considered, I gather. 21 Fourthly, he plainely teacheth vs that wee shall certainely be restored from that confusion and horrible deformation of the whole world, which cannot be continuall, as it was not at the beginning: But as it had a beginning by the sinne of man, for whom it was made by the ordinance of God, so shall it at length be restored with the elect. h All this world. i Is subiect to a vanishing & flitting state. k Not by their naturall inclination. l That they should obey the Creatours commandements, whom it pleased to subdue by their fickle estate, how greatly he was displeased with man, a God would not make the world subiect to euerlasting casse, for the sinne of man, but gaue it hope that it should be restored. m From the corruption which they are now subiect to, they shalbe deliuered and changed into that blessed state of incorruption, which shalbe reuealed when the sonnes of God shallbe aduanced to glory. n By this word is meant, not onely exceeding sorow, but also the fruit that followeth of it. 22 Fifthly, if the rest of the world looke for a restoring, groning as it were for it, and that not in vaine, let it not grieue vs also to sigh, yea, let vs be more certainely perswaded of our redemption to come, forasmuch as we haue the first fruits of the Spirit,

10 22 And if Christ be in you, the a body is dead, because of sinne: but the Spirit is life for righteousnesse sake.

11 23 But if the Spirit of him that raised vp Iesus from the dead, dwell in you, he that raised vp Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortall bodies, by his Spirit that b dwelleth in you.

12 24 Therefore brethren, wee are debters not to the flesh, to liue after the flesh:

13 25 For if ye liue after the flesh, yee shall die: but if ye mortifie the deedes of the body by the Spirit, ye shall liue.

14 26 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.

15 27 For yee haue not receiued the c Spirit of bondage, to d feare againe: but ye haue receiued the Spirit of e adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The same Spirit beareth witnesse with our spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 28 If we be children, we are also f heires, euen the heires of God, and heires annexed with Christ: 29 if so be that wee suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him.

18 30 For I g count that the afflictions of this present time are not worthy of the glory, which shallbe shewed vnto vs.

19 31 For the feruent desire of the h creature waiteth when the sonnes of God shallbe reuealed,

20 Because the creature is subiect to i vanitie, not of it k owne will, but by reason l of him, which hath subdued it vnder m hope,

21 Because the creature also shall be deliuered from thebbondage of corruption into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God.

22 For wee know that euery creature groneth with vs also, and n trauaileth in paine together vnto this present.

23 32 And not onely the creature, but we also which haue the first fruites of the Spirit, euen wee doe sigh in our o selues, waiting for the adoption, euen p the redemption of our body.

24 33 For wee are saued by hope: but q hope that is seene, is not hope: for how can a man hope for that which he seeth?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, wee doe with patience abide for it.

26 34 Likewise the Spirit also r helpeth our infirmities: for wee know not what to pray as wee ought: but the Spirit it selfe maketh s request for vs with sighs, which cannot be expressed.

27 But hee that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the t meaning of the Spirit: for he maketh request for ‡ Saints, according to the will of God.

28 35 Also we know that u all things worke together for the best vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of his x purpose.

29 For those which hee knew before, he also predestinate to bee made like to the image of his Sonne, that hee might be the first borne among many brethren.

30 Moreouer, whom he y predestinate, them also he called, & whom he called, them also he iustified, and whom he iustified, them he also glorified.

31 36 What shall wee then say to these things? If God be on our side, who can be against vs?

32 Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gaue him for vs all to death, how shall he not with him z giue vs all things also?

33 37 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods chosen? it is ‡ God that iustifieth.

34 Who shall condemne? it is Christ which is dead: yea, or rather, which is risen againe, who is also at the right hand of God, and maketh request also for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of a Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakednesse, or perill, or sword?

36 As it is written, ‡ For thy sake are we killed all day long: we are coted as sheep for ‡ slaughter.

37 b Neuerthelesse, in all these things wee are more then conquerers through him that loued vs.

38 For I am perswaded that neither death, nor life, nor Angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate vs from the loue of God, which is in Christ Iesus our Lord.

d Euen from the bottome of our hearts.

e That last restoring, which shalbe the accomplishment of our adoption.

23 Sixtly, hope is necessarily ioyned with faith: seeing then that we beleeue those things, which we are not yet possession of, and hope re-specteth not the thing that is present, we must therefore hope and patiently wait for that which we beleeue shall come to passe.

f This is spoken by the figure Metonymie: Hope, for that which is hoped for.

24 Seuenthly, There is no cause why we should faint vnder the burden of afflictions, seeing that prayers minister vnto vs a most sure helpe, which can not be fruitlesse, seeing they proceed from the spirit of God, which dwelleth in vs.

g Beareth our burden, as it were that we faint not vnder it.

h Prayeth vs to prayers, and teacheth vs as it were without in, what we shall say, and how we shall grone.

i What sobs and sighs proceed from the instinct of his Spirit.

k Because he teacheth the godly to pray according to Gods will.

25 Eightly, we are not afflicted, either by chance or to our owne hurt, but by Gods prouidence for our great profit, who as he chose vs from the beginning, so that hee predestinate vs to be made like to the image of his Sonne: and therefore will bring vs in his time, being called and iustified, to glory, by the crosse. l Not onely afflictions, but whatsoeuer els. m He calleth that, Purpose, which God hath from euerlasting appointed with himselfe according to his good will & pleasure. n He vseth the time past, for the time present, as the Hebrews vse, who sometime set down the thing that is to come, by the time that is past, to signifie the certainty of it: & he hath also a regard to Gods continuall working.

26 Ninthly, wee haue no cause to feare that the Lord will not giue vs what soeuer is profitable for vs, seeing that hee hath not spared his owne Sonne to saue vs. o Giue vs freely. 27 A most glorious and comfortable conclusion of the whole second part of this Epistle, that is, of the treatise of iustification. There are no accusers that wee haue neede to be afraid of before God, seeing that God himselfe absolueth vs as iust: and therefore much lesse neede wee to feare damnation, seeing that we rest vpon the death and resurrection, the almightie power and defence of Iesus Christ. Therefore what can there be to weighie in vs this life, or of so great force & power, that might feare vs, as though we might fall from the lone of God, wherewith he loueth vs in Christ: Surely nothing. Seeing y it is in it selfe most constant & sure, & also in vs being confirmed by stedfast faith. p Who pronounceth vs, not onely guiltlesse, but also perfitly iust in his Sonne. q Wherewith Christ loueth vs. ‡ Psal 44.22. r We are not onely not ouercome with sorrow and many miseries and calamities, but also more then conquerors in all of them.

1 The third part of his Epistle, euen to the twelfe Chapter, wherein Paul ascendeth to the higher causes of faith: and first of all, because he purposed to speake much of the calling off of the Iewes, he vseth an insinuation, declaring by a double or triple oathe, and by witnessing of his great desire towards their saluation, his singular loue towards them and there withall granting vnto them all their prerogatiues.

a The Apostle loued his brethren so entirely, that if it had beene possible, he would haue beene ready to haue redeemed the calling away of the Israelites, with the losse of his owne soule for euer: for this word separate, betokeneth as much in this place.

b Being brethren by flesh, as of one nation and countrey.

c The arke of the couenant, which was a token of Gods presence.

✣ Chap. 2.17. ephe. 2.12. d The tables of the couenant: and this is spoken by the figure Metonymia. e Of the iudicial Lawe. f The ceremoniall Lawe. g Which were made to Abraham and to his posteritie. 2 A most manifest testimonie of the Godhead and diuinitie of Christ. ✣ Chap. 2.28. 3 He entreth into the handling of predestination by a kind of preuenting an obiection: How may it be, that Israel is cast off, but that therewithall wee must also make the couenant which God made with Abraham and his seede, fruitlesse and void? The answere is therefore, that Gods word is true, although that Israel be cast off: for the election of the people of Israel is so generall and common, that notwithstanding the same, God chuseth by his secret counsell, such as it pleaseth him. So the first is the proposition and state of this Treatise: The grace of saluation is offered generally in such sort, that notwithstanding it, the efficacie thereof pertaineth only to the elect. h Israel in the first place, is take for Iaakob, and in the second, for the Israelites. ✲ Gen. 21.12. hebr. 11.18. 4 The first proofe is taken from the example of Abrahams owne house, wherein Isaac onely was accounted the sonne, and that by Gods ordinance: although Ismael also was borne of Abraham, & circumcised before Isaac. i Isaac shall be thy true & naturall sonne, & therefore heire of thy blessing. 5 A generall application of the former proofe or example. k Which are borne of Abraham by the course of nature. ✲ Galat. 4.28. l Which are borne by vertue of the promise. 6 A reason of that application: Because that Isaac was borne by y vertue of the promise, & therefore nee was not chosen, nay nee was not at all, but by the free will of God: whereby it followeth that the promise is the fountaine of predestination, and not the flesh from which promise the particular election proceedeth: that is, that the elect be borne elect, and not that they be first borne and then afterward elected, in respect of God who doeth predestinate. ✲ Gen. 18.10. 7 Another forcible proofe, taken from the example of Esau and Iacob, which were both borne of the same Isaac, which was the sonne of the promise, of one mother, & at one birth, and not at diuers as Ismael & Isaac were: and yet notwithstanding, Esau being cast off, onely Iacob was chosen: and that before their birth, that neither any goodnesse of Iacobs might be thought to be the cause of his election, neither any wickednes of Esaus of his casting away. ✲ Gene 25.21. m Gods decree, which proceedeth of his meere good will, wherby it pleased him to chuse one, and refuse the other. 8 Paul saith not, might be made, but some made, maydes remaine. Therefore they are deceiued which make foreseene faith the cause of election, and foreknowen infidelitie, the cause of reprobation. 9 He prooueth the casting away of Esau by that, that hee was made seruant to his brother: and prooueth the chusing of Iacob by that that hee was made Lord of his brother, although his brother were the first begotten. And least that any man might take this saying of God, & referre it to externall things, the Apostle sheweth out of Malachi, who is a good interpreter of Moses, that the seruitude of Esau was ioyned with the hatred of God, & the Lordship of Iacob with the loue of God. ✲ Gen. 25.23.

10 The first obiection: Is God doth loue or hate vpon no consideration of worthines or vnworthines, then is he vniust, because he may loue them which are vnworthy, and hate them that are worthy. The Apostle detesteth this blasphemie, and afterward answereth it seuerally, point by point.

It May not knowen vnto vs other causes of loue or hatred, out those that are in the persons, and therevpon this obiection riseth.

11 He answereth of whom, he denieth that to be to saluation, them to whom he bringeth not the chosen to the appointed end, but by the meanes of his mercie, which is a cause next vnder predestination. Now mercy presupposeth miserie, and against miserie presupposeth sinne or voluntarie corruption of mankind, and corruption presupposeth a pure and perfect creation. Moreouer mercy is shewed by her degrees: to wit, by calling, by faith, by iustification and sanctification, so that at length we come to glorification, as the Apostle will shew afterward. Now of all these things, order y following the purpose of God, doe clearely proouе that he can by no meanes seeme vniust in louing and sauing his. ✣ Exod. 33.19. o I will be merciefull & shewrable to whom I list to be shewrable. p I will haue compassion on whom soeuer I list to haue compassion. 12 The conclusion of the answere: Therefore God is not iniust in chusing & sauing of his free goodnes, such as it pleaseth him, as he also answereth Moses, when he prayed for all the people, q By wishing meanes the thought & endeauour of heart, & by vttering good words: to neither of which he giueth the prayse, but onely to the mercy of God. 13 Now hee answereth concerning y reprobate or the whom God hateth being not yet borne, & hath appointed to destruction, without any respect of vnworthines. And first of all hee prooueth this to be true, by a leading y testimonie of God himselfe touching Pharao, whom he stirred vp to this purpose, that he might be glorified in his hardning and iust punishing. r God so speaketh vnto Pharao in the Scripture, or, the Scripture bringeth in God so speaking to Pharao, Exod. 9.16. s Brought thee into this world. 14 Secondly, he bringeth the end of Gods counsell, to shewe y there is no vnrighteousnes in him. Now this chiefest end, is not properly & simply the destruction of the wicked, but Gods glory which appeareth in their rightful punishmer. 15 A conclusion of the full answere to the first obiection: therefore seeing God doth not saue them whom he freely chose according to his good will & pleasure, but by iustifying & sanctifying them by his grace, his counsell in sauing them cannot seeme vniuſt. And againe, there is no vniustice in the euerlasting counsell of God touching the destruction of them whom he litteth to destroy, for that he hardeneth before he destroyeth: Therefore the third answere for the maintenance of Gods iustice is the euerlasting counsel of reprobation, consisteth in this word Hardening: which notwithstanding he concealed in the former verse, because the History of Pharao was well knowē. But the force of the word is great: for Hardning, which is set against Mercy, presupposeth the same things that mercy did, to wit, a voluntary corruption, wherein the reprobate are hardened: and againe corruption presupposeth a perfit state of creation. Moreouer, this hardning also is voluntary, for God so hardeneth being offended with corruption, that he first in their owne act whom he hardeneth, to the executing of that iudgement. Then follow the fruits of Hardening, to wit, vnbeliefe and sinne, which are the true & proper causes of the condemnation of the reprobate. Why doeth he then appoint to destruction? because he will: why doeth he hee harden? because they are corrupt: why doeth he condemne? because they are sinners. Where is then y vnrighteousnesse? Nay, if hee should deale otherwise with this same sort, to whom should he doe iniurie? t Whom it pleased him to appoint, to shewe his fauour vpon. 16 An other obiection but onely for the reprobate, arising vpon the former answere. If God doe appoint to euerlasting destruction, such as hee listeth, and of that cannot be hindred: how is it stanfied that he hath once decreed how doth he iustly condemne them, which perish by his will? 17 The Apostle doeth not answere that it is not Gods will, or that God doth not either reiect or elect according to his pleasure, which thing the wicked call blasphemie, but he rather graunteth his aduersarie both y antecedents, to wit, that it is Gods will, and that it must of necessitie so fall out, yet he denieth that God is therefore to be thought an vniust reuenger of the wicked: for seeing it appeareth by manifest proofe that this is the will of God and his doing, what impudencie is it for man, which is but dust and ashes to dispute wh God, and as it were to call him into iudgement? Now if any man say that the dough is not so diuided and answered, I answere, that there is no fairer demonstration in any matter, because it is grounded vnto this principle, That the will of God is the rule of righteousnesse. 18 An amplification of the former answere, taken from a comparison, whereby also it appeareth that Gods determinate counsell is set of Paul the chiefe of all causes, so that it dependeth not vpon any respect of second causes, but doth rather frame and direct them. ✣ Ejai. 45.9. u Let simsimdah agreeth very fitly vn the first creation of mankinde.

him that formed it, Why hast thou made mee thus?

21 ✣ 19 Hath not the potter power of the clay to make of the same lumpe one [20] vessell to [x] honour, and another vnto [21] dishonour?

22 [22] What and if God would, to shewe his wrath, and to make his power knowen, suffer with long patience the [y] vessels of wrath, prepared to [23] destruction?

23 And that hee might declare the [z] riches of his glory vpon [y] vessels of mercie, which he hath prepared vnto glory?

24 [24] Euen vs whom he had called, not of the [a] Iewes onely, but also of the Gentiles.

25 [25] As he saith also in Osee, ✣ I will call them, My people, which were not my people: and her, Beloued, which was not beloued.

26 And it shall be in the place where it was saide vnto them, [v] Yee are not my people, that there they shallbe called, The children of the liuing God.

27 [26] Also Esaias cryeth concerning Israel, ✣ Though the number of the children of Israel were as the sand of the sea, yet shall but a remnant be saued.

28 For hee will make his account, and gather it into a [b] short summe with righteousnesse: for the Lord will make a short count in the earth.

29 ✣ And as Esaias said before, Except the Lord of [c] hoastes had left vs a [d] seede, we had bene made as Sodome, and had beene like to Gomorrha.

30 [27] What shall wee say then? That the Gentiles which followed [e] not righteousnesse, haue attained vnto righteousnesse, euen the righteousnesse which is of faith.

31 [28] But Israel which followed the Lawe of righteousnesse, could not attaine vnto the Law of righteousnesse.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the [f] workes of the Lawe:

for they haue stumbled at the stumbling stone,

33 As it is written, ✣ Beholde, I lay in Sion a stumbling stone, and a rocke to make men fall: and euery one that beleeueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

CHAP. X.

1 Hee handleth the effects of election, 3 that some refuse, and some embrace. 4 Christ, who is the end of the Law. 15 Hee sheweth that Moses foretolde the calling of the Gentiles, 20 and Esaias the hardening of the Iewes.

BRethren, mine hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saued.

2 For I beare them record, that they haue the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 [1] For they, [a] being ignorant of the righteousnesse of God, and going about to [b] stablish their owne righteousnesse, haue not submitted themselues to the righteousnesse of God.

4 ✣ [2] For Christ is the [c] end of the Lawe for righteousnesse vnto [d] euery one that beleeueth.

5 ✣ For Moses thus describeth the righteousnesse which is of the Law, [v] That the man which doeth these things, shall liue thereby.

6 But the righteousnes which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, ✣ [e] Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heauen? (that is to bring Christ from aboue.)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deepe? (that is to bring Christ againe from the dead.)

8 [3] But what saith it? ✣ The [f] worde is neere thee, euen in thy mouth, and in thine heart. This is the word of faith which we preach.

9 [4] For if thou shalt [g] confesse with thy mouth the Lord Iesus, and shalt beleeue in thine heart, that [h] God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saued:

10 For with the heart man [i] beleeueth vnto righteousnesse, and with the mouth man confesseth to saluation.

11 [5] For the Scripture saith, [k] Whosoeuer beleeueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference betweene the Iew and the Grecian: for hee that is Lord ouer all, is rich vnto all that call on him.

19 Alluding to the creation of Adam, he compareth mankinde not yet made (but in the Creators minde) to a lumpe of clay: where-of afterward God made and doth dayly make according as he purposed from euerlasting, both such as should be elect, and such as should be reprobate, as also this word, making, declareth.

20 Whereas in the obiection propounded, mention was onely made of vessels to dishonour: yet he speaketh of the other also in this answere, for that he proueth the Creator to be iust in either of them, as the rule of contraries doeth require.

21 Seeing then, that in the same of dishonour, the ignorance of euerlasting death is signified, they speake with Paul, which say, that some are made of God to moit iust destruction: and they that are offended with this kind of speech beway their owne folly.

22 The second answere is this, that God, moreouer as I besides that he doeth iustly decree whatsoeuer he doeth decree, vseth that moderation in executing of his decrees, as declareth his singular lenitie euen in the reprobare, in that, that he suffreth them a long time, and permitteth them to enioy many and singular benefits, vntill at length hee iustly condemne them. and that to good end and purpose, to wit, to shewe himselfe to be an enemie and reuenger of wickednesse. that is, many appeare what power hee is of by these seuere iudgements, and finally by comparison of contraries to set foorth indeede, how great his mercie is towards the elect.

23 Therefore againe, wee may say with Paul, that some men are made of God the Creator to destruction.

z The vnmeasurable and marueilous greatnesse.

24 Hauing established the doctrine of the eternall predestination of God on both parts: that is, as well of the reprobate, as of the elect: hee commeth now to shewe the vse of it, teaching vs that wee ought not to seeke the testimonie of it in the secret counsell of God, but by the vocation which is made manifest and set foorth to the Church, propounding vnto vs the example of the Iewes & Gentiles, that the doctrine may be better perceiued.

a He saieth not that all and euery one of the Iewes are called, but some of the Iewes, and some of the Gentiles.

25 Our vocation or calling is free and of grace, euen as our predestination is: and therefore there is no cause why either our owne vnworthinesse, or the vnworthinesse of our ancestors should cause vs to thinke that wee are not the elect and chosen of God, if wee be called of him, and so embrace through faith the saluation that is offered vs. ✣ Hos.2.23. 1 peter 2.10 y Hos.1.10. 26 Contrariwise, Neither any outwarde generall calling, neither any worthinesse of our ancetters, is a sufficient witnesse of election, vnlesse by faith and beliefe wee answere Gods calling, which thing came to passe in the Iewes, as the Lord had forewarned.

✣ Isai.10.22.b God purposeth to bring the vnkinde and vnthankefull people to an extreme fewnesse. ✣ Isai.1.9. c Armies, by which word the chiefest power that is, is giuen to God. d Euen a very fewe. 27 The declaration and manifestation of our election, is our calling apprehended by faith, as it came to passe in the Gentiles. e Sothen, the Gentiles had no workes to prepare & procure Gods mercie before hande, and as for that, that the Gentiles attained to that which they sought not for, the mercy of God is to be thanked for it: and in that the Iewes attained not to that which they sought after, they can thanke none for it but themselues, because they sought it not aright. 28 The pride of man is the cause that they condemne vocation, so that the cause of their damnation needs not to be sought for any other where but in themselues. f Seeking to come by righteousnesse, they followed the Law of righteousnesse.

1 Purposing to set foorth in the Iewes an example of marueilous obstinacie, he vseth an insinuation.

2 The first entrance into the vocation vnto saluation. is to renounce our owne righteousnesse: the next is, to embrace that righteousnesse by faith, which God freely offereth vs in the Gospel.

a The ignorance of the Law which was ought to know, exciteth none before God, especially is excuseth not them that are of his houshold.

c The proofe: The Law it selue hath respect vnto Christ that such as beleeue in him should be saued. Therefore the calling to saluation by the workes of the Law, is vaine and foolish, but Christ is offered for saluation to euery beleeuer.

c The end of the Law is to institute them that keepe the Law: but seeing we do not obserue the Law through the fault of our flesh, wee attaine not vnto this ende: But Christ saueth this defaute, for hee fulfilled the Law for vs, & Not onely to the Iewes, but also to the Gentiles. 4 That the Law regardeth and tendeth to Christ, that is a manifest proofe, for that it propoundeth such a condition, as can be and is fulfilled of none but of Christ onely: which being imputed vnto vs by faith, our conscience is quieted, so that now no man can make, who can accuse vp into heauen, or bring vs from hell, seeing the Gospel teacheth that both of these is done by Christ, and that for their sakes, which with true faith embrace him which calleth them. ✣ Leui.18.5. ezek.20.13. ✣ Deut.30.12. e Thinke not with thy selfe, as men that are staggering vse to doe. f Vocation commeth by the worde preached. ✣ Deuteron.30.14. g By the word, Moses vnderstoode the Lawe which the Lord published with his owne voyce: and Paul applied it to the preaching of the Gospel which was the perfection of the Lawe. 6 That is indeede true faith which is setled not onely in the head, but also in the heart of man, whereof also wee giue testimonie, by our outward life, and which teedeth to Christ as to our alone & onely Sauiour, euen as hee setteth forth himselfe in his word. h If thou professe plainely, sincerely, and openly, that thou takest Iesus onely to be thy Lord and Sauiour. i The Father, who is saide to haue raised the Sonne from the dead: and this is not spoken to shut out the diuinitie of the Sonne, but to set foorth the Fathers counsell touching our redemption in the resurrection of the Sonne. i Faith is saide to iustifie, and furthermore seeing the confession of the mouth is an effect of faith, and confession is the way to come to saluation, it followeth that faith is also saide to saue. 7 Nowe hee prooueth the other part which hee propounded afore in the fourth verse, to wit, that Christ called whomsoeuer hee listeth without any difference, and this he confirmeth by a double testimonie. ✣ Isai.28.16. k To beleeue on God is to yeelde and consent to God his promise of our saluation by Christ, and that not onely in generall: but when wee know that the promises pertaine vnto vs, whereupon riseth a sure trust. ✣ Ioel.2.32. 8 True calling vpon the Name of God is the testimonie of true faith, and true faith of true vocation or calling, and true calling, of true election.

9 That is, true faith, which seeketh God in his word, and that preached, according as God hath appointed in the Church.
10 Wheresoeuer faith is, there is also the word, but not contrary wise, wheresoeuer the word is, there is faith also: for many refuse and reiect the word.
‡ He speakes this because of the Iewes.
✠ Isa. 53, 1. Iohn 12.38.
11 A conclusion of the former gradation: we must ascend from faith to our vocation, as by our vocation we came to the testimonie of our election.
m By Gods Commandement.
12 An obiection: If calling be a testimony of election, were not the Iewes called? why should I not graunt that, faith the Apostle, seeing that there is no nation which hath not beene called? much lesse can I say, that the Iewes were not called. ✠ Psal. 19.3. 13 The defender and mainteiner of the Iewes cause, geeth on still to aske, whether the Iewes also knew not God which called them. Esay (saith the Apostle) deaieth it, and witnesseth that the Gospel was translated from them to the Gentiles, because the Iewes neglected it. And therewithall the Apostle reacheth, that that our ward and vniuersall calling, which is set foorth by the creation of the world, sufficeth not to the knowledge of God: yea, and that the particular also which is by the word of God, is of it selfe smalle or no efficacie, vnlesse it be apprehended or layd holde on by faith, by the gift of God: otherwise by vnbeleefe it is made reprobitable, and that by the onely fault of man, who can pretend no ignorance.
✠ Deuter. 32.21. n He calleth all profane people, a nation that is no nation, as they are not suffred to line but to die, which are appointed for euerlasting condemnation. ✠ Isa. 65, 1. o Speaketh without feare. * Isa. 65.2.

CHAP. XI.

1 Least the casting off of the Iewes should be limitted according to the outward appearance, 4 he proueth that Elias was in times past deceiued: 16 and that, seeing they haue an oliue roote, 23 many of them likewise shalbe holy. 18, 24 He exhorteth the Gentiles to be humble, 33 & crieth out, that Gods iudgements are vnsearcheable.

I Demand then, a Hath God cast away his people? God forbid: for b I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Beniamin.
2 God hath not cast away his people which he c knew before. ✠ Know yee not what the Scripture saith of Elias, how hee communeth with God against Israel, saying,
3 ✠ Lord, they haue killed thy Prophets, and digged downe thine Altars: and I am left alone, a Now the Apostle shewes, how this doctrine is to be applied to others, abiding still in his propounded cause. Therefore hee teacheth vs that all the Iewes in particular are not cast away, and therefore we ought not to pronounce rashly of priuate persons, whether they be of the number of the elect or not. 1 The first proofe, I am a Iew, and yet elected, therefore wee may and ought fully resolue vpon our election, & hath beene before said: but of another matter we cannot be so certainely resolued, and yet ought may safely vnto hope well of others. 2 The second proofe: Because that God is faithfull in his league or Couenant, although men be vnfaithfull: So then seeing that God hath said, that hee will be the God of his vnto a thousand generations, wee must take heede, that wee thinke not that the whole race & offspring is cast off, by reasone of the vnbeleefe of a fewe, but rather, that wee hope well of euery member of the Church, because of Gods league and Couenant. a Which he tooke and chose from euerlasting. 4 The third proofe, taken from the answere that was made to Elias: euen then also, when there appeared openly to the face of the world no elect, yet God knewe his elect and chosen, and of them also good store and number. Wherevpon this also is concluded, that we ought not rashly to pronounce of any man as of a reprobate, seeing that the Church is oftentimes brought to that state, that euen the most watchfull and sharpe sighted pastours thinke it be cleane extinct and put out. ✠ 1. King. 19, 10.

4 But what saith the answere of God to him? ✠ I haue b reserued vnto my selfe seuen thousande men, which haue not bowed the knee to c Baal.
5 Euen so then, at this present time is there a remnant according to the d election of grace.
6 5 And if it be of grace, it is e no more of workes: or els were grace no more grace: but if it be of works, it is no more grace, or els were worke no more worke.
7 What then? Israel hath not obteined that he sought: but the election hath obteined it, and the rest haue beene f hardened,
8 6 According as it is written, ✠ God hath giuen them the spirit of g slumber: eyes that they h should not see, and eares that they should not heare vnto this day.
9 And Dauid saith, ✠ i Let their table be made a snare, and a net, and a stumbling blocke, euen for a recompense vnto them.
10 Let their eyes be darkened that they see not, and bow downe their backe alwayes.
11 7 I demaund then, Haue they stumbled, that they should fall? God forbid: but through their fall, saluation commeth vnto the Gentiles, to prouoke them to follow them.
12 Wherefore if the fall of them be the k riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles, how much more shall their l aboundance be?
13 8 For in that I speake to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I m magnifie mine office, 14 To try if by any meanes I might prouoke them of my flesh to follow them, and might saue some of them.
15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiuing be, n but life from the dead?
16 9 For if the o first fruites be holy, so is the whole lumpe: and if the Proote be holy, so are the branches.

b He speaketh of remnants and reserued people, which were chosen from euerlasting, and not of remnants that should be chosen afterward: for they are not chosen, because they were not idolaters, but therefore they were not idolaters, because they were chosen and elect.
c Baal signifieth as much as Master or patrone, or one in whose power an other is, which name the idolaters as this day giue their idoles, naming them patrones and patronesses or Lades.
d The election of grace, is not wrought by men vnder grace, but whereby God chose vs of his grace and goodnesse.
5 That although that all be not elect and chosen, yet let them that are elected, remember that they are freely chosen: and let them that stubburnly refuse the grace and free mercy of God, impute it vnto themselues.
e Thus saying beateth downe flat to the ground all the dolirme of all kindes and maner of workes, whereby our iustifieth of themselues doe teach, that workes are either wholy or partly the cause of our iustification. f Looke Marke 3.5. 6 And yet this hardnesse of heart commeth not but by Gods iust decree & iudgement, and yet without fault, when as hee so punishe in the vnthankefull by vsing from them all sense and perceiuerasse, & by doubling their darkenesse, that the benefites of God which are offered vnto them, doe redound to their iust destruction. ✠ Isa. 6.9, and 29.10. Matth. 13.14. John 12.40. Act. 28.26. g A very dead sleepe which taketh away all sense.
h That is, eyes vnfit to see. ✠ Psal. 69.23. i As vnhappy birdes are inticed to death by that wherein their sustenance, so did that onely thing turne to the Iewes destruction, out of which they sought life, to wit, the Law of God for the yet plenteous zeale wherof they refused the Gospel. 7 God appointed this casting out of the Iewes, that it might be an occasion to call the Gentiles: and againe might turne this calling of the Gentiles, to be an occasion to restore the Iewes, to wit, that they being inflamed and prouoked by emulation of the Gentiles, might themselues at length embrace the Gospel. And hereby we may learne, that the feuerities of God serueth aswell to the setting foorth of his glory as his mercie doeth, and also that God prepare himselfe a way to mercy, by his feuerities: so that we ought not rashly to despaire of any man, not proudly triumph ouer other men, but rather prouoke them to an holy emulation, that God may be glorified in the also. k By riches he meaneth the knowledge of the Gospel to euerlasting life: and by the world, all nations dispersed thorowout the whole world. l Of the Iewes, when the whole nation without exception shall come to Christ. 8 Hee witnesseth by his owne example, that hee goeth before all other in this behalfe. m I make noble and famous. 9 It shall come to passe that when the Iewes come to the Gospel, the world shall as it were quicken againe, and rise vp from death to life. 9 The patron of the Iewes, being considered in their stocke and roote, that is, in Abraham, is holy, although that many of the branches be cut off. Therefore in iudging of our brethren, wee must not sticke in their vnworthinesse, to thinke that they are at once all cast off, but we ought to consider the roote of the couenant, and rather goe backe to their ancesters which were faithfull, that wee may know that the blessing of ✠ Couenant reteth in some of their posteritie, as wee also finde proofe hereof in our selues. o Hee alludeth to the first fruites of those loaues, by the offering whereof all the whole crope of corne was sanctified, and they might vse the rest of the yeere following with good conscience. p Abraham.

16 There is no cause why the Gentiles which haue obtained mercy, should triumph ouer the Iewes which contemne the grace of God, seeing they are grafted into the Iewes ancesters. But let them rather take heed that also be not found in them which is worthily condemned in the Iewes. And herevnto also this generall doctrine may be gathered and taken, that wee ought to be studious of Gods glory, euen in respect of our neighbours: so far ought we to be from bragging and glorying, for that, that we are preferred before other by a singular grace.

q In place of those boughes which are broken off.

r It is against the common course of husbandry, that the barren iuice of the ympe is changed with the iuice of the good tree.

s We may reioyce in the Lord, but so that we despise not the Iewes, whom we ought rather to prouoke to that good fruiting with vs.

t See that thou stand in awe of God modestly and carefully.

17 ✣ 10 And though some of the branches be broken off, and thou being a wilde Oliue tree, wast graft in q for them, and made r partaker of the root and fatnesse of the Oliue tree:

18 s Boast not thy selfe against the branches: and if thou boast thy selfe, thou bearest not the roote, but the roote thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches are broken off, that I might be graft in.

20 Well: through vnbeliefe they are broken off, and thou standest by faith: be not high minded, but t feare.

21 For if God spared not the u naturall branches, take heede, least he also spare not thee.

22 11 Behold therefore the k bountifulnesse, and seueritie of God: toward them which haue fallen, seueritie: but toward thee, bountifulnesse, if thou continue in his y bountifulnesse: or els thou shalt also be cut off.

23 12 And they also, if they abide not still in vnbeliefe, shallbe graffed in: for God is able to graffe them in againe.

24 For if thou wast cut out of the Oliue tree, which was wilde by z nature, and wast graffed contrary to nature in a a right Oliue tree, howe much more shall they that are by nature, be grafted in their owne Oliue tree?

25 13 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this secret (least yee should be arrogant in your b selues) that partly obstinacie is come to Israel, vntill the fulnesse of the Gentiles be c come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saued, as it is written, ✣ The deliuerer shall come out of Sion, and shall turne away the vngodlinesse from Iacob.

27 And this is my couenant to them, ✣ When I shall take away their sinnes.

28 14 As concerning the d Gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the e election, they are beloued for the fathers sakes.

29 15 For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.

30 16 For euen as yee in times past haue not beleeued God, yet haue nowe obteined mercy through their vnbeliefe:

31 Euen so now haue they not beleeued by the mercy shewed vnto you, that they also may obtaine mercy.

32 For God hath shut vp all in vnbeliefe, that he might haue mercy on all.

33 17 O the deepenesse of the riches, both of the wisedome, and knowledge of God! how vnsearchable are his g iudgements, and his h wayes past finding out!

34 ✣ 18 For who hath knowen the mind of the Lord? or who was his counseller?

35 Or who hath giuen vnto him i first, and hee shalbe recompensed?

36 For of him, and through him, and for k him are all things: to him be glory for euer. Amen.

u Hee calleth them naturall, not because they had any holinesse of nature, but because they were borne of them whom the Lord set apart for himselfe, from other nations, by his league and couenant which he freely made with them. v Seeing the matter it selfe declareth that election commeth not by inheritance (although the fault be in men, and not in God, why the blessing of God is not perpetuall) wee must take good heede that that be not found in our selues, which wee thinke blameworthy in others, for the election is sure, but they that are truely elect and engraffed, are not proud in themselues with contempt of other, but with due reuerence to God, and loue toward their neighbour, runne to the marke which is set before them. x The tender and louing heart. y In that state which God his bountifulnesse hath aduanced thee vnto: and wee must marke here, that hee speaketh not of the election of euery priuate man which remaineth stedfast for euer, but of the election of the whole nation. z Many are now, for a season cut off, that is, are without the roote, which in their time shallbe graffed in: and againe there are a great sort, which after a sort, & touching the outward liuewe, seeme to be ingrafted, which notwithstanding through their owne fault afterward are cut off and cleane cast away: which thing is especially to be considered in nations and peoples, as in the Gentiles and Iewes. a Vnderstand nature, not as it was first made, but as it was corrupted in Adam, and so deriued from him to his posteritie. b Into the people of the Iewes which God had sanctified of his meere grace: and he speaketh of the whole nation, not of euery one part. c The blindenesse of the Iewes is neither so vniuersall that the Lord hath no elect in that nation, neither shall it be continuall: for there shallbe a time wherein they also (as the Prophets haue forewarned) shall effectually imbrace that which they doe now so stubbornly (for the most part reiect and) refuse. d That we be not proud within our selues. e Into the Church. ✣ Esai. 59. 20. ✣ Esai. 27. 9.

14 Againe, that he may ioyne the Iewes and Gentiles together as it were in one body, and especially may teach what duety the Gentiles owe to the Iewes, hee beateth it into their heads, that the nation of the Iewes is not vtterly cast off without hope of recouery. d Forasmuch as they receiued it not. e In that, that God reiecteth not what they deserue, but what he promised to Abraham. 15 The reason or proofe: because the couenant made with that nation of life euerlasting cannot be fruitrate and vaine,

16 Another reason, because that although that they which are hardened, are worthily punished, yet hath not this stubbornesse of the Iewes so come to passe properly for an hatred to that nation, but that an entrie might as it were be opened to bring in the Gentiles, and afterward the Iewes being inflamed with emulation of that mercie which is shewed to the Gentiles, might themselues also be partakers of the same benefit, and so it might appeare that both Iewes and Gentiles are saued, onely by the free mercy and grace of God, which could not haue beene so manifest, if at the beginning, God had brought all together into the Church, or if he had saued the nation of the Iewes without this interruption. f Both Iewes and Gentiles. 17 The Apostle exclaimeth out as altonished with this wonderfull wisedome of God, which he reacheth vs, ought to be religiously reuerenced, and not curiously and prophanely to be searched beyond the compasse of that that God hath reuealed vnto vs. g The course that hee holdeth in gouerning all things both generall and particularly. h The order of his counsels and doings. ✣ Iob 41, 2. Esai. 40, 13 1 corinth. 2, 16. 18 He bridleth three maner of wayes, the wicked boldnesse of man. First, because that God is aboue all, most wise, and therefore it is very absurd, and plainely godlesse to measure him by our follie. Moreouer, because he is debtor to no man, and therefore no man can complaine of iniurie done vnto him. Thirdly because all things are made for his glory, and therefore we must referre all things to his glory, much lesse may wee contend and debate the matter with him. i This saying ouerthroweth the doctrine of foreseene workes and merits. k To wit, for God, to whose glory all things are referred, not onely things that were made, but especially his new workes which hee worketh in his elect.

CHAP. XII.

1 Hee exhorteth 1 to that worship which is acceptable to God: 9 to loue vnfained, 14, 20 euen towards our enemies.

I Beseech 1 you therefore brethren, a by the mercies of God, that yee b giue vp your c bodies d a liuing sacrificie, holy, acceptable vnto God, which is your e reasonable seruing of God.

2 2 And fashion not your selues like vnto this world, but bee yee changed by the renewing of your f minde, that yee may ✣ proouе what that good, and acceptable and perfect will of God is.

3 3 For I ✣ say through the grace that is giuen vnto me, to euery one that is among you, that no man h presume to vnderstand aboue that which is meete to vnderstand, but that he vnderstand according to i sobrietie, as God hath dealt to euery man the k measure of k faith.

1 The fourth part of this Epistle, which after the handling of the chiefe points of Christian doctrine, 2 consisteth in declaring of precepts of Christian life, and first of all he giueth generall precepts and grounds: the chiefest whereof is this, that euery man consecrate himselfe wholly to the spirituall seruice of God, and doe not as it were sacrifice himselfe, truthing to the grace of God. a By this preface hee sheweth that Gods glory is the vtmost ende of all our doings. b In times past the sacrifices were presented before the altar, but now the altar is euerywhere. c Your selues: in times past, other bodies then our owne, now our owne must be offered. d In time past, dead sacrifices were offered, but now we must offer such as haue the spirit of life in them. e Spirituall. 2 The second precept is this, That we take not other mens opinions or maners for a rule of life, but that we wholly renouncing this world, se before vs as our marke, the will of God, as it is manifested and opened vnto vs in his Word. f Why then there is no place left for reason, which the heath n Philosophers place as a Queene in a Castell, nor for mans free will, which the Popish schoolemen dreame on, if the minde must be renued. Looke Ephesians 1. 18. and 2, 5. and 4. 17. and Colossians 1, 21. ✣ Ephesians 5, 17. 1. thess 4. 3. 3 Thirdly hee admoniseth vs very earnestly, that euery man keepe himselfe within the bounds of his vocation, and that euery man be wise according to the measure of grace that God hath giuen him. g I charge. h That he please not himselfe too much, as they doe, which perswade themselues they know more then needeth they doe. We shall be sober, if we take not that vpon vs, which we haue not. ✣ 1. cor. 12, 11. eph. 4, 7. k By faith he meaneth the knowledge of God in Christ, and the gifts which the holy Ghost powreth vpon the faithfull.

4 There is a double reason of the precept going afore: the one is, because God hath not committed every thing to be done of every man: and therefore, he doeth backwardly, and not onely voprofitably, but also to the great disprofit of others, wearieth himselfe and others, which passeth the bounds of his vocation: the other is, for that this diuersitie and inequalitie of vocations and gifts, redoundeth to our commoditie: seeing that the same is therefore instituted and appointed, that we should be bound one to another. Wherevpon it followeth that no man ought to be grieued therefore, seeing that the vse of euery priuate gift is common.

5 That which he spake before in generall, he applieth particularly to the holy functions, wherein men offend with greater danger. And he diuideth them into two sorts, to wit, into Prophets, and Deacons: and againe he diuideth the Prophets into doctours, and Pastours. And of Deacons hee maketh three sorts: to wit, the one to be such as are (as it were) treasurers of the Church-coffers, whom hee calleth properly Deacons: the other to be the gouernours of discipline, who are called Seniors or Elders: the third to be such as properly serued in the helpe of the poore, of which sort the company of widowes were. t That euery man obserue the maner of that which is executed vnto him. u Whose office seeth is to expound the Scriptures. x Who in other places is called the Pastour. y To wit, the almes, that he distribute the faithfully, & without respect of person. ✣ Mat 6, 2. 2 cor. 9. 7. z The Elders of the Church. a They that are busied about tending on the poore, must doe it with cheerefulnesse least they adde sorow to sorow. b Now he commeth to the dueties of the second Table, which he deriueth from charitie, which is as it were the fountaine of them all. 13 * Distributing vnto the [t] necessities of the Saints: ✣ giuing your selues to hospitalitie.

14 ✣ Blesse them which persecute you: blesse, I say, and curse not.

15 Reioyce with them that reioyce, and weepe with them that weepe, 16 Be of like affectioned one towards another: * be not hie minded: but make your selues equall to them of the [u] lower sort: be not [x] wise in your selues.

17 * Recompense to no man euill for euill: procure things honest in the sight of all men.

18 ✣ If it be possible, as much as in you is, heuse peace with all men.

19 Dearely beloued, * auenge not your selues, but giue place vnto wrath: for it is written, ✣ Vengeance is mine: I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 ✣ Therefore if thine enemie hunger, feede him: if he thirst, giue him drinke: for in so doing thou shalt heape [y] coales of fire on his head.

21 Be not ouercome of euill, but ouercome euill with goodnesse.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Hee willeth that we submit our selues to Magistrates: 8 To loue our neighbours: 13 To liue vprightly, 14 and to put on Christ.

LEt [a] euery [a] soule be subiect vnto the higher [a] powers: 3 for there is no power but of God: and the powers that be, are [b] ordained of God.

2 Whosoeuer therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God, and they that resist, shall receiue to themselues condemnation.

3 [4] For magistrates are not to be feared for good workes, but for euill. * Wilt thou then be without feare of the power? doe well: so shalt thou haue praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God for thy wealth: [6] but if thou doe euill, feare: for he beareth not the sword for nought: for he is the minister of God to [c] take vengeance on him that doeth euill.

5 [7] Wherefore we must be subiect, not because of wrath onely, but [d] also for conscience sake.

6 [8] For, for this cause ye pay also tribute: for they are Gods ministers, applying themselues for the same thing.

7 ✣ Giue to all men therefore their duety, tribute, to whom ye owe tribute: custome, to whom custome: feare, to whom [e] feare: honour, to whom ye owe [f] honour.

8 [9] Owe nothing to any man, but to loue one another: [10] for hee that loueth another, hath fulfilled the [g] Law.

9 For this, * Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witnes, Thou shalt not couet: and if there be any other commandement, it is [h] briefly comprehended in this saying, euen in this, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

10 Loue doth not euill to his neighbour: therefore is loue the ✣ fulfilling of the Law.

11 [11] And that, considering the season, that it is now time that we should arise from sleepe: for now is our saluation neerer, then when wee beleeued it.

12 The night is past, and the day is [i] at hand: let vs therefore cast away the workes [k] of darkenesse, and let vs put on the armour of light,

13 So that we walke honestly, as in the day: not in * gluttonie, and drunkennesse, not in

1. Pet. 2. 13.

1 Now he sheweth seuerally, what subiects owe to their Magistrates, to wit, obedience: from which hee affirmeth, that no man is free: and in such sort that it is not onely due to the highest Magistrate himselfe, but also euen to the basest, which hath any office vnder him.

a Text, though an Apostle, though an Euangelist, though a Prophet. Chrysostome Therefore the tyranny of the Pope ouer all kingdomes must downe to the ground.

b A reason taken of the nature of the thing it selfe: For to what purpose are they placed in higher degree, but that the inferiour should be subiect vnto them?

3 Another argument of great force. Because God is authour of this order: so that such as are rebels, ought to know, that they make Warre with God himselfe: whereafter they cannot but purchase to themselues great miserie and calamity.

b Be distributed: for some are greater, some smaller.

4 The third argument from the ende wherefore they were made, which is most profitable: for that God by this meanes preserueth the good and bridle the wicked: by which words the Magistrates themselues are put in minde of that duetie which they owe to their subiects. 5 An excellent way to beare this yoke not onely without grieffe, but also with great profit. 6 God hath armed the Magistrate euen with a reuenging sworde. c By whom God reuengeth the wicked. 7 The conclusion: Wee must obey the Magistrate not only for feare of punishment, but much more because that (although the Magistrate haue no power ouer the conscience of man, yet seeing hee is Gods minister) hee cannot be refused by any good conscience. d As farre as lawfully we may: for if vnlawfull things be commanded vs, we must answere as Peter teacheth vs. It is better to obey God then men. 8 Hee reckoneth vp the chiefest things wherein consisteth the obedience of subiects. ✣ Mat. 22. 21. e Obedience, and that from the heart. f Reuerence, (which as reason is) we must giue to the Magistrate. 6 He sheweth how very fewe iudgements need to be executed, to wit, if we so order our life, as no man may iustly require any thing of vs, besides that onely that we owe one to another, by the perpetuall law of charity. 10 He commendeth charitie as an abridgement of the whole Law. g He hath notonely done one commandement, but performed generally that which the Law commandeth. ✣ Exod. 20. 14. deut. 5, 18. h For the whole Law commandeth nothing els, but that we loue God, and our neighbour. But seeing Paul speaketh here of the dueties we owe one to another we must reserue this word Law to the second Table. ✣ Leu. 19, 18. mat 21. 39. mark 12, 31. gal. 5. 14. iam. 2, 8 ✣ 1 Tim 1, 5. 11 An application taken of the circumstance of the time: which also is set before vs in mind of our duetie, seeing that this remaineth after that the darkenesse of ignorance and wicked affections by the knowledge of God is quite put to flight, that we order our life according to that certaine and sure rule of all righteousnes and honestie, being fully grounded vpon the vertue of the Spirite of Christ. i In other places: we are said to be in the night, but yet so, that it appeareth not as yet what we are, for as yet we be but as it were in the twilight. k That kinde of life, which they leade, that face the night. * Luke 21, 34.

14 ✠ But I put vee on the Lord IESVS CHRIST, and take no thought for the flesh, to fulfill the lust of it.

CHAP. XIV.

1 He willeth that we iudeale with the weake in faith, 10 that through our faults they be not offended. 15 And on the other side he commandeth them not rashly to iudge of the stronger. 19 That within the bounds of edification 20 and charitie, 22 Christian liberty may consist.

HIm [a] that is weake in the faith, ✠ receiue vnto you, but not for [b] controuersies of disputations.

2 [2] One [c] beleeueth that hee may eate of all things: and another, which is weake, eateth herbs.

3 [3] Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not: and let not him which eateth not, condemne him that eateth: for [4] God hath receiued him.

4 ✠ [5] Who art thou that condemnest another mans seruant? he standeth or falleth to his owne master: yea, he shallbe established: for God is able to make him stand.

5 [6] This man esteemeth one day aboue another day: and another man counteth euery day alike: [7] let [d] euery man be fully perswaded in his minde.

6 [8] He that [e] obserueth the day, obserueth it to the Lord: and hee that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not to the [f] Lord. Hee that [g] eateth, eateth to the Lord: [9] for he giueth God thankes: and he that eateth [h] not, eateth not to the Lord, and giueth God thankes.

7 [10] For none of vs liueth to [i] himselfe, neither doeth any die to himselfe.

8 For whether wee liue, wee liue vnto the Lord: or whether we die, wee die vnto the Lord: whether wee liue therefore, or die, wee are the Lords.

9 For Christ therefore died and rose againe, and reuiued, that hee might be Lord both of the dead and the quicke.

10 [11] But why doest thou condemne thy brother? or why doest thou despise thy brother? ✠ for we shall all appeare before the iudgement seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, ✠ [l] liue, saith the Lord, and euery knee shall bowe to me, and all tongues shall [m] confesse vnto God.

12 So then euery one of vs shall giue accounts of himselfe to God.

13 [12] Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but vse your iudgements rather in this, that no man put an occasion to fall, or a stumbling blocke before his brother.

14 [13] I knowe, and am perswaded through the [n] Lord Iesus, that there is nothing vncleane of it [o] selfe: but vnto him that iudgeth any thing to be vncleane, to him it is vncleane.

15 But if thy brother be grieued for the meat, nowe walkest thou not charitably? [14] destroy not him with thy meate, for whom [15] Christ died.

16 [16] Cause not your commoditie to be euill spoken of.

17 [17] For the kingdome of God, is not meate nor drinke, but righteousnesse, and peace, and ioy in the holy Ghost.

18 For whosoeuer in [p] these things serueth Christ, is acceptable vnto God, and is approoued of men.

19 [18] Let vs then follow those things which concerne peace, and wherewith one may edifie another.

which doe not obserue a day, and eate obserue it not to the Lord, and eate not: and he that eateth not, eateth not to the Lord, and giueth God thankes. 20 Destroy ✠ Galat. 5.16. 2. pet. 2.11. I'le put on Christ, is to possesse Christ to haue him in vs, and vs in him.

1 Now he sheweth how we ought to behaue our selues toward our brethren in matters and things indifferent, offending in the vse of them, not of malice, or of damnable superstition, but for lacke of knowledge or the benefit of Christ. And thus he teacheth that they are to be instructed gently and patiently, and so that we apply our selues to their ignorance in such matters according to the rule of charitie.

a Doe not for a matter or thing that is indifferent, and such as we may doe or not doe, shun his company, out take him to you. b To make him by your doubtfull and vncertaine disputations go away more in doubt then he came, or starte backe with a troubled conscience.

2 H. propoundeth for an example the difference of meates, which some thought was necessarily to be obserued as a thing prescribed by the Law (no knowing that it was taken away) whereas on the contrary side, such as had profited in the knowledge of the Gospel, knew well that this schoolemaster of the Law was abolished. c Knoweth by faith. 3 In such a matter, sterthup of the Law was taken away), whereas on the contrary side, such as had profited in the knowledge of the Gospel, knew well that this schoolemaster of the Law was abolished. c Knoweth by faith. 3 In such a matter, sterthup faith the Apostle, Let neither them which know their libertie, proudly despise their weake brother, neither let the vnlearned crabbedly or frowardly condemne that, that they vnderstand not. 4 The first reason: Because that seeing both he that eateth, and he that eateth not, is notwithstanding the member of Christ, neither he which eateth not, is iustly be censured, neither he which eateth be iustlier be which eateth not, is iustly be cõtemned, neither he which eateth be iustlier be which eateth not, is iustly be condemned: Now the first proposition is declared in the sixth verse following.

✠ 1. Tim. 4. 12. 5 A other reason which hangeth vpon the former: why the ruder & more vnlearned ought not to be condemned of the more skilfull, as men without hope of saluation? Because saith the Apostle, he that is ignorant to day, may be instructed to morrow with further knowledge, so that he also may stand sure. Therefore to be long to God, and not vnto man, to pronounce the sentence of condemnation. 6 Another example of the difference of dayes according to the law. 7 He setteth against this contempt, and hastie or rash iudgements, a continuall desire to profite, that a strong may be certainely perswaded of their liberty of what nature & sort it is, and how they ought to vse it: and against the weake may daily profit, least either they abuse the gift of God, or these people cease themselues in their infirmitie. d That he may say in his conscience, that he knoweth and is perswaded by Iesus Christ, that nothing is vncleane of it selfe, and this perswasion must be grounded vpon the word of God. 8 A reason taken from the nature of indifferent things, which a man may with good conscience do and omit: for seeing that the difference of dayes and meates was appointed by God, how could they, which as yet vnderstood not the abrogating of the Law, and yet otherwise acknowledged Christ as their Sauiour, with good conscience neglect that which they knew was commanded of God? And on the contrary side, they that knew the benefit of Christ in this behalfe, did with good conscience neither obserue dayes nor meates. Therefore saith the Apostle, verse 10. Let not the strong condemne the weake for these things, seeing that the weake brethren are brethren notwithstanding. Now if any man would draw this doctrine to these our times & ages, let them knowe that the Apostle speaketh of such things indifferent, as they which thought them not to be indifferent, had a ground in the Law, and were deceiued by simple ignorance: and not of malice (for to such the Apostles yeelded not, no not for a moment) nor suspition, but of a religious feare of God. e Obserueth precisely: For God shall iudge whether he doe well or no: And therefore you should rather striue about this, how euery one of you may be allowed of God, then to iudge vpon other mens doings. g He that maketh no difference of meates, 9 So the Apostle telleth vs that he speaketh of the faithfull, both strong and weake. But what if we haue to doe with infidels? Then must we here take heed of two things, as also is declared in the Epistle to the Corinthians. The one is, that we count not their superstitions among things in different as they did which fate downe to meate in Idols Temples: the other is, that then also when a matter is indifferent, as to buy a thing offered to idoles in the butchers shambles, & to eate it at home in a priuate banquet) we wound not the conscience of our weake brother.

h He that toucheth not meates, which he taketh to be vncleane by the Law. 10 We must not sticke, faith hee, in the meate it selfe, but in the vse of the meate, so that he is rash by profane to be reprehended that liueth so, that he eateth not his eyes vpon God. For both our life and our death is dedicated to him, and for this cause Christ hath properly died, and not simply, that we might eate this meate or that.

i Hath respect to himselfe onely, which the Hebrues better after this sort, Doeth well to his owne soule. 11 The conclusion: wee must leaue to God his right: and therefore in matters, which according as the conscience is affected, are either good or euill, the strong must not despise their weake brethren, much lesse condemne them. But the contrary cannot be taken of equall force in the contrary, to wit, that the weake shoud not iudge the strong, because the weake doe not know, that they

k Thus is a forme of an oathe proper to God onely, for he and none but he is truth, and hath his being of himselfe. l Shall acknowledge me for God. 12 After that he hath concluded what is not to be done, he sheweth what is to be done: to wit, wee must take heede that we doe not vtterly cast downe with abusing our libertie, our brother which is not yet throughly Hee rebuked by the way, these malicious stagers of others, which accepe these heads about nothing, but to finde fault with their brethrens life, wherras they should rather beleeue their wits vpon this, that they doe not with their disdainefulnesse either cast their brethren cleane downe, or giue them some offence. 13 The preuenting of an obiection: It is true that the schoolemaistership of the Law is taken away by the benefit of Christ, to such as know it, but yet notwithstanding wee haue to consider in the vse of this libertie, what is expedient, that wee may haue regard of our weake brother, seeing that our libertie is not lost thereby. n By the Spirit of the Lord Iesus, or by the Lord Iesus, who I am sure broke down the wall at his comming. By nature vi. Cor. 8, 11. 14 It is the part of a cruell minde to make more account of meate, then of our brothers saluation. Which thing they doe, that presume to eate with the offence of any brother, and so giue him occasion to goe backe from the Gospel. 15 Another argument: We must follow Christes example: who was so farre from destroying the weake with meate, that hee gaue his life for them. 16 Another argument for that by this meanes the libertie of the Gospell is euil spoken of, as though it opened the way to attempt anything whatsoeuer, and beldeneth vs to all things. 17 A generall reason, and the ground of all the other arguments: The kingdome of heauen consisteth not in these outwarde things, but in the iustice of righteousnesse, and peace, and comfort of the holy Ghost. p He that serueth peaceably, and doeth righteously through the holy Ghost. 18 A generall conclusion: The vse of this libertie yea and our whole life ought to be referred to the edifying of one another. in so much that wee esteeme that thing vnlawfull by reason of the offence of our brother, which is of it selfe pure and lawfull.

d The Scriptures are frid to teach and comfort, because God vseth them to teach and comfort his people withall.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAVL

TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 After the salutation, 10 which in effect is an exhortation, 12 He reprehendeth the Corinthians sfeictes and diuisions, 17 and calleth them from pride to humilitie: 20 For ouerthrowing all worldly wisedome, 23. 25 he aduanceth onely the preaching of the crosse.

3 The inscription of the Epistle, wherein he chiefely goeth about to procure the good will of the Corinthians towards him, yet notwithstanding so, that alwayes he letteth them to wit, that he is the seruant of God, and not of men.

2 If he be an Apostle, then hee must be heard, although hee some times reprehend them sharpely, seeing hee hath not his owne cause in hand, but is a messenger that bringeth the commandements of Christ.

3 He toyneth Sosthenes with himselfe, that this doctrine might be confirmed by two witnesses.

4 It is a Church of God, although it hath great faults in it, if that it obey them which admonish it.

PAul [1] called to be an [2] Apostle of Iesus Christ, through the will of God, and our brother [3] Sosthenes,

2 [4] Vnto the Church of God, which is at Corinthus, to them that are ✣ [5] sanctified in [a] Christ Iesus, ✣ Saintes by [b] calling, [7] with all that [c] call on the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ in euery place, both their Lord, and ours:

3 [6] Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

4 7 I thanke my God alwayes on your behalfe for the grace of God, which is giuen you in Iesus Christ,

5 That in all things ye are made rich in him, [8] in [d] all kinde of speach, and in all knowledge:

6 [9] As the testimonie of Iesus Christ hath beene [e] confirmed in you:

7 So that yee are not destitute of any gifte: ✣ [10] wayting for the [f] appearing of our Lord Iesus Christ,

8 ✣ [11] Who shall also confirme you vnto the ende, that ye may be [g] blameleste in the day of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 * God is [h] faithfull, by whom ye are called vnto the fellowship of his sonne Iesus Christ our Lord.

10 [12] Now I beseech you, brethren, by the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, that [13] yee all speake one thing, and that there be no dissentions among you: but be yee [i] knit together in one minde, and in one iudgement

11 [14] For it hath beene declared vnto mee, my brethren, of you by them that are of the house of Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now [k] this I say, that euery one of you saith, I am Pauls, and I am ✣ Apollos, and I am Cephas, and I am Christs.

13 [15] Is Christ diuided? was [16] Paul crucified for you? either were ye [17] baptized into the name of Paul?

14 [18] I thanke God, that I baptized none of you, but ✣ Crispus, and Gaius, 15 Least any should say, that I had baptized into mine owne name.

16 I baptized also the houshold of Stephanas: furthermore know I not, whether I baptized any other.

17 [19] For CHRIST sent me not to baptize, but to preach the Gospel, [20] not with ✣ [l] wisedome of words, least the [21] crosse of Christ should be made of none effect.

13 The first part of this Epistle, wherein his purpose is to call back the Corinthians to brotherly concord, and to take away all occasion of diuorce. So then this first part concerne h the taking away of schismes. Now a schisme is when men which otherwise agree and consent together in doctrine, doe yet separate themselues one from another.

i Knit together, as a boate that consisteth of all his partes fitly knit together.

4 He begineth his reprehension and chiding by taking away of an obiection: for that he vnderstood by good witnesses, that there were many factions among them And therewithall he openeth the cause of dissentions, because that some did hang on one doctor, some on another, and some were so addicted to themselues, that they neglected all doctours and teachers, calling themselues the disciples of Christ onely, hauing form their teachers. k The matter is, I would say to you, as this. ✣ Acts 18. 24 15 The first reason why schismes ought to be eschewed: because Christ seemeth by that meanes, to be deuided and torne in pieces, who cannot be the head of two diuers and disagreeing bodies, being a mysticall one. 16 Another reason. Because they cannot without great iniurie to God, so hang of men as of Christ: which thing to do no doubt they doe, which allow whatsoeuer some man speaketh, euen for his persons sake: as these men all wed one vnto the same Gospell being vttered of one man, and did loathe it being vttered of another man. So that these factions were called by the names of their teachers. Now Paul seeketh to do away his owne name, not onely to gratifie them, but also to shewe that he pleadeth not his owne cause. 17 The third reason taken of the forme and end of Baptisme, wherein we make a promise to Christ, calling on also the Name of the Father and the holy Ghost. Therefore although a man doe not fall from the doctrine of Christ, yet if hee hang vpon some certaine teachers, and despise others, he forsaketh Christ: for if hee held Christ his onely master, hee would heare him, teaching by whomsoeuer. 18 Hee protesteth that hee speaketh so much the more boldly of these things, because that through Gods prouidence hee auoideth all suspition of challenging disciples vnto himselfe, and taking them from others. Whereby wee may vnderstand that not the Teachers onely, but the teachers also are here reprehended. which gathered themselues flockes apart. ✣ Acts 18, 8. 19 The taking away of an obiection: that hee gaue not him selfe to baptize many amongst them: nor for the contempt of Baptisme, but because hee was chiefly occupied in deliuering the doctrine, and committed them that receiued his doctrine to others to be baptized, whereof he had store. And so hee declareth sufficiently how farre hee was from all ambition: whereas on the other side they whome hee reprehendeth, as though they gathered disciples vnto themselues and not vnto Christ, bragged moste ambitiously of numbers, which they had baptized. 20 Now hee calleth himselfe of the doctours themselues, which pleased themselues to braue and ambitious eloquence, to the rude that they might drawe more disciples after them. Hee confesseth plainely that hee was vnfit thereto them, opposing grauely as it became an Apostle, his example against their peruerse iudgements: So that this is another place of this Epistle, touching the obseruing of a godly simplicitie, both in wordes and sentences in teaching of the Gospell. ✣ Chap 2 3. a pet. 1. 16. I With eloquence: which Paul casteth off from him not onely, as not necessarie, but also as flat contrarie to y office of his Apostleship: & yet had Paul his kind of eloquence, but it was heauen y not of man, and worde of painted wordes. 21 The reason why hee vsed not the pompe of words, and painted speach: because it was God will to bring the worlde to his obedience by that way, whereby the most idiots amongst men might vnderstand, that the worke was done of God himselfe without the arte of men. Therefore as salnation is set foorth vnto vs in the Gospell by the crosse of Christ, then which nothing is more contemptuile, and more farre from life, so God would haue the matter of the preaching of the crosse most different from those meanes, with which men doe vse to drawe and entise other, either to heare or beleeue: therefore it pleased him by a certaine kind of most wise folly, to triumph ouer the most foolish wisdome of the world, as he had said before by Esay, that he would And hereby we may gather, that both those doctours which were puffed vp with ambitious eloquence, and also their hearers strayed farre away from the end and marke of their vocation.

m The preaching of Christ crucified, or the kinde of speach which we vse.

n It is that wherein he declareth his marueilous power in saueing his elect, which would not so euidently appeare, if it hanged vpon any helpe of man: for so man might attribute that to himselfe, which is proper onely to the crosse of Christ.

18 For that [m] preaching of the crosse is to them that perish, foolishnesse: but vnto vs, which are saued, it is the ✣ [n] power of God.

19 [22] For it is written, ✣ I will destroy the wisedome of the wise, and will cast away the vnderstanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the [o] Scribe? where is the [p] disputer of this world? hath not God made the wisedome of this world foolishnesse?

21 [23] For seeing the [q] worlde by wisedome knew not God in the [r] wisedome of GOD, [24] it pleased God by the foolishnesse of preaching to saue them that beleeue:

22 ✣ [25] Seeing also that the Iewes require a signe, and the Grecians seeke after wisedome,

23 But wee preach Christ crucified: vnto the Iewes, euen a stumbling blocke, and vnto the Grecians, foolishnesse:

24 But vnto them which are called, both of the Iewes and Grecians, we preach Christ, the power of God, and the wisdome of God.

25 For the foolishnesse of God is wiser then men, and the weakenesse of God is stronger then men.

26 [26] For brethren, you see your [t] calling, how that not many wise men [u] after the flesh, not many mightie, not many noble are called.

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise, and God hath chosen the weake things of the world, to confound the mighty things,

28 And vile things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, and things which [x] are not, to bring to [y] nought things that are,

29 That no [z] flesh should reioyce in his presence.

30 But ye are [a] of him in Christ Iesus, [27] who of God is made vnto vs wisedome and righteousnesse, and sanctification, and redemption.

31 That, according as it is written, ✣ [b] He that reioyceth, let him reioyce in the Lord.

o Whom he cast downe before, now he lifteth vp, yea, higher then all men: yet so, that he shewith them that all their worthinesse is without themselues, that is, standeth in Christ, and that of God. 17 He teacheth that especially and aboue all things, the Gospel ought not to be commended, seeing it containeth y chiefest things that are to be desired, to wit, true wisedome, the true way to obtaine righteousnesse, the true way to liue honestly and godly, the true deliuerance from all miseries and calamities. ✣ Iere.9.24. 2.Cor 10.17. b Let him reioyd all to God & giue him thankes: and so by this place is mans free will beaten downe, which the Papists so dreame of.

CHAP. II.

1 He setteth downe a plaisforme of his preaching, 4 which was base in respect of mans wisedome, 7 13 but noble in respect of the spirituall power and efficacie. 14 And so concludeth that flesh & blood cannot rightly iudge thereof.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with ✣ excellencie of wordes, or of wisedome, shewing vnto you the [a] testimonie of God.

2 For I [b] esteemed not to know any thing among you, saue Iesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 [v] And I was among you in [c] weakenesse, and in feare, and in much trembling.

4 Neither stood my worde, and my preaching in the [x] entising speach of mans wisedome, [2] but in plaine [d] euidence of the Spirite and of power,

5 [3] That your faith should not be in the wisdome of men, but in the power of God.

6 [4] And wee speake wisedome among them that are [e] perfect: not the wisedome of this world, neither of the princes of this world, which come to nought.

7 [5] But we speake the wisedome of God in a [f] mysterie, euen the hid wisedome, [6] which God had determined before the worlde, vnto our glory.

8 [7] Which none of the princes of this world hath knowen: for had they knowen it, they would not haue crucified the [h] Lord of glory.

z Flesh is oft as we see, taken for he whole man: and he vseth this word flesh, very fitly, to set the weake and miserable condition of man and the maiestie of God, one against the other.

b Iere.9.24.

1 He returneth to the 17. verse of the former Chapter, that is to say, to his owne example: confessing that he vsed not amongst them either excellencie of words, or reasoning speech of mans wisdome, but with great simplicitie of speach, bo h knew and preached Iesus Christ crucified, humble and abiect, as touching the flesh.

a The Gospel.

b I purposed not to professe any other knowledge, but the know edge of Christ and him crucified.

v Actes 18.1.

c He setteth weakenesse against excellencie of wordes, and therefore saith he feare and trembling, which are the compassions of true modestie, not such feare and trembling as terrifie the conscience, but such as are contrary to wantsie and pride. ✣ Chap.1 17. 2 pet.1.16.

2 He meaneth that now to the commendation of his ministery, which he had granted to his aduersaries: for his vse the and power which they knewe well enough, was so much the more excellent, because it had no worldly helpe to ioyne vnto it. d By plaine euidence he meaneth such a proofe, as is made by certaine and necessary reasons.

3 And he telleth the Corinthians, that he did it for their great profite, because they might thereby know manifestly, that the Gospell was from heauen. Therefore hee priuily rebuketh them, because that in seeking vaine ostentation, they willingly depriued themselues of the greatest helpe of their faith.

4 An other argument taken of the nature of the thing, that is, of the Gospell, which is true wisedome, but knowen to them onely which are desirous of perfection: and is vnpleasant to them which otherwise excell in the world, but yet vainely and frailly. e Those are called perfect here, but which haue gotten perfection alreadie, but such as tend to it, as Paul 3.15. so that perfect, is set against weake. They that are wiser, richer, or mightier then other men are. 5 Hee sheweth the cause why this wisedome cannot be perceiued of those excellent worldly wisers: to wit, because indeed it is so deepe, that they cannot attaine vnto it. g Which men could not so much as dreame of. 6 He taketh away an obiection: if it be so harde, when and how is it knowen? God, sayeth hee, determined with himselfe from the beginning, that which his purpose was to bring foorth at this time out of his secreter, for the saluation of men. 7 He taketh away another obiection: why then, how commeth it to passe, that this wisedome was so reiected of men of highest authori e that they crucified Christ himselfe? Paul answereth: because they knewe not Christ such as hee was. h That mightie God, full of true maiestie & glorie. Now this place hath in it a most euident proofe of the diuinitie of Christ, and of his ioyning of the two natures in one, which hath this in it, that that which is proper to the manhoode alone, is vouched of the Godhead ioyned with the manhoode which kind of speech, is called of the old fathers, a making common of things by ioyning to some one, with other to whom they doe not belong.

m The preaching of Christ crucified, or the kinde of speach which we vse.

n It is that wherein he declareth his marueilous power in saueing his elect, which would not so euidently appeare, if it hanged vpon any helpe of man: for so man might attribute that to himselfe, which is proper onely to the crosse of Christ.

22 The Apostle prouoketh that this ought not onely not to seeme strange, seeing that it was foreseene long before, but declareth further, that God is wont to punish the pride of the world in such sort, which so pleaseth it selfe in it owne wisedome: and therefore that that is vaine, yea a thing of nothing, and such as God reiecteth as vnprofitable, which they so carefully labour for, and made so great account of.

o Where art thou, O thou learned fellow, and thou that spendest thy dayes in turning thy bookes?

p Thou that spendest all thy time in seeking out the secret things of this world, and in expounding all hard questions: and thus triumpheth here against all the men of this world, for there was not one of them that could so much as dreame vpon this secret and hidden mysterie. 23 He sheweth that the pride of men was worthily punished of GOD, because they would not behold God, as meete was they should, in the most cleare glasse of the wisedome of the worlde, which is the workemanship of the worlde. q By the world he meaneth all men which are not borne anewe, but remaine as they were, wares they were first borne. In the workemanship of this world, which hath the marueilous wisedome of God ingraued in it, so that euery man may behold it. 24 The goodnesse of God is wonderfull, for while he goeth about to punish the pride of the world, he is very prouident and carefull, for the saluation of it, and teacheth men to become fooles, that they may be wise to God. r So calleth the preaching of the Gospel as the enemies suppose it: our in the meane season he taunteth them very slyely, who had rather charge God with folly, then acknowledge their owne and craue pardon for it. ✣ Matth.11.25. 25 A declaration of that which he said that the preaching of the Gospel, is foolish. It is foolish, saith he, to them whom God had not inlued with new light, that is to say, to all men, being considered in themselues: for the Iewes require miracles, and the Grecians arguments, which they may comprehend by their wit and wisedome: and therefore they doe not onely not beleeue the Gospel, but also they mocke at it. Notwithstanding in this foolish preaching, there is the great vertue & wisedome of God, but such as those onely which are called, doe perceiue God shewing most plainely, that euen then when man is thinke him most foolish, he is farre wiser then they are: and that he surmounteth all their might and power, when he vseth most vile and abiect things as is hath appeared in the frute of the preaching of the Gospell. 26 A confirmation taken of those things which came to passe at Corinth, where the Church especially consisted of the basest and common people, insomuch that the philosophers of Greece were driuen to shame, when they saw that they could doe no thing with their wisedome and eloquence, in comparison of the Apostles, whom notwithstanding they called Idiots and vnlearned. And herewithall doeth he beate downe their pride, for God did not preferre them before those noble and wise men because they should be proud, but that they might be constrained euen whether they would or not, to reioyce in the Lord, by whose mercie alone, both they were them selues of all, they had obtained in Christ, both this wisedome, and all things necessarie to saluation. s Which way the Lord hath taken in calling you. t After that kind of wisedome which men make account of, as though there were no wisedome: who because they are carnall, know not spirituall wisedome. x Which in mans iudgement are almost nothing. y To serue that they are vaine & vnprofitable, and nothing worth. See Romanes 3.4.

3 Another obiection. But how could it be that those vertue men could not perceiue this wisdome? Paul answereth: Because we preach those things which passe all mans vnderstanding.

i Man can not so much as thinke of them, much lesse conceiue them with his senses.

9 A question: if it surmount the capacitie of men, how can it be vnderstood of any man, or how can you declare and preach it? by a peculiar lightning by Gods spirit, where with whosoeuer is inspired, he can enter euen to the very secrets of God.

k There is nothing so secret and hidden in God, but the Spirit of God pearceth into it.

10 He setteth that forth by a similitude, which hee spake of the inspiration of the Spirit. As the force of mans wit searcheth out things pertayning to man, so doeth our mind by that power of the holy Ghost, vnderstand heauenly things. l The minde of man, which is indued with ableneſſe to vnderſtand and iudge. ✣ The Spirit which we haue receiued, doth not teach vs things of this world, but inſtructeth vs vp to God, and this place teacheth vs againſt the Papiſts, what faith is, from whence it commeth, and what force it is of. 11 That which he ſpake generally, he reſtraineth now to thoſe things which God hath opened vnto vs of our ſaluation in Chriſt. leaſt that any man ſhould ſeparate the Spirit from the preaching of the word and Chriſt: or ſhould thinke that thoſe fantaſticall men are gouerned by the Spirit of God, which wandring beſides the worde, thruſt vpon vs their vaine imaginations for the ſecrets of God. n In this word (knowe) is take here in his proper ſenſe, for true knowledge, which the Spirit of God worketh in vs. 12 Now he returneth to his purpoſe, and concludeth the argument which hee began vers. 6. and it is thus: the worde muſt be applyed to the matter, and the matter muſt be ſet forth with words which are mere and without feare. For in no wiſe this wiſedome is ſpirituall & not of man, and therefore it muſt be deliuered by a ſpirituall houſe of teaching, and not by en ticing wordes of mands eloquence, that the ſimple, and yet wonderfull matter of the holy Ghoſt may therein appeare. ✣ Chapt. 17. 2. pet. 1. 16. o Applying the words vnto the matter, to wit, that as wee teach ſpirituall things ſo muſt our kinde of teaching be ſpirituall. 13 Againe he preſenteth an offence or ſtumbling blocke: how commeth it to paſſe that ſo fewe allow theſe things? This is not to be marueiled at, ſaieth the Apoſtle, ſeeing that men in their naturall powers (as they termed them) are not inſtiued with that faculte, whereby ſpirituall things are diſcerned (which faculte commeth another way) and therefore they accompt ſpirituall wiſedome as folly and it is as if he ſhould ſay, It is no marueaile y blinde men cannot iudge of colours, ſeeing y they lacke the light of their eyes and therefore light is to them as darkeneſſe. p The man that hath no further light of vnderſtanding then that which he brought with him, euen from his mothers wombe, is lude deſpiteth it, Iude 19. q By the vertue of the holy Choſt. 14 He amplifieth the matter by contraries. r Vnderſtandeth and diſcerneth. 15 The wiſedome of the fleſh, ſaith Paul, determineth nothing certainely, no not in it owne affaires, much leſſe can it diſcerne ſtrange, that is, ſpirituall things. But the Spirit of God, whereewith ſpirituall men are indued, can be deceiued by no meanes, and therefore he reproueth of no man. ſ Of no man for when the Prophets are iudged of the Prophets, it is the Spirit that iudgeth, & not the man. s Eſa. 40. 14. rom. 1. 34.

16 A reaſon of the former ſaying: for he is called ſpirituall: which hath learned that by the vertue of the Spirit, which Chriſt hath taught vs. Now if that which we haue learned of that Maſter, could be reproued of any man, hee muſt needes be wiſer then God: wherepon it followeth, that they are not onely fooliſh, but alſo wicked, which thinke that they can deuiſe ſome thing that is either more perfect, or that they can teach the wiſedome of God abetter way then they knewe, or taught, which vndoubtedly were indued with Gods Spirit. t Lay his head to his, and teach him what he ſhould doe. u We are vnited with the Spirit of Chriſt, who openeth vnto vs thoſe ſecrets, which by all other meanes are vnſearchable, and alſo all trueth whatſoeuer.

9 ᵍ But as it is written, ✣ The things which eye hath not ſeene, neither eare hath heard, neither came into ʰ mans heart, are, which God hath prepared for them that loue him

10 But God hath reuealed them vnto vs by his Spirit: for the ⁱ Spirit ᵏ ſearcheth all things, yea, the deepe things of God.

11 ˡ For what man knoweth the things of a man, ſaue the ᵐ ſpirit of a man, which is in him? euen ſo the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we haue receiued not the ᵐ ſpirit of the world, but the Spirit, which is of God, ⁿ that wee might ᵘ know the things that are giuen to vs of God.

13 ᵒ Which things alſo we ſpeake, not in the ✣ wordes which mans wiſedome teacheth, but which the holy Ghoſt teacheth, ᵖ comparing ſpirituall things with ſpirituall things.

14 ᵍ But the ᵖ naturall man perceiueth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are fooliſhneſſe vnto him, neither can hee know them, becauſe they are ᵍ ſpiritually diſcerned.

15 ʳ But he that is ſpirituall, ˢ diſcerneth all things: yet ᵗ he himſelfe is iudged of ᵘ no man.

16 ᵛ For who hath knowen the minde of the Lord, that he might ˣ inſtruct him? But wee haue the ʸ minde of Chriſt.

CHAP. III.

1 He yeeldeth a reaſon why hee preached ſmall matters vnto them. 4 He ſheweth how they ought to eſteeme of Miniſters. 6 The miniſters office. 10 A true forme of edifying. 16 He warneth the Corinthians, that they be not drawen away to prophane things. 18 through the prond wiſedome of the fleſh.

AND ᵃ I could not ſpeake vnto you, brethren, as vnto ſpirituall men, but as vnto ᵇ carnall, euen as vnto babes in Chriſt.

2 I gaue you milke to drinke, and not ᵇ meate: for ye were not yet ᶜ able to beare it, neither yet now are ye able

3 For ye are yet carnall: for whereas there is among you enuying, and ſtrife, and diuiſions, are ye not carnall, and walke as ᵈ men?

4 For when one ſaith, I am Pauls, and another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnall?

5 ᵉ Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but the miniſters by whom yee beleeued, and as the Lord gaue to euery man?

6 I haue planted, Apollos watred, but God gaue the increaſe.

7 So then, neither is hee that planteth, any thing, neither he that watreth, but God that giueth the increaſe

8 And he that planteth, and hee that watreth, are one, ✣ and euery man ſhall receiue his wages, according to his labour.

9 For we together are Gods ᶠ labourers: yee are Gods husbandry, and Gods building.

10 According to the ᵍ grace of God giuen to mee, as a ſkilfull maſter builder, I haue layd the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: ʰ but let euery man take heede howe hee buildeth vpon it.

11 ⁱ For other foundation can no man lay, then that which is laid, which is Ieſus Chriſt.

12 ᵏ And if any man builde on this foundation

a Hauing declared the worthineſſe of heauenly wiſdom, and of the Goſpel, & hauing generally condemned y blindnes of mans mind, now at length he appliteth it particularly to the Corinthians, calling them carnall, that is, ſuch in whom as yet y the fleſh preuaileth againſt ỹ ſpirit. And he bringeth a double teſtimony of it: firſt, for that he had prouoked them to be ſuch, in ſo much that he dealt with them no otherwiſe then with ignorant men, and ſuch as are almoſt babes in the doctrine of godlines: and ſecondly, becauſe they ſhewed indeed by theſe diſſenſio s, which ſprang vp by reaſon of the ignorance of the vertue of the Spirit, and heauenly wiſdome, that they had profited very little or nothing.

He calleth them carnall, which are as yet ignorant, and therefore to expreſſe it the better, he

teareth them babes. b Subſtantiall meate, or ſtrong meate. c To be fed by me with ſubſtantiall meat: therefore as the Corinthians grew vp in age, ſo the Apoſtle newriſhed them by teaching, firſt with milke, then with ſtrong meat, which difference was onely but in the manner of teaching. d By the ſquare and compaſſe of mans wit and iudgement. 2 After that hee hath ſufficiently repreheended ambitious teachers, and their fooliſh eſteemers, now he ſheweth how the true miniſters are to be eſteemed, that wee attribute not vnto them more or leſſe then wee ought to doe. Therefore hee teacheth vs, that they are they by whome we are brought to faith and ſaluation, but yet as the miniſters of God, and ſuch as doe nothing of themſelues, but God is working by them as it pleaſeth him, and he with them with his gifts. Therefore wee muſt not to make or conſider what miniſters they be in that eſteem, but what is ſpoken: and wee muſt depend onely vpon him which ſpeaketh by his ſeruants. 3 He beateth in the former ſentence, with two ſimilitudes: firſt comparing the company of the faithfull, to a fielde which God maketh fruitfull, when it is ſowed and watered through the labour of his ſeruants: next, by comparing it to an houſe, which in deede the Lord buildeth, but by the hands of his workemen, ſome of whom hee vſeth in laying the foundation, others in building of it vp. Now, both theſe ſimilitudes tend to this purpoſe, to ſhewe that all things are wholly accompliſhe by God: ſo ſorely an horrible and might, ſo that wee muſt onely bue eu ry to him. Moreouer, although that God vſeth ſome in the better part of the worke, we muſt no therefore contemne other, to reſpect of them, and much leſſe may wee diuide or ſet them apart, (as theſe factious men did) ſeeing that all of them abour in Gods buſineſſe, and in ſuch ſort, that they ſerue to finiſh one leſſe ſame worke, although by a diuers manner of working, in ſomuch that they needs one another as he. ✣ Pſal. 127. 1. galat 6. 5. e Striuing vnder him: Now they which ſerue vnder another, doe nothing of their owne fyrenyth, but as it is giuen them by grace, wh ch grace maketh them fit to that ſeruice. Luke 16. 5. 10. and 1. cor. 3. 6. and all the more ſe that commeth by their labour, doth ſo proceed from God, that no part of the praiſe of it may be giuen to the vnder ſeruant. 4 Now hee ſpeaketh to the teachers themſelues, which ſuccreede him to the Church of Corinth, and in their perſon, to all that were after or ſhall be Paſtours of Congregations, ſeeing that they ſucceed into the labour of the Apoſtles, which were the firſt and chiefe builders. Therefore hee warneth them firſt, that they perſwade not themſelues that they may build after their owne fantaſie, that is, that they may propound and ſet foorth any things in the Church either in matter or in kinde of teaching different from the Apoſtles which were the chiefe builders. 5 Moreouer hee ſheweth what this foundation is, to wit, Chriſt Ieſus, from which they may not turne away one to e in the building vpof his building. 6 Thirdly, he ſheweth that they muſt alſe heed that the vpper part of the building be anſwerable to the foundation, that is, that admonitions, exhortatio s and what ſoeuer pertaineth to the edifying of the flocke be anſwerable to the doctrine of Chriſt, as well in matter as in ſome: whi h doctrine is compared to golde, ſilner, and precious ſtones: of which matter, Eſaias alſo and Iohn in the Reuelation build the heauenly citie. And to theſe are oppoſite, wood, hay, ſtubble, that is to ſay, curious and vaine queſtions or decrets: and beſides to be ſhort, all that kinde of teaching which ſeeketh to oſtentation. For falſe doctrines, whereof he ſpeaketh not here, are not ſaid properly to be built vpon this foundation, vnleſſe peradeuenture in ſhew onely.

tion, golde, siluer, precious stones, timber, hay, or stubble,

13 Euery mans worke shallbe made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shalbe reuealed by the fire: and the fire shall trie euery mans worke of what sort it is.

14 If any mans worke, that he hath built vpon, abide, he shall receiue wages.

15 If any mans worke burne, he shall lose, but he shalbe saued himselfe: neuertheless yet as it were by the fire.

16 ✣ 9 Know yee not that yee are the Temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man defile or destroy the Temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the Temple of God is holy, which ye are.

18 10 Let no man deceiue himselfe: If any man among you seeme to be wise in this world, let him be a foole, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisedome of this world is foolishnesse with God: for it is written, ✣ He g catcheth the wise in their owne craftinesse.

20 ∵ And againe, The Lord knoweth that the thoughts of the wise be vaine.

21 11 Therefore let no man h reioyce in men: for all things are i yours.

22 Whether it be Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the 12 world, or life, or death, whether they be things present, or things to come, euen all are yours,

23 And ye Christs, and Christ Gods.

7 He testifieth, as indeed the trueth is, that all are not good builders, no not some of them which stand vpon this one and onely foundation: but how soeuer this worke of euill builders, (saith he, stand for a season, yet shall it not alwayes decaie, because the light of the trueth appearing at length, as day shall dissolue this darknes, and shew what it is. And as that stuffe is tried by the fire, whether it be good or not, so will God in his time by the touch of his Spirit and word, trie all buildings, and so shall it come to passe, that such as be found pure and sound, shall still continue so, to the prayse of the workeman; but they that are otherwise, shallbe consumed, and vanish away, and so shall the workmā be fruitrate of the hope of his labour, which pleased himselfe in a thing of nought.

8 He taketh not away hope of salvation from the vnskilfull and foolish builders, which holde fast the foundation, of which sort were those Rethoricians rather then pastours of Corinth: but he addeth an exception, that they muste not withstanding suffer this triall of their worke, and also abide the losse of their vaine labours. ✣ Chap. 6. 9. 2. cor. 6. 16. 9 Continuing still in the metaphore of a building, he teacheth vs that this ambition is not onely vaine, but also sacrilegious: For he layeth it that the Church is as it were the Temple of God, which God hath as it were consecrated vnto himselfe by his Spirit. Then turning himselfe to these ambitious men, he like weth that they prophane y Temple of God, besides their vaine artes wherein they please themselues so much, are as he teacheth, so many pollutions of the holy doctrine of God, and the puritie of the Church. Which wickednesse shall not be suffered vnpunished. f Desileth it, and maketh it vncleane, being holy: and surely they do defile it, by Pauls iudgement, which by sinfully eloquence defile the puritie of the Gospel. 10 Here, on the contrary, that they professe pure wisedome in the Church of God, which refuse & cast away all those vanities of men, and if they be mocked of the world, it is sufficient for them that they be wise according to the wisedome of God, and as he will haue them to be wise. ✣ Iob 5. 13. g Be they neuer so crafte, yet the Lord will take them with he shall discouer their treacherie. ∵ Psal 94. 11. 11 He returneth to the proposition of the 3 verse, first warning the hearers, that hencefoward they esteeme not as lords, those whom God hath appointed to be ministers, and not lords of their salvation, which thing they doe, that do depend vpon men, and not vpon God, that speaketh by them. h Please himselfe. i Helps, appointed for your benefit. 12 He passeth from the persons to the things themselues, that his argument may be more forcible. yea, hee ascendeth from Christ to the father, to shew vs that wee reit our selues no not in Christ himselfe, in that that he is man, but because he carieth vs vp euen to the Father, as Christ witnesseth of himselfe euery where, that hee was sent of his Father, that by this band we may be all knit with God himselfe.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Bringing in the definition of a true Apostle, 7 he sheweth that humilitie ought rather to be an honour then a shame vnto him. 9 Hee bringeth in proofe, whereby it may euidently appeare, 10 that hee neither had care of glory, 11 nor of his belie. 17 He commendeth Timothie.

LEt a a man so thinke of vs, as of the ministers of Christ, and disposers of the secretes of God:

2 a And as for the rest, it is required of the disposers, that euery man be found faid full.

3 As touching me, I passe very little to be iudged of you, 4 or of mans b iudgement: no, c I iudge not mine owne selfe.

4 For I know nothing by my selfe, yet am I not thereby iustified: but he that iudgeth me, is the c Lord.

5 6 Therefore ✣ iudge nothing before the time, vntill the Lord come, who will lighten things that are hid in darkenesse, and make the counsels of the hearts manifest: and then shall euery man haue d praise of God.

6 7 Now these things, brethren, I haue figuratively applied vnto mine owne selfe and Apollos, for your sakes, that ye might learne e by vs, that no man presume aboue that which is written, that one swell not against another for any mans cause.

7 8 For who separateth thee? and what hast thou, that thou hast not receiued? if thou hast receiued it, why reioycest thou, as though f thou hadst not receiued it?

8 9 Now ye are full: now yee are made rich: ye reigne as kings without vs, and would to God ye did reigne, that we also might reigne with you.

9 For I thinke that God hath set foorth vs the last Apostles, as men appointed to death, for we are made a g gasing storke vnto the world, and to the Angels, and to men.

10 We are fooles for Christes sake, and ye are wise in Christ: we are weake, and ye are strong: ye are honourable, and we are despised.

11 Vnto this houre we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and haue no certaine dwelling place,

12 ✣ And labour, working with our owne hands: we are reuiled, and yet we blesse: we are persecuted, and suffer it.

13 ∵ We are euill spoken of, and we pray: we are made as the h filth of the world, the offscowring of all things, vnto this time.

14 10 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloued children I admonish you.

15 For though ye haue tenne thousand instruc-

3 Because in reprehending others, he set himselfe for an example, he vseth a preoccupation or preuenting of an obiection, and vttereth the grauity of an Apostle, he letteth that he careth not for the contrary iudgements that may bace of him, in that they esteemed him as a vile person, because he did not set forth himselfe as they did. And hee bringeth good reasons why hee was nothing mooued with the iudgements which they had of him.

a First, because that that which men iudge in these cases of their owne braines, is no more to be accounted of, then were the iudgement of a blind iudge of wisedome.

c Secondly, saith he, how can you iudge how much or how little I am to be accounted of, seeing that I my selfe which knowe my selfe better then you doe, and which dare professe that I haue walked in my vocation with a good conscience, dare not yet notwithstanding challenge any thing to my selfe for I know that I am not vnblameable, all this notwithstanding: much lesse therefore should I please my selfe as you doe. c I permit my selfe to the Lords iudgement. 6 A third reason proceeding of a conclusion as it were, out of the former reasons. It is Gods office, to esteeme euery man according to his value, because hee knoweth the secrets of the heart, which men for the most part are ignorant of. Therefore this iudgement pertaineth not to you. ✣ Matt. 7. 1. d One could not be praised aboue the rest, but the other should be blamed. e To mentioneth praise rather then disprayse, for that the beginning of his text was this, that they gaue more to some men then meet was. 7 Hauing reiected their iudgements, he setteth foorth himselfe againe as a singular example of modestie, as one which concealing in this Epistle those faultes which teachers vse, doubted not to put downe his owne name and Apollos in their place, and tooke vpon him, as it were, their shame: so that was free from preferring himselfe to any. e By our example, which chose rather to take other mens faults vpon vs, then to carpe any by name. 8 Hee sheweth a good meanes to bridle pride: for, if thou consider how rightly thou exemptest thy selfe out of the number of others, seeing thou art a man thy selfe: againe, if thou consider that although thou haue some thing more then other men haue, yet thou hast it not but by Gods bountifulnesse. And what wise man is he that will braggge of another mans goodnesse, and that against God? f There is nothing then in vs of nature, that is worthy of commendation: insomuch that we haue, we haue it of grace, which the Pelagians & haise Pelagians will not confesse. 9 Hee deridereth to a iust glasse vnwilling, because these ambitious men to blush euen against their willes. g Hee that will take a right view how like Paul and the Pope are, who (vngly) boasteth that hee is his successour, let him compare the deliuerie of the Popish court with Saint Pauls state, as wee see it heere. ✣ Actes 20. 34. 1. thess 2. 9. 2. thess 3. 8. ∵ Mat. 5. 44. luke 23. 34. actes 7. 60. h Such as by sweeping is gathered together. 10 Moderating the sharpnesse of his mocke, hee putteth them in minde to remember of whom they were begotten in Christ, and that they should not doubt to followe him for an example, although hee seeme vile according to the outward shew, in respect of others, yes mightie by the efficacie of Gods Spirit, as they had had triall thereof in themselues.

2 He concludeth the duetie of the hearers towards whom ministers, that they esteeme them not as lords: and yet notwithstanding, that they giue eare vnto them, as to them that are sent from Christ, sent I say to this end and purpose, that they may receiue as it were at their hands, the treasure of salvation which is drawen out of the secrets of God. a Euery man. 2 Last of all, he warneth the ministers, that they also behaue themselues not as lords, but as faithfull seruants, because they must render an account of their stewardship vnto God.

ctours in Christ, yet haue yee not many fathers: for in Christ Iesus I haue begotten you through the Gospel.

16 Wherefore, I pray you, be followers of mee.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my beloued sonne, and faithfull in the Lord, which shall put you in remembrance of my [i] wayes in Christ, as I teach euery where in euery Church.

18 [ll] Some are puffed vp as though I would not come vnto you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, [♣] if the Lord will, and I will know, not the [k] words of them which are puffed vp, but the power.

20 For the kingdome of God is not in word, but in power.

21 [12] What will yee? shall I come vnto you with a rod, or in loue, and in the [l] spirit of meeknesse?

7 [8] Purge out therefore the olde leauen, that ye may be a new [e] lumpe, as ye are vnleauened: for Christ our [f] Passeouer is sacrificed for vs.

8 Therefore let vs keepe the [g] feast, not with olde leauen, neither in the leauen of maliciousnesse and wickednesse: but with the vnleauened bread of sincerities and trueth.

1 The third question is of ciuill iudgements: whether it be lawfull for one faithfull to draw another faithfull before the iudgement seat of an infidell? He answereth that it is not lawfull, for offence sake, for it is not euill of it selfe.
a As if hee sayd, Are ye become so impudent, that you are not ashamed to make the Gospel a laughing stocke to prophane men?

9 [9] I wrote vnto you in an Epistle, that yee should not company together with fornicatours,

10 And not [a] altogether with the fornicatours of this world, or with the couetous, or with extortioners, or with idolaters: for then ye must goe out of the world.

11 But now I haue written vnto you, that yee company not together: if any that is called a brother, be a fornicatour, or couetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such one eat not.

12 [10] For what haue I to doe to iudge them also which are without? doe ye not iudge them that are within?

13 But God iudgeth them that are without. Put away therefore from among your selues that wicked man.

9 Now he speaketh more generally; and that which hee spake before of the incestuous person, he sheweth that it pertayned to others which are knowen to be wicked, and such as through their naughtie life are a slander to the Church, which ought also by lawfull order be cast out of the communitie of the Church. And making mention of eating of meat, either he meaneth those feasts of loue, or common vsage and maner of life which is rightly to be taken, least any man should thinke that either matrimonie were broken by excommunication, or such duties hindered and cut off thereby, as wee owe one to another: children to their parents, subiects to their rulers, seruants to their masters, and neighbour to neighbour, to win one another to God. b If you should vtterly abstaine from such mens company, you should goe out of the world: therefore I speake of them which are in the very bosome of the Church, which must be called home by discipline, and of them which are without, with whom you must labour by all meanes possible, to bring them to Christ. 10 Such as are false brethren, ought to be cast out of the Congregations as for them which are without, they must be left to the iudgement of God.

CHAP. VI.

1 He inueigheth against their contention in law matters, 6 wherwith they vexed one another vnder iudges that were infidels, to the reproach of the Gospel, 9 and then sharpely threatneth fornicatours.

DAre [1] any of you, hauing businesse against another, be iudged [b] vnder the vniust, [a] and not vnder the Saints?

2 [3] Doe yee not know that the Saints shall iudge the world? If the world then shallbe iudged by you, are yee vnworthie to iudge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall iudge the Angels? how much more things that pertaine to this life?

4 If then yee haue [c] iudgements of things pertaining to this life, set them vp which are [d] least esteemed in the Church.

5 [5] I speake it to your shame. Is it so that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one, that can iudge betweene his brethren?

6 But a brother goeth to law with a brother, and that vnder the infidels.

7 [6] Nowe therefore there is altogether

a As if hee sayd, Are ye become so impudent, that you are not ashamed to make the Gospel a laughing stocke to prophane men?
b Before the vnfaithfull.

e infirmitie in you, that yee goe to law one with another? ✣ why rather suffer ye not wrong? why rather sustaine ye not harme?

8 ✣ Nay, ye your selues doe wrong, and doe harme, and that to your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the vnrighteous shall not inherite the kingdome of God? s Be not deceiued: neither fornicatours, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor wantons, nor buggerers,

10 Nor theeues, nor couetous, nor drunkards, nor railers, nor extortioners shall inherit the kingdome of God.

11 And such were t some of you: but yee are washed, but ye are sanctified, but yee are iust fied, in the f Name of the Lord Iesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 ¶ ✱ 98 All things are lawfull vnto me, but all things are not profitable, I may doe all things, but I will not be brought vnder the h power of any thing.

13 10 Meates are ordeined for the bellie, and the bellie for the meates: but God shall destroy both it, and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.

14 And God hath also raised vp the Lord, and ✱ shall raise vs vp by his power.

15 11 Know yee not, that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

16 12 Doe yee not know, that he which coupleth himselfe with a harlot, is one body? * for i two, saith he, shalbe one flesh.

17 But he that is ioyned vnto the Lord, is one spirit.

s Now he prepareth himselfe to passe ouer to the fourth treatise of this Epistle, which concerneth matters indifferent: debating this matter first, how men may well vse women or not: which question hath three branches, fornication, marrimoute, and a single life. As for fornication, he vtterly condemneth it. And marriage he commandeth to some, as a good and necessary remedy for them, to other hee leaueth it free: And other some he dissuadeth from it, not as vnlawfull, but as discommodious, and that not without exception. As for singlenesse of life (vnder which also I comprehend virginitie) he inioyneth it to no man: yet he perswadeth men vnto it, but not for it selfe, but for another respect, neither all men, nor without exception. And being about to speake against fornication, he beginneth with a generall reprehention of those vices, wherewith that rich and riotous citie moit abounded: warning and teacheth them earnestly, that repentance is vsefparably ioyned with forgiuenesse of sinnes, and sanctification with iustification. ✣ Tit.3.3. t In Ieios. 8. ✣ Chap.10.11. 9 Secondly, hee sheweth that the Corinthians doe simply offend in matters indifferent. First, because they abused them: next, because they vsed indifferent things, without any discretion, seeing the vse of them ought to be brought to the rule of charitie: and that he doeth not vse them a right, which immoderately abuseth them, and so becommeth a slaue vnto them. g Whatsoeuer, but this generall word must be restrained to things that are indifferent. h Hee is insubiection to things that are indifferent, whatsoeuer he be that thinketh he may not be without them, which is a flattering kind of slauery vnder a colour of liberty, which forleth vpon such men. 10 Secondarily, because they counted many things for indifferent which were of themselues vnlawfull, as fornication, which they numbred amongst meere natural & lawfull desires, as well as meate and drinke: Therefore the Apostle sheweth, that they are vtterly vnlike: for meates, saith hee, were made for the necessary vse of mans life, which is not perpetual. For both meates, and all this maner of nourishing are quite abolished. But we must not so thinke of the vncleannesse of fornication, for which the body is not made, but on the contrary side is ordeined to pureneffe, as appeareth by this, that is consecrated to Christ, euen as Christ also is giuen vs of his Father, to quicken our bodies with that vertue wherewith hee also rose againe ✣ Rom.6.5. 11 A declaration of the former argument by contraries, and the applying of it. 12 A proofe of the same argument, that Christ are cleane contrary, for are the flesh and the Spirit: therefore hee that is one with an harlot (which is done by carnall compilation of their bodies) cannot be one with Christ, which vnitie is pure and spirituall * Gen.2.24. mat 19.5. mar.10.8. ephes 5.31. t Moses doeth not speake in these words of fornication, but of marriage: but seeing that fornication is the corrupting of marriage, and both of them is a carnall and filthy copulation, we cannot say that the Apostle abuseth his testimony. Againe, Moses doth not this word (Two) but the Apostle abuseth his testimony. Againe, Moses doth not this word (Two) but it is very well expressed both here and Matthew 19.5. because he speaketh surely but of man and wife: wherevpon the opinion of them that vouch it to be lawfull to haue many wiues, is beaten downe: for he that companieth with many, is sundred as it were into many parts.

18 13 Flee fornication: euery sinne that a man doeth, is without the body: but he that committeth fornication, sinneth against his owne body.

19 14 Knowe yee not, that ✣ your body is the temple of the holy Ghost, which is in you, whom ye haue of God? and i ye are not your owne.

20 ✣ For yee are bought for a price: therefore glorifie God in your body, and in your spirit: for they are Gods.

13 Another argument why fornication is to be eschewed, because it defileth the body with a peculiar kinde of filthines.
14 The thirde argument: Because a fornicatour is sacrilegious, for that our bodies are consecrated to God. ✣ Chap.3.17. 1. Cor.6.16. 15 The cause why we are not our owne men, to giue our selues to any other, much lesse to Satan and the flesh, seeing that God himselfe hath bought vs: and that with a great price, to the end that both in body and soule, wee should serue to his glory. ✣ Chap.7.23. 1. pet.1.18.

CHAP. VII.

1 Intreating here of marriage, 4 which is a remedie against fornication, 10 and may not be broken, 18.20 he willeth euery man to liue contented with his lot. 37 He sheweth what the end of virginitie should be, 35 and who ought to marry.

NOwe i concerning the things a whereof yee wrote vnto me, It were b good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Neuertheleſſe, to auoyd fornication, let euery man haue his wife, and let euery woman haue her owne husband.

3 ✣ 2 Let the husband giue vnto the wife c due beneuolence, and likewife alſo the wife vnto the husband.

4 3 The wife hath not the power of her owne body, but the husband: & likewiſe alſo the husband hath not the power of his owne body, but the wife.

5 Defraud not one another, d except it be with conſent for a time, that yee may d giue your ſelues to faſting and prayer, and againe come together, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.

6 5 But I ſpeake this by permiſſion, not by commandement.

7 For I e would that all men were euen as I my ſelfe am: but euery man hath his proper gift of God, one after this maner, another after that.

8 6 Therefore I ſay vnto the f vnmaried, and vnto the widowes, It is good for them if they abide euen as I doe.

9 But if they can not abſtaine, let them marrie for it is better to marrie then to g burne.

10 ✣ 7 And vnto the maried I command, not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband.

11 But and if ſhe depart, let her remaine vnmaried, or be reconciled vnto her husband, and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 8 But to the remnant I ſpeake, and not the Lord, If any brother haue a wife that beleeueth not, if ſhe be content to dwell with him, let him not forſake her.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that beleeueth not, if he be content to dwell with her, let her not forſake him.

a Touching the matters whereof you wrote vnto me.
b Commendeth, and (as we ſay) expedient. For marriage bringeth many griefs with it, and that by reaſon of the corruption of our firſt eſtate. 1. Cor.7.5.7.
c Secondly, hee ſheweth that the parties married, muſt with ſingular affection entirely loue one the other. This word (due) conteineth all kinde of beneuolence, though he ſpeake more of one ſort then of the other, in that that followeth.
d Thirdly, he warneth them that they are not rash in other matters, but with power, vse the body, ſo that they may not defraud one another.
e The other by mutuall conſent.

5 Hee addeth an exception, vnleſſe the one abſtaine from conſent, that they may the better giue themſelues to prayer, which is notwithſtanding, hee warneth them to conſider what is expedient, least by this long breaking off as it were from marriage, they be ſtirred vp to incontinencie. Do nothing els.
6 Firſtly, he teacheth that marriages is not ſimply neceſſary for all men, but for them which haue not the gift of continency, and that gift is by a peculiar grace of God. 1 Cor.7.7.
7 Secondly, he forbiddeth the ſame admonition touching the ſecond marriage, to wit, that a ſingle life is to be allowed, but for ſuch as haue the gift of continencie: otherwiſe they ought to marrie againe, that their conſcience may be at peace. I ſpeake this of them which condemne ſecond marriages. Or to haue to with this, that either the will yeeldeth to the temptation, or els we cannot call it God with a quiet conſcience. ✣ Mat 5.32. ✣ 1 Cor 7.39 mar. 10.11. luke 16.18. 7 Secondly, he forbiddeth contentions & publishing of diuorces (for he ſpeaketh no more of the fault of whordome, which was then death euen by the law of the Romans alſo) whereby hee affirmeth that the band of marriage is not diſſolued, and that from Chriſt his mouth. 8 Eigthly, he affirmeth, that thoſe marriages which are already contracted betweene a faithfull, and an vnfaithfull or infidell, are lome, ſo that the faithfull may not forſake the vnfaithfull.

9 He answereth an obiection: But the faithfull is defiled by the societie of the vnfaithfull. The Apostle denieth that, and prooueth that the faithfull man with good conscience may vse the vessel of his vnfaithfull wife, by this that their children which are borne of them, are accounted holy (that is, contained within the promise) for it is said to all the faithfull, I will be thy God, and the God of thy seed.

h The godlinesse of the wife is of more force, to cause their coupling together to be accounted holy, then the infidelitie of the husband is, to prophane the marriage.

i The infidell is not sanctified or made holy in his owne person, but in respect of his wife, hee is sanctified to her.

k To the faithfull husband.

l This place destroyeth the opinion of them that would not haue children to be baptized, and their opinion also, that make baptisme the very cause of iustification. For the children of the faithfull are holy, by vertue of the couenant, euen before Baptisme, and baptisme is added as the seale of that holinesse.

10 He answereth to a question: what if the vnfaithfull forsake the faithfull? then is the faithfull free, sayth he, because he is forsaken of the vnfaithfull. m When any such thing falleth out.

11 Least any man vpon presence of this libertie should giue occasion to the vnfaithfull to depart, hee giueth to vnderstand, that marriage contracted with an infidel, ought peaceably to be kept, that if it be possible the infidel may be wonne to the faith.

12 Taking occasion by that which he sayd of the bondage and libertie of matrimonie, he digresseth to a generall doctrine concerning the outward state and condition of mans life, as Circumcision and vncircumcision, seruitude and libertie: warning euery man generally to line with a contented minde in the Lord, what state or condition soeuer hee be in, because that those outward things, as to be circumcised or vncircumcised, to be bond or free, are not of the substance (as they terme it) of the kingdome of heauen. n Hath bound him to a certaine kinde of life.

13 Notwithstanding hee giueth vs to vnderstand, that in these examples all are not of like sort: because that circumcision is not simply of it selfe to be desired, but such as are bound may desire to be free. Therefore herein onely they are equall, that one kingdome of God is inherited in them, and therefore these are no hinderance to obey God. o He is forsaken as her his vncircumcision, who by the helpe of a Chirurgean vncouereth an vpper skinne: which is done by the drawing the skinne with an instrument, to make it to couer the nut. Celsus in his 7. booke and 25 chap. ✠ 1. tim. 6. 1. p As though this calling were too vnworthy a calling for Christ. q Hee that is in state of a seruant, and is called to be a Christian. ✠ Chap. 6. 20. 1 Pet. 2. 18. 19. 14 He sheweth the reason of the vnlikenesse, because that he that desireth to be circumcised, maketh himselfe subiect to mans tradition, and not to God. And this may be much more vnderstood of superstitions, which some doe foolishly accompt for things indifferent. 15 A repetition of the generall doctrine. r So purely and from the heart, that your doings may be approued before God. 16 Hee enioyneth virginitie to no men, yet hee perswadeth and praiseth it for another respect, to wit, both for the necessitie of the present time because the faithfull could scarce abide in any place, and vse the commodities of this present life, and therefore such as were not troubled with families, might be the readier: and also for the cares of this life, which marriage draweth with it of necessitie, so that they cannot but haue their mindes distracted: and this hath place in women especially. s The circumstances considered, this I counsell you. 17 t It is I that speake this which I am minded to speake: and the truth is I am a man, but yet worthy credite, for I haue obtained of the Lord to be such an one. 18 u To remaine a virgine. 19 x For the necessitie which the Saints are daily subiect vnto, who are continually tossed vp and downe. s So that their estate is very seeme most vnfit for marriage, were it not that the weaknesse of vse is so enforced them to it.

14 9 For the vnbeleeuing husband is [h] sanctified to the [i] wife, and the vnbeleeuing wife is sanctified to the [k] husband, else were your children vncleane: but now are they [l] holy.

15 10 But if the vnbeleeuing depart, let him depart: a brother or a sister is not in subiection in [m] such things: 11 but God hath calleth vs in peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt saue thine husband? Or what knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt saue thy wife?

17 12 But as God hath distributed to euery man, as the Lord [n] hath called euery one, so let him walke: and so ordaine I in all Churches.

18 13 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not [o] gather his vncircumcision: is any called vncircumcised? let him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and vncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandements of God.

20 ✠ Let euery man abide in the same vocation wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a seruant? [p] care not for it: but yet if thou mayest be free, vse it rather.

22 For he that is called in the [q] Lord, being a seruant, is the Lords freeman: likewise also he that is called being free, is Christes seruant.

23 ✠ 14 Yee are bought with a price: be not the seruants of men.

24 15 Brethren, let euery man, wherein he was called, therein abide with [r] God.

25 16 Now concerning virgins, I haue no commandement of the Lord: but I giue mine [s] aduise, as one that hath obtained mercie of the Lord to be faithfull.

26 I suppose then [u] this to be good for the [x] present necessitie: I meane, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound vnto a wife? seeke not to be loosed: art thou loosed from a wife? seeke not a wife.

28 But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not: and if a virgine marrie, she sinneth not: neuertheless, such shall haue trouble in the [y] flesh: but I [z] spare you.

29 And this I say, brethren, because the time is a short, hereafter that both they which haue wiues, be as though they had none:

30 And they that [b] weepe, as though they wept not: and they that reioyce, as though they reioyced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not:

31 And they that vse this [c] world, as though they vsed it not: for the [d] fashion of this world goeth away.

32 And I would haue you without care. The vnmarried careth for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord.

33 But hee that is married, [e] careth for the things of the worlde, howe hee may please his wife.

34 There is difference also betweene a virgine and a wife: the vnmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy, both in body and in [f] spirit: but she that is married, careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speake for your owne [g] commoditie, not to tangle you in a snare, but that ye follow that which is honest, and that ye may cleaue fast vnto the Lord without separation.

36 17 But if any man thinke that it is vncomely for his virgine, if shee passe the flowre of her age, and need to require, let him doe what he will, he [h] sinneth not: let them be married.

37 Neuertheless, hee that standeth firme in his [i] heart, that he hath no [k] need, but hath power ouer his owne will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that he will keepe his virgine, he doeth well.

38 So then hee that giueth her to marriage, doeth well, but he that giueth her not to marriage, doeth [l] better.

39 18 The wife is bound by the [m] law, as long as her husband ✠ liueth: but if her husband be dead, she is at libertie to marrie with whom shee will, onely in the [n] Lord.

40 But shee is more blessed, if shee so abide, in my iudgement: ✠ and I thinke that I haue also the Spirit of God.

y By the (flesh) he vnderstandeth what things soeuer belong to this present life, for marriage bringeth with it many discommodities: so that he beareth more to a sole life, not because it is a seruice more agreeable to God then marriage is, but for those discommodities, which (if it were possible) he would wish all men to be void of, that they might giue themselues to God onely.

z I would your weaknesse were prouided for.

a For we are now in the latter end of the world.

b By weeping, the Hebrewes vnderstand all aduersitie, and by ioy, all prosperitie.

c Those things which God giueth vs here.

d The guise, the shape, and fashion: whereby he forseeth vs, that there is nothing in this world that continueth.

e The wife that are married, haue their wits drawen hither and thither, and therefore if a man haue the gift of continencie, it is more commodious for him to liue alone: but they that are married may care for the things of the Lord also, Chrys. Strom. 3.

g He meaneth that hee will inforce no man either to marrie or not to marrie, but to shew them barely what kinde of life is most commodious.

h He doeth well: for so he expoundeth it vers. 38

i Resolued with himselfe.

k That the weaknesse of his daughter inforceth him not, or any other matter, but that he may safely keepe her a virgine still.

l Prouideth more commodiously for his children, and that not simply, but by reason of such conditions as are before mentioned. 18 That which hee spake of a widower, he speaketh now of a widow, to wit, that shee may marrie againe, so that she doe it in the feare of God: and yet he dissembleth not, but saith, that if shee remaine still a widow, she shall be void of many cares m By the law of marriage. ✠ Rom. 7. 1. n Religiously, and in the feare of God. ✠ 1. Thess 4. 8.

CHAP. VIII.

1 He entreth to entreate of an other kind of things indifferent, to wit, of things offered to idoles, or the vse of flesh so offered and sacrificed. And first of all hee remooueth all those things which the Corinthians pretended in vsing things offered to idoles without any respect. First of all they affirmed that this difference of meates was for vnskilfull men, but as for them, they knew well enough the benefit of Christ, which causeth all these things to be cleane to them that are cleane. Be it so saith Paul: be it that we are all sufficiently instructed in the knowledge of Christ. I say not withstanding that we must not simplie rest in this knowledge. The reason is, that vnlesse our knowledge be tempered with charitie, it doeth not onely not auaile, but also doeth much hurt, because it is the mystresse of pride: nay it doeth not so much as deserue y name of godly knowledge, if it be separate from the loue of God, & therefore from y loue of our neighbour. a This generall worde is to be abridged as appeareth verse 7. for there is a kinde of taunt in it, as wee may perceiue by the next verse. b Misinstreth occasion of vanitie and pride: because it is vnlyke of charitie. c Instructed our neighbour. 2 The application of that answere to things offered to idoles. d Seeing y heath bee that an idole is in deede a vaine imagination, and that there is but one God and Lord, therefore that meate cannot be made holy or prophane by the idole: but it followeth not therefore that a man may without respect vse those meates as any other. d This worde (Idole) in this place is taken for an image which is made to represent some godhead, that worship might be giuen vnto it: wherevpon came the worde (idolatrie) that is to say, Image seruice. e It is a vaine dreame. f When the Father is distinguished from the Sonne, Hee is named the beginning of all things, y Wee haue our being in him. + John 23, 13, chapter 12, 3. Rom. 11, 36. But as the Father is called Lord, so is the Sonne, God: therefore this worde (One) doeth not respect the persons, but the natures. h This worde (By) doeth not signifie the instrumentall cause, but the efficient: For the Father and the Sonne worke together, which is not so to be taken, that wee make two causes, seeing they haue both but one nature, though they be distinct persons. 3 The reason why that followeth not, is this: because there are many men which doe not knowe that which you knowe. Nowe the iudgements of outwarde things depende not onely vpon your conscience, but vpon the conscience of them that beholde you, and therefore your actions must be applied not onely to your knowledge, but also to the ignorance of your brethren. 4 An applying of the reason. There are many which cannot eate of things offered to idoles, but with a wauering conscience, because they thinke them to be vncleane: therefore if by thy example they enterprise to doe that which inwardly they thinked displeaseth God, their conscience is defiled with this eating, & thou hast beene the occasion of this mischiefe. k By conscience of the idole, hee meaneth the secret iudgement that they had within themselues, whereby they thought all things vncleane, that were offered to idoles, and therefore they could not vse them with good conscience. For this force hath conscience, that if it be good, it maketh things indifferent good, and if it be euil, it maketh them euill. 5 A preuenting of an obiection: Why then, shall we therefore be deprived of our libertie? Nay saith the Apostle, you shall lose no part of Christianitie although you abstaine for your brethrens sake, is also if you receiue the meate, it maketh you no wait the more holy, for our commendation before God consisteth not in meates: but to vse our libertie with offence of our brethren, is an abuse of libertie, the true vse whereof is cleane contrary, to wit, to forbeare it, as inuying of it were haue consideration of our weake brethren. 6 An other plainer explication of the same reason, propounding the example of the sitting downe at the table in the idoles temple, which thing the Corinthians did euill accompt of among things indifferent, because it is simply forbidden for the circumstance of the place, although offence doe cease, as it shall be declared in his place.

2 Now as touching things sacrificed vnto idols, wee knowe that wee a all haue knowledge: knowledge b puffeth vp, but loue c edifieth.

2 Nowe, if any man thinke that hee knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing, yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man loue God, the same is knowen of him.

4 a Concerning therefore the eating of things sacrificed vnto d idoles, we knowe that an idole is e nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heauen, or in earth (as there be many gods, and many lords.)

6 Yet vnto vs there is but one God, which is that Father, f of whom are all things, and we g in him, and + h one Lord Iesus Christ, i by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 3 But euery one hath not that knowledge: for 4 many hauing k conscience of the idole, vntill this houre, eate as a thing sacrificed vnto the idole, and so their conscience being weake, is defiled.

8 5 But meate maketh vs not acceptable to God, for neither if we eate, haue we the more: neither if we eate not, haue we the lesse.

9 But take heede least by any meanes this power of yours be an occasion of falling, to them that are weake.

10 6 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge, sit at table in the idoles temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weake, be boldened to eat those things which are sacrificed to idoles?

11 7 And through thy knowledge shall the + weake brother perish, for whom Christ died.

12 8 Nowe when yee sinne so against the brethren, & wound their weake conscience, yee sinne against Christ.

13 + 9 Wherefore if meate offende my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

7 An amplification of the argument taken both of compassion and contraries: Thou wretched man, saith he, pleading thy lesse with thy knowledge which indeede is none (for if thou haddest no idoles temple) write since by this example true knowledge thou wouldest not sitte downe to meate in thou destroy thy brother, hardning his weake conscience to doe euill, for whose saluation Christ himselfe hath dyed? + Rom. 14, 15. 8 An other amplyfication: Such offending of our weake brethre redounderh vnto Christ, & therefore let not these men thinke that they haue to doe onely with their brethren. + Rom. 14, 21. 9 The conclusion, which Paul concelueth in his owne person, that he might not seeme to exact that of other, which hee will not be first subiect vnto himselfe. I had rather (saith hee) abstaine for euer from all kinde of flesh, then giue occasion of sinne to any of my brethren, much lesse would I refuse in any certaine place or time for my brothers sake not to eate flesh offered to idoles.

CHAP. IX.

1 He declareth, that from the libertie which the Lord gaue him, 15 he willingly abstained, 18, 22 least in things indifferent hee should offend any. 24 He sheweth that our life is like vnto a race.

1 Before he proceedeth any further in his propofed matter of things offered to idoles, he would shew the cause of all this mischiefe, and also take it away: to wit, that the Corinthians thought themselues not bound to depart from a iote of their libertie for any mans pleasure. Therefore he propoundeth himselfe for an example and that in a matter almoste necessarie. And yet he speaketh frequently of both, but first of his owne person. If (saith he) you alleadge for your selues that you are free, and therefore will vse your libertie, am I not also free, seeing I am an Apostle?

2 He prooueth his Apostleship by the effects, in that that he was appointed of Christ himselfe, and the authoritie of his function was sufficiently confirmed to him amongst them by their confession. And al these things he setteth before their eyes, to make them ashamed for that they would not in the least wise (that might be) debase themselues for the weakes sake, whereas the Apostle himselfe did all that hee could to winne them to God, whē they were vtterly reprobate & without God. a By the Lord. b As a seale whereby it appeareth sufficiently that God is the authour of my Apostleship. 3 Hee addeth this by the way, as if he would say: So far it is off, that you may doubt of my Apostleship, that I vse to refuse them which call it into controuersie, by opposing those things which the Lord hath done by me amongst you. c Which like iudges examine me and my doings. 4 Now touching the matter it selfe, he saith, Seeing that I am free and truely an Apostle, why may not I (I say not eate of all things offered to idoles) but be maintained by my labours, yea an keepe my wife also, as the residue of the Apostles lawfully doe, as by name, I the and Iames, the Lords cousins, and Peter himselfe? d Vpon the vsoense of the Councel. e One that is a Christian and a true beleeuer. 5 That hee may not seeme to burden the Apostles, hee sheweth that it is iust that they doe by an argument of comparison, seeing y soldiers liue by their wages, and husbandmen by the fruites of their labours, and shepheards by that that commeth of their flockes. g Vseth to goe a warfare? 6 Secondly hee bringeth foorth the authoritie of Gods institution by an argument of comparison. h Haue I no better ground then the common custome of men? i Deut. 25, 4. 1. Tim. 5, 18. k Was it Gods propey drift to prouide for oxen, when he made this Law? for otherwise there is but the smallest thing in the world, but God hath a care of it.

1 Am I not an Apostle? am I not free? a haue I not seene Iesus Christ our Lord? are ye not my worke a in the Lord?

2 If I be not an Apostle vnto other, yet doubtlesse I am vnto you: for ye are the b seale of mine Apostleship in the Lord.

3 My defence to them that c examine mee, is this,

4 Haue we not power to d eate and to drink?

5 Or haue we not power to lead about a wife being a e sister, as well as the rest of the Apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 Or I onely and Barnabas, haue not we power f not to worke?

7 5 Who g goeth a warfare any time at his owne cost? who planteth a vineyarde, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?

8 6 Say I these things h according to man? saith not the Law the same also?

9 For it is written in the Lawe of Moses, Thou shall not muffell the mouth of the oxe that treadeth out the corne: doeth God take care for i oxen?

10 Either sayeth hee it not altogether for our sakes? For our sakes no doubt it is written, that he which eareth, should eare in hope, & that hee that thresheth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.

11 ✠ 7 If wee haue sowen vnto you spirituall things, is it a great thing if wee reape your carnall things?

12 8 If others with you be partakers of this k power, are not we rather? neuertheleſſe, we haue not vſed this power: but ſuffer all things, that we ſhould not hinder the Goſpell of Chriſt.

13 9 Doe ye not knowe, that they which miniſter about the ✠ holy things, eate of the l things of the Temple? and they which waite at the altar, are m partakers with the altar?

14 So alſo hath ✠ Lord ordeined, that they which preach the Goſpell, ſhould liue n of the Goſpel.

15 But I haue vſed none of theſe things: o neither wrote I theſe things, that it ſhould be ſo done vnto me: for it were better for me to die, then that any man ſhould make my reioycing vaine.

16 For though I preach the Goſpel, I haue nothing to reioyce of: for neceſſitie is laid vpon me, and woe is vnto me, if I preach not the Goſpel.

17 For if I doe it willingly, I haue a reward, but if I doe it againſt my will, notwithſtanding the diſpenſation is committed vnto mee.

18 What is my reward then? verely that when I preach the Goſpel, I make the Goſpel of Chriſt ofree, that I abuſe not mine authority in the Goſpel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet haue I made my ſelfe ſeruant vnto all men, that I may winne the moe.

20 ❦ And vnto the Iewes, I become as a Iewe, that I might winne the Iewes: to them that are vnder the p Law, as though I were vnder the Lawe, that I may winne them that are vnder the Lawe:

21 To them that are without Lawe, as though I were without Lawe, (when I am not without Lawe as pertaining to God, but am in the Lawe through Chriſt) that I may winne them that are without Lawe:

22 To the weake I become as weake, that I may winne the weake: I am made all things to q all men, that I might by all meanes ſaue ſome.

23 And this I doe for the Goſpels ſake, that I might be partaker thereof with r you.

24 ✠ 11 Knowe ye not, that they which runne in a race, runne all, yet one receiueth the price? ſo runne that ye may obtaine.

25 And euery man that prooueth maſteries, ſ abſtaineth from all things: & they doe it to obtaine a corruptible crowne: but we for an vncorruptible.

26 I therefore ſo fight, not as vncertainely: ſo fight I, not as one that beateth the ayre.

7 An aſſumption of the argument with an amplification, for neither in ſo doing were required a reward meete for our deſerts.
8 An other argument of great force: other are nouriſhed amongſt you, therefore it was lawfull for me, yea rather for me then any other: and I refuſed it, and had rather ſtill ſuffer any diſcommoditie, then the Goſpel of Chriſt ſhould be hindered.

o He taketh very occaſion of ſuſpition by the way, that it might not be thought that he wrote this as though he challenged his wages that was not payed him. Nay ſayth hee, I had rather die, then not continue in this purpoſe to preach the Goſpel freely. For I am bound to preach the Goſpel, ſeeing that the Lord hath inioyned me this office: but vnleſſe I doe it willingly and for the loue of God, nothing is to be allowed that I doe. If I had rather that the Goſpel ſhould be euill ſpoken of, then that I ſhould not require my wages, then would it appeare that I tooke theſe paines not ſo much for the Goſpels ſake, as for my gaines & aduantages. But I ſay, this were not to vſe, but abuſe my right and liberties. Therefore not onely in this thing, but alſo in all other (as much as I could) I am made all things to all men, that I might winne them to Chriſt, and might together with them be woonne to Chriſt. p By taking nothing of them to whom I preache it. ✠ Acts 18. 3. gala. 2. 3.

10 He bringeth in another cauſe of this miſchiefe to wit, that they were giuen to glutonie, for there were ſolonme bankets of ſacrifices, and the feaſt of the Prieſts day was vſed too much celebrated & kept. Therefore it was hard for them which were accuſtomed to riotouſneſſe, eſpecially when they pretended the liberties of the Goſpel, to be reſtrained from theſe bankets: but contrariwiſe, the Apoſtle calleth them by a pleaſant ſimilitude, and alſo by his owne example, to ſobrieſie and mortification of the fleſh, ſhewing that they cannot be fit to runne or wreſtle (as then the games of Iſthmies were) which pampe vp their bodies: and therefore affirming that they haue no reward, vnleſſe they vſe another courſe & made more ſpare.

which will not suffer you to be tempted aboue that you be able, but will euen [m] giue the issue with the tentation, that ye may be able to beare it.

14 Wherefore my beloued, flee from idolatrie.

15 [s] I speake as vnto them which haue vnderstanding: iudge ye what I say.

16 The cup of [n] blessing which we blesse, is it not the [o] communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which wee breake, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17 For wee that are many, are one bread and one body, because wee all are partakers of one bread.

18 Beholde Israel, which is after the [p] flesh: are not they which eate the sacrifices [q] partakers of the Altar?

19 What say I then that the idole is any thing? or that that which is sacrificed to idoles, is any thing?

20 Nay, but that these things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to deuils, and not vnto God: and I would not that ye should haue [r] fellowship with the deuils.

21 Ye cannot drinke the cup of the Lord, and the [s] cup of the deuils. Ye cannot be partakers of the Lords table, and of the table of the deuils.

22 Do we prouoke the Lord to anger? are we stronger then he?

23 ✣ [6] [t] All things are lawfull for mee, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawfull for me, but all things edifie not.

24 Let no man seeke his owne, but euery man anothers wealth.

25 [7] Whatsoeuer is solde in the [u] shambles, eate ye, and aske no question for conscience sake.

26 ✣ For the earth is the Lords, and [x] all that therein is.

27 If any of them which beleeue not call you to a feast, and if ye will go, whatsoeuer is set before you, eate, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say vnto you, This is sacrificed vnto idoles, eate it not, because of him that shewed it, and for the conscience (for the earth is the Lords, and all that therein is.)

29 And the conscience, I say, not thine, but of that other: [8] for why should my libertie be condemned of another mans conscience?

30 For if I through Gods [y] benefit be partaker, why am I euill spoken of, for that wherefore I giue thankes?

31 ✣ [9] Whether therefore ye eate, or drinke, or whatsoeuer ye doe, do all to the glory of God.

32 Giue none offence, neither to the Iewes, nor to the Grecians, nor to the Church of God:

33 Euen as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine owne profite, but the profit of many, that they might be saued.

seeke not our selues, but Gods glory, and so the saluation of wherein the Apostle sticketh not to propound himselfe to the Corinthians (euen his owne flocke) as an example, but so that hee calleth them backe to Christ, vnto whom he himselfe hath regard.

CHAP. XI.

1 He blameth the Corinthians for that in their holy assemblies, 4 men doe pray hauing their heads couered, 6 and women bareheaded, and because their meetings tended to euill, 21 who mingled prophane bankets with the holy Supper of the Lord. 23 which he requireth to be celebrated according to Christes institution.

BE ye followers of mee, euen as I am of Christ:

2 [1] Now brethren, I commend you, that ye remember all my things, & keepe the ordinances, as I deliuered them to you.

3 [2] But I will that yee know, that Christ is the [z] head of euery man: and the man is the womans head: and God is [a] Christes head.

4 [3] Euery [b] man praying or prophecying hauing any thing on his head, dishonoureth his head.

5 [4] But euery woman that prayeth or prophecieth bareheaded, dishonoureth her head: [c] for it is euen one very thing, as though she were shauen.

6 Therefore if the woman be not couered, let her also be shorne: and if it be shame for a woman to be shorne or shauen, let her be couered.

7 [6] For a man ought not to couer his head: forasmuch as he is the [d] image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 [7] For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.

9 ✣ [8] For the man was not created for the womans sake: but the woman for the mans sake.

10 [9] Therefore ought the woman to haue [e] power on her head, because of the [10] Angels.

diatour, for the ende and make not onely of doctrine, but comelineſſe. Then applying it to the question proposed touching the comely apparell both of men and women in publike assemblies, he declareth that the woman is one degree beneath the man by the ordinance of God, and that the man is to subiect to Christ, that the glory of God ought to appeare in him for the preeminence of the sexe. [x] Esay 23. [a] In that, that Christ is our mediatour. 3 Hereof he gathereth, that if men doe either pray or preach in the assemblies hauing their heads couered (which was then a signe of subiection) they did as it were spoile themselues of their dignitie, against Gods ordinance. But appeareth that this was a politike law seruing onely for the circumstances of the time that Paul liued in, by this reason, because in these our dayes for a man to speake bareheaded in an assembly, is a signe of subiection. 4 And in like sort he concludeth, that women which shew themselues in publike & ecclesiasticall assemblies without a signe and token of their subiection, that is to say vncouered, shame themselues. 5 The first argument taken from the commonsense of man, for so much as nature teacheth women that it is dishonest for them to come abroad bareheaded, seeing if she hath giuen them thicke & long haire, which they do so diligently trimme and decke, that they can in no wise abide to haue it shaued. 6 The like gathered of the obiection: Haue not men also haue giuen them a signe of their faith the Apostle, but there is another matter in it: For man was not to this ende and purpose, that the glory of God should appeare in his rule & authoritie: but the woman was made, that by profession of her obedience, she might more honour her husband. [z] Gene. 1.26. and 3. 1. and 9.6. colos 3.10. 7 He prooueth the inequalitie of the woman, by this that the man is the matter whereof woman was first made. [a] Gene 2 22. 8 Secondly, by that, that the woman was made for man, and not the man for the womans sake. 9 The conclusion: Women must be couered, to shew by this externall signe their subiection. [c] A couering which is a token of subiection. 10 What this meaneth, I doe not yet vnderstand.

[n] Now returning to those idoles feastes, that he may not seeme to dally at all, first he promiseth that hee will vse no other reasons then such as they knew very well themselues. And he vseth an induction borowed of the agreement that is in the things themselues. The holy bankets of the Christians are pledges, first of all, of the communitie that they haue with Christ, and next, one with another. The Israelites also do ratifie in their sacrifices their mutuall coniunction in one selfe same religion: therefore to doe the idolaters also ioyne themselues with their idoles or deuils rather (for idoles are nothing) in those solemne bankets, wherevpon it followeth, that that table is a table of deuils, and therefore you must eschew it.

For you can not be partakers of the Lord and of idoles together, much lesse may such bankets be accounted for things indifferent. Will ye then striue with God? and I pray die, thinke you that you shall get the vpper hand? n Of thanksgiuing, wherevpon, that holy banket was called Eucharist, that is, a thanksgiuing. o A most effectuall pledge and note of our knitting together with Christ, and ingrafting to him. p That is, as yet obserue their ceremonies. q Are consenting and guiltie, both of that worship and sacrifice. r Haue any thing to doe with the deuils, or enter into that societie which is begunne on the deuils name. s The heathen and prophane people were wont to shut vp and make an ende of their feastes which they kept to the honour of their gods, in offering mete offrings and drinke offrings to them, with banketts and feastings. ✣ Chap 8. 12. 6 Comming to another kinde of things offered to idoles, hee repeateth that generall rule, that in the vse of things indifferent we ought to haue consideration not of our selues onely, but of our neighbours, & therefore there are many things which of themselues are lawfull, which may be euill done of vs, because of offence to our neighbour. t Looke afore, Chapter 6.13. 7 An applying of the rule to the present matter: Whatsoeuer is solde in the shambles, you may indifferently buy it as it were at the Lords hand, & eate it either at home with y fatsbull or being called home to the vnfaithfull, to wit, in a priuate banket: but yet with this exception, vnlesse any man be present which is weake, whose conscience may be offended, by eating meates offered to idoles before the: for then you ought to haue consideration of their weakeneſſe. u The flesh that was sacrificed, was vsed to be solde in the shambles, & the price returned to the priests. ✣ Psalme 24.1. x All those things wherevpon it is full. 8 A reason, for we must take heed that our libertie be not euill spoken of, & that the benefit of God which we ought to vse with thanksgiuing, be not changed into impietie, & that through our fault, if wee those rather to offend the conscience of the weake, then to yeild a little of our libertie in a matter of no importance, & to giue occasion to y weake to iudge in such sort of vs, and of Christian libertie. An t the Apostle taketh these things vpon his owne person, that the Corinthians may haue so much the lesse occasion to oppose any thing against him.

11 11 Neuertheleſſe, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, ſo is the man alſo by the woman: but all things are of God.

13 12 Iudge in your ſelues, Is it comely that a woman pray vnto God vncouered?

14 Doeth not nature it ſelfe teach you, that if a man haue long haire, it is a ſhame vnto him?

15 But if a woman haue long haire, it is a praiſe vnto her: for her haire is giuen her for a e couering.

16 13 But if any man liſt to be contentious, we haue no ſuch cuſtome, neither the Churches of God.

17 ¶ 14 Now in this that I declare, I praiſe you not, that yee come together, not with profite, but with hurt.

18 15 For firſt of all, when yee come together in the Church, I heare that there are diſſentions among you: and I beleeue it to be true in ſome part.

19 16 For there muſt be hereſies euen among you, that they which are f approued among you, might be knowen.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is g not to eate the Lords Supper.

21 For euery man when they ſhould eate, taketh his owne ſupper h afore, and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 17 Haue ye not houſes to eate and to drinke in? deſpiſe ye the Church of God, and ſhame them that haue not? what ſhall I ſay to you? ſhall I praiſe you in this? I praiſe you not.

23 18 For I haue receiued of the Lord that which I alſo haue deliuered vnto you, to wit, That the Lord Ieſus in the night when he was betrayed, tooke bread:

24 ✣ And when he had giuen thankes, he brake it, and ſaid, Take, eate: this is my body, which is i broken for you: this doe yee in remembrance of me.

25 After the ſame maner alſo he tooke the cup, when he had ſupped, ſaying, This cup is the Newe Teſtament in my blood, this do as oft as ye drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as yee ſhall eate this bread, and drinke this cuppe, yee ſhew the Lords death till he come.

27 19 Wherefore, whoſoeuer ſhall eate this bread, and drinke the cuppe of the Lord k vnworthily, ſhall be guiltie of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 ✣ 20 Let l euery man therefore examine himſelfe, and ſo let them eate of this bread, and drinke of this cup.

29 For hee that eateth and drinketh vnworthily, eateth and drinketh his owne damnation, becauſe he m diſcerneth not the Lords body.

30 21 For this cauſe many are weake, and ſicke among you, and many ſleepe.

31 For if wee would n iudge our ſelues, wee ſhould not be iudged.

32 But when wee are iudged, we are chaſtened of the Lord, becauſe we ſhould not be condemned with the world.

33 22 Wherefore, my brethren, when yee come together to eate, tary one for another.

34 23 And if any man be hungry, let him eate at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. 24 Other things will I ſet in order when I come.

a A digreſſion which the Apoſtle vſeth, leaſt that which he ſpake of the ſuperiorities of men, and lower degrees of women in conſideration of the policie of the Church, ſhould be ſo taken as though there were no meaſure of this inequalitie. Therefore he teacheth that men haue in ſuch ſort the preeminence, that God made them not alone, but women alſo: and woman was ſo made of man, that men alſo are borne by the meanes of women, and this ought to put them in minde to obſerue the degree of euery ſexe, in ſuch ſort, that mutuall conjunction may be cherished.

d By the Lord

12 He vrgeth the argument taken from the common ſenſe of nature.

e To be a couering for her, and ſuch a couering as ſhould prouoke another.

13 Againſt ſuch as are ſtubburnly contentious, we haue to oppoſe this, that the Churches of God are not contentious.

14 Hee paſſeth now to the next treatie concerning the right adminiſtration of the Lords ſupper. And the Apoſtle vſeth this ſharper preface, that the Corinthians might vnderſtand, that whereaſoeuer is obſerued generally the Lords commandement, yet they foully neglected them in a matter of greateſt importance. 17 To celebrate the Lords Supper aright, it is requiſite that there be not onely conſent of doctrine, but alſo of affections, that it be not prophaned. 18 Although that ſchiſmes and hereſies proceed from the deuill, are euill, and yet they come not by chance, nor without cauſe, and they turne to the profite of the elect. f Wiſe experience hath taught vs to be ſtirred to reuerence and godlineſſe. g This is an vſuall kinde of ſpeech, whereby the Apoſtle deſpeth that fitly, which many did not well.

h Eateth his meate and tarieth not till others come. 17 The Apoſtle thinketh it good to take away the leaſt ſeaſles, for their abuſe, although they had bene a long time, and with commendation vſed in Churches, and were appointed and inſtituted by the Apoſtles. 18 Wee muſt take a true forme of keeping the Lordes Supper, out of the inſtitution of it, the parts whereof are theſe, touching the Paſtours, to ſhewe foorth the Lords death, by preaching his worde: to bleſſe the bread and the wine by calling vpon the Name of God, and together with prayers to declare the inſtitution thereof, and finally to deliuer the bread broken to be eaten, and the cuppe receiued to be drunke with thankeſgiuing. And touching the flocke, that euery man examine himſelfe, that is to ſay, to prooue both his knowledge, and alſo faith and repentance: to ſhewe foorth the Lords death, that is, in true faith to yeeld vnto his word and inſtitution: and laſt of all, to take the bread at the Miniſters hand, and to eate it, and to drinke the wine, and giue God thankes. This was Pauls and the Apoſtles maner of miniſtring. ✣ Matt. 26.26. marke 14.22. luke 22.19. i This word (Broken) goeth out vnto our Chriſt his manner of death, for although his legges were not broken, as the theeues legges were, yet was his body very ſore tormented, and torne, and bruſed.

19 Whoſoeuer contemne the holy Sacraments, that is, vſe them not aright, are guiltie not of the bread and wine, but of the thing it ſelfe, that is, of Chriſt, and ſhallbe grieuouſly puniſhed for it.

k Otherwiſe them meete is ſuch myſteries ſhould be handled.

✣ 2. Cor. 13.5. 20 The examination of a mans ſelfe, is of neceſſitie required in the Supper, and therefore they ought not to be admitted vnto it, which can not examine themſelues: as children, furious and madde men, alſo ſuch as either haue no knowledge of Chriſt, or not ſufficient, although they profeſſe it: & others ſuch like. l This place beateth downe the faith of credit, or vnwrapped faith, which the Papiſts maintaine. m Hee is ſaid to diſcerne the Lords body, that hath conſideration of the worthineſſe of it, and therefore commeth to eate of this meate with great reuerence. 21 The prophaning of the body & blood of ỹ Lord in his myſteries, is ſtharpely puniſhed of him, and therefore ſuch a miſchiefe ought diligently to be preuented by iudging and correcting of a mans ſelfe. n Try and examine our ſelues, by faith & repentance, ſeparating your ſelues from ỹ wicked. 22 The Supper of the Lord is a common action of the whole Church, and therefore there is no place for priuate ſuppers. 23 The Supper of the Lord was inſtituted not to feed the belly, but to feede the ſoule with ỹ communion of Chriſt, and therefore it ought to be ſeparate from common banquets. 24 Such things as perteine to order, as place, time, forme of prayers, and other ſuch like, the Apoſtle tooke order for in Congregations, according to the conſideration of times, places and perſons.

CHAP. XII.

1 To draw away the Corinthians from contention and pride, hee ſheweth that ſpirituall gifts are therefore diuerſly beſtowed, 7 that the ſame being ioyntly to euh other imployed, 12 wee may grow vp together into one body of Chriſt in ſuch equall proportion and meaſure, 20 as the members of mans body doe.

NOw o concerning ſpirituall gifts, brethren, I would not haue you a ignorant.

1 Now he entreth into the third part of this treatiſe, touching the right vſe of ſpirituall gifts, wherein he giueth the Corinthians plainly to vnderſtand, that they abuſed them: for they that excelled, bragged ambitiouſly of them, and ſo robbed God of the praiſe of his gifts: and hauing no conſideration of their brethren,

2 2 Yee knowe that yee were b Gentiles, and were caried away vnto the dumbe idoles, as yee were led.

3 3 Wherefore, I declare vnto you, that no man c ſpeaking by the Spirit of God, calleth Ieſus ✣ execrable: alſo no man can ſay that Ieſus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghoſt.

4 4 Now there are diuerſities of gifts, but the d ſame Spirit.

5 And there are diuerſities of adminiſtrations, but the ſame Lord.

6 And there are diuerſities of e operations, but abuſed them to a vaine oſtentation, and ſo robbed the Church of the vſe of thoſe gifts. On the other ſide, the inferiour ſort enuied the better, and went about to make a departure, ſo that all that body was as it were ſcattered & rent in pieces. So then hee going about to remedie theſe abuſes willeth them firſt to conſider diligently, that they haue not theſe gifts of themſelues, but from the free grace and liberalitie of God, to whoſe glory they ought to beſtow them all. a Ignorant to what purpoſe theſe gifts are giuen you. 2 He prooueth the ſame by comparing their former ſtate with that wherein they were at this time inſtied with thoſe excellent gifts. b As touching Gods ſeruice and the Couenant, mere ſtrangers. 3 The concluſion: Know you therefore, that you cannot ſo much as mooue your lippes to honour Chriſt withall, but by the grace of the holy Ghoſt. ✣ Mat. 9 31. ✣ Iohn 13.13. chap. 8.6. phil. 2.11. c Doeth curſe him, or by any meanes whatſoeuer d miniſh his glory. 4 In the ſecond place, hee layeth another foundation, to wit, that theſe gifts are diuers, as the functions alſo are diuers, and their offices diuers, but that one ſelfe ſame Spirit, Lord & God is the giuer of all theſe gifts, and that to one ende, to wit, for the profit of all. d The Spirit is plainely diſtinguiſhed from the gifts. e So Paul calleth that inward force which commeth from the holy Ghoſt, and maketh men firſt to wonderfull things.

God is the same which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is [f] giuen to euery man, to [g] profit withall.

8 [h] For to one is giuen by the Spirit the word of [a] wisedome: and to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit:

9 And to another is giuen faith by the same Spirit: and to another the gifts of healing, by the same Spirit:

10 And to another the [i] operations of great workes: and to another, [k] prophecie: and to another, the [l] discerning of spirits: and to another, diuersities of tongues: and to another, the interpretation of tongues.

11 ✣ And all these things worketh one and the selfe same Spirit, distributing to euery man seuerally [6] as he will.

12 [7] For as the bodie is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the bodie, which is one, though they be many, yet are but one body: [8] euen so is [m] Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are wee all baptized into [n] one body, whether we be Iewes, or Grecians, whether we be bond, or free, and haue beene all made to [o] drinke into one Spirit.

14 [9] For the body also is not one member, but many.

15 [10] If the foote would say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the eare would say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

17 [11] If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But nowe hath God disposed the members euery one of them in the body at his owne pleasure.

19 For if they were all one member, where were the bodie?

20 But now are there many members, yet but one body.

21 [12] And the eye cannot say vnto the hand, I haue no neede of thee: nor the head againe to the feete, I haue no needе of you.

22 Yea, much rather those members of the bodie, which seeme to be [p] more feeble, are necessary.

23 And vpon those members of the bodie, which wee thinke most vnhonest, put wee more [q] honestie on, and our vncomely parts haue more comelinesse on.

24 For our comely parts neede it not: but God hath tempered the body together, and hath giuen the more honour to that part which lacked,

25 Least there should be any diuision in the bodie: but that the members should haue the same [r] care one for another.

26 [13] Therefore if one member suffer, all suffer with it: if one member be had in honour, all the members reioyce with it.

27 Now ye are the bodie of Christ, and members for your [s] part.

28 ✣ And God hath ordained some in the Church: as first Apostles, secondly Prophets, thirdly teachers, then them that doe miracles: after that, the gifts of healing, [t] helpers, [u] gouernours, diuersitie of tongues.

29 Are all Apostles? are all Prophets? are all teachers?

30 Are all doers of miracles? haue all the gifts of healing? doe all speake with tongues? doe all interprete?

31 [14] But desire you the best gifts, and I will yet shew you a more excellent way.

[f] The holy Ghost vnpeneth and sheweth himselfe freely in giuing of these gifts.

[g] The vse and benefit of the Church.

[h] Wisedome is a most excellent gift, very requisite, not onely for them which teach, but also for them that exhort and comfort, which thing is proper to the Pastours office, as the word of knowledge agreeth to the Diuines.

[i] By operation hee meaneth those great workings of Gods mighty power, which passe and excell amongst his miracles, as the deliuerie of his people Israel by the hand of Moses: that which hee did by Elias against the Priests of Baal, in sending downe fire from heauen to consume his sacrifice: and that which hee did by Peter in the matter of Ananias and Saphira.

[k] Foretelling of things to come.

[l] Whereby false prophets are knowen from true, wherein Peter passed Philip in discouering Simon Magus. Acts 8.10. ✣ Rom.12.3. ephes 4.7.

6 Hee addeth moreouer something else, to wit, that although those gifts are vnequall, yet they are most wisely diuided, because the will of the Spirit of God is the rule of his distribution.

7 He setteth foorth his former saying by a similitude taken from the body: This sayeth hee, is manifestly seene in the bodie, whose members are diuers, but yet so knit together, that they make but one bodie.

8 The applying of the similitude. So might wee also thinke, sayeth hee, of the mysticall body of Christ: for all wee that beleeue, whether wee be Iewes or Gentiles, are by one selfe same Baptisme ioyned together with our head, that by that meanes, there may be framed one body compact of many members: and were wee drunke one selfe same spirit, that is to say, a spirituall feeling, perseuerence and motion common to vs all, out of one cuppe.

[n] To be come one body with Christ.

9 Hee amplifieth that which followed of the similitude: as if hee should say, The vnitie of the body is not onely not left by this diuersitie of members, but also it could not be a body, if it did not consist of many, and those were diuers members.

10 Nowe hee buildeth his doctrine vpon the foundations which hee had layed: and first of all he continueth in his purposed similitude, and afterward hee goeth to the matter barely and simply. And first of all he speaketh vnto them which would haue separated themselues from those whome they enuied, because they had not such excellent gifts as they: nowe this is, sayeth hee, as if the foote should say it were not of the body, because it is not the hand: or the eare, because it is not the eye. Therefore all parties ought rather to defend the vnitie of the body being coupled together to serue one the other.

11 Againe, speaking to them, hee sheweth them that if that should come to passe which they desire, to wit, that all should be equall one to another, there would followe a destruction of the whole body, yea, and of themselues: for it could not be a body, vnlesse it were made of many members knit together, and diuers one from the other. And that no man might finde fault with this diuision as vnequall, hee addeth that God himselfe hath coupled all these together. Therefore all must remaine coupled together, that the body may remaine in safety.

12 Nowe on the other side, hee speaketh vnto them which were indued with more excellent gifts, willing them not to despise the inferiours as vnprofitable, and as though they serued to no vse for God, sayeth hee, hath in such sort tempered this inequalitie, that the more excellent and beautifull members can in no wise lacke the more abiect and such as we are ashamed of, and that they should haue more care to see vnto them and to couer them: that by this meanes the necessitie which is on both parts, might keepe the whole body in peace and concord: that although if each part be considered apart, they are of diuers degrees and conditions, yet because they are ioyned together, they haue a common munitie both in commodities and discommodities.

[q] We more carefully couer them.

13 Nowe hee applieth the same doctrine to the Corinthians without any allegorie, warning them that seeing there are diuers functions and diuers gifts, it is their duetie, not to offend one against another, either by enuie or ambition, but rather that they being ioyned together in loue and charitie one with another, euery one of them bellow to the profit of all, that which hee hath receiued, according as his ministery doeth require.

[u] He setteth foorth the order of Elders, which were the maintainers of the Churches discipline.

14 Hee teacheth them that are ambitious and enuious, a certaine holy ambition and enuie, to wit, if they giue themselues to the best gifts, and such as are most profitable to the Church, and so if they contend to excell one another in loue, which farre passeth all other gifts.

CHAP. XIII.

[1] He sheweth that there are no gifts so excellent, which do Gods sight are not corrupt, if Charitie be away. 4 and therefore he digresseth vnto the commendation of it.

THough [1] I speake with the tongues of men and [a] Angels, and haue no loue, I am as sounding brasse, or a [b] thinkling cymbal.

2 And though I had the gift of Prophecie, and knew all secreis and all knowledge, yea, if I had all [c] faith, so that I could remoue [d] mountaines, and haue not loue, I were nothing.

3 And though I feede the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my body, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing,

[1] Hee reasoneth first of Charitie, the excellencie whereof he first sheweth by this, that without it, all other gifts are as nothing before God, which thing he prooueth partly by an induction, and partly also by an argument taken of the end, wherefore those gifts are giuen. For to what purpose are those gifts, but to Gods glory, and the profite of the Church, as is before prooued? so then those gifts without Charitie, haue no right vse.

[a] A very rare and kind of amplifying a matter, as if hee sayd, If there were any tongues of Angels, and I had them, and did not vse them to the benefit of my neighbour, it were nothing els but a vaine & prating kind of babbling.

[b] That giueth a rude and no certaine sound.

[c] By faith he meaneth the gift of doing miracles, and not that faith which iustifieth, which cannot be voide of Charitie as the other may. ✣ Mat.17.20.

4 [2] Loue [d] suffereth long: it is bountifull: loue enuieth not: loue doth not boast it selfe: it is not puffed vp:

5 It doth [e] nothing vncomely thing: it seeketh not her owne things: it is not prouoked to anger: it thinketh no euill:

6 It reioyceth not in iniquitie, but [f] reioyceth in the trueth:

7 It suffereth all things: it beleeueth all things: it hopeth all things: it endureth all things.

8 [3] Loue doeth neuer fall away, though that prophecying be aboli hed, or the tongues cease, or [g] knowledge vanish away.

9 4 For we know in [h] part, and wee prophecie in part.

10 But when that which is perfect, is come, then that which is in part shallbe abolished.

11 [5] When I was a childe, I spake as a childe: I vnderstoode as a childe, I thought as a childe: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 [6] For [i] nowe we see thorowa glasse darkely: but then shall wee see face to face. Nowe I know in part: but then shall I knowe euen as I am knowen.

13 [7] And now abideth faith, hope and loue, euen these three: but the chiefest of these is loue.

[d] He describeth the force and nature of charity, partly by a comparison of contraries, and partly by the effects of it selfe: whereby the Corinthians may vnderstand, both how profitable it is in the Church, and how necessary: and also how farre they are from it: and therefore how vainely and without cause they are proud.

[g] The knowledge of the Hebrewes meante by truth, righteousnes.

3. Against the commendeth the excellencie of charitie, in that that it shall neuer be abolished in the Saints, whereas the other gifts which are necessary for the building vp of the Church, so long as we liue here, shall haue no place in the world to come.

4 The reason: Because we are nowe in that state, that wee haue neede to learne dayly, and therefore we haue neede of those helpes, to wit, of the gift of tongues, and knowledge, and also of them that teach them. But to what purpose serue they then, when wee haue obtained & gotten the full knowledge of God, which serue now but for them which are imperfit, and goe by degrees to perfection?

5 He setteth foorth that that he sayd, by an excellent similitude, comparing this life to our infancie or childhoode, wherein we stagger and stammer rather then speake, and thinke and vnderstand but childish things, and therefore haue neede of such things as may forme and frame our tongue and minde: But when we become men, to what purpose should wee desire that stammering, those childish toyes, and such like things, whereby our childhood is framed by little and little?

6 The applying of the similitude of our call lehoode to this present life, wherein wee darkely behold heauenly things, according to the small measure of light which is giuen vs, through the vnderstanding of tongues, and hearing the teachers and masters of the Church: of our mans age and streugth, to that heauenly and eternall life wherein when we behold God himselfe presente, and are lightned with his full and perfect light, to what purpose should we desire the voice of man, and those worldly things which are most imperfect? But yet then, shall all the Saints be knit both with God, and betweene themselues with most feruent loue, and therefore charitie shall not be abolished, but perfected, although it shall not be the with foorth & entertained by such maner of duelies as peculiarly and onely belong to the infirmitie of this life.

7 The conclusion: As if the Apostle should say, Such therefore shalloe our condition then: but now we haue three things, and they remaine sure if wee be Christes, as without which true religion cannot consist, to wit, faith, hope, and charitie. And among these, charitie is the chiefest, because it ceaseth not in the life to come as the rest doe, but is perfected and accomplished. For seeing that faith and hope tend to things which are promised, and are to come, when wee haue presently gotten them, to what purpose should wee haue faith and hope? but yet there at length shall wee vnely and perfectly loue both God, and one another.

CHAP. XIV.

2 Hee commendeth the gift of prophecying: 7 And by a similitude taken of musicall instruments, 12 he teacheth the true vse of interpreting the Scriptures: 27 hee taketh away the abuse: 34 And forbiddeth women to speake in the Congregation.

FOllowe[1] after loue, and couet spirituall gifts, and rather that ye may [2] prophecie.

[1] He inferreth now of that, that he spake before:

Therefore seeing charitie is the chiefest of all, before all things set it before you as chiefe and principall: and so esteeme those things as most excellent, which profit the greatest part of men: (as prophecie, that is to say, the gift of teaching and applying the doctrine, which was contemned in respect of other gifts, although it be the chiefest and most necessary for the Church) and not those which for a fewe seeme to be marueilous as the gifts of tongues, when a man was suddeinly indued with the knowledge of many tongues, which made men greatly amazed, and yet of it selfe was not greatly to any vse, vnlesse there were an interpreter.

A What prophecie is, he sheweth in the third verse.

2 [2] For hee that speaketh a strange [b] tongue, speaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man heareth him: howbeit in the [c] spirit he speaketh secret things.

3 But he that prophecieth, speaketh vnto men to [d] edifying, and to exhortation, and to comfort.

4 Hee that speaketh strange language, edifieth himselfe: but hee that prophecieth, edifieth the [e] Church.

5 I would that ye all spake strange languages, but rather that yee prophecied: for greater is hee that prophecieth, then hee that speaketh diuers tongues, except hee expound it, that the Church may receiue edification.

6 And now, brethren, if I come vnto you speaking diuers tongues, what shall I profit you, except I speake to you either by reuelation, or by knowledge, or by prophecying, or by doctrine?

7 [3] Moreouer things without life which giue a sound, whether it be a pipe or an harpe, except they make a distinction in the sound, how shall it be knowen what is piped or harped?

8 And also if the trumpet giue an vncertaine sound, who shall prepare himselfe to battell?

9 So likewise you, by the tongues, except yee vtter words that haue [f] signification, how shall it be vnderstood what is spoken? for ye shall speake in the ayre.

10 4 There are so many kinds of voyces (as it commeth to passe) in the world, and none of them is dumbe.

11 Except I know then the power of the voice, I shalbe vnto him that speaketh a Barbarian, and he that speaketh, shalbe a Barbarian vnto me.

12 [5] Euen so, forasmuch as yee couet spirituall gifts, seeke that ye may excell vnto the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore, let him that speaketh a strange tongue, [g] pray that he may interpret.

14 [6] For if I pray in a strange tongue, my [h] spirit prayeth: but mine vnderstanding is [i] without fruit.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray with the [m] vnderstanding also: I will sing with the spirit, but I will sing with the vnderstanding also.

16 7 Else, when thou blessest with the [n] spirit, how shall hee that [o] occupieth the roume of the vnlearned, say [p] Amen, at thy giuing of thankes,

[a] He reprehendeth their peruerse iudgement touching the gift of tongues. For why. Was it giuen? to wit, to the intent that the mysteries of God might be the better knowen to a great sort. Then by it is euident that prophecie, wherevnto the gift of tongues ought to serue, is better they this: and therefore the Corinthians did iudge amisse, in that they made more account of the gift of tongues, then of prophecying: because forsought the gift of tongues was a thing more to be bragged of. And herevpon followed another abuse of the gift of tongues, in that the Corinthians vsed tongues in the Congregation without an interpreter, which thing although it might be done to some profit of him, that spake them, yet he corrupted the right vse of that gift, because there came thereby no profit to the hearers: and common assemblies were instituted and appointed not for any priuate mans commodity, but for the profit of the whole company.

[c] By that inspiration which he hath receiued of the Spirit.

which notwithstanding he abuseth, when he speaketh mysteries which none of the company can vnderstand. d Which may serue to the edifying of godlinesse. e The company.

3 He setteth foorth that which he said, by a similitude, which he borroweth and taketh from instruments of musicke which although they speake not perfectly, yet they are distinguished by their sounds, that they may be the better vsed.

4 He prouoketh that interpretation is necessarily to be ioyned with the gifts of tongues, by the manifold variety of languages, insomuch that if one speake to another without an interpreter, it is as if he spake not.

5 As the Papists in all their sermons, & they that minister, but were out of some Hebrew or Greeke word in the Pulpit before the vnlearned people, thereby to get them a name of vaine learning.

5 The conclusion: if they will excell in those spirituall gifts, as it is meet, they must seeke the profit of the Church, and therefore they must not vse the gift of tongues, vnlesse there be an interpreter to expound the strange and vnknowen tongue, whether it be himselfe that speaketh, or another interpreter.

6 A reason: Because it is not sufficient for vs to speake to the Congregation, that wee our selues doe worship God in spirit, that is, according to the gift that we haue receiued, but we must also be vnderstood of the company, lest that be vnprofitable to other which we haue spoken.

[i] If I pray, who in the Church is assembled together, in a strange tongue.

[k] The gift and inspiration which the spirit giueth me, doth his part, but only to my selfe.

[m] So that I may be vnderstood of other, and may instruct other.

7 An other reason: Seeing that the whole Congregation must agree to him that speaketh, and also witnesse this agreement, how shall they giue their assent or agreement which know not what is spoken?

[n] Onely without all consideration of the hearers.

[o] He that sitteth as a priuate man.

[p] So then we vnlearned the prayers, and all the company answereth, Amen.

seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verely giuest thankes well, but the other is not edified.

18 [8] I thanke my God, I speake languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to speake [9] fiue words with mine vnderstanding, that I might also instruct others, then ten thousand words in a strange tongue.

20 [9] Brethren, be not ✠ children in vnderstanding, but as concerning maliciousnes, be children, but in vnderstanding be of a ripe age.

21 In the [t] Law it is written, ✠ By men of other tongues, and by other languages will I speake vnto this people: yet so shall they not heare mee, saith the Lord.

22 [10] Wherefore strange tongues are for a signe, not to them that beleeue, but to them that beleeue not: but prophecying serueth not for them that beleeue not, but for them which beleeue.

23 [11] If therefore, when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speake strange tongues, there come in they that are [s] vnlearned, or they which beleeued not, will they not say, that ye are out of your wits?

24 But if all prophecie, and there come in one that beleeueth not, or one vnlearned, he is rebuked of all men, and is iudged of all,

25 And so are the secrets of his heart made manifest, & so he will fall downe on his face & worship God, and say plainely that God is in you in deede.

26 [12] What is to be done then, brethren? when ye come together, according as euery one of you hath a Psalm, or hath doctrine, or hath a tongue, or hath reuelation, or hath interpretation, let all things be done vnto edifying.

27 [13] If any man speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the most, by three, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speake to himselfe, and to God.

29 [14] Let the Prophets speake, two or three, and let the other iudge.

30 And if any thing be reuealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace

31 For ye may all prophecie one by one, that all may learne, and all may haue comfort.

32 And the [t] spirits of the Prophets, are subiect to the Prophets.

33 For God is not the authour of confusion, but of peace, as we see in all the Churches of the Saints.

34 [15] Let your women keepe silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to speake: but they ought to be subiect, as also ✠ the Law saith.

35 And if they will learne any thing, let them aske their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.

36 [16] Came the worde of God out from you? either came it vnto you onely?

37 If any man thinke himselfe to be a Prophet, or [u] spirituall, let him acknowledge, that the things that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

38 [17] And if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 [18] Wherefore, brethren, couet to prophecie, and forbid not to speake languages.

40 Let all things be done honestly, and by order.

[3] He propoundeth himselfe for an example, both that they may be ashamed of their foolish ambition, and also that he may effchew all suspition of enuie.
[q] A very few words.
[9] Now he reprooueth them freely for their childish folly, which see not how this gift of tongues which was giuen to the profite of the Church, is turned by their ambition into an instrument of curfing, seeing that this same also is contained amongst the punishments wherewith God punished the stubbornes of the people, that he disperfed them amongst strangers, whose language they vnderstood not.
✠ Mat.28,8.
[r] By the law he vnderstandeth all the whole Scripture.
✠ Isay.28,11.
[10] The conclusion: Therefore the gift of tongues serueth to punish the vnfaithfull and vnbeleeuers, vnlesse it be referred to prophecie (that is to say, to the interpretation of Scripture) and that that which is spoken, be by that meanes vnderstood of the hearers.
[11] Another argument: The gift of tongues without prophecie is not onely vnprofitable to the faithfull: but also doth very much hurt as well to them as to the vnfaithfull which should be wonne in the publike assemblies.

[16] A generall conclusion of the vse of the right vse of spirituall gifts in assemblies, with a sharpe reprehension, least the Corinthians might alone seeme to themselues to be wise.
[u] Skilfull in knowing and iudging spirituall things.
[17] The Church ought not to care to be taught, but to go forward.
[18] Prophecie ought simply to be retained and kept in Congregations, the gift of tongues is not to be forbidden, but all things must be done orderly.

CHAP. XV

1 The Gospel that Paul preached. 3 The death and resurrection of Christ. 8 Paul sawe Christ. 9 He had persecuted that Church, whereof afterward he was made a minister. 12 Christ first rose againe, & we all shall rise by him. 26 The last enimie, death. 39 To be baptized for dead. 32 At Ephesus Paul fought with beasts. 35 How the dead are raised. 45 The first Adam. The last Adam. 47 The first and second man. 53 We shall all be changed, we shall not all sleepe. 55 Deaths sting. 57 Victorie. 58 Constancie and stedfastnesse.

MOreouer, [1] ✠ brethren, I declare vnto you the Gospel, which I preached vnto you, which yee haue also receiued, and wherein yee [a] continue,

2 And whereby yee are saued, if yee keepe in memory, after what maner I preached it vnto you, [b] except ye haue beleeued in vaine.

3 For first of all, I deliuered vnto you that which I receiued, how that Christ died for our sinnes, according to the ✠ Scriptures,

4 And that he was buried, and that he arose the third day according to the ✠ Scriptures,

5 ✠ And that he was seene of Cephas, then of the [c] twelue.

6 After that, he was seene of more then fiue hundreth brethren at [d] once: whereof many remaine vnto this present, and some also are asleepe.

7 After that, he was seene of Iames: then of all the Apostles.

8 ✠ [2] And last of all, he was seene also of me, as of one borne out of due time.

9 * For I am the least of the Apostles, which am not meete to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God

10 ✠ But by the grace of God, I am that I am: and his grace which is in me, was not in vaine: but I laboured more abundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

11 Wherefore, whether it were I, or they, so we preach, and so haue ye beleeued.

12 ¶ 3 Now if it be preached, that Christ is risen

[1] The sixth treatise of this Epistle, concerning the resurrection: and he vseth a transition, or passing ouer from one matter to another, shewing first that he bringeth no new thing: to the end that the Corinthians might vnderstande that they had begun to swarue from the right course: and next that he goeth not about to entreate of a trifling matter, but of another chiefe point of the Gospel, which if it be taken away, their faith must needes come to nought. And so at the length he beginneth this treatise at Christs resurrection, which is the ground and foundation of ours, and confirmeth it first by the testimonie of the Scriptures, and by the witnesse of the Apostles, and of more then fiue hundreth brethren, and last of all by his owne. ✠ Gal.1,11. In the profession whereof you continue yet. b Which is very absurd, and cannot be, but that they that beleeue, must reape the fruite of faith. ✠ Isai.53,5. 1.pet.2,24. ✠ Ionas 2,1. ✠ Iohn 20,19. [c] Of those twelue picked and chosen Apostles, which were commonly called twelue, though Iudas was put out of the number. [d] Not at seuerall times, but together and at one instant. ✠ Acles 9,5. [2] Here maintaineth he by the way, the authoritie of his Apostleship, which was requisite to be in good credit among the Corinthians, that this Epistle might be of force and weight among them. In the meane season he compareth himselfe in such sort after a certaine diuine art, with certaine other, that he maketh himselfe inferiour to them all. * Ephes 3,8. ✠ Ephes 3,7. 3 The first argument to proone that there is a resurrection from the dead: Christ is risen againe, therefore the dead shall rise againe.

from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 4 For if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen:

14 5 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vaine, and your faith is also vaine.

15 And we are found also false witnesses of God: for we haue testified of God, that he hath raised vp Christ: whom he hath not raised vp, if so be the dead be not raised.

16 6 For if the dead be not raised, then is Christ not raised.

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vaine: 7 ye are 8 yet in your sinnes.

18 8 And so they which are 9 sleepe in Christ, are perished.

19 9 If in this life onely we haue hope in Christ, we are of all men the most miserable.

20 10 But now is Christ risen from the dead, 11 and was made the ✣ first fruites of them that slept.

21 12 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, euen so in Christ shall all be g made aliue, 23 13 But euery man in his h owne order: the first fruites is Christ, afterwarde, they that are of Christ, at his comming, shall rise againe.

24 14 Then shall be the i end, when he hath deliuered vp the kingdome to God, euen the Father, when he hath put downe k all rule, and all authoritie and power.

25 For he must reigne l till he hath put all his enemies k vnder his feete.

26 The l last enemie that shall be destroyed, is death.

27 ✣ For he hath put downe all things vnder his feete. (And when he saith that all things are subdued to him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put downe all things vnder him)

28 And when all things shall be subdued vnto him, m then shall the Sonne also himselfe be subiect vnto him, that did subdue all things vnder him, that n God may be all in all.

29 15 Els what shall they do which are baptized ○ for dead? if the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for dead?

30 16 Why are wee also in ieopardie euery houre?

31 By our p reioycing which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I die daily.

32 17 If I haue fought with beastes at Ephesus q after the maner of men, what aduantageth it me, if the dead be not raised vp? ✣ 18 let vs r eate and drinke: for to morow we shall die.

33 19 Be not deceiued: euill speakings corrupt good maners.

34 Awake to iust righteousnes, and sinne not: for some haue not the knowledge of God, I speake this to your shame.

35 20 But some man will say, Howe are the dead raised vp? and with what body come they foorth?

36 21 O foole, that which thou soweste, is not quickened, except it die.

37 And that which thou soweste, thou soweste not that body that shall bee, but bare corne as it falleth, of wheat, or of some other.

38 22 But God giueth it a body at his pleasure,

4 The second by an absurditie. If there be no resurrection of the dead, then is not Christ risen againe.

5 The proofe of that absurditie by other absurdities: If Christ be not risen againe, the preaching of the Gospel is in vaine, and the credite that you gaue vnto it is vaine, and we are liers.

6 He repeateth the same argument taken of an absurditie, purposing to shew how faire it is vaine if the resurrection of Christ be taken away.

7 First, seeing death is the punishment of sinne, in vaine should we beleeue that our sinnes were forgiuen vs, if they remaine: but they doe remaine, if Christ rose not from death.

8 They are yet in their sinnes, which are not sanctified, nor haue obtained remission of their sinnes.

9 Secondly, vnlesse that this be certaine that Christ rose againe, all they which died in Christ are perished. So then what profit commeth of faith?

9 The third argument which is also taken from an absurditie: for vnlesse there be another life, wherein such as trust and beleeue in Christ shalbe blessed, they were the most miserable of all creatures, because in this life they are the most miserable.

10 A conclusion of the former argument: Therefore Christ is risen againe.

11 Hee putteth the last conclusion for the first proposition of the argument that followeth. Christ is risen againe: Therefore we that were faithfull (for of them he speaketh) rise againe: Then followeth the first reason of this consequent: for Christ is set foorth vnto vs, to be considered of, not as a priuate man apart and by himselfe, but as the first fruites: And he taketh that which was knowen, to all men, to wit, that the whole heape is sanctified in the first fruites.

f Hee alludeth to the first fruits of corne, the offering whereof sanctified the rest of the fruits.

12 Another confirmation of the same consequent: for Christ is to be considered as opposite to Adam: that as from one man Adam, sone came one all, so from one man Christ, life commeth vnto all: that is to say, that all the faithfull, as they die, because they are mixte they were borne of Adam, so because in Christ they are made the children of God by grace, they are quickened and reuored to life by him.

g Shall rise by the vertue of Christ.

13 Hee doeth two things together: for he sheweth that the resurrection is in such fort common to Christ with all his members, that notwithstanding he farre passeth them, both in time (for he was the first that rose againe from the dead) and also in honour, because that from him and in him is all our life and glorie. Then by this occasion hee passeth to the next argument.

h 1. Thes. 4, 13.

14 The fourth argument, wherewith also hee confirmeth the other, hath a most sure ground, to wit, because that God must reigne. And this is the matter of his reigne, that the Father will be shewed to be King in his Sonne, who was made man, to whom all things are made subiect (the promiser onely except) to the end that the Father may afterwardes triumph in his Sonne the conqueror. And he maketh two parts of this reigne and dominion of the Sonne, wherein the Fathers glorie consisteth: to wit, the ouercomming of his enemies (whereof none must be deprined of all power, as Satan and all the wicked, be they neuer so proud and mightie, and other must be vtterly abolished, as death) and a plaine and full deliuery of the godly from all enemies, that by this meanes God may fully set foorth the body of the Church, celebrating full vnto their head Christ, his kingdome and glory, as a king in his subiects. Moreouer, he putteth the first degree of this kingdome in the resurrection of his Sonne, who is the head: and the perfection, in the full coniunction of the members with the head, which shall be in the latter day. Now all these tende to this purpose, to shewe that vnlesse the dead doe rise againe, neither the Father can be King alone still, neither Christ be Lord of all: for neither should the power of Satan and death be ouercome, nor the glory of God be full in his Sonne, nor his Sonnes in his members.

i The shutting vp and finishing of all things.

k All his enemies should be spoiled of all the power they haue.

l Psal. 110, 1. Acles 2, 34. Heb. 1, 13. And 10, 13.

k Christ, entered he, 2. He appeared in the forme of a seruant, in which respect he maketh the Church, as head, and that because to him power was giuen him of his Father.

l The shutting vp of the argument, which is taken from the whole to the part: for if all the enemies shall be put vnder his feet, then must it needs be that death also shall be subdued vnder him.

m Psal. 8, 6. Heb. 2, 8.

n Not because the Sonne was not subiect to his Father before, but because his body, that is to say, the Church which is here in distresse, and not yet wholly partaker of his glory, is not yet fully perfect, and also because the bodies of the Saints which bee in the graues, shall not be glorified vntill the resurrection. But Christ as he is God, hath no subiect to him as his Father hath, but as August. booke 1. chap. 8. of the Trinitie. n By this high kinde of speech, is set forth an incomprehensible glory which floweth from God, and shall fill all of vs as we are ioyned together with our head, but yet so, that our head shall alwayes reserue his preeminence.

15 The fifth argument taken of the end of Baptisme, to wit, because that they which are baptized, are baptized for dead, that is to say, that they may haue a remedy against death, because that Baptisme is a token of regeneration.

o They that are baptized, to this end and purpose that death may be put out in them, or to rise againe from the deade, whereof baptisme is a seale.

16 The sixth argument: Vnlesse there be a resurrection of the dead, why should the Apostles so dayly cast themselues into danger of so many deaths? As though he said, I die dayly, as all the miseries I suffer can well witnesse, which I may truely boast of, that I haue suffered amongst you.

17 The taking away of an obiection: but thou Paul didst ambitiously, as commonly men are wont to doe, when thou diddest fight with beasts at Ephesus. That is very like, saith Paul, for what could that aduantage mee, were it not for the glory of eternall life which I hope for?

q Not vpon any godly motion, nor casting mine eyes vpon God, but carried away with vaine glory, or a certaine headinesse.

18 The seuenth argument which dependeth vpon the last: If there be no resurrection of the dead, why do we giue our selues to any thing els, saue to eating and drinking?

r These are speeches that Epicures vse.

19 The conclusion with a sharpe exhortation, that they take heede of the naughtie companie of certaine, from whence we liue with that this misbeleefe sprang: warning them to be wise with sobrietie vnto righteousnesse.

20 Now that he hath prooued the resurrection, he discouereth their dolishnesse, in that they scoffingly demanded, how it could be that the dead should rise againe, and if they did rise againe, they asked mockingly, what manner of bodies they should haue. Therefore he sendeth these followes which seemed to themselues to be marueilous wise and wittie, to be instructed of poore rude husbandmen.

21 Thou mightest haue learned either of these, saith Paul, by daily experience: for seedes are sowen, and rotte, and yet notwithstanding to sasse it is off, that they perish, that contrariwise they growe vp farre more beautifull: and whereas they are sowen naked and drie, they spring vp greene from death by the vertue of God: and doth it seeme incredible to thee that our bodies should rise from corruption, and that indued with a farre more excellent qualitie?

22 We see a diuersitie both in one and the selfe same thing which hath now one forme & then another, and yet keepeth it owne kinde, as it is euident in a graine which is sowen bare, but springeth vp farre after another sort: and also in sundry kindes of one selfe same sort, as amongst beasts: and also among things of diuers sories, as the heauenly bodies and the earthly bodies: which also differ very much one from another. Therefore there is no cause why we should reiect either the resurrection of the bodies, or the changing of them into a better state, as a thing impossible, or strange.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also heauenly bodies, and earthly bodies: but the glorie of the heauenly is one, and the glorie of the earthly is another.

41 There is another glorie of the sunne, and another glorie of the moone, and another glorie of the starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glorie.

42 23 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The bodie is sowen in corruption, and is raised in incorruption.

43 It is sowen in t dishonour, and is raised in glorie: it is sowen in weakenesse, and is raised in u power.

44 24 It is sowen a naturall bodie, and is raised a spirituall bodie: there is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall bodie.

45 25 As it is also written, The x first man ✣ Adam was made a liuing soule: and the last Adam was made a y quickening spirit.

46 26 Howbeit that was not first which is spirituall: but that which is naturall, and after ward that which is spirituall.

47 The first man is of the earth, z earthly: the second man is the Lord from a heauen.

48 27 As is the earthly, such are they that are earthly: and as is the heauenly, such are they also that are heauenly.

49 And as wee haue borne the b image of the earthly, so shall we beare the image of ✣ heauenly.

50 28 This say I, brethren, that c flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdome of God, neither doth corruption inherite incorruption.

51 29 Behold, I shew you a d secret thing, Wee shall not all sleepe, but we shall all be changed, 52 In e a moment, in the twinkling of an eye at the last ✣ trumpet: for the trumpet shall blowe, and the dead shall be raised vp incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption: and this mortall must put on immortalitie.

54 So when this corruptible hath put on incorruption, and this mortall hath put on immortalitie, then shall be brought to passe the saying, that is written, ✣ Death is swallowed vp into victorie.

55 O death, where is thy sting? O graue, where is thy victorie?

56 The sting of death is sinne: and the strength of sinne is the Law.

57 ✣ But thankes be vnto God, which hath giuen vs victorie through our Lord Iesus Christ.

58 30 Therefore my beloued brethren, be yee stedfast, vnmoueable, abounding alwayes in the worke of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vaine in the f Lord.

CHAP. XVI.

1 He exhorteth them to helpe the poore brethren of Hierusalem: 10 Then he commendeth Timotheus, 13 and so with a friendly exhortation, 19 and commendations, endeth the Epistle.

COncerning 1 the gathering for the Saints, as I haue ordained in the Churches of Galatia, so doe ye also.

2 Euery a first day of the weeke, let euery one of you put aside by himselfe, & lay vp as God hath b prospered him, that then there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I am come, whomsoeuer ye shall allow by c letters, them will I send to bring your liberalitie vnto Hierusalem.

4 2 And if it be meet that I goe also, they shall goe with me.

5 Nowe I will come vnto you, after I haue gone through Macedonia (for I will passe through Macedonia.)

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, or winter with you, that yee may bring mee on my way, whither soeuer I goe.

7 For I will not see you now in my passage, but I trust to abide a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 And I will tarie at Ephesus vntill Pentecost.

9 For a great doore and d effectuall is opened vnto me, and there are many aduersaries.

10 ¶ Now if Timotheus come, see that hee be e without feare with you: for he worketh the worke of the Lord, euen as I doe.

11 Let no man therefore despise him: but conuey him foorth in peace, that hee may come vnto me: for I looke for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come vnto you with the brethren: but his minde was not at all to come at this time: howbeit he will come when he shall haue conuenient time.

13 ¶ Watch ye: stand fast in the faith: quite you like men, and be strong.

14 Let all your things be done in loue.

15 Now brethren, I beseech you (ye know the house of g Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they haue b giuen themselues to minister vnto the Saints.)

16 That yee be i obedient euen vnto such, and to all that helpe with vs and labour.

17 I am glad of the comming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for they haue supplied the want of you.

18 For they haue comforted my ✣ spirite and yours: I acknowledge therefore such men.

19 The Churches of Asia salute you: Aquila and

45 Hee maketh mention of two qualities of the bodies being raised: Incorruption, to wit, because they shallbe found, and altogether of a nature that can not be corrupt: Glory, because they shallbe adorned with beautie and honour: Power, because they shall continue euerlasting without meat, drinke, and all other helpes, without which this fraile life cannot keepe it selfe from corruption.

f Is buried, and man is hid as seed in the ground.

g Void of honour, void of glorie, and beautie.

u Freed from the former sweakenesse, whereas it is subiect to such alteration and change, that it cannot maintaine it selfe without meat and drinke, and such other like helpes.

x He sheweth perfitly in one word, this change of the qualitie of the bodie by the resurrection, when he saith, that of a naturall bodie, it shall become a spirituall body, which two qualities being cleane different, the one from the other, bee straightway expounded & set forth diligently.

y That is called a naturall bodie, which is quickened and maintained by a liuing soule onely, such as Adam was, of whome all wee are borne naturally: and that is said to be a spirituall, which together with ✣ soule is quickened with a farre more excellent vertue: to wit, with the Spirit of God, which descendeth from Christ the second Adam into vs. x Adam is called the first man, because hee is the roote as it were from whence wee spring: and Christ is the latter man, because hee is the beginning of all them that are spirituall, & in him wee are all comprehended. ✣ Gen. 2.7. y Christ is called a Spirite, by reason of that most excellent nature, that is to say, God who dwelleth in him bodily, as Adã is called a liuing soule, by reason of the soule which is the best part in him. 26 Secondly he willeth the order of this double state or qualitie to be obserued: the naturall was first, Adam being created of the clay of the earth: and the spirituall followed and came vpon it, to wit, when as the Lord being from heauen, endued our flesh which was prepared and made fit for him, with the fulnes of the Godhead. z Wallowing in dust, and wholly giuen to an earthly nature. a The Lord is said to come downe from heauen by that kinde of speech, whereby that which is proper to one is vsurped of another. 27 He applyeth both the earthly naturalnesse of Adam (if I may so say) to our bodie, so long as they are naturally conuersant on earth, to wit, in this life, and in ✣ graue: and also the spirituall nature of Christ to the same our bodies, after ✣ they are risen againe: and hee saith, that that goeth before & this shall follow. b Not a vaine and false image, but such an one as had the truth with it vnderode. 28 The conclusion: We cannot be partakers of the glorie of God, vnlesse we put off all that grosse & filthie nature of our bodies subiect to corruption, that the same bodie may be adorned with incorruptible glorie. c Flesh and blood are taken here for a liuing bodie, which cannot attaine to incorruption, vnlesse it be put off corruption. 29 He goeth further, declaring that it shall come to passe that they which shall be found aliue in the latter day, shall not descend into that corruption of the graue, but shall be renued with a sudden change, which change is verie requisite: and that the certaine enioying of the benefite and victorie of Christ, is deferred vnto that latter time. d A thing that hath beene hid, and neuer knowen hitherto, and therefore worthie that you giue good eare vnto it. e Hee foreseeth vs that this time shall be verie short. ✣ Mat. 24. 31. 1. Thes. 4. 16.

✣ 1. Iohn 5. 5.

30 An exhortation taken of the profit that ensueth, that seeing they vnderstand that the glorie of the other life is laid vp for faithfull workemen, they continue and stand fast in the truth of the doctrine of the resurrection of the dead.

f Through the Lords help & goodnes working in vs.

1 Collections in old time were made by the Apostles appointment the first day of the weeke, on which day the manner was then to assemble themselues.

a Which in times past was called Sunday, but now is called the Lords day.

b That euery man beStow, according to the abilitie that God hath blessed him with.

c Which you shall giue them to carie.

2 The reliue of the Epistle is spent in writing of familiar matters, yet so that all things be referred to his purposed marke, that is to say, to the glorie of God and to the edifying of the Corinthians.

d Verie fit and conuenient to the great things by.

e Without any iust occasion of feare.

f Safe and sound, and that with all kind of courtesie.

g Stephanas is the name of a man and not of a woman.

h Giuen themselues wholly to the ministerie.

i That you honour and reuerence them be obedient to them, and be content to be ruled by them, as meet is you shall, seeing they haue bestowed themselues and their goods to helpe you withall.

k Meere heart.

l Take them for such men as they are indeede.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAVL TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 He beginneth with the phrase of afflictions, & declaring what he hath suffered in Asia, 10 and how happily God assisted him. 17 He saith it was not vpon any lightnesse, that he came not, according to his promise.

PAVL [1] an Apostle of IESVS Christ, by the will of God, and our brother Timotheus, to the Church of God, which is at Corinthus, with all the Saints, which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 ✣ [2] a Blessed be God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of [b] mercies, and the God of all comfort,

4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, [3] that wee may be able to comfort them which are in any affliction by the comfort wherewith we our selues are comforted of God.

5 For as the [c] sufferings of Christ abound in vs, so our consolation aboundeth through Christ.

6 ✣ And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and saluation, which is [d] wrought in the enduring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

7 And our hope is stedfast concerning you, in as much as wee knowe, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall yee be also of the consolation.

8 [e] For brethren, we would not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, how we were pressed out of measure passing strength, so that we altogether [e] doubted euen of life.

9 Yea, wee receiued the sentence of death in [f] our selues, because wee should not trust in our selues, but in God, which raised the dead.

10 Who deliuered vs from so [g] great a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whome we trust, that yet hereafter he will deliuer vs.

11 ✣ [6] So that yee labour together in prayer for vs, [7] that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for manie, thankes may be giuen by many persons for vs.

12 [8] For our reioycing is this, the testimonie of our conscience, that in simplicitie & godly [h] purenesse, and not in fleshly wisdome, but by the [i] grace of God we haue had our conuersation in the world, and most of all to youwards.

13 For we write [k] none other things vnto you, then that ye read or els that ye acknowledge, and I trust ye shall acknowledge vnto the [l] end.

14 Euen as yee haue acknowledged vs partly, that wee are your [m] reioycing, euen as ye are ours, in the [n] day of our Lord Iesus.

15 And in this confidence was I minded first to come vnto you, that ye might haue had a [o] double grace,

16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come againe out of Macedonia, vnto you, and to be led forth toward Iudea of you.

17 [9] When I therefore was thus minded, did I vse lightnesse? or mind I those things which I mind, according to the [p] flesh, that with mee should be, [q] Yea, yea, and Nay, nay?

18 [10] Yea, God is [r] faithfull, that our word toward you, was not Yea, and Nay.

19 [11] For the Sonne of God Iesus Christ, who was preached among you by vs, that is, by me, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, [s] was not Yea, and Nay: but in [t] him it was Yea.

20 [12] For all the promises of God in him are Yea, and are in [u] him Amen, vnto the glory of God through [x] vs.

[2] He beginneth after his manner with thankesgiuing, which notwithstanding (otherwise then he was wont) he applyeth to himselfe: beginning his Epistle with the setting forth of the dignitie of his Apostleship, constrained (as it should seeme) by their importunitie, which tooke an occasion to despise him by reason of his miseries. But he answereth that he is not so afflicted, but that his comforts doe exceed his afflictions, shewing the ground of them, euen the mercie of God the Father in Iesus Christ.

[b] Most mercifull. 3 The Lord doth comfort vs to this ende and purpose, that wee may so much the more surely comfort others. [c] The miseries which wee suffer for Christ, or which Christ suffereth in vs. 4 Hee denyeth that either his afflictions wherewith hee was often afflicted for the consolation which hee received of God, may iustly be despised, seeing that the Corinthians both might and ought to take great occasion to be confirmed by either of them. [d] Although saluation be euen vs freely, yet because there is a way appointed vs whereby wee must come to it, which is the race of an innocent and vpright life, which wee must runne, therefore wee are sayde to worke our saluation, Philippians 2.12. And because it is God onely that of his free good will worketh all things in vs, therefore is he sayde to worke the saluation in vs by those selfe same things by which wee must passe to euerlasting life, after that wee haue once ouercome all encombrances. 5 Hee witnesseth that hee is not onely not ashamed of his afflictions, but that he desireth also to haue all men know the greatnesse of them, and also his deliuerie from them, although it be not yet perfite. [e] I knewe not at all what to doe, neither did I see by mans helpe which way to saue my life. [f] I was resolued within my selfe to die.

6 That he may not seeme to boast himselfe, he attributeth all to God, and therewith also confesseth that he attributeth much to the prayers of the faithfull.

7 The end of the afflictions of the Saints, is the glory of God, and therefore they ought to be precious vnto vs.

8 Secondly he putteth away an other slaunder, to wit, that he was a light man, and such a one as was not lightly to be credited, seeing that he promised to come vnto them, and came not. And first he speaketh of the simplicitie of his mind, and sinceritie, which they knew both by his voice when he was present, and they ought to acknowledge it also in his letters, being absent: and moreouer hee protesteth that he will neuer be otherwise

[h] With cleanesse, and holy and true plainnesse of minde, as God himselfe can witnesse. [i] Trusting to that very wisedome, which God of his free goodnesse hath giuen me from heauen. [k] He saieth he writeth barely and simply: for he that writeth in coloured sort, is rightly said to write otherwise then wee vnderstande: and this hee saieth the Corinthians shall knowe and like of very well. [l] Perfectly. [m] Paul reioyceing in the Lord was, that hee had wonne the Corinthians: and they themselues reioyced that such an Apostle was their instructour, and taught them so purely and sincerely. [n] When he shal sit as iudge. [o] Another benefit. 9 He putteth away their slander and false report by denying it, & first of all in that that diuers went about to persuade the Corinthians, that in the preaching of the Gospell, Paul agreed not to himselfe: for this was the matter and the case. [p] As men doe, which will rashly promise any things, & change their purpose at euery turning of an hand. [q] That I should say and vnsay: thinke? 10 He calleth God to witnesse, and for iudge of his constancie in preaching & teaching one selfe same Gospell. [r] True, and of wonderfull faithfulnesse it is where horrible wickednesse to doubt.

11 He ioyneth also with himselfe, his fellowes as witnesses, with whome hee fully consented in teaching one selfe same thing, to wit, one selfe same Christ. [s] Was not diuers and wauering. [t] That is, in God. 12 Last of all he declareth the summe of his doctrine, to wit, that all the promises of saluation are sure and ratified in Christ. [u] Christ is set forth to exhibite and fulfil them all most assuredly, and without all doubt. [x] Through our ministerie.

21 13 And it is God which ſtabliſheth vs with you in Chriſt, and hath anointed vs, 22 Who hath alſo ſealed vs, and hath giuen the y earneſt of the Spirit in our hearts.
23 14 Now, I call God for a record vnto my z ſoule, that to ſpare you, I came not as yet vnto Corinthus 24 15 Not that wee haue dominion ouer your faith, but wee are helpers of your a ioy: for by faith ye ſtand.

y An earneſt, is, whatſoeuer is giuen to confirme a promiſe.

z Againſt my ſelfe, and to the danger of mine owne ſoule.

a Of your ſpirituall ioy.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee excuſeth his not comming vnto them, 2 and priuily reprehendeth them: 4 Hee ſheweth that ſuch is his affection towards them. 5 That he newer reuengeth but when they are merie. 6 Perſwading the adulterer (whom he commanded to be deliuered vp to Satan) to repent, hee requeſteth that they forgiue him. 31 Hee mentioneth his going into Macedonia.

BVt I determined thus in my ſelfe, that I would not come againe to you in a heauineſſe.
2 For if I make you ſorie, who is he then that ſhould make me glad, but the ſame which is made ſorie by me?
3 And I wrote this ſame thing vnto you, leaſt when I came, I ſhould take heauineſſe of them of whom I ought to reioyce: this b confidence haue I in you all, that my ioy is the ioy of you all.
4 For in great affliction, and anguiſh of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that yee ſhould be made ſory, but that ye might perceiue the loue which I haue, ſpecially vnto you.
5 c And if any hath cauſed ſorowe, the ſame hath not made c me ſory, but d partly (leaſt I ſhould more e charge him) you all.
6 It is ſufficient vnto the ſame man, that he was rebuked of many.
7 So that nowe contrariwiſe yee ought rather to f forgiue him, and comfort him, leaſt the ſame ſhould be ſwallowed vp with ouermuch heauineſſe.
8 Wherefore I pray you, that you would g confirme your loue towards him.
9 For this cauſe alſo did I write, that I might know the proofe of you, whether yee would be obedient in all things
10 To whom yee forgiue any thing, I forgiue alſo: for verely if I forgaue any thing, to whom I forgaue it, for your ſakes forgaue I it in the h ſight of Chriſt, 11 Leaſt Satan ſhould circumuent vs: for we are not ignorant of his i enterpriſes.
12 k 1 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Chriſts Goſpel, and a doore was opened vnto me of the Lord, 13 I had no reſt in my ſpirit, becauſe I found not Titus my brother, but tooke my leaue of them, and went away into Macedonia.
14 Now thankes be vnto God, which alwayes maketh vs to triumph in Chriſt, and maketh manifeſt the k ſauour of his knowledge by vs in euery place.
15 3 For we are vnto God the ſweete ſauour of Chriſt, in them that are ſaued, and in them which periſh.
16 To the one we are the ſauour of death, vnto death, and to the other the ſauour of life, vnto life: 4 and who is ſufficient for theſe things?
17 4 For we are not as many, which make l marchandiſe of the word of God: but as of ſinceritie, but as of God in the ſight of God ſpeake we in Chriſt.

b For I truſted that you would take that out of the way forthwith, which you knew I was diſcontented with, conſidering how you are perſwaded that my ioy is your ioy.

c Cauſing griefe amongſt you, which hee ſhould haue done if he had come to them before they had repented them.

d Partly (leaſt I ſhould more charge him) you all. Paul ſpeaketh thus, becauſe he would not ſeeme to be ouer ſharpe, you would now forgiue him. e That as my entreatie, you would declare by the conſent of the whole Church, that you take him againe for a brother. f Truely and from the heart.

g He returneth to the confirmation of his Apoſtleſhip, & bringeth forth the teſtimonies, both of his labour, and alſo of Gods bleſſing.

h He alludeth to the cuſtome of the Prieſts, and the incenſe of the ſacrifices.

i He denieth that ought ſhould be taken away from the dignitie of his Apoſtleſhip, becauſe they ſawe euidently that it was not received with like ſucceſſe in euery place, nay rather very many reiected and ſaw not of them that k He alludeth to Saui- Again, he putteth

l We dee not handle it craftily and couetouſly, or leſſe ſincerely then we ought: and he vſeth a metaphore which is taken from huckſters, which vſe to play the falſe harlots with whatſoeuer commeth into their hands.

CHAP. III.

1 He deſireth no other commendation, 3 then their continuing in the faith. 6 He is a miniſter, not of the letter, but of the Spirit. 8 He ſheweth the difference of the Law, and the Goſpell, 13 that the brightneſſe of the Law doth vtterly dimme the ſight then lighten it: 18 But the Goſpells doeth make manifeſt Gods countenance vnto vs.

DOe wee beginne to praiſe our ſelues againe? or need we as ſome other, Epiſtles of recommendations vnto you, or letters of recommendations from you?
2 Ye are our epiſtle, written in our hearts, which is vnderſtood and read of all men,
3 In that ye are a manifeſt, to be the Epiſtle of Chriſt, b miniſtred by vs, and written, not with ynche, but with the Spirit of the c liuing God, 1 not in tables of ſtone, but in fleſhly tables of the heart.
4 And ſuch d truſt haue we through Chriſt to God:
5 Not that wee are ſufficient of our ſelues, to thinke any thing as of our ſelues: but our e ſufficiencie is of God,
6 1 Who alſo hath made vs able miniſters of the Newe Teſtament, not of the f letter, but of the Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the Spirit giueth life.
7 If then the miniſtration of death written with letters g and ingrauen in ſtones, was h glorious, ſo that the children of Iſrael coulde not beholde the face of Moſes, for the glorie of his

a The Apoſtle fraſmeth his ſpeech wiſely, that by little and little he may come from the commendation of the perſon, to the matter it ſelfe.

b Which I tooke paines to write as it were.

c By the way he teacheth the vertue of God, againſt the ynche wherewith Epiſtles are commonly written, to ſhew that it was wrought by God.

1 He alludeth by the way, to the compariſon of the outward miniſterie of the Prieſthood of Leui, with miniſterie of the Goſpell, and the Apoſtolicall miniſterie, which he handleth afterward more fully. d This boldneſſe we ſhew, and thus gloriouſly may we boaſt of the worthineſſe and fruit of our miniſterie. e In that we are fit and meet to make other men partakers of ſo great a grace.

f He amplifieth his miniſterie and his fellowes: that is to ſay, the miniſterie of the Goſpell, comparing it with the miniſterie of the Law, which bee conſidereth in the perſon of Moſes, by whom the Law was giuen: againſt whome he ſetteth Chriſt the author of the Goſpell. Now this compariſon is taken from the verie ſubſtance of the miniſterie. The Law is as it were a writing of it ſelfe dead, and without efficacie: but the Goſpell or newe couenant, is as it were the very vertue of God it ſelfe, in renewing, iuſtifying, and ſauing of men. The Law propoundeth death, accuſing all men of vnrighteouſneſſe: The Goſpell offereth and giueth righteouſneſſe and life. The gouernance of the Law ſerued for a time to the promiſe. The Goſpell remaineth to the end of the world. Therefore what is the glorie of that in compariſon of the maieſtie of this? g Not of the Law, but of the Goſpell. h Imprinted and engrauen: ſo that by this place we may plainly perceiue, that the Apoſtle ſpeaketh not of the ceremonies of the Law, but euen of the ten commandements. i This word Glory, betokeneth a brightneſſe, and a maieſtie, which was bodily in Moſes, but ſpiritually in Chriſt.

countenance (which glory is gone away.)

8 How shall not the [i] ministration of the spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministery of condemnation was glorious, much more doeth the ministration of [k] righteousnesse exceede in glory.

10 For euen that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that is, as touching the exceeding glory.

11 For if that which should be [l] abolished, was glorious, much more shall that which remaineth be glorious.

12 ✣ Seeing then that we haue such truſt, we vſe great boldnesse of speech.

13 ✣ 4 And we are not as Moſes, which put a vaile vpon his face, that the children of Israel should not looke vnto the [m] ende of that which should be abolished.

14 Therefore their mindes are hardened: for vntill this day remaineth the ſame couering vntaken away in the reading of the olde Teſtament, which vaile in Chriſt is put away.

15 But euen vnto this day, when Moſes is read, the vaile is layd ouer their hearts:

16 Neuertheleſſe when their heart ſhall be turned to the Lord, the vaile ſhalbe taken away.

17 Now the [n] Lord is the ✣ Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 5 But we all behold as in a mirrour the glorie of the Lord with open face, and are changed into the ſame image, from glory to glory, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He ſheweth that he hath ſo laboured in preaching the Goſpel. 4 That ſuch are euen blinded of Satan, who doe not perceiue the brightneſſe thereof. 7 that the ſame is caried in earthen veſſels, 10 who are ſubiect to many miſeries: 16 and therefore hee exhorteth them by his owne example to be couragious, 17 and contemne this preſent life.

1 Now be plainly witneſſeth that both he and his fellowes (through the mercie of God) do their vocation and duety vprightly and ſincerely, neglecting all dangers.

a Though we are broken in pieces with miſeries and calamities, yet we yeelde not.

b Subtilitie, and all kinde of deceite, which men hunt after, as it were dennes and lurking holes, to couer their ſhameleſſe dealings withall. c This is it that in the former Chapter he called, making marchandiſe of the word of God. 2 An obiection: Many heare the Goſpel, & yet are no more lightened thereby then by the preaching of the Law. He anſwereth, The fault is in the men themſelues, whoſe eyes Satan plucketh out, who toileth in this world. And yet notwithſtanding doth he and his fellowes ſet foorth the moſt cleare light of the Goſpel to be ſeene and beholden, ſeeing that Chriſt whom onely they preach, is he in whom only God will be knowen, and as it were ſeene.

THerefore, 1 ſeeing that wee haue this miniſterie, as we haue receiued mercie, we [a] faint not:

2 But haue caſt from vs the [b] cloakes of ſhame, and walke not in craftineſſe, neither handle wee the word of God [c] deceitfully: but in declaration of the trueth we approoue our ſelues to euery mans conſcience in the ſight of God.

3 2 If our Goſpel be then hid, it is hid to them that are loſt.

4 In whoſe the god of this world hath blinded the mindes, that is, of the infidels, that the [d] light of the glorious Goſpel of Chriſt, which is the [e] image of God ſhould not ſhine vnto them.

5 3 For we preach not our ſelues, but Chriſt Ieſus the Lord, and our ſelues your ſeruants for [f] Ieſus ſake.

6 For God ✣ 8 that commanded the light to ſhine out of darkeneſſe, is he which hath ſhined in our hearts, to giue the [g] light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Ieſus Chriſt.

7 4 But we haue this treaſure in earthen veſſels, 5 that the excellencie of that power might be of God, and not of vs.

8 We are afflicted on euery ſide, yet are we not in diſtreſſe: we are in doubt, but yet we deſpaire not.

9 Wee are perſecuted, but not forſaken: caſt downe, but we periſh not.

10 6 Euery where we beare about in our bodie the [i] dying of the Lord Ieſus, that the life of Ieſus might alſo be made manifeſt in our bodies.

11 For we which [k] liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Ieſus ſake, that the life alſo of Ieſus might be made manifeſt in our [l] mortall fleſh.

12 7 So then death worketh in vs, and life in you.

13 8 And becauſe we haue the ſame [m] ſpirit of faith, according as it is written, ✣ I beleeued, and therefore haue I ſpoken, we alſo beleeue, and therefore ſpeake,

14 Knowing that hee which hath raiſed vp the Lord Ieſus, ſhall raiſe vs vp alſo by Ieſus, and ſhall ſet vs with you.

15 9 For all things are for your ſakes, [n] that that moſt plenteous grace by the thankeſgiuing of many, may redound to the praiſe of God.

16 Therefore wee faint not, [o] but though our outward man periſh, yet the inward man is [o] renewed daily.

17 For our [p] light affliction which is but for a moment, cauſeth vnto vs a farre moſt excellent and an eternall weight of 9 glorie:

18 While we looke not on the things which are ſeene, but on the things which are not ſeene: for the things which are ſeene, are temporall: but the things which are not ſeene, are eternall.

d The light of plaine and light-ſome preaching, which telleth forth the glory of Chriſt.

e In whom the Father ſitteth ſouth himſelfe to be ſeene and beholden.

3 He remooueth according to his accuſtomed manner, all ſuſpitions of ambition, auouching that he teacheth faithfully, but as a ſeruant, and witneſſing that all this light which he and his fellowes giue to other, proceedeth from the Lord.

f To preach this ſelfe ſame Ieſus you.

CHAP. V.

1 He continueth in the same argument, 6 touching the certaine hope of saluation 8 through faith, 12 not to praise himselfe, 14 seeing he hath God and his Church before his eyes, 17 and esteemeth nothing, but newnesse of life in Christ.

FOr 1 we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle be destroyed, wee haue a building giuen of God, that is, an house not made with hands, but eternall in the heauens.

2 For therefore we sigh, desiring to be a cloathed with our house, which is from b heauen.

3 2 Because that if we be cloathed, we shall not be found ✣ naked.

4 For in deed wee that are in this tabernacle, sigh and are burdened because wee would not be vncloathed, but would be cloathed vpon, that mortalitie might be swallowed vp of life.

5 And he that hath c created vs for this thing, is God, who also hath giuen vnto vs the earnest of the Spirit.

6 3 Therefore we are alway b bolde, though we know that whiles we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord.

7 (For wee walke by c faith, and not by sight.)

8 Neuertheless, we are f bolde, and loue rather to remoone out of the body, and to dwell with the Lord.

9 Wherefore also we g couet, that both dwelling at home, and remooning from home, we may be acceptable to him.

10 ✣ 4 For wee must all h appeare before the iudgement seat of Christ, that euery man may receiue the things which are done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or euill.

11 5 Knowing therefore that i terrour of the Lord we persuade men, and we are made manifest vnto God, and I trust also that we are made manifest in your consciences.

12 6 For wee praise not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you an occasion to reioyce of vs, that ye may haue to answere against them, which reioyce in the k face, and not in the heart.

13 7 For whether we be out of our wit, we are it to God: or whether we be in our right minde, we are it vnto you.

14 8 For that loue of Christ l constraineth vs, 15 Because wee thus iudge, that if m one be dead for all, then were all dead, and he died for all, that they which liue, should not hencefoorth n liue vnto themselues, but vnto him which died for them, and rose againe.

16 9 Wherefore, hencefoorth know we no man after the flesh, o no yea though wee had knowen Christ after the flesh, yet now hencefoorth know we him no more.

17 11 Therefore if any man be in Christ, let him be a p new creature. ✣ Old things are passed away: behold, all things are become new.

18 12 And all things are of God, which hath reconciled vs vnto himselfe by Iesus Christ, and hath giuen vnto vs the ministerie of reconciliation.

19 For God was in Christ, and reconciled the world to himselfe, not imputing their sinnes vnto them, and hath q committed to vs the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then are we ambassadours for Christ, as though God did beseech you through vs: wee pray you in Christes stead, that ye be reconciled to God.

21 For he hath made him to be r sinne for vs, which r knew no sinne, that wee should be made the s righteousnesse of God in him.

6 Taking occasion by the former comparison, hee compareth this miserable body, as it is in this life to a fraile and brickie tabernacle, against which hee setteth the heauenly Tabernacle, so terming that sure and euerlasting condition of this same body glorified in heauen, insomuch, sayth he, that we are not onely not addicted to this tabernacle, but also doe with sobbes and sighs desire rather that tabernacle. And so this place also concerning the glory to come, is put within the treatise of the dignitie of the ministrie, as the other was, wherein we spake in the beginning of the second Chapter.

a He calleth the glory of immortalitie, which we shalbe as it were cloathed with, a garment.

b Heauenly, not that the substance of it is heauenly, but for the glory of it.

3 An exposition of the former saying: We doe not without cause, desire to be clad with the heauenly house, that is, with that euerlasting and immortall glory, as with a garment: for when we depart hence, we shall not remaine naked, hauing once cast off the couering of this bodie, but we shall take our bodies againe, which shall put on, as it were another garment besides: and therefore we sigh not for the wearinesse of this life, but for the desire of a better life. Neither is this desire in vaine, for we are made to that life, the pledge whereof we haue, euen the Spirit of adoption. ✣ Reuel. 16 15.

c He meaneth that first creation, to giue vs to vnderstand, that our bodies were made to this end, that they should be clothed with heauenly immortalitie.

4 Heereupon vpon that sentence which went next before, thus, Therefore, seeing that we know by the Spirit, that we are strangers so long as we are here, we patiently suffer this tarriance (for we are now so with God, y we beholde him but by faith, and are therefore now absent from him) but so that we aspire & haue a longing alwayes to him: therefore also we behaue our selues so, that we may be acceptable to him, both while we liue here, & when we goe from hence to him. d He calleth them (bolde) which are alwayes resolued with a quiet & setled minde to suffer what dangers soeuer, nothing doubting, but that at end shall be happy. e Faith of those things which we hope for, & not hauing God presently in our view. f And yet we are in such fort bolde, & so possesse on our pilgrimage with a valiant and quiet minde, that yet notwithstanding, we had rather depart hence to the Lord. g And seeing it is so, we striue to liue so, that both in this our pilgrimage heere wee may please him, & that at length we may be receiued home to him. ✣ Rom. 14. 10.

5 That no man might thinke it to pertaine to all, which he spake of that heauenly glory, hee addeth, that euery one shall first render an account of his pilgrimage, after that hee is departed from hence. h We must all appeare personally, and enquiry shall be made of vs, that all may see, how wee haue liued. i Now he passeth ouer, and taking occasion of the former sentence, returneth to the former chapter verse 16. confirming his owne sinceritie and his fellowes. i That terrible iudgement. 6 Hee remooueth all suspition of pride, by a new reason, because it is behoouable, not for his part, but for theirs, that his Apostleship be counted sincere against the vaine ostentation of a few others. k In outward disgusings, and that coloured shew of mans wisdome and eloquence, and not in true godlinesse, which is sealed in the hearts,

7 The meaning is: Euen when I am mad (as some men thinke of me) whilest I seeme as a foole to boast my selfe, I doe it for your profit, no lesse then when I preach the Gospel simply vnto you.

8 He goeth forward in putting away all suspition of desire of estimation and boasting: for the loue of Christ, saith he, compelleth vs hereunto, that seeing he died for vs all, which were dead when as we liued to our selues (that is, while we were yet giuen to these earthly affections) we in like sort should consecrate our whole life which we haue receiued of him, to him (to wit) being indued with the holy Ghost to this end and purpose, that we should meditate vpon nothing but that which is heauenly.

9 Hee meaneth what it is, not to liue to our selues, but to Christ, to wit, to know no man according to the flesh, that is to say, to be conuersant among men, as not to care for those worldly and carnall things, as conuersant among men, as not to care for those worldly and carnall things, as they doe who respect a mans stocke, his country, forme, glorie, riches, and such like, wherein men commonly dote, and weanie themselues.

10 An amplification: This is, sayeth hee, so true, that we doe not now thinke carnally of Christ himselfe, who hath now left the world, and therefore must be considered of vs spiritually. 11 An exhortation for euery man which is renewed with the spirit of Christ, to meditate heauenly things, and not earthly. o As a thing made anew of God, for though a man be not newly created, when God giueth him the spirit of regeneration, but onely his qualities are changed, yet notwithstanding it pleased God to create him anew. p That we are flockes and blockes, but because God createth in vs, both the will to will well, and the power to doe well. ✣ Esa. 43 19 *renewes succoured thee: beholde now the accepted time, beholde now the day of saluation.

3 [3] Wee giue no occasion of offence in any thing, that our ministerie should not be reprehended.

4 But in all things we [b] approoue our selues as ✠ the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in prisons, in [c] tumults, in labours,

6 [5] By watchings, by fastings, by puritie, by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindnesse, by the holy Ghost, by loue vnfained,

7 By the [d] word of trueth, by the [e] power of God, by the [f] armour of righteousnesse on the right hand, and on the left,

8 By honour, and dishonour, by euill report, and good report, as deceiuers, and yet true:

9 As vnknowen, and yet knowen: as dying, and beholde, we liue: as chastened, and yet not killed:

10 As sorowing, and yet alway reioycing: as poore, and yet making many rich: as hauing nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 [6] O Corinthians, our mouth is [g] open vnto you, our heart is made large.

12 Ye are not [h] kept strait in vs, but ye are kept strait in your owne [i] bowels.

13 Now for the same recompense, I speake as to my children, Be you also inlarged.

14 [7] Be not vnequally yoked with the infidels: for ✠ what fellowship hath righteousnes with vnrighteousnesse? and what communion hath light with darknesse?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Beliał? or what [k] part hath the beleeuer with the infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the Temple of God with idols? ✠ for yee are the Temple of the [l] liuing God: as God hath sayd, ✠ I will [m] dwell among them, and walke there: and I will be their God, and they shallbe my people.

17 ✠ Wherefore come out from among them, and separate your selues, sayth the Lord, and touch none vncleane thing, and I will receiue you.

18 * And I will be a Father vnto you, and yee shall be my sonnes and daughters, sayth the Lord Almighty.

3 He sheweth the Corinthians a patterne of a true minister, in his owne example, and Timotheus and Silvanus, to the end, that (as he purposed from the beginning) he might procure authoritie to himselfe and his like.
b Declare and shew indeed.
✠ 1. Cor. 4. 1.
4 Hee first of all reckoneth vp those things which are neither alwayes in the ministers, nor without exception, vnlesse it be according to the affection of the minde, patience onely except, which also is one of the vertues which ought to be alwayes in a good minister.
c An vprore to and fro, finding no place of rest and quietnesse.
5 Secondly, hee reckoneth vp such vertues as are necessary, and ought alwayes to be in them, and whereby as by good armour, all lets and hinderances may be ouercome.
d Preaching of the Gospel.
e Power to worke miracles, and to bring vnder the spirit.
f Uprightnesse.
6 Going about to rebuke them, hee sayth first, that he dealeth with them sincerely and with an open and plaine heart, and therewith all complaineth that they do not the like in louing againe their Father.
g The opening of the mouth and heart, betokeneth a most earnest affection in him that speaketh, as it fareth commonly with them that are in some great ioy.
h You are in mine heart, as in an house, and that no narrow or strait house, for I haue opened my whole heart to you, but you are inwardly strait laced to me ward.
i After the maner of the Hebrewes, he calleth those tender affections which rest in the heart bowels.
7 Now he rebuketh them boldly, for that they became fellowes with infidels in outward idolatry, as though it were a thing indifferent. And this is the fourth part of this Epistle, the conclusion whereof is, that such as the Lord hath vouchsafed the name of his children, must keepe themselues pure, not only in mind, but also in body, that they may wholly be holy vnto the Lord. ✠ Ecclesi. 13. 18.
k What can there be betweene them? ✠ 1. Cor. 3. 16. & 6. 19.
m God dwelleth with vs, because Christ is become God with vs. ✠ Isa. 52. 11. * Iere. 31. 1.

1 He returneth againe from that admonition to his owne person, opposing the testimonies both of his faithfulnesse and also of his continuall good will towards them.
b Let vs haue some place amongst you, that I may teach you.
c To condemne you of vnkindnes or treachery.
d Whose hearts are cast downe, and are very say spent.
e With those things which Titus told me of you at his comming, to wit, how fruitfully you reade ouer my letters, moreouer and besides that, I am exceedingly refreshed with his presence.
3 An obiection: But thou hast bandied vs roughly: the Apostle answereth that he vsed not this roughnes without griefe. And hee addeth moreouer, that he is also glad now, that he draue them to that sorowe, although it was against his will, since it was so profitable vnto them: for there is a sorow not onelie praise worthy, but also necessary, to wit, whereby repentance groweth by certaine degrees, for the which repentance hee praiseth them highly. And this is the fit part of this Epistle.
f Inasmuch as that sorow did you much good toward the amendment of your lewdnes and sinnes.
g Gods sorow is when we are not terrified with the feare of punishment, but because we feele we haue offended God our most mercifull Father: contrary to this, there is another sorow that onely feareth punishment, or when a man is vexed for the losse of some worldly goods: the fruit of the first, is repentance, the fruit of the second, is desperation, vnlesse the Lord helpe speedily.
h It was not coloured nor counterfeit, such as I doe stand to before God.

CHAP. VII.

1 Lest by ouermuch vrging thee he should disturbe their tender minds, a he propoueth that all that he sayd, 4 proceeded of the great good will he bare vnto them: 8 and therefore they should not be offended, that he made them sorie, and brought them to repentance not to be repented of.

SEeing then we haue these promises, deerely beloued, let vs cleanse our selues from all filthinesse of the ✠ flesh and spirit, and finish our sanctification in the feare of God,

2 [1] [b] Receiue vs: we haue done wrong to no man: we haue corrupted no man: we haue defrauded no man.

3 I speake it not to your [c] condemnation: for I haue sayd before, that ye are in our hearts, to die and liue together.

4 I vse great boldnesse of speech toward you: I reioyce greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.

5 For when wee were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on euery side, fightings without, and terrours within.

6 But God, that comforteth the [d] abiect, comforted vs at the [e] comming of Titus:

7 And not by his comming onely, but also by the consolation wherewith hee was comforted of you, when he told vs your great desire, your mourning, your feruent minde to me ward, so that I reioyced much more.

8 [2] For though I made you sory with a letter, I repent not, though I did repent: for I perceiue that the same Epistle made you sory, though it were but for a season.

9 I now reioyce, not that ye were sory, but that ye sorowed to [f] repentance: for ye sorowed godly, so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.

10 For [g] godly sorow causeth repentance vnto saluation, not to be repented of: but the worldly sorow causeth death.

11 For beholde, this thing that ye haue beene godly sory, what great care hath it wrought in you: yea, what clearing of your selues: yea, what indignation: yea, what feare: yea, how great desire: yea, what a zeale: yea, what reuenge: in all things yee haue shewed your selues, that yee are pure in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote vnto you, I did not it for his cause that had done the wrong, neither for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care toward you in the [h] sight of God might appeare vnto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted, because ye were comforted: but rather wee reioyced much more for the ioy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if that I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I haue not bene ashamed: but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in trueth, euen so our boasting vnto Titus was true.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, when he remembreth the obedience of you all, and how with feare and trembling yee receiued him.

16 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

k Both of bodie and soule, that by this meanes the sanctification may be perfect, confessing in both the parts thereof.

chers of Macedonia,

2 Because in b great triall of affliction their ioy abounded, and their most extreme powertie abounded vnto their rich liberalitie.

3 For to their power (I beare record) yea, and beyond their power they were c willing.

4 And prayed vs with great instance, that wee would receiue the d grace, and fellowship of the ministring which is toward the Saints.

5 2 And this they did, not as wee looked for: but gaue their owne selues, first to the Lord, and after vnto vs by the will of God.

6 That wee should exhort Titus, that as hee had begun, so hee would also accomplish the same grace among you also.

7 Therefore, as ye abound in euery thing, in faith and word, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue towards vs, euen so see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 3 This say I not by commandement, but because of the e diligence of others: therefore proue I the f naturalnesse of your loue.

9 4 For yee know the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, that hee being rich, for your sakes became poore, that yee through his powertie might be made rich.

10 5 And I shew my minde herein: for this is expedient for you, which haue begun not to doe onely, but also to g will, a yeere agoe.

11 Now therefore performe to doe it also; that as there was a readinesse to will, euen so yee may performe it of that which yee haue.

12 6 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 7 Neither is it that other men should be eased and you grieued: But vpon h like condition, at this time your abundance supplyeth their lacke:

14 That also their abundance may be for your lacke, that there may be equalitie.

15 As it is written, ✠ Hee that gathered much, had nothing ouer, and he that gathered little, had not the lesse.

16 8 And thanks be vnto God, which had put in the heart of Titus the same care for you.

17 Because he accepted the exhortation, yea, he was so carefull that of his owne accord he went vnto you.

18 And wee haue sent also with him the brother, whose praise is in i the Gospel throughout all the Churches.

19 (And not so onely, but is also chosen of the Churches to be a fellow in our iourney, concerning this k grace that is ministred by vs vnto the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your prompt minde.)

20 Auoiding this, that no man should blame vs in this l abundance that is ministred by vs,

21 ✠ Prouiding for honest things, not onely before the Lord, but also before men.

22 And wee haue sent with them our brother, whom wee haue oft times proued to be diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, for the great confidence, which I haue in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my fellow and helper to youward: or of our m brethren they are messengers of the Churches, and the n glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew towarde them, and before the o Churches the proofe of your loue, and of the reioycing that we haue of you.

presence you are, for so much as you see the messengers whom they haue chosen by all their consents, and sent them vnto you.

CHAP. IX.

1 Why albeit hee thinke well of their ready willes, 3 yet earnestly exhorteth them, 6 hee yeeldeth a reason: 6 He compareth almes to seede sowing, 10 which God doeth repay with great gaine.

FOr p as touching the ministring to the Saints, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you.

2 For I know your readines of minde, whereof I boast my selfe of you vnto them of Macedonia, and say, that Achaia was prepared a yeere agoe, and your zeale hath prouoked many.

3 Now haue I sent the brethren, least our reioycing ouer you should be in vaine in this behalfe, that ye (as I haue sayd) be ready.

4 Least if they of Macedonia come with mee, and finde you vnprepared, we (that wee may not say you) should be ashamed in this my q constant boasting.

5 Wherefore, I thought it necessarie to exhort the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your beneuolence appointed afore, that it might be ready, and come as of beneuolence, and not as b niggardlinesse.

6 r This yet remember, that hee which soweth sparingly, shall reape also sparingly, and he that soweth liberally, shall reape also liberally.

7 As euery man c witheth in his heart, so let him giue, not ✠ d grudgingly, or of e necessitie: ✠ for God loueth a cheerefull giuer.

8 And God is able to make f all grace to abound toward you, that ye alwayes hauing all sufficiencie in all things, may abound in g euery good worke,

9 (s As it is written, He hath sparsed abroad and hath giuen to the poore: his beneuolence remaineth for h euer.

10 Also hee that findeth seed to the sower, will minister likewise bread for food: and multiplie your seed, and increase the i fruits of your beneuolence)

11 That on all parts ye may be made rich vnto all liberalitie, which causeth through vs thankesgiuing vnto God.

12 3 For the ministration of this seruice not onely supplieth the necessities of the Saints, but also abundantly causeth many to giue thanks to God,

13 (Which by the k experiment of this ministration praise God for your l voluntarie sub-b For those manifolde afflictions, wherewith he Lord tried them, did not onely not quaile their ioyfull readines, but also made it much more excellent and famous.

c Of their owne accord they were liberall.

d He calleth that Grace, that other men would haue called a burden. And this verse is to be expounded by the next verse.

e He amplifieth the forwardnes of the Macedonians, in this, that they also desired Paul to stirre vp the Corinthians to accomplish the gining of almes, by sending againe of Titus vnto them.

3 Thirdly he warneth them that they deceiue not their expectation which they haue conceiued of them.

e At the request of the Macedonians.

f Then appeareth the naturalnesse of our loue, when as in deede, and that frankely and freely, we helpe our brethren, euen for Christ his sake.

6 The fourth argument taken from the example of Christ.

7 He taketh good heede that hee seeme not to wrest it out of them by constraint, for valesse it be voluntarie; God doeth not accept it.

g Not onely to doe, but also to doe willingly: for he noteth out a readie willingnes without any inforcement by any other men, much lesse came it of ambition and vainglory.

6 Against such as vse to excuse themselues, because they are not rich, as though it were onely proper to rich men to helpe the poore.

7 Christian liberalitie is mutuall: that m Least by his great commendation and praise, the Corinthians should be puffed vp, he scotteth vp this exhortation, with this exclamation.

mission to the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberall distribution to them, and to all men)

14 And in their prayer for you, to long after you greatly, for the abundant grace of God in you.

15 [m] Thankes therefore be vnto God for his vnspeakeable gift.

CHAP. X.

a Hee foreweth with what confidence, 4 with what weapons, 6 and with what reuenge he is armed against the cauillations of the wicked, 7 and that, when he is present, his deedes haue no lesse power, 11 then his wordes haue force when he is absent.

n He returneth to the defence of his Apostleship, but so that he vseth his authoritie therein: for hee warneth them earnestly and gratefully, vsing also terrible threatnings to shew themselues such as are apt to be instructed. And he refelleth certaine proud men which made no better accompt of him, then of a bragging Thraso, in that he vseth to be sharpe against them when he was absent, because they shewe no great mateitie in him after the maner of men, and besides, had prooued his lenitie, notwithstanding that in his absence, he had written to them sharpely. Therefore first of all he professeth that he was gentle and moderate, but after the example of Christ: but if they continue still to despise his gentlenesse, he protesteth vnto them that he will shew in deede how farre they are deceiued which make

NOwe [1] I Paul my selfe beseech you by the meekenesse, and [2] gentlenesse of Christ, which when I am present among you am base, but am bolde toward you being absent:

2 And this I require you, that I needе not to be bolde when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to be bolde against some, which esteeme vs as though we walked [b] according to the flesh.

3 [2] Nauertheleſſe, though wee walke in the flesh, yet we do not warre after the flesh.

4 (For the weapons of our warrefare are not [c] carnall, but mightie through [d] God, to cast downe holdes.)

5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euery high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, [3] and bringing into captiuitie euery thought to the obedience of Christ,

6 And hauing ready the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 [4] Looke ye on things after the [e] appearance? If any man trust in himselfe that he is Christes, let him consider this againe of himselfe, that as he is Christes, euen so are we Christes.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authoritie, which the Lord hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I should haue no shame.

9 This I say, that I may not seeme as it were to feare you with letters.

10 For the letters, (sayeth [3] hee) are sore and strong, but his bodily presence is weake, and his speach is of no value.

11 Let such one thinke this, that such as wee are in word by letters, when wee are absent, such will we be also in deede, when we are present.

12 [5] For we [h] dare not make our selues of the number, or to compare our selues to them, which praise themselues: but they vnderstand not that they measure themselues with [i] themselues, and [k] compare themselues with themselues.

13 But we will not reioyce of things, which are not within our [l] measure, ✣ but according to the measure of the line, whereof God hath distributed vnto vs a measure to attaine euen vnto you.

14 For wee stretch not our selues beyond our measure, as though we had not attained vnto you: for euen to you also haue wee come in preaching the Gospel of Christ.

15 Not boasting of things which are [m] without our measure: that is, of others mens labours: and wee hope, when your faith shall increase, to be magnified by you according to your line abundantly,

16 And to preach the Gospel in those regions which are beyond you: not to reioyce in [n] another mans line, that is, in the things that are prepared already.

17 ✣ [6] But let him that reioyceth, reioyce in the Lord.

18 For he that praiseth himselfe, is not allowed, but he whom the Lord praiseth.

CHAP. IX.

a He testifieth that for the great loue: sake he beareth to the Corinthians, he is compelled to vtter his owne praises, 3 and that he bestowed his labor on them without any reward. 15 That the false apostles should not surpasse him in any thing. 22 whom he farre excelled in those things which are praise worthy in deed.

WOuld [1] to God, ye could suffer a little my foolishnesse, and in deed, ye suffer me.

2 For I am ielous ouer you, with [2] a godly iealousie: for I haue prepared you for one husband, to [b] present you as a pure virgine to Christ:

3 But I feare least as the [c] serpent begoiled Eue through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupt from the simplicity that is in [d] Christ:

4 [2] For if he that commeth, preacheth [d] another Iesus whom we haue not preached: or if ye receiue another spirit which yee haue not receiued: either another Gospel which ye haue not receiued, ye might well haue suffered him.

5 Verely I suppose that I was not inferiour to the very chiefe Apostles.

6 [3] And though I be [f] rude in speaking, yet I am not so in knowledge, but among you we haue beene made manifest to the vttermoſt, in all things.

7 [4] Haue I committed an offence, because I abased my selfe, that ye might be exalted, & because I preacheth to you the Gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other Churches, and tooke wages of them to doe you seruice.

9 And when I was present with you, and had need, [g] I was not slouthfull to the hinderance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto me, the brethren which came from Macedonia,

i Vpon a vaine perswasion that they haue of themselues, they take vpon them they care not what. k They contemne all other, and measure all their doings onely by themselues. l Of those things, which God hath not measured to me. ✣ Ephes. 4. 17. m As things God had diuided the whole world among the Apostles, to be husbanded. n In countreyes which other men haue prepared and husbanded with the preaching of the Gospell.

6 He somewhat mitigateth that which he spake of himselfe and therewith also prepareth the Corinthians to beare other things, witnessing that he seeketh nothing else but to approoue himselfe to God, whose glory he onely seeketh.

1 He granteth that after a sort he playeth the foole in this vaunting of things, but he addeth that he doth it against his will, for their profit, because hee seeth them deceiued by certaine vaine and crafty men, through the craft and subtiltie of Satan.

a He speaketh as a wooer, but yet as one that seeketh them not for himselfe, but for God. b To marrie you together.

c Gene. 3. 4.

c This place is to be marketh against them which loathe that plaine & pure simplicitie of the Scriptures, in comparison of the coyes and vaintings of mans eloquence.

d Which is meet for them that are in Christ.

2 He sheweth that they deceiue themselues, if they looke to receiue of any other man, either a more excellent Gospel, or more excellent gifts of the holy Ghost. e Annie perfect doctrine of Iesus Christ. 3 Hee refuteth the slanders of those Traſons. I grant, sayth he, that I am not so eloquent an Orator, but yet they can not take away the knowledge of the Gospel from me, whereof you haue had good proofe, and that euery maner of way. f Paul lacked not that kinde of eloquence which is meet for a man, and fit for the Gospel, but he willingly wanted that painted kinde of speech, which too many now adayes hunt after & follow. 4 Another slander, to wit, y he was a rascall, & lined by the labour of his owne hands. But herein, sayth the Apostle, what can you lay against me, but that I was content to take any paines for your sakes, and when I lacked, to trauell for my liuing with mine owne handes in part, and partly also when pouerty constrained me, I chose rather otherwise to seeke my sustenance, then to be any burden to you, although I preached the Gospel vnto you? ✣ Chap. 12, 13.

supplied, and in all things I kept, f and will keepe my selfe, that I should not be grieuous vnto you.

12 Therefore ? because I loue you not ? God knoweth.

13 But what I doe, that will I doe, that I may cut away occasion from them which desire occasion, that they might be found like vnto vs in that wherein they t reioyce.

14 6 For such false apostles are deceitfull workers, and transforme themselues into the Apostles of Christ.

15 And no marualle: for Satan himselfe is transformed into an Angel of k light.

16 Therefore it is no great thing, though his ministers transforme themselues, as though they were the ministers of righteousnesse, whose end shallbe according to their workes.

17 7 I say Againe, Let no man thinke that I am foolish, or else take me euen as a foole, that I also may boast my selfe a little.

18 That I speake, I speake it not after the Lord: but as it were foolishly, in this my great boasting.

19 Seeing that many reioyce after the flesh, I will reioyce also.

20 For ye suffer fooles gladly, because that yee are wise.

20 8 For ye suffer, euen if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure you, if a man take your goods, if a man exalt himselfe, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speake as concerning the [l] reproach: as though that we had benem weake: but wherein any man is bold (I speake foolishly) I am bolde also.

22 They are Hebrewes, ✣ so am I: they are Israelites, so am I: they are the seede of Abraham, so am I.

23 They are the ministers of Christ (I speake as a foole) I am [n] more: in labours more abundant: in stripes aboue measure: in prison more plentiously: in [o] death oft.

24 Of the Iewes p fiue times receiued I fourtie stripes saue one.

25 I was q thrise ✣ beaten with rodes: I was [r] once stoned: I suffred thrise ✣ shipwracke: night and day haue I beene in the deepe sea.

26 In iourneying I was often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of mine owne nation, in perils among the Gentiles, in perils in the citie, in perils in wildernesse, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren,

27 In whearinesse and [s] painefulnesse, in watching often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in colde and in nakednesse.

28 9 Beside the things which are outward, I am combred dayly, and haue the care of all the Churches.

29 Who is weake, and I am not weake? Who is offended, and I burne not?

30 10 If I must needes reioyce, I will reioyce of mine infirmities.

31 The God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which is blessed for euermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In ✣ Damascus the gouernour of the people vnder King Aretas, layde watch in the citie of the Damascens, and would haue caught mee.

33 But at a window was I let downe in a basket though the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAP. XII.

1 He doth euen vnwillingly make rehearsall of the heauenly visions, q that were reuealed vnto him, & for which though he might in deede glory, yet he will not, 10 being privy of his owne infirmities: 11 but they driue him to this kinde of folly. 20 In that they giue eare to certaine vaine glorious persons, who draw them from Christ.

IT [t] is not expedient for me no doubt to reioyce: for I will come to visions and reuelations of the Lord.

2 I know a man a in Christ aboue fourteene yeeres agone, (whether he were in the body, I can not tell, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth) which was taken vp into the [b] third heauen.

3 And I knowe such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth.)

4 How that he was taken vp into [c] Paradise, and heard words which [d] cannot be spoken, which are not [e] possible for man to vtter.

5 2 Of such a man will I reioyce: of my selfe will I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities.

6 For though I would reioyce, I should not be a foole, for I will say the trueth: but I refraine, lest any man should thinke of me aboue that hee seeth in me, or that he heareth of me.

7 3 And least I should be exalted out of measure through the aboundance of reuelations, there was giuen vnto me a f pricke in the flesh, the messenger of g Satan to buffet mee, because I should not be exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord h thrise that it might depart from me.

9 And he sayd vnto me, My grace is sufficient

9 He addeth this in conclusio of further, that the Corinthians might be ashamed to despise him, vpon whose care almost all Churches depended, as it was plainely seene by experience.

10 He answereth that against the aduersaries, which they obiected against him: as if he should say, They alleadge my calamities, to take away thy authoritie from me: but if I would boast my selfe, I would take no better argument: and God himselfe is my witnesse that I deuise not and forge nothing.

And hereupon grew it, that that blessed seate of the glory of God is called by that name. d Which no man is able to vtter. e Which the Saints themselues are not by any meanes able to expresse, because it is God himselfe. Thus doth Clemens Alexandrinus expound this place, Strom. 5. 2 To remoue all suspition of ambition, hee witnesseth that hee bragged not of those things as of his owne, but as out of himselfe, and yet notwithstanding faineth nothing, least by this occasion other men should attribute more vnto him then in deed hee is: and therefore hee had rather glory in his infirmities. 3 An excellent doctrine: why God will haue euen his best seruants to be vexed of Satan and by all kinde of temptations, to wit, least they should be too much puffed vp, and also that they may be made perfite by that continuall exercise. f He meaneth concupiscence, that flicketh fast in vs, as it were a pricke, in so much that it constrained Paul himselfe being regenerate, to cry out, I doe not that good that I would, &c. g A pricke, by a borrowed kinde of speach taken from thornes, or stumpes, which are very dangerous and hurtfull for the feete, if a man walke through woods that are not downe. h Which setteth those suffis in fire. i Oft.

for thee: for my power is made perfect through weakenesse. 4 Very gladly therefore will I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

10 Therefore I take [k] pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguish for Christes sake: for when I am weake, then am I strong.

11 I was a foole to boast my selfe: yee haue compelled me: [l] for I ought to haue beene commended of you: for in nothing was I inferiour vnto the very chiefe Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 The [1] signe of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes, and wonders, and great workes.

13 For what is it, wherein yee were inferiours vnto other Churches, ✣ except that I haue not beene [m] slouthfull to your hinderance? forgiue me this wrong.

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come vnto you, and yet will I not be slouthfull to your hinderance: for I seeke not yours, but you, for the children ought not to lay vp for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I will most gladly bestow, and will be bestowed for your soules: though the more I loue you, the lesse I am loued.

16 [6] But be it that I charged you not: yet for as much as I was craftie, I tooke you with guile.

17 Did I pill you by any of them whom I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired Titus, and with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus pill you of any thing? walked we not in the same steps?

19 [7] Againe, thinke yee that wee excuse our selues vnto you? we speake before God in [n] Christ. But we doe all things, dearely beloued, for your edifying.

20 [8] For I feare least when I come, I shall not find you such as I would: and that I shallbe found vnto you such as ye would not: and least there be strife, enuying, wrath, contentions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, and discord.

21 I feare least when I come againe, my God abase me among you, and I shall bewaile many of them which haue sinned already, and haue not repented of the vncleannesse, and fornication, and wantonnesse which they haue committed.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Cunning the third time, 2 he denounceth the sharper vengeance towards them, 5 who haue a perfect triall of the power of Christ in his Apostleship: 10 At length he prayeth for their repentance, 11 And wisheth them prosperitie.

LO this is the third time that I come vnto you. ✣ In the mouth of two or three witnesses shal euery word stand.

2 I told you before, and tell you before: as though I had beene present the second time, so write I now being absent to them, which heretofore haue sinned, and to all others, that if I come againe I will not spare,

3 [1] Seeing that ye seeke experience of Christ, that speaketh in mee, which towards you is not weake, but is [a] mightie in you.

4 For though hee was crucified concerning [b] his infirmitie, yet liueth hee through the power of God. And we no doubt are weake in him, but we shall liue with him, through the power of God toward you.

5 ✣ [2] Proone your selues whether ye are in the faith: examine your selues: knowe you not your owne selues, how that Iesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

6 [3] But I trust that yee shall knowe that wee are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray vnto God that yee doe none euill, not that we should seeme approoued, but that yee would doe that which is honest: though wee be as [c] reprobates.

8 For wee can not doe any thing against the trueth, but for the trueth.

9 For wee are glad when wee are weake and that yee are strong: this also we wish for, euen your [d] perfection.

10 Therefore write I these things being absent, least when I am present, I should vse sharpnesse, according to the power which the Lord hath giuen mee, to edification, and not to destruction.

11 [4] Finally brethren, fare ye well: be perfect: be of good comfort: be of one minde: liue in peace, and the God of loue and peace shall be with you.

12 [5] Greete one another with an [e] holy kisse. All the Saints salute you.

13 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, and the loue of God, and the communion of the holy Ghost be with you all, Amen.

4 He concludeth, that hee will onely vse his miseries against the vaine braggers of the false apostles, and there with also excuseth himselfe, for that by their impatiencie, he was constrained so speake so much of these things as he did: to wit, because that if his Apostleship were dishonored, his doctrine must needes fall.
a That I might feele the vertue of Christ more and more: For the weaker that our tabernacles are, the more doeth Christs power appeare in them.
b I doe not onely take them patiently and with a good heart, but also I take great pleasure in them.
5 Againe he maketh the Corinthians witnesses of those things whereby God had sealed his Apostleshippe amongst them, and againe he declareth by certaine arguments, How farre hee is from all couetousnesse, and also how he is affectioned towards them.
1 The arguments whereby it may well appeare, that I am indeede an Apostle of Iesus Christ.

m I was not slouthfull in getting my liuing with mine owne hands, that I might not be burdensome to you.

6 Hee putteth a way another most grieuous slaunder, to wit, that hee did subtilly and by others, make his gaine and profite of them. 7 Hee concludeth, that hee writeth not these things vnto them, as though hee needed to defend himselfe, for hee is guiltie of nothing: but because it is behoueable for them to doubt nothing of his fidelitie who instructed them. n As it becommeth him to speake truely and sincerely, that professeth himselfe to be in Christ, that is to say, to be a Christian. 8 Hauing confirmed his authoritie vnto them, he rebuketh them sharpely, and threatneth them also like an Apostle, shewing that he will not spare them hereafter, valesse they repent, seeing that this is the third time that he hath warned them.

3 Hee mitigateth that sharpeneſſe, trusting that they will shewe themselues towards their faithfull Apostle, apt and willing to be taught: adding this moreouer, that he passeth not for his owne fame & estimation, so that hee may serue to their saluation, which is the onely marke that he shooteth at. To whom vnder. d That all things may be in good order among vs, and the members of the Church restored into their place which haue bene broken and out of place.
4 A briefe exhortation, but yet such an one as comprehendeth all the parts of a Christian mans life. 5 He saluteth them familiarly, and in conclusion wisheth well vnto them. ✣ 1. Cor. 16. 20.

a A most sharpe reprehension, for that while they despise the Apostles admonitions they tempt Christes owne patience: and also while they contemne him as wretched and miserable, they lay nothing herein against him, which is not common to him with Christ.

b As touching that base forme of a seruant which he tooke vpon him when he abased himselfe.
✣ 1. Cor. 11. 28.
c He confirmeth that which he spake of the vertue of God appearing in his ministerie, and he gathereth by the mutuall relation betweene the peoples faith, and the ministers preaching, that they must either reuerence his Apostleship, vpon whose doctrine their faith is grounded, or they must condemne themselues of infidelitie, and must confesse themselues not to be of Christes body.

THE EPISTLE OF THE APOSTLE PAVL TO THE GALATIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 Straight after the salutation, he reprehendeth the Galatians for revolting 9 from his Gospel, 15 which he receaued from God, 17 before he had communicated with any of the Apostles.

PAVL[1] an Apostle(not[2] of men, neither by man, ✣ but by [c]Iesus Christ, & God the Father which hath [3] raised him from the dead.)

2 And all the brethren which are with me, vnto the Churches of Galatia:

3 Grace be with you, and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Iesus Christ,

4 [4] Which gaue himselfe for our sinnes, that he might deliuer vs[5] from this present euill world according to the will of God euen our Father,

5 To whom be glory for euer and euer. Amen.

6 [1] I marueile that ye are so soone[c] remooued away vnto another Gospel, from him that had called you in the grace of Christ,

7 [2] Which is not another Gospel, saue that there be some which trouble you, and intend to [f] peruert the Gospel of Christ.

8 But though that we, or an Angel from heauen preach vnto you otherwise, then that which we haue preached vnto you, let him be [g] accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now againe, If any man preach vnto you otherwise, then that yee haue receiued, let him be accursed.

10 [3] For now preach I [h] mans doctrine, or Gods? or goe I about to please men? for if I should yet please men, I were not the seruant of Christ.

11 [4] Now I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of mee, was not after man.

12 For neither receiued I it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the [i] reuelation of Iesus Christ.

13 [5] For ye haue heard of my conuersation in time past, in the Iewish religion, how that ✣ I persecuted the Church of God extremely, and wasted it,

14 And profited in the Iewish religion aboue many of my companions of mine owne nation, and was much more zealous of the [k] traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God (which had [l] separated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace.)

16 To reueale his Sonne [m] in mee, that I should preach him ✣ among the Gentiles immediatly, I communicated not with [n] flesh and blood:

17 Neither came I againe to Hierusalem to them which were Apostles before me, but I went into Arabia, and turned againe vnto Damascus.

18 Then after three yeeres I came againe to Hierusalem, to visite Peter, and [o] boade with him fiseene dayes.

19 And none other of the Apostles saw I, saue Iames the Lords brother.

20 Now the things which I write vnto you, behold, I protteste [p] before God, that I lie not.

21 After that, I went into the coastes of Syria and Cilicia: for I was vnknowen by face vnto the Churches of Iudea which were in Christ.

22 But they had heard onely some say, He which persecuted vs in time past, now preacheth the [g] faith which before hee destroyed.

23 And they glorified God for me.

1 A saluration comprehending in few words, the summe of the Apostles doctrine, and also besides straightway from the beginning, shewing the gratuite meere for the authorite of an Apostle, which he had to maintaine against the false apostles.

a He sheweth who is the authour of the ministery generally: for herein the whole ministry agreeth, that whether they be Apostles, or Shepheards, or Doctours, they are appointed of God.

b He toucheth the instrumental cause: for this is a peculiar prerogatiue to the Apostles, to be called immediately from Christ.

c Christ no doubt is man, but hee is God also, and head of the Churches, and in this respect to be exempted out of the number of men.

2 The summe of the true Gospel is this, that Christ by his onely offering, saueth vs being chosen out from the world. by the free decree of God the Father ✣ Luke 1.74. d Out of that most corrupt state which is without Christ. 3 The first part of Pauls Epistle wherein he witnesseth that he is an Apostle, nothing inferiour to those chiefe disciples of Christ, & wholly agreeing with them, whose names the false apostles did abuse. And he beginneth with chiding, reprouing them of lightnesse for that they gaue eare so easily vnto them which peruerted them & drew them away to a new Gospel. e He vseth the passiue voyce, to cast the fault vpon the false apostles, & he vseth the time that now is, to giue the to vnderstand, that it was not already done, but in doing. 4 He warneth them in time to remember y there are not many Gospels, & therefore whatsoeuer these false apostles preach and hold that the Law, Moses & the Fathers in their mouthes, yet they are in deede so many corruptions of the true Gospel, insomuch that hee himselfe, yea, and the very Angels themselues, (and therefore much more these false apostles) ought to be holden accursed, if they goe about to change y least iote that may be in the Gospel, that hee deliuered to them before. f For there is nothing more contrary to faith or free iustification, then iustification by the Law, or by our deseruing. g Luke Rom 9.3.

5 A confirmation taken both from the nature of the doctrine it selfe, and also from y manner which he vsed in teaching: for neither, saith hee, did I teach those things which pleased me as these me doe which put part of saluation in external things, and workes of the Law, neither were I about to procure any mans fauour. And therefore y matter it selfe sheweth that that doctrine which I deliuered vnto you, is heauenly. h Here toucheth the false apostles, who had nothing but men in their mouthes, and he, though hee would derogate nothing from the Apostles, preacheth God and not men. 2 1.Cor.15.1. 6 A second argument to proue that his doctrine is heauenly, because hee had it from heauen, frō Iesus Christ himselfe, without any mans helpe, wherein hee excelleth the whom Christ taught here on earth after the manner of men. i This place is to be understood of an extraordinary reuelation, for otherwise the Sonne alone reuealed his Gospel by his Spirit, although by the ministery of men, which Paul fourteeth out here. 7 Hee prooueth that hee was extraordinarily taught of Christ himselfe, by the history of his former life, which the Galatians themselues know well enough: for saith hee, it is well knowen in what schoole I was brought vp, euen from a childe, to wit, amongst the deadly enemies of the Gospel. And that no man may cauill and say that I was a scholler of the Pharises in name onely and not in deede, no man is ignorant, how that I excelled in Pharisaisme, and was suddenly made of a Pharise, an Apostle of the k Hee calleth them the traditions of his Fathers, because he was not only a Pharise himselfe, but also had a Pharise to his father.

l He speaketh of Gods euerlasting predestination, whereby he appointed him to be an Apostle, whereof he maketh three degrees, the euerlasting counsaile of God, his appointing from his mothers wombe, and his calling: here is no mention made at all of works foreseene in him, and this is a kinde of speech which the Hebrewes vse, whereby this is giuen vs to vnderstand, that this gift commeth from God.

m Because it might be obiected, that indeede he was called of Christ in the way, but afterwards was instructed of the Apostles abused to deceiue the true Apostles did not: he preuenteth this obiection, and saith straightway after his calling to preach the Gospel at Damascus and in Arabia, and was not from that time in Hierusalem but onely fifteene dayes, where hee saw onely Peter & Iames, and afterwards, he began to teach in Syria and Cilicia, with the consent and approbation of the Churches of the Iewes, which knewe him onely by name, so farre off was it, that he was there instructed of men. n With any man in the world. o This is a kinde of oathe. p The doctrine of faith.

CHAP. II.

1 That the Apostles did nothing disagree from his Gospel, 3 he declareth by the example of Titus being vncircumcised. 11 and also by his admouching the same against Peters dissimulation. 17 And so he passeth to the handling of our free iustification by Christ, &c.

THen[1] fourteene yeeres after, I went vp againe to Hierusalem with Barnabas, & tooke with me Titus also.

2 And I went vp by reuelation, and declared vnto them that Gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but particularly to them that were the chiefe, least by any meanes I should runne, or had runne[a] in vaine:

3 But neither yet Titus which was with mee, though he were a Grecian, was compelled to be circumcised,

4 To wit, for the [b] false brethren which were crafily sent in, and crept in priuily to spie out our liberty which we haue in Christ Iesus, that they

1 Now he sheweth how he agreeth with the Apostles, with whom he granted that he conferred touching his Gospel which he taught among the Gentiles, fourteene yeeres after his conuersion, and they alowed it in such sort, that they confirmed not his fellow Titus to be circumcised, although some tormented them in vaine: neither did they adde the least iote that might be to the doctrine which hee had preached, but contrarywise they gaue to him and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, & acknowledged them as Apostles appointed of the Lord to the Gentiles. a You frustfully, for as touching his doctrine, Paul doubted not of it, but because there were certaine reports cast abroad of him, that hee was of another opinion then the rest of the Apostles were, which thing might haue hindered the course of the Gospel, therefore he laboured to remedy this sore. b Which by deceit, and con- c By submitting our selues to them, and betraying our owne liberte.

d The true and sincere doctrine of the Gospel, which remained safe from being corrupt with any of these mens false doctrines.
e Vnder the Galatians name, he vnderstandeth all nations.

f Among the Gentiles, as Peter had to preach it among the Iewes.
g Whom alone and onely, these men count for pillars of the Church, and whose name they abuse to deceiue you.
h They gaue vs their hand in token that we agreed wholly to the doctrine of the Gospel.
i Before all men.
a Another most vehement proofe of his Apostleship, and also of that doctrine, which he had deliuered concerning free iustification by faith onely, because that, for this thing onely he reprehended Peter at Antioch, who offended herein, in that for a few Iewes fakes which came from Hierusalem, he plaged the Iew, and offended the Gentiles which had be eaued.
k By example rather then by inducement.
l Word for word, with a right foote, which he setteth against halting and dissembling which is backward. m He calleth the truth of the Gospel both the doctrine it selfe, and also the vse of the doctrine, which we call the practise. n He saith they were constrained, which plaged the Iewes by Peters example. 3 The second part of this Epistle, the state whereof is this: we are iustified by faith in Christ Iesus without ŷ workes of the Law: which thing he propoundeth in such sort, that first of all hee meeteth with an obiection, (for I also saith hee am a Iew, that no man may say against me, that I am an enemie to the Law) and afterward, he confirmeth it by ŷ expresse witnesse of Dauid. o Although we be Iewes, yet we preach iustification by faith, because we know ondoubtedly, that no man can be iustified by the Law. p So Paul vseth called the Gentiles, because they were strangers fro Gods couenant. q In Iesus Christ. r No man. & in this word (flesh) there is a great vehemencie, whereby is meant that the nature of man is vtterly corrupt. ✣ Rom.3.19. 4 Before he goeth any further, he meeteth with the obiectio, which abhorred this doctrine of free iustification by faith, because so thy men see by this meanes withdrawen from the study of good workes. And in this sort is the obiection, If sinners should be iustified through Christ by faith without ŷ Law, Christ should approue sinners, & should as it were exhort the thereunto by his ministerie. Paul answereth that this consequence is false, because that Christ did not ioyne in the beleeuers fact so faith he doe men free vnto Christ, through the terrour & feare of the Law, that being quit from the curse of the Law and iustified, they may be saued by him, that together there withall, he beginneth in them by little & little, ŷ strength & power of his which destroyeth sinne, to the ende that this old man being abolished by the vertue of Christ crucified, Christ may line in them, & they may conferate themselues to God. Therefore if any man giue himselfe to sinne after he hath receiued the Gospel, he him not accesse Christ nor the Gospel, but himselfe, for we he destroyeth the worke of God in himselfe. s He goeth from iustification to Iustification, which is another benefit we receiue by Christ, if we lay hold on ŷ faith.

5 To whom we gaue not place by c subiection for an houre, that the d trueth of the Gospel might continue with e you.

6 But by them which seemed to bee great, I was not taught (whatsoeuer they were in time passed, I am nothing the better: ✣ God accepteth no mans person) for they that are the chiefe, did adde nothing to me about that I had.

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the Gospel ouer the f uncircumcision was committed vnto me, as the Gospel ouer the circumcision was vnto Peter:

8 (For he that was mighty by Peter in the Apostleship ouer the circumcision, was also mighty by me toward the Gentiles)

9 And when Iames, and Cephas, and Iohn, knew of the grace that was giuen vnto me, which are g counted to be pillars, they gaue to me and to Barnabas the right h hands of fellowship, that we should preach vnto the Gentiles, and they vnto the circumcision,

10 Warning onely that we should remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to do.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to Antiochia, I withstood him to his i face: for hee was to bee condemned.

12 k For before that certaine came from Iames, hee ate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew & separated himselfe, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Iewes played the hypocrites likewise with him, in so much that Barnabas was led away with him by that their hypocrisie.

14 But when I sawe, that they went not the right way to the m trueth of ŷ Gospel, I said vnto Peter before all men, If thou being a Iew, liuest as the Gentiles, and not like the Iewes, why n constrainest thou the Gentiles to doe like the Iewes?

15 3 We which are Iewes o by nature, and not p sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowe that a man is not iustified by the workes of the law, but by the faith q of Iesus Christ, euen we, I say, haue beleeued in Iesus Christ, that we might be iustified by the faith of Christ, & not by the workes of the Law, because that by the workes of the Law, r no flesh shall be iustified.

17 ✣ 4 If then while s wee seeke to be made righteous by Christ, we our selues are found sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God forbid.

18 For if I build againe the things that I haue destroyed, I make my selfe a trespasser.

19 For I through the Law am dead to the t Law, that I might liue vnto God.

20 I am crucified with Christ, but I liue, yet not u I any more, but Christ liueth in me: and in that that I now liue in the x flesh, I liue by the faith in the Sonne of God, who hath loued me, and giuen himselfe for me.

21 5 I doe not abrogate the grace of God: for if righteousnesse be by the Law, then Christ died without a y cause.

t The Law that terrifieth the conscience, bringeth vs to Christ, and he onely causeth vs to die to the Law indeed, because that by making vs righteous, he taketh away from vs the terrour of conscience, and by sanctifying vs, causeth through the mortifying of lust in vs, that it cannot take such occasion to sinne by the restraint. The same that I haue before. u In this mortall body. 5 These second argument taken of an absurditie: If men may be iustified by the Law, then was it not necessary for Christ to die.
y For there was no cause why he should do so.

CHAP. III.

1 Hee rebuketh them, for suffering themselues to be drawen from the grace of free iustification in Christ, most lately set out vnto them. 6 Hee bringeth in Abrahams example, 10 declaring the effect, 21 and causes of the giuing of the Law.

1 O Foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the trueth, to whom Iesus Christ before was described in your a sight, and among you crucified?

2 This onely would I learne of you, Receiued ye the b Spirit by the workes of the Law, or by the hearing of c faith preached?

3 2 Are ye so foolish, that after ye haue begun in the Spirit, ye would now be made perfect by the d flesh?

4 3 Haue yee suffered so many things in vaine? if so be it be euen in vaine.

5 4 Hee therefore that ministreth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth hee it through the workes of the Law, or by the hearing of faith preached?

6 5 Yea rather as e Abraham beleeued God, and it was ✣ imputed to him for righteousnesse.

7 6 Know ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 7 For the Scripture foreseeing, that God would iustifie the Gentiles through faith, preached before the Gospel vnto Abraham, saying, ✣ 8 In thee shall all the Gentiles be f blessed.

1 The third reason or argument taken of those gifts of the holy Ghost, wherewith they were indued from heauen after they had heard and beleeued the Gospel by Paul ministerie: which seeing they were so euident to all mens eyes, that they were as it were liuely images, wherein they might behold the trueth of the doctrine of the Gospel, no lesse then if they had beheld with their eyes Christ himselfe crucified, in whose onely death they ought to haue their trust, he marueileth how it could be that they could be so bewitched: by the false apostles.
a Christ was laid before you, so notably and so plainely, that you had his liuely image as it were represented before your eyes, as if he had beene crucified before you. b Those spirituall graces and gifts, which were a seale as it were to the Galatians, that the Gospel which was preached to them was true. c Of the doctrine of faith. 2 The fourth argument mixed with the former, & it is double. If the Law be to be ioyned with faith, this were not to goe forward, but backward, seeing ŷ those spirituall gifts which were bestowed vpon you, are more excellent the any that could proceed from your selues. And moreouer, it should follow, ŷ the Law is better then Christ, because it should perfect & bring to end ŷ which Christ begã onely. d By the (flesh) we meanth the ceremonies of the Law, against which he setteth the Spirit, that is, the spirituall working of the Gospel. 3 An exhortation by maner of vpbraiding: that they doe not in vaine suffer so many conflicts. 4 He repeateth the third argument which was taken of ŷ effects, because hee had interlaced certaine other arguments by the way. 5 The first argument which is of great force, and hath three grounds. The first, That Abraham was iustified by faith, to wit, by free imputatio of righteousnesse according to the promise apprehended by faith as Moses doeth more plainely witnesse. e Looke Rom.4. ✣ Gen.15.6. rom.4.3. Iames.2.23. 6 The second, that the sonnes of Abraham must be esteemed and accounted of by faith. 7 The third, that all people that beleeue, are without exception, comprehended in the promise of the blessing. ✣ Gene.12.3.18.3.22.18. 8 A proofe of the first and second grounds, out of the words of Moses. f Blessing in this place signifieth the free promise by faith. 9 The conclusion of the first argument: Therefore as Abraham is blessed by faith, so are all his children (that is to say, all the Gentiles that beleeue) blessed, that is to say, freely iustified. g With faithfull Abraham. & not by faithfull Abraham, to giue vs to vnderstand that the blessing commeth not from Abraham, but from him, by whom Abraham and all his posteritie is blessed.

10 [10] For as many as are of the works of the Lawe, are vnder the curse: [11] For it is written, ✣ Cursed is euery man that continueth not in all things, which are written in the booke of the Law, to doe them.

11 [12] And that no man is iustified by the Law in the sight of God, it is euident: ✣ for the iust shall liue by faith.

12 [13] And the Law is not of faith: but [t] the man that shall doe those things, shall liue in them.

13 [14] Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Law, made a curse for vs, (as for it is written, ✣ [h] Cursed is euery one that hangeth on tree.)

14 [16] That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Iesus, that wee might receiue ✣ promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 [17] Brethren, I speake as i men doe: ✣ though it be but a mans couenant, when it is [k] confirmed, yet no man doth abrogate it, or addeth any thing thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his seede were the promises made. He saith not, and to the seedes, as speaking of many: but, And to thy seede, as of one, [18] which is l Christ.

17 [19] And this I say, that the couenant that was confirmed afore of God [m] in respect of Christ, the [20] Law which was foure hundreth & thirty yeeres after, cannot disanull, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 [21] For if the [n] inheritance be of the Law, it is no more by the promise, but God gaue it freely vnto Abraham by promise.

19 [22] Wherefore then serueth the Law? It was added because of the [o] transgressions, [p] till the seed came, vnto the which the promise was made: and it was [q] ordained by [r] Angels in the hand of a Mediatour.

20 Now a Mediatour is not a Mediatour of one: [24] but God is one.

21 [25] Is the Law then against the promises of God? God forbid: For if there had beene a Law giuen which could haue giuen life, surely righteousnesse should haue beene by the Law.

22 But the [s] Scripture hath ✣ concluded [t] all vnder sinne, that the [u] promise by the faith of Iesus Christ should be giuen vnto them that beleeue.

23 [26] But before faith came, we were kept vnder the Law, as vnder a garison, and shut vp vnto [x] that faith, which should afterward be reuealed.

24 Wherefore the Law was our schoolemaster to bring vs to Christ, that we might be made righteous by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer vnder a schoolemaster.

26 [27] For ye are all the sonnes of God by faith in Christ Iesus.

27 [28] For all ye that are [y] baptized into Christ, haue [z] put on Christ.

28 There is neither Iew nor Grecian: there is neither bond nor free: there is neither male, nor female: for ye are all [a] one in Christ Iesus.

29 And if ye be Christs, then are yee Abrahams seede, and heires by promise.

30 The sixe argument, the conclusion whereof is also in the former verse taken of contraries, thus. They are accursed which are of the workes of the Law, that is to say, which value their righteousnes by the performance of the Law. Therefore they are blessed which are of faith, that is, they which haue righteousnesse by faith.

31 A proofe of the former sentence or proposition: and the proposition of this argument is this: Cursed is hee that fulfilleth not the whole law. ✣ Deut. 27, 26.

32 The second proposition with the conclusion: But no man fulfilleth the Law. Therefore no man is iustified by the Law, or els, All are accursed which seeke righteousnesse by the workes of the Law. And there is annexed also this

22 An obiection which riseth of the former answere: If the inheritance be not by the Law (at the least in part) then why was the Law giuen, after that the promise was made? Therefore saith the Apostle, to reproue the sinnes of sinne, and to teach them to looke vnto Christ, in whom at length that promise of saluation all people together, should be fulfilled, and not that the Law was giuen to iustifie men.

a That men might vnderstand, & by discouering of their sinnes, that they are saued by the onely grace of God, which he reuealed to Abraham and that in Christ.

b Vntil the partition wall was broken down, & that full seede sprang vp framed of two peoples both of Iewes and Gentiles: for by this word Seede, we manner of proofe of the second proposition, to wit, Righteousnesse, and life are attributed to faith, Therefore no man fulfilleth the Law. ✣ Hab. 2, 4. rom. 1, 17. hebr. 10. 38. 13 Here is a reason shewed of the former consequence: Because the lawe promiseth life to all that keepe it, and therefore if it be kept, it iustifieth and giueth life. But the Scripture attributing righteousnesse & life to faith, taketh it from the Law, seeing that faith iustifieth by imputation, and the Law by y performing of the worke. ✣ Leuit. 18, 5. 14 A preuenting of an obiection: How then can they be blessed, whom the Law pronounceth to be accursed? Because Christ suffered the curse of y Law laid vpon vs, that we might be quit from it. 15 A proofe of the answere by the testimonie of Moses. ✣ Deut. 21, 23. b Christ was accursed for vs, because he bare the curse y was due to vs, to make vs partakers of his righteousnesse. 16 A conclusion of all that was sayd before in the handling of the fifth and sixth reasons, to wit, that both the Gentiles are made partakers of the free blessing of Abraham in Christ, and also that the Iewes themselues, of whose number the Apostle counteth himselfe to bee, cannot obtaine that promised grace of the Gospel, which he calleth the Spirit, but onely by faith. And the Apostle doth seuerally apply the conclusion, both to the one & the other, preparing himselfe to the next argument, whereby he declareth, that y one only seed of Abraham, which is made of all peoples & no otherwise be ioyned & growe vp together, but by faith in Christ. 17 He putteth forth two generall rulers before the next argument, which is the seuenth in order: The one is, that it is not lawfull to breake couenants and contracts which are iustly made & according to law among[st] men, neither may any thing be added vnto them: The other is, that God did so make a couenant with Abraham, that hee would gather together his children which consist both of Iewes & Gentiles in one body (as appeareth by that which hath bene saith before.) For he did not say, that he would be the God of Abraham and of his seedes, (which thing notwithstanding should haue bene sayd, if he had many & diuers seedes, as ✣ Gentiles apart and the Iewes apart,) but that he would be the God of Abraham, and of his seede, as of one. c I will vse an example which is common among[st] you, that you may be assamed you giue not so much to Gods couenants, as you doe to mens. ✣ Heb. 9. 17. k Authenticall, as we call it. 18 He putteth forth the summe of the seuenth argument, to wit, that both the Iewes and Gentiles growe together into one body of the seede of Abraham, in Christ onely, so that al are one in Christ, as it is afterward declared verf. 28. l Paul speaketh not of Christs person, but of two peoples, which grew together in one, in Christ. 19 The eight argument taken of comparison, thus: If a mans couenant (being authenticall) be firme and strong, much more Gods couenant. Therefore the Law was not giuen to abrogate the promise made to Abraham, which had respect to Christ, that is to say, the end whereof did hang of Christ. m Which tendeth to Christ. 20 An enlarging of the last argument, thus: Moreouer and besides that the promise is of it selfe firme & strong, it was also confirmed with the prescription of long time, to wit, of 430. yeeres, so y it could in no wise be broken. 21 An obiection: We grant that the promise was not abrogated by the couenant of the Law, & therefore we ioyne the Law with the promise. Nay, saith the Apostle, these two cannot stand together, to wit, that the inheritance should both be giuen by the Law and also by promise, for the promise is free: whereby it followeth, that the Law was not giuen to iustifie, for by that meanes the promise should be broken. n By this word (inheritance) is meant the right of the seed, which is, that God should be our God, that is to say, that by vertue of the couenant that was made with faithful Abraham, we shal be faithfull, might by that meanes be blessed of God as well as he.

may not vnderstand, Christ alone by himselfe, but coupled & ioyned together with his bodie. 23 A confirmation of the former answere taken from the maner and forme of giuing the Law: for it was giuen by Angels, striking a great terrour into all, and by Moses a Mediatour comming betweene. Now they that are one, neede no Mediatour, but they that are at variance at the least, and that at variance one with another. Therefore the Law it selfe and the Mediatour, were witnesses of the wrath of God, and not that God would by this meanes reconcile men to himselfe, and abolish the promise, or adde the Law vnto the promise. q Commanded and giuen, or proclaimed. r By the seruice and ministerie. 24 A taking away of an obiection, least any man might say, that sometimes by consent of the parties which haue made a couenant, something is added to the couenant, or the other couenants are broken. This, saith the Apostle, commeth not to passe in God, who is alwayes one, and the selfe same, and like himselfe. 27 The conclusion vttered by a maner of taking a question, and it is the same that was vttered before, verse 17, but proceeding of another rule: for that the argument is newe, and is this: God is alwayes like vnto himselfe: Therefore the Law was not giuen to abolish the promises. But it should abolish them if it gaue life, for by that meanes it should iustifie, and therefore it should abolish that iustification which was promised to Abraham and to his seede by faith. Nay it was rather giuen to bring to light the guiltinesse of all men, to the end that all beleeuers fleeing to Christ promised, might be freely iustified in him. s By this word, Scripture, he meaneth the Lawe. ✣ Rom. 3, 9. t All men, and whatsoeuer commeth from man. u In euery one of these wordes, there lyeth an argument against the merites of workes: for all these wordes, promise, faith, Christ, might be giuen, to beleeuers are against merites, and not one of them can stand with deserning workes. 28 Now he shewe followeth an other handling of the second part of this Epistle: the state whereof is this: Although the Lawe (that is, the whole gouernement of Gods house according to the law) doe not iustifie, it is therefore to be abolished, seeing that Abraham himselfe was circumcised, and his posteritie held still the vse of Moses Law? Paul affirmeth that it ought to be abolished, because it was instituted for that end and purpose, that it should be as it were a schoolemaster and keeper to the people of God, vntill the promise appeared in seede, that is to say, Christ, and the Gospel manifestly published with great efficacie of the Spirit. x The cause why wee were kept vnder the Law, is set downe here. 27 Because we are changed not the condition of seruants, hee addeth that wee are free by condition, and therefore, seeing wee are out of our childehoode, wee haue no more neede of a keeper and Schoolemaster. 28 Vsing a generall particle, least the Iewes at the least should not thinke themselues bound with the band of the Lawe, hee pronounceth that Baptisme is common to all beleeuers, because it is a pledge of our deliuerie in Christ, as well to the Iewes as to the Grecians, that by this meanes all may be truely one in Christ, that is to say, that promised seede to Abraham and inheritours of euerlasting life. y He setteth Baptisme secretly against circumcision, which the false Apostles so much bragged of. z The Church must put on Christ, as it were a garment, & be couered with him, that it may be throughly holy, and without blame. a You are all as one: and so is this great knot and vnion signified.

CHAP. IV.

1 Being deliuered from the bondage of the Lawe, 4 by Christes comming, who is the end thereof. 9 It is very absurd to slide backe to beggerly ceremonies: 13 He calleth them againe therefore to the pursute of the doctrine of y Gospel, 21 confirming his discourse with a fine allegorie.

1 THen I say, that the heire as long as hee is a child, differeth nothing from a seruant, though he be Lord of all,

2 But is vnder tutors and gouernours, [a] vntill the time appointed of the Father.

3 Euen so we, when we were children, were in bondage vnder the [b] rudiments of the world.

4 [1] But when the [c] fulnesse of time was come, God sent forth his Sonne made of a [d] woman, and made vnder the Lawe,

5 That hee might redeeme them which were vnder the Law, that we might receiue the [e] adoption of the sonnes.

6 [3] And because ye are sonnes, God had [f] sent foorth the [g] Spirit of his Sonne into your hearts, which crieth, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore, thou art no more a [h] seruant, but a sonne: nowe if thou be a sonne, thou art also the [i] heire of God through Christ.

8 [4] But euen then, when ye knewe not God, yee did seruice vnto them, which by nature are not gods:

9 But nowe seeing ye know God, yea, rather are knowen of God, howe turne yee againe vnto impotent and [k] beggerly rudiments, wherevnto as from the beginning ye will be in bondage againe?

10 Yee obserue dayes, and moneths, and times, and yeeres.

11 I am in feare of you, least I haue bestowed on you labour in vaine.

12 [5] Be yee as I (for I am euen as you) brethren, I beseech you: ye haue not hurt me at all.

13 And ye know, how through [m] infirmitie of the flesh, I preached the Gospel vnto you at [n] first.

14 And the [o] trial of me which was in my flesh, ye despised not, neither abhorred: but ye receiued

1 Being deliuered from the bondage of the Lawe, 4 by Christes comming, who is the end thereof. 9 It is very absurd to slide backe to beggerly ceremonies: 13 He calleth them againe therefore to the pursute of the doctrine of y Gospel, 21 confirming his discourse with a fine allegorie.

2 Hee declareth that by another double similitude, which he sayd before concerning the keeper and schoolemaster: For hee saith, that the Law, (that is, the whole gouernement of Gods house according to the Law) was as it were a tutour or ouerseer appointed for a time, vntill such time as that protection and ouerseeing, which was but for a time, being ended, we should attaine to come to be at our owne libertie, and should liue as children, and not as seruants. Moreouer, hee sheweth by the way, that that gouernement of the Law, was as it were an A B C, and as certaine principles, in comparison of the doctrine of the Gospel.

a This is added, because he that is alwayes vnder a tutor and gouernour, may boldly be counted a freeman.

b The Law is called rudiments, because that by the Law God instructed his Church as it were by rudiments, & afterward more fully set out vnder y Spirit most plentifully in the time of the Gospel.

3 Hee sheweth that we are in such seruitude and subiection, that in the meane season we must be gouerned by the Spirit of Christ, which reigning in our hearts, may reach vnto the true seruice of the Father. But this is not to seruice, but rather to enioy true libertie, as it becommeth sonnes and heires. 7 By what the sonnes are called to inheritance, and what they haue by Christ, we are his sonnes, & if we are his sonnes, then are we free. 9 The holy Ghost, who is both of the Father and of the sonne: but there is a peculiar reason why he is called the Spirit of the Sonne, to wit, because the holy Ghost seeketh vp our adoption in Christ, and worketh vp a full assurance of it. 8 The word seruant, is not taken here for one that liueth in sinne, which is proper to the infidels, but for one that is yet vnder the ceremonies of the Law, which is proper to the Iewes. 9 Partakers of his blessings. 4 He applieth the former doctrine to the Galatians, with a peculiar reprehension for in comparison of them, the Iewes might haue pretended some excuse as men that were borne and brought vp in that seruice of the Law. But seeing the Galatians were taken and called out of idolatrie to Christian liberty: what pretence might they haue to go backe to those impotent and beggerly rudiments. 8 They are called impotent and beggerly ceremonies, being considered apart by themselues without Christ. & against sort hat by that meanes they gaue gods estimatie that were beggers in Christ, when as notwithstanding for men to fall backe from Christ to ceremonies, is nothing else, but to cast away riches, and to follow beggery. 11 By going backeward. 5 He mitigateth & qualifieth those things wherein he might haue seemed to haue spoke somewhat sharply, very artificiously & diuinely, declaring his good will towards them in such sort, that the Galatians could not but either be vtterly desperate when they reade these things, or acknowledge their owne lightnes with teares, & desire pardon. m Many afflictions. n Those daily troubles wherewith the Lord tried me amongst you, me as an Angel of God, yea, as o Christ Iesus.

15 p What was then your felicitie? for I beare you record, that if it had beene possible, yee would haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue giuen them vnto me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemie, because I tell you the trueth?

17 They are ielous ouer you q amisse: yea, they would exclude you, [r] that yee should altogether loue them.

18 But it is a good thing to loue [s] earnestly alwayes in a good thing, and not onely when I am present with you,

19 My little children, of whom I trauaile in birth againe, vntill Christ be formed in you.

20 And I would I were with you nowe, that I might change my voice: for I am in doubt of you.

21 [6] Tell me, ye that [t] will be vnder the Law, doe ye not heare the Law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, ✣ one by a seruant, and ✣ one by a free woman.

23 But he which was of the seruant, was borne after the [x] flesh: and he which was of the free woman, was borne by [y] promise.

24 By the which things another thing is meant: for [z] these mothers are the two Testaments, the one which is Agar of mount [a] Sina, which gendreth vnto bondage.

25 (For Agar or Sina is a mountaine in Arabia, and it [c] answereth to Hierusalem which nowe is) and [d] she is in bondage with her children.

26 But Hierusalem, which is [e] aboue, is free: which is the mother of vs all.

27 [7] For it is written, ✣ Reioyce thou barren that bearest no children: breake foorth, & cry, thou that trauailest not: for the [f] desolate hath many moe children, then she which hath an husband.

28 ✣ Therefore, brethren, wee are after the [g] maner of Isaac, children of the [h] promise.

29 But as then hee that was borne after the [i] flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the [k] Spirit, euen so it is now.

o For my ministeries sake.

p What talke was there abroade in the world among'st men, how happie you were?

q For they are ielous ouer you for their owne commodities.

r That they may conney all your loue from me to themselues.

s He setteth his owne true and good loue, which was earnestly bent towards them, against the naughtie vicious loue of the false apostles.

t Vse other words among you.

6 Because the false Apostles alwayes vrged this, that vnlesse the Gentiles were circumcised, Christ could profite them nothing at all, and this dissension of them which beleeued of the circumcision, against them which beleeued of the vncircumcision, was full of offence: the Apostle, after diuers arguments whereby he hath refuted that errour, bringeth foorth an allegorie, wherein hee fayeth the holy Ghost did shadow out vnto vs, all these mysteries: to wit, that it should come to passe, that two sorts of sonnes should haue Abraham a father common to them both, but not with like successe: for as Abraham begate Ismael, by the common course of nature, of Agar his bondmaide & a stranger, and begate Isaac of Sara a free woman by the vertue of the promise and by grace onely, and the first was not onely not heire, but also persecuted the heire: So these are two couenants, and as it were two sonnes borne to Abraham of those two couenants, as it were of two mothers. The one was made in Sina, without the land of promise, according to which couenant Abrahams children according to the flesh were begotten: to wit, y Iewes which seeke righteousnes by that couenant, that is, by the Law: but they are not heires, nay they shall at length be cast out of the house, as they that persecute the true heires. The other was made in that high Hierusalem or in Sion (to wit, by the sacrifice of Christ) which begetteth children of promise, to wit, beleeuers by the vertue of the holy Ghost, which children (as Abraham) do rest themselues in the free promise, & they onely by the right of children shall be partakers of the fathers inheritance, & those seruants shalbe shut out.

u That desire so greatly. ✣ Genesis 16.15. ✣ Gen. 21.11. x As all men are, and by the common course of nature. y By vertue of the promise, which Abraham layd hold on for himselfe & his true seed, for otherwise Abraham & Sara were past begetting and bearing children. z These doe represent and shadowe fourth. a They are called two couenants, one of the old Testament, and another of the New: which were not two in deede, but in respect of the times, and the diuersitie of the gouernements. b He maketh mention of Sina, because that couenants was made in that mountaine, of which mountaine Agar was a shadow. c Looke how the cases standeth betwixt Agar and her children, euen so standeth it betweene Hierusalem and hers. d That is, Sina. e Which is excellent, and of great account. f He sheweth that in this allegorie, hee hath followed the steppes of Esay, who foretold that the Church should bee made and consist of the children of barren Sara, that is to say, of them which onely Spiritually should be made Abrahams children by faith, rather then of fruitfull Agar, euen then foreshewing the casting off of the Iewes, and calling of the Gentiles. ✣ Esay. 54.1. g Shee that is destroyed and wasted. ✣ Rom. 8.9. g After the maner of Isaac, who is the first begotten of the heauenly Hierusalem, as Ismael is of the slauish Synagogue. h That seede, vnto which the promise belongeth. i By the common course of nature. k By the vertue of Gods promise and after a spirituall maner.

✣ Gene. 21. 10. ‡ The conclusion of the former allegory, that we by no meanes procure and call backe againe the slauery of the Law, seeing that the children of the boudmaide shall not be heires.

30 But what saith the Scripture? ✣ Put out the seruant and her sonne: for the sonne of the seruant shall not be heire with the sonne of the free woman.

31 ‡ Then brethren, we are not children of the seruant, but of the free woman.

CHAP. V.

1 Hauing declared that we came of the free woman, hee sheweth the price of that freedome, 13 and how wee should vse the same, 16 that we may obey the Spirit. 19 and resist the flesh.

STand fast therefore in the libertie wherewith Christ hath made vs free, and be not intangled againe with the yoake of bondage.

2 ‡ ✣ Beholde, I Paul say vnto you, that if yee be a circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testifie againe to euery man, which is circumcised, that he is bound to keepe the whole Law.

4 Ye are ᵇ abolished from Christ: whosoeuer are ᶜ iustified by the Law, ye are fallen from grace.

5 For wee through the ᵈ Spirit, waite for the hope of righteousnesse through faith.

6 ‡ For in Iesus Christ neither circumcision auaileth any thing, neither ‡ vncircumcision, ‡ but ᵉ faith which worketh by loue.

7 ✣ Ye did runne well: who did let you, that ye did not obey the trueth?

8 7 It is not the perswasion of ‡ him that calleth you.

9 ✣ ‡ A little leauen doeth leauen the whole lumpe.

10 ‡ I haue trust in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but hee that troubleth you, shall beare his condemnation, whosoeuer he be.

11 ‡ And brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why doe I yet suffer persecution? Then is the slander of the crosse abolished.

12 ‡ Would to God they were euen cut off, which doe ‡ disquiet you.

13 For brethren, ye haue beene called vnto libertie: ‡ onely vse not your libertie as an occasion vnto the flesh, but by loue serue one another.

14 ‡ For ᵇ all the Law is fulfilled in one word, which is this, ✣ Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

15 ‡ If ye bite and deuoure one another, take heede least ye be consumed one of another.

16 ‡ Then I say, ✣ Walke in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh.

17 For the ‡ flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrarie one to another, so that yee cannot doe the same things that ye would.

18 And if ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not vnder the Law.

19 ‡ Moreouer the works of the flesh are manifest, which are adulterie, fornication, vncleannes, wantonnesse,

20 Idolatrie, witchcraft, hatred, debate, emulation, wrath, contentions, seditions, heresies,

21 Enuie, murthers, drunkennesse, gluttonie, and such like, whereof I tell you before, as I also haue told you before, that they which doe such things, shall not inherite the kingdome of God.

22 But the ᵏ fruite of the Spirit is loue, ioy, peace, long suffering, gentlenesse, goodnesse, faith,

23 Meekenes, temperancie: ‡ against such there is no law,

24 For they that are Christs, haue crucified the flesh with the affections and the lustes.

25 If we ‡ liue in the Spirit, let vs also walke in the Spirit.

26 ‡ Let vs not be desirous of vaine glorie, prouoking one another, enuying one another.

‡ An other obtestation, wherein he plainely witnesseth that iustification of workes, and iustification of faith cannot stand together, because no man can be iustified by the Law, but he that doeth fully and perfectly fulfill it. And he taketh the example of circumcision, because it was the ground of all the seruice of the Law, and was chiefly vrged of the false Apostles.

a Circumcision is in other places called the seale of righteousnesse, but here we must haue consideration of the circumstance of the time, for now had Baptisme come in the place of circumcision. And moreouer Paul reasoneth according to the opinion that his enemies had of it, which made circumcision a piece of their saluation. ‡ 1. Cor. 1. 17. b That is, as he himselfe expoundeth it afterwards, ye are fallen from grace. c That is, seeke to be iustified by the Law, for in deede no man is iustified by the Law. ‡ He priuily compareth the newe people with the olde: for it is certaine that they also did ground all their hope of iustification and life in faith, & not in circumcision, but so, that their faith was wrapped in the external & ceremoniall worship, but our faith is bare & content with spirituall worship. d Through the Spirit, which ingendreth faith. ‡ He addeth a reason, for that now circumcision is abolished, seeing that Christ is exhibited vnto vs with full plentie of spirituall circumcision. ‡ Hee maketh mention also of vncircumcision, least the Gentiles should please themselues in it, as the Iewes doe in circumcision. ‡ The taking away of an obiection: If all that worship of the Law be taken away, wherein the Iewes do reioyce, what is the profite of Christ, sayeth Paul, of faith, where of we speake, cannot be idle, nay it bringeth forth daily fruits of charitie. e So is true faith distinguished from counterfeit faith: for charitie is not ioyned to faith as a fellow cause, to helpe forward our iustification with faith. ‡ Against he chiefeth y Galatians, but with ao admiration, & therewithall a praise of their former race, to the end that he may make them more ashamed. ‡ He playeth the part of an Apostle with them, and vseth his authoritie, denying that that doctrine can come from God which is contrary vnto it. f Of God. ‡ 1 Corinth. 5. 6. ‡ Hee addeth this, that he may not seeme to contend vpon a trifle, warning them diligently (by a similitude which he borroweth of leauen, as Christ himselfe also did) not to suffer the purity of the Apostolical doctrine to be infected with y least corruption that may be. ‡ He mitigateth the former reprehension, calling the fault vpon the false apostles, against whom he denounceth the horrible iudgement of God. ‡ Hee willeth them to consider how that he seeketh not his owne profit in this matter, seeing that he could eschew the hatred of men, if he would ioyne Iudaisme with Christianitie. ‡ An example of a true Pastour inflamed with the zeale of Gods glorie and loue of his flocke. g For they that preach the Law, cause mens consciences alwayes to tremble.

h 20 The Apostle willeth to behold in our moste glorious Christ with the eyes of faith, that moste excellent power and glorie of God whereof all the faithfull are partakers, although it be as yet verie i of sinne in vs, by reason of the flesh, and k the ignominie & crosse of Christ, we should keepe vnitie & peace, and serue vnto one anothers saluation through loue.

13 He propoundeth the loue of our neighbours, as a marke whereunto all Christians ought to referre all their actions, and therewith he sheweth the testimonie of the Law.

b This precept (All) must be vnderstanded to the second table.

14 An exhortation to the duelties of charitie, by the profit that ensueth thereof, because that no men prouide worse for themselues, then they that hate one another.

15 He acknowledgeth the great imperfection that is in the regenerate: but he willeth them to remember that they are indued with the Spirit of God, which hath deliuered them from the slauery of sinne, & so of the Law, to serue foorth as it is the vertue of sinne, that they should not giue themselues to lustes. ✣ Rom 3. 14. 1 pet. 2. 11. c For the flesh dwelleth euen in the regenerate man, but y Spirit reigneth, although not without great perill, as is largely set foorth Rom. 7. Hee setteth out that particularly, which he spake generally reckoning vp some chiefe effects of the flesh, and opposing them to the fruites of the Spirit, that no man may pretend ignorance. k Therefore they are not the fruits of free will, but so farre foorth as any will is made free by grace. 17 Least that any man should obiect, that Paul placed the Sophister, as one who vrging the Spirit, vrgeth nothing but that which the Law commaundeth, he sheweth that he requireth not that it shall end onward obedience, but spirituall, which proceedeth not from the Law, but from the Spirit of Christ, which doeth beget vs againe, and mute and ought to be the ruler & guider of our life. l If we be indeede endued with the quickening Spirit. Wee ought m to desire to sinne, and liue to God, let vs shunne all occasions that vs by holinesse of life. 18 He addeth peculiar exhortations according as he knewe the Galatians subiect to diuers vices: and first of all he warneth them to take heede of ambition, which vice hath two fellowes, backbiting and enuie, out of which two it cannot be but many contentions must needes arise.

CHAP. VI.

1 Now he entreateth particularly of charitie towards such as offende, 6 toward the Ministers of the word, 10 and those that are of the housholde of faith: 12 Not like vnto such who haue a counterfeit zeale of the Law, 13 glorying in the mangling of the flesh, 14 & not in the crosse of Christ.

BRethren, ‡ If a man be ᵃ suddenly taken in any offence, ye which are ᵇ spirituall, ᶜ restore such one with the ᵈ spirit of meekenesse, ‡ considering thy selfe, least thou also be tempted.

‡ He condemneth impunitie, because that by the example of G. d. Spirit. c Labour to fill vp that that is wanting in him. d This is a kind of speech which the Hebrewes vse, ginting to vnderstand thereby, that all good gifts is come from God. ‡ He toucheth the sore: for they commonly are most seuere iudges, which forget their owne infirmities.

h So then, Grace, that is to say, the gift of God, and faith, doe stand one with another, to which two, those are contrary, to be saued by our deedes, or by our workes. Therefore what meane they which wouldd ioyne together things of so contrarie nature?

i He taketh away expreslely and namely from our workes the praise of iustification, seeing that the good workes themselues are the effects of grace in vs.

k He speaketh here of Grace, and not of nature: therefore he the workes meuer so good, looke what they are, they are it of grace.

10 Applying the former doctrine to the Gentiles, he sheweth that they were not onely as the Iewes, by nature, but also after an especiall sort, strangers and without God: and therefore they ought so much the rather remember that same so great a benefite of God.

l You were called no otherwise then Gentiles, that all the world might witnesse of your vncleannesse.

l Of the Iewes which were knowen from you by the 7 That he might shew in the ages to come the exceeding riches of his grace through his kindnes toward vs in Christ Iesus.

8 For by [h] grace are yee saued through faith, and that not of your selues: it is the gift of God,

9 9 Not of workes, least any man should boast himselfe.

10 For wee are [i] his workemanship created in Christ Iesus vnto good workes, which God hath ordained, that we should walke in them.

11 10 Wherefore remember that yee being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, and [k] called vncircumcision of them, which are [l] called circumcision in the flesh, made with hands,

12 That ye were, I say, at that time [m] without Christ, & were [n] aliants from the common-wealth of Israel, and were ✣ strangers from the covenants of promise, and had no hope, and were without God in the world.

13 11 But now in Christ Iesus, yee which once were farre off, are made neere by the blood of Christ.

14 12 For hee is our peace, which hath made of both one, and hath broken the stoppe of the partition wall,

15 ✣ In abrogating through his flesh the hatred, that is, the Law of commandements which standeth in ordinances, for to make of twaine one new man in himselfe, so making peace,

16 And that hee might reconcile both vnto God in o one bodie by his crosse, and [p] slay hatred thereby.

17 13 And came, and preached peace to you which were afarre off, and to them that were neere.

18 For [q] through him we both haue an entrance vnto the Father by one Spirit.

19 14 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and forreiners: but citizens with the Saints, and of the houshold of God.

20 15 And are built vpon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Iesus Christ himselfe being the [r] chiefe corner stone, 21 In whom all the building [s] coupled together, groweth vnto an holy Temple in the Lord.

22 In whom yee also are built together to be the habitation of God by the Spirit.

the marke of circumcision, the marke of the couenant. m Hee beginneth first with Christ, who was the end of all the promises. n You had no right or title, to the common-wealth of Israel. ✣ Rom 9.4. 11 Christ is the onely bond of the Iewes and Gentiles, whereby they be reconciled to God. 12 As by the ceremonies and worship appointed by the Lawe, the Iewes were diuided from the Gentiles, so now Christ, hauing broken downe the partition wall, ioyneth them both together both in himselfe, and betwixt themselues, and to God. Whereby it followeth, that whosoeuer eftablisheth the ceremonies of the Lawe, maketh the grace of Christ void and of none effect. ✣ Gal. 2. 14. o He alludeth to the sacrifices of the Law, which represented that true and onely sacrifice. p For he destroyed death by death, and fastened it as it were to the crosse. 15 The preaching of the Gospel is an effectuall instrument of this grace, common as well to the Iewes as to the Gentiles. q Christ is the gate as it were, by whome we come to the Father, and the holy Ghost is as it were our lodesman who leadeth vs. 19 The conclusion: The Gentiles are taken in to the fellowship of saluation. And he describeth the excellencie of the Church, calling it the citie and house of God. 21 The Lord committed the doctrine of saluation, first to the Prophets, and then to the Apostles, the ende whereof, and matter as it were and substance, is Christ. Therefore that is in deede the true and Catholicke Church, which is builded vpon Christ by the Prophets and Apostles, as a spirituall temple consecrated to God. r That is, the head of the building, for the foundations are as it were the heads of the buildings. s So that God is the workeman not onely of the foundation, but also of the whole building.

CHAP. III.

1 He declareth that therefore hee suffered many things of the Iewes, 3 because hee preached the mystery touching the saluation of the Gentiles, 8 at Gods commandement. 13 After he desired the Ephesians not to faint for his afflictions. 14 And for this cause hee prayeth vnto God, 18 that they may vnderstand the great loue of Christ,

FOr [1] this cause, I Paul am the [a] prisoner of Iesus Christ for you Gentiles.

2 If ye haue heard of the dispensation of the grace of God, which is giuen me to youward,

3 That is, that God by reuelation hath shewed this mysterie vnto me (as I wrote aboue in fewe wordes,

4 Whereby when yee reade, yee may knowe mine vnderstanding in the misterie of Christ.)

5 Which in [b] other ages was not opened vnto the sonnes of men, as it is now reuealed vnto his holy Apostles and Prophets by the Spirit,

6 That the Gentiles should be inheriters also, and of the same bodie, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel,

7 Whereof I am made a minister by the gifte of the grace of God giuen vnto mee through the effectuall working of his power.

8 Euen vnto mee the least of all Saints is this grace giuen, that I should preach among the Gentiles, the vnsearchable riches of Christ,

9 And to make cleare vnto all men what the fellowship of the mysterie is, which from the beginning of the world hath beene hid in God, who hath created all things by Iesus Christ,

10 [2] To the intent, that nowe vnto principalities and powers in heauenly places, might be knowen by the Church the [c] manifold wisedome of God,

11 According to the [d] eternall purpose, which he wrought in Christ Iesus our Lord:

12 By whom we haue boldnesse and entrance with confidence, by faith in him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for your sakes, which is [e] our glorie.

14 [3] For this cause I bowe my knees vnto the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ,

15 (Of whom is named the whole [e] familie in heauen and in earth,)

16 That he might graunt you according to the [f] riches of his glorie, that ye may be strengthened by his Spirit in the [g] inner man,

17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith:

18 That yee, being rooted and grounded in [h] loue may be able to comprehend with all Saints, [i] what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height:

19 And to knowe the [k] loue of Christ, which [l] passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled with all [m] fulnesse of God.

20 [4] Vnto him therefore that is able to doe exceeding aboundantly aboue all that wee aske or thinke, according to the power that worketh in vs,

21 Be praise in the Church by Christ Iesus throwout all generations for euer, Amen.

1 He maintaineth his Apostleship against the offence of the crosse, whereon also hee taketh an argument to confirme himselfe, affirming that hee was not onely appointed an Apostle by the mercie of God, but was also particularly appointed to the Gentiles, to call them on euery side to saluation: because God had so determined it from the beginning, although he deferred a great while the manifestation of that his counsell.

a These wordes, The prisoner of Iesus Christ, are taken passiuely, that is to say, I Paul am cast into prison for maintaining the glorie of Christ.

b He meaneth not that none knewe the calling of the Gentiles before, but because very few knew of it, and they that did know it, as the Prophets, had it reuealed vnto them very darkely, and vnder figures.

c They looked for calling of the Gentiles, was as it were a glasse to the heauenly Angels, wherein they might beholde the marueilous wisedome of God.

d God neuer had but one way onely, to saue men by: but it had diuers fashions and formes.

d Which was before all beginning.

3 He teacheth by his owne example, that the efficacie of the doctrine depeudeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore wee ought to ioyne prayers with the preaching and hearing of the worde: which are needfull not onely to them which are younglings in religion, but euen to the olden also, that they growing vp more and more by faith in Christ, being confirmed with all spirituall graces may be grounded and rooted in the knowledge of that immeasurable loue, wherewith God the Father hath loued vs in Christ, seeing that the whole family, whereof part is already receiued into heauen, and part is yet here on earth, dependeth vpon that adoption of the heauenly Father, to his onely Sonne.

e All that whole people, which hath but one housholde Father, and that is the Church which is adopted in Christ.

f According to the greatnesse of his mercie.

g Luke Roman. 7. 22.

h Wherewith God loueth vs, which is the roote of our election.

i How perfite that worke of Christ is in euery part.

k Which God hath powred out in Christ.

l Which passeth all the capacitie of mans wit, to comprehend it fully in his minde: for wherewith soeuer hath the Spirite of God, perceiueth so much (according to the measure that God hath giuen him) as sufficient to saluation, in So that we haue aboundantly in vs, whatsoeuer things are requisite to make vs perfite with God.

4 Hee breaketh forth into a thanksgiuing, whereby the Ephesians also may be confirmed to hope for any thing of God.

CHAP. IIII.

These three last Chapters containe precepts of manners. 1 He exhorteth them to mutuall loue. 7 Sunger gifts are therefore bestowed of God, 16 that the Church may be built vp. 18 Hee calleth them from the vanitie of the infidels, 25 from lying, 29 and from filthy talke.

1 Another part of the Epistle containing precepts of Christian life, the summe whereof is this, that euery man behaue himselfe as it is meete for so excellent grace of God.

a By this is meant the generall calling of the faithfull, which is this, to be holy, as our God is holy.

2 Secondly, he commendeth meekenesse of minde, which is shewed foorth by bearing one with another.

b Luke Mat. 18. 23.

3 Thirdly, hee requireth prisite agreement, but yet such as is knit with the band of the holy Ghost:

4 An argument of great waight, for an earnest intertaining of brotherly loue and charitie one with another, because we are made one body as it were of one God, and Father, by one Spirit, worshipping one Lord with one faith, and consecrated to him with one Baptisme, and hope for one selfesame glory, whereunto we are called. Therefore whosoeuer breaketh charitie, breaketh all these things asunder.

c Who onely hath the chiefe authoritie over the Church.

d Who onely powreth foorth his prouidence, through all the members of the Church.

e Who onely is sayned together with vs in Christ.

5 Hee teacheth vs, that we indeede are all one body, and that all good gifts proceede from Christ onely, who reigneth in heauen, hauing mightily conquered all his enemies (from whence he sendeth all gifts vpon his Church:) but yet notwithstanding these gifts are diuersly and sundry wayes diuided according to his will and pleasure, and therefore euery man ought to be content with that measure that God hath giuen him, and to beelow it to common profite of the whole body.

f Which Christ hath giuen.

g A multitude of captiues.

h Downe to the earth, which is the lowest part of the world.

i Fill with his gifts.

k The Church.

6 First of all he reckoned vp the Ecclesiasticall functions, which are partly extraordinary and for a season, as Apostles, Prophets, Euangelistes, and partly ordinary and perpetuall, as Pastours and Doctours.

l The Apostles were those twelue, vnto whom Paul was afterward added, whose office was to plant Churches throughout all the world. The Prophets office was ore of the chiefest, which were men of a marueilous wise sonne, and some of them could foretell things to come.

m These the Apostles vsed as fellowes in the execution of their office, being not able to answere all places themselues.

n Pastours are they which gouerne the Church, and Teachers are they which gouerne the schooles.

7 He sheweth the ende of Ecclesiasticall functions, to wit, that by the ministery of men all the Saints may so growe vp together, that they may make one mysticall body of Christ.

p The Church.

8 The vse of this ministerie is perpetuall so long as we are in this world, that is, vntill hat time that hauing put on the flesh, and throughly and perfitly agreeing betwixt our selues, we shall be ioyned with Christ our head. Which thing is done by that knowledge of the Sonne of God inclosing in vs, and he himselfe by little and little growing vp in vs vntil we come to be a perfit man, which shall be in the world to come, when God shall be all in all.

q In that most neere coniunction which is knit and fastened together by faith.

r Christ is laid to growe vp to full age, not in himselfe, but in vs.

9 Betwixt our childehood (that is to say, a very weake state, while as we doe yet altogether waver) and our perfit age, which we shall haue at length in another world, there is a meane, to wit, our youth, and steady going forward to perfection. 10 He compareth them which rest not themselues vpon the word of God, to little boates which are tossed hither and thither with the doctrine of men, as it were with contrary windes, and therewith all foreuenteth them that it cannoteth to passe not onely by the lightnesse of mans braine, but also by the craftinesse of certaine, which make as it were an art of it.

s With those vncertaine chances which toss men to and fro, t with craftines, wherby they lay in wait to deceiue.

15 11 But let vs follow the trueth in loue, and in all things, grow vp into him, which is the head, that is, Christ.

16 By whom all the bodie being coupled and knit together by euery ioynt, for ỹ furniture thereof (according to the u effectuall power, which is in the measure of euery part) receiueth x increase of the body, vnto the edifying of it selfe in ỹ loue.

17 12 This I say therefore and testifie in the Lord, that ye henceforth walke not as ✠ other Gentiles walke, in c vanitie of their mind.

18 Hauing their vnderstanding darkened, and being strangers from the a life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardnesse of their heart:

19 Which being b past feeling, haue giuen themselues vnto wantonnesse, to worke all vncleannesse, euen with c greedinesse.

20 13 But ye haue not so learned Christ,

21 If so be ye haue heard him, and haue beene taught by him, d as the trueth is in Iesus,

22 ✠ That is, that yee cast off, concerning the conuersation in time past, e that olde man, which is corrupt through the deceiueable lusts,

23 And be renewed in the f spirit of your mind,

24 And put on the new man, which g after God is created vnto h righteousnesse, and i true holines.

25 14 Wherefore cast off lying, and speake euerie man truth vnto his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

26 15 Be k angry, but sinne not: let not the sunne goe downe l vpon your wrath,

27 Neither giue place to the deuill.

28 16 Let him that stole, steale no more: but let him rather labour, and worke with his hands the thing which is m good, that hee may haue to giue vnto him that needeth.

29 17 Let no n corrupt cõmunication proceed out of your mouthes, but ỹ which is good to the vse of edifying, ỹ it may minister grace vnto the hearers.

30 18 And grieue not the holy Spirit of God,

t By the deceit of those men which are very well practised in deceiuing of others.

11 By earnest affection of the trueth & loue, we growe vp into Christ: for he (being effectuall by the ministerie of his word, which as the vitall Spirit doth so quicken the whole body, that it nourisheth all the limmes thereof according to the measure and proportion of euch one) quickeneth and cherisheth his Church, which consisteth of diuers functions, as of diuers members, & preserueth the proportion of euery one. And thereof it followeth that neither this body can liue without Christ, neither can any man growe vp spiritually, which is separate & himselfe from the other members.

u Of Christ, who is maner of the soule, quickeneth all the members.

x Which increase ariseth in the body should haue.

y Charitie is the knitting of the limmes together.

12 He descendeth to the fruits of Christian doctrine, and reasoneth first vpon the principles of maners and actions, setting downe a most great opposition betweene the children of God and them which are not regenerate: For in these men all the powers of the minde are corrupted, and their minde is giuen to vanity, and their senses are darkened with most grosse mistinesse, & their affections are so accustomed by little & little to wickednesse, that at length they run headlong into all vncleannes, being wtterly destitute of all iudgement. ✠ Rom. 1. 21.

a Life the noblest part of the soule is the minde, which is the seate of reason, but corruption only is wherby God liueth in them.

b Void of all iudgement.

c They studie to passe one another as though there had bin some gaine to be gotten by it.

13 Hee followeth the contrary part touching men which are regenerate by ỹ true & stirely knowledge of Christ, which haue other principles of their doings for different, to wit, holy & honest desires, & a mind clean changed by the vertue of the holy Ghost, frõ whence proceed also like effects, as a iust & holy life in deed. ✠ As they haue learned which acknowledge Christ indeed and in good earnest. ✠ Col. 3. 8.

d Vous selues. If where there ought to haue bin the greatest fonce of reason, there is the greatest corruption of all which wanteth all things.

e After the image of God.

f The effect and end of the new creation.

14 He commendeth seuerally certain peculiar Christian vertues, & first of all he requireth trueth (that is to say, sincere maners) condemning all deceit, & dissembling, because we are born one for another.

15 He teacheth vs to bridle our anger in such sort, that although it be hot, yet that it breake not out, and that it be straitwayes quenched before we sleepe, lest Satan taking occasiõ to giue vs ouill counsel through ỹ wicked counseller, destroy vs.

k If it so fall out, that you be angrie, yet sin not; that is, bridle your anger, & do not wickedly (put that in execution which you haue wickedly conceiued. Let not the night come vpon you in your anger, that is, make an atonemet quickly for all matters.

16 Hee descendeth from the heart to ỹ hands, condemning theft, & because ỹ men which giue themselues to thy wickednes, vse to pretend prouerty, he sheweth that labor is a good remedy against pouerty, which God blessed in such sort that they which labour haue alwayes some ouerplus to helpe other, so far is it from thin, ỹ they are constrained to steale other mens goods.

m By labouring in things that are holy, and profitable to his neighbour.

17 He bridleth the tongue also, teaching vs so to temper our talke, that our hearers minds be not only not destroyed, but also instructed.

n Word for word, rotten.

o By grace he meaneth that, whereby men may profit & going on forward in godlines and loue.

18 A generall precept against all excesse of affections which dwell in the part of the mind, which they call, Angry, and he setteth against them the contrary meanes. And when a more vehement perturbation, how we ought to take heed that we grieue not the holy Spirit of God through our immoderatenesse and intemperancy, who dwelleth in vs to this end, to moderate all our affections.

19 An argument taken from the example of Christ, most graue and vehement both for pardoning of those iniuries which haue beene done vnto vs by our greatest enemies, & much more for hauing consideration of the miserable and vsing moderation and gentle behauiour towards all men.

31 Let all bitternesse, and anger, and wrath, crying, and euill speaking be put away from you, with all malicíousnesse.
32 Be ye courteous one to another, and tender hearted, freely forgiuing one another, 19 euen as God for Christs sake, freely forgiue you.

CHAP. V.

2 Least, in those vices which he reprehended, they should set light by his admonitions, ỹ he terrifieth them by denouncing vnto ỹ vngodly. 21, 8 and exhorteth them forward. 15 Then hee descendeth from generall lessons of manners. 22 to the particular duelies of wiues, 25 and their husbands.

BE yee therefore followers of God, as deare children,
2 ✠ And walke in loue, euen as Christ hath loued vs, and hath giuen himselfe for vs, to be an offering and a sacrifice of a sweete smelling sauour to God.
3 ✠ [1] But fornication, and all vncleannesse, or couetousnes, let it not be once named among you, as it becommeth Saints.
4 Neither filthinesse, neither fooliſh talking, neither [a] iesting, which are things not comely, but rather giuing of thankes.
5 [a] For this ye know, that no whoremonger, neither vncleane person, nor couetous person, which is an [b] idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdome of Christ, and of God.
6 ✠ Let no man deceiue you with vaine words: for, for such things commeth the wrath of God vpon the children of disobedience.
7 3 Be not therefore companions with them.
8 Forwe were once darknesse, but are now [c] light in the Lord: walke as children of light.
9 (For the fruit of the [d] Spirit is in all goodnesse, and righteousnesse, and trueth)
10 Approouing that which is pleasing to the Lord.
11 And haue no fellowship with the vnfruitfull works of darknes, but eue[e] reprooue them rather.
12 For it is shame euen to speake of the things which are done of them in secret.
13 But all things when they are reprooued of the light, are manifest: for it is light that maketh all things manifest.
14 Wherefore ſhee saieth, Awake thou that sleepest, and stand vp from the [g] dead, and Christ shall giue thee light.
15 4 Take heede therefore that yee walke circumspectly, not as fooles, but as ✠ wise, 16 [h] Redeeming the season: for ỹ [i] daies are euil.
17 ✠ Wherefore, be yee not vnwise, but vnderstand what the will of the Lord is.
18 5 And be not drunken with wine, wherein is ✠ John 13.34. and 15.12.

1. Iohn 3.23.
✠ Chap. 4.29. Colos. 3.5. 2. Thess. 2.17.
1 Now he commeth to another kind of affections, which is in that part of the mind, which men call couetous or desirous: and he reprehendeth fornication, couetousnesse, and iesting, very sharpely.
a Iestes which men call vse at another: that no lightnesse be seene, nor euill example giuen, nor any offence mooued by euill wordes or backbiting.
b Because these sinnes are such that the most part of men count them not for sinnes, he awaketh the godly, to the end they should so much the more take heede to themselues from them, as most hurtfull plagues.
b A bondſaue to idolatrie, for the couetous man thinketh that his life ſtandeth in his goods.
3 Because we are not so readie to any thing as to follow euill examples, therefore the Apostle warneth the godly to remember alwayes that the other are but as it were darknesse, and that they themselues are as it were light. And therefore the other commit all villanies (as men are wont in the darke) but they ought not onely not to follow their examples, but also (as the property of the light is) reproue their darknesse, and to walke so (hauing Christ that true light shining before them) as it becommeth wise men.
c The faithfull are called light, both because they haue the true light in them which lighteneth them, and also because they giue light to other, insomuch, that their honeſt conuerſation reproueth the life of wicked men.
d By whoſe force we are made light in the Lord.
e Make them open to all the world, by your good life.
f The Scripture, or God in the Scripture.
g He ſpeaketh of the death of ſinne.
4 The worse and more corrupt that the maners of this world are, the more watchful ought we to be against all occasions, & respect nothing but the will of God. ✠ Coloſ. 4.5. h Thiss a metaphore taken from the merchants: who prefeere the leaſt profit that may be, before all their pleasures. i The times are troubleſome and sharpe. ✠ Rom. 12.2. 1. theſſ. 4.3.
5 He setteth the sober & holy assemblies of the faithfull against the dissolute bankets of the vnfaithfull, in which the praises of the onely Lord must ring, be it in prosperitie or aduersitie, k excesse: but be filled with the Spirit,

19 Speaking vnto your selues in Psalmes, and hymnes, and spirituall songs, singing and making melodie to the Lord in your [k] hearts.
20 Giuing thankes alwayes for all things vnto God euen the Father, in the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, 21 6 Submitting your selues one to another in the feare of God.
22 ¶ ✠ 7 Wiues, submit your selues vnto your husbands, [8] as vnto the Lord.
23 ✠ 9 For the husband is the wiues head, euen Christ is the head of the Church, [10] and the same is the Sauiour of his body.
24 [11] Therefore as the Church is in subiection to Christ, euē so let the wiues be to their husbands in euery thing.
25 ¶ ✠ [12] Husbands, loue your wiues, euen as Christ loued the Church, and gaue himselfe for it,
26 [13] That he might [m] sanctifie it, and cleanse it by the washing of water through the [n] word,
27 That he might make it vnto himselfe a glorious Church, [o] not hauing spot or wrinkle, or any such thing: but that it should be holy & without blame.
28 [14] So ought men to loue their wiues, as their owne bodies: he that loueth his wife, loueth himselfe.
29 For no man euer yet hated his [p] owne flesh, but nourished and cherisheth it, euen as the Lord doeth the Church.
30 For we are members of his bodie, [q] of his flesh, and of his bones.
31 ✠ For this cause shall a man leaue father and mother, and shall [r] cleaue to his wife, and they twaine shall be one flesh.
32 [15] This is a great secret, but I speake concerning Christ, and concerning the Church.
33 [16] Therefore euery one of you, doe ye so: let euery one loue his wife, euen as himselfe, and let the wife see that she feare her husband.

k All kind of riot, ioyned with all manner of filthines and shamefulnesse.
l With an earnest affection of the heart, and not with the tongue onely.
6 A short repetition of the ende wherevnto all things ought to be referred, to serue one another for Gods sake.
✠ Coloſ. 3.18. Titus 2.5. 1. Pet. 3.1.
7 Nowe he descendeth to a family, dividing orderly all the parts of a family. And he saith that the duetie of wiues consisteth herein, to be obedient to their husbands.
8 The first argument, for they cannot be disobedient to their husbands, but they must resist God also, who is the authour of this subiection.
✠ 1. Cor. 11.3.
9 A declaration of the former saying: Because God hath made the man head of the woman in matrimonie, as Christ is the head of the Church.
10 Another argument: Because the good estate of the wife dependeth of the man, so that this submission is not one-

ly iust, but also verie profitable: as also the saluation of the Church is of Christ, although farre otherwise. 11 The conclusion of the wiues duetie towardes their husbands. v Coloſ. 3.19. 12 The husbandes duetie towardes their wiues, is to loue them as themselues, of which loue, the loue of Christ toward his Church is a liuely patterne. 13 Because many men pretende the infirmities of their wiues to excuse their owne hardnesse and cruelitie, the Apostle willeth vs to marke what manner of Church Christ gate. when hee ioyned it to himselfe, and how hee doeth not onely not loathe all her filth and vncleanneſſe, but ceaseth not to wipe the same away with his cleannesse, vntill hee haue wholly purged it.
m Make it holy. In Through the promiſe of free iuſtification and ſanctification in Christ, receiued by faith. o The Church, as it is conſidered in it ſelfe, ſhall not be without wrinkle, before it come to the marke it ſhooteth at: for while it is in this life, it runneth in arrace: but if it be conſidered in Christ, it is cleane and without wrinkle. 14 Another argument. Euerie man loueth himselfe, euen of nature: therefore hee striueth against nature that loueth not his wife: hee prooueth the consequent, first by the mysticall knitting of Christ and the Church together, and then by the ordinance of God, who sayeth, that man and wife are as one, that is, not to be diuided. p His owne bodie. q Hee alludeth to the making of the woman, which ſignifieth our coupling together with Christ, whichis wrought by faith, but is ſealed by the Sacrament of the Supper. ✠ Geneſ. 2.24. matt. 19.5. mark. 10.7. 1. corint. 6.16. r Looke Matt. 19.5.
15 That no man might dreame of naturall conſunction or knitting of Christ and his Church together (such as the husbands and the wiues is) hee sheweth that it is secret, to wit, ſpirituall, and such as farre differeth from the common capacitie of man: as which consisteth by the vertue of the Spirite, and not of the flesh ny faith, and by no naturall band. 16 The conclusion both of the husbands duetie toward his wife, and of the wiues toward her husband.

CHAP. VI.

1 Hee ſurweth the duelies of children, 5 ſeruants, 9 and maſters: 10 Then he ſpeaketh of the fierce battel that the faithfull haue, 12 and what weapons wee muſt vſe in the ſame. 21 In the end he commendeth Tychicus.

Children,

1 He commeth to another part of a famile, and shewth that the dueties of the children towards their parents, consisten in obedience vnto them.
2 The first argument: because God hath so appointed: wherevpon it followeth also, that children are so farforth bound to obey their parents, as they may not swarue from the true worship of God.
a For the Lord is authour of all fatherhood, and therefore we must yeeld such obedience as he will haue vs.
3 The second argument: because this obedience is most iuit.

✠ Exod. 20. 12. deut. 5. 16. eccles. 3. 9. matth. 15. 4. marke 7. 10.
4 A proofe of the first argument.
5 The third argument, taken of the profit that eosueth thereby: because the Lord vouchsafed this commandement among t all the rest, of a speciall blessing.
b With a specially promise: for otherwise the second commandement hath a promise of mercy to a thousand generations, but that promise is generall.
6 It is the dueety of fathers to vse their authority moderately & to God glory.
c Such informations and precepts, as being taken out of Gods booke, are holy and acceptable to him.
h Now he descendeth to the thrid part of a famille, to wit, to the dueties both of the masters and of the seruants. And he sheweth that the dueties of seruants consisteth in an heartie loue & reuerence to their master.
✠ Colos 3. 22. titus 2. 9. 1. pet. 2. 18.
8 He mitigateth the sharpenesse of seruice, in that they are spiritually free, notwithstanding the same, and yet ✠ spirituall freedome taketh not away corporall seruice, insomuch that they cannot be Christs, vnlesse they serue their masters willingly and faithfully, so farre forth as they may with safe conscience.
d With carefull reuerence: for slow & feare is not alowable, much lesse in Christian seruants.
9 To cut off occasion of all pretences, hee teacheth vs that it is Gods will that some are either borne or made seruants, and therefore they must respect Gods will, although their seruice be neuer so hard.
e Being moued with a reuerence to God and as though ye serued God himselfe.
10 Although they serue vnkinde and cruell maisters, yet the obedience of seruants is no lesse acceptable to God then the obedience of them that are free.
11 It is the duetie of masters to vse the authoritie that they haue ouer their seruants modestly, and holily, seeing that they i another respect haue a common maister, which is in heauen, who will iudge both the bond and the free. ✠ Deut. 10. 17. 2. chron. 16. 7. iob 34. 19. acts 10. 34. rom 2. 11. galat. 2. 6. colos. 3. 25. 1. pet. 1. 17.
f Either of freedome or bondage.
12 Hee concludeth the other part of this Epistle with a graue exhortation, that all be ready, and fight constantly, trusting to spirituall weapons, vntill their enemies be cleane put to flight. And first of all, hee warneth vs to take the armour of God, where with onely our enemy may be dispatched.

1 Children, ✠ obey your parents 2 In the a Lord: 3 for this is right.
2 ✠ Honour thy father and mother (5 which is the first commandement with b promise)
3 That it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest liue long on earth.
4 c And ye fathers, prouoke not your children to wrath: but bring them vp in instruction and c information of the Lord.
5 ✠ Seruants, be obedient vnto them that are your masters, 8 according to the flesh, with d feare and trembling in singlenesse of your hearts, as vnto Christ,
6 Not with seruice to the eye, as men pleasers, but as the seruants of Christ, 9 doing the will of God from the heart,
7 With good will, seruing the e Lord, and not men.
8 10 And know ye that whatsoeuer good thing any man doeth, that same shall hee receiue of the Lord, whether he be bond or free,
9 12 And ye masters, doe the same things vnto them, putting away threatning: and know that euen your master also is in heauen, neither is there ✠ respect of person with him.
10 ¶ 12 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.
11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the assaults of the deuill.
12 13 For we wrestle not against flesh & ✠ blood, but against ✠ b principalities, against powers, and against the worldly gouernours, the princes of the darkenesse of this world, against spirituall wickednesse, which are in the high places.
13 14 For this cause take vnto you the whole armour of God, that yee may be able to resist in the i euill day, and hauing finished all things, stand fast.
14 Stand therefore, and your loines girded about with verity, and hauing on the breastplate of righteousnesse, 15 And your feet shod with the k preparation of the Gospel of peace.
16 Aboue all, take the shield of Faith, wherewith yee may quench all the fierie darts of the wicked,
17 And take the helmet of Saluation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.
18 And pray alwayes with all maner prayer and supplication in the l spirit: and watch thereunto with all perseuerance & supplication for all Saints,
19 And for me, that vtterance may be giuen vnto me, that I may open my mouth boldly to publish the secret of the Gospel,
20 Whereof I am the ambassadour in bonds, that therein I may speake boldly, as I ought to speake.
21 ¶ 15 But that yee may also know mine affaires, and what I doe, Tychicus my deare brother and faithfull minister in the Lord, shall shew you of all things, 22 Whom I haue sent vnto you for the same purpose, that ye might know mine affaires, & that he might comfort your hearts.
23 Peace be with all the brethren, and loue with faith from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.
24 Grace be with all them which loue our Lord Iesus Christ to their m immortality. Amen.

¶ Written from Rome vnto the Ephesians, and sent by Tychicus.

13 Secondly he declareth that our chiefest and mightiest enemies are inuisible, that we may not thinke that our chiefest conflict is with men.
g Against men, which are of a feeble and brittle nature, against which our fist spirituall substitutes, were mighty then the other by a thousand parts.
h He giueth these names to the euill angels, by reason of the effects which they worke: not that they are able to doe the same of themselues, but because God giueth them the bridle.
14 Hee sheweth that these enemies are put to flight with the only armour of God, to wit, with vprightenes of conscience, & godly and holy life, knowledge of the Gospel, faith, and to be short, with the word of God, and vsing daily earnest prayer for the health of the Church, and especially, for the constancie of the true, godly, and valiant ministers of the word.
i Looke Chapter 5. 16.
k That the preparation of the Gospel may be as it were shoes to you: and it is to go to God through vs to gee on manfully, in that we know by the doctrine of the Gospel, that we take our iourney to God, who is at peace with vs.
l That holy prayers may proceed from the holy Spirit.
15 A familiar and very amiable declaration of his state, together with a solemne prayer, wherewith Paul is wont to end his Epistles.
m To life euerlasting.

THE EPISTLE OF PAVL TO THE PHILIPPIANS.

CHAP. I.

3 Hauing testified his godly and tender affection towards the Philippians, 12 he incourageth himself and his bonds: 22 And pricketh them forward by his owne example, 27 and exhorteth them to vnity, 28 and patience.

2 The marke whereat he shooteth in this Epistle, is to confirme the Philippians by all meanes possible, not onely not to faint, but also to go forward. And first of all, he commendeth their former doings, to exhort them to go forward: which thing he doeth, he hopeth fully they will do, and that by the testimony of their liuely charity, but in the meane season he reiecteth all things to the grace of God.
a By the Bishops are meant both the Pastours, which haue the dispensation of the word and the Elders, that gouerne: and by Deacons are meant those that were stewards of the treasury of the Church, and had to looke vnto the poore,

PAul ✠ and Timotheus the seruants of IESVS CHRIST, to all the Saints in Christ Iesus, which are at Philippi, with the a Bishops and Deacons:
2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ:
3 I thanke my God, hauing you in perfect memorie,
4 (Alwayes in all my prayers for all you, praying with gladnesse)
5 Because of the b fellowship which ye haue in the Gospel, from the c first day vnto now.
6 And I am perswaded of this same thing, that he that hath begunne this good worke in you, will performe it vntill the d day of Iesus Christ:
7 As it becommeth me so to iudge of you all, because I haue you in remembrance, that both in my e bands, and in my defence & confirmation of the Gospel, you all were partakers of my f grace.

b Because that you also are made partakers of the Gospel.
c Euer since I knew you.
d The Spirit of God will not forsake you vnto the very latter end, vntill your mortall bodies shall appeare before the iudgement of Christ.
f ✠ Or, to be glorified.
e A true proofe of a true knitting together with Christ.

8 [1] For God is my record, how I long after you all from the very heart root in Iesus Christ.

9 [3] And this I pray that your loue may abound yet more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement,

10 That yee may allow those things which are best, that ye may be pure, and without offence, vntill the day of Christ,

11 Filled with the [g] fruits of righteousnesse, which are by Iesus Christ vnto the glorie and praise of God.

12 ¶ [4] I would ye vnderstood, brethren, that the things which haue come vnto me, are turned rather to the furthering of the Gospel,

13 So that my bandes [h] in Christ are famous thorowout all the [i] iudgement hall, and in all other places,

14 Insomuch that many of the brethren in the Lord are boldened through my bandes, and dare more frankely speake the [k] Word.

15 Some preach Christ euen through enuy and strife, and some also of good will.

16 The one part preacheth Christ of contention, and not [l] purely, supposing to adde more affliction to my bands.

17 But the others of loue, knowing that I am set for the defence of the Gospel.

18 [5] What then? yet Christ is preached all manner wayes, whether it be vnder a [m] pretence, or sincerely: and I therein ioy: yea, and will ioy.

19 For I know that this shall turne to my salvation through your prayer, and by the helpe of the Spirit of Iesus Christ,

20 [6] As I feruently looke for, and hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all confidence, as alwayes, so now Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death.

21 For Christ is to me both in life and in death aduantage.

22 [7] And whether to liue in the [n] flesh were profitable for me, and what to chuse I know not.

23 For I am distressed betweene both, desiring to be loosed, and to be with Christ, which is best of all.

24 Neuerthelesse, to abide in the flesh, is more needfull for you.

25 And this am I sure of, that I shall abide, and with you all continue, for your furtherance and ioy of your faith,

26 That yee may more abundantly reioyce in IESVS CHRIST for me, by my comming to you againe.

27 [8] Onely let your conuersation be as it becometh the Gospel of Christ, that whether I come and see you, or els be absent, I may heare of your matters, that ye [o] continue in one spirit, and in one minde, fighting together through the faith of the Gospel.

28 [9] And in nothing feare your aduersaries, which is to them a token of perdition, and to you of saluation, and that of God.

29 [10] For vnto you it is giuen for Christ, that not onely ye should beleeue in him, but also suffer for his sake,

30 [11] Hauing the same fight, which yee saw in me, and now heare to be in me.

a Hee declareth his good will towards them, therewithall shewing by what meanes chiefly they may be confirmed, to wit, by continuall prayer.
b Hee sheweth what thing wee ought chiefly desire, to wit, first of all, that we may increase in the true knowledge of God (so that we may be able to discerne things that differ one from another) and also in charity, that euen to the end we may giue our selues to good works indeed, to the glory of God by Iesus Christ.
g If righteousnesse be the tree, and good works the fruits, then must the Papists needes be deceiued, when they say that works are the cause of righteousnesse.
c He preuenteth the offence that might come by his perfection, whereby diuers tooke occasion to dispraise his Apostleship. To whom he answereth, that God hath blessed his imprisonment in such wise, that he is by that meanes become more famous, and the diligitie of the Gospel by this occasion is greatly inlarged, although not with like affection in all men, yet indeed.
e In the Emperours court.
f The Gospel is called the Word, to set forth the excellencie of it.
i Not with a pure minde: for otherwise their doctrine was pure.
5 He sheweth by setting foorth his owne example, that the ende of our afflictions is true ioy, & that through the vertue of the Spirit of Christ, which he giueth to them that aske it. m Vnder a goodly colour and shew: for they made Christ a cloake for their ambition and enuie.
6 We must continue euen to y end, with great confidence, hauing nothing before our eyes but Christes glory onely, whether wee liue or die.
7 An example of a true shepheard, who maketh more account how he may profit his sheepe, then he doth of any commodity of his owne whatsoeuer. n To liue in this mortall body.
8 Hauing set downe those things before, in maner of a Preface, hee descendeth now to exhortations, warning them first of all, to continue both in doctrine and miude, and afterward, that being thus knit together with those common bands, they continue through the strength of faith to beare all aduersitie, in such sort, that they admit nothing vnworthie the profession of the Gospel. o The word signifieth, to stand fast, and it is proper to wrestlers, that stand fast, and shrinke not a foot.

9 We ought not to be discouraged, but rather incouraged by the persecutions which the enemies of the Gospel imagine, and practise against vs: seeing that they are certaine witnesses from God himselfe, both of our saluation, & of the destruction of the wicked. 10 He proueth that this saying, that perfection is a token of our saluation, because it is a gift of God to suffer for Christ, which gift he bestoweth vpon his owne, as he doth the gift of faith. 11 Now hee sheweth for what purpose hee made mention of his affliction.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee exhorteth them aboue all things to humilitie, 6 and that by the example of Christ. 19 He promiseth to send Timotheus shortly vnto them, 26 and excuseth the long tarying of Epaphroditus.

IF [1] there be therefore any consolation in [a] Christ, if any comfort of loue, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any [b] compassion and mercie,

2 Fulfill my ioy, that ye be like minded, hauing the [c] same loue, being of one accord, and of one iudgement,

3 That nothing be done through contention or vainglory, but that in meeknesse of mind euery man esteeme other better then himselfe.

4 Looke not euery man on his owne things, but euery man also on the things of other men.

5 [2] Let the same mind be in you that was euen in Christ Iesus,

6 Who being in the [d] forme of God, [e] thought it no robbery to be [f] equall with God:

7 But he made himselfe of [g] no reputation, and tooke on him the [h] forme of a seruant, & was made like vnto men, and was found in shape like a man.

8 He humbled himselfe, and became obedient vnto the death, euen the death of the crosse.

9 [3] Wherefore God hath also highly exalted him, and giuen him a [i] name aboue euery name.

10 That at the Name of Iesus should [k] euery knee bow, both of things in heauen, and things in earth, and things vnder the earth.

11 And that [l] euery tongue should confesse that Iesus Christ is the Lord, vnto the glory of God the Father.

12 ¶ [4] Wherefore my beloued, as ye haue alwayes obeyed me, not as in my presence onely, but now much more in mine absence: [m] so make an end of your owne saluation with feare and trembling.

13 [5] For it is God which worketh in you both [n] the will and the deed, euen of his good pleasure.

14 [6] Doe all things without ✣ murmuring and reasonings, a A most earnest request to remoouue all those things, whereby that great and speciall consent and agreement is commonly broken, to wit, contention and pride, whereby it commeth to passe, that they separate themselues one from another.

b An Christian comfort.
c If any feeling of inward loue.
c Like loue.
3 Hee setteth before them a most perfit example of all modestie and sweete conuersation, Christ Iesus, whom we ought to follow with all our might: who abased himselfe so farre for our sakes, although he be a bone all, that hee tooke vpon him the forme of a seruant, to wit, our flesh willingly, subiect to all infirmities, euen to the death of the crosse.
d Such as God himselfe is, and therefore God, for there is none in all parts like to God, but God himselfe.
e Christ, that glorious & euerlasting
God, knew that he might rightfully and lawfully not appeare in the base flesh of man, but remaine with maiesty meet for God: yet he chose rather to debase himselfe. f If the Sonne be equall to the Father, then is there of necessity an equality, which Arrius, that Heretike, denieth: and if the Sonne be compared with the Father, then is there a distinction of persons, which Sabellius, that heretike, denieth. g He brought himselfe from all things, as it were, to nothing. h By taking our manhood vpon him. 3 Hee sheweth the most glorious ende of Christes submission, to teach vs, that modestie is the true way to true praise and glorie.
i Dignity and renowme, and the matter with it. k All creatures shall at length be subiect to Christ. l Euery nation. 4 The conclusion: We must goe on to saluation with humilitie and submission, by the way of our vocation. m He is sayd to make an end of his saluation, which runneth in the race of righteousnesse.
5 A most sure and grounded argument against pride, for that wee haue nothing in vs praise worthy, but it commeth of the free gift of God, and is without vs, for we haue no ability or power, so much as to will well (much lesse to doe well) but onely of the free mercie of God. n Why then, we are not slockes, but yet we are not will well of nature, but onely because God hath made of our naughty will a good will.
6 He describeth modestie by y contrary effects of pride, teaching vs, that it is farre both from all malicious, and close or inward hatred, and also from open contentions and brawlings. ✣ 1. Pet. 4. 9.

15 7 That ye may be blameleſſe, and pure: and the ſonnes of God without rebuke in the middes of a naughtie and crooked nation, among whom ye ſhine as ✣ lights in the world,

16 Holding forth the [o] worde of life, [8] that I may reioyce in the day of Chriſt, that I haue not runne in vaine, neither haue laboured in vaine.

17 Yea, and though I be offered vp vpon the [p] ſacrifice, and ſeruice of your faith, I am glad, and reioyce with you all.

18 For the ſame cauſe alſo be ye glad, and reioyce with me.

19 9 And I truſt in the Lord Ieſus, to ſende ✣ Timothe ſhortly vnto you, that I alſo may be of [q] good comfort, when I know your ſtate.

20 For I haue no man like minded, who will faithfully care for your matters.

21 ✣ For [r] all ſeeke their owne, and not that which is Ieſus Chriſts.

22 But yee know the proofe of him, that as a ſonne with the father, hee hath ſerued with me in the Goſpel.

23 Him therefore I hope to ſend as ſoone as I know how it will goe with me,

24 And I truſt in the Lord, that I alſo my ſelfe ſhall come ſhortly.

25 But I ſuppoſed it neceſſarie to ſende my brother Epaphroditus vnto you my companion in labour, and fellow ſouldier, euen your meſſenger, and he that miniſtred vnto mee ſuch things as I wanted.

26 For he longed after all you, and was full of heauineſſe, becauſe ye had heard that he had bene ſicke.

27 And no doubt hee was ſicke, very neere vnto death: but God had mercy on him, and not on him onely, but on me alſo, leaſt I ſhould haue ſorow vpon ſorow.

28 I ſent him therefore the more diligently, that when yee ſhould ſee him againe, yee might reioyce, and I might be the leſſe ſorowfull.

29 Receiue him therefore in the Lord with all gladneſſe, and make much of ſuch:

30 Becauſe that for the [s] worke of Chriſt hee was neere vnto death, and regarded not his life, to fulfill the ſeruice which was lacking on your part toward me.

CHAP. III.

[a] Hee refuteth the vaine boaſtings of the falſe apoſtles, 7 and ſetteth Chriſt againſt them. 10 He ſetteth out the force and nature of faith, vrging and ſaying all things ſafe, they may be partakers of the Croſſe of Chriſt, 18 the enemies whereof, he notetth out.

MOreouer, [1] my brethren, reioyce in the Lord. [2] It grieueth me not to write the ſame things to you, and for you it is a ſure thing.

2 Beware of dogs: beware of euill workers: beware of the [b] conciſion.

3 [3] For we are the circumciſion, which worſhip God in the ſpirit, and reioyce in Chriſt Ieſus, and haue no confidence in the fleſh:

4 [4] Though I might alſo haue confidence in the fleſh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might truſt in the fleſh, much more I.

5 Circumciſed the eight day, of the kinred of Iſrael, of the tribe of Beniamin, ✣ an Ebrew of the Ebrewes, ✣ by the Law a Phariſe.

6 Concerning zeale, I perſecuted the Church: touching the righteouſneſſe which is in the Law, I was vnrebukeable.

7 But the things that were [d] vantage vnto me, the ſame I counted loſſe for Chriſtes ſake.

8 Yea, doubtleſſe I thinke [e] all things but loſſe for the excellent knowledge ſake of Chriſt Ieſus my Lord, for whom I haue counted all things loſſe, and doe iudge them to be doung, that I might [f] winne Chriſt,

9 And might be found in [g] him, that is, not hauing mine owne righteouſneſſe, which is of the Law, but that which is through the faith of Chriſt, euen the righteouſneſſe which is of God through faith,

10 [5] That I may [i] know him, and the vertue of his reſurrection, & the [k] fellowſhip of his afflictions, and be made conformable vnto his death,

11 If by any meanes I might attaine vnto the [l] reſurrection of the dead:

12 Not as though I had already attained to it, either were already perfect: but I follow, if that I may comprehend that for whoſe ſake alſo I am [l] comprehended of Chriſt Ieſus.

13 Brethren, I count not my ſelfe, that I haue attained to it, but one thing I doe: I forget that which is behinde, and endeuour my ſelfe vnto that which is before,

14 And follow hard toward the marke, for the priſe of the hie calling of God in Chriſt Ieſus.

15 7 Let vs therefore as many as be [m] perfect, be thus minded: and if yee be otherwiſe minded, God ſhall reueale euen the ſame vnto you.

16 Neuerthelеſſe, in that whereunto we are come, let vs proceed by one rule, that wee may minde one thing.

17 Brethren, be followers of me, and looke on them, which walke ſo, as ye haue vs for an enſample.

18 [8] ✣ For many walke, of whom I haue tolde you often, and now tell you weeping, that they are the enemies of the croſſe of Chriſt:

7 To be ſhort, he requireth a life without fault, and pure, that being lightened with the word of God, they may ſhine in the darkeneſſe of this world.
✣ Mat. 5, 14.
o The Goſpell is called the word of life, becauſe of the effects which it worketh.
8 Againe he pricketh them forward, ſetting before them his true Apoſtolike care that hee had of them, comforting them moreouer, to the end they ſhould not be ſorie for the greatneſſe of his afflictions, no not although he ſhould die to make perfect their oblation with his blood, as it were with a drinke offering.
p As if he ſaid, I brought you Philippians to Chriſt, my deſire is that you preſent your ſelues a liuely ſacrifice to him, and then ſhall it not grieue mee to be offered vp as a drinke offering, to accompliſh this your ſpirituall offering.
9 Moreouer hee confirmeth their mindes both by ſending backe Epaphroditus vnto them, whoſe idelitie towards them, and great paines in helping him, hee commendeth: and alſo promiſing to ſend Timothe ſhortly vnto them, by whoſe preſence they ſhall receiue great commoditie, and hoping alſo to come himſelfe ſhortly vnto them, if God will. ✣ Acts 16, 1. q May be confirmed in my ioy of minde.
r 1. Corinth. 10, 24. ✣ The moſt part.
s He calleth it here the worke of Chriſt, to viſite Chriſt, being poore & in bandes in the perſon of Paul.

3 He ſheweth that we ought to vſe true circumciſion, to wit, the circumciſion of the heart, that cutting off all wicked affections by the vertue of Chriſt, we may ſerue God in purtie of life.
t In ſuo ward things which pertaine nothing to the ſoule.
4 He doubteth not to preſer himſelfe euen according to the fleſh, before thoſe peruerſe hote vrgers of the Law, that all men may know that he doeth with good iudgement of minde, lightly eſteeme al thoſe outward things: forſomuch as he lacketh nothing which hath Chriſt, nay, confidence of our workes can not ſtand with the free iuſtification in Chriſt by faith.
u Which I accounted for aduntage.
x He ſheweth out all workes, as well thoſe that go before, as thoſe that come after faith.
5 That in their place I might get Chriſt, & of a poore man become rich: I ſayre off am I from loſing any thing.
y In Chriſt: for they that are found without Chriſt, are ſubiect to condemnation.
6 That is, to be in Chriſt, to be found not in a mans owne righteouſneſſe, but cloathed with the righteouſneſſe of Chriſt imputed to him.
7 This is the end of righteouſneſſe by faith touching vs, that by the vertue of his reſurrection we may eſcape from death.
z That I may feele ſom in deed, and haue a tryall of him.
a The way to that eternall ſaluation is to follow Chriſts ſteps, by afflictions and perſecutions, vntill we come to Chriſt himſelfe, who is our marke where at we ſhoot, and receiue that reward whereunto God calleth vs in him. And the Apoſtle ſetteth theſe true exerciſes of godlineſſe againſt thoſe vaine ceremonies of the Law, wherein the falſe apoſtles put the ſummie of godlineſſe.
b To liue euerlaſtinn, which followeth the reſurrection of the Saints.
c For we yunne not, but ſo fayre foorth, as we are layde holde on of Chriſt, that is, as God giueth vs ſtrength, and ſheweth vs the way.
8 The concluſion of this exhortation ſtanding vpon three members: The one is, that ſuch as haue profited in the truth of this doctrine, ſhould continue in it. The ſecond is, that if there be any which are yet ignorant, and vnderſtand not theſe things, & doubt of the abolishing of the Law, they ſhould cauſe no trouble, and ſhould be gently borne withall, vntil they alſo be inſtructed of the Lord. The third is, that they eſteeme the falſe apoſtles by their fruits: wherein he doubteth not to ſet forth himſelfe for an example. d He ſaid before that he was not perfect. So that in this place he calleth them perfect, which haue ſomewhat profited in the knowledge of Chriſt, and the Goſpel, whom he ſetteth againſt the rude and ignorants, as he expounderh himſelfe in the next verſe following.
9 He painteth out the falſe apoſtles in their colours, not vpon malice or ambition, but with ſorow and teares to writ, becauſe that being enemies of the Goſpel (for that it is ioyned with affliction) they regard nothing els but the commodities of this life: that is to ſay, that ſlowing in peace, quietneſſe, & all worldly pleaſures, they may liue in great eſtimation amongſt men: whoſe miſerable end he forewarneth them of. ✣ Rom. 16, 17.

% Reuarde.
o Which they hunt after at mens handes.
* He setteth against these followes, true Pastors which neglect earthly things, and aspire to heauen onely, where they know, that euen in their bodies they shall be cloathed with that eternall glory, by the vertue of God.
♣ 1. Cor. 1.7. Titus 2,13.

19 Whose end is damnation, whose God is their bellie, and whose o glory is to their shame, which minde earthly things.

20 9 But our conuersation is in heauen, from whence also we looke for the ♣ Sauiour, euen the Lord Iesus Christ.

21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like vnto his glorious body, according to the working, whereby he is able euen to subdue all things vnto himselfe.

CHAP. IIII.

1 From particular exhortations, 4 he commeth to general. 10 Hee saith that hee tooke such ioy in their readinesse to liberalitie, 12 that he will patiently beare the want.

1 A rehearsall of the conclusion: That they manfully continue, vntill they haue gotten the victorie, trusting to the Lords strength.
a My honour.
b In that concord, whereof the Lord is the author.

THerefore, 1 my brethren, beloued and longed for, my ioy and my a crowne, so continue in the b Lord, ye beloued.

2 2 I pray Euodias, and beseech Syntiche, that they be of one accord in the Lord.

3 Yea, and I beseech thee, faithfull yoakefellow, helpe those women, which laboured with me in the Gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowe labourers, whose names are in the ♣ c booke of life.

4 3 Reioyce in the d Lord alway, againe I say, reioyce.

5 4 Let your e patient minde be knowen vnto all men, f The Lord is at hand.

6 6 Be nothing carefull, but in all things let your requests be shewed vnto God in prayer and supplication with f giuing of thanks.

7 And the g peace of God which passeth all vnderstanding, shall preserue your h heartes and minds in Christ Iesus.

8 7 Furthermore, brethren, whatsoeuer things are true, whatsoeuer things i are honest, whatsoeuer things are iust, whatsoeuer things are pure, whatsoeuer things are worthy loue, whatsoeuer things are of good report, if there be any vertue, or if there be any praise, thinke on these things.

9 Which yee haue both learned and receiued, and heard, and seene in me: those things doe, and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 8 Now I reioyce also in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care for me springeth a fresh, wherein notwithstanding ye were careful, but ye lacked opportunitie.

11 I speake not because of k want: for I haue learned in whatsoeuer state I am, therewith to be content.

12 And I can be l abased, and I can abound: euery where in all things I am m instructed, both to be full, and to be hungry, and to abound, and to haue want.

13 I am able to do all things through the helpe of Christ, which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding ye haue well done, that ye did communicate to mine affliction.

15 9 And ye Philippians know also that in the n beginning of the Gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no Church communicated with mee, concerning the matter of giuing and receiuing, but ye onely.

16 For euen when I was in Thessalonica, ye sent once, and afterward againe for my necessitie.

17 10 Not that I desire a gift: but I desire the fruit which may further your reckoning.

18 Now I haue receiued all, and haue plentie: I was euen filled, after that I had receiued of Epaphroditus that which came from you, an o odour that smelleth sweete, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasant to God.

19 And my God shall fulfill all your necessities through his riches with glory in Iesus Christ.

20 Vnto God euen our Father be praise for euermore, Amen.

21 Salute all the Saints in Christ Iesus. The brethren, which are with me, greete you.

22 All the Saints salute you, and most of all they which are of p Cesars houshold.

23 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all, Amen.

¶ Written to the Philippians from Rome, and sent by Epaphroditus.

g That great quietnesse of minde, which God onely giueth in Christ. h He diuideth the minde into the heart, that is, into that part which is the seat of the will and affections, and into the higher part, whereby we vnderstand and reason of matters.
i A generall conclusion, that as they haue, beene taught both in word and example, so they frame their liues to the rule of all holinesse and righteousnesse. k Whatsoeuer things are such as do beautifie and set you out with a holy grauitie.

8 He witnesseth that their liberalitie was acceptable to him, where, with they did helpe him in his extreeme pouertie, but yet so moderating his words, that he might declare himselfe veyd of all suspition of dishonestie, and that he hath a minde contented both with prosperitie and aduersitie, and to be short, that he reposeth himselfe in the onely will of God.
l Abased, though I passed for my want.
m He vseth a generall word, and yet he speaketh but of one kinde of crosse, which is pouertie, for commonly pouertie bringeth all kindes of discommoditie with it.

n This is a metaphore taken from holy things or sacrifices, for our life is like a sacrifice.

9 He witnesseth that he remembreth also the former benefite, and againe putteth away iniustrous suspicion of immoderate desire, in that that hee receiued nought of any else.
o As that beginning when I preached the Gospel amongst you.

10 He witnesseth againe, that hee alloweth well of their benefit, not so much to him, as himselfe will not be forgeuefull. a He alludeth to the sweet smelling sauours that were offered in the olde Law. p Such as belong to the Emperour Nero.

much for his owne sake as for theirs, because they gaue it as they offered it to God for a sacrifice, whereof the Lord himselfe will not be forgeuefull. a He alludeth to the sweet smelling sauours that were offered in the olde Law. p Such as belong to the Emperour Nero.

THE EPISTLE OF PAVL TO THE COLOSSIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 After the salutation, 4 he praiseth them the more, to make them attentiue vnto him. 7 He reporteth the testimonie of the doctrine which they heard of Epaphras. 13 He magnifieth Gods grace towards them, 20 and sheweth that all the parts of our saluation consist in Christ alone.

PAul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the a will of God, and Timotheus our brother,

2 To them which are of b Colosse, Saints and faithfull brethren in Christ: Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

a By the free bountifulnesse of God.
b Colosse as situated in Phrygia, not far from Hierapolis and Laodicea, on that side that they bend toward Lycia and Pamphylia.

3 1 We giue thanks to God euen the c Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, alway praying for you:

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Iesus, and of your loue towards all Saints.

5 For the d hopes sake, which is layed vp for you in heauen, whereof ye haue heard before by the word of trueth, which is the Gospel,

6 Which is come vnto you euen as it is vnto all the world, & is fruitful, as it is also among you from ỹ day ỹ ye heard & truly knew the grace of God,

7 As yee also learned of Epaphras our deare fellow seruant, which is for you a faithfull minister of Christ:

8 2 Who

1 He commendeth the doctrine that was deliuered them by Epaphras, and their readinesse in receiuing it.
c We can not otherwise consider of God to our saluation, but as he is Christes Father, in whom we are adopted.
d For the glory that is hoped for.

a He declareth his good will towards them, telling them that they muſt not ſtill remaine at one ſtay, but go on further both in the knowledge of the Goſpel, and alſo in the true vſe of it.
e Your ſpirituall loue, or your loue which commeth from the Spirit.
f Gods will.
g The gift of continuance it not of vs, but it proceedeth from the vertue of God, which he doeth freely giue vs.
h It muſt not be vnwilling, and as it were drawen out of vs by force, but proceed from a merie and ioyfull minde.
4 Hauing ended the preface, he goeth to the matter it ſelfe, that is to ſay, to an excellent deſcription (although it be but ſhort) of whole Chriſtianitie, which is fitly diuided to three treatiſes: for firſt of all he expounded the true doctrine, according to the order of the cauſes, beginning from this verſe to the 24. And from thence he beginneth to apply the ſame to the Coloſſians with diuers exhortations to the 6 verſe of the ſecond Chapter. And laſt of all in the third place, euen to the third Chapter, hee refuteth the corruption of true doctrine.
5 The efficient cauſe of our ſaluation is the onely mercie of God the Father, who maketh vs meete to be partakers of eternall life, deliuering vs from the darkeneſſe wherein wee were borne, and bringing vs to the light of the knowledge of the glory of his Sonne.
b In that glorious and heauenly kingdome. ✣ Matt. 3, 17 and 17. 5 2 Pet. 1, 17.
6 The matter it ſelfe of our ſaluation, is Chriſt the Sonne of God, who hath obteined remiſſion of ſinnes for vs, by the offring vp of himſelfe.
7 A liuely deſcription of the perſon of Chriſt, whereby wee vnderſtand that in him onely, God ſheweth himſelue to be ſeene: who was begotten of the Father before any thing was made, that is, from euerlaſting, by whom alſo all things that are made, were made without any exception, by whom alſo they doe conſiſt, and whoſe glory they ſeeke. ✣ Hebr. 1, 3. i Begotten before any thing was made: and therefore the euerlaſting Sonne of the euerlaſting Father. ✣ Iohn 1, 3. k He ſetteth foorth the Angels with glorious names, that by the compariſon of moſt excellent ſpirits wee may vnderſtand howe farre paſſing the excellencie of Chriſt is, in whom onely we haue to content our ſelues, and let goe all Angels.
8 Hauing gloriouſly declared the excellent dignitie of the perſon of Chriſt, he deſcribeth his office, an function, to wit, that hee is that ſame to the Church, that the head is to the body, that is to ſay, the prince and gouernour of it, & the very beginning of true life, as who riſing firſt from death, is the Authour of eternall life, ſo that he is abouealll, in whom onely there is moſt plentifull abundance of all good things, which is powred out vpon the Church. ✣ Reuelat. 1, 5. 1 Cor. 15, 20. l Who ſo euer againe that he ſhall die no more, and who raiſeth other from death to liue by his power. ✣ Iohn 1, 14. chap. 20, 9.
m Moſt plentifull abundance of all things pertaining to God.
9 Now he teacheth how Chriſt executed that office which his Father inioyned him, to wit, by ſuffering the death of the croſſe (which was ioyned with the curſe of God) according to his determinate counſell: by this ſacrifice he might reconcile to his Father all men, as well them which beleeued in him to come, and were already vnder this hope gathered into heauen, as them which ſhould vpon the earth beleeue in him afterward. And thus is iuſtification deſcribed of the Apoſtle, which is one and the chiefeſt part of the benefite of Chriſt.
n The whole Church.
10 Sanctification is another worke of God in vs by Chriſt, in that that he reſtored vs (which hated God exceedingly, and were wholly and willingly giuen to ſinne) to his gracious fauour, in ſuch ſort, that hee therewithall purifieth vs with his holy Spirit, and conſecrateth vs to righteouſneſſe.

8 ✣ Who hath alſo declared vnto vs your loue in the e Spirit.
9 For this cauſe wee alſo, ſince the day that we heard of it, ceaſe not to pray for you, and to deſire that ye might be fulfilled with knowledge of f his will in all wiſedome, and ſpirituall vnderſtanding.
10 That ye might walke worthy of the Lord, & pleaſe him in al things, being fruitfull in al good workes, and increaſing in the knowledge of God,
11 3 Strengthened with all might through his glorious power vnto all patience, and long ſuffering with g ioyfulneſſe,
12 4 Giuing thankes vnto the ſ Father, which hath made vs meete to be partakers of the inheritance of the Saints in h light.
13 Who hath deliuered vs from the power of darkeneſſe, and hath tranſlated vs into the kingdome ✣ of his deare Sonne, 14 6 In whom we haue redemption through his blood, that is, the forgineſſe of ſinnes.
15 7 Who is the ✣ image of the inuiſible God, i the firſt begotten of euery creature.
16 ✣ For by him were all things created which are in heauen, and which are in earth, things viſible and inuiſible: whether they be k Thrones, or Dominions, or Principalities, or powers, all things were created by him, and for him,
17 And he is before all things, and in him all things conſiſt.
18 8 And hee is the head of the body of the Church: hee is the beginning, ✣ and the l firſt begotten of the dead, that in all things he might haue the preeminence,
19 ✣ For it pleaſed the Father, that in him ſhould m all fulneſſe dwell,
20 9 And through peace made by that blood of that his croſſe, to reconcile to himſelfe through him, through him, I ſay, n all things, both which are in earth, and which are in heauen.
21 10 And you which were in times paſt ſtrangers and enemies, becauſe your mindes were ſet in euill workes, hath o hee now alſo reconciled,
22 In that body of his p fleſh through death, to make you holy and vnblameable, and without fault in his ſight,
23 11 If yee continue, grounded and ſtabliſhed in the faith, & be not moued away from the hope of the Goſpel, whereof yee haue heard, and which hath beene preached to q euery creature, which is vnder heauen, 12 whereof I Paul am a miniſter.
24 Now reioyce I in my ſuffrings r for you, and fulfill the r reſt of the afflictions of Chriſt in my fleſh, for his bodies ſake, which is the Church.
25 13 Whereof I am a miniſter, according to the diſpenſation of God, which is giuen mee vnto youward, to fulfill the word of God.
26 ✣ Which is the myſtery hid ſince the world began, and from all ages, but now is made manifeſt to his s Saints,
27 To whom God u woulde make knowen what is the riches of his glorious myſtery among the Gentiles, which riches is Chriſt in you, the hope of glory.
28 14 Whom wee preach, admoniſhing euery man, and teaching euery man in x all wiſedome, that wee may preſent euery man perfect in Chriſt Ieſus.
29 Whereunto I alſo labour & ſtriue, according to his working which worketh in me mightily.

o The ſonne.
p In that he ſtedfaſtly bode, to giue vs to vnderſtand that his body was not a fantaſticall body, but a true body.
21 This ſecond treatiſe of this part of the Epiſtle, wherein he exhorteth the Coloſſians not to ſuffer themſelues by any meanes to be moued from this doctrine, ſhewing and declaring that there is no where any other true Goſpel.
q To all men: whereby we learne that the Goſpel was not ſhut vp within the corners of Iudea alone.
22 He purchaſeth authoritie to this doctrine by his Apoſtleſhip, and taketh a moſt ſure proofe thereof, of his afflictions which he ſuffereth for Chriſts his Name, to inſtruct the Churches with theſe The afflictions of the Church are ſayde to be Chriſtes afflictions, by reaſon of y fellowſhip & knitting together, that the body and the head haue the one with the other, not that there is any more needs to haue the Church redeemed, but that Chriſt ſheweth his power in the dayly weakeneſſe of his, and that for the comfort of the whole body.
23 He bringeth another proofe of his Apoſtleſhip, to wit, that God is the authour of it, by whom alſo hee was appointed peculiarly Apoſtle of the Gentiles, to the end that by this meanes, that ſame might be fulfilled by him, which the Prophets foretold of the calling of the Gentiles. ✣ Rom 16, 25. Ephe. 3, 9. 1. Tim. 1. 10. tit. 1, 2. 1. pet. 1, 20. Whom he choſe in himſelfe in Chriſt, moreouer he ſayth that the myſtery of our redemption was hidden ſince the world began, except it were reuealed vnto a few, who alſo were taught it extraordinarily. u This Paul bridleth the curioſitie of men.
24 He proteſteth that he doeth faithfully execute his Apoſtleſhip in euery place, bringing men vnto Chriſt onely through the Lorde pleniſull bleſſing of his labours. x Perfect and ſound wiſdome, which is perfect in it ſelfe, and ſhall in the end make them perfect that follow it.

CHAP. II.

4 He condemneth, as vaine, whatſoeuer is without Chriſt, 11 inueating ſpecially of circumciſion, 16 of abſtinence from meats, 18 and of worſhipping of Angels. 20 That wee are deliuered from the traditions of y Law through Chriſt.

FOr I a would ye knewe what great fighting I haue for your ſakes, and for them of Laodicea, and for as many as haue not ſeene my b perſon in the fleſh,
2 That b their hearts might be comforted, and they knit together in loue, and in all riches of the c full aſſurance of vnderſtanding, to know the myſtery of God, euen the Father, and of Chriſt:
3 In whom are hid all the treaſures of d wiſedome and knowledge.
4 3 And this I ſay, leaſt any man ſhould beguile you with e entiſing words:
5 ✣ For though I be abſent in the fleſh, yet am I with you in the ſpirit, reioycing & beholding your f order, and your g ſtedfaſt faith in Chriſt
6 As ye haue therefore h receiued Chriſt Ieſus the Lord, ſo walke in him, 7 Rooted and built in him, and ſtabliſhed in examples of patience.

r For your profite and commoditie.

a The ſame.
b Yea though I be abſent in the fleſh, yet am I preſent in the ſpirit, reioycing & beholding your order, and your ſtedfaſtneſſe in Chriſt.
1 The taking away of an obiection, in that that he viſited not the Coloſſians, nor the Laodiceans, he did it not of any negligence, but is ſo much the more carefull for them.
a Me preſent in body.
2 He concludeth ſhortly the ſumme of the former doctrine, to wit, that the whole ſumme of true wiſedome and moſt ſecrete knowledge of God, conſiſteth in Chriſt only, and that this is the vſe of it touching men, that they being knit to him, c ſo great a goodneſſe, d Whom he neuer ſaw. e Of that vnderſtanding, which bringeth forth a certaine and vnadubted perſwaſion in our mindes. d There is no true wiſedome without Chriſt.
3 A ſpeaking ouer to the treatiſe following, againſt the corruptions of Chriſtianitie. e With a framed kinde of talke made to perſwade. ✣ 1. Cor. 3. 3. f The maner of your Eccleſiaſticall diſcipline.
g Doctrine. h Sothen Chriſt hangeth not vpon mans traditions.

ȳ faith, as ye haue beene taught, abounding therein with thankesgiuing:

8 4 Beware least there be any man that i spoile you through Philosophie, & vaine deceit, ſthrough the traditions of men, 6 according to the k rudiments of the world, 7 and not after Christ.

9 8 For l in him m dwelleth n all the fulnesse of the Godhead o bodily.

10 And ye are compleete in him, which is the head of all principalitie and power.

11 9 In whom also yee are circumcised with ✣ circumcision made without handes, by putting off the p ſinfull body of the flesh, through the circumcision of Christ,

12 10 In that yee are ✣ q buried with r him through baptisme, 11 in whom yee are also raised vp together through s the faith of the operation of t God, which raised him from the dead.

13 ∵ 12 And you which were dead in sinnes, 13 and in the vncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, forgiuing you all your tr espasses,

14 14 And putting out the u hand writing of ordinances that was against vs, which was contrarie to vs: hee euen tooke it out of the way, and fastened it vpon the crosse,

15 And hath spoiled the v Principalities, and Powers, and hath x made a shewe of them openly, and hath triumphed ouer them in the y same crosse.

16 15 Let no man therefore condemne you in meate, and drinke, or in respect of an holy day, or of the new moone, or of the Sabbath dayes.

17 Which are but a shadow of things to come: but the z body is in Christ.

18 16 Let no man at his pleasure beare rule ouer you by a humblenesse of minde, and worshipping of Angels, 17 aduancing himselfe in those things which hee neuer sawe, a 18 b rashly puft vp with his fleshly minde,

19 19 And holdeth not the c head, whereof all the body furnished and knit together by ioynts & bands, increaseth with the increasing of d God.

20 20 Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the ordinances of the world, why, e as though ye liued in ȳ world, are ye burdened with traditions?

21 21 As, Touch not, Taste not, Handle not.

22 22 Which all perish with the vsing, 23 and are after ȳ commandements & doctrines of men.

23 24 Which things haue in deede a shewe of f wisedome, in g voluntarie religion and humblenesse of minde, & h not sparing the body, which are things of no value, sith they pertaine to the i filling of the flesh.

3 He beginneth all corruptions to three kindes: The first is that, which reiecteth of vaine and curious speculations, and yet beareth a shew of a certaine ſubtill wisedome.

i This is a word of warre, and it is as much as to driue or cary away a ſpoyle or boote.

4 The ſecond which is manifestly ſuperstitious and vaine, and standeth onely vpon customs and rained inspirations.

5 The third kinde was of men which ioyned the rudiments of the world, (that is to say, the ceremonies of the Law) with the Gospel.

k Principles and rules, wherewith God ruled his Church, as it were vnder a ſchoolemaister.

7 A generall confutation of all corruptions is this, that that must needes be a false religion, which addeth any thing to Christ.

8 A reason: Because onely Christ God & man, is moſt perfect, & passeth farre aboue al things, so that whosoeuer hath him, may require nothing more. By these words, is ſpoked a diſtinction of the natures. In this word (Dwelleth) meeteth out vnto vs ȳ ioyning together of those natures, ſo that of God and Man, is one Christ. In Thee words ſet a more moſt perfect Godhead to be in Christ. The knitting together of God and man, as ſubſtantiall and eſſentiall.

9 Now hee dealeth precisely against the third kinde, that is to say, against them which vrged the Iewish religion: & first of all, hee denieth that wee haue needs of ȳ Circumcision of the flesh, seeing ȳ without it wee are circumcised with his, by the vertue of Christ. ✣ Rom. 2, 29. These many wordes are vſed to ſhewe what the olde man is, whom Paul in other places calleth the bodie of ſinne.

10 The taking away of an obiection: we needs not so much as the externall signe which our fathers had, seeing that our baptisme is a most effectual pledge & witnesse, of that ȳward refreshing and reuiuing. ✣ Rom. 6.4. Ephes. 1. 19. 2 Luke 1 verſe 6.4. r So then all the force of the matter commeth not from the very deede done, that is to ſay, it is not the dipping of vs into the water by a Miniſter that maketh vs to be buried with Christ, as the Papiſts ſay, that euen for the very actes ſake, wee become verely Christians, but it comm ith for the vertue of Christ, for the Apoſtle addeth the reſurrection of Christ and faith. 11 Our end of Baptisme is the death and burial of the old man, and that by the mightie power of God onely, whose vertue wee lay hold on by faith, in the death and resurrection of Christ. s Towards faith which commeth from God. 12 Another end of Baptisme is, ȳ wee which were dead in sinne, might obteine free remission of sinnes and eternall life, through faith in Christ, who dyed for vs. 13 A new argument which lyeth in these seuen words, and it is thus: Vncircumcision was no hinderance to you, why ȳ u being iuſtifi d to Christ should not obteine life, therefore you haue not circumcision to the attainment of saluation. 14 He speaketh nowe more generally against the whole seruice of the Law, and sheweth by two reasons that it is abolished: First, to what purpose should hee that hath obteined remission of all his sinnes in Christ, require those helpes of the Law? Secondly, because, that if a man doe rightly consider those rites, see shall finde that they were so many testimonies of our guiltinesse, whereby we manifestly witnessed as it were by our owne hand writing that wee deserued damnation. Therefore did Christ put out that hand writing by his comming, & fastening it to the crosse, triumphed ouer all our enemies, were they neuer so mighti. Therefore to what end and purpose should we now vse those ceremonies, as though we were ſtil guiltie of ſinne, and subiect to the tyrannie of our enemies. ✣ Ebiſ. 2.15. t Abolishing the rites and ceremonies. u Satan and his angels. x As a conqueror made he a ſhew of his captives, & put them to ſhame. y The croſſe was as a chariot of triumph. No conqueror could have triumphed ſo gloriouſly in his chariot, As Christ did vpon the croſſe. 15 The conclusion: wherein also he nameth certaine kindes, as the difference of dayes, & meates, and proueth by a newe argument that wee are not bound vnto them: to wit, because those things were shadowes of Christ to come, but wee poſſeſſe him now we exhib ted vnto vs. z The body as a thing of ſubſtance and ſith, he ſetteth againſt ſhadowes,

10 He diſputeth against the firſt kinde of corruption, and teacheth downe the worshipping of Angels for an example: which kinde of false religion he confuteth, firſt, this way: because that they which belong in such a worship, attribute that vnto themselues which is proper onely to God, to wit, authoritie to binde mens conſciences with religion, although they ſeeme to bring in these things by humblenesse of minde.

a By fooliſh humblenes. For these Angel worſhippers blamed ſuch of pride, as would go ſtraight to God, and vſe no other vnder meanes beſides Christ. 17 Secondly, because they rashly thruſt vpon them for oracles, those things which they neither ſawe nor heard, but deuiſed of themſelues. 18 Thirdly, because these things haue no other grounde, wherevpon they are built, but onely the opinion of men, which please themselues without all measure in their owne deuices. b Without reaſon. 19 The fourth argument, which is of great waight, because they ſpoyle Christ of his dignitie, as one onely is ſufficient both to nouriſh, and also to increase his whole body. c Chriſt. d With the increaſing which commeth from God. 20 Now last of all hee fighteth against the second kinde of corruptions, that is to say, against meere ſuperſtitions, inuented of men, which partly deceiue the ſimplicitie of some with their craftinesse, and partly with very foolish superstitions, and to be laughed at: as when godlinesse, remiſſion of ſinnes, or any ſuch like vertue is put in some certaine kind of meate and ſuch like things, which the inuentours of ſuch rites themſelues vnderſtand not, because in deede it is not. And hee vſeth an argument taken of comparison. If by ✣ death of Christ, who eſtabliſheth a new couenant with his blood, you be deliuered from those externall rites wherewith it pleaſed the Lord to prepare the world, as it were by certaine rudiments to that full knowledge of true religion, why would yee be burdened with traditions, I wote not what, as though yee were citizens of this world, that is to ſay, as though yee depended vpon this life, & earthly things? Now this is the cauſe why before verſe 8. he followed another order then he doeth in ȳ confutation: because the Church were by what degrees falſe religions came into the world, to wit, beginning firſt by curious ſpeculations of ȳ wiſe, after which in proceſſe of time ſucceeded groſſe ſuperſtition, against which miſchiefes the Lord ſet at length that ſeruice of the Lawe, which ſome abuſed in like sort: but in the confutation he began with the abolishing of ȳ Law ſeruice, that hee might ſhew by comparison, that those falſe ſeruices ought much more to be taken away. e As though your feleſtic ſtock in thiſe earthly things, of the kingdome of God were not rather ſpirituall. 21 An imitation in the perſon of theſe ſuperſtitious men, rightly expreſſing their nature & vſe of ſpeech. 22 An other argument: The ſpirituall and inward kingdome of God cannot conſiſt in these outward things, and ſuch as perish with the vſing. 23 The third argument: Because God is not the authour of these traditions, and therefore they doe not binde the conſciences. 24 The taking away of an obiection. These things haue a goodly ſhew, because men by this meanes, ſeeme to worship God with a good minde and humble themselues, and neglect the body, which the moſt part of men curiously pamper vp & cherish but yet notwithſtanding the things themselues are of no value, for ſo much as they pertaine not to things that are ſpirituall and euerlasting, but to the nouriſhment of the flesh: f Which ſeeme in deede to be ſome exquiſite thing, and ſo vſes deuiſes as though they came from heauen. g Hence ſprang the works of ſupererogation, as the Papiſts terme them, that is to ſay, meedleſſe workes, as though men performed more then is commanded them, which was the beginning and the very ground wherein Monkiſh rites were brought in. h A liuely deſcription of Monkerie. i Seeing they ſtand in meat and drinke, wherein the kingdome of God doeth not ſtand.

CHAP. III.

1 Against earthly exerciſes, which the falſe apoſtles vrged, 2 he ſetteth heauenly: & begynneth with the mortifying of ȳ flesh, 8 whence he draweth particular exhortations, 18 & particular duties which depend on ech mās calling.

1 IF ye then 1 a bee a riſen with Christ, 2 ſeeke those things which are aboue, where Christ

1 An other part of this Epiſtle, wherein he taketh occaſion of the Christian life which is an ordinary thing with him after he hath once set downe the doctrine of ſaith. 2 Our renewing or new birth, which is wrought in vs by being partakers of the resurrection of Christ, is the fountaine of all holineſſe, out of which ſundry armes or riuers doe afterwards flow. a For if we be partakers of Chriſt, wee are caried as it were into another life where we ſhall neede neither meate nor drinke, for wee ſhall be like vnto the Angels. 3 The end and marke which all the duties of Christian life ſhoote at, is to enterinto the kingdome of heauen, and to giue our ſelues to thoſe things which lead vs thither, that is, to true godlineſſe, and not to thoſe outward and corporall things.

2 Set your affections on things which are aboue, and not on things which are on the b earth.

3 For ye are dead, & your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When Christ which is our life, shall appeare, then shall ye also appeare with him in glory.

5 ¶ Mortifie therefore your c members which are on the earth, fornication, vncleannesse, the inordinate affection, euill concupiscence, and couetousnesse which is idolatrie.

6 For the which things sake the wrath of God d commeth on the children of disobedience.

7 Wherein yee also walked once, when yee liued in them.

8 But now put yee away euen all these things, wrath, anger, maliciousnesse, cursed speaking, filthie speaking, out of your mouth.

9 Lie not one to another: seeing that ye haue put off the old man with his workes,

10 And haue put on the new, which is renewed in e knowledge after the image of him that created him,

11 Where is neither Grecian nor Iewe, circumcision nor vncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond, free: But Christ is all, and in all things.

12 Now therefore as the elect of God, holy and beloued, f put on the g bowles of mercies, kindenesse, humblenesse of minde, meekenesse, long suffering:

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiuing one another, if any man haue a quarell to another: euen as Christ forgaue, euen so do ye.

14 And aboue all these things put on loue, which is the h bond of perfectnesse.

15 And let the peace of God i rule in your hearts, to the which yee are called in k one body, and be ye thankefull.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you plentiously in all wisedome, teaching and admōishing your owne selues, in l Psalmes, and hymnes, and spirituall songs, singing with a grace in your hearts to the Lord,

17 ✠ And whatsoeuer ye shall doe, in word or deed, doe all in the m Name of the Lord Iesus, giuing thankes to God euen the Father by him.

18 ¶ ❧ 10 Wiues, submit your selues vnto your husbands, as it is n conuenient in the Lord.

19 ✠ 11 Husbands, loue your wiues, and be not bitter vnto them.

20 ¶ ✠ 12 Children, obey your parents in o all things: for that is well pleasing vnto the Lord.

21 13 Fathers, prouoke not your children to anger, least they be discouraged.

22 ¶ ✠ 14 ❧ Seruants, be obedient vnto them that are your masters according to the flesh, in all things, not with eye seruice as men pleasers, but in singlenesse of heart, fearing God.

23 And whatsoeuer ye doe, doe it heartily, as to the Lord, and not to men, 24 Knowing that of the Lord yee shall receiue the p reward of the inheritance: for yee serue the Lord Christ.

25 15 But he that doeth wrong, shall receiue for the wrong that hee hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

b So he calleth that skew of religion, which he spake of in the former Chapter.

c A reason taken of the efficient causes and others: you are dead as touching the flesh, that is, touching the olde nature which seeketh after all transitory things, and on the other side, you haue begun to liue according to the Spirit, therefore giue your selues to spirituall and heauenly, and not to carnall and earthly things.

d The taking away of an obiection, whiles we are yet in this world, we are subiect to many miseries of this life, so that the life that is in vs, is as it were hidden: yet notwithstanding we haue the beginnings of life and glory, the accomplishment wereof which lieth now in Christes hand, shall be assuredly and manifestly performed in that glorious coming of the Lord.

e Let not your dead nature be any more effectuall in you, but let your liuing nature be effectuall. Now the force of nature is knowen by the motions. Therefore let the affections of the flesh die in you, and let the contrary motions which are spirituall, liue. CHAP. IV.

a Hee returneth to generall exhortations, 3 touching prayer and gracious speach, 7 & so endeth with greetings and commendations.

YE masters, doe vnto your seruants, that which is iust and equall, knowing that yee also haue a master in heauen.

2 ¶ ✠ Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thankesgiuing,

8 Whom I haue sent vnto you for the same purpose, that hee might know your state, and might comfort your hearts,

9 With Onesimus a faithfull & a beloued brother, who is one of you. They shall shew you of all things here.

10 Aristarchus my prison fellow saluteth you, and Marcus Barnabas cousin (touching whom yee receiued commandements: if hee come vnto you, receiue him.)

11 And Iesus which is called Iustus, which are of the circumcision. These onely are my worke-fellowes vnto the f kingdome of God, which haue beene vnto my consolation.

12 Epaphras the seruant of Christ, which is one of you, saluteth you, and alwayes striueth for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect, and full in all the will of God.

13 For I beare him record, that he hath a great zeale for you, and for them of Laodicea, and them of Hierapolis.

✠ 2. Tim. 4. 12.

14 ✠ Luke the beloued physician greeteth you, and Demas.

15 Salute the brethren which are of Laodicea, & Nymphas, & the Church which is in his house.

16 And when this Epistle is read of you, cause that it be read in the Church of the Laodiceans also, and that yee likewise reade the Epistle written from Laodicea.

17 And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministerie, that thou hast receiued in the Lord, that thou fulfill it.

18 The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bands. Grace be with you. Amen.

¶ Written from Rome to the Colossians, and sent by Tychicus, and Onesimus.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAVL TO THE THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 He therefore beginneth with thanksgiuing, 4 to put them in minde of whatsoeuer was praise worthy in them, it came of Gods goodnesse, 8 and that they are ensamples vnto others.

PAul, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ: Grace be with you, & peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

2 [1] We giue God thankes alwayes for you all, making mention of you in our prayers.

3 [2] Without ceasing, remembring your effectuall faith, and diligent loue, and the patience of your hope in our Lord Iesus Christ, in the sight of God, euen our Father,

4 Knowing, beloued brethren, that ye are a elect of God.

5 [3] For our Gospel was not vnto you in word onely, but also in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as ye know after what maner we were among you for your sakes.

6 4 And ye became followers of vs, and of the Lord, and receiued the worde in much affliction, with [c] ioy of the holy Ghost,

7 So that yee were as ensamples to all that beleeue in Macedonia and in Achaia.

8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord, not in Macedonia and in Achaia onely: but your faith also which is toward God, spread abroad in all quarters, that we needs not to speake any thing.

9 For [d] they themselues shew of vs what maner of entring in wee had vnto you, & how yee turned to God from idoles, to serue the liuing and true God,

10 And to looke for his Sonne from heauen, whom he raised from the dead, euen Iesus which deliuered vs from [e] that wrath to come.

FOr [1] ye your selues know, brethren, that our entrance in vnto you was not in vaine,

2 [2] But euen after that wee had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated at ✠ Philippi, (as yee know) wee were bold in [a] our God, to speake vnto you the Gospell of God, with much striuing.

3 [3] For our exhortation was not by deceit, nor [b] by vncleannesse, nor by guile.

4 [4] But as we were [c] allowed of God, that the Gospel should be committed vnto vs, so we speake, not as they that please men, but God, which [d] approoueth our hearts.

5 Neither yet did we euer vse flattering words, as yee know, nor coloured couetousnesse, God is record.

6 [5] Neither sought wee praise of men, neither of you, nor of others, when wee might haue beene [e] chargeable, as the Apostles of Christ.

7 But wee were [f] gentle among you, euen as a nource cherisheth her children.

8 [6] Thus being affectioned toward you, our good will was to haue dealt vnto you, not the Gospel of God onely, but also our owne soules, because ye were deare vnto vs.

9 [7] For yee remember, brethren, ✠ our labour and trauaile: for wee laboured day and night, because wee would not bee chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Gospell of God.

10 [8] Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and iustly, and vnblameably we behaued our selues among you that beleeue.

11 [9] As ye know how that wee exhorted you, and comforted, and besought euery one of you (as a father his children.)

12 [10] That ye [g] would walke worthy of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdome and glorie.

13 [11] For this cause also thanke wee God without ceasing, that when yee receiued the word of God, which yee heard of vs, yee receiued it not as the word of men, but as it is indeede the word of God, which also worketh in you that beleeue.

a An example of a right Christian reioycing: whereby also we learne, that such as haue great gifts in them, are in two sorts bridled, to wit, if they consider that they haue receiued all from God, and that continuance must be desired at his hands, whereunto also the whole Epistle exhorteth the Thessalonians.

2 He commendeth them for three speciall gifts, effectuall faith, continuall loue, and patient hope: to the end they might be asshamed being indued with such excellent gifts, not to continue in Gods election.

a Word for word that your election is of God.

3 Another reason why they ought in no wise start backe, but continue to the end, because they cannot doubt of his doctrine which hath bene so many wayes confirmed vnto thē, euen from heauē, as they themselues did well knoow. b Paul shewith by two things, that there followed very great fruits of his preaching, to wit, by the gifts of the holy Ghost, and that certaine assurance which was thoroughly setled in their minds, as appeared by their willing bearing of the crosse. 4 Another reason, because euen to that day, they embraced the Gospel with great cheerefulnesse, insomuch that they were an example to all their neighbours. So that it should be more shame to them to faint in the mid-race.

c With ioy which commeth from the holy Ghost. d All the beleeuers. 5 It is no true conuersion to forsake idoles, vnlesse a man therewithall worship the true and liuing God in Christ the onely redeemer. e This word (That) is not put here without cause: and by (wrath) is meant that reuenge & punishment, wherewith the Lord will iudge the world at length in his terrible wrath

1 That which he touched before shortly concerning his Apostleship, he handleth now more at large, and to that end and purpose which we spake of.

2 The vertues of a true Pastour are freely, and without feare to preach the Gospel, euen in the middes of dangers.

a Through God his gracious helpe.

3 To teach pure doctrine faithfully and with a pure heart.

b By any wicked and naughty kinde of dealing.

4 To approoue his conference to God, being free from all flatterie and couetousnes.

c Seeing there is such difference betweene the iudgements of God and the iudgements of men, that when men chuse, they respect the qualities of those things which stand before them, but God findeth the reason of his counsell onely in himselfe, it followeth, that seeing we are not able to thinke a good thought, that whomsoeuer he first chuseth to those holy callings, he maketh them able, and doeth not finde them able.

d And therefore, in that we are allowed of God, it hangeth vpon his mercie.

d Which liketh and to winne them, and allaweth of them. 5 To submit himselfe euen to the basest effects. e When I might lawfully haue liued vpon the expenses of the Church. f Wee were not rough, but easie, and gentle, as a mourer that is neither ambitious nor couetous, but taketh al paines as patiently, as if he were a mother.

6 To haue the flocke that is committed vnto him in more estimation, then his owne life. 7 To depart with his owne right, rather then to be chargeable to his sheepe.

✠ Actes 20. 34. 1. cor. 4. 12. 2. thes. 3. 8.

8 To excell other in example of godly life. 9 To exhort and comfort with a fatherly minde and affection. 10 To exhort all men diligently and earnestly to lead a godly life. 11 Ephes. 4. 1. phil. 1. 27. colos. 1. 10. 12 Hauing approoued his ministerie, he commendeth againe (to that end and purpose that I spake of) the cheerefulnesse of the Thessalonians, which was answereable to his diligence in preaching, and their manly patience.

CHAP. II.

1 He declareth how faithfully he preacheth the Gospel vnto them. 5 Seeking neither gaine, 6 nor praise of men, 10 & he prooueth the same by their owne testimonie: 14 that they did courageously beare persecutions of their countrey men: 17 that he desireth very much to see them.

14 12 For brethren, ye are become followers of the Churches of God, which in Iudea are in g Christ Iesus, because yee haue also suffered the same things of your owne h countrey men, euen as they haue of the Iewes,

15 13 Who both killed the Lord Iesus & their owne Prophets, and haue persecuted vs away, & 14 & God they please not, and are contrary to all men,

16 And forbid vs to preach vnto the Gentiles, that they might be saued, to k fulfill their sinnes alwayes: for the l wrath of God is come on them to the vttmost.

17 15 Forasmuch, brethren, as wee m were kept from you for a seaſon, concerning sight, but not in the heart, wee enforced the more to see your face with great desire.

18 Therefore we would haue come vnto you (I Paul, at least once or twise) but Satan hindred vs:

19 For what is our hope or ioy, or crowne of reioycing? are not euen you it in the presence of our Lord Iesus Christ at his comming?

20 Yes, ye are our glorie and ioy.

g Which Christ hath gathered together.

h Euen of them which are of the same country, and the same towne that you are of.

13 He preuenteth an offence which might be taken, for that the Iewes especially aboue all other persecuted the Gospel. That is no newe thing, sayth hee, seeing they ſlewe Christ himſelfe & his Prophets, and haue banished me also. 14 He foretelleth the vtter destruction of the Iewes, least any man should be mooued by their rebellion. For the Iewes would neither enter into the kingdome of God themselues, nor suffer other to enter in.

k Vntil ſ wickednesse of theirs which they haue by inheritance as it were of their fathers, be growen ſo great, ſ themeaſure of their iniquitie being filled, God may come forth to wrath. l For vndoubtedly the wrath of God being angrie, which vnder deapeared ſlowly after the destruction of the citie of Hierusalem, whither many reſorted euen out of diuers prouinces, when it was beſieged. 15 He meeteth with an obiection, why he came not to the ſtraightwayes being in ſo great miſerie. I deſired ofte times (ſaith he) & it lay not in me, but Satan hindred my endeauours, & therefore I ſent Timothie my faithfull companion vnto you, becauſe you are moſt deare to me.

m Were kept aſunder from you, and as it were orphans.

CHAP III.

1 To ſhew his affection towards them, he ſendeth Timothie vnto them: 6 Hee is ſo mooued by the report of their proſperous ſtate, 9 that he cannot giue ſufficient thanks, 11 and therefore he breaketh out into prayer.

WHerefore ſince wee could no longer forbare, we thought it good to remaine at Athens alone,

2 ✣ And haue ſent Timotheus our brother and miniſter of God, and our labour fellow in the Goſpel of Chriſt, to ſtabliſh you, and to comfort you touching your faith,

3 That no man ſhould be mooued with theſe affli ctions: for ye your ſelues know, that we are appointed therevnto.

4 For verely when we were with you, we told you before that wee ſhould ſuffer tribulations, euen as it came to paſſ, and ye know it.

5 Euen for this cauſe, when I could no longer forbeare, I ſent him that I might knowe of your faith, leſt the tempter had tempted you in any ſort, and that our labour had beene in vaine.

6 ✣ But now lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs, and brought vs good tidings of your faith & loue, and that ye haue good remembrance of vs alwayes, deſiring to ſee vs, as we alſo doe you.

7 Therefore brethren, wee had conſolation in you, in all our affliction and neceſſitie through your faith.

8 For now are wee ª aliue, if yee ſtand faſt in the Lord.

9 For what thankes can wee recompenſe to God againe for you, for all the ioy wherewith wee reioice for you ſakes before our God,

10 Night and day ✣ praying exceedingly, that wee might ſee your face, and might accompliſh that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himſelfe, euen our Father, and our Lord Iesus Chriſt guide our iourney vnto you.

12 3 And the Lord increaſe you, and make you abound in loue one toward another, and toward all men, euen as we doe toward you:

13 ✣ To make your hearts ſtable & vnblameable in holineſſe before God euen our Father, at the comming of our Lord Iesus Chriſt with all his Saints.

3 Another part of the Epiſtle, wherein he ſpeaketh of the cauſes of a Chriſtian life. And he ſheweth that the perfection of a Chriſtian life conſiſteth in two things, to wit, in charitie toward all men, & inward puritie of the heart, the accompliſhment whereof notwithſtanding is deferred to the next comming of Chriſt, who will then perfect his worke by the ſame grace wherewith he begun it in vs. ✣ Chap. 5, 23. 1. Cor. 1, 8.

CHAP IV.

1 He exhorteth them 3 to holines, 9 and brotherly loue. 13 He forbiddeth them to ſorow after the maner of infidels: 15 Hee ſetteth out the doctrine of our reſurrection.

ANd i furthermore wee beſeech you, brethren, and exhort you in the Lord Iesus that ye ª increaſe more and more, as yee haue receiued of vs, how ye ought to walke, and to pleaſe God.

2 For yee know what commandements wee gaue you by the Lord Iesus.

3 ✣ 2 For this is the will of God euen your b ſanctification, and that yee ſhould abſtaine from fornication,

4 3 That euery one of you ſhould know, how to poſſeſſe his veſſell in holineſſe and honour,

5 4 And not in the luſt of concupiſcence, euen as the Gentiles which know not God:

6 ✣ 5 That no man oppreſſe or defraud his brother in any matter: for the Lord is auenger of all ſuch things, as we alſo haue told you before-time, and teſtified.

7 ✣ For God hath not called vs vnto vncleanneſſe, but vnto holineſſe.

8 Hee therefore that c deſpiſeth theſe things, deſpiſeth not man, but God who hath euen giuen you his holy Spirit.

9 6 But as touching brotherly loue, yee neede not that I write vnto you: ✣ for yee are taught of God to loue one another.

10 Yea, and that thing verely yee doe vnto all the brethren, which are thorowout all Macedonia: but we beſeech you brethren, that ye increaſe more and more,

11 7 And that ye ſtudy to be quiet, and to meddle with your owne buſineſſe, 8 and to worke with your owne hands, as we commanded you.

12 That yee may behaue your ſelues honeſtly toward them that are without, and that nothing be lacking vnto you.

13 ✣ 9 I would not, brethren, haue you ignorant 10 concerning them 11 which are aſleepe, that ye ſorow not euen as other which haue no hope.

14 12 For if we beleeue that Iesus is dead, and is riſen, euen ſo them which ſleepe in d Iesus, will God e bring with him.

i Diners exhortations, the ground whereof is this, to be mindfull of thoſe things, which they haue heard of the Apoſtle.

a That ye labour to excell more and more, and dayly paſſe your ſelues. ✣ Rom. 12, 2. Epheſ. 5, 17.

1 This is the ſomme of thoſe things which he deliuered them, to dedicate themſelues wholly to God. And he condemneth plainely all filthineſſe through luſt, becauſe it is altogether contrary to the will of God. b Luke Iohn 17, 17.

3 Another reaſon, becauſe it deſileth the body.

4 The third, becauſe the Saints are deſerued from them which know not God, by honeſtie and puritie. c 1 Cor. 6, 8.

5 Secondly, he reprehendeth all violent oppreſſion, and immoderate deſire, and ſheweth vnto them briefly as the Prophet of God, that God will reuenge ſuch wickednesſe. ✣ 1. Cor. 11, 2. c Theſe commandments which I gaue you.

6 Thirdly, he requireth a readie minde to all maner of louing kindneſſe, and exhorteth them to profite more and more in that vertue. ✣ Iohn 13, 34. 1 Iohn 2, 8. and 4, 21. 7 He condemneth vaquiet braines, and ſuch as are curious in matters which appertaine not vnto them. 8 Hee requireth idleneſſe And ſtoutchriſtinesſe which vices whoſoeuer are giuen vnto, fall into other wickednesſe, to the great offence of the Church. 9 The third part of the Epiſtle, which is enterlaced among the former exhortations (which hee returneth vnto afterward) wherein he ſpeaketh of mourning for the dead and the maner of the reſurrection, and of the latter day. 10 We muſt take heede that we doe not immoderately bewaile the dead, that is, as they vſe to doe which thinke that they are vtterly periſhed. 11 A confirmation: for death is but a ſleepe of the body (for hee ſpeaketh of the faithfull) vntill the Lord come. 12 A reaſon of the confirmation, for ſeeing that the head is riſen, the members alſo ſhall riſe, and that by the vertue of God. d They die in Christ which continue in faith whereby they are graffed into Christ, euen to the laſt gaſpe. e Will call their bodies out of their graues, and ioyne their ſoules to them againe.

1 The will of God, whereby hee will haue this condition, to bring them to glory by affliction, is a moſt ſure remedie againſt all afflictions.

2 Becauſe they haue hither to gone ſo well forward, he exhorteth them againe to make an end of the reſt of the iourney, ſeeing that therein alſo they ſhall doe him their Apoſtle a great pleaſure.

a For now you can not otherwiſe thinke me ſafe and in good caſe, vnleſſe you goe forward in vertue and faith.

✣ Rom. 1, 10 and 15 23.

3 Paul was conſtrained through the immoderate deale me of the enemies to leaue the building which he had ſet vp before. And for this cauſe he had left Silas & Timothie in Macedonia, and when Timotie came to Athens to him, he ſent him backe againe vnto them, So that he deſireth to ſee the Theſſalonians, that he may thereby thorowly accompliſh their faith and religion, that was as yet imperfect.

13 The maner of the resurrection shalbe thus: The bodies of the dead shall be as it were raised out of sleep, at the sound of the trumpet of God, Christ himselfe shall descend from heauen. The Saints (for he speaketh properly of them) which shall then be found aliue together with the dead which shall rise, shalbe taken vp into the cloudes to meete the Lord, and shall be in perpetuall glory with him. f In the Name of the Lord, as though he himselfe spake vnto you. g He speaketh of these things, as though he should be one of them whom the Lord shall finde aliue at his comming, because that true is vncertaine: and therefore euery one of vs ought to be in such a readinesse, as if the Lord were comming at euery moment. h The word which the Apostle vseth here, signifieth properly that incouragement which mariners vse one to another, when they altogether with one stout put forth their oares & vse one together. ✣ 1. Cor. 15. 52. i Suddenly and in the twinckling of an eye.

15 [13] For this say wee vnto you by the [f] word of the Lord, that [g] we which liue, and are remaining in the comming of the Lord, shall not preuent them which sleepe.

16 For the Lord himselfe shall descend from heauen with a [h] shout, and with the voyce of the Archangel, and ✣ with the trumpet of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

17 Then shall wee which liue and remaine, be [i] caught vp with them also in the cloudes to meete the Lord in the aire: and so shall wee euer be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore, comfort your selues one another with these words.

CHAP. V.

1 Condemning the curious searching for the seasons of Christs comming, 6 he warneth them to be ready dayly to receiue him: 11 And so giueth them sundry good lessons.

BVt [1] of the times and [a] seasons, brethren, yee haue no needle that I write vnto you.

2 For ye your selues know perfectly, that the day of the Lord shall come, euen as a thiefe in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety, then shall come vpon them sudden destruction, as the trauaile vpon a woman with childe, and they shall not escape.

4 [2] But ye, brethren, are not in darkenesse, that that day shall come on you, as it were a thiefe.

5 Yee are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, neither of darkenesse.

6 Therefore let vs not sleepe as doe other, but let vs watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night, and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 [3] But let vs which are of the day, be sober, ✣ putting on the breastplate of faith and loue, and the hope of saluation for an helmet.

9 [4] For God hath not appointed vs vnto wrath, but to obtaine saluation by the meanes of our Lord Iesus Christ,

10 [5] Which died for vs, that whether we wake or sleepe, we should liue together with him.

11 [6] Wherefore exhort one another, and edifie one another, euen as you doe.

12 [7] Now we beseech you brethren, that yee [b] acknowledge them which labour among you, and are ouer you in the [c] Lord, and admonish you,

13 That yee haue them in singular loue for [d] their workes sake. [8] Be at peace among your selues.

14 [9] We desire you, brethren, admonish them that are [e] out of order: comfort the feeble minded: beare with the weake: be patient toward all men.

15 [10] ✣ See that none recompense euill for euill vnto any man: but euer follow that which is good, both toward your selues, and toward all men.

16 [11] Reioyce euermore.

17 ✣ Pray continually.

18 In all things, giue thankes: for this is the [f] will of God in Christ Iesus toward you.

19 [12] Quench not the Spirit.

20 Despise not [g] prophecying.

21 Try all things, & keepe that which is good.

22 [13] Abstaine from all [h] appearance of euill.

[a] The day that God hath appointed for his iudgement, we know not. But this is sure that it shall come vpon men when they looke for nothing lesse. a Looke Acts 1. 7.

[b] Returning to exhortation, he warneth vs which are lightened with the knowledge of God, that it is our duetie not to liue securely in deliciousnesse, least we be suddenly taken in a dead sleepe in pleasures: but contrariwise to haue an eye to the Lord, and not suffer our selues to be oppressed with the cares of this world, for that is meet for the darkenesse of the night, and this for the light.

[c] We must fight with faith and hope, much lesse ought we lie carelesly snorting. ✣ Esai. 59. 17. ephes. 6. 17. [d] He prickеth vp forward by seeing most certaine hope of victorie before vs. [e] The death of Christ is a pledge of our victorie, for therefore he died, that we might be partakers of his life or vertue, yea euen whiles we liue here.

[f] We must not onely watch our selues, but we are also bound to stir vp and confirme one another.

[g] We must haue great consideration of them which are appointed to the ministerie of the word, and gouernement of the Church by God, and doe their duetie.

[h] That you acknowledge and take them for such as they are, that is to say, men worthy to be greatly accounted of among you.

[i] In these things which pertaine to Gods seruice: so is the Ecclesiasticall function distinguished from ciuill authority, and true shepheards from wolues.

[k] So then, where this cause ceaseth, there must the honour cease.

[l] This maintenance of mutuall concord, is especially to be looked vnto.

[m] We must haue consideration of euery man, and as the disease is, so must the remedie be vsed.

[n] That keepe not their ranke or standing. Pro. 17, 13. & 20. 22. matt. 5. 39. rom. 12. 17. 1. pet. 3. 9.

[o] A quiet and appeased minde is nourished with continuall prayers, respecting ✣ will of God. ✣ Luke 18. 1. [p] An acceptable thing to God, and such as he likeith well of. [q] The sparkes of ✣ Spirit of God that are kindled in vs are nourished with dayly hearing the word of God: but true doctrine must be diligently distinguished from false. [r] The expounding of the word of God. [s] A generall conclusion, that we waiting for the comming of Christ, doe giue our selues to pureenesse both in minde, will, and body, through the grace and strength of the Spirit of God. [t] Whatsoeuer hath but the very shew of euill, abstaine from it. [u] Separate you from the world, and make you holy to himselfe through his spirit, in Christ in whom onely you shall attaine vnto that true peace.

[x] The good will and power of God is a fine confirmation against all difficulties, wherein we haue a sure witnesse in our vocation. ✣ 1. Cor. 1. 9. [y] k Alwayes one, & euer like himselfe, who performeth in deed whatsoeuer he promiseth: and an effectuall calling is nothing else but a right declaring & true setting foorth of Gods will: and therefore the saluation of the elect is safe and sure. [l] Who will also make you perfit. [15] The last part of the Epistle, wherein with most waighty charge, hee commendeth both himselfe and this Epistle vnto them.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAVL TO THE THESSALONIANS.

a He openeth the fountaine of all true comfort, to wit, that in affliction, which we suffer of the wicked for righteousnesse sake, we may behold as it were in a glasse the testimonie in that iudgement to come, and the end therefore most acceptable to vs, and most stinging to his enemies.

3 A proofe: God is iust, therefore he will worthily punish the vniust, and will doe away the miseries of his people.

4 He confirmeth them also by the way, by this meanes, that the condition both of this present state and the state to come is common to him with them.

✣ 1. Thes. 3. 4, 16.

5 ✣ 2 Which is a manifest token of the righteous iudgement of God, that yee may be counted worthy of the kingdome of God, for the which ye also suffer.

6 3 For it is a righteous thing with God, to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you,

7 And to you which are troubled, rest + with vs, ✣ 4 when the Lord Iesus shall shewe himselfe from heauen with his mightie Angels,

8 In flaming fire, rendring vengeance vnto them, 5 that doe not know God, and which obey not vnto the Gospel of our Lord Iesus Christ,

9 Which shall be punished with euerlasting perdition from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power,

10 When hee shall come to be glorified in his Saints, and to be made marueilous in all them that beleeue (7 because our testimonie toward you was beleeued) in that day.

11 8 Wherefore, we also pray alwayes for you, that our God may make you woorthy of b this calling, and fulfill c all the good pleasure of his goodnesse, and the d worke of faith with power,

12 That the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ.

5 Of the second comming of Christ, to be set against all the miseries of the godly, and the triumphs of the wicked. 6 There is no knowledge of God vnto saluation, without the Gospel of Christ. 7 The children of God shalbe counted by the faith which they haue in the Gospel, which is preached vnto them by the Apostles. 8 Seeing that we haue the marke set before vs, it remaineth that we goe vnto it: And we goe to it, by certaine degrees of causes: first by the free loue and good pleasure of God, by vertue whereof all other inferiour causes worke: from thence proceedeth the free calling to Christ, and from calling, faith, whereupon followeth both the glorifying of Christ in vs, and vs in Christ. b By (calling) he meaneth not the very acte of calling, but that selfe same thing whereunto we are called, which is the glory of that heauenly kingdome. c Which he determined long since, onely vpon his gracious & mercifull goodnesse toward you. d So then, faith is an excellent worke of God in vs: and we see here plainely that the Apostle leaueth nothing to free will, to make it checkemate with Gods working therein, as the Papists dreame.

CHAP. II.

1 The second part of the Epistle, conteining an excellent prophecie of the state of the Church, which shall be from the Apostles times vnto the latter day of iudgement.

a If we thinke earnestly vpon that vnmeasurable glorie which we shall be partakers of with Christ, it will be an excellent remedie for vs against wauering, and impatience, so that neither the glistering of the world shall allure vs, nor the dreadfull sight of the crosse dismay vs. 2 We must take heed of false prophets, especially in this matter, which go about to deceiue, & that for the most part, after three sorts: for either they bragge of fained prophetical reuelations, or they bring coniectures and reasons of their owne, or vse counterfeit writings.

b By dreames & fables, which men pretend to be spirituall reuelations. c Either by word of mouth, or by bookes written. d Either by forged letters, or falsely glosed vpon.

3 The Apostle foretelleth that before the comming of the Lord, there shall be a throne set vp cleane contrary to Christes glorie, wherein that wicked man shall sit, and transferre all things that appertaine to God, to himselfe, and many shall fall away from God to him. e By speaking of one, he pointeth out the body of the tyrannous and persecuting Church. f All men know who he is: that saith he can shut vp heauen & open it at his pleasure, and tooke vpon him to be Lord and master aboue all Kings and Princes, before whom Kings and Princes fall downe and worship, honouring that Antichrist as a god.

a He sheweth that the day of the Lord shall not come, till there be a departure from the faith, & that Antichrist be reuealed, whose destruction he setteth out, 15 and therevpon exhorteth to constancie.

NOw 1 we beseech you, brethren, by the comming of our Lord Iesus Christ, and by our a assembling vnto him,

2 2 That ye be not suddenly moued from your minde, nor troubled neither by b spirit, nor by c word, nor by d letter, as it were from vs, as though the day of Christ were at hand.

3 Let no man deceiue you by any meanes: 3 for that day shall not come, except there come a departing first, and that e man of sinne be disclosed, euen the sonne of perdition,

4 Which is an aduersarie, and f exalteth himselfe against all that is called God, or that is worshipped: 4 so that he doeth sit as God in the Temple of God, shewing himselfe that he is God.

5 5 Remember yee not, that when I was yet with you, I tolde you these things?

6 And now ye know g what withholdeth, that he might be reuealed in his time.

7 6 For the mysterie of iniquitie doeth already worke: 7 onely he which now h withholdeth, shall let till he be taken out of the way.

8 8 And then shall i that wicked man be reuealed, + whom the Lord shall k consume with the l Spirit of his mouth, and shall abolish with the brightnesse of his comming,

9 9 Euen him whose comming is by the effectuall working of Satan, with all his power, and signes, and m lying wonders,

10 And in all deceiuablenesse of vnrighteousnesse, among them that perish, because they receiued not the loue of the trueth, that they might be saued.

11 And therefore God shall send them n strong delusion, that they should beleeue lies,

12 That all they might be damned which beleeued not the trueth, but o had pleasure in vnrighteousnesse.

13 10 But wee ought to giue thankes alway to God for you, brethren, beloued of the Lord, because that God hath from the beginning chosen you to saluation, through p sanctification of the Spirit, and the q faith of trueth, 14 Whereunto he called you by our r Gospel, to obtaine the glory of our Lord Iesus Christ.

15 11 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and keepe the instructions, which ye haue bene taught, either by word, or by our Epistle.

16 Now the same Iesus Christ our Lord, and our God, euen the Father, which hath loued vs, & hath giuen vs euerlasting consolation and good hope through grace,

17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in euery word and good worke.

4 He foretelleth that Antichrist, (that is, whatsoeuer he be that shall occupie that seate that, falleth away from God) shall not reigne without the Church, but in the very bosome of the Church.

5 This prophecie was continually declared to the Auncient Church, but it was neglected of them that followed.

g What hindreth and stayeth.

6 Euen in the Apostles time the first foundations of the Apostolicall seate were layed, but yet so, that they deceiued men.

7 He foretelleth that when the empire of Rome is taken away, the seate that falleth away from God shall succeede and shall hold his place, as the olde writers, Tertullian, Cyprian, Hieroome do expound it.

h He which is now in authoritie and ruleth all, to wit, the Romane Empire.

8 That wickednes shall as length be detected by the word of the Lord, and vtterly be abolished by Christes comming.

i Word for word, that lawlesse fellow: that is to say, he that shall tread Gods Law cleane vnder foote. ✣ Isa. 11. 4. k Bring to nought. l With his word: for the true Ministers of the word are as a mouth, whereby the Lord breatheth out that mightie & euerlasting word, which shall breake his enemies in sunder, as it were an yron rodde. 9 He foretelleth that Satan will set downe all his might and power, and vse all false miracles that he can to establish that seate, and that with great successe, because the wickednesse of the world doeth so deserue it: yea so, that onely the vnfaithfull shall perish through his deceit, m Which are partly false, and partly wrought to establish a falshood. n A most mightie working to deceiue them. o They liked lies so well, that they had pleasure in them which is the greatest madnesse that may be. 10 The elect shall stand stedfast and safe from all these mischiefes. Now election is knowen by these testimonies: Faith is gathered by sanctification: faith, by that that we accord vnto the trueth: trueth, by calling, through the preaching of the Gospel: from whence we come at length to a certaine hope of glorification. p To sanctifie you. q Faith which layeth hold not vpon lies, but vpon the trueth of God, which is the Gospel. r By our preaching.

11 The conclusion remaineth then, that we continue in the doctrine which was deliuered vnto vs by the mouth & writings of the Apostles, through the free good will of God, which comforteth vs with an inuincible hope, and also in all godlinesse our whole life long.

CHAP. III.

1 He desireth them to further the preaching of the Gospell with their prayers, 6 and to withdraw themselues from those who through idlenes, 11 and curiositie peruert good order. 14 Whom hee excludeth from the company of the faithfull.

FVrthermore, 1 brethren, ✣ pray for vs, that the word of the Lord may haue free passage & be glorified, euen as it is with you,

2 And that we may be deliuered from a vnrea-

1 He addeth now consequently according to his maner, diuers admonitions: the first of them is, that they make prayers for the increase and free passage of the Gospel, & for the safetie of the faithfull ministers of the same. ✣ Ephes. 6, 19. colos. 4. 3. a Which haue no care of their duetie.

2 It is no marueile that the Gospel is hated of so many, seeing that faith is a meere gift of God. Neuerthelesse the Church shall neuer be destroyed by the multitude of the wicked, because it is grounded and stayed vpon the faithfull promise of God.
b From Satans suaves, or from euill.
3 The second admonition is, that they followe al wayes the doctrine of the Apostles as a rule of their life.
4 Thirdly he diligently and earnestly admonisheth them of two things which are giuen vs by the onely grace of God, to wit, of charitie, and a watchfull minde to the coming of Christ.
5 Fourthly, hee saith, that idle and lasie persons ought not to be releeued of the Church, nay, that they are not to be suffered. 6 Least he might seeme to deale hardly with them, he setteth fourth himselfe for an example, who besides his trauaile in preaching, laboured with his handes, which he saith he was not simply bound to doe. ✣ 1. Cor. 11 ✣ 1 Thes. 4. 11 *c What shall we doe then with those idle belied Monkes, and sacrificing Priests? 3 But the Lord is faithfull, which will stablish you, and keepe you from b euill.

4 3 And we are perswaded of you through the Lord, that yee both doe, and will doe the things which we warne you of.

5 4 And the Lord guide your hearts to the loue of God and the waiting for of Christ.

6 5 We warne you, brethren, in the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, that yee withdraw your selues from euery brother that walketh inordinately, and not after the instruction, which he receiued of vs.

7 6 For ye your selues know, ✣ how ye ought to follow vs: ✣ for we behaued not our selues inordinately among you,

8 Neither tooke wee bread of any man for nought: but we wrought with labour and trauaile night and day, because wee would not be chargeable to any of you.

9 Not because we haue not authoritie, but that we might make our selues an example vnto you to follow vs.

10 For euen when we were with you, this wee warned you of, that if there were any, which would not worke, that he should not c eate.

11 For wee heare, that there are some which walke among 7 you inordinately, and worke not at all, 8 but are busie bodies.

12 9 Therefore them that are such, we warne & exhort by our Lord Iesus Christ, that they worke with quietnesse, and eate their owne bread.

13 10 And ye, brethren, be not wearie in well doing.

14 11 If any man obey not this our saying in this letter, note him, and haue no 12 companie with him, 13 that he may be ashamed.

15 14 Yet count him not as an enemie, but admonish him as a brother.

16 15 Now the Lord himselfe of peace giue you peace alwayes by all meanes. The Lord be with you all.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAVL TO TIMOTHEVS.

CHAP. I.

Setting forth a perfect paterne of a true Pastour, whose office especially consisteth in teaching, 4 he warneth him that vaine questions set apart, he teach those things; 5 which further charitie and faith. 13 And that his authoritie he not condemned, 14 he sheweth what an one he is made through the grace of God.

2 First of all, he announceth his owne free vocation, and also Timothies, that the one might be confirmed by the other: and therewithall he declareth the summe of the Apostolicall doctrine, to wit, the mercie of God in Christ Iesus apprehended by faith, the end whereof is yet hoped for.
a There is as much difference betwixt mercy and grace, as is betwixt the effect, and the cause. For grace is that free good will of God, whereby he chose vs in Christ, and mercie is that free iustification which followeth it. 2 This whole Epistle consisteth in admonitions, wherein all y duetie of a faithfull Pastour are liuely set out. And the first admonition is this, that no innouation be made either in the Apostles doctrine it selfe, or in the maner of teaching it. 3 The doctrine is corrupted not onely by false opinions, but also by vaine and curious speculations: the declaration and vtterance whereof can nothing helpe our faith. b He noteth out one kinde of vaine questions. 4 The second admonition is, that the right vse & practise of the doctrine must be ioyned with the doctrine. And that for sundrie in pure charitie, and a good conscience, & true faith. ✣ Kim. 13, 10. c Of the Law.

PAul 1 an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the ‖ commandement of God our Sauiour, and of our Lord Iesus Christ our hope,

2 Vnto Timotheus my naturall sonne in the faith: Grace, a mercy, and peace from God our Father, and from Christ Iesus our Lord.

3 2 As I besought thee to abide still in Ephesus, when I departed into Macedonia, so doe, that thou mayest warne some, that they teach none other doctrine,

4 3 Neither that they giue heede to fables and b genealogies which are endlesse, which breede questions rather then godly edifying which is by faith.

5 4 ✣ For the end of the c commandement is d loue out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith vnfained,

6 5 From the which things some haue erred, and haue turned vnto vaine iangling.

7 6 They would be doctours of the Lawe, and yet vnderstande not what they speake, neither whereof they affirme.

8 7 And we knowe, that the Law is good, if a man vse it lawfully,

9 8 Knowing this, that the Law is not giuen vnto a righteous man, but vnto the lawlesse & disobedient, to the vngodly, and to sinners, to the vnholy, and to the prophane, to murtherers of fathers and mothers, to manslayers,

10 To whoremongers, to buggerers, to menstealers, to liers, to the perjured, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to wholsome doctrine,

11 9 Which is according to the glorious Gospel of the blessed God, 10 which is committed vnto me.

d There is neither loue without a good conscience, nor a good conscience without faith, nor faith without the word of God.
5 That which he spake before generally of vaine and curious controuersies, he applieth to them, which pretending a zeale of the Law, dwelled vpon outward things, and neuer made an end of babbling of foolish trifles.
6 There are none more vnlearned, and more impudent in vttering the name of holinesse, then foolish sophisters.
7 How great a fault idlenesse is, he declareth by that that God created no man in vaine or to no purpose, neither is there any vnto whom he hath not allotted as it were a certaine standing and roome. Wherevpon it followeth, that the order which God hath appointed, is troubled by the idle, yea, bideleu, which is great sinne and wickednesse.
8 He reprehendeth a vice which is ioyned with the former, whereupon follow an infinite sort of mischiefs: to wit, that there are none more busie in other mens matters, condemneth not the Law, but requireth the right vse and practise of it. 8 He indeede escapeth the curse of the Law, and therefore doeth not abhorre it, who fleeing and eschewing those things which the Law condemneth, giueth himselfe with all his heart to obserue it: and not he that maketh a vaine babbling of outward and curious matters. e An such an one is he, whom the Lord hath inured with true doctrine, & with the holy Ghost. f To such as make an vse as it were of sinning. 9 He letteth a gaine fond & vaine babling, not onely the Law, but the Gospel also, which condemneth not but greatly commendeth the wholesome doctrine contained in the commandements of God, and therefore he calleth it a glorious Gospel, and the Gospel of the blessed God: the vse the where of these babblers knew not. 10 A reason why neither any other Gospel is to be taught, then hee hath taught in the Church, neither after any other sort, because there is no other Gospell beside that, which God committed to him.

11 Therefore

And first of all declaring his question, for whome we ought to pray: he secondly teacheth that we must pray for all men, and especially for all manner of magistrates, which thing was at that time somewhat doubted of, seeing that kings, yea and the most part of magistrates were at that time enemies of the Church. 2 An argument taken of the end: to wit, because that magistrates are appointed to this end, that men might peaceably and quietly liue in all godlinesse and honestie: and therefore must we commend them especially to God, that they may faithfully execute their office. a This word conteineth in it the kind of duetie, whereof is to be speaken amongst men in all their offices. 3 Another argument, why Churches or Congregations ought to pray for all men, with an inference of application, to wit, because God will haue vs so: he confirmeth the Lords calling of all sorts, yea sometime those that are present enemies to the Gospell, will haue his Church gathered together after this sort, and therefore prayers to be made for all,

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth them to make publike prayers for all men, 4 and not for two causes: 8 and therefore bee willeth all men in all places to pray, 9 and declareth in what apparell 11 and with what modestie women ought to behaue themselues in holy assemblies.

rate, no left, barberous, apt to teach,

3 Not [c] giuen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filthie lucre, but gande, no fighter, not couetous,

4 One that can rule his owne house honestly, hauing children vnder obedience with all honestie.

5 For if any ca not rule his owne house, how shall he care for the Church of God?

6 He may not be a yong scholler, least he being puffed vp fall into the [d] condemnation of the deuill,

7 Hee must also be well reported of, euen of them which are without, least he fall into rebuke, and the snare of the deuill.

8 [3] Likewise must Deacons be graue, not double tong ued, not giuen vnto much wine, neither to filthie lucre,

9 ✣ Hauing the [f] mysterie of the faith in pure conscience.

10 And let them first be prooued, then let them minister, if they be found blameles.

11 [4] Likewise their wiues must be honest, not euill speakers, but sober, and faithfull in all things.

12 [5] Let the Deacons be the husbandes of one wife, and such as can rule their children well, and their owne households.

13 For they that haue ministred well, get themselues a good [g] degree, and [h] great libertie in the faith, which is in Christ Iesus.

14 [6] These thing write I vnto thee, trusting to come very shortly vnto thee.

15 But if I tary long, that thou maiest yet know, howe thou oughtest to behaue thy selfe in the [7] house of God, which is the Church of the liuing God, the [i] pillar and ground of trueth.

16 [8] And without controuersie, great is the mysterie of godlinesse, which is, God is manifested in the flesh, [k] iustified in the spirite, seene of Angels, preached vnto the Gentiles, beleeued on in the world, and receiued vp in glorie.

3 [3] Forbidding to marry, and commaunding to obstaine from meates [4] which God hath created [5] to be receiued [6] with giuing thanks of them which beleeue and know the trueth.

4 [7] For euery creature of God is good, and nothing ought to be refused, if it be receiued with thanksgiuing,

5 [8] For it is [d] sanctified by the [e] word of God, and prayer.

6 [9] If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Iesus Christ, which hast beene nourished vp in the words of faith, and of good doctrine which thou hast continually [f] followed.

7 [10] But cast away prophane, and olde wiues fables, [11] and exercise thy selfe vnto [g] godlinesse.

8 [12] For bodily exercise profiteth litle: but godlinesse is profitable vnto all things, which hath the promise of the life present, and of that that is to come:

9 [13] This is a true saying, and by all meanes worthie to be receiued.

10 For therefore wee labour and are rebuked, because we trust in the liuing God, which is the Sauiour of all men, specially of those that beleeue.

11 These things warne and teach.

12 [14] Let no man despise thy youth, but be vnto them that beleeue, an ensample, in worde, in conuersation, in loue, in spirit, in faith and in purenesse.

13 [15] Till I come, giue attendance to reading, to exhortation, and to doctrine.

14 Despise not the gifte that is in thee, which was giuen thee by prophecie with the laying on of the hands of the companie of the Eldership.

15 These things exercise, and giue thy selfe vnto them, that it may be seene how thou profitest amongst all men.

16 Take heede vnto thy selfe, and vnto learning: continue therein: for in doing this thou shalt both [h] saue thy selfe, and them that heare thee.

c A common tipler and one that will sticke at.
d Least by reason that he is aduanced to that degree, hee take occasion to be proud, which will vndoe him, and so he fall into the same condemnation that the deuill himselfe is fallen into.
3 Likewise the Deacons must first be proued that there may be a good triall of their honestie, vnrebukeable, continencie, mind, void of couetousnesse, that they are well instructed in the doctrine of faith, and to be short, of their good conscience and integritie.

5 Paul purposing to adde many peculiar things pertaining to the dayly office of a Pastour, breaketh first a word or two concerning his comming to Timothie, that he should be so much the more carefull, least at his comming he might be reprooued of negligence. 7 The Pastour hath alwayes to thinke, how that he is occupied in the house of the liuing God, wherein the treasure of the trueth is kept. i To wit, in respect of men: for the Church resteth vpon that corner stone, Christ, and is the preseruer of the trueth, but not the mother. 8 There is nothing more excellent then this trueth, whereof the Church is the keeper and preseruer here amongst me, the ministery of the word being appointed to that ende and purpose: for it teacheth vs the greatest matters that may be thought of, to wit, that God is become visible in the person of Christ by taking our nature vpon him, whose Maiestie now shineth in so great weakenesse was manifested many wayes, insomuch that the sight of it pearced the very Angels: and to conclude, he being preached vnto the Gentiles was receiued of them, and is now placed aboue in glorie vnspeakeable. k The power of the Godhead shewed it selfe so marueilously in that weake flesh of Christ, that though he were a weake man, yet all the world knoweth hee was, and is God.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He condemneth as well false doctrines, 3 of mariage, and the choise of meates, 7 as also prophane fables: 8 and commendeth the godly exercise, 13 and the diuine reading of the Scriptures.

NOw [1] the Spirit speaketh euidently, that in the latter times some shall depart from the [a] faith, and shall giue heed vnto spirits of errour, and doctrines of deuils,

2 [2] Which speake lyes through [b] hypocrisie, & haue their [c] consciences burned with an hot yron,

2 He seeketh against that true doctrine, false opinions, which he foreseeth that certaine which shall fall away from God and his religion, shall bring in by the suggestion of Satan, and true doctrine of God

so that a great number shall giue eare to them. a From the a Although heretikes counterfeite holinesse neuer so much, yet they haue no conscience. b For they will as it were practise the arte of disguised persons and players, that we may not think they will see lurking in some one corner, or keepe any resemblance of honest fashions. c Whose conscience waxed so hard that there grew an hard fashions ouer it, and so became to haue a canker in it, & now at length required of very nec[e]ssitie to be burned with an hote yron.

and holy in respect of vs, so that we may vse it with a good conscience, as receiued at the Lords hand. e We confesse and acknowledge that God is the maker and giuer of those creatures which wee vse. Secondly, that we are of the number of those, who through Christes benefite haue recouered y right ouer all creatures, which Adam lost by his fall. Thirdly, by our prayers we craue of the Lord, that we may vse those meates with a good conscience, which we receiue at his handes. Fourthly, wee make an end of our eating and drinking, with thanksgiuing and prayer: & so are our meates sanctified to vs. 9 The conclusio with an exhortation to Timothie, to propound these things diligently to the Churches, which hee had sucked of the Apostle, euen in a manner from the teate. f Neuer departing from the side of it. 10 He seteth againe true doctrine not onely against that false and apostaticall doctrine, but also against all vaine and curious fabulities. 11 It is not one[ly] requisite that y minister of the word be found in doctrine, but also that his life be godly and religious. g In the true seruing of God. 12 Godlinesse consisteth in spirituall exercise, and not in outwarde austerenesse of life, which though it be some thing to be accounted of, if it be rightly vsed, yet is it in no wise comparable with godlinesse. For it profiteth not of it selfe, but through the benefite of another, but this hath the promise both of the life present, and of that that is to come. 13 He goeth a little from his matter, and sheweth that they which giue themselues to godlinesse, although they are afflicted and reproached, are notwithstanding not to be counted miserable as other men are, because they are not afflicted for that cause that other men are, & the end of them both is farre different one from the other. For how can God forsake his, which is bountifull euen towards his enemie? And hee willeth that this doctrine be well beaten into their heades. 14 Nowe hee returneth to that exhortation, shewing which are the vertues of a Pastour, whereby hee may come to be reuerenced, although hee be but young, to wit, such speech and life as are witnesses of charitie, zeale, faith, and puritie, but here is no mention made of the crosier staffe, ring, cloake, and such other foolish and childish toyes. 15 The priuate exercise of Pastours, is continuall reading of the Scriptures, whereunto they may drawe matter of wholesome doctrine and exhortation both to themselues and to other. h Faith is by hearing, and hearing by preaching: and therefore the ministers of the worde are so saide to saue themselues and other, for that in them the Lord hath put the worde of reconciliation.

3 He seteth downe two kindes of this false doctrine, to wit, the lawe of sale life, and differeance of meats.
4 He prooueth that he iustly called such doctrines deuilish, first, because the teachers of them make lawes of things which are not their owne: for haue they created the meats?
5 Secoudly, because they ouerthrow with their decrees, the end wherefore they were created of God, to wit, that we should vse them.
6 Thirdly, for that by this meanes they rob God of his glory, who will be honoured in the vse of them. And herewithall the Apostle declareth that we must vse the liberalitie of God suberly, and with a good conscience.
7 He setteth an Apostolicall rule, for taking away the difference of meats, against that false doctrine.
8 He vseth Gods benefits rightly, which acknowledgeth the giuer of them by his word, and calleth vpon him.
d It is so made pure

CHAP. V.

1 Hauing set downe a manner howe to rebuke all degrees, 5 Hee inueigheth of widowes, who then were chosen for the seruice of the Church: 17 Then hee commeth to Elders, 23 and speaketh somewhat touching the health of the bodie.

REbuke [1] not an elder, but exhort him as a father, and the yonger men as brethren,

2 The elder women as mothers, the yonger as sisters, with all pureneſſe.

3 [2 a] Honour widowes, which are widowes indeede.

4 [3] But if any widowe haue children or nephewes, let them learne firſt to ſhewe godlineſſe [4] toward their owne houſe, and [5] to recompenſe their kinred: [6] for that is an honeſt thing, and acceptable before God.

5 [7] And ſhe that is a widowe in deede, and left alone, truſteth in God, and continueth in ſupplications and prayers night and day.

6 [8] But ſhee that liueth in pleaſure, is dead, whiles ſhe liueth.

7 Theſe things therefore warne them of, that they may be blameleſſe.

8 If there be any that prouideth not for his owne, and namely for them of his houſeholde, hee denieth the faith, and is worſe then an infidell.

9 [9] Let not a widow be taken into the number vnder threeſcore yeere olde, that hath beene the wife of [b] one husband.

10 And well reported of for good workes: if ſhe haue nouriſhed her children, if ſhe haue lodged the ſtrangers, if ſhee haue [c] waſhed the Saints feete, if ſhe haue miniſtred vnto them which were in aduerſitie, if ſhee were continually giuen vnto euery good worke.

11 [10] But [d] refuſe the yonger widowes: for when they haue begun to waxe wanton againſt Chriſt, they will marrie,

12 Hauing damnation, becauſe they haue broken the firſt faith.

13 [11] And likewiſe alſo being idle they learne to goe about from houſe to houſe: yea, they are not onely idle, but alſo praters and buſibodies, ſpeaking things which are not comely.

14 [12] I will therefore that the yonger women marrie, and beare children, and gouerne the houſe, and giue none occaſion to the aduerſarie to ſpeake euill.

15 For certaine are alreadie turned backe after Satan.

16 [13] If any faithfull man or faithfull woman haue widowes, let them miniſter vnto them, and let not the Church be charged, that there may be ſufficient for them that are widowes in deed.

17 ¶ [14] The Elders that rule well, let them be had in [e] double honour, [f] ſpecially they which labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the Scripture ſayth, [g] Thou ſhalt not mouſell the mouth of the ox: that treadeth out the corne: and, [h] The labourer is woorthie of his wages.

19 [15] Againſt an Elder receiue none accuſation, but vnder two or three witneſſes.

20 [16] Them that ſinne, rebuke openly, that the reſt alſo may feare.

21 ¶ ∵ [17] I charge thee before God and the Lord Ieſus Chriſt, and the elect Angels, that thou obſerue theſe things, without preferring one to another, and doe nothing partially.

22 [18] Lay hands [i] ſuddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other mens ſinnes: keepe thy ſelfe pure.

23 [19] Drinke no longer water, but vſe a little wine for thy ſtomackes ſake, and thine often infirmities.

24 [20] Some mens ſinnes are open before hand, and goe before vnto iudgement: but ſome mens follow after.

25 [21] Likewiſe alſo the good workes are manifeſt before hand, and they that are otherwiſe, cannot be hid.

1 Of keeping meaſure in priuate reprehenſions according to the degrees of ages and kinds.
2 The Apoſtle giueth theſe rules touching the care of widowes.
a Haue care of thoſe widowes which haue need of helpe.
3 Widowes children and nephewes muſt take care for their parents, according to their abilitie.
4 The firſt reaſon, becauſe that, that which they beſtow vpon theirs, they beſtow it vpon themſelues.
5 Another, becauſe nature it ſelfe teacheth vs to recompenſe our parents.
6 The third: becauſe this duetifulnes pleaſeth God.
7 The ſecond rule: Let the Church haue care of ſuch as are widowes indeede, that is to ſay, ſuch as are poore and deſtitute of helpe of their own friends, and liue godly and religiouſly.
8 The third rule: Let widowes that liue in pleaſure, and neglect the care of their owne familie, be holden and accompted as fallers away from God and his religion, and worſe then very infidels.
9 The fourth rule: Let none vnder threeſcore yeeres olde, be taken into the number of widowes, to ſerue the Congregations or Churches, and ſuch as are free from all reproch of vnchaſtitie, and are well reported of for their diligence, charitie, and integritie. b That hath had no more husbands, but one at one time. c This is ſpoken in reſpect of the maner of thoſe countries. 10 The firſt reaſon why younger widowes are not to be admitted to this miniſterie, to wit, becauſe for the lightneſſe of their age, they will at length ſhake off the burden that Chriſt hath layed vpon them, and thinke rather vpon marrying againe: and ſo will forſake ỹ miniſtery wherevnto they had bound themſelues. d Take them not into the colledge of widowes. 11 Another reaſon: becauſe they are for the moſt part praters and buſie bodies, and gadders vp and downe neglecting their charge and duetie. 12 The fifth rule: Let the faithfull helpe their widowes at their owne charges as much as they can, and let not the Congregation be burdened with theſe expenſes.
13 The ſixth rule: Let the faithfull widowes marrie and gouerne their houſes godly. 14 Now he giueth rules, and ſheweth how he ought to behaue himſelfe with the Elders, that is to ſay, with the Paſtours and ſuch as haue the gouernance in the diſcipline of the Church, which is preſident of their company. The firſt rule: Let the Church or Congregation ſee vnto this eſpecially, as God himſelfe hath commaunded, that the Elders that doe their duetie well be honeſtly maintained.
e Wee muſt be more carefull for them, then for the reſt.
f There were two kinds of Elders, the one attended vpon the gouernment onely, and looked to be maiſters of the Congregation, the other did beſide that, attende vpon preaching and prayers, to and for the Congregation. ✣ Deuteronomie 25.4. 1 Corinthians 9.9. ✣ Matthew 10.10. luke 10.7. 15 The ſecond rule: Let no accuſation be admitted againſt an Elder, but vnder two or three witneſſes. 16 The third rule: Let the Elders ſo conuicted, be rebuked openly, that they may be an example to others. ∵ Chapter 6.13. 17 The fourth rule: Let them not onely be vſed without any preiudice or reſpect of perſons in the Eccleſiaſticall proceedings, (eſpecially againſt the Elders) becauſe God himſelfe is there preſent, and the Lord Ieſus Chriſt with a multitude of Angels. 18 The fifth rule: Let the miniſter laye handes ſuddainely on no man. Let him not be faultie herein either by fauouring any mans follie, or peruerſe affection: If ought be done otherwiſe then well of his fellowes, let him keepe his conſcience pure. g As much as in thee lyeth doe not raſhly admit any whatſoeuer, to any Eccleſiaſticall function. 19 The ſixth rule: Let the Elders haue indifferent conſideration of their health, in the manner of their dyet. 20 Becauſe hypocrites ſometimes creepe into the miniſterie, although there be neuer ſo great diligence vſed, the Apoſtle willeth the Paſtours not to be troubled therefore, or ſlacke any whit of their diligence in trying and examining, becauſe the Lord hath appointed a time to diſcouer the faults of ſuch men, and it is our partes to take heede that wee offende not therein.
21 Another comfort belonging to them, which ſometime are ſlaundred and miſreported of.

CHAP. VI.

1 He ſpeweth the ductie of ſeruants: 10 and what a miſchieuous euill couetouſneſſe is: 13 and hauing ſpoken ſomewhat of rich men, he once againe forſaketh Timothie, 20 is cumber himſelfe with vaine babblings.

LEt [1 a] as many ſeruants as are vnder the yoke, count their maſters worthy of all honour, [2] that the Name of God, and his doctrine be not euill ſpoken of.

2 [3] And they which haue beleeuing maſters, let them not deſpiſe them, becauſe they are brethren, but rather doe ſeruice, becauſe they are faithfull, and beloued, and [a] partakers of the benefite. 4 Theſe things teach and exhort.

1 Hee addeth alſo rules for the ſeruants duetie towardes their maſters: ouerypoo no doubt there were many queſtions then moued ued by them, which tooke occaſion by the Goſpel to trouble the common ſtate. And this is the firſt rule: Let ſeruants that are come to the faith, and haue infidels to their maſters, ſerue them not withſtanding with great fidelitie. 2 The reaſon: leaſt God ſhoulde ſeeme by the Doctrine of the Goſpell to ſtirre vp men to rebellion and all wickedneſſe. 3 The ſecond rule: Let not ſeruants that are come to the faith, and haue alſo maſters of the ſame profeſſion and religion, abuſe the name of brotherlinode, but let them ſo much the rather obey them. a Let this be ſufficient, that as touching thoſe things which pertaine to euerlaſting life, they are partakers of the ſame good will & loue of God, as their maſters themſelues are. 4 A generall concluſion, that theſe things ought not onely to be ſimply taught, but muſt with exhortations be diligently beaten into their heads.

5 He condemneth severely, and excommunicateth or casteth out of the Church as prond men, such as contend not themselues with Christs doctrine, (that is to say, the doctrine of godlinesse) but weanie both themselues and others in vaine questions, (for all other things are vaine) because they content not themselues in Christs doctrine: and as lying deceiuers, because they labour or sound of nothing but vanitie: as madde men, because they trouble themselues so much in matters of nothing: as mischeinous plagues, for that they cause great contentions, and corrupt mens mindes and iudgement: to be short, as prophane and wicked, because they abuse the precious name of godlinesse and religion to filthy lucre. h Scriptings about words, and not about matter: and by words he meaneth all those things which haue no pith in them, & whereby we can reape no profite. i Such as we see in those fish smelling sciences of Poperie, which are nothing else but vaine babbling and prating. 6 He turneth away fully the name of gaine and lucre, confessing that godlinesse is great gaine, but farre after an other sort, to wit, because it inricheth true sufficiencie. 7 He inciteth their follie, which doe so greedily gape after fickle things, that they can in no wise be satisfied, and yet notwithstanding they cannot enioy that excelle. 8 He fraieth Timothie from couetousnesse after another sort, to wit, because it draweth with it an infinite sort of vices, and those very hurtfull, wherewith couetous men doe torment themselues so farre foorth, that in the ende they cast from them their faith and saluation. k Sorowe and griefe do as it were peirce thorow the minde of man, and are the drunnets and true fruits of couetousnesse. 9 A peculiar exhortation to diuers vertues, wherewith it behoueth the Pastours especially to be furnished. l Whom the Spirit of God riseth.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consenteth not to the wholesome words of our Lord Iesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godlinesse,

4 Hee is puft vp and knoweth nothing, but doteth about questions and [b] strife of wordes, whereof commeth enuie, strife, railings, euill surmisings,

5 Froward [c] disputations of men of corrupt mindes and destitute of the trueth, which thinke that gaine is godlinesse: from such separate thy selfe.

6 [6] But godlinesse is great gaine, if a man be content with that hee hath.

7 [7] For wee brought nothing into the world, and it is certaine, that we can carie nothing out.

8 Therefore when wee haue foode and rai-ment, let vs therewith be content.

9 [8] For they that will be rich, fall into tentation and snares, and into many foolish and noysome lustes, which drowne men in perdition and destruction.

10 For the desire of money is the roote of all euill, which while some lusted after, they erred from the faith, and [d] pearced themselues throw with many sorowes.

11 [9] But thou, O [e] man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousnesse, godlinesse, faith, loue, patience, and meekenesse.

12 Fight the good fight of faith: lay holde of eternall life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 ✠ [10] I charge thee in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Iesus Christ, which vnder Pontius Pilate ✠ witnessed a good confession,

14 That thou keepe this commandement without spot, and vnrebukeable, vntill the appearing of our Lord Iesus Christ,

15 Which in due time he shall shewe, that is [f] blessed & Prince onely, the King of kings and Lord of lords,

16 Who onely hath immortalitie, and dwelleth in the light that none can attaine vnto, ✠ whom neuer man sawe, neither can see, vnto whom be honour and power euerlasting. Amen.

17 [11] Charge them that are rich in [g] this world, that they be not high minded, and that they ✠ trust not in vncertaine riches, but in the [h] liuing God, (which giueth vs abundantly all things to enioy.)

18 That they doe good, and be rich in good works, and be ready to distribute, & communicate,

19 * [12] Laying vp in store for themselues a good foundation against the time to come, that they may obtaine eternall life.

20 [13] O Timotheus, keepe that which is committed vnto thee, and auoide prophane and vaine babblings, and oppositions of science falsly so called,

21 Which while some [i] professe, they haue erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAVL TO TIMOTHEVS.

CHAP. I.

He commendeth Timotheus faith, 6 and exhorteth him to vse an faithfully in the charge committed vnto him: 8 and that in other for his bonds. 13 For the resulting of others, he faint. 15 He triumpheth of his Apostleship. 24 He willeth him to haue care of the thing committed vnto him, 16 and prayseth Onesiphorus.

Paul an Apostle of Iesus Christ by the will of God, a according to the promise of life which is in Christ Iesus,

2 To Timotheus my beloued sonne: Grace, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from Iesus Christ our Lord.

3 [1] I thanke God, ✠ whom I serue from mine [b] elders with pure conscience, that without ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,

4 Desiring to see thee, mindfull of thy teares, that I may be filled with ioy:

5 When I call to remembrance the vnfained faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois and in thy mother Eunice, and am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

6 [2] Wherefore, I put thee in remembrance that thou [c] stirre vp the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of mine hands.

7 For God hath not giuen to vs the Spirit of [d] feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sound minde.

8 [3] Be not therefore ashamed of the testimo-a Sent of God to preach that life which he promised in Christ Iesus.

2 The chiefest marke that he shoteth at in this Epistle is to confirme Timothie to continue constantly and manfully euen to the end, setting first before him the great good will he beareth him, and then reckoning vp the excellent gifts which God would as it were haue to be by inheritance in Timothie, and his ancestours which might so much the more make him bolde to God. ✠ Acts 22. 3. b From Abraham, Isaac and Iacob: for hee speaketh not of Christianisme, out of Christianisme.

2 He warneth vs to set the inuincible power of he Spirit, which God hath giuen vs against those storms which may and doe come vpon vs. c The gifts of God is as it were a certaine liuely flame kindled in our hearts, which the flesh and the deuill go about to put out: and therefore we haue need of the contrary side. d To terrifie vs.
3 He proueth that the ignominie or shame of the crosse is not only not to be ashamed of, but also that it is glorious and most honourable: first, because the Gospel where vpon the godly are afflicted, is the testimonie of Christ: and secondly, because at length the great vertue and power of God appeareth in them,

2 For his sake. f The Gospel after a sort is sayd to be afflicted in them that preach it. g Through the power of God.

4 Hee sheweth with how great benefits God hath bound vs to maintene boldly and constantly his glorie which is ioyned with our saluation, and reckoneth vp the causes of our saluation, to wit, the free and eternall purpose of God to saue vs in Christ which was to come, whereby it should come to passe, that wee should at length be freely called of God by the preaching of the Gospel, to Christ the destroyer of death and authour of immortalitie.

5 He sayeth that that grace was giuen vs from euerlasting, vnto which we were predestinate from euerlasting. So that the doctrine of foreseene faith and foreseene works, is cleane contrary to the doctrine which preached and teacheth that hath runne on euer since the beginning of the world.

6 That is, the Gospel which the Apostle preached. 7 By setting his owne example before vs, he sheweth vs how it may be that wee shall not be ashamed of y crosse of Christ, to wit, if wee be sure that God both can & will keepe the saluation which he hath as it were layd vp in store by himselfe for vs against that day. 8 He sheweth wherein hee ought to be most constant, to wit, both in the doctrine itselfe, the abridgement whereof is faith & charitie, and next in the matter of teaching it, a liuely paterne and shape whereof Timothie knew in the Apostle. 9 An amplification, taken of the dignitie of so great a benefit committed of the ministers. 10 The taking away of an obiection. It is an hard thing to doe it, but the Spirit of God is mighty, who hath inwardly indued vs with his vertue. 11 He preuenteth an offence which arose by the meanes of certaine that fell from God & the religion, & witereth also their names, that they might be knowen of all men. But he letteth against them the singular faith of one man, that one onely good example might counterpoise and weigh downe all euill examples.

CHAP. II.

1 The better to set out perseuerance in the Christian warfare. 3 he taketh similitudes 4 from souldiers, 6 and from husbandmen. 10 Hee sheweth that his bonds are for the profit of the Saints. 15 Then hee warneth Timothie to deuide the word of trueth aright. 17 to beware of the examples of the wicked, 22 and to do all things modestly.

THou therefore, my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Iesus.

2 And what things thou hast heard of me, by many witnesses, the same deliuer to faithfull men, which shallbe able to teach other also.

3 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Iesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth, entangleth himselfe with the affaires of b this life, because hee would please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier.

5 And if any man also striue for a masterie, he is not crowned, except he striue as he ought to doe.

6 The husbandman must labour before hee receiue the fruits.

7 Consider what I say: and the Lord giue thee vnderstanding in all things.

8 Remember that Iesus Christ, made of the seed of David, was raised againe from the dead according to my Gospel,

9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an euill doer, euen vnto bondes: but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I suffer all things for the elects sake, that they might also obtaine the saluation which is in Christ Iesus, with eternall glory.

11 It is a true saying, For if we be ✣ dead together with him, we also shall liue together with him.

12 If we suffer, we shall also reigne together with him: ✣ If we deny him, he also will deny vs.

13 If ∵ we beleeue not, yet abideth he faithfull: he cannot deny himselfe.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, and d protest before the Lord, that they striue not about words, which is to no profit, but to the perverting of the hearers.

15 Studie to shew thy selfe approoued vnto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, diuiding the word of trueth e aright.

16 f Stay profane and vaine bablings: for they shall increase vnto more vngodlinesse.

17 And their word shall fret as a canker: of which sort is Hymeneus and Philetus, 18 Which as concerning the trueth haue erred from the marke, saying that the resurrection is past alreadie, and doe destroy the faith of certaine.

19 But the foundation of God remaineth sure, and hath this seale, The Lord knoweth who are his: and, Let euery one that g calleth on the Name of Christ, depart from iniquity.

19 But the foundation of God remaineth sure, and hath this seale, The Lord knoweth who are his: and, Let euery one that g calleth on the Name of Christ, depart from iniquity.

2 The conclusion of the former exhortation, which hath also added vnto it a declaration, how that they do not keepe that worthy thing that is committed vnto vs & which keepe it to themselues, but they rather which do most freely communicate it with other, to the end that many may bee partakers of it without any mans losse or hinderance. A Note many were by which can beare witnesse of these things. 2 Another admonition: That the ministery of the word is a spirituall warfare, which no man can so trauell in, that he may please his captaine, vnlesse he forgoe and part with all hinderances which might draw him away from it.

b With affaires of household, or other things that belong to other ordinarie businesse.

3 The third admonition: The ministerie is like to a game or iusting, wherein men striue for the victory, and no man is crowned, vnlesse he striue according to the lawes which are prescribed, be they neuer so hard and painfull.

4 Another similitude sending to the same end: no man may looke for the harueste, vnlesse hee first take paines to plow and sowe his ground.

5 All these things cannot be vnderstood, and much lesse practised, vnlesse wee aske of God, and be giuen vs vnderstanding.

9 He confirmeth plainly two principles of our faith, which are alwayes assaulted of heretikes, the one whereof (to wit, that Christ is the true Messias made man of the seed of David) is the ground of our saluation: and the other is the highest part of it, to wit, that he is risen againe from the dead.

7 The taking away of an obiection: Trueth it is, that he is kept in prison, as an euill doer, yet there is no cause, why therefore some should goe about to derogate credit from his Gospel, seeing that notwithstanding God did bleese his ministerie, nay rather, that example of this his captiuitie and patience did sundrie wayes confirme the Church in the hope of a better life. 8 The fourth admonition: wee ought not to contend vpon words and questions, which are not onely vnprofitable, but also for the most part hurtfull: but rather vpon this how we may frame our selues to all maner of patience, and to doe also with Christ (that is to say, for Christes Name) because that is the plaine way to the most glorious life: as contrariwise the falling away of men admirish no part of the trueth of God, although by such meanes they procure most certaine destruction to themselues. ✣ Rom. 6. 5. c If we be afflicted with Christ, & for Christes sake. ✣ Matth. 10. 33. marke 8. 38. ∵ Rom. 3. 3. and 9. 6. d Call God to witnesse, or as a Iudge: as Moses, Iosua, Samuel & Paul himselfe did, Acts 20.

9 The fifth admonition: A minister must not be an idle disputer, but a faithfull steward in dividing aright the word of trueth, insomuch that hee must stop the mouthes of other vaine bablers eBy adding nothing to it, neither ouerskipping any thing, neither mangling it, nor venting it in sunder, nor wresting of it: but mainteining diligently what his hearers are able to beare, and what is fit to edifying. f Marke and watch, and see they creepe not on further. 10 Hee discouereth the subtilitie of Satan, who beginning with these principles, draweth vs by little and little to vngodlinesse through the meanes of that wicked and profane babling, still creeping on: which he prooueth by the horrible example of them that taught, that the resurrection was alreadie past. 11 A digression: wherein he saueth that offence that rose by their falling away: shewing first, that the elect are out of all danger of any such falling away: secondly, that they are knowen to God & not to vs: & therefore it is no maruell if we count hypocrites ofentimes for true brethren: but we must take heed that we be not like them, but rather that we bee in deede such as we are sayd to be. g That seeketh and worshippeth him, and is as it were named of him, a faithfull man or Christian.

11 The taking away of an obiection: it is no dishonour to the good man of the house, that he hath not in a great house all vessels of one sorte and for one seruice, but we must looke to that, that we be found vessels prepared to honour.
b By these words is meant the execution of the matter, and not the cause: for to that we purge ourselues, it is not to be attributed to any free will that is in vs, but to God, who freely & wholly worketh in vs a good and an effectuall will.

13 Returning to the matter from whence he digressed, verse 16. he warneth him to exercise himselfe in weighty matters, and such as perteine to godlinesse. 14 The first admonition: We must abone all things eschew all bitternes of minde both in teaching all men, and also in calling them backe which haue gone out of the way.
✣ 1. Cor.12. 1. Tim.1.4. and 4.7. Tit.3.9. c To winne them through our patient bearing with them, but not to please them or excuse them in their wickednesse. k He meaneth such as doe not yet see the truth.

20 12 Notwithstanding in a great house are not only vessels of gold and of siluer, but also of wood and of earth, ✣ and some for honour, and some vnto dishonour.
21 If any man therefore b purge himselfe from these, he shall be a vessell vnto honour, sanctified, and meet for the Lord, and prepared vnto euerie good worke.
22 13 Flee also from the lusts of youth, and follow after righteousnesse, faith, loue, and 14 peace, with them that ✣ call on the Lord with pure heart.
23 ✣ And put away foolish & vnlearned questions, knowing that they ingender strife.
24 But the seruant of the Lord must not striue, but must be gentle toward all men, apt to teach, i suffering the euill,
25 Instructing them with meekenesse that are k contrary minded, proouing if God at any time will giue them repentance, that they may acknowledge the trueth, 26 And come to amendment out of that snare of the deuill, of whom they are taken prisoners, to doe his will.

CHAP. III.

1 Hee foretelleth the dangerous times that are to insue: 9 But with the certaine hope of victorie. 10 hee encourageth him to the combat, 14 setting out especially the triall of sound doctrine.

THis 1 know also, that in the ✣ last dayes shall come perillous times.
2 For men shalbe louers of their owne selues, couetous, boasters, proud, curs*e*d speakers, disobedient to parents, vnthankefull, a vnholy,
3 Without naturall affection, truce breakers, false accusers, intemperate, fierce, no louers at all of them which are good,
4 Traitours, headie, high minded, louers of pleasures more then louers of God,
5 Hauing a shew of godlinesse, but haue denied the power thereof: ✣ turne away therefore from such.
6 For of this sort are they which creepe into houses, and leade captiue simple women laden with sinnes, and led with diuers lusts.
7 Which women are euer learning, and are neuer able to come to the acknowledging of the trueth.
8 ✣ And as Iannes and Iambres withstood Moses, so doe these also resist the trueth, men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith, 9 But they shall preuaile no longer: for their madnesse shall be euident vnto all men, as theirs also was.
10 ✣ 4 But thou hast b fully knowen my doctrine, maner of liuing, purpose, faith, long suffering, loue, patience, 11 Persecutions, and afflictions which came vnto me at c Antiochia, at Iconium, and at Lystri, which persecutions I suffered: but from them all the Lord deliuered me.
12 Yea, and all that will liue godly in Christ Iesus, shall suffer persecution.
13 But the euill men and deceiuers shall waxe d worse and worse, deceiuing, and being deceiued.
14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned, and which are committed vnto thee, knowing of whom thou hast learned them:
15 And that thou hast knowen the holy Scriptures of a childe, which are able to make thee wise vnto saluation, through the faith which is in Christ Iesus.
16 ✣ 5 For the whole Scripture is giuen by inspiration of God, and is profitable to teach, to conuince, to correct, and to instruct in righteousnesse, 17 That the e man of God may be absolute, being made perfect vnto all good works.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He chargeth him to preach the Gospel with all diligence. 3 In that so miserable a time: 6 that his death is hard at hand, 8 yet so, that as a conqueror he maketh haste to a glorious triumph. 10 He sheweth the cause why he sendeth for Timothie, 11 euen by reason of his present state.

I Charge thee therefore before God, and before the Lord Iesus Christ, which shall iudge the quicke and dead at that his appearing, and in his kingdome,
2 Preach the word: be instant, in season, and out of season, improoue, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine.
3 For the time will come when they will not suffer wholesome doctrine: but hauing their eares itching, shall after their owne lusts get them an heape of teachers,
4 And shall turne their eares from the trueth, and shallbe giuen vnto ✣ fables.
5 3 But watch thou in all things: suffer aduersitie: doe the worke of an Euangelist: b cause thy ministery to be thoroughly liked of.
6 4 For I am now ready to be c offered, and the time of my departing is at hand.
7 I haue fought a good fight, and haue finished my course: I haue kept the faith.
8 For henceforth is layd vp for me the crowne of righteousnesse, which the Lord the righteous Iudge shall giue mee at that day: and not to mee onely, but vnto all them also that loue that his appearing.
9 5 Make speed to come vnto me at once:
10 For Demas hath forsaken me, and hath d embraced this present world, and is departed vnto Thessalonica. Crescens is gone to Galatia, Titus vnto Dalmatia.
11 ✣ Onely Luke is with me. Take Marke and bring him with thee: for hee is profitable vnto mee to ministerie.
12 And Tychicus haue I sent to Ephesus.
13 The cloake that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou commest, bring with thee, and the bookes, but specially the parchments.
14 Alexander the coppersmith hath done mee much euill: the Lord reward him according to his workes.

a Euill wicked shall daily increase. ✣ 2. Pet.1.20.
5 The eight admonition, which is most precious: A Pastour must be wise by the word of God onely: where in we haue perfectly deliuered vnto vs, whatsoeuer pertaineth either to discerne, knowe and establish true opinions, & to confute false, and furthermore, to correct euill maners, and to frame good.
e The Prophets and expounders of Gods will, are properly & peculiarly called, Men of God.

1 The seuenth admonition; we may not hope for any Church in this world without corruption: but there shallbe rather great abundance of most wicked men, euen in the very bosome of the Church, which notwithstanding shall make a shew and countenance of great holinesse and charitie.
✣ 1 Tim.4.1. 2 Pet.3.3. Iude 18.
a Which make no account, either of right or honestie.
2 Wee must not dallie with such men as resist the trueth not of simple ignorance, but of a peruerse mind, (which thing appeareth by their fruits which bee painefull on bee lustly) but we must rather turne away from them.
3 Here ariseth a comfort: The Lord will at length plucke off all their visards. 4 That we be not deceiued by such hypocrites, we must set before vs the vertues of the holy seruants of God, & we must not be afrayd of persecution, which they suffered willingly, and which alwayes follow the true godlinesse. But we must especially holde fast the doctrine of the Apostles, the summe whereof is this, that we are saued through faith in Christ Iesus. d Threw himself thereinto, not onely what I taught and did, but also how I was minded and disposed. e Which is in Pesidia.

1 The principall and chiefe of all admonitions, being therefore proposed with a most earnest charge, is this: That the word of God be propounded with a certaine holie importunitie, as necessitie requireth: but so, that a good and true ground of the doctrine be layd, and the vehemencie be tempered with all holy meekenesse.
2 Faithfull Pastours in times past tooke all occasions they could, because men were very prompt and ready to returne to their fables.
a To false and vnprofitable doctrines, which the world is now so bewitched withall, that it had rather the open light of the trueth were vtterly put out, then it would come out of darknesse.
3 The wickednes and falling away of the world, ought to cause faithfull ministers to be so much the more carefull.
b Preache and shew by good and substantiall proofe, that thou art the true minister of God.
4 Here foreteleth his death to be at hand, and setteth before them an excellent example, both of inuincible constancie and sure hope. c To be offered for a drinke offering: and he alludeth to the powring out of blood or wine which was vsed in sacrifices. 5 The last part of the Epistle, setting forth grieuous complaints against certaine, and examples of singular godlinesse in euery place; and of a minde neuer wearied.
d Contented himselfe with this world. ✣ Coloss.4.10.14.

15 Of whom be thou ware also: for he withstood our preaching sore.

16 At my first answering no man assisted mee, but all forsooke me: I pray God, that it may not be laid to their charge.

17 Notwithstanding the Lord assisted me, and strengthened mee, that by me the preaching might be fully beleeued, and that all the Gentiles should heare: and I was deliuered out of the mouth of the e lyon.

THE EPISTLE OF PAVL TO TITVS.

CHAP. I.

6 He sheweth what kinde of men ought to be chosen Ministers: 10 how vaine babblers mouthes should be stopped: 12 and through this occasion hee toucheth the nature of the Cretians. 14 and the Iewes, who put holinesse in outward things.

PAul [1] a seruant of God, and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, according to the faith of Gods [b] elect, [2] and the acknowledging of the trueth, which is according vnto godlines,

2 Vnto the [c] hope of eternall life, which God that cannot lye, hath [d] promised before ✣ [e] world began:

3 [3] But hath made his worde manifest in due time through the preaching, which is ✣ committed vnto mee according to the commandement of God our [f] Sauiour:

4 [4] To Titus my naturall sonne according to the common faith, [g] Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ our Sauiour.

5 [5] For this cause left I thee in Creta, that thou shouldest continue to redresse the things that remaine, and shouldest ordeine Elders in euery citie as I appointed thee,

6 [6] If any be vnreprooueable, the husband of one wife, hauing faithfull children, which are not slandered of riot, neither are [6] disobedient.

7 [7] For a Bishop must be vnreprooueable, as Gods [h] steward, not [i] froward, not angry, not giuen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filthy lucre,

8 But harberous, one that loueth goodnesse, [k] wise, righteous, holy, temperate,

9 [8] Holding fast that faithfull worde according to doctrine, [9] that hee also may be able to exhort with wholesome doctrine, and conuince them that say against it.

10 [10] For there are many disobedient and vaine talkers and deceiuers of mindes, chi.fly they of the [l] Circumcision,

11 Whose mouthes must be stopped, which subuert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucres sake.

12 [m] One of themselues, euen one of their owne prophets said, The Cretians are alwayes lyars, euill beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witnesse is true: wherefore conuince them [n] sharply, that they may be found in the faith:

14 And not taking heed to ✣ Iewish fables, and commandements of men, that turne away from the trueth.

15 [11] Vnto the pure [o] are all things pure, but vnto them that are defiled, and vnbeleeuing is nothing pure, but euen their [o] mindes and consciences are defiled.

16 They professe that they know God, but by works they deny him, and are abominable, and disobedient, and vnto euery good worke reprobate.

1 He voucheth his Apostleship, (not for Titus, but for the Cretenes sake) both by the testimonie of his outward calling, and by his consent wherein he agreeth with all the elect from the beginning of the world.
a Minister, as Christ himselfe, in that that he was a minister and head of the Prophets, is called a seruant, Esa. 42. 10.
b Of those whom God hath chosen.
2 The faith wherein all the elect consent, is the true and fiuere knowledge of God, tending to this ende, that worshipping God aright, they may at length obtaine life euerlasting according to the promise of God, who is true, which promise was exhibited to Christ in due time according to his eternall purpose.
c Hope is the ende of faith. d Freely, and of his meere liberalitie. e Rom. 16. 25. Ephes. 3. 9. colos. 1. 26. 2. tim. 1. 9. 1. peter 1. 20. e Luke 2. Tim. 1. 9.
3 This trueth is no other where to be fought, but in the preaching of the Apostles ✣ Gal. 2. 1. f This word (Sauiour) doeth not onely signifie a preseruer of life, but also a giuer of life.
4 The Apostle moueth the Cretenses to heare Titus, by setting foorth his consent and agreement with him in ✣ faith, and therewithall the weth by what speciall note we may distinguish true ministers from false.
5 There is but one way of saluation, common both to the Pastours and the flocke.

7 The second admonition, what faults pastours (whom hee comprehended afore vnder the worde Elders) ought to be wary of, and what vertues they ought to haue. h Whom the Lord hath appointed steward of his giftes. i Not hard conditioned, and euill to please. k Circumspect, of a sound iudgement, and of a singuler example of moderation.
8 The thirde admonition: The Pastour must hold fast that doctrine, which the Apostles deliuered, and perseuereth to saluation, leauing all curious and vaine matters.
9 The fourth admonition: To apply the knowledge of true doctrine vnto vse, which consisteth in two things, to wit, in gouerning them which shew themselues apt to learne, and confuting the obstinate.

10 An applying of the generall proposition to a particular: The Cretenses aboue all other nede sharpe reprehension: both because their mindes are naturally giuen to lies and slouthfulnesse, and also because of certaine couetous lewes, which vnder a colour of godlinesse inioyned partly certaine vaine traditions, and partly olde ceremonies with the Gospel.
l Of the Iewes, or rather of those Iewes, which went about to ioyne Christ and the Law together.
m Epimenides, who was counted a Prophet amongst them Looke vpon Laertius and Cicero in his 3. booke of Diuination.
n Roughly and plainely, and goe not about the bush with them. ✣ 1. Tim. 1. 4. 11. Her likewise in two words, that pure nesse consisteth not in any externall worship, and that that is according to the olde Law, (as in difference of meats, & washings & other such things which are abolished) but in the minde & conscience: & who soeuer teach otherwise, know not what is true religion indeed, and also are nothing lesse then that they would seeme to be. ✣ Rom. 14. 20.
o If our mindes and consciences be vncleane, what cleannesse is there in vs before regeneration?

CHAP. II.

1 Hee setteth out the duelies of sundry persons and states, 6 and willeth him to instruct the Church in maners. 11 He draweth an argument from the end of our redemption. 12 which is, that we liue godly and vprightly.

BVt [1] speake thou the things which become wholesome doctrine,

2 [a] That the elder men be watchfull, graue, temperate, found in the faith, in loue, and in patience:

3 The elder women likewise, that they be in such behauiour as becommeth holinesse, not false accusers, not subiect to much wine, but teachers of honest things,

4 That they may instruct the young women to be sober minded, that they loue their husbands, that they loue their children,

5 That they be temperate, chaste, [c] keeping at home, good and [x] subiect vnto their husbands, that the word of God be not euill spoken of.

6 Exhort yong men likewise, that they be sober minded.

CHAP. III.

1 Hee willeth that all generally be put in minde to reuerence such as be in authoritie: 3 That they remember, their former life, & attribute all iustification vnto grace. 9 And if any braules withstand these things, 10 hee willeth that he be reiected.

PVt them in remembrance that they ✣ be subiect to the principalities and powers, and that they be obedient, and ready to euery good worke.
2 That they speake euill of no man, that they

6 Which hee shed on vs abundantly, through Iesus Christ our Sauiour,
7 That wee, being iustified by his grace, should be made heires according to the hope of eternall life.
8 3 This is a true saying, and these things I will thou shouldest affirme, that they which haue beleeued God, might be carefull to shewe foorth c good workes. These things are good and profitable vnto men.
9 ✣ But shun foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and brawlings about the Law: for they are vnprofitable and vaine.
10 4 Reiect him that is an heretike, after once or twise admonition,

4 The ministers of the word must at once cast off heretikes, that is, such as stubbornely and seditiously disquiet the Church, and will giue no eare to Ecclesiasticall admonitions.
5 Last of all, hee writeth a word or two of priuate matters, and commendeth certaine men.

¶ To Titus, elect the first Bishop of the Church of the Cretians, written from Nicopolis in Macedonia.

THE EPISTLE OF PAVL TO PHILEMON.

a Paul handling a base and small matter, yet according to his maner mounteth aloft vnto God, 8 Sending againe to Philemon his vagabond and theeuish seruant, he intreateth pardon for him, and very gravely preacheth of Christian equitie.

PAul a prisoner of Iesus Christ, and our brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our deare friend, and fellow helper,
2 And to our deare sister Apphia, and to Archippus our fellow souldier, and to the Church that is in thine house:
3 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.
4 I ✣ giue thanks to my God, making mention alwayes of thee in my prayers,

THE EPISTLE TO THE HEBREWES.

THe drift & ende of this Epistle, is to shew that Iesus Christ the Sonne of God both God & man, in that true eternall & onely Prophet, King, and high Priest, that was shadowed by the figures of the old Law, and is now indeed exhibited: of whom the whole Church ought to be taught, gouerned & sanctified.

CHAP. I.

2 To shewe that the doctrine which Christ brought, is most excellent, in that it is the knitting vp of all prophecies, 4 he aduanceth him aboue the Angels: 10 And prooueth by diuers testimonies of the Scripture, that he farre passeth all other.

a The first part of the generall proposition of this Epistle: The Sonne of God is indeede that Prophet or teacher, which hath actually now performed that that God after a sort and in shadowes signified by his Prophets, and hath fully opened his Fathers will to the world.
a So that the former declaration made by the Prophets was not full, and nothing must be added to this latter.
b Which one Sonne is God and man.
2 The second part of the same proposition: The Sonne is appointed of the father to be ✠ King and Lord, by whom also he made all things, and in whom onely he seeth fourth his glory, yea & himselfe also to be beholden of vs, who beareth vp and sustaineth all things by his will and pleasure. c Possessour & equall copartner of allthings with the Father. d That is, whatsoeuer hath bene at any time, is, or shallbe. ✣ Col. 1.15. e Hee in whom that glory and Maiestie of the Father shineth, who is eternall, infinite, and cannot be beholden. f His father.
3 The third part of the same proposition. The same Sonne executed the office of the hie Priest in offering vp himselfe, and is our onely and most mighty Mediatour in heauen. h This sheweth that the fauour of that sacrifice is not onely most acceptable to the Father, but also is euerlasting, & further more how farre this high Priest passeth al ỹ other high Priestes. 4 Before he commeth to declare the office of Christ, he setteth forth the excellencie of his person, & first of all he sheweth him so to be man, ỹ therewithall hee is God also. i Dignitie and honour. 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 He proueth & confirmeth the diuinitie of Christ manifested in ỹ flesh by these sixe euident testimonies, whereby it appeareth that he farre passeth al Angels, in so much ỹ he is called both Sonne, & God, in verses 5, 6, 8, 10, 13. ✣ Psa. 2, 7 chap 5, 5. k The Father begat ỹ Sonne from euerlasting, but in an euerlasting generation was made manifest & represented to the world in his time, & therefore he addeth this word (To day.) ✣ 2. Sam 7, 14. 1. Chro 22, 10. l The Lord was not content to haue spoken it once, but he repeateth it in another place. ✣ Psal. 97, 7.

THe sundry times & in diuers maners God spake in the old time to our fathers by the Prophets: in these a last dayes hee hath spoken vnto vs by his b Sonne,

2 2 Whom he hath made c heire of all things, by whom also he made the d worldes,

3 ✣ Who being the e brightnesse of the glory, and the ingraued forme of his f person, and g bearing vp all things by his mightie word, 3 hath by himselfe purged our sinnes: and h sitteth at the right hand of the Maiestie in the highest places,

4 4 And is made so much more excellent then the Angels, in as much as hee hath obteined a more excellent i Name then they.

5 5 For vnto which of the Angels sayde he at any time, ✣ Thou art my Sonne, k this day begate I thee? 6 and againe, l ✣ I will be his Father, and he shalbe my Sonne:

6 7 And l againe, when he bringeth in his first begotten Sonne into the world, he sayeth, ✣ And let all the Angels of God worship him.

7 8 And of the Angels he saith, ✣ He maketh the spirits his m messengers, and his ministers a flame n of fire.

8 But vnto the Sonne he sayth, ✣ O God, thy o throne is for euer P and euer: the scepter of thy kingdome is a q scepter of righteousnesse.

9 Thou hast loued righteousnesse & r hated iniquitie. Wherefore God, euen thy God, hath anointed the ṽ the oyle of gladnes, aboue thy fellowes.

10 9 And, ✣ Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast s established the earth, and the heauens are the workes of thine hands.

11 They shall perish, but thou doest remaine, and they all shall waxe olde as doeth a garment,

12 And as a vesture shalt thou folde them vp, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy yeeres shall not faile.

13 10 Vnto which also of the Angels sayd hee at any time, ✣ Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footestoole?

14 Are they not all t ministring spirits, sent forth to minister, for their sakes which shallbe heires of saluation?

1 Thereof he inferreth, that good heede must be giuen to Christes doctrine: 3 And he setteth him out vnto vs euen as our brother in our flesh, that wee may with a good will yeelde vp our selues wholy vnto him.

WHerefore z we ought diligently to giue heed to the things which a we haue heard, least at any time we b runne out.

2 For if the c word spoken by Angels was stedfast, and euery transgression, and disobedience receiued a iust recompence of reward,

3 How shall we escape if we neglect so great saluation, 2 which at the first began to be preached z Now as it were pausing with him selfe, & shewing to what end and purpose all these things were spoken, to wit, to vnderstand by the excellencie of Christ aboue all creatures, that his doctrine, maiestie from a comparison, d By the Apostles. ✣ Marke 16.20. e This is the true ende of miracles. Now they are called signes, because they appeare one thing, and represent another: and they are called wonders, because they represent some strange and vnaccustomed things and vertues, because they giue vs a glimpse of Gods mightie power.

8 If it were an hainous matter to contemne the Angels which are but seruants, much more hainous is it to contemne that most mightie King of the vttered world. f The world to come, where of Christ is Father, Esa. 9.6. or the Church which as a new world, was to be gathered to eche other by the Gospel.

g Here sheweth he that the vse of this kingly dignitie consisteth herein, that men might not onely in Christ recouer that dignitie which they haue lost, but also might be through him aduanced aboue all things, which dignitie of man Dauid describeth most excellently. ✣ Psal. 8.6. h What is there in man that thou shouldest haue so great regard of him, and doe him that honour? i He calleth all the citizens of that heauenly kingdome as they are considered in the heauens, before that God giueth them the lustre of that citie in Christ Man, and Son of man. k This is the first honour of the citizens of ȳ world to come, that they are next the Angels. l For they shall be in very great honour, when they shalbe partakers of the kingdome. And he speaketh of the thing that shalbe, as though it were already, because it is so certaine. ✣ 1. Corint. 15.27. 5 An obiection: but where is this so great rule and dominion? 6 The answere: This is already fulfilled in Iesus Christ the head, who was for a time for our sakes inferiour to the Angels, being made man: but now is aduanced into most high glory. i By his vertue and power which appeareth manifestly in the Church. ✣ Phil. 2.8. m Who abased himselfe for a season, and tooke vpon him the shape of a seruant. 7 Hee sheweth the cause of this subiection, to wit, to taste of death for our sakes, that so doing ȳ part of a redeemer, he might not onely be our Prophet & King, but also our high Priest. n That hee might die. o Feele death. 8 Herein consisteth the force of the Argument: for wee could not at length be glorified with him, vnlesse hee had beene abased for vs euen all the faithfull. And by this occasion ȳ Apostle commeth to the other part of the declaration of Christs person, wherein hee prooueth him to be in such sort God, that hee is also man. 9 Hee prooueth moreouer by other arguments, why it behooueth the Sonne of God, who is true God (as he prooueth a little before) to become man notwithstanding, subiect to all miseries, sinne onely except. p God. 10 First of all, because the Father, to whose glory all these things are to be referred, purposed to bring many sonnes vnto glory. And howe could hee haue men for his sonnes, vnlesse his onely begotte Sonne had become brother to men? 11 Secondly, The Father determined to bring those sonnes to glory, to wit, out of that ignominie wherein they lay before. Therefore the Sonne should not haue beene seene plainely to be made man, vnlesse hee had beene made like vnto other men, that he might come to glory by the selfe same way by the which he should bring other: yea rather it became him which was Prince of the saluation of other, to be consecrated aboue other, through those afflictions, Prophet, King, & Priest, which are ȳ parts of that principalitie for the saluation of other. q The Chiefetaine, who as he is chiefest in dignitie, so is hee the first begotten from among the dead, among ȳ many brethren. 12 The ground of both the former arguments: for neither should wee be sonnes through him, neither could he be consecrate through afflictions, vnlesse hee had beene made man like vnto vs. But because this Sonne hoode dependeth not vpon nature onely, for no man is accompted ȳ sonne of God, vnlesse hee haue besides that he is a sonne of a man, be he also Christs brother (which is by sanctification, that is, by becomming one with Christ), who sanctifieth vs through faith, therefore the Apostle maketh mention of the sanctifier, to wit, of Christ, & of them that are sanctified, to wit, of all the faithfull, whom therefore Christ vouchsafeth to call brethren. r He vseth the time that now is, to shew vs that we are yet still going on, and increasing in this sanctification, and by sanctification he meaneth our separation from the rest of the world, our cleansing from sinne, and our dedication wholly vnto God, all which Christ alone worketh in vs. s One, of one selfe same nature of MAN.

12 13 Saying, ✣ I will declare thy Name vnto my brethren: in the middes of the Church will I sing praises to thee.

13 14 And againe, ✣ I will put my t trust in him. And againe, ✣ u Beholde, here am I, and the children which God hath giuen me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are x partakers of flesh and blood, he also himselfe likewise tooke part with them, that hee might destroy ✣ through death, him that had ȳ power of death, that is, the z deuill,

15 And that hee might deliuer all them, which for feare of a death were all their life time subiect to bondage.

16 15 For he in no sort tooke on him the b Angels nature, but hee tooke on him the c seede of Abraham.

17 16 Wherefore in d all things it behoued him to be made like vnto his brethren, that he might be e mercifull, and a f faithfull hie Priest in things concerning God, that he might make reconciliation for the sinnes of the people.

18 For in that he suffered, and was g tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

t Saying, ✣ I will declare thy Name vnto my brethren: in the middes of the Church will I sing praises to thee. ✣ Psal. 22.23. u Behold, I and the children which the Lord hath giuen me. ✣ Esai. 8.18. x Hee applieth the same to the kingly power of Christ in deliuering his from the power of the deuill and death. ✣ Psalme 18.2. z I will commit my selfe to him, and to his defence. ✣ Esai. 8.18. a This Esai speaketh of himselfe & his disciples, but betokening thereby all ministers, as also his disciples, signifie the whole Church. And therefore seeing Christ is the head of the Prophets & ministers, these words are most rightly verified of him. b Hee applieth the same to the Prince of the Apostles, vnlesse he had become man, and that like vnto vs in all things, sinne onely except. d Not onely as touching nature, but qualities also. e That he might be truely touched with the feeling of our infirmities. f Doing his office sincerely. g Was tried and egged.

CHAP. III.

1 Now hee sheweth how farre inferiour Moses is to Christ, 5,6 euen so much as the seruant to the Master: and so he bringeth in certaine exhortations and threatnings taken out of Dauid, 8 against such as either stubbornely resist, 12 or els are very slowe to obey.

THerefore, a holy brethren, partakers of the heauenly vocation, consider the b Apostle and high Priest of our b profession Christ Iesus:

2 c Who was faithfull to him that hath c appointed him, euen as d Moses was in all his house.

3 For this man is counted worthy of more glory then Moses, inasmuch as he which had builded the house, hath more honour then the house.

4 For euery house is builded of some man, and he that hath built all things, is God.

5 f Nowe Moses verely was faithfull in all his house, as a seruant, for a witnesse of the things a Hauing layde the foundation, that is to say, declared and prooued both the natures of one selfe same Christ, hee giueth him three offices, to wit, the office of a Prophet, King, and Priest: and as touching the office of teaching and gouerning, compareth them with Moses and touching the Priesthood. And he propoundeth ȳ which he purposeth to speake of, with a most graue exhortation; that all our faith may tend to Christ, as to the onely euerlasting teacher, gouernour, and high Priest. b The Embassadour or messenger, as Rom. 15.8. he is called the minister of circumcision. b Of the doctrine of the Gospell which we professe. c He confirmeth this exhortation with two reasons, first of al, because he is called the minister of circumcision. b Of the doctrine of the Gospell which we professe. c He confirmeth this exhortation with two reasons, first of al, because executed the offices that his Father ordayned him. c Apostle and high Priest. 3 Nowe hee commeth to the comparison with Moses, and he maketh them like one to the other in this, that they were both appointed rulers ouer Gods house, and executed faithfully their office: but by and by after hee sheweth that there is great vnlikelinesse in that similitude. Num. 12.7 4 The first comparison: The builder of the house is better then the house it selfe, therefore is Christ better then Moses. The reason of the consequent is this: because the builder of this house is God, which cannot be attributed to Moses: and therefore Moses was not properly the builder, but a part of the house: But Christ as Lord and God, made all this house. f An other comparison: Moses was a faithfull seruant in this house, that is in the Church, seruing the Lord that was to come, but Christ, which made and gouerneth his house as Lord,

which should be spoken after.

6 But Christ is as the Sonne, ouer his owne house, [6] whose [d] house we are, if we hold fast that [e] confidence and that reioycing of that hope vnto the end.

7 Wherefore, as the holy Ghost saith, ✣ To day if ye [f] shall heare his voyce,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the [g] prouocation, according to the day of the tentation in the wildernesse.

9 Where your fathers tempted me, prooued me, and saw my works fourtie yeeres long.

10 Wherefore I was grieued with that generation, and said, They [h] erre euer in their heart, neither haue they knowen my wayes.

11 Therefore I sware in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest.

12 [7] Take heed, brethren, least at any time there be in any of you an euill heart, and vnfaithfull, to depart away from the liuing God.

13 But exhort one another dayly, [i] while it is called to day, least any of you be hardened through the deceitfulnesse of sinne.

14 [8] For we are made partakers of Christ, if we keepe sure vnto the end that [k] beginning, wherewith we are vpholden.

15 [l] So long as it is sayd, To day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation.

16 For some when they heard, prouoked him to anger: howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was hee displeased fourtie yeeres? Was he not displeased with them that sinned, ✣ whose carkeises fell in the wildernesse?

18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but vnto them that obeyed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in, because of vnbeliefe.

[6] He applieth the former doctrine to this end, exhorting all men by the words of Dauid to heare the Sonne himselfe speake, and to giue full credit to his wordes, seeing that otherwise they cannot enter into that eternall rest.

[e] He calleth that excellent effect of faith (whereby we crie, Abba, that is, Father) confidence, and to confidence he ioyneth hope.

✣ Psal. 95. 8.

[f] Chap. 3. 7.

[g] So that God was to speake once againe after Moses.

[h] In the day that they vexed the Lord, or prowe with him.

[i] They are brutish and madde.

[7] Now weying the words of Dauid, he sheweth first by this word, To day, that we must not neglect the occasion while we haue it: for that word is not to be restrained to Dauids time, but it comprehendeth all that time wherein God calleth vs.

[8] While to day lasteth, that is to say, so long as the Gospel is offered to vs.

[k] Now he confidereth these words, If you heare his voyce, &c. as they are to be spoken & meant of the hearing of faith, against which he sheweth hardening through vnbeliefe, [k] That beginning of truth and confidence [l] So long as this voyce soundeth out. ✣ Num. 14. 37.

CHAP. IV.

1 He ioyneth exhortation with threatning, lest they, euen as their fathers were be depriued of the rest offered vnto them, 11 but that they endeuour to enter into it. 14 And so he beginneth to intreate of Christes Priesthood.

LEt vs feare therefore, least at any time by forsaking the promise of entring into his rest, any of you should seeme to be depriued.

2 [1] For vnto vs was the Gospel preached as also vnto them: but the word that they heard, profited not them, because it was not [a] mixed with faith in those that heard it.

3 [2] For wee which haue beleeued, doe enter

[1] By these words, His voyce, he sheweth that Dauid meant the preaching of Christ, who was then also preached, for Moses and the Prophets respected none other.

[a] He compareth the preaching of the Gospel to drinke, which being drunke, that is to say, heard, profiteth nothing, vnlesse it be tempered with faith.

into rest, as he said to the other, ✣ As I haue sworne in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest: although the workes were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For hee spake in a certaine place of the seuenth day on this wise, ✣ And God did rest the seuenth day from all his works.

5 And in this place againe, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein to, and they to whom it was first preached, entred not therein for vnbeliefs sake:

7 Againe hee appointed in Dauid a certaine day, by To day, after so long a time, (saying, as it is said,) This day, if yee heare his voyce, harden not your hearts.

8 For if [b] Iesus had giuen them rest, then would he not after this haue spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

10 [c] For he that is entred into his rest, hath also ceased from his owne works, as God did from his.

11 [3] Let vs studie therefore to enter into that rest, least [d] any man fall after the same ensample of disobedience.

12 [4] For the [e] word of God is liuely, & mightie in operation, and sharper then any two edged sword, and entreth thorow, euen vnto the diuiding asunder of the [f] soule and the [b] spirit, and of the ioynts, and the marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts, and the intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature, which is not manifest in [i] his sight: but all things are naked and open vnto his eyes, with whom we haue to doe.

14 [5] Seeing then that we haue a great hie Priest, which is entred into heauen, euen Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs [k] holde fast our profession.

15 [6] For we haue not an high Priest, which can not be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but was in all things tempted in like fort, yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therefore goe boldly vnto the throne of grace, that wee may receiue mercie, and finde grace to helpe in time of neede.

[b] He speaketh of Iesus the sonne of Nun: and as the land of Canaan was a figure of our true rest, so was Iesus a figure of Christ.

[c] As God rested the seuenth day, so must we rest from our workes, that is, from such as proceede from our corrupt nature.

[3] He returneth to an exhortation.

[4] An amplification taken from the nature of the word of God, the power wherof is such, that it entreth euen to the deepest and most inward and secret parts of the heart, wounding them deadly that are stubburne, & plainly quickening the beleeuers.

[e] The doctrine of God which is preached both in the Law and in the Gospel.

[f] He calleth the word of God liuely, by reason of the effects is worketh in them, to whom it is preached.

[g] He calleth that the soule, which hath the affections resident in it.

[b] By the spirit, he meaneth that noblest part which is called the minde.

[i] In Gods sight.

[5] Now hee entreth into the comparison of Christs Priesthoode with Aarons, and declareth euen in the very beginning the marueilous excellencie of his Priesthood, calling him the Sonne of God and placing him in the seat of God in heauen, plainly and euidently setting him against Aarons Priests, and the transitorie tabernacle: which comparison he reneweth forth afterward more at large. [k] And let vs not goe out of your hands. [6] Least he might seeme by this great glory of our high Priest, to flay and stoppe vs from going vnto him, he addeth straight wayes after, yt he is notwithstanding our brother in deede (as he prooued it all to before) and that hee accounteth all our miseries, his owne, to call vs boldly to him.

CHAP V.

1 First he sheweth the duetie of the hie Priest. 5 Secondly, that Christ is appointed of God to be our hie Priest, 7 & that he hath fulfilled all things belonging thereunto.

FOr [1] euery hie Priest is taken from among men, and is ordeined for men, in things pertaining to God, [2] that he may offer both [a] gifts and [b] sacrifices for sinnes.

2 Which is [c] able sufficiently to haue compassion [d] on them that are ignorant, and that are

[1] The first part of the first comparison of Christes high Priesthood, with Aarons. Other hie Priests are taken from among men, and are called after the order of men. A The first part of the second comparison. Others as weake, are made hie Priests, to the end that feeling the same infirmitie in [e] themselues, which is in all the rest of the people, they should in their owne name offer gifts and sacrifices, which are wittesses of common sacrifice, to wit, [a] A Offering of things without life. [b] Beasties which were afterward be offered. [c] Fit and meete. [d] Actually in the sacrifices for sinnes and offences. [e] Fit and meete, why it must needes be one which [f] Lord pigeon, otherwise he could not [g] abernacle and the sacrifice

e For that he himselfe heareth about with him a nature subiect to the same discommodities and vices.
* 1. Chro. 13, 10. and 13, 13.
3 The third comparison which is whole. The others are called of God, and so was Christ, but in another order then Aaron: for Christ is called the Sonne, begotten of God, and a Priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.
✣ Psal. 2, 7. chap. 1, 5.
v Psal. 110, 4. chap. 7, 17.
f After the likenes or maner as it is afterward declared.
Chap. 7, 15.
4 The other part of the second comparison: Christ being exceedingly afflicted and exceedingly mercifull, asked, not for his sinnes, for he had none, but for his feare, and obteined his request, and offered himselfe for all his.
g While he lived here with us, in our weake and fraile nature.
h To deliver him frō death; He learned out of the way, because that he also is e compassed with infirmitie,

3 And for the same sake he is bound to offer for sinnes, aswel for his owne part, as for ŷ peoples.

4 ✣ 3 And no man taketh this honor vnto himselfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ tooke not to himselfe this honour, to be made the hie Priest, but he that sayd vnto him, ✣ Thou art my sonne, this day begate I thee, gaue it him.

6 As he also in another place speaketh, v Thou art a Priest for euer, after the f order of Melchi-sedec.

7 4 Who in the g dayes of his flesh did offer vp prayers and supplications, with strong crying and teares vnto him, that was able to ✣ saue him from death, and was also heard in that which he feared.

8 And though he were the Sonne, yet i learned he obedience, by the things which he suffered.

9 5 And being k consecrate, was made the author of eternall saluation vnto all them that obey him:

10 And is called of God an high Priest after the order of Melchi-sedec.

11 6 Of whom wee haue many things to say, which are hard to be vttered, because yee are dull of hearing.

12 7 For when as concerning the time, ye ought to be teachers, yet haue ye neede againe that wee teach you what are the first principles of the word of God: and are become such as haue neede of milke, and not of strong meate.

13 For euery one that vseth milke, is inexpert in the l word of righteousnesse: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meate belongeth to them that are of age, which through long custome haue their m wits exercised, to discerne both good and euill.

indeed what it is to haue a Father, whom a man must obey.
5 The other part of the first comparison: But Christ was consecrate of God the Father as the author of our saluation, & an hie Priest for euer, & therefore he is so a man, that notwithstanding he is farabone all men. k Luke chap. 2, 10.
6 A digression, vntill he come to the beginning of the seuenth chapter: wherein hee partly holdeth the Hebrewes in the diligent consideration of those things which he hath sayd & partly prepareth them to ŷ vnderstanding of those things whereof he will speake.
7 An example of an Apostolike chiding. l In the word which teacheth righteousnes, in All their power whereby they vnderstand and iudge.

CHAP. VI.

1 He briefly toucheth the childish slouthfulnesse of the Hebrewes, 4 and terrifieth them with seuere threatnings: 7 He stirreth them vp to endeuour in time to go forward: 9 He hopeth well of them: 13 He alledgeth Abrahams examples: 17 and comforteth faith that taketh holde of the word, 19 who an ancre.

THerefore, leauing the doctrine of the a beginning of Christ, let vs be led forward vnto perfection, not laying againe ŷ foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptismes, and laying on of handes, and of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternall iudgement.

3 And this will we doe if God permit,

4 ✣ ✣ For it is b impossible that they which were once lightened, and haue c tasted of the heauenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost,

5 And haue tasted of the good word of God, and of the powers of the world to come,

6 If they fall away, should be renued againe by repentance; seeing they d crucifie againe to themselues the Sonne of God, & make a mocke of him.

7 3 For the earth which drinketh in the raine that commeth oft vpon it, & bringeth forth herbs meete for them by whom it is dressed, receiueth blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes and briars, is reprooued, and is neere vnto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

9 4 But beloued, we haue perswaded our selues better things of you, and such as accompany saluation, though we thus speake.

10 5 For God is not vnrighteous, that he should forget your worke, and labour of loue, which yee shewed toward his Name, in that ye haue ministred vnto the Saints, and yet minister.

11 And wee desire that euery one of you shew the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope vnto the end,

12 6 That ye be not slouthfull, but followers of them, which through faith and patience, inherit the promises.

13 7 For when God made the promise to Abraham, because he had no greater to sweare by, hee sware by himselfe,

14 Saying, ✣ Surely I will e abundantly blesse thee, and multiply thee marueilously.

15 And so after that he had tarried patiently, he enioyed the promise.

16 For men verely sweare by him that is greater then themselues, and an oathe for confirmation is among them an end of all strife.

17 So God, willing more f abundantly to shew vnto the heires of promise the stablenesse of his counsell, bound himselfe by an oathe,

18 That by two immutable things, wherein it is vnpossible that God should lie, wee might haue strong consolation, which haue our refuge to lay holde vpon that hope that is set before vs,

19 8 Which hope wee haue, as an ancre of the soule, but sure and stedfast, and it entreth into that which is within the vaile,

20 9 Whither the forerunner is for vs entred in, euen Iesus that is made an hie Priest for euer after the order of Melchi sedec.

4 As men that hate Christ, and as though they crucified him againe, make him a mocking stocke to all the world, and that to their owne destruction, as Iulian the Apostata or backslider did.
5 He setteth forth the former threatning with a similitude.
6 Hee mitigateth and aswageth all that sharpnesse, hoping better of them to whom he writeth.
7 He praiseth them for their charitie, thereby encouraging them to goe forward, and to holde out to the ende.
8 Hee inferreth what vertues chiefly they haue neede of to goe forward constantly, and also to profite in wit, of charitie, and patience: and least any man should obiect, and say, that these things are impossible to be done, he willeth them to set before themselues the examples of their ancestors, and to follow them.
9 Another pricke to prike them forward: Because the hope of the inheritance is certaine, if we continue to the end, for God hath not onely promised it, but also promised it with an oathe.
✣ Gene. 22, 17.
e I will heape vp benefits most plentifully vpon thee.
f More then was needfull, yet is it not for the wickednesse of men which beleeue not God, no though he sweare. 8 He likeneth hope to an ancre: because that euen as an ancre being cast into the bottome of the sea, stayeth the whole ship, so doeth hope also enter euen into the very secret places of heauen. And he maketh mention of the Sanctuary, alluding to the old tabernacle, & by this meanes returneth with to the comparisons of the Priesthood of Christ with the Leuitical.
9 Hee repeateth Dauids wordes, wherein all those comparisons whereof he hath before made mention, are signified, as he declareth in all the next chapter.

CHAP. VII.

1 He hath hitherto stirred them vp, to marke diligently what things are to be considered in Melchi-sedec. 15 Wherein he is like vnto Christ. 20 Wherefore the Law should giue place to the Gospel.

FOr this Melchi-sedec, was King of Salem, the Priest of the most high God, who met Abraham, as he returned from ŷ slaughter of ŷ Kings, and a blessed him:

2 To whom also Abraham gaue the tithe of all things: who first is by interpretation King of righteousnesse; after that, he is also King of Salem, that is, King of peace, the faithfull, which fall from God and his religion. * Chapter 10, 26. matth. 12, 45. the time that now is. He speaketh of a generall backsliding, and such as doe altogether this sanctification. and ...ch, & not of sinnes which are committed through the frailtie of the world, our cleansing ...first and the second table. c We must marke the force of which Christ alone worke ...he thing to beleeue as Lydia did, whose heart God opened, ...ter thing to haue some talke.

1 Declaring those words, According to the order of Melchi-sedec, wherevpon that comparison standeth of the Priesthood of Christ with the Leuiticall: first Melchisedec himselfe is considered as the figure of Christ, and then of the heades of that comparison, Melchisedec was a King and a Priest: and such an one in deede is Christ alone. He was a King of peace and righteousnesse: such an one in deed is Christ alone. ✣ Gene. 14, 18. a With a solemne and Priestly blessing.

a An other figure: Melchisedec set before vs to be considered as one without beginning and without ending, for neither his father, nor his mother nor his ancestors, nor his death are written of: and such an one indeede is the Sonne of God, to wit, an euerlasting Priest: as hee is God, without mother wonderfully begotten: as he is man, without father wonderfully conceiued.

3 2 Without father, without mother, without kinred, and hath neither beginning of his dayes, neither end of life: but is likened vnto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for euer.

4 3 Nowe consider how great this man was, vnto whom euen the Patriarke Abraham gaue the tithe of the spoiles.

5 For verely they which are the children of Leui, which receiue the office of the Priesthood, haue a ✣ commandement to take, according to the Law, tithes of the people (that is, of their brethren) though they b came out of the loynes of Abraham.

6 But hee whose kinred is not counted among them, receiued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And c without all contradiction the lesse is blessed of the greater.

8 And here men that die, receiue tithes: but there he receiueth them, of whom it is witnessed, that he liueth.

9 4 And to say as the thing is, Leui also which receiueth tithes, payeth tithes in Abraham.

10 For hee was yet in the loines of his father Abraham, when Melchi-sedec met him.

11 5 If therefore d perfection had beene by the Priesthood of the Leuites (for vnder it the Lawe was established to the people) what needed it furthermore, that another Priest should rise after the order of Melchi-sedec, and not to be called after the order of Aaron?

12 6 For if the Priesthood be changed, then of necessitie must there be a charge of the e Law.

13 For hee of whom these things are spoken, pertaineth vnto another tribe, whereof no man f serued at the altar.

14 For it is euident, that our Lord sprung out of Iuda, concerning the which tribe Moses spake nothing, touching the Priesthood.

15 7 And it is yet a more euident thing, because that after the similitude of Melchi-sedec there is risen vp another Priest, 16 8 Which is not made Priest after the g Law of the carnall commandement, but after the power of the endlesse life.

17 For hee testifieth thus, ✣ Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.

18 9 For the h commandement that went afore, is disanulled, because of the weaknesse thereof, and vnprofitablenesse.

19 For the Law made nothing perfite, but the bringing in of a better hope made perfite, whereby we draw neere vnto God.

20 10 And forasmuch as it is not without an oathe (for these are made Priests without an oathe:

21 But this is made with an oathe by him that sayd vnto him, ✣ The Lord hath sworne, and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchi-sedec)

22 By so much is Iesus made a suerty of a better Testament.

23 11 And among them many were made Priests, because they were not suffered to endure, by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because hee endureth euer, hath a Priesthood, which i cannot passe from one to another.

25 Wherefore, hee is k able also perfectly to saue them that come vnto God by him, seeing hee euer liueth to make intercession for them.

26 12 For such an hie Priest it became vs to haue, which is holy, harmelesse, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher then the heauens:

27 Which needeth not dayly as those hie Priests to offer vp sacrifice, ✣ first for his owne sinnes, and then for the peoples: 13 for I that did bee m once, when he offered vp himselfe.

28 For the Law maketh men hie Priests, which haue infirmitie: but the n word of the oathe (a that o was since the Lawe, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for euermore.

2 Hee briefly reciteth that, where vnto all these things are to be referred, to wit, that wee haue a farre other high Priest then those Leuiticall high Priests are, euen an one as sitteth at the right hand of the most high God in heauen.

3 They of Leui were high Priestes in an earthly sanctuary beauenly. a Of heauen. 3 They of Leui exercised their tabernacle, but Christ beareth about with him a farre other tabernacle, to wit, body which God himselfe made to be euerlasting, as it shal afterward be declared, chap. 9. 11. But his body. 4 He bringeth a reason why it must needes be so Christ should haue a bodie (which he calleth a tabernacle which y Lord pight, not man) to wit, that he might haue what to offer: for otherwise he could not as high Priest. And the selfe same body is both the tabernacle and the sacrifice

9 Againe, that no man might obiect that the last Priesthood was added to make a perfite one, by the coupling of them both together, hee prooueth that the first was abrogated by the latter, as vnprofitable, and that by the nature of them both. For how could those corporall and transitorie things sanctifie vs, either of themselues, or being ioyned with another? b The ceremoniall lawe.

10 Another argument whereby hee prooueth that the Priesthoode of Christ is better then the Priesthood of Leui, because it was established with an oathe, but theirs was not so. ✣ Psal. 110, 4.

11 An other argument tending to the same purpose. The Leuiticall Priests (as mortall men) could not be euerlasting, but Christ as he is euerlasting, so hath he also an euerlasting Priesthood, making most effectuall intercession for them which by him come vnto God. i Which cannot passe away. k Hee is sit and meet. 12 Another argument: There are required in an hie Priest innocencie and perfect pureneſſe, which may separate him from sinners for whom hee offereth. But the Leuiticall hie Priestes shall not he found to be such, for they offer first for their owne sinnes: But Christ onely is such a one, and therefore the true and onely hie Priest. ✣ Leuiticus 16, 11. 13 An other argument which notwithstanding hee handleth afterward: The Leuiticall Priestes offered sacrifice after sacrifice, first for themselues, and then for the people. But Christ offered not for himselfe, but for others, not sacrifices, but himselfe, not oftentimes, but once. And this ought not to seeme strange, sayth he, forasmuch as they are weake, but this man is consecrated an euerlasting Priest, and that by an oathe. l That sacrifice which hee offered. m It was so done, that it needeth not to be repeated or offered againe any more. n The commandement of God which was bound with an oathe. 14 Another argument taken of the time: former things are taken away by the latter. o Exhibited.

CHAP. VIII.

1 To proone more certainely that the ceremonies of the Law are abrogated. 5 hee sheweth that they were appointed to serue the heauenly patterne. 8 He bringeth in the place of Ieremie, 13 to proone the amendment of the olde couenant.

1 NOwe a of the things which wee haue spoken, this is the summe, that wee haue such an high Priest, that sitteth at the right hand of the throne of the Maiestie in heauens,

2 2 And is a minister of the a Sanctuary, 3 and of that b true Tabernacle which the Lord pight, and not man.

3 4 For euery high Priest is ordeined to offer both gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it was of necessitie, that this man should haue somewhat also to offer.

5 Hee giueth a reason why he said that our hie Priest is in the heauenly sanctuary, and not in the earthly: because, saith he, if he were now on the earth hee could not minister in the earthly sanctuarie, seeing, there are yet Leuiticall Priestes, which are appointed for him, that is to say, to be paternes of that perfite example. And to what purpose should the paternes serue when the true and originall example is present.
✣ Exod. 25. 40. Actes 7, 44.

6 He entreth into the comparison of the olde and transitorie Testament or couenant being but for a time, whereof the Leuiticall Priests were mediatours, with the new, the euerlasting Mediatour whereof is Christ, to shew that this is not onely better then that in all respects, but also that that was abrogated by this.

7 He proueth by the testimonie of Jeremie, that there is a second Testament or couenant, and therefore that the first was not perfite.

a Iere. 31, 31, 32. 33, 34. vom. 11. 27. chap 10, 16. b He calleth it an house, as if ouere one famitie of the whole kingdome: for whereas the kingdome of Dauid was diuided into two factions, the Prophet giueth vs to vnderstand that through the new Testament they shalbe ioyned together againe in one. 8 The conclusion: Therefore by the latter and the newe, the first and olde is taken away, for it could not be called new if it differed not from y old. And againe that same is at length taken away, which is subiect to corruption, and therefore imperfect.

CHAP. IX.

a Comparing the forms of the Tabernacle, to and the ceremonies of the Law, 11 vnto the truethi ist out in Christ, 15 he concludeth that how there is no more needs of an other Priest, 24 because Christ himselfe had fulfilled these dueties vnder the new couenant.

THen 1 the first Testament had also ordinances of religion, and a a worldly Sanctuary.

2 For the first Tabernacle was made, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread, which Tabernacle is called the Holy places,

3 And after the b second vaile was the Tabernacle, which is called the c Holiest of all,

4 Which had the golden censer, and the Arke of the Testament ouerlaid round about with gold, wherein the golden pot, which had Manna was, and ▽ Aarons rod that had budded, and the ✲ tables of the Testament.

5 ✲ And ouer the Arke were the glorious Cherubims, shadowing the d mercie seate: of which things we will not now speake particularly.

1 A diuision of the first Tabernacle which hee calleth worldly, that is to say, transitorie and earthly into two parts, to wit, into the holy places and the Holiest of all.
a An earthly and a flitting.
b He calleth it the second vaile, not because there were two vailes, but because it was betweene the Sanctuarie of the Tabernacle.
c Which is called a holyer Sanctuary. ▽ Numb 7, 10. ✲ 1 King 8. 9. 2 chron 5, 9. ✣ Exo. 25, 22. d The Hebrewes call the couer of the Arke of the couenant, the mercie seate, which both the Greekins and we follow.

6 2 Now when these things were thus ordained, the Priests went alwayes into the first Tabernacle, and accomplished the seruice.

7 But into the second went the ✣ hie Priest alone, once euery yeere, not without blood which he offered for himselfe, and for the e ignorances of the people.

8 3 Whereby the holy Ghost this signified, that the way into the Holiest of all was not yet opened, while as yet the first tabernacle was standing.

9 4 Which was a figure f for that present time, wherein were offered gifts & sacrifices that could not make holy, concerning the conscience, him that did the seruice,

10 5 Which onely stood in meates and drinkes, and diuers washings, and carnall rites, 6 which were enioyned, vntill the time of reformation.

11 6 But Christ being come an high Priest of good things to come, 7 by a g greater and a more perfect Tabernacle, not made with handes, that is, not of this building, 12 8 Neither by the blood of i goates and calues: but by his owne blood entred hee in once vnto the holy place, & obteined eternall redemption for vs.

13 ✣ 9 For if the blood of bulles and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling them that are vncleane, k sanctifieth as touching the k purifying of the flesh,

14 How much more shall the ▽ blood of Christ which through the eternall Spirit offered himselfe without fault to God, ✲ purge your conscience from l dead workes, to serue the liuing God?

15 And for this cause is he the Mediatour of

2 Now he commeth to the sacrifices which he diuideth into those daily sacrifices, and that yearely and solemne sacrifice, with the which the high Priest onely, but once euery yeere entring into the Holiest of all with blood, offered for himselfe and the people.
✣ Exod. 30, 10. Leuit. 16, 2.
e For the sinnes. Looke Chap. 5. 2.
3 Of that yeerely rite and ceremonie hee gathereth that the way was not by such sacrifices opened into heauen, which was shadowed by the Holiest of all: For why did the hie Priest alone enter in thither, shutting out all other, and that to offer sacrifices there both for himselfe and for others, and after did shut the Holiest of all againe?
✣ An obiection: If the way were not opened into heauen by those sacrifices (that is to say, If the worshippers were not purged by them) why then were those ceremonies vsed? to wit, that men might be called backe to that spirituall example, that is to say, to Christ, who should correct all those things at his comming. f For that time that that figure had to last.

4 An other reason why they could not make cleane the conscience of the worshipper, to wit, because they were outward and carnall or corporall things. g For they were as you would say a burden, from which Christ deliuered vs. 6 Now hee entreth into the declaration of the figures, and first of all comparing the Leuiticall high Priest with Christ, (that is to say, the figure with the thing it selfe) hee attributeth to Christ the administration of good things to come, that is, euerlasting, which those carnall things had respect vnto. 7 An other comparison of the first corruptible Tabernacle with the latter (that is to say, with the humane nature of Christ) which is the true incorruptible Temple of God, wherein into the Sonne of GOD entred, as the Leuiticall high Priestes into the other which was frayle and transitorie. h By a more excellent and better. 8 An other comparison of the blood of the sacrifices with Christ. The Leuiticall high Priestes entring by those their holy places into their Sanctuary, offered corruptible blood for one yeere onely: but Christ entring into that holy bodie of his, entred by it into heauen it selfe, offering his owne most pure blood for an euerlasting redemption: For one selfe same Christ answereth both to the hie Priest, and the Tabernacle, and the sacrifices, and the offerings themselues, as the truth to the figures, for that Christ is both the high Priest, and Tabernacle, & Sacrifice, yea, all these both truely and for euer. i For in this yeerely sacrifice of reconciliation, there were two kindes of sacrifices, the one a goate, the other a heifer, or calfe. ✣ Leuiticus 16, 14. Numbers 19, 4. 9 If the outward sprinkling of blood and ashes of beastes, was a true and effectuall figure of purifying & cleansing, how much more shall the thing it selfe and the truth being perfect, which in times past was shadowed by those externall Sacraments, that is to say, his blood, which is not such sort mans blood, that is also the blood of the Son of God, and therefore hath an euerlasting vertue of purifying and cleansing, due to it? k Hee considereth the figures apart, being seperate from the thing it selfe.
▽ 1 Peter 1, 19. 1 John 1, 7 Reuelation 1, 5 ✲ Luke 1, 74. l From sinnes which proceede from death, and bring foorth nothing but death 10 The conclusion of the former argument: therefore seeing the blood of beastes did not purge sinnes, the newe testament which was before time promised, wherevnto those outward things had respect, is now indeede established, by the vertue whereof all transgressions might be taken away, and heauen indeede opened vnto vs: whereof it followeth that Christ shed his blood also for the Fathers. For hee was shadowed by those olde ceremonies, otherwise, vnlesse they had serued to represent him, they had beene nothing at all profitable. Therefore this Testament is called the latter, not as concerning the vertue of it, (that is to say, remission of sinnes) but in respect of that time, wherein the thing it selfe was finished, that is to say, wherein Christ was indeede exhibited to the worlde, & fulfilled all things which were necessary to our saluation.

✣ Rom. 5, 6. 1. Pet. 3, 18.

the new Testament, that through ✣ death which was for the redemption of the transgressions that were in the former Testament, they which were called, might receive the promise of eternall inheritance.

16 11 For where a Testament is, there must be the death of him that made the Testament.

17 ✣ For the Testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no force as long as he that made it, is aliue.

18 12 Wherefore, neither was the first ordeined without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken euery precept to the people, [m] according to the Law, he tooke the blood of calues and of goates, with water and purple woull and hyssope, and [n] sprinkled both the booke, and all the people,

20 ✣ Saying, This is the blood of the Testament, which God hath appointed vnto you.

21 Moreouer, he sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the ministring vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessarie, that the [o] similitudes of heauenly things should be purified with such things: but the heauenly things themselues are purified with better sacrifices then are these.

24 13 For Christ is not entred into the holy places that are made with handes, which are similitudes of the true Sanctuarie: but is entred into very heauen, to appeare now in the sight of God for vs.

25 14 Not that he should offer himselfe of ten, as the high Priest entred into the Holy place euery yeere with other blood.

26 15 (For then must he haue often suffred since the foundation of the world) but now in the [p] end of the world hath he bene made manifest, once to put away [q] sinne by the sacrifice of himselfe.

27 And as it is appointed vnto men that they shall [r] once die, and after that commeth the iudgement:

28 So ✣ Christ was once offered to take away the sinnes of [s] many, 16 and vnto them that looke for him, shall hee appeare the second time without sinne vnto saluation.

CHAP. X.

1 He proueth that the sacrifices of the Law were vnperfit, 2 because they were yeerely renewed. 5 But that the sacrifice of Christ is one, and perpetuall, 6 he proueth by Dauids testimonie: 19 Then he addeth an exhortation, 29 and seuerely threatneth them that reiect the grace of Christ. 36 In the end he praiseth patience, 38 that commeth of faith.

FOr 1 the law hauing the shadow of good things to [a] come, & not the very image of the things, can neuer with those sacrifices, which they offer yeere by yeere continually, sanctifie the commers thereunto.

2 For would they not then haue ceased to haue bene offred, because that the offerers once purged should haue had no more conscience of sinnes?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of sinnes euery yeere.

4 For it is vnpossible that the blood of bulles and goates should take away sinnes.

5 2 Wherefore when he [b] commeth into the world, he saith, ✣ Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not: but a [c] bodie hast thou ordained me.

6 In burnt offerings, and sinne offerings thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then I said, Loe, I come (in the beginning of the booke it is written of me) that I should do thy will, O God.

8 Aboue, when he said, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt offerings, and sinne offrings, thou wouldest not haue, neither hadst pleasure therein (which are offered by the Law)

9 Then said hee, Loe, I come to doe thy will, O God, he taketh away the [d] first, that he may stablish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified, euen by the offring of the body of Iesus Christ once made.

11 3 And euery Priest [e] standeth dayly ministring, and oft times offereth one maner of offering, which can neuer take away sinnes:

12 But this man after he had offered one sacrifice for sinnes, ✣ sitteth for euer at the right hand of God.

13 4 And from henceforth tarieth ✣ till his enemies be made his foote stoole.

14 For with one offering hath he consecrated for euer them that are sanctified.

15 5 For the holy Ghost also beareth vs record: for after that he had said before,

16 ✣ This is the Testament that I will make

1 Hee preuenteth a priuy obiection, Why then were those sacrifices offered? The Apostle answereth, first touching that priuely sacrifice which was the solemnest of all, wherein (saith he) there was made euery yeere a remembrance againe of all former sinnes. Therefore that sacrifice had no power to sanctifie: for to what purpose should those sinnes which are purged be repeated againe, and wherefore should new sinnes come to be repeated euery yeere, if those sacrifices did abolish sinne?

a Of things which are euerlasting, which were promised to the Fathers, and exhibited in Christ.

2 A conclusion following of those things that went before, and comprehending also the other sacrifices. Seeing that the sacrifices of the Law could not doe it, therefore Christ speaking of himselfe as of our high Priest manifested in the flesh, witnesseth suddenly that God resteth not in the sacrifices, but in the obedience of his Sonne our high Priest, in which

b The Sonne of God.

✣ Psal. 40. 7. c It is word for word in the Hebrew text, Thou hast pearsed mine eares thorow, that is, thou hast made me obedient, and willing to heare.

d That is, the sacrifices, to establish the second, that is, the will of God.

3 A conclusion, with the other parts of the comparison. The Leuitical high Priest repeateth the same sacrifices dayly in his sanctuarie: Wereupon it followeth that neither those sacrifices, neither those offrings, neither those high Priests could take away sinnes. But Christ, hauing offered one sacrifice once for the sinnes of all men, & hauing sanctified his owne for euer, sitteth at the right hand of the Father, hauing all power in his handes.

4 He preuenteth a priuie obiection, to wit, that yet notwithstanding we are subiect to sinne & death, wherevnto the Apostle answereth, that the full efficacie of Christs vertue hath not yet shewed it selfe, but shall at length appeare when hee will at once put to shame all his enemies, with whom as yet we striue.

✣ Chapter 1, 13. Although there bee yet remaine in vs reliques of sinne, yet the worke of our sanctification which is to be perfected, hangeth vpon the selfe same sacrifice which neuer shallbe repeated: and that the Apostle prooueth by alledging againe ✣ testimonies of Ieremie, that Sinne is taken away by the new Testament, seeing the Lord saith that it shal come to passe, that according to the forme of it, he will no more remember our sinnes. Therefore we neede now no purging sacrifice to take away that which is already taken away, but we must rather take paines, that we may now through faith be partakers of that sacrifice.

vnto them after those dayes, sayth the Lord, I will put my Laws in their heart, and in their mindes I will write them.

17 And their sinnes and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Nowe where remission of these things is, there is no more offering for sinne.

19 [6] Seeing therefore, brethren, that by the blood of Iesus we may be bolde to enter into the Holy place,

20 By the new and liuing way, which he hath prepared for vs, through the vaile, that is, his flesh:

21 And seeing we haue an high Priest, which is ouer the house of God.

22 [7] Let vs draw neere with a true heart in assurance of faith, our hearts being pure from an euill conscience.

23 And washed in our bodies with pure water, let vs keepe the profession of our hope, without wauering, (for he is faithfull that promised,)

24 And let vs consider one another, to prouoke vnto loue, and to good workes,

25 Not forsaking the fellowship that wee haue among our selues, as the maner of some is, but let vs exhort one another, & that so much the more, because ye see that the day draweth neere.

26 For if we sinne wilfully after that wee haue receiued and acknowledged that trueth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sinnes, 27 But a fearefull looking for of iudgement, and violent fire, which shall deuoure the aduersaries.

28 [9] He that despiseth Moses Law, dieth without mercy vnder two, or three witnesses:

29 Of how much sorer punishment suppose yee shall hee be worthy, which treadeth vnder foote the Sonne of God, and counteth the blood of the Testament as an vnholy thing, wherewith hee was sanctified, and doeth despite the Spirit of grace?

30 [10] For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth vnto mee: I will recompense, saith the Lord. And againe, The Lord shall iudge his people.

31 It is a fearefull thing to fall into the hands of the liuing God.

32 [11] Now call to remembrance the dayes that are passed, in the which, after yee had receiued light, ye indured a great fight in afflictions,

33 Partly while ye were made a gazing stock both by reproches and afflictions, and partly while ye became companions of them which were so tossed to and fro.

34 For both yee sorrowed with mee for my bondes, and suffered with ioy the spoyling of your goods, knowing in your selues how that ye haue in heauen a better, and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence which hath great recompense of reward.

36 For ye haue neede of patience, that after yee haue done the will of God, ye might receiue the promise.

37 For yet a very little while, and he that shall come, will come, and will not tarie.

38 [12] Now the iust shall liue by faith: but if any withdraw himselfe, my soule shall haue no pleasure in him.

39 But wee are not they which withdrawe our selues vnto perdition, but follow faith vnto the conseruation of the soule.

CHAP. XI.

1 Hee declareth in the whole Chapter, that the Fathers, which from the beginning of the world were approoued of God, attained saluation no other way then by faith, that the Iewes may know that by the same onely, they are knit vnto the Fathers in an holy vnion.

NOwer faith is the ground of things which are hoped for, and the euidence of things which are not seene.

2 For by it our elders were well reported of.

3 [3] Through faith wee vnderstand that the world was ordeined by the word of God, so that the things which we see, are not made of things which did appeare.

4 [4] By faith Abel offered vnto God a greater sacrifice then Cain, by the which he obtained witnesse that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: by the which faith also he being dead, yet speaketh.

5 [5] By faith was Enoch translated, that he should not see death: neither was he found: for God had translated him: for before he was translated, he was reported of, that he had pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that commeth to God, must beleeue that God is, and that he is a rewarder of them that seeke him.

7 [6] By faith Noe being warned of God of the things which were as yet not seene, moued with reuerence, prepared the Arke to the sauing of his houshold, through which Arke he condemned the world, and was made heire of the righteousnesse, which is by faith.

8 [7] By faith Abraham, when he was called, obeyed God, to goe out into a place, which he should afterward receiue for inheritance, and hee went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he abode in the land of promise, as in a strange countrey, as one that dwelt in tents with Isaac and Iacob heires with him of the same promise.

10 For he looked for a city hauing a foundation, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith Sara also receiued strength to conceiue seede, and was deliuered of a childe when she was past age, because shee iudged him faithfull which had promised.

12 And therefore sprang thereof one, euen of one which was dead, so many as the starres of the skie in multitude, and as the sand of the sea shore which is innumerable.

13 All these died in faith, and receiued not

f Why then, where is the fire of Purgatorie, and that Popish distinction of the fault and the punishment?

g He said well, for sinne: for there remaineth another offering, to wit, of thanksgiuing.

6 The summe of the former treatise: We are not shut out now of the holy place, as the Fathers were, but we haue an entrance into the true holy place (that is, into heauen) seeing that we are purged with the blood not of beasts, but of Iesus. Neither as in times past, doeth the hie Priest thus vse vs by setting the vaile against vs, but through the vaile, which is his flesh, hee hath brought vs into heauen it selfe being present with vs, in that wee haue now truely an high Priest, which is ouer the house of God.

h So Christs flesh sheweth vs the Godhead as it were vnder a vaile, for otherwise we were not able to abide the brightnes of it.

7 A most graue exhortation, wherein he sheweth how that sacrifice of Christ may be applied to vs: to wit, by faith, which also he describeth by the consequents, to wit, by sanctification of the Spirit, which causeth vs surely to hope in God, and to procure by all meanes possible one another saluation, through he loue that is vs one towards another.

i With no double and counterfeit heart, but with such an heart as is truely and indeede giuen to God. k That is it which the Lord saith, Be yee holy, for I am holy. 8 Hauing mentioned the last comming of Christ, he stirreth vp the godly to the meditation of an holy life, and citeth the faithlesse fallers from God, to the fearefull iudgement seat of the iudge, because they wickedly reiected him in whom onely saluation consisteth. Chap. 6. 4.

m Without any cause or occasion, or show of occasion. n For it is another matter to sinne through the frailtie of mans nature, & another thing to proclaime warre as it were to God as to an enemie. 9 If the breach of the Law of Moses was punished by death, how much more worthy death is it to fall away from Christ? Deut. 19. 15. Mat. 18. 16. Iob. 8, 17. 2. cor. 13, 1. 10 The reason of all these things is, because God is a reuenger of such as dispise him: otherwise he should not rightly gouerne his Church. Now there is nothing more horrible then the wrath of the liuing God. Deut. 32. 35. Rom. 12. 19. o Rule or gouerne. 11 As he terrifieth the fallers away from God, so doeth hee now comfort them that are constant and stand stroogly, setting before them the successe of their former fights, so stirring them vp to a sure hope of a full and readie victorie. p You were brought forth to be scorned. q In taking their miseries, to be your miseries.

r Goods and riches.

s He will come within this very little while.

Habak. 2, 4. Rom. 1. 17. Gal. 3, 11. 2. 11. He commendeth the excellency of a sure faith by the effects, because it is the onely way to life, which sentence he setteth foorth and amplifieth by setting he contrary against it.

1 An excellent description of faith by the effects, because it representeth things which are but yet in hope, and setteth as it were before our eyes things that are inuisible.

2 He sheweth that the Fathers ought to be accounted of, by this vertue.

a That is, those Fathers of whom we came: and whose authoritie and example ought to moueue vs very much.

Gen. 1, 1. Iohn 1, 10.

3 He sheweth the propriety of faith, by setting out vnto vs most liked examples of such as from the beginning of the world excelled in the Church.

b This is the figure Metonymie, for the things promised.
i For the Patriarks were wont when they receiued the promises, to profesie their religion, by building of aultars, and calling on the name of the Lord.

the b promises, but sawe them afarre off, and beleeued them, and i receiued them thankefully, and confessed that they were straungers and pilgrimes on the earth.

14 For they that say such things, declare plainly, that they seeke a countrey.

15 And if they had beene mindfull of that countrey, from whence they came out, they had leasure to haue returned.

16 But now they desire a better, that is an heauenly: wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a citie.

17 By faith ✣ Abraham offered vp Isaac, when he was tryed, and he that had receiued the promises, offered his onely begotten sonne.

18 (To whom it was said, ✣ In Isaac shall thy seed be called.)

19 For hee considered that God was able to raise him vp euen from the dead: from m whence he receiued him also after n a sort.

20 By faith ✣ Isaac blessed Iacob and Esau, concerning things to come.

21 By faith ✲ Iacob when he was a dying blessed both the sonnes of Ioseph, and ✲ leaning on the end of his staffe, worshipped God.

22 By faith* Ioseph when hee dyed, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, and gaue commandement of his bones.

23 By faith ✣ Moses when he was borne, was hidthree moneths of his parents, because they saw hee was a proper childe, neither o feared they the kings ✣ commandement.

24 By faith ✣ Moses when he was come to age, refused to be called the sonne of Pharaohs daughter,

25 And chose rather to suffer aduersitie with the people of God, then to enioy the p pleasures of sinne for a season,

26 Esteeming the rebuke of Christ greater riches, then the treasures of Egypt: for hee had respect vnto the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith he forsooke Egypt, and feared not the fierceneslie of the king: for he endured, as hee that saw him which is inuisible.

28 Through faith he ordained the ✲ Passeouer and the effusion of blood, least hee that destroyed the first borne, should touch them.

31 By faith the q harlot ✣ Rahab perished not with them which obey ed not, when ✣ she had receiued the spies r peaceably.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would be too short for me to tell of s Gedeon, of ✲ Barac, and of ✲ Sampson, and of * Iephte, also of Dauid, and Samuel, and of the Prophets:

33 Which through faith subdued kingdomes, wrought righteousnesse, obtained the t promises, stopped the mouthes of lyons,

34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sworde, of weake were made strong, waxed valiant in battell, turned to flight the armies of the aliants.

35 The u women receiued their dead raised to life: other also were x racked, and would not be deliuered, that they might receiue a better resurrection.

36 And others haue beene tryed by mockings and scourgings, yea, moreouer by bonds, and prisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were hewen asunder, they were tempted, they were slaine with the sword, they wandred vp and downe in z sheepes skinnes, and in goates skinnes, being destitute, afflicted, and tormented:

38 Whom the world was not worthie of: they wandered in wildernesses and mountaines, and dennes, and caues of the earth.

39 16 And these all through faith obtained good report, and receiued y not the promise.

‡ The conclusion, we muſt goe forward courageiouſly and keepe alwayes a right courſe, and (as farre forth as we may) without any ſtaggering or ſtumbling.

d The deſcription of a man that is ouercome of heart and cleane diſcouraged.

e Keepe a right courſe, and ſo, that you ſhew example of chriſtian life for others to follow.

9 We muſt liue in peace, and holineſſe with all men.

10 We muſt ſtudie to edifie one another, both in doctrine and example of life.

f That no herſie, or backeſliding be an offence.

11 We muſt eſchew fornication, and a profane mind, that is, ſuch a mind, as giueth not to God his due honour, which wickednes how feuerely God will at length puniſh, the horrible example of Eſau teacheth vs.

g There was no place left for his repentance: and it appeareth by the effects, what his repentance was, for when he was gone out of his fathers ſight, he threatned his brother to kill him.

12 Now he applieth the ſame exhortation, to the Prophetical and kingly office of Chriſt compared with Moſes, after this ſort, If the maieſtie of the Lawe was ſo great, how great thinke you that the glorie of Chriſt and the Goſpel is? And this conuerſion he declareth alſo particularly.

i The ſhape and forme which he ſaw, which was no counterfeit and forged ſhape, but a true one.

k So he calleth them that are taken vp into heauen, although one part of them doeth ſleepe in the earth.

13 The applying of the former compariſon. If it were not lawfull to contemne his worde which ſpake on the earth, how much leſſe his voice which is from heauen? 14 He compareth the ſtedfaſt maieſtie of the Goſpel, where with the whole world was ſhaken, and euen the verie frame of heauen was as it were aſtonished, with the ſmall and rauiſhing ſound of the gouernance by the Law.

l It appeareth euidently in this that the Prophet ſpeaketh of the calling of the Gentiles, that theſe wordes muſt be referred to the kingdome of Chriſt.

15 A generall exhortation to liue reuerently and religiouſly vnder the moſt happie fubiection of ſo mightie a king, whoſe he bleſſeth his moſt mightily, ſo doeth he moſt feuerely reuenge the rebellions. And this is the ſumme of a Chriſtian life, reſpecting the firſt table.

vs after their owne pleaſure, but he chaſteneth vs for our profite, that we might be partakers of his holineſſe.

11 Now no chaſtiſing for the preſent ſeemeth to be ioyous, but grieuous: but afterward, it bringeth the quiet fruite of righteouſneſſe, vnto them which are thereby exerciſed.

12 § Wherefore lift vp your hands which d hang downe, and your weake knees,

13 And make e ſtraight ſteps vnto your feete, leſt that which is halting, be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

14 ✣ 9 Follow peace with all men, and holines, without the which no man ſhall ſee the Lord.

15 10 Take heede, that no man fall away from the grace of God: let no f root of bitternes ſpring vp, and trouble you, leaſt thereby many be defiled.

16 11 Let there be no fornicator, or prophane perſon as ✣ Eſau, which for one portion of meate ſold his birthright.

17 ✣ For ye know how that afterward alſo when he would haue inherited the bleſſing, he was reiected: for he found no § place to repentance, though he ſought that bleſſing with teares.

18 12 For yee are not come vnto the ✲ mount that might be h touched, nor vnto burning fire, nor to blacknes and darkeneſſe, and tempeſt,

20 (For they were not able to abide that which was commanded, * yea, though a beaſt touch the mountaine, it ſhall be ſtoned, or thruſt through with a dart:

21 And ſo terrible was the i ſight which appeared, that Moſes ſaid, I feare and quake.)

22 But ye are come vnto the mount Sion, and to the citie of the liuing God, the celeſtiall Hieruſalem, and to the companie of innumerable Angels,

23 And to the aſſembly and congregation of the firſt borne, which are written in heauen, and to God the iudge of all, and to the ſpirits of iuſt and k perfite men,

24 And to Ieſus the Mediatour of the new Teſtament, and to the blood of ſprinkling that ſpeaketh better things then that of Abel.

25 13 See that ye deſpiſe not him that ſpeaketh: for if they eſcaped not which refuſed him, § ſpake on earth: much more ſhall we not eſcape, if wee turne away from him that ſpeaketh from heauen.

26 14 Whoſe voice then ſhooke the earth, and now hath declared, ſaying, ✣ Yet once more will I ſhake, not the earth onely, but alſo heauen.

27 And this worde, Yet once more, ſignifieth the remouing of thoſe things which are ſhaken, as of things which are made with hands, that the things which are not ſhaken, may remaine.

28 15 Wherefore ſeeing wee receiue a kingdome, which cannot be ſhaken, let vs haue grace whereby we may ſo ſerue God, that we may pleaſe him with m reuerence and n feare.

29 For ✣ euen our God is a conſuming fire.

c He ſetteth man againſt God.

4 We haue to ſet before vs the examples of valiant Captaines, whom we ought diligently to follow.

d He repeateth the ſumme of the Goſpine, to wit, the onely ground of all precepts of manners, and that is this: That we ought to quiet and content our ſelues in Chriſt onely: for there was yet neuer any man ſaued without the knowledge of him, neither is it this day ſaued, neither ſhall be ſaued hereafter. 6 He toucheth them which mixed an externall worſhip, and eſpecially the difference of meates, with the Goſpel, which doctrine hee plainely condemneth as cleane repugnant to the benefite of Chriſt.

d By theſe one kind which concerneth the difference of cleane and vncleane meates, we haue to vnderſtand all the ceremoniall worſhip.

e Which obſerued the difference of them ſuperſtitiouſly. 7 He refuſeth their errour who obſerued the difference of meates, and ſuch like things, by an apt and fit compariſon. They which in times paſt ſerued the Tabernacle, did not eate of the ſacrifices whoſe blood was brought for ſinne into the holy place by the hie Prieſt. Moreouer theſe ſacrifices did repreſent Chriſt our offering. Therefore they cannot be partakers of him which ſerue the Tabernacle, that is, ſuch as ſtand in the ſeruice of the Law: but let not vs be aſhamed to follow him out of Hieruſalem, from whence hee was caſt out & ſuffered: for in this alſo Chriſt, who is the truth, auſwereth that figure, in that he ſuffered without the gate

f By the Altar, he meaneth the offerings.

g Whereof they cannot be partakers which ſtubburnly reteine the rites of the Law.

✣ Leuit.4.11. and 6.30. and 16.27. 8 Hee goeth on further in this compariſon, and ſheweth that this alſo ſignified vnto vs, that the godly followers of Chriſt muſt as it were goe out of the world, bearing his croſſe.

17 [10] Obey them that haue the ouersight of you, and submit your selues: for they watch for your soules, as they that must giue accounts, that they may doe it with ioy, and not with griefe: for that is vnprofitable for you.

18 [11] Pray for vs, for wee are assured that wee haue a good conscience in all things, desiring to liue honestly.

19 And I desire you somewhat the more earnestly, that ye so doe, that I may bee restored to you more quickely.

20 The God of peace that brought againe from the dead our Lord Iesus, the great shepheard of the sheepe, through the blood of the euerlasting Couenant, 21 Make you [h] perfect in all good workes, to doe his will, working in you that which is pleasant in his sight through Iesus Christ, to whom bee praise for euer and euer, Amen.

22 I beseech you also, brethren, suffer the wordes of exhortation: for I haue written vnto you in fewe words.

23 Know that our brother Timotheus is deliuered, with whom (if he come shortly) I will see you.

24 Salute all them that haue the ouersight of you, and all the Saintes. They of Italie salute you.

25 Grace be with you all, Amen.

THE [a] GENERAL EPISTLE OF IAMES.

CHAP. I.

4 He entreateth of patience, 6 of faith, to 8 of lowlinesse of minde in rich men. 13 That tentations come not of God for euill, 17 because hee is the authour of all goodnesse. 21 In what maner the word of life must be receiued.

IAmes a seruant of God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ, to the twelue Tribes, which are [b] scattered abroad, salutation.

2 [1] My brethren, [c] count it exceeding ioy, [2] when yee fall into diuers tentations,

3 ✣ [3] Knowing that the [d] trying of your faith bringeth forth patience,

4 [4] And let patience haue her perfect worke, that ye may be perfect & entire, lacking nothing.

5 [5] If any of you lacke [e] wisedome, let him aske of God, which giueth to all men liberally, and reproacheth no man, and it shall be giuen him.

6 ✣ But let him aske in faith, and [f] wauer not: for he that wauereth, is like a waue of the sea, tost of the winde, and caried away.

7 Neither let that man thinke that he shall receiue any thing of the Lord.

8 A double minded man is vnstable in [g] all his wayes.

9 [7] Let the brother of [h] lowe degree reioyce in that he is exalted:

10 [8] Againe, he that is [i] rich, in that hee is made low: 9 for as the floure of the grasse, shall he ✣ vanish away.

11 For as when the sunne riseth with heat, then the grasse withereth, and his floure falleth away, and the goodly shape of it perisheth: euen so shall the rich man wither away in all his [k] wayes.

12 ✣ [10] Blessed is the man, that endureth tentation: for when he is tryed, hee shall receiue the crowne of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that loue him.

13 [11] Let no man say when hee is [m] tempted, I am tempted of God: [12] for God cannot be tempted with euill, neither tempteth he any man.

14 But euerie man is tempted, when hee is drawen away by his owne concupiscence, and is enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceiued, it bringeth forth [n] sinne, and sinne when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 [13] Erre not my deare brethren.

17 Euery good giuing and euery perfect gift is from aboue, and commeth downe from the [o] Father of lights, with whom is no variablenesse, neither [p] shadow of turning.

18 [14] Of his owne q will begate he vs with the word of trueth, that we should be as the [r] first fruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore my deare brethren, [s] let euery

a That is, written to no one man, citie or country, but to all the Iewes generally, being now dispersed.

b To all the beleeuing Iewes, of what Tribe soeuer they be, and are dispersed thorow the whole world.

c Seeing their condition was miserable in that scattering abroad, hee doeth well to begin as he doeth.

d The first place for pure touching comfort in afflictions, wherein we ought not to be cast downe and be faint hearted, but rather reioyce and be glad.

e Seeing their condition was miserable in that scattering abroad, hee doeth well to begin as he doeth.

f The first argument, because our faith is tried through afflictions: which ought to be moste pure, for so it is behoueable for vs. ✣ Rom. 5, 3.

3 The second, Because patience, a fayre passing an excellent vertue, is by this means ingendred in vs.

g That wherewith your faith is tryed, to wit, those manifolde tentations. 6 The third argument propounded in manner of an exhortation, that true & continuall patience may be discerned from fained and for a time. The crosse is as it were y instrument wherewith God doeth polish and fine vs. Therefore the worke and effect of affliction, is the perfecting of vs in Christ. 5 An answere to a priuy obiection. It is easily said, but it is not so easily done. He answereth that we need in this case a fatte other maner of wisdome, then the wisdome of man, to iudge those things best for vs, which are most contrary to the flesh: but yet we shall easily obtaine the gift of wisedome if we aske it rightly, that is, with a sure confidence of God, who is most bountifull and liberall. e By wisedome he meaneth the knowledge of that doctrine whereof mention was made before, to wit, wherefore we are afflicted of God, and what fruit we haue to reape of affliction. ✣ Matth. 7, 7. mar 11. 24. luke 11 9 iob 14. 13. and 16 23 f Wauering, what needeth other Mediatour? 8 A good definition of going and to 6 to his matter, against prayers which are conceiued with a doubting minde, wherein we haue a certaine promise of God. & this is y second part of the Epistle. g In all his thoughts and his deeds. 7 He returneth to his purpose, repeating the proposition, which is, that we must reioyce in the crosse, for it deedes me profe vs do wee, but exalt vs. h Who is afflicted with pouerty, or contempt, or with any kind of calamitie. 8 Before he conclude, he giueth a doctrine contrary to the former: to wit, how we ought to vse prosperitie, which is plenie of all things: to wit, so that no man therefore please himselfe, but be so much the more voide of pride. i Who hath all things at his will.

k That is, whatsoeuer he either purposeth in his mind, or doeth. 10 The conclusion: Therefore we must patiently beare the crosse: and he addeth a fourth argument, which comprehendeth the summe of all the former, to wit, because we come by this way to the crowne of life, but yet of grace according to the promise. ✣ Iob 5 17.

11 The third part of this Epistle, wherein he descendeth from outward tentations, that is, from afflictions whereby God trieth vs, to inwarde, that is, to those lusts whereby we are stirred vp to doe euill. The summe is this: Euery man is the author of these tentations to himselfe, & not God: for wee beare about in our bosomes that wicked corruption, which taketh occasion by what meanes soeuer, to stirre vp still motions in vs, whencesoeuer at length proceed wicked doings, and in conclusion followeth death by iust reward of them. m Whom he is prouoked to doe euill. 12 Here is a reason shewed, why God cannot bee the authour of euill: doing in vs, because hee is direct not euill. n By sinne he meanes in this place actual sinne. 13 Another reason taken of contraries: God is the authour of all goodnes, & so that hee is alwayes like himselfe: how then can he be thought to be authour of euill? Erre him who is the fountaine and authour of all goodnesse. p He goeth on in the metaphore: for the sunne by his manifold and sundrie kindes of turning, maketh houres, dayes, months, yeeres, light and darkenesse. 14 The fourth part concerning the excellencie and fruite of the worde of God. The summe is this: wee must heare the worde of God most carefully and diligently, seeing it is the seede, wherewith God of his free fauour and loue hath begotten vs vnto himselfe, making vs one of the number of his creatures. And the Apostle condemneth two faults, which doe greatly trouble vs in this matter, to wit, for that we so please our selues, that wee had rather speake our selues then heare God speaking: yea, we snuffe and are angrie when wee are reprehended: against which faults he setteth a peaceable & quiet mind, and such no one as is desirous of purisie. t Thus is it which Paul calleth gracious, sauoury, and good will, which is the seperating of our sanctified & all vnclean affections, takes out of the residue of men.

20 For the wrath of man doeth not accomplish the [f] righteousnesse of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthinesse, and superfluitie of maliciousnesse, and receiue with [g] meekenesse the word that is grafted in you, which is able to saue your soules.

22 ✣ 15 And be yee doers of the word, and not hearers onely, [16] deceiuing your owne selues.

23 [17] For if any heare the word, and doe it not, he is like vnto a man, that beholdeth his [h] naturall face in a glasse.

24 For when he hath considered himselfe, hee goeth his way, and forgetteth immediatly what maner of one he was.

25 But who so looketh in the perfect lawe of libertie, and continueth therein, hee not being a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the worke, shallbe blessed in his [x] deed.

26 [18] If any man among you seeme religious, and refraineth not his tongue, but deceiueth his y owne heart, this mans religion is vaine.

27 [19] Pure religion and vndefiled before God, euen the Father, is this, to [z] visit the fatherlesse, and widowes in their aduersitie, and to keepe himselfe vnspotted of the world.

f That which God appointeth.

g By meekenesse, he meaneth modestie, and whatsoeuer is contrary to an hastie and proude stomacke.

✣ Mat. 7, 21. rom. 2. 13.

15 Another admonition. Therefore is Gods word heard, that wee may frame our liues according to the prescript thereof.

16 He addeth reasons, and those most weighty: first, because they that doe otherwise, doe very much hurt themselues.

17 Secondly, because they lose the chiefest vse of Gods worde, which serueth not by it the faults that they know.

h Heere he setteth where vnto we Law. x Behauing himselfe so: for workes doe shew faith.

18 The third admonition. The word of God prescribeth a rule not onely to doe well, but also to speake well. y The fountaine of all brabling, and cursed speaking, and lawe nesse, is this, that men know not themselues.

16 The fourth: the true seruice of God standeth in charitie toward our neighbours (especially such as neede others helpe, as the fatherlesse and widowes) and purtitie of life.

z To haue a care of them, and to helpe them as much as we can.

alludeth to that naturall spot, to which is contrary that pure beyng againe, the liuely image whereof we beholde in the

CHAP. II.

1 Hee sayth, that to haue respect of persons is not agreeable to Christs faith, 14 which to profesie in words is not enough, vnlesse 15 we shewe it also in deedes of mercie and charitie, 21 after the example of Abraham.

MY [a] brethren, haue not the faith of our [b] glorious Lord Iesus Christ ✣ in respect of persons.

2 For if there come into your company a man with a gold ring, and in goodly apparell, and there come in also a poore man in vile raiment,

3 And yee haue a respect to him that weareth the gay cloathing, and say vnto him, Sit thou here in a [b] goodly place, and say vnto the poore, Stand thou there, or sit here vnder my foote stoole,

4 Are ye not partially in [c] your selues, and are become Iudges of euill thoughts?

5 [2] Hearken my beloued brethren, hath not God chosen the [d] poore of this world that they should be rich in faith, and heires of the kingdome which he promised to them that loue him?

6 But ye haue despised the poore. 3 Doe not the rich oppresse you by tyranny, and doe they not draw you before the iudgement seats?

7 Doe not they blaspheme the worthy Name after which ye be [e] named?

a For if we knew what Christs glory is, & esteemed it as we ought to doe, there would not be such respect of persons as there is.

b In a worshipfull and honourable place.

c Hane yee not (which you ought not to doe) by this fore another?

2 Hee sheweth that they are peruerse and naughtie Iudges, which preferre the rich before the poore by that that God on the contrary side preferreth the poore, whom he hath enriched with true riches, before the rich. d The needie and wretched, and (if we measure it after the opinion of the world) the veriest abiects of all men. 3 Secondly, he prouoketh them to be madde men: for that the rich men are rather to be holden execrable and cursed, considering that they persecute the Church, and blaspheme Christ: for hee speaketh of wicked and prophane rich men, such as the most part of them haue beene alwayes, against whom hee setteth the poore and abiect.

e Word for word, which is called vpon of you.

8 [4] But if ye fulfill the [f] royall Law according to the Scripture, which saieth, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, ye doe well.

9 But if yee [g] regard the persons, yee commit sinne, and are rebuked of the Law, as transgressours.

10 [5] For whosoeuer shall keepe the whole Lawe, and yet faileth in one point, he is guiltie of all.

11 [6] For he that said, Thou shalt not commit adulterie, sayd also, Thou shalt not kill. Nowe though thou doest none adulterie, yet if thou killest, thou art a transgressour of the Law.

12 [7] So speake ye, and so doe, as they that shall be iudged by the Law of libertie.

13 For there shall be condemnation merciles to him that [h] sheweth not mercie, and mercie reioyceth against condemnation.

14 [8] What auaileth it my brethren, though a man saith, he hath faith, when he hath no workes? can that faith saue him?

15 [9] For if a brother or a sister be naked and destitute of dayly food,

16 And one of you say vnto them, Depart in peace: warme your selues, and fill your bellies, notwithstanding ye giue them not those things, which are needfull to the bodie, what helpeth it?

17 Euen so the faith, if it haue no workes, is dead in it selfe.

18 But [i] some man might say, Thou hast the faith, and I haue workes: shew me thy faith out of thy workes, and I will shewe thee my faith by my workes.

19 [10] Thou beleeuest that there is one God: thou doest well: the deuils also beleeue it, and tremble.

20 [11] But wilt thou vnderstand, O thou vaine man, that the faith which is without workes, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father [k] iustified through workes, ✣ when he offered Isaac his sonne vpon the altar?

22 Seest thou not that the faith [l] wrought with his workes? and through the workes was the faith made [m] perfect.

23 And the Scripture was [n] fulfilled which saieth, ✣ Abraham beleeued God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousnesse: and hee was called the friend of God.

4 The conclusion: Charitie which God prescribeth cannot agree with the accepting of persons, seeing that we muit walke in the kings high way.

f The Law is said to be royall and like the Kings high way, for that it is plaine and without turnings, and that the Law calleth euery one our neighbour, without respect, whom we may helpe by any kind of duety.

5 A newe argument to proue the same conclusion: They do not loue their neighbours, which neglect some, and auoidfully honour other: for he doeth not obey God, which cutteth off from the commandments of God that, that is not so commodious for him, nay he is rather guiltie generally for the breach of the whole Lawe, although he offende the residue.

g Not that all sinnes are equall, but because he that breaketh one title of the Law, offendeth the maiestie of the Lawe giuer.

6 A proofe: because the Lawemaker is alwayes one and the selfe same, and the bodie of the Law cannot be diuided.

7 The conclusion of the whole treatise: We are vpon this condition deliuered from the curse of the Law by the mercie of God, that in like

8 The fifth: Charitie which proceedeth from a true faith, cannot stand with the accepting of persons: which hee prooueth plainely by setting fourth their example, who with the reproach or disdaine of the poore, honour the rich.

h For with such mercifull fortune should maintaine & cherish charitie and good will and who so doeth not so, shall not taste of the grace of God.

i But that is hard and curtesie against his neighbour, or else he speaketh him too hard and rough ludge to himselfeward.

9 The fifth place which hangeth verie well with the former treatise, touching a true and liuely faith. And the proposition of this place is this: faith which bringeth not foorth workes, is not that faith whereby wee are iustified, but an image of faith: or else this, they are not iustified by faith, which shewe not the effects of faith. 9 The first reason taken of a similitude: If a man say to one that is hungrie. Fill thy belly, and yet giueth him nothing, this shall not be true charitie: so if a man say he beleeueth, and bringeth forth no workes of his faith, his shall not bea true faith, but a certaine dead thing set out with the name of faith, whereof no man hath to brag vnlesse he will openly in curre reprehension, seeing that the cause is vnderstood by the effects. k Nay thus may euery man beate downe thy pride 10 Another reason taken of an absurditie: If such a faith were the true faith whereby wee are iustified, the deuils should be iustified, for they haue that, but yet notwithstanding they tremble, and are not iustified therefore, neither is that faith a true faith. 11 The third reason from the example of Abraham, who no doubt had a true faith: but hee in offering his sonne, shewed himselfe to haue that faith which was not void of workes, and therefore he receiued a true testimonie when it was said, that faith was imputed to him for righteousnesse. l Was he not by his workes knowen and found to be iustified? for he speaketh not here of the causes of iustification, but by what effects we may know that a man is iustified. ✣ Genes. 22. 10. 1 Mac. 2. 52. and fruitfull with good workes.

m That the faith was declared to be a true faith and that by workes.

n Then was the Scripture fulfilled, when it appeared plainely, how truely it was written of Abraham. ✣ Gen. 15. 6. rom. 4. 3. galat. 3. 6.

24 12 Ye see then how that of workes a man is o iustified, and not of p faith onely.
25 13 Likewise also was not 4 Rahab the harlot iustified through workes, when she had receiued the messengers, & sent them out another way?
26 14 For as the body without ȳ spirit is dead, euen so the faith without works is dead.

12 The conclusion: he is onely iustified that hath that faith which hath workes following it.
o It is prooued to be so.
p Of that dead and frustles faith which you boast of. 13 A fourth reason taken from a like example of Rahab ȳ harlot, who also prooued by her workes that she was iustified: by a true faith. 4 Iosh. 2.1. 14 The conclusion repeated againe: faith which bringeth not forth fruits and works, is not faith, but a dead carcase.

CHAP. III.

3 To shewe that a Christian man must gouerne his tongue with the bridle of faith and charitie, 6 hee declareth the commodities and mischiefes that ensue thereof: 15 and how much mans wisedome 17 differeth from heauenly.

MY brethren, be not many masters, 2 knowing that wee a shall receiue the greater condemnation.
2 For in many things wee ll sinne all. 3 If any man sinne not in word, he is a perfect man, & able to bridle all the body.
3 4 Beholde, wee put bittes into the horses mouthes, that they should obey vs, and wee turne about all their bodie.
4 Behold also the shippes, which though they be so great, and are driuen of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small rudder, whithersoeuer the gouernour listeth.
5 Euen so the tongue is a litle member, & boasteth of great things: 5 beholde, howe great a thing a litle fire kindleth.
6 And the tongue is fire, yea, a b worlde of wickednesse: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole bodie, and c setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.
7 For the whole nature of beasts, & of birdes, and of creeping things, and things of the sea is tamed, and hath beene tamed of the nature of man.
8 But the tongue can no man tame. It is an vnruly euill, full of deadly poyson.
9 6 Therewith blesse we God euen the Father, and therewith curse we men, which are made after the 7 similitude of God.
10 8 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren, these things ought not so to be.
11 Doeth a fountaine send foorth at one place sweete water and bitter?
12 Can the figge tree, my brethren, bring forth oliues, either a vine figges? so can no fountaine make both salt water and sweete.
13 9 Who is a wise man & endued with knowledge among you? let him shew by good conuersation his works in meekenesse of wisedome.
14 But if yee haue bitter enuying and strife in your hearts, reioyce not, neither be lyars against the trueth.

2 The first part or place: Let no man vsurpe (as moit men ambitiously doe) authority to iudge and censure others rigorously.
a A reason: Because they prouoke Gods seueritie against themselues, which do so curiously and rigorously condemne others, being themselues guiltie and faulty.
b Vnlesse we forcease from this misplacing and prone finding faults with others.
c Or, stumble.
3 The seuenth place, touching the brideling of the tongue, ioyned with the former, for that it is manifest that there is no man which may not iustly be found fault withal, seeing it is a rare vertue to bridle the tongue.
4 He sheweth by two similitudes, the one taken from the bridles of horses, the other from the rudders of ships, how great matters may be brought to passe by the good moderation of the tongue.
5 On the contrary part he sheweth how great discommodities arise by the intemperancie of the tongue, throughout the whole world, to the ende that men may so much the more diligently giue themselues to moderate it. b An heape of all mischeefes. c It is aptto set the whole worlde on fire.
6 Amongst other faults of the tongue, the Apostle chiefly reprooueth backbiting & speaking euill of our neighbours, euen in them especially which otherwise will seeme godly and religious. 7 He denieth by two reasons, that God can be praised by that man, that vseth cursed speaking, or to backbite: first because man is the image of God, which whosoeuer reuerenceth not, doth not honour God himselfe. 8 Secondly, because the outer of nature which God hath set in things, will not suffer things that are so contrary the one to the other, to stande the one with the other. 9 The eight part which hangeth with the former, touching meekenesse of minde, against which he setteth enuie and a contentious minde. And in the beginning he stoppeth the mouth of the chiefe fountaine of all these mischeefes, to wit, a false persuasion of wisedome, whereas notwithstanding there is no true wisedome, but that is heauenly, and frameth our mindes to all kinde of true moderation and simplicitie.

15 This wisedome descendeth not from aboue, but is earthly, sensuall, and deuilish.
16 For where enuying and strife is, there is fe-dition, and all maner of euill works.
17 But the wisedome that is from aboue, is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to be intreated, full of d mercie and good fruites, without iudging, and without hypocrisie.
18 10 And the fruite of righteousnesse is sowen in peace, of them that make peace.

d He setteth mercy against the fierce and cruell nature of man, and sheweth that heauenly wisedome bringeth forth good fruits, for he that is heauenly wise, referreth all things to Gods glory, and the profit of his neighbour.
10 Because the world perswadeth it selfe that they are miserable which liue peaceably & simply: on the contrary side the Apostle pronounceth that they shall at the length reape the harueit of peaceable righteousnes.

CHAP. IV.

1 Hee reckoneth vp the mischeefes that proceede of the workes of the flesh. 7 Hee exhorteth to humilitie, 8 and to purge the heart. 3 from pride, 10 backbiting, 14 and the forgetfulnesse of our owne infirmitie.

FRom whence are warres and contentions among you? are they not hence, euen of your pleasures, that fight in your members?
2 Ye lust, and haue not: ye enuie, and desire immoderately, and cannot obtaine: ye fight, and warre, and get nothing, 2 because ye aske not.
3 Ye aske, and receiue not, because ye aske amisse, that yee might lay the same on your pleasures.
4 3 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know yee not that the amitie of the worlde is the enimitie of God? Whosoeuer therefore will be a friend of the world, maketh himselfe the enemie of God.
5 4 Doe ye thinke that the Scripture sayeth in vaine, The spirit that dwelleth in vs, lusteth after ennie?
6 But the Scripture offereth more grace, and therefore saith, ✣ God resisteth the proude, and giueth grace to the humble.
7 ✣ Submit your selues to God: resist the deuill, and he will flee from you.
8 Draw neere to God, and he will draw neere to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and purge your hearts, ye double minded.
9 e Suffer afflictions, and sorow ye, and weepe:
let your laughter be turned into mourning, and your ioy into a heauinesse.
10 ✣ Cast downe your selues before the Lord, and he will lift you vp.
11 7 Speake not euill one of another, brethren.
He that speaketh euill of his brother, or hee that condemneth his brother, speaketh euill of the Law, and condemneth the Lawe: and if thou condemnest the Lawe, thou art not an obseruer of the Law, but a iudge.

1 Hee goeth on forward in the same argument, condemning certaine other causes of warres & contentions, to wit, vnbridled pleasures, and immoderate lustes, by their effects, for so much as the Lord doth worthily make them void, so that they bring nothing els to them in whom they are, but incurable torments.
a He reprehendeth them by name, which are not ashamed to be aduersaries to make God the minister and helper of their lusts and pleasures, in asking things which either are of themselues vnlawfull, or being lawfull, aske them to wicked purposes and vses.
3 An other reason why such vnbridled lustes and pleasures are vtterly to be condemned, to wit, because that he that giueth himselfe to the world, disioyneth himselfe from God, and breaketh the band of that holy and spirituall mariage. 4 The taking away of an obiection: Indeede our mindes runne headlong into these vices, but wee ought so much the more diligently take heede of them: which care and studie shall not be in vaine, seeing that God resisteth the stubburne, and giueth that grace to the modest and humble that surmounteth all those vices. ✣ Prou. 3.34. 1. Peter. 5.5. 7 The conclusion: Wee must set the contrary vertues against those vices and therefore whereas wee obeyed the suggestions of the deuill, wee must submit our mindes to God, and resist the deuill, with a certaine and assured hope of victorie: To be short, wee must employ our selues to come neere vnto God by puritie and sincerite of life. 6 Hee goeth on in the same comparison of contraries, & setteth against those prophane ioyes an earnest sorowe of minde, and against pride & arrogancie, holy modestie. a By this worde the Greekians meant an heauinesse ioyned with shamefastnesse, which is to be seene in a cast downe countenance, & framed as it were vpon the ground. 1. Peter 5.6 7 Hee reprehendeth most sharpely another double mischiefe of pride: the ogre is, in that the proude and arrogant will haue other men to liue according to their will & pleasure, and therefore they doe most arrogantly condemne whatsoeuer displeaseth them: which thing cannot be done without great iniurie to our onely Lawe-maker, for by this meanes his Lawes are found fault withall, as not circumspectly enough written, and men challenge that vnto themselues which properly belongeth to God alone, in that they lay a Law vpon mens consciences.

✣ *Rom.*14.4. 8 The other fault is this: that men doe so confidently determine vpon these and thofe matters and businesses, as though that euery moment of their life did not depend of God. ✣ 1.*Cor.*4.19. 9 The conclusion of all the former treatise: The knowledge of the will of God doeth not onely nothing at all profite, vnlesse the life be answerable vnto it, but also maketh the sinnes farre more grieuous.

WO There is one Lawgiuer, which is able to saue, and to destroy. ✣ Who art thou that iudgest another man?

13 ¶ Goe to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow wee will goe into such a citie, and continue there a yeere, and buy and sell, and get gaine.

14 (And yet ye cannot tell what shalbe to morrowe. For what is your life? It is euen a vapour that appeareth for a little time, and afterward vanisheth away.)

15 For that ye ought to say, ✣ If the Lord will, and, If we liue, we will doe this or that.

16 But now yee reioyce in your boastings: all such reioycing is euill.

17 9 Therefore to him that knoweth how to do well, and doeth it not, to him it is sinne.

CHAP. V.

1 He threatneth the rich with Gods seuere iudgement, for their pride, 7 that the poore hearing the miserable end of the rich, 8 may patiently beare afflictions, 11 as Iob did, 14 euen in their distresses.

GOe[1] to nowe, ye rich men: weepe, and howle for your miseries that shall come vpon you.

2 Your riches are corrupt, and your garments are mothe eaten.

3 Your gold and siluer is cankered, and the rust of them shalbe a witnesse against you, and shall eat your flesh, as it were fire. Ye haue heaped vp treasure for the last dayes.

4 Behold, the hire of the labourers, which haue reaped your fields (which is of you kept backe by fraude) crieth, and the cries of them which haue reaped, are entred into the [a] eares of the Lord of hosts.

5 Yee haue liued in pleasure on the earth, and in wantonnesse. Ye haue [b] nourished your hearts, as in a [c] day of slaughter.

6 Yee haue condemned, and haue killed the iust, and he hath not resisted you.

7 [2] Bee patient therefore, brethren, vnto the comming of the Lord. 3 Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruite of the earth, and hath long patience for it, vntill hee receiue the former, and the latter raine.

8 Be ye also patient therefore, and settle your hearts: for the comming of ✣ Lord draweth neere.

9 [4] d Grudge not one against another, brethren, least yee be condemned: 5 behold, the iudge standeth before the doore.

10 [6] Take, my brethren, the Prophets for an ensample of suffering aduersitie, and of long patience, which haue spoken in the Name of the Lord.

11 Beholde, we count them blessed which endure. Yee haue heard of the patience of Iob, and haue knowen what [e] end the Lord made. For the Lord is very pitifull and mercifull.

12 7 But before all things, my brethren, ✣ sweare not, neither by hauen, nor by earth, nor by any other oathe: but let [f] your yea, be yea, and your nay, nay, least ye fall into condemnation.

13 [8] Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray. Is any merry? Let him sing.

14 9 Is any sicke among you? Let him call for the Elders of the Church, and let them pray for him, and anoint him with ✣ oyle in the [h] Name of the Lord.

15 And the prayer of faith shall saue the sicke, and the Lord shal raise him vp, and if he haue committed [i] sinnes, they shallbe forgiuen him.

16 [10] Acknowledge your faultes one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed: [11] for the prayer of a righteous man auaileth much, if it be feruent.

17 ∵ Helias was a man subiect to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not raine, & it rained not on the earth for three yeeres and sixe moneths.

18 And he prayed againe: and the heauen gaue rayne, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 [12] Brethren, ✣ if any of you bath erred from the trueth, and some man hath [k] conuerted him,

20 Let him know that hee which hath conuerted the sinner from going astray out of his way, shall saue a soule from death, and shall hide a multitude of sinnes.

1 He denounceth vtter destruction to the wicked and prophane rich men, and such as are drowned in their riotousnesse, mocking at their foolish confidence when as there is nothing indeed more vaine then such things.
a The Lord who is more mightie then ye are, hath heard them.
b Ye haue pampered vp your selues.
c The Hebrewes call a day that is appointed to solemne banketting, a day of slaughter or feasting.
2 He applieth that to the poore, which he spake against the rich, warning them to wait for the Lords comming patiently, who will reuenge the iniuries which the rich men doe them.
3 The taking away of an obiection: Although his comming seeme to linger, yet at the least we must follow the husbandmen, who doe patiently waite for the times that are proper for the fruites of the earth. And againe, God will not defeare the least iote of the time that he hath appointed. 4 Hee commendeth Christian patience, so that whereas other through impatience vse to accuse one another, the faithfull on the contrary side complaine not, although they receiue iniuries. d By grudging, he meaneth a certaine inward complaining, which betokeneth impatience. 5 The conclusion: The Lord is at the doore, who will defend his owne, and reuenge his enemies, and therefore we need not to trouble our selues.
6 Because most men are wont to obiect, that it is good to repell iniuries by what meanes soeuer, he setteth against that, the examples of the Fathers, whose patience had a most happy end, because God as a most bountifull Father, neuer forsaketh his. e What end the Lord gaue.
7 Because euen the best men sometimes through impatience breake out into oathes, sometime lesser, sometimes greater, the Apostle warneth vs to detest such wickednesse, and to accustome our tongues to simple and true talke. ✣ *Matth.*5.34. f That that you haue to say or affirme, speake or affirme it simply, and without an oathe: and that that you will denie, denie it simply and flatly.
8 He sheweth the best remedie against all afflictions, to wit, prayers which haue their place both in sorrow and ioy.
9 He sheweth peculiarly, to what physicians especially wee must goe, when wee are diseased, to wit, to the prayers of the Elders, which then also could cure the bodie, (for so much as the gift of healing was then in force) and take away the chiefe cause of sicknesses and diseases, by obtaining for the sicke through their prayers and exhortations, remission of sinnes. ✣ *Marke*6.13. g This was a signe of the gift of healing: and nowe seeing wee haue the gift no more, the signe is no longer necessary. h By calling on the Name of the Lord. *i Hee hath reason in making mentions of sinnes, for diseases are for the most part sent because of sinnes.*10 Because God pardoneth their sinnes which confesse and acknowledge them, and not theirs which iustifie themselues, therefore the Apostle addeth, that wee ought freely to confesse one vnto another touching those sinnes wherewith we are tempted, that so we may helpe one another with our prayers. 11 Hee commendeth prayers by the effectes that come of them, that all men may vnderstand that there is nothing more effectuall then they are, so that they proceede from a pure minde. ∵ 1.Kings 17.1. and 18.45. *Luke*4.25. 12 The taking away of an obiection: All reprehensions are not condemned, seeing that on the contrary part there is nothing more acceptable to God, then to call into the way a brother that was wandring out of the way. ✣ *Matth.*18.15. k Hath called him backe from his way.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERALL OF PETER.

CHAP. I.

1 Hee extolleth Gods mercie shewed in Christ, which wee lay holde on by faith, & possesse through hope, 10 whereof the Prophets foretolde. 13 Hee exhorteth 15 to renounce the world, 23 and their former life, and so wholly yeeld themselues to God.

PETER an Apostle of IESVS CHRIST, to the strangers that dwell here and there throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia,

1 Peter purposing to speake of the duelties of a Christian life, reasoneth first of the principles and beginnings of all Christian actions, rising farre higher then nature, & carrying vs also farre aboue the same. For he sheweth ∵ wee which are otherwise of nature sinners, were through the free mercie of God the Father first chosen from eueriasting: then according to that euerlasting decree, were by a certaine second creation made his sonnes in Christ his onely begotten, by whose Spirit we are inwardly changed, & by whose blood we also are reconciled, to ∵ end, that as Christ himselfe rose againe from the dead, we also might be receiued into that same heauenly & euerlasting glory. a Or according to the purpose of God, who neuer altereth nor changeth the same. *b That being set apart from the rest of the wicked world, through the working of the holy Ghost, they should be consecrate to God, Ephe.*1.5.

through obedience and ſprinkeling of the blood of Ieſus Chriſt: Grace and peace be multiplied vnto you:

3 Bleſſed be God, euen the Father of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt, which according to his abundant mercie hath begotten vs againe vnto a [c] liuely hope, by the reſurrection of Ieſus Chriſt from the dead,

4 To an inheritance immortall and vndefiled, and that withereth not, reſerued in heauen for vs,

5 [2] Which are kept by the power of God through faith vnto ſaluation, which is prepared to be ſhewed in the [d] laſt time.

6 Wherein ye reioyce, though now for a ſeaſon (if needes require) ye are in heauineſſe, through manifold tentations,

7 That the triall of your faith, being much more precious then golde that periſheth (though it be tried with fire) might be found vnto your praiſe, and honour and glory at the [e] appearing of Ieſus Chriſt:

8 Whome yee haue not ſeene, and yet loue him, in whom now, though yee ſee him not, yet doe you beleeue, and reioyce with ioy vnſpeakeable and glorious,

9 Receiuing the [f] ende of your faith, euen the ſaluation of your ſoules.

10 [3] Of the which ſaluation the Prophets haue inquired and ſearched, which prophecied of the grace that ſhould come vnto you,

11 Searching when or at what time the Spirit which teſtified before of Chriſt which was in them, ſhould declare the ſufferings that ſhould come vnto Chriſt, and the glory that ſhould follow.

12 Vnto whom it was reuealed, that not vnto themſelues, but vnto vs they ſhoulde miniſter the things which are ſhewed vnto you by them which haue preached vnto you the Goſpell by the holy Ghoſt [4] ſent downe from heauen, the which things the Angels deſire to behold.

13 ✣ Wherefore [g] girde vp the loynes of your minde: be ſober, [5] and truſt [h] perfectly on that grace [6] that is brought vnto you, [7] in the reuelation of Ieſus Chriſt,

14 [8] As obedient children, not faſhioning your ſelues vnto the former luſtes of your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you, is holy, ſo be ye holy in [i] all maner of conuerſation, 16 [9] Becauſe it is written, ✣ Be ye holy, for I am holy.

17 [10] And if yee [k] call him Father, which without [l] reſpect of perſon iudgeth according to euery mans worke, paſſe the time of your dwelling here in feare,

18 [11] Knowing that yee were not redeemed with corruptible things, as ſiluer and golde, from your vaine converſation, receiued by the traditions of the fathers,

19 ✣ But with the precious blood of Chriſt, as of a Lambe vndefiled, and without ſpot.

20 [12] Which was [m] ordeined before the [k] foundation of the world, but was declared in the laſt times for your ſakes, 21 Which by his meanes doe beleeue in God that rayſed him from the dead, and gaue him glorie, that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 [13] Hauing purified your ſoules in obeying the trueth through the Spirit, to * loue brotherly without faining, loue one another with a pure heart feruently:

23 Being borne anew, not of mortall ſeede, but of immortall, by the word of God, who liueth and endureth for euer.

24 [14] For all ✣ [l] fleſh is as graſſe, & all the glorie of man is as the floure of graſſe. The graſſe withereth, and the floure falleth away.

25 [15] But the worde of the Lord endureth for euer: and this is the worde which is preached among you.

c Euerlaſting hope.

2 Howe hee ſheweth by what way wee come vnto that glory, to wit, through all kinde of afflictions, wherein notwithſtanding faith maketh vs ſo ſecure, that wee are not onely not ouercome with ſorowe, but alſo through the beholding of God himſelfe (who other wiſe is inuiſible) with the eyes of faith are vnſpeakeably ioyfull: becauſe all ſuch things, as they are but for a time, ſo are they not applied vnto vs to deſtroy vs, but as it were by fire to purge vs, and to make vs perfite, that at the length we may obtaine ſaluation.

d This is that time which Daniel calleth the time of the ende, when as that great reſtoring of all things ſhalbe, which all creatures looke for, Rom. 8.19.

e He ſpeaketh of the ſecond comming of Chriſt. ✣ Or, reward. 3 He putteth a difference betweene true faith, that is to ſay, that faith which only hath an eye to the doctrine of the Prophets and Apoſtles, and falſe faith: Afterward hee maketh two degrees of one and the ſelfe ſame faith, according to the maner of the diuers reuelations, when as indeede it is but one onely faith: Thirdly, he ſaith, y the preaching of the Apoſtles is the fulfilling of the preaching of the Prophets, although the latter end of it be as yet looked for the very Angels. f He alludeth to the prophecie of Ioel, which was exhibited vpon the day of Penteceſt, vn the Apoſtles, as it were in the firſt fruits of the holy Ghoſt, which this ſame our Peter declareth, Act. 2.6.

4 Hee goeth from faith to hope, which is indeede a companion that can not be ſundred from faith: and he vſeth an argument taken of compariſon: We ought not to be wearie in looking for ſo excellent a thing, which the very Angels wake for with great deſire. g This is a borrowed ſpeach, taken of a common vſage amongſt them: for by reaſon that they wore long garments, they could not trauaile vnleſſe they girded vp themſelues: and hence it is that Chriſt ſayde, Let your loynes be girded vp. 5 He ſetteth forth very briefly what maner of hope ours ought to be, to wit, continuall, vnill we enioy the thing we hope for: then, what we haue to hope for, to wit, grace (that is, free ſaluation reuealed to vs in the Goſpell, and not that, that men doe raſhly and fondly promiſe to themſelues. h Soundly and ſincerely. 6 An argument to ſtirre vp our mindes, ſeeing that God doeth not wait till wee ſeeke him, but cauſeth ſo great a benefit to be brought euen vnto vs. 7 Hee ſetteth out the ende of faith, leaſt any man ſhould promiſe himſelfe, either ſooner or later that full ſaluation, to wit, the latter comming of Chriſt: and therewithall warneth vs, not to meaſure the dignitie of the Goſpel according to the preſent ſtate, ſeeing that that which we ſee now, is not yet reuealed.

8 Hee paſſeth from faith and hope, to the fruites of them both, which are vnderſtoode in the name of obedience: And it conſiſteth in two things, in renouncing our luſtes, and liuing godly: which luſtes haue their beginning of that blindneſſe wherein all men are borne: but holineſſe proceedeth from the grace and fauour of GOD, which adopteth vs, and therefore regenereateth vs, that the father and the children may be of one diſpoſition.

9 Hee ſheweth that ſanctification doeth neceſſarily follow adoption.

10 As before he diſtinguiſhed true faith and hope from falſe, ſo doeth hee now obedience, ſeeing the quicke and ſharpe ſight of God, againſt an earward maner, and earneſt reuerence againſt vaine ſecuritie. i If you will be called the ſonnes of that Father. k Deuter. 10.17. rom. 2.11. galat. 2.6. 11 An exhortation, wherein hee ſetteth foorth the excellencie and greatneſſe of the benefit of God the Father, in ſanctifying vs by the death of his owne Sonne. And hee partly ſetteth the iuſtifying of the Lawe againſt the ſhining it ſelfe, that is, againſt the blood of Chriſt, and partly alſo mens traditions which hee condemneth as vtterly vaine and ſuperſtitious, bee they neuer ſo olde & ancient. ✣ 1. Cor. 6.10. And 7.23. heb. 9.14. 1 ſebn. 1.7. reuel. 1.5. 12 The taking away of an obiection: what was done to the world before that Chriſt was ſent into the worlde? was there no holineſſe before, and was there no Church? The Apoſtle anſwereth, that Chriſt was ordeined & appointed to redeeme & deliuer mankinde, before that mankinde was: much leſſe was there any Church without him before his comming into the fleſh: yet we are happieſt aboue the reſt, to whome Chriſt was exhibited indeede, in his that hee hauing ſuffered and ouercome death for vs, doeth nowe moſt effectually worke in vs by the vertue of his Spirite, to create in vs faith, hope, and charitie. ✣ Rom. 16 25. Epheſ. 3.9. coloſ. 1.26. 2 timoth. 1.10. titus 1.2. ✣ From euerlaſting. 13 Hee commendeth the practiſe of obedience, that is, charitie: earneſtly beating into their heads againe, that he ſpeaketh not of any common charitie, & ſuch as proceedeth from that our corrupt nature, but of that whoſe beginning is the Spirit of God, which purifieth our ſoules through the worde layed holde on by faith, and ingendreth alſo in vs a ſpirituall and euerlaſting life, as God is moſt pure and truely liuing. ✣ Chap 2.17. roman. 2.10. epheſ 4.2. 14 A reaſon why wee haue neede of this heauenly generation, to wit, becauſe that men, bee their glorie neuer ſo great, are of nature voyde of all true and ſound goodneſſe. ✣ Eſai. 40.6. iames 1.10. I The worde (fleſh) ſheweth the weakneſſe of our nature, which is chiefly to bee conſidered in the fleſh it ſelfe. 15 Againe, leaſt any man ſhould ſeeke that ſpirituall force and vertue in fained imaginations, the Apoſtle calleth vs backe to y word of God: teaching vs furthermore, that there is no other worde of the Lord to bee looked for, then this which is preached, in which onely wee muſt truſt.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth the newe borne in faith, to leade their liues answerable to the same: 6 and leait their faith should stagger, he bringeth in that which was foretolde touching Christ. 11 Then hee willeth them to be obedient to Magistrates, 21 and that they patiently beare aduersitie after Christs example.

WHerfore, ✣ [1] laying aside all maliciousnesse, and all guile, and dissimulation, and enuie, and all euill speaking,

2 [2] As [a] newe borne babes desire that sincere milke of the worde, that yee may growe thereby,

3 [3] Because yee ‖ haue tasted that the Lord is bountifull.

4 [4] To whome comming as vnto a liuing stone, disallowed of men, but chosen of God and precious,

5 Yee also as liuely stones, be made a spirituall house, [5] an holy ✣ Priesthood to offer vp spirituall sacrifices acceptable to God by Iesus Christ.

6 [6] Wherefore also it is conteyned in the Scripture, ☞ Beholde, I put in Sion a chiefe corner stone, elect and precious: and hee that beleeueth therein, shall not be ashamed.

7 [7] Vnto you therefore which beleeue, it is precious: but vnto them which be disobedient, the ✣ stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8 And a ✣ stone to stumble at, and a rocke of offence, euen to them which stumble at the worde, being disobedient, vnto the which thing they were euen ordained.

9 [8] But yee are a chosen generation, a royall ✣ Priesthood, an holy nation, a people set at libertie, that ye should shew foorth the vertues of him that hath called you out of darknesse into his marueilous light,

10 ✣ Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which in time past were not vnder mercy, but now haue obteined mercie,

11 [9] Dearely beloued, [10] I beseech you, as strangers and pilgrims, ☞ [11] absteine from fleshly lusts [12] which fight against the soule,

12 [13] ✣ And haue your conuersation honest among the Gentiles, that they which speake euill of you as of euill doers, [14] may by your good ✣ workes which they shall see, glorifie God in the day of [b] visitation.

13 [15] * Therefore submit your selues vnto [c] all manner ordinance of man [16] for the Lordes sake, [17] whether it be vnto the King, as vnto the superiour,

14 Or vnto gouernours, as vnto them that are sent of him, [18] for the punishment of euill doers, and for the praise of them that doe well.

15 [19] For so is the will of God, that by well doing yee may put to silence the ignorance of the foolish men,

16 As free, and not as hauing the libertie for a cloake of maliciousnesse, but as the seruants of God.

17 [20] Honour all men: ✣ loue [e] brotherly fellowship: feare God: honour the King.

1 Hauing laid for the foundation the Spirit of God effectually working by the word, and hauing built thereupon three vertues which are the grounds of all Christian actions, to wit, faith, hope and charitie: now he proceedeth to a generall exhortation, the first member whereof is, that wee flee all sinewe, both of secret and also open malice.

2 The second is, that being newly begotten and borne of the new seede of the vncorrupt word, drawing and sucking greedily the same word as milke, we should more and more as it were growe vp in that spirituall life. And he calleth it, Syncere, not onely because it is a most pure thing, but also that we should take heede of them which corrupt it. a As becommeth new men. 3 He commendeth that spirituall nourishment for the sweetenesse and profite of it. ‖ Or, doe taste. 4 He goeth on forward in the same exhortation, and vseth another kinde of borowed speech, alluding to the Temple. Therefore he sayeth, that the companie of the faithful is as it were a certaine holy & spirituall building, built of liuely stones, the foundation whereof is Christ, as a liuely stone susteining all that are soyned vnto him with his liuing vertue, and knitting them together with himselfe, although this so great a treasure be neglected of men. 5 Going forward in the same similitude, he compareth vs nowe to Priestes placed to this ende in that spirituall temple, that wee should serue him with spirituall worship, that is, with holinesse and righteousnes: but as the temple, so is the Priesthood built vpon Christ, in whom one y all our spirituall offerings are accepted. ✣ Rom.12.1. 6 He pronuceth it to y tellimonie of the Prophet Esai. ☞ Esai 28,16. rom.9.33. 7 By setting the most blessed condition of the beleeuers, and the most miserable of the rebellious one against another, he pricketh forward the beleeuers, and triumpheth ouer the other: and also preuenteth an offence which ariseth hereof, that none doe more resist this doctrine of the Gospell, then they which are chiefest amongst the people of God, as were at that time that Peter wrote these things, the Priestes and Elders, and Scribes. Therefore he answereth first of all y there is no cause why any man should be astonished at this their stubbornnesse, as though it were a strange matter, seeing he haue beene forewarned so long before, that it should so come to passe: and moreouer, that it pleased God to create and make certaine to this selfe same purpose, that the Sonne of God might be glorified in their iust condemnation. Thirdly, for that the glory of Christ is hereby set foorth greatly, whereas notwithstanding Christ remaineth the sure head of his Church, and they that stumble at him cast downe and ouerthrow themselues, and not Christ. Fourthly, although they be created to this ende and purpose, yet their fall and decay is not to be attributed to God, but to their owne obstinate stubbornnesse which commeth betweene Gods decree, and the execution thereof of their condemnation, and is the true and proper cause of their destruction. ✣ Psal.118,22 matt 21,42. Act.4,11. ✣ Esai. 8,14. rom.9,33.

3 The contrary member, to wit, he describeth the singular excellencie of the elect: & also left any man should doubt whether hee be chosen or not, the Apostle calleth vs backe to the effectuall calling, that is, to the voyce of the Gospell sounding both in our eares and mindes by the outward preaching and Sacraments, whereby wee may certeinly vnderstand that euerlasting decree of our saluation, (which otherwise is most secret & hidden) and that through the onely mercy of God, who freely chuseth and calleth vs. Therefore this onely remaineth, sayth he, that by all meanes possible wee set foorth so great goodnesse of the most mightie God.

9 He returneth to that generall exhortation.

10 A reason why we ought to liue holily, to wit, because we are citizens of heauen, and therefore we ought to liue according to the Lawe, not of this world, which is most corrupt, but of the heauenly citie, although we be strangers in the world.

11 Another argument: The children of God liue not according to the flesh, that is, according to that corrupt nature, but according to the spirit. Therefore fleshly motions ought not to beare rule in vs.

12 The third argument: for although thofe lustes flatter vs, yet they cease not to fight against our saluation. 13 The fourth argument, taken of the profit of so doing: for by this meanes also wee prouide for our good name and estimation, whilest wee compell them at length to change their mindes, which speake euill of vs. ✣ Chap.3,16. 14 The fifth argument, which also is of great force: Because the glory of God is greatly set foorth by that meanes, whilest by example of our honest life, euen the most prophane men are brought vnto God, and submit themselues vnto him. ✣ Matth.5,16. b When God shall also haue mercy on them. 15 That which he spake generally, he now expoundeth by parts, describing seuerally euery mans duety. And first of all he speaketh of obedience which is due both to the Lawes, and also to the Magistrates both higher & lower. * Rom.13,1. c By ordinances, is meant the framing & ordering of euill gouernment: which he calleth ordinance of man, not because man inuented it, but because it is proper to men. 16 The first argument: because the Lord is the authour and reuenger of the policie of men, tha is, which is set amongst men: and therefore the true seruants of the Lord must abuse all others be diligent obseruers of this order. 17 He preuenteth a cauill which is made by some, ☞ say they will obey Kings & the higher Magistrates, and yet contemne their ministers: as though their ministers were not armed with their authoritie which sent them. 18 The second argument taken of the end of this order, which is not onely most profitable, but also very necessary: seeing that by this meanes vertue is rewarded, and vice punished: wherein ☞ quietnesse and happinesse of this life consisteth. 19 Hee declareth the first argument more amply, shewing that Christian libertie doeth amongst all things least, or not at all consist herein, to wit, to cast off the bridle of Lawes, (as at that time some altogether vnskilfull in the kingdome of God reported) but rather in this, that liuing holily according to the will of God, wee should make manifest to all men, that the Gospel is not a cloake for sinne & wickednesse, seeing we are in such sort free, that yet we are still the seruants of God, and not of sinne. 20 He diuideth the ciuill life of man, by occasion of those things which he spake into two generall parts: to wit, into those duelies which priuate men owe to priuate men, and especially the faithfull to the faithfull, & into that subiection whereby inferiours are bound to their superiours: but so, that Kings be not made equall to God, seeing that feare is due to God, and honour to Kings. d Be charitable and dutifull towardes all men. ✣ Chap.1,12. rom.12.10. e The assemblie & fellowship of the brethren, as Zac. 11.14. ✣ Ephes.5,6 coloss.3,12. 21 He goe h to the duetie of seruants towards their masters, which he describeth with these bounds, that seruants submit themselues willingly and not by constraint, not onely to the good and courteous, but also to the froward and sharpe maisters. ☞ 2.Cor 7,10. 22 The taking away of an obiection. Indeed the condition of seruants is hard, especially if they haue froward maisters: but this their subiection shall be so much the more acceptable to God, if his will prenaile more with seruants, then the masters iniuries.

for [f] conscience toward God endure griefe, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what praise is it, if when ye be buffeted for your faults, yee take it patiently? but and if when ye doe well, ye suffer wrong and take it patiently, this is acceptable to God.

21 [23] For herevnto ye are called: for Christ also suffered for you, leauing you an [g] example that ye should follow his steps, 22 * Who did no sinne, neither was there guile found in his mouth.

23 Who when he was reuiled, reuiled not again: when hee suffered, he threatned not: but [24] committed it to him [25] that iudgeth righteously.

24 * [26] Who his owne selfe bare our sinnes in his body on the tree, that we being dead to sinne, should liue in righteousnesse, by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For ye were as sheepe going astray: but are now returned vnto the Shepheard and Bishop of your soules.

[f] Because he meaketh a conscience of it to offend God, by whose good will and appointment, he knoweth this burden is layd vpon him.

23 He mittigateth the grieuousnesse of seruitude, while he sheweth plainely that Christ died also for seruants, that they should beare so much the more patiently this inequality betwixt men which are of one selfesame nature, moreouer setting before them Christ that Lord of Lords for an ensample, he signifieth that they cannot but seeme too delicate, which shew themselues more grieued in bearing of iniuries, then Christ himselfe who was most iust, & most sharply of al afflicted, and yet was most patient. [g] A borrowed kinde of speech taken of painters and schoolmasters. * Esai.53.9. 1.John 3.5. 24 He sheweth them a remedie against iniuries, to wit, that they commend their cause to God, by the ensample of Christ. 25 Hee seemeth now to turne his speech to maisters, which haue also themselues a master and iudge in heauen: who will iustly reuenge the iniuries that are done to seruants without any respect of persons. * Esai.53.5. matt.8.17. 26 He calleth the seruants backe from the consideration of the iniuries which they are constrained to beare, to thinke vpon the greatnesse, and the end of the benefite receiued of Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 That Christian women should not contemne their husbandes, though they be infidels. 3 Hee bringeth in examples of godly Women. 8 Generall exhortations, 14 patiently to beare persecutions, 15 and boldly to yeeld a reason of their faith. 18 Christes example.

LIkewise * [1] let the wiues be subiect to their husbands, [2] that euen they which obey not the word, may without the word be won by the conuersation of the wiues.

2 While they behold your pure conuersation which is with feare:

3 * [3] Whose apparelling let it not bee that outward, with broidered haire, and gold put about, or in putting on of apparell:

4 But let it bee the [a] hidden man of the heart, which consisteth in the incorruption of a meeke and quiet spirit, which is [b] before God a thing much set by.

5 [4] For euen after this manner in time past did the holy women, which trusted in God, tire themselues, and were subiect to their husbands.

6 As Sara obeyed Abraham, and * called him Sir: whose daughters ye are, while ye doe well, [5] not being afraid of any terrour.

7 * [6] Likewise ye husbands, [c] dwell with them as men of [d] knowledge, [7] giuing [e] honour vnto the woman, as vnto the weaker [f] vessell, [8] euen as they which are heires together of the [g] grace of life, 9 that your prayers be not interrupted.

8 [10] Finally, be ye all of one mind: one suffer with another: loue as brethren, be pitifull, be courteous.

9 * [11] Not rendring euill for euill, neither reboke for rebuke: but contrariwise blesse, [12] knowing that ye are therevnto called, that ye should be heires of blessing.

10 * [13] For if any man long after life, and to [h] see good dayes, let him refraine his tongue from euill, and his lips that they speake no guile.

11 * Let him eschew euill and doe good: let him seeke peace and follow after it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are ouer the righteous, and his eares are open vnto their prayers: and the [i] face of the Lord is against them that do euill.

13 [14] And who is it that will harme you, if ye follow that which is good?

14 * Notwithstanding blessed are ye, if ye suffer for righteousnesse sake. 15 Yea, * feare not their [k] feare, neither be troubled.

15 But [l] sanctifie the Lord God in your hearts, 16 and be ready alwayes to giue an answere to euery man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, with meeknesse and reuerence.

16 Hauing a good conscience, that when they speake euill of you as of euill doers, they may be ashamed which slander your good conuersation in Christ.

17 [17] For it is better (if the will of God be so) that ye suffer for well doing, then for euill doing.

18 * [18] For Christ also hath once suffered for sinnes, [19] the iust for the vniust, [20] that he might

[f] The woman is called a vessell after the manner of the Hebrewes, because the husband vseth her as his fellow & helper to liue faithfully before God. 8 The third argument: for that they are equall in that which is the chiefest (that is to say, in the benefit of eternall life) which otherwise are vnequall as touching the gouernance and conuersation at home, and therefore they are not be despised although they be weake.

[g] Of that gracious and free benefite whereby we haue euerlasting life giuen vs.

9 The fourth argument. All brawlings and chidings must be eschewed, because they hinder prayers, and the whole seruice of God wherevnto both the husband and the wife are equally called.

10 He returneth to common exhortations and commendeth concord and whatsoeuer things pertaine to the maintenance of peace and mutuall

* Colos.3,18. ephes.5,22.

[1] In the third place he setteth forth the vertues duetie to their husbands, commanding them to be obedient.

[2] He speaketh namely of them which had husbands that were not Christians, which ought so much the more be subiect to their husbands, that by their honest and chaste conuersation they may gaine them to the Lord.

[3] He condemneth the riot and excesse of women and setteth foorth their true apparelling such as is precious before God: to wit, [4] inward & incorruptible which consisteth in a meeke and quiet spirit. [a] Which hath his feate fastened in [b] heart: so that the hid man is set against [c] outward decking of the body. b Precious indeed, and so taken of God. 4 An argument taken of the example of women, and especially of Sara, who was the mother of all beleeuers. * Gen.18.12. 5 Because women are of nature fearefull, hee giueth them to vnderstand, that he requireth of them that subiection, which is not wrung out of them either by force or feare.

* 1 Cor.7,3. 6 He teacheth husbands also their duetes, to wit, that the more vnderstanding and wisedome they haue, the more wisely and circumspectly they behaue themselues. c Doe all the duties of wedlocke. d The more wisedome the husband hath, the more circumspectly hee must behaue himselfe in bearing those discommodities, which through [e] womans weakenesse oft times cause trouble both to the husband & the wife. 7 The second argument, because [f] wife notwithstanding that she is weaker by nature then the man, is an excellent instrument of the man made to farre most excellent vses: wherevpon it followeth that she is not therefore to be neglected because she is weake, but on the contrarie part shee ought to be so much the more cared for. e Hauing an honest care of her.

8 The third argument: for that they are equall in that which is the chiefest (that is to say, in the benefit of eternall life) which otherwise are vnequall as touching the gouernance and conuersation at home, and therefore they are not be despised although they be weake.

[g] Of that gracious and free benefite whereby we haue euerlasting life giuen vs.

9 The fourth argument. All brawlings and chidings must be eschewed, because they hinder prayers, and the whole seruice of God wherevnto both the husband and the wife are equally called.

10 He returneth to common exhortations and commendeth concord and whatsoeuer things pertaine to the maintenance of peace and mutuall

* Esai.53,9. 1.Pet.2,22. 1.Pet.3,18.

[1] He confirmeth the former exhortation by the example of Christ, who suffered for our sinnes, that we might be made partakers of his righteousnesse. 2 Another argument being partly taken of things coupled together, to wit, because Christ bringeth vs to his Father that same way that he went himselfe, and partly from the cause efficient: to wit, because Christ is not only set before vs for an example to follow, but also hee holdeth vs vp by his vertue in all the difficulties of this life, vntill he bring vs to his Father.

21 Another Argument taken of the happy end of these afflictions, wherein also Christ goeth before vs both in example and vertue, as one who suffered most grieuous torments euen vnto death, although but in one part onely of him, to wit, in the flesh or mans nature, but yet became conqueror by the vertue of his diuinity.

m As touching his manhood, for his body was dead, and his soule feit the sorowes of death.

bring vs to God, [21] and was put to death concerning the [m] flesh, but was quickened by the spirit.

19 [22] By ‖ the which ne also went, and preached vnto the ‖ spirits that are in prison.

20 Which were in time passed disobedient, when [n] once the long suffering of God abode in the dayes of * Noe, while the Arke was preparing, wherein few, that is, eight [o] soules were saued in the water.

21 [23] Whereof the baptisme that now is, answering that figure, (which is not a putting away of the filth of the flesh, but a confident demanding which a good conscience maketh to P God) saueth vs also [24] by the resurrection of Iesus Christ.

22 Which is at the right hand of God, gone into heauen, to whom the Angels, and Powers, and might are subiect.

22 A secret obiection: Christ indeed might do this, but what is that to vs? yet (saith the Apostle) for Christ hath shewed to doth this vertue in all ages both to the preseruation of the godly, were they neuer so few and miserable, and to reuenge the rebellion of his enemies, as it appeareth by the historie of the flood: for Christ is he which in those dayes (when God through his patience appointed a time of repentance to the whole) was present not in corporall presence, but by his diuine vertue, preaching repentance euen by the mouth of Noe himselfe who then prepared the Arke, to those disobedient spirit which are now in prison waiting for the full recompense of their rebellion, and saued those fewe (that is, eight onely persons) in the water. ‖ By the vertue of which Spirit, that is to say of the diuinity: therefore this word, Spirit, cannot in this place taken for the soule, vnlesse we will say, that Christ was raised vp againe, and quickened by the vertue of his soule. ‖ He calleth them spirits, in respect of his time, not in respect of the time that they were in the flesh. n This word (once) sheweth that there was a further most day appointed, and if that were once past, there should be no more. * Gen. 6. 14. mat. 24. 33. luke 17. 26. o Mea. 13 A proportionall applying of the former example to the times which followed the comming of Christ: for that preseruation of Noe in the waters was a figure of our Baptisme, not as though that materiall water of Baptisme saueth vs, as those waters which bare vp the Arke saued Noe, but because Christ with his inward vertue, which the outward Baptisme shadoweth, preserueth vs being washed, so that wee may call vpon God with a good conscience. p The conscience being sanctified may freely call vpon God. 24 That (el esum) vertue, whereby Christ rose againe, and now being carried vnto heauen, hath receiued all power, death at this day defend and preserue vs.

CHAP. IV.

1 He bringeth in Christs example and applieth it 6 to the mortifying of the flesh, especially commending Charity: 12 And so intreateth of patience. 17 That it is necessary that correction begin at the Church.

FOrasmuch [1] then as Christ hath suffered for vs in the flesh, arme your selues likewise with the same mind, which is, that he which hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sinne,

2 That he henceforward should liue (as much time as [a] remaineth in the flesh) not after the lusts of men, but after the will of God.

3 [2] For it is sufficient for vs that we haue spent the time past of the life, after the lust [b] of the Gentiles walking in wantonnes, lusts, drunkennes, in gluttony, drinkings, and in abominable idolatries.

4 [3] Wherein it seemeth to them [c] strange, that ye runne not with them vnto the same excesse of riot: therefore speake they euill of you.

5 Which shall giue account to him, that is ready to iudge quicke and dead.

6 [4] For vnto this purpose was the Gospell preached also vnto the dead, that they might be condemned according to men in the flesh, but might liue according to God in the spirit.

7 [5] Now the end of all things is at hand. Bee ye therefore sober, and watching in prayer.

8 [6] But aboue all things haue feruent loue among you: * for loue shall couer the multitude of sinnes.

9 [7] Be ye * harberous one to another, without grudging.

10 [8] * Let euery man as he hath receiued the gift, minister the same one to another, [9] as good disposers of the manifold grace of God.

11 [10] If any man speake, let him speake as the words of God. If any man minister, let him doe it as of the ability which God ministreth, that God in all things may bee glorified through Iesus Christ, to whom is praise and dominion for euer, and euer, Amen.

12 [11] Dearely beloued, thinke it not [d] strange [12] concerning the fiery triall, which is among you to prooue you as though some strange thing were come vnto you.

13 [13] But reioyce, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christs sufferings, that when his glory shall appeare, ye may be glad and reioyce.

14 * [14] If ye be railed vpon for the Name of Christ, blessed are ye: for the [e] spirit of glorie and of God resteth vpon you: which on their part is euill spoken of, but on your part is glorified.

15 [15] But let none of you suffer as a murtherer, or as a thiefe, or an euill doer, or as a busiebody in other mens matters.

16 But if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed: but let him glorifie God in this behalfe.

17 [16] For the time is come that iudgement must begin at the house of God. [17] If it first begin at vs, what shall the end be of them which obey not the Gospel of God?

18 * And if the [f] righteous scarcely bee saued, a Hauing ended his digression and sliding from his matter, now he returneth to the exhortation which he brake off, taking occasion by that which he said touching the death, and resurrection of Christ, so defining our sanctification, that to the sanctified, is all one as to suffer in the flesh, that is to say: to leaue off from our wickednesse and vicionsnesse: and to rise againe to God, that is to say, to be renued by the vertue of the holy Ghost, that wee may lead the rest of our life which remaineth, after the will of God, As much of this present life as remaineth yet to be passed ouer. * Ephes. 4. 22. 2 By putting vs in minde of the dishonestly of our former life led in the filth of sinne, he calleth vs to earnest repentance. b Wickedly and licentiously after the manner of the Gentiles. 3 That wee be not mooued with the enemies peruerse and slanderous iudgements of vs, wee haue to set against them that last iudgement of God which remaineth for them, for none, whether they bee then found liuing, or were dead before, shall escape it. c They thinke it a new and strange matter. 4 A digression because hee made mention of the last generall iudgement. And he preuenteth an obiection, that seeing Christ came very lately, they may seeme to be excusable which died before. But this * Apostle denieth for (saith he) this selfe same Gospell was preached vnto them also: (for he speaketh vnto the Iewes) and that to the same end that I now preach it vnto you, to wit, that the flesh being abolished & put away (that is to say, that wicked & naughtie corruption which reigneth in men) they should suffer themselues to be gouerned by the vertue of the Spirit of God.

y He returneth to his purpose, vsing an argument taken from the circumstance of the time, because the last end is at hand, and therefore we must so much the more diligently watch and pray with true sobriety of minde.

6 He commendeth charity of one toward another, because it doeth as it were bury a multitude of sinnes, and therefore preferreth and maintaineth peace and concord: for they that loue one another, doe easily forgiue one another their offences. * Prou. 10. 12.

7 Of all the duties of charity, he commendeth one, namely, which was at that time most necessary, to wit, hospitality, which he will haue to be voluntary and most curteous and bountifull. * Rom. 12, 13. heb. 13, 2.

8 He sheweth the vse of charity, to wit, that euery man bestow that gift which he hath receiued to the profit of his neighbour. * Rom. 12, 6. phil. 2, 14. 9 A reason, because that what gifts soeuer wee haue, wee haue receiued it of God vpon this condition, to be his disposers & stewards. 10 He reckoneth vp two kindes of these gifts as chiefe, to wit, the office of teaching in the Church, and the other Ecclesiasticall functions, wherein two things especially are to be obserued, to wit, that the pure word of God bee taught, and whatsoeuer is done, be referred to the glorie of God the Father, in Christ as to the proper marke. 11 Because the crosse is ioyned with the sincere profession of Religion, the Apostle fully repeateth that which bee touched before warning vs not to bee troubled at persecutions and afflictions, as a newe and strange thing. d As though some new thing had befallen you, which you neuer thought of before. 12 The first reason: Because the Lord meaneth not to consume vs with this fire (as it were) but to purge vs of our drosse, and make vs perfite. 13 Another reason: Because she afflictions of the godly and wicked differ very much, and chiefly in three points. First, because the godly communicate with Christ in their afflictions, and therefore shall in their time be partakers also of his glory. * Matth. 5, 10. 14 Secondly, because that although the infidels thinke farre otherwise, who in afflicting the godly, blaspheme God, yet the godly in that they are so railed vpon, are honoured of God with y true spirituall glory, and their adoption sealed in them by the Spirit of God. e By Spirit here vnderstand the gifts of the Spirit. 15 The third difference: for the godly are not afflicted for their euill doings, but for righteousnesse sake as Christians: whereby it commeth to passe, that the Crosse, seeing it is a testimonie vnto them of faith and righteousnesse, ministreth vnto them not an occasion of sorrow, but of vnspeakable ioy: now the Apostle propoundeth y third difference vnder y forme of an exhortation. 16 The third reason because the Lord of all the world being especially carefull for them of his household, doeth therefore chastise them first of all, yet so that he keepeth a measure in his greatest seuerities: And as he hath alwayes vsed to do heretofore, so doth he now specially who as he exhibited himselfe in person to his Church. 17 Least the godly should be offended and stumble at that vaine shadow of felicitie of the wicked, as though God were not y gouernour of the world, for that the wicked are in good case, & the godly in euil, the Apostle teacheth by an argument of a comparison of them together, that God who spareth not his owne, but nurtureth them vnder the crosse, will at length in his time handle the rebellious and wicked farre otherwise, whom hee hath appointed to vtter destruction. * Proverb. 2, 22, where shall the vngodly and the sinner appeare?

19 18 Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God, commit their soules to him in well doing, as vnto a faithfull Creator.

18 The conclusion, Seeing the godly are not afflicted by chance, but by the will of God, they ought not to despaire, but goe forward, notwithstanding in the way of holinesse and well doing, commending themselues to God their faithfull Creator, that is to say, their Father.

CHAP. V.

1 Hee warneth the Elders not to vsurpe authoritie ouer the Church. 5 Willing the yonger sort to be willing to be taught, and to be modest. 8 To be sober and watchfull to resist the cruell aduersarie.

THe [1] Elders which are among you, [2] I beseech which am also an Elder, and a witnesse of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shalbe reuealed,

2 3 a Feed the [4] flocke of God, [5] which dependeth vpon you, [6] caring for it not by constraint, but willingly: not for filthie lucre, but of a ready minde:

3 Not as though yee were Lords ouer Gods [b] heritage, but that yee may be ensamples to the flocke.

4 7 And when that chiefe Shepheard shall appeare, ye shall receiue an incorruptible crowne of glory.

5 8 Likewise yee yonger submit your selues vnto the Elders, and submit your selues euery man one to another: * decke your selues inwardly in lowlinesse of minde: 9 for * God resisteth the proud, and giueth grace to the humble.

6 Humble * your selues therefore [10] vnder the mighty hand of God, that hee may exalt you in due time.

7 * Cast all your care on him: for hee careth for you.

8 [11] Be sober, and watch: for * your aduersary the deuill as a roaring lyon walketh about, seeking whom he may deuoure:

9 Whom resist stedfast in the faith, [12] knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your [c] brethren which are in the world.

10 [13] And the God of all grace, which hath called vs vnto his eternall glory by Christ Iesus, after that ye haue suffered a little, make you perfite, confirme, strengthen, and stablish you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for euer and euer, Amen.

12 [14] By Siluanus a faithfull brother vnto you as I suppose, haue I written briefly, exhorting and testifying how that this is the true grace of God, wherein ye stand.

13 [15] The Church that is at [d] Babylon elected together with you, saluteth you, and Marcus my sonne.

14 Greete yee one another with the * kisse of loue. Peace be with you all which are in Christ Iesus, Amen.

* Rom. 12, 10.
9 Because pride lifteth to many, to be the way vnto the glory of this life, the Apostle witnesseth on the contrary side, that ignominie and shame is the reward of pride, and glory the reward of modestie.
* Iames 4 6.
* Iames 4, 10.
10 Because these proud and lofte spirits threaten the modest and humble, the Apostle warneth vs to set the power of God against the vanitie of proud men, and to hang wholly vpon his prouidence.
* Psal. 55, 23. matth. 6, 25. luke 12, 22.
11 The cruelties of Satan, who seeketh by all meanes to deuoure vs, is ouercome by watchfulnesse and faith.
* Luke 22, 31.
12 The persecutions which Satan stirreth vp, are neither newe nor proper to any one man, but from old and ancient time common to the whole Church, and therefore wee must suffer that patiently, wherein wee haue such & so many fellowes of our conflicts & combates. c Amongst your brethren which are dispersed throughout the world.
13 Hee sealeth vp as it were with a seale, the former exhortation with a solemne prayer, against willing them to aske increase of strength at his hands, of whom they had the beginning, and hope to haue the accomplishment, to wit, of God the Father in Iesus Christ, in whom wee are sure of the glory of eternall life.
14 Continuance and perseuerance in the doctrine of the Apostles, is the only ground and foundation of Christian strength: Now the summe of the Apostles doctrine, is saluation freely giuen of God. 15 Familiar salutations. d In that famous citie of Assyria, where Peter the Apostle of the circumcision then was. * Rom. 16, 16. 1. cor. 16, 20. 2. cor. 13, 11.

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERALL OF PETER.

CHAP. I.

3 Hauing spoken of the bountifulnesse of God, 5 and of the vertues of faith, 8 He exhorteth them to holinesse of life. 12 And that his counsell may be the more effectuall, 14 Hee sheweth that his death is at hand, 16 & that himselfe did see the power of Christ, which he opened vnto them.

SImon [1] Peter a seruant & an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to you which haue obtained like precious faith with vs by the [a] righteousnesse of our God and Sauiour Iesus Christ.

2 Grace and peace bee multiplied to you, [2] through the acknowledging of God, and of Iesus Christ our Lord,

3 [3] According as his [b] diuine power hath giuen vnto vs all things that pertaine vnto [c] life and godlinesse, through the [d] acknowledging of him that hath called vs vnto glory and vertue.

4 [4] Whereby most great and precious promises are giuen vnto vs, that by them yee should be partakers of the [e] diuine nature, in that ye flee the corruption, which is in the [f] world through [g] lust.

5 5 Therefore [g] ue euen all diligence thereunto: [h] ioyne moreouer vertue with your faith: and with vertue, knowledge:

6 6 And with knowledge, temperance: and with temperance, patience: and with patience, godlinesse:

1 A salutation wherein he giueth them to vnderstand that he dealeth with them as Christs ambassadour, and otherwise agreeth with them in one selfe same faith which is grounded vpon the righteousnesse of Iesus Christ our God and Sauiour. a In that that God standing to his promises, shewed himselfe faithfull, and therefore iust vnto vs.
2 Faith is the acknowledging of God and Christ, from whence all our blessednesse issueth and floweth. 3 Christ setteth foorth himselfe to vs plainely in the Gospel, and that by his onely power, and giueth vs all things which are requisite both to eternall life, wherein hee hath appointed to glorifie vs, and also to godlinesse, in that he doeth furnish vs with true vertue. b He speaketh of Christ, whom hee maketh God, and the onely Sauiour. c Vnto saluation. d This is the summe of true Religion, to be led by Christ to the Father, as it were by the hand.
4 An explication of the former sentence, declaring the causes of so great benefits, to wit, God and his free promise, from whence all these benefits proceed. I say, these most excellent benefits, whereby we are deliuered from the corruption of the world, (that is, made, after a sort, like vnto God himselfe. e By the diuine nature, hee meaneth not the substance of the Godhead, but the partaking of these qualities whereby the image of God is reflorished in vs. f In men. g For lust is the seate of corruption, and hath his seate euen in our very bowels and inmost parts. 5 Hauing layd the foundation (that is, hauing declared the causes of our saluation & especially of our sanctification) now he beginneth to exhort vs to giue our mindes wholly to the true vse of this grace. And he beginneth with faith without which nothing can please God, & hee warneth vs to haue it full fraught with vertue (that is to say) with good & godly maners, being ioyned with the knowledge of Gods will, without which there is neither faith neither any true vertue. h Supply also, and supports or ayde. 6 He reckoneth vp certaine other principall vertues, whereof some pertaine to the first Table of the Law, others to the last.

7 And with godlineſſe, brotherly kindneſſe: and with brotherly kindneſſe, loue.

8 7 For if theſe things be among you, and abound, they will make you that ye neither ſhallbe idle, nor vnfruitfull in the acknowledging of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt:

9 For he that hath not theſe things, is blinde, and i cannot ſee farre off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old ſinnes.

10 8 Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling and election ſure: for if yee doe theſe things, ye ſhall neuer fall.

11 For by this meanes an entring ſhallbe miniſtred vnto you abundantly into the euerlaſting kingdome of our Lord and Sauiour Ieſus Chriſt.

12 9 Wherefore, I will not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of theſe things, though that ye haue knowledge, and be ſtabliſhed in the preſent trueth.

13 For I thinke it meet as long as I am in this k tabernacle, to ſtirre you vp by putting you in remembrance,

14 Seeing I know that the time is at hand that I muſt lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lord Ieſus Chriſt hath * ſhewed me.

15 * I will endeuour therefore alwayes, that ye alſo may be able to haue remembrance of theſe things after my departing.

16 * 10 For we followed not deceiueable fables, when we opened vnto you the power, and comming of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt, but with our eyes we ſaw his maieſtie:

17 For he receiued of God the Father honour and glory, when there came ſuch a voyce to him from that excellent Glory, * This is my beloued Sonne, in whom I am well pleaſed.

18 And this voyce wee heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the holy mount.

19 11 We haue alſo a moſt ſure word of the Prophets, 12 to the which ye doe well that yee take heed, as vnto a light that ſhineth in a darke place, vntill the l day dawne, and the m day-ſtarre ariſe in your hearts.

20 * 13 So that ye firſt know this, that no prophecie of the n Scripture is of any o priuate interpretation:

21 For the prophecie came not in old time by the will of man: but P holy men of God ſpake as they were q mooued by the holy Ghoſt.

7 As thoſe fruits doe ſpring from the true knowledge of Chriſt, ſo in like ſort the knowledge it ſelfe is faſtened, and groweth by bringing forth ſuch fruits, inſomuch that he that is vnfruitfull did either neuer know the true light, or hath forgotten the gift of ſanctification which hee hath receiued.

i He that hath not an effectuall knowledge of God in him, is blind as touching the kingdome of God, for he cannot ſee things that are afarre off, that is to ſay, heauenly things.

8 The concluſion: Therefore ſeeing our calling and election is approoued by thoſe fruits, and is confirmed in vs, and moreouer ſeeing this is the onely way to the euerlaſting kingdome of Chriſt, it remaineth that we caſt our minds wholly thatway.

9 An amplifying of the concluſion ioyned with a modeſt exceſſe, wherein he declareth his loue towards them, and foreſeeleth them of his death, which is at hand.

k In this body.

* Iohn 21, 18.

* 1 Cor. 1. 17. and 2. 1.

10 Another amplification taken both of the great certaintie and alſo excellencie of this doctrine, as whereof our Lord Ieſus Chriſt the ſonne of God is authour, whoſe glory ſ Apoſtle himſelfe both ſaw and heard.

* Matth. 17. 5.

11 The trueth of the Goſpel is hereby alſo manifeſted, in ſ it agreeth wholly with the foretellings of the Prophets.

12 The doctrine of the Apoſtles doeth not ſhut out the doctrine of the Prophets, for they confirme each other by each others teſtimonies, but the Prophets were as candles which gaue light vnto the blinde, vntill the brightneſſe of the Goſpell began to ſhine. l A more full and open knowledge then was vnder the ſhadowes of the Law. m That cleaner doctrine of the Goſpel.

* 2 Tim. 3. 16.

13 The Prophets are to be read, but ſo, that wee aske of God the gift of interpretation: for hee that is the authour of the writings of the Prophets, is alſo the interpreter of them.

n He ſo meeteth the Scripture and prophecie together, to diſtinguiſh true Prophecies from falſe. o For all interpretation commeth from God. p The godly interpreters and meſſengers. q Inſpired of God: and theſe their motions were in very good order, and not ſuch as were the motions of the prophane ſoothſayers and foretellers of things to come.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee foretelleth them of falſe teachers, 3 whoſe wicked ſleights and deſtruction hee declareth. 12 Hee compareth them to brute beaſtes, 17 and to welles without water, 20 becauſe they ſeeke to withdrawe men from God to their vile filthineſſe.

BVt there were falſe prophets alſo among the a people, euen as there ſhallbe falſe teachers among you: which priuily ſhall bring in damnable hereſies, euen denying the Lord, that hath bought them, and bring vpon themſelues ſwift damnation.

2 2 And many ſhall follow their deſtructions, by whom the way of trueth ſhall bee euill ſpoken of.

3 3 And through couetouſnes ſhall they with fained words make b merchandiſe of you, 4 whoſe condemnation long ſince reſteth not, and their deſtruction ſlumbreth not.

4 For if God ſpared not the * Angels that had ſinned, but caſt them downe into c hell, and deliuered them into d chaines of darkeneſſe, to bee kept vnto damnation:

5 Neither hath ſpared the e old world, but ſaued * Noe the eight perſon a f preacher of righteouſneſſe, and brought in the Flood vpon the world of the vngodly,

6 And * turned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrhe into aſhes, condemned them and ouerthrew them, and made them an enſample vnto them that after ſhould liue vngodly,

7 And deliuered iuſt Lot vexed with the vncleanly converſation of the wicked:

8 (For hee being righteous, and dwelling among them, in g ſeeing and hearing, h vexed his righteous ſoule from day to day with their vnlawfull deeds.)

9 The Lord i knoweth to deliuer the godly out of tentation, and to reſerue the vniuſt vnto the day of iudgement vnder puniſhment:

10 5 And chiefly them that walke after the fleſh, in the luſt of vncleanneſſe, and deſpiſe gouernment, which are bold, and ſtand in their owne conceit, and feare not to ſpeake euill of them that are in k dignitie.

11 Whereas the Angels which are greater both in power and might, giue not railing iudgement againſt them before the Lord.

12 6 But theſe as naturall bruit beaſts, led with ſenſualitie, and l made to be taken, and deſtroyed, ſpeake euill of thoſe things which they know not, and ſhall periſh through their owne m corruption,

13 And ſhall receiue the wages of vnrighteouſneſſe, as they which count it pleaſure daily to liue deliciouſly. ‖ Spots they are and blots, delighting themſelues in their deceiuings, n in feaſting with you,

1 As in times paſt there were two kinds of Prophets, the one true, the other falſe, ſo Peter foretelleth them that there ſhallbe ſome true and ſome falſe teachers in the Church, inſomuch that Chriſt himſelfe denied of ſome, which notwithſtanding ſhall call him redeemer.

a Vnder the Law, while the ſtate and policie of the Iewes was yet ſtanding.

b There ſhall not onely be hereſies, but alſo many followers of them.

3 Couetouſneſſe for the moſt part is a companion of hereſie, and maketh merchandiſe euen of ſoules. They will abuſe you, and ſell you as they ſell cattell in a Faire.

4 A comfort for the Godly. God who caſt the Angels that fell away from him headlong into the darkeneſſe of hell, at length to be iudged, and who deſtroyed the olde world with the flood, and preſerued Noe the eight perſon, and who burned Sodome and ſaued Lot, will deliuer his elect from theſe errors, and will vtterly deſtroy thoſe wrighteous.

14 7 Hauing eyes full of adulterie, and that cannot cease to sinne, beguiling vnstable soules, they haue hearts exercised with couetousnesse, they are the children of curse:

15 Which forsaking the right way, haue gone astray following the way of * Balaam the sonne of Bosor, which loued the wages of vnrighteousnes.

16 But hee was rebuked for his iniquity: for the dumbe beast speaking with mans voyce forbade the foolishnesse of the Prophet.

17 * 8 These are o welles without water, and cloudes carried about with a tempest, to whom the p blacke darkenesse is reserued for euer.

18 For in speaking q swelling words of vanity, they r beguile with wantonnesse through the lusts of the flesh them that were s cleane escaped from them which are wrapped in errour,

19 Promising vnto them liberty, and are them selues the * seruants of corruption: for of whomsoeuer a man is ouercome, euen vnto the same is he in bondage.

20 9 * For if they, after they haue escaped from the filthinesse of the world, through the acknowledging of the Lord, and of the Sauiour Iesus Christ, are yet tangled againe therein, and ouercome, the latter end is worse with them then the beginning.

21 For it had beene better for them not to haue acknowledged the way of righteousnesse, then after they haue acknowledged it, to turne from the holy commandement giuen vnto them.

22 But it is come vnto them according to the true prouerbe, * The dogge is returned to his owne vomit: and the sow that was washed, to the wallowing in the mire.

7 Hee condemneth those men, as shewing euen in their behauiour and countenance an vnmeasurable lust, as making merchandise of the soules of light persons, as men exercised in all the crafters of couetousnesse, to be short, as men that sell themselues for money to curse the Sonnes of God after Balaams example, whom the dumbe beast reproued.
* Numb. 22, 23.
8 Iude 12.
9 Another note whereby they may be well knowne what manner of men they are, because they haue inwardly nothing but either vtterly vaine or very hurtfull, although they make a shew of some great goodnesse: but they shall not escape vnpunished for it, because vnder pretence of false liberty, they draw men into most miserable slauery of sinne.
*o Which boast of knowledge, and haue nothing in them. p Most grosse darknesse. q They deceiue with vaine and swelling words. r They take them as fishes are taken with the hooke. s Vnfainedly & indeed cleane departed from Idolatrie. * John 8. 34. Rom. 6. 10.*

CHAP. III.

1 Hee sheweth that hee writeth the same things againe. 2 Because they must often be stirred vp, 4 because dangers hung ouer their heads through certaine mockers. 8 Therefore he warneth the godly that they doe not after the iudgement of the flesh, 12 appoint the day of the Lord, 14 but that they thinke it alwayes at hand, 15 in which doctrine hee sheweth that Paul agreeth with him.

1 The remedy against those wicked enemies both of true doctrine and holinesse, is to be fought for by the continuall meditation of the writings of the Prophets and Apostles.
* 1 Tim. 4. 1.
2 Tim. 3. 1.
Iude 18.
2 Hee voucheth the second comming of Christ against the Epicures by name.
a Most grosse men, who will seeme wise by their contempt of God, & wicked boldnesse. 3 The reason which these mockers pretend, because the course of nature is all one as it was from the beginning: therefore the world is from euerlasting, and shallbe for euer.
4 He setteth against them the creation of heauen and earth by the word of God, which these men are willingly ignorant of. b Which appeared when the waters were gathered together into one place.

THis s second Epistle I now write vnto you, beloued, wherewith I stirre vp, and warne your pure minds.

2 To call to remembrance the words, which were tolde before of the holy Prophets, and also the commandement of vs the Apostles of our Lord and Sauiour.

3 * a This first vnderstand, that there shall come in the last dayes, a mockers, which will walke after their lusts,

4 3 And say, Where is the promise of his comming? for since the Fathers died, all things continue alike from the beginning of the creation.

5 4 For this they willingly know not, that the heauens were of olde, and the b earth that was of the water, and by the water, by the word of God.

6 5 Wherefore the world that then was, perished, ouerflowed with the c water.

7 6 But the heauens and earth, which are now, are kept by the same word in store, and reserued vnto fire against the day of condemnation, and of the destruction of vngodly men.

8 7 Dearely beloued, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord, * as a thousand yeeres, and a thousand yeeres as one day.

9 8 The Lord of that promise is not slacke (as some men count slackenesse) 9 but is patient toward vs, and * would haue no man to perish, but would all men to come to repentance.

10 10 But the day * of the Lord will come as a thiefe in the night, in the which the heauens shall passe away with a d noise, and the elements shall melt with heat, and the earth with the workes that are therein shall be burnt vp.

11 11 Seeing therefore that all these things must be dissolued, what manner persons ought ye to be in holy conuersation and godlinesse,

12 Looking for, and e hasting vnto the comming of that day of God, by the which the heauens being on fire, shall be dissolued, and the elements shall melt with heate?

13 But wee looke for * new heauens, and a new earth, according to his promise, f wherein dwelleth righteousnesse.

14 Wherefore, beloued, seeing that yee looke for such things, be diligent that yee may bee found of him in g peace, without spot and blamelesse.

15 * And suppose that the long suffering of our Lord is saluation, 12 euen as our beloued brother Paul according to the wisedome giuen vnto him wrote vnto you,

16 As one that in all his Epistles speaketh of these things: 13 among the ‖ which, some things are hard to be vnderstood, which they that are vnlearned and vnstable, wrest as they doe also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction.

17 Ye therefore beloued, seeing ye know these things before, beware, least yee be also plucked away with the errour of the wicked, and fall from your owne stedfastnesse.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Sauiour Iesus Christ: to him be glorie both now and for euermore. Amen.

5 Secondly, hee setteth against them the vniuersall flood which was the destruction, as it were of the whole world.
c For the waters returning into their former place this world, that is to say, this beauty of the earth, which we see, and all liuing creatures which liue vpon the earth perished.
6 Thirdly, he pronounceth that it shall not be harder for God to burne heauen and earth with fire, in that day which is appointed for the destruction of the wicked, (which thing he will also doe) then it was for him in times past to make them with his onely word and afterward to ouerwhelme them with water.
7 The taking away of an obiection: In that he seemeth to deferre this iudgement a long season, in respect of vs it is true, but not before God with whom there is no time either long or short.
* Psal. 90. 4.
8 The Lord will surely come, because he hath promised: and that neither sooner nor later then he hath promised.
9 A reason why the latter day commeth not out of hand, because God doth patiently waite till the elect be brought to repentance, that 12 Pauls Epistles are allowed by the expresse testimonie of Peter.

13 There be certaine of these things obscure and darke, whereof the vnlearned take occasion to ouerthrow some men that stand not fast, wresting the testimonies of the Scripture to their owne destruction. But this is the remedy against such deceit, to labour that wee may daily more and more grow vp and increase in the knowledge of Christ. ‖ That is to say, among the which things: for he disputeth not here whether Pauls Epistles be plaine or darke, but faith, that amongst those things which Paul hath written of in his Epistles, & Peter himselfe in these two of his owne, there are some things which cannot be easily vnderstood, and therefore are of some drawne to their owne destruction: and this he saith to make vs more attentiue and diligent, and not remoue vs from the reading of holy things, for to what ende should they haue written vaine speculations?

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERALL OF IOHN.

CHAP. I.

1 He teſtifieth that he bringeth the eternall word, wherein is life, 5 and light. 9 God will be mercifull vnto the faithfull, if groaning vnder the burden of their ſinnes, they learne to ſee vnto his mercy.

THat [1] which was from the beginning, which we haue [a] heard, which we haue ſeene with theſe our eyes, which wee haue looked vpon, and theſe hands of ours haue handled of that [b] word of life.

2 (For that life was made manifeſt, and we haue ſeene it, and beare witneſſe, and ſ ſhew vnto you that eternall life, which was with the Father, and was made manifeſt vnto vs.)

3 That I ſay, which we haue ſeene and heard declare we vnto you, [2] that yee may alſo haue fellowſhip with vs, and that our fellowſhip alſo may be with the Father and with his Sonne Ieſus Chriſt.

4 And theſe things write I vnto you, that your ioy may be full.

5 [3] This then is the meſſage, which we haue heard of him, and declare vnto you, that God * is light, and in him is no darkeneſſe.

6 If wee ſay that wee haue fellowſhip with him, and walke in darkeneſſe, we lie, and doe not truely.

7 But if we walke in the [d] light as he is in the light, we haue fellowſhip one with another, [4] and the * bloode of Ieſus Chriſt his Sonne cleanſeth vs from all ſinne.

8 [5] If we ſay that we haue no ſinne, we deceiue our ſelues, and t trueth is not in vs.

9 [6] If we acknowledge our ſinnes, he is [e] faithfull and iuſt, to [f] forgiue vs our ſinnes, and to cleanſe vs from all vnrighteouſneſſe.

10 [7] If wee ſay, wee haue not ſinned, wee make him [g] a liar, and his [h] word is not in vs.

1 He begin eth with the deſcription of the perſon of Chriſt, whom he maketh one and not two: and him both God from everlasting (for he was with the Father from the beginning, and is that eternall life) and alſo made true man, whom Iohn himſelfe and his companions, both heard and beholde, and handled.

a I heard him ſpeak. I ſaw him my ſelfe with mine eyes. I handled with mine hands him that is very God, being made very man, and not I alone, but others alſo that were with me.

b That ſame everlaſting word, by whom all things are made, and in whom onely there is life.

c Being ſent by him: and that doctrine is rightly ſaid to be ſhewed, for no man could ſo much as haue ſpeight of it, if it had not ſeene thus ſhewed.

t The vſe of this doctrine is this, that all of vs being coupled and ioyned together with Chriſt by faith, might become ſ Sonnes of God, in which thing onely conſiſteth all happineſſe. 3 Now he entreth into a queſtion, whereby we may vnderſtand that wee are ioyned together with Chriſt, to wit, if wee be governed by his light, which is perceived by the ordering of our life. And that he reaſoneth, God is in himſelfe moſt pure light, therefore he agreeth with them, which are light ſome, but with them which are dark ſome he hath no fellowſhip. * Iohn 3, 12. d God is ſaid to be light of his owne nature, and to be in light, that is to ſay, in that everlaſting infinite bleſſednes: & wee are ſayd to walke in light, in that the beames of that light doe ſhine vnto vs in the world. 4 A digreſſion or going from the matter: here is in hand with to the remiſſion of ſinnes: for this our ſanctification which walke in the light, is a teſtimony of our ioyning & knitting together with Chriſt: but becauſe this our light is very darke, wee muſt needes obtaine another benefit is Chriſt, to wit, that our ſinnes may be forgiuen vs being ſprinkled with his bloode: and this is concluſion is the proppe and ſtay of our ſalvation. * Heb. 9. 28. 1. peter 1. 19. reuel. 1, 5.

5 There is none but needeth this benefit, becauſe there is none that is not a ſinner. * 1. Kings 8. 46. 2. chron 6. 36. prou. 20, 9. e This place doeth fully refute that perfectnesſe, & workes of ſupererogation which the Papiſt dreame of. f Sathan, Iohn ſpeaketh not thus for modeſties ſake, as ſome ſay, but becauſe it is ſo indeede. 6 Therefore the beginning of ſalvation is to acknowledge our wickednes, and to require pardon of him who freely forgiueth all ſinnes, becauſe he hath promiſed ſo to doe, and he is faithfull and iuſt. g So then our ſalvation hangeth vpon the free promiſe of God, who becauſe he is faithfull and iuſt will performe that which he hath promiſed. h Where are then our merits? for this is our true felicity. 7 A rehearſall of the formerſentence: wherein he condemned all of ſinne without exception, in ſo much that if any man perſwade himſelfe other wiſe, he doeth as much as in him lieth, make the word of God himſelfe vaine and to no purpoſe, yea he maketh God a lyar, for ſo what end either in times paſt needed ſacrifices or now Chriſt and the Goſpel, if wee be noe ſinners? i They doe not owne & confeſſe themſelues, but alſo are blaſphemous againſt God. k His doctrine ſhall haue no place in vs, that is, in our hearts.

CHAP. II.

1 He declareth that Chriſt is our mediatour & aduocate, 3 and ſheweth that the knowledge of God conſiſteth in holines of life. 12 which appertaineth to all ſorts, 14 that depend on Chriſt alone: 15 Then having exhorted them to contemne the world. 18 he giueth warning that Antichriſts be ariſen, 24 and that the knowen trueth be ſtood vnto.

MY [1] little children, theſe things write I vnto you, that ye ſinne not: and if any man ſinne, wee haue an [a] Aduocate with the Father, Ieſus Chriſt, the Iuſt.

2 And he is the [b] reconciliation for our ſinnes: and not for ours onely, but alſo for the ſinnes of the [c] whole world.

3 [2] And hereby we are ſure that we [d] knowe him, * if we keepe his commandements.

4 [3] He that ſaith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandements, is a liar, and the trueth is not in him.

5 4 But he that keepeth his word, in him is the [e] loue of God perfect indeede: hereby wee know that we are in [f] him.

6 [5] He that ſaith he remaineth in him, ought euen ſo to walke as he hath walketh.

7 [6] Brethren, I write no new commandement vnto you: but an old commandement, which yee haue had from the beginning: this old commandement is that word, which ye haue heard from the beginning.

8 [7] Againe, a new commandement I write vnto you, that * which is true in him: and alſo in you: for the darkenes is paſt, & t the true light now ſhineth.

9 [8] He that ſaith that he is in that light, and hateth his brother, is in darkenes, vntill this time.

10 * He that loueth his brother, abideth in that light, and there is no occaſion of euill in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkeneſſe, and walketh in darkeneſſe, and knoweth not whither hee goeth, becauſe that darkeneſſe hath blinded his eyes.

12 [9] Little children, I I write vnto you, becauſe your ſinnes are forgiuen you for his [h] Names ſake.

1 He ſolueth not hereof that wee muſt giue our wicked nature the bridle, or ſinne ſo much the more freely, becauſe our ſinnes are cleanſed away by the blood of Chriſt, but wee muſt rather ſo much the more diligently reſiſt ſin. And yet we muſt not deſpaire because of our weakneſſe, for we haue an Aduocate and a purger, Chriſt Ieſus the iuſt, and therefore acceptable vnto his father.

a For men of all ſorts, of all ages and all places, ſo that this benefit belongeth not to the Iewes onely, of whom he ſpeaketh, as appeareth verſ. 7, but alſo to other nations.

1 a He returneth to the teſtimony of our coniunction with God, to wit, to ſanctification, declaring what it is to walke in ſ light, to wit, to keepe Gods commandements: & that holines doeth not conſiſt in thoſe things which men haue deuiſed, neither in a vaine profeſſion of the Goſpel.

b Loue muſt be vnderſtood of fayer & knowledge, as hath partly ben ſeene. c not ſo of a common knowledge. d For the Tree is knowne by the fruit. 4 Holineſſe, that is, a life ordered according to the preſcript of Gods commandements how weake ſoeuer they be, is of neceſſity ioyned with faith, that is, with the true knowledge of the Father in the Sonne. 4 He that keepeth Gods commandements, loueth God indeed. Hee that loueth God, is in God, or is ioyned together with God. Therefore hee that keepeth his commandements, is in him. f Whereunto we lose God. g He meaneth our coniunction with Chriſt. h Hee that is one with Chriſt, muſt needes liue his life: that is, muſt walke in his ſteps. 6 The Apoſtle going about to exp und the commandement of charity come toward ano her, telleth ſtill, that when he vrgeth holineſſe he bringeth no new treade of life (as they vſe to doe which deuiſe traditions, one after another) but putteth them in mind of the ſame Lawe which God gaue in the beginning, to wit, by Moſes, at that time that God began to giue Lawes to his people. 7 He addeth y the doctrine indeed is old, but it is now after a ſort new both in reſpect of Chriſt, and alſo of vs: in whom he through the Goſpel, engraueth his Law effectually, not in tables of ſtone, but in our mindes. h Which thing (to wit, that the doctrine is new of which I write ſome vew) is true in him and in you. 8 Now he commeth to the ſecond Table, that is, to charitie one toward another, & declareth that man hath true light in him, or is indeed regenerate & the ſonne of God, which hateth his brother: and ſuch an one wandreth miſerably in darkeneſſe, brageth of oeuen ſo great knowledge of God, for that wittingly & willingly he caſteth himſelfe headlong into hell. * Chap. 3. 14. 9 Hee returneth againe from ſanctification to remiſſion of ſins, becauſe y free reconciliation in Chriſt is the ground of our ſalvation, wherevpon afterwards ſanctification muſt be built as vpon a foundation. i Therefore I write vnto you, becauſe you are of their number whom God hath reconciled to himſelfe. k For his ſake, & in that he hee namech Chriſt, he ſhutteth out all others, whether they be in heauen or earth.

20 He sheweth that this doctrine agreeth to all ages, and first of all speaking to old men, he sheweth that Christ and his doctrine are passing ancient, and therefore if they be delighted with old things, nothing ought to be more acceptable vnto them.
21 He aduertiseth yong men, if they be distrout to s[h]e[w] their strength that they haue a most glorious combate set heere before them, to wit, Satan the worst enemie, who must be ouercome: willing them to be as sure of the victory as if they had already gotten it.
22 Finally, he sheweth to children, that that true Father, from whom they haue to looke for all good things, is set foorth vnto them in the Gospell.
23 He addeth afterward in like order, as many exhortations: as if he should say. Remember your fathers, as I wrote euen now, that the euerlasting Sonne of God is reuealed to vs, Remember ye yong men, that that strength whereby I said that you put Satan to flight, is giuen you by the word of God, which dwelleth in you.
24 The world which is full of wicked desires, lusts or pleasures & pride, is vtterly hated of our heauenly Father. Therefore the Father and the world cannot be loued together: and this admonition is very necessary for greene and flourishing youth. t Hee speaketh of the world, as it agreeth not with the will of God, for otherwise God is said to loue the world with an vnfinit loue, Iohn 3. 16 that is to say, those whom he chose out of the world. u Wherewith the Father is loued.
25 Hee sheweth how much better it is to obey the Fathers will, then the lusts of the world, by both their natures and vnlike euent. 26 Now he turneth himselfe to little children, which notwithstanding are well instructed in the summe of religion, and willeth them by diuerse reasons to shake off slouthfulnesse, which is too too familiar with that age. w Hee vseth this word (little) not because he speaketh to children, but to allure them the more by vsing such sweet words. 27 First, because the last time is at hand, for that the matter suffereth no delay. 28 Secondly because Antichrists, that is, such as fall from God, are already come, euen as they heard that they should come. And it was very requisite to warne them thereby & warrilesse age of that danger. 29 A digression against certaine offence & stumbling blocks, whereat that rude age especially might stumble and be shaken. Therefore that they should not be terrified with the soule falling backe of certaine, first he maketh plaine vnto them, that although such as fall from God & his religion, had place in the Church, yet they were neuer of the Church, because the Church is the company of the elect which cannot perish, and therefore cannot fall from Christ. x So then the elect can neuer fall from grace. 30 Secondly, he sheweth that these things fall out to the profite of the Church, that hypocrites may be plainely known. 31 Third y, hee comforteth them to make them stand fast, insomuch as they are anointed of the holy Ghost with the true knowledge of saluation. p The grace of the holy Ghost & this is a borrowed kinde of speech taken fr[o]m the anointings vsed in the Law. q From Christ who is peculiarly called holy. 32 The taking away of an obiection. He wrote not these things as to men which are ignorant in religion, but rather as to them which doe well know y truth, yet so farre foorth that they are able to discerne truth from falshood. 33 Hee sheweth now plainely the false doctrine of the Antichrists, to wit, that either they fight against y person of Christ, or his office, or both together, and at once. And they that do so do in vaine boast and brag of God, for that in denying the Son, the Father also is denied. r Is the true Messias. s They then are deceiued themselues, and also doe deceiue others, which say that the Turkes & other infidels worship the same God that we doe. 34 The whole preachings of the Prophets and Apostles is contrary to that doctrine: Therefore it is vtterly to be cast away, and this wholy to be holden & kept, which leadeth vs to seeke eternall life in the free promise, that is to say, in Christ alone, who is giuen vs of the Father.

13 10 I write vnto you fathers, because ye haue knowen him that is from the beginning. 11 I write vnto you, yong men, because ye haue ouercome that wicked one. 12 I write vnto you, little children, because ye haue knowen the Father.
14 13 I haue written vnto you fathers, because ye haue knowen him that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you, young men, because yee are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye haue ouercome that wicked one.
15 14 Loue not this world, neither the things that are in this world. If any man loue this world, the m loue of the Father is not in him.
16 For all that is in this world, (as the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of this world.
17 15 And this world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that fulfilleth the will of God abideth euer.
18 16 n Little children, 17 it is the last time, 18 and as ye haue heard that Antichrist shal come, euen now there are many Antichrists: whereby we know that it is the last time.
19 19 They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, o they would haue continued with vs. 20 But this commeth to passe, that it might appeare, that they are not all of vs.
20 21 But yee haue an p oyntment from that 9 Holy one, and know all things.
21 22 I haue not written vnto you, because ye know not the trueth: but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the trueth.
22 23 Who is a liar, but hee that denieth that Iesus is r that Christ? the same is that Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Sonne.
23 s Whosoeuer denieth the Sonne, the same hath not the Father.
24 24 Let therefore abide in you that same which ye haue heard from the beginning. If that which ye haue heard from the beginning, shall remaine in you, ye shall also continue in the Sonne, and in the Father.
25 And this is the promise that hee hath promised vs, euen that eternall life.
26 25 These things haue I written vnto you, concerning them that deceiue you.
27 But that t anointing which ye receiued of him, dwelleth in you: and ye u needs not that any man teach you: but as the same x anointing teacheth you of all things, and it is true and is not lying, and as it taught you, ye shall abide in him.
28 26 And now, little children, abide in him, that when he shall appeare, we may be bold, and not be ashamed before him, at his comming.
29 27 If ye know that he is righteous, know ye that he which doth righteously, is borne of him.

31 The same Spirit which endueth the elect with the knowledge of the trueth, and sanctifieth them, giueth them therewithall the gift of perseuerance, to continue to the end.
t The Spirit which you haue receiued of Christ, and which hath led you into all trueth.
u You are not ignorant of these things, & therefore I teach them not as things that were neuer heard of, but call them to your remembrance as things which you doe know. x He commendeth both the doctrine which they had embraced, and also highly praiseth their faith and the diligence of such as taught them, yet so, that hee taketh nothing from y honour due to the holy Ghost. 26 The conclusion both of the whole exhortation, and also of the former treatise. 27 A passing ouer to the treatise following which tendeth to the same purpose, but yet is more ample, and handleth the same matter after another order: for before hee taught vs to goe vp from the effects to the cause, and in this that followeth, he goeth downe from the causes to the effects. And this is the summe of this argument: God is the fountaine of all righteousnesse, and therefore they that giue themselues to righteousnesse, are knowen to be borne of him, because they resemble God the Father.

CHAP. III.

1 Setting downe the inestimable glory of this that we are Gods sonnes, 7 he sheweth that newnesse of life must be testified by good workes, whereof charitie is a manifest token. 19 Of faith, 22 and praying vnto God.

BEhold, 1 a what loue the Father hath giuen to vs, that we should be b called the sonnes of God: 2 for this cause this world knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.
2 3 Dearely beloued, now are we the sonnes of God, but yet it is not made manifest what we shall be: and we know that when hee shalbe made manifest, we shall be c like him: for wee shall see him d as he is.
3 4 And euery man that hath this hope in him, purgeth himselfe, euen e as he is pure.
4 5 Whosoeuer f committeth sinne, transgresseth also the Law: for g sinne is the transgression of the Law.
5 6 And ye know that he was made manifest, that he might * take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.
6 Whosoeuer abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoeuer h sinneth, hath not seene him, neither hath knowen him.
7 7 Litle children, let no man deceiue you, hee that doeth righteousnesse, is righteous, as hee is righteous.

1 He beginneth to declare this agreement betweene the Father and the Sonne at the highest cause, to wit, at that free loue of God toward vs wherewith he so loueth vs, that he also adopteth vs to be his children. a What a gift of how great loue. b That we should be the sonnes of God, and so that all the world may perceiue we are so. 2 Before hee declareth this adoption, he saith two things: the one, that this so great a dignity is not to be esteemed according to the iudgement of the flesh, because it is vnknowen to the Father himselfe. 3 The other, that this so great a dignity is not to be esteemed according to the iudgement of the flesh, because it is vnknowen to the Father himselfe. 3 The Father himselfe. 3 The transgression whereof is that which is called sinne. g Sinneth not himselfe to pureuesse. g A short definition of sinne. 6 An argument taken from the materiall cause of our saluation: Christ in himselfe is most pure, and he came to take away our sinnes by sanctifying vs with the holy Ghost. Therefore, whosoeuer is truely partaker of Christ, doeth not giue himselfe to sinne: & contrariwise he that giueth himselfe to sinne knoweth not Christ. * Isa. 53. 6. 9. 11. 2 pet. 2. 22. 24. h Hee is said to sinne, that sinneth not himselfe to purenesse, and in him sinne reigneth: but sinne is said to dwell in the sanctified, and not to reigne in them. 7 An other argument of things coupled together: Hee that liueth iustly, is iust, & resembleth Christ that is iust, and by that is knowen to be the Sonne of God.

‡ An argument taken of contraries: the deuill is the authour of sinne, and therefore he is of the deuill, or is ruled by the inspiration of the deuill, that seeueth sinne: and if he be the deuils sonne, then is hee not Gods sonne: for the deuill and God are so contrary the one to the other, that euen the Sonne of God was sent to destroy the works of the deuill. Therefore on the contrary side, whosoeuer resisteth sinne, is the Sonne of God, being borne againe of his Spirit as of new seed: insomuch that of necessity hee is now deliuered from the seruice of sinne.

* Iohn 8. 44.

† Resembleth the deuill, as the childe doeth the father, and is conuerned by his spirit.

& He saith not, sinned, but sinneth, for he did nothing els but sinne.

§ From the very beginning of the world.

m The holy Ghost is so called of the effect he worketh, because by his vertue and mighty working, as it were by force, we are made new men.

8 ‡ He that * committeth sinne, is of the † deuill: for the deuill § sinneth from the beginning: for this purpose was made manifest that Sonne of God, that hee might loose the workes of the deuill.

9 Whosoeuer is borne of God sinneth not: for his m seede remaineth in him, neither can hee sinne, because he is borne of God.

10 9 In this are the children of God knowen, and the children of the deuill: whosoeuer doeth not righteousnesse, is not of God, 10 neither hee that loueth not his brother.

11 11 For this is the message that yee heard from the beginning, that * we should loue one another.

12 12 Not as * n Cain which was of that wicked one, and slew his brother: 13 and wherefore slew he him? because his owne workes were euill, and his brothers good.

13 Marueile not my brethren, though this world hate you.

14 14 Wee know that we are translated from death vnto life, because we loue the brethren: * he that loueth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 15 Whosoeuer hateth his brother, is a manslayer: and ye know that no manslayer hath eternall life abiding in him

16 * 16 Hereby haue we perceiued loue, that he laide downe his life for vs: therefore we ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 * 17 And whosoeuer hath this p worlds good, and seeth his brother haue need, and q shutteth vp his compassion from him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 18 My litle children, let vs not loue in word, neither in tongue onely, but indeed and in trueth.

19 19 For thereby we know that we are of the trueth, 20 and shall before him assure our hearts.

20 For if our hearts condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldnesse toward God.

22 * 22 And whatsoeuer wee aske, we receiue of him, because wee keepe his commandements, and doe those things which are pleasing in his sight.

23 * This is then his commandement, that we beleeue in the Name of his sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as hee gaue commandement.

24 * For hee that keepeth his commandements, dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we know that he abideth in vs, euen by that r Spirit which hee hath giuen vs.

9 A wicked life they are knowen which are gouerned by the Spirit of the Deuill, and by a pure life, which are Gods children. o Hee beginneth to commend charity towards the brethren, as another marke of the Sonnes of God.

11 The first reason taken of the authority of God, which giueth by command meut. * Iohn 13. 34. and 15. 12.

12 An amplification, taken of the contrary example of Cain, which slew his brother. * Genesis 4. 8. n Hee bringeth forth a very fit and very old example, wherein we may behold both the nature of the sonnes of God, and of the sonnes of the deuill, and what strife and condition remaineth for vs in this world, and what shall be the end of both at length.

13 A short digression: Let vs not marueile that wee are hated of the world for doing our duety, for such was the condition of Abel who was a iust person: and who would not rather be like him then Cain?

14 The second reason: Because charity is a testimony that wee are translated from death to life: and therefore hatred towards the brethren is a testimony of death, 3c whosoeuer nourisheth it, abideth as it were still in death.

* Iohn 13. 14. ephes. 5. 2. 16 Now hee sheweth how farre Christian charity extendeth euen so farre, that according to the example of Christ, euery man forget himselfe, to prouide for and helpe his brethren. * Luke 3. 11. 17 Hee reasoneth by comparison: For if we are bound euen to giue our life for our neighbours, how much more are wee bound to helpe our brothers necessity with our goods and substance? p Wherewith this life is sustained. q Openeth not his heart to him, nor helpeth him willingly and cheerefully. 18 Christian charitie standeth not in wordes, but in deede, and proceedeth from a sincere affection. 19 Hee commendeth charitie by a triple effect: for first of all, by it wee know that wee are indeed the sonnes of God, as he sheweth before. 20 Thereof it commeth that wee haue a quiet conscience, as on the contrary side he that thinketh that he hath God for a iudge, because he is guiltie to himselfe, either hee is neuer or els very rare quiet: for God hath a farre quicker sight then wee, & iudgeth more seuerely.

r If an euill conscience conuinceth vs, much more ought the iudgements of God conuince vs, who knoweth our hearts better then we our selues doe. 21 A third effect also ariseth out of the former, that in these miseries wee are sure to be heard, because we are the sonnes of God, as we vnderstand by the grace of sanctification which is proper to the elect.

* Mat. 21. 22. John 15. 7. and 16. 23. chap. 5. 14. a The conclusion: That faith in Christ, and loue one towards another, are things ioyned together, and therefore the outward testimonies of sanctification must and doe answer that inward testimony of the Spirit giuen vnto vs.

* Iohn 6.23 and 17.3. * Iohn 13.34. and 15.10. f He meaneth the Spirit of sanctification whereby we are borne anew, and liue vnto God.

CHAP. IV.

1 Hauing spoken somewhat touching the trying of spirits: 4 For some speake after the world, 5 and some after God. 7 He returneth to charitie, 11, 19 and by the example of God he exhorteth to brotherly loue.

DEarely beloued, beleeue not euery a spirit, but trie the spirits whether they are of God: for many false Prophets are gone out into the world.

2 a Hereby shall yee know the spirit of God, b Euery spirit that confesseth that c Iesus Christ is come into the d flesh, is of God.

3 And euery spirit that confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the Spirit of Antichrist, of whom yee haue heart, how that he should come and now already he is in this world.

4 3 Little children, ye are of God, and haue ouercome them: for greater is hee that is in you, then he that is in this world.

5 4 They are of this world, therefore spake they of this world, and this worlde heareth them.

6 5 We are of God, * hee that knoweth God, heareth vs: he that is not of God heareth vs not. Hereby know we the e Spirit of trueth, and the spirit of error.

7 6 Beloued, let vs loue one another: 7 for loue commeth of God, and euery one that loueth is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 Hee that loueth not, knoweth not God, 8 for God is f loue.

1 Taking occasion by the name of the Spirit, least loue and charity should be separated from the worship of God, which chiefly dependeth of his true knowledge, he returneth to that which he spake in the second Chapter touching the taking heed of Antichrists. And hee will haue vs heede to take heede of two things, the one is, that seeing there be many false prophets, we doe not lightly giue credit to euery man: the other is, that because many men teach false things, we should not therefore beleeue any. We must then obserue a meane, that we may be able to discerne the Spirit of God, which are to be eschewed.

a This is spoken by the figure Metonyme, and it is as if he had sayd, Beleeue not euery one that saieth that hee hath a gift of the holy Ghost to doe the office of a Prophet. 2 Hee giueth a certaine and perpetuall rule to knowe the doctrine of Antichrist by, to wit, if eit her the diuine or humane nature of Christ, or the true vniting of them together be denied, or if the least iote that may be, be derogate from his office who is our onely King, Prophet, and euerlasting high Priest.

b Hee speaketh simply of the doctrine, and not of the person. c The true Messias. d Is true man. 3 Hee comforteth the elect with a most sure hope of victory but yet so, that hee teacheth them that they fight not with their owne vertue, but with the vertue and power of God. 4 Hee bringeth a reason: why the world receiueth these teachers more willingly then the true: to wit, because they breathe out nothing but that which is worldly: which is another note also to knowe the doctrine of Antichrist by. 5 Hee testifieth vnto them that his doctrine and the doctrine of his followes, is the assured word of God, which of necessitie we haue boldly to set against all the mouths of the whole world, and thereby discerne the trueth from falshood. * Iohn 8. 47. e True Prophets against whom are set false Prophets, that is, such as erre themselues, and lead other into error. 6 Hee returneth to the commending of brotherly loue and charitie. 7 The first reason: Because it is a very diuine thing: and therefore very meet for the sonnes of God: for that whosoeuer is wyde of it, cannot be sayde to know God aright. 8 A confirmation: For it is the nature of God to loue men, wherefore we haue a most manifest proofe about all other: in that that of his onely free and infinite good will towards vs his enemies, hee deliuered vnto death not a common man, but that his owne Sonne, yea, his onely begotten Sonne, to the end that wee being reconciled through his blood, might be made partakers of his euerlasting glory.

f In that hee called God, Loue hee sayth more then if hee had sayd that hee loueth vs infinitely.

* Iohn 3,16.

9 Another reason by comparison: if God so loued vs, shall not we his children loue one another.
* Iohn 3,18. 2.Tim.6,16.
10 A third reason: Because God is invisible, therefore by this effect of his Spirit, to wit, by charitie, he is vnderstood; yea, and to be not out of vs, but ioyned with vs, & fo vs in whom he is fo effectually working.
g Is surely in vs, in deed and in trueth.
11 He vnderlayeth this charitie with another foundation, to wit, faith in Iesus, which ioyneth vs indeede with him, euen as charitie witnesseth that we are ioyned with him. Furthermore he reciteth of Christ, as who had seene him with his eyes.
h With such a confession as commeth from true faith and is accompanied with loue, so that there be an agreement of all things.
12 A fourth reason: God is the fountaine and welspring of charitie, yea, charitie it selfe: therefore whosoeuer abideth in it, hath God with him. 13 Againe (as a little before) he commendeth loue, for that seeing that by our agreement with God in this thing, we haue a certaine testimonie of our adoption, it commeth thereby to passe, that without feare we looke for ỹ latter day of iudgement, to that trembling and that torment of conscience is cast out by this loue. i This signifieth all brkenesse, not equalitie. k If we vnderstand by loue, that we are in God, and God in vs, that wee are sonnes, and that we know God, and that euerlasting life is in vs: he concludeth a right that wee may well gather peace and quietnesse thereby.
15 Lastly any man should thinke that the peace of conscience proceedeth from our loue as from the cause, he goeth backe to the fountaine, to wit, to the free loue, wherewith God loueth vs although we deserued and doe deserue his wrath. And hereof springeth another double charitie, which both are tokens and witnesses of that first, to wit, that wherewith we loue God, who loued vs first, and then for his sake our neighbours also. 15 As he shewed that the loue of our neighbour cannot be separate from the loue wherewith God loueth vs, because this last engendreth the other: so he denieth that he doth beare kinde of loue wherewith we loue God, can be separate from the loue of our neighbour: whereof it followeth, that they ly impudently which fay they worship God, and yet regard not their neighbour. 16 The first reason taken of comparison, why we cannot hate our neighbour and loue God, to wit because that hee that cannot loue his brother, whom he seeth, how can hee loue God whom he seeth not? * Iohn 13.34. and 15.12. 17 A second reason, why God cannot be hated and our neighbour loued, because the selfe same Lawmaker commanded both to loue him and our neighbour.

9 * Herein was that loue of God made manifest amongst vs, because God sent that his onely begotten Sonne into this world, that wee might liue through him.

10 Herein is that loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and sent his Sonne to be a reconciliation for our sinnes.

11 9 Beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another.

12 * 10 No man hath seene God at any time. If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is g perfect in vs.

13 Hereby know we, that we dwell in him, and he in vs: because he hath giuen vs of his Spirit.

14 11 And we haue seene, and do testifie, that the Father sent the Son to be the Sauiour of the world.

15 Whosoeuer h confesseth that Iesus is the Son of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

16 And we haue knowen, and beleeued the loue that God hath in vs, 12 God is loue, and hee that dwelleth in loue, dwelleth in God, & God in him.

17 13 Herein is that loue perfect in vs, that we should haue boldnesse in the day of iudgement: for i as he is, euen so are we in this world.

18 There is no k feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare: for feare hath painefulnesse: and he that feareth, is not perfect in loue.

19 14 We loue him, because he loued vs first,

20 15 If any man say, I loue God, and hate his brother, he is a lyar: 16 for how can hee that loueth not is brother whom hee hath seene, loue God whom he hath not seene?

21 * 17 And this commandement haue wee of him, that hee which loueth God, should loue his brother also.

CHAP. V.

1 Hee sheweth that brotherly loue and faith are things inseparable: 6 And that there is no faith towards God, but by beleeuing in Christ: 14 Hence proceedeth calling vpon God with assurance: 16 and also that our prayers be available for our brethren.

2 He goeth on forward in the same argument, shewing how both those loues come into vs from the loue wherewith God loueth vs, to wit, by Iesus our Mediatour.

WHosoeuer l beleeueth that Iesus is that a Christ, is borne of God: and euery one that loueth him, which begate, loueth b him also which is begotten of him.

2 In this we know that we loue the children of God, when we loue God, and keepe his c commandements.

3 3 For this is the loue of God, that we keepe his commandements: 4 and his * commaundements are not d burdenous.

4 5 For all that is borne of God, ouercometh this world: 6 and this is that victory that e hath ouercome this world, euen our f faith.

5 * 7 Who is it that ouercometh this world, but hee which beleeueth that Iesus is that Sonne of God?

6 8 This is that Iesus Christ that came by water and blood: 9 not by water onely, but by water and blood: and it is that g Spirit that beareth witnesse: for that Spirit is trueth.

7 For there are three, which beare record in heauen, the Father, the h Worde, and the holy Ghost: and these three are i one.

8 And there are three, which beare record in the earth, the Spirit, and the Water, and the Blood: and these three agree in one.

9 10 If we receiue the witnesse of men, the witnesse of God is greater: for k this is the witnesse of God, which he testified of his Sonne.

10 * 11 Hee that beleeueth in that Sonne of God, hath the witnesse in himselfe: he that beleeueth not God, hath made him a lyar, because hee beleeued not the record, that God witnessed of that his Sonne.

11 12 And this is that record, to wit, that God hath giuen vnto vs eternall life, and this life is in that his Sonne.

12 Hee that hath that Sonne, hath that life: and he that hath not that Sonne of God, hath not that life.

13 13 These things haue I written vnto you,

c There is no loue where there is no true doctrine.
3 The reason: for to loue God is to keepe his commandements, which being so, and seeing that both the loues are commanded of one and the selfe same lawmaker (as he taught before) it followeth also that we doe not loue our neighbour, when we breake Gods commandements.
4 Because experience teacheth vs that there is no ability in our flesh, neither yet will to performe Gods commandements, therefore least the Apostle should seeme, by so often putting them in minde of the keeping of the commandements of God, to require things that are impossible, he pronounceth that the commandements of God are not in such fort grieuous or burdensome, that we can be oppressed with the burden of them.
* Matth.11,30.
d To them that are regenerate, that is to say, borne anew which are led by the Spirit of God, and are through grace deliuered from the curse of the Lawe.
5 A reason: Euery generation wee haue gotten strength to ouercome the worlde, that is to say, whatsoeuer striueth against the commandements of God.
6 He declareth what that strength is, to wit, Faith. e Hee saith the same that is past to giue vs vnderstanding, that although wee be in the battell, yet vndoubtly wee shall be conquerours, and are most certaine of the victorie. f Which is the instrumentall cause, and as a meane and hand whereby we clay hold on him who indeed doth performe this, that is, hath and doeth ouercome the world, Euen Christ Iesus.
* 1. Cor.15,57.
7 Moreouer hee declareth two things, the one what true faith is to wit, that which resteth vpon Iesus Christ the Sonne of God alone: wherevpon followeth the other, to wit, that this strength is not proper to faith, but by faith as an instrument is drawen from Iesus Christ the Sonne of God.
8 Hee prooueth the excellencie of Christ, in whom onely all things are giuen vs by fiue witnesses, three heauenly, and three earthly, which wholly and fully agree together. The heauenly witnesses are: the Father who sent the Sonne, the Worde it selfe which became flesh, and the holy Ghost. The earthly witnesses are, water, (that is, our sanctification) blood, (that is, our iustification) the Spirit, (that is acknowledging of God the Father in Christ by faith through the testimonie of the holy Ghost.)
9 Hee warneth vs not to separate water from blood, (that is, sanctification from iustification, or righteousnesse begunne, from righteousnesse imputed) for wee stand not vpon sanctification, but so farre foorth as it is a witnesse of Christs righteousnesse imputed vnto vs: and although this imputation of Christes righteousnesse be neuer separated from sanctification, yet it is onely the matter of our saluation.
g Our spirit, which is the third witnesse, testifieth that the holy Ghost is trueth, that is to say, that that is true which he telleth vs, to wit, that we are the sonnes of God. h Looke Iohn 8.14. i Agree in one.
10 Hee sheweth by an Argument of comparison, of what great weight the heauenly testimonie is, that the Father hath giuen of the Sonne, vnto whom agreeth both the Sonne himselfe and the holy Ghost. k I conclude this aright: for that testimonie which I said is giuen in heauen, commeth from God, who so resteth fourth his Sonne. * Iohn 3.36.
11 Hee prooueth the sufficiencie of the earthly witnesses by euery mans conscience, hauing that testimonie in it selfe, which conscience hee sai h cannot be deceiued, because it consenteth the heauenly testimonie, which ỹ Father giueth of the Sonne: For otherwise the Father must needes be a lyar, if the conscience, which accordeth & assenteth to the Father should lye.
12 Now at length hee sheweth what this testimonie is, that is confirmed with so many witnesses: to wit, that life or euerlasting felicitie, is the meere and onely gift of God, which is in the Sonne, and proceedeth from him into vs, which by faith are ioyned with him, so that without him life is no where to be found.
13 The conclusion of the Epistle wherein hee sheweth first of all, that euen they which already beleeue, doe stand in deede of this doctrine to the ende that they may growe more and more in faith, that is to say, to the ende that they may be dayly more and more certified of their saluation in Christ through faith,

that

that beleeue in the name of that Sonne of God, that ye may know that yee haue eternall life, and that yee may beleeue in the Name of that Sonne of God.

14 14 And this is that assurance that we haue in him, * that if we aske any thing according to his will, he heareth vs:

15 And if we know that he heareth vs, whatsoeuer we aske, we know that wee haue the petitions, that we haue desired of him.

16 15 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne that is not vnto death, let him aske, and he shall giue him life for them that sinne not vnto death. * There is a sinne vnto death, I say not that thou shouldest pray for it.

14 Because we do not yet in effect obtain that which we hope for, the Apostle ioyneth inuocation or prayer with faith, which he will haue to proceede from faith, and moreouer to be conceiued in such fort, that nothing be asked but that which is agreeable to the will of God: and such prayers cannot be vaine. * *Chap.*3. 22. 15 We haue to make prayers not onely for our selues, but also for our brethren which doe sinne, that their sinnes be not vnto them, to death: and yet hee excepteth that sinne, which is neuer forgiuen, or the sinne against the holy Ghost, that is to say, an vniuersall and wilfull falling away from the knowen trueth of the Gospel. I This is as much as if he said, Let him desire the Lord to forgiue him, and hee will forgiue him being so desired. * *Matth.*12.31. marke 3.29.

17 16 All vnrighteousnesse is sinne, but there is a sinne not vnto death.

18 17 We know that whosoeuer is born of God, sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himselfe, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 18 Wee know that we are of God, and this whole world lieth in wickednesse.

20 But we know that that Sonne of God is * come, and hath giuen vs a mind to know him, which is true, and we are in him that is true, that is, in that his Sonne Iesus Christ, the same is that very m God, and that eternall life.

21 19 Little children, keepe your selues from idoles. Amen.

16 The taking away of an obiection: Indeed all iniquitie is comprehended vnder the name of sin, but yet we must not despaire therefore, because euery sinne is not deadly, and without hope of remedie.

17 A reason why not all, nay rather why no sin is mortall to some: to wit, because they be borne of God, that is to say, made the sonnes of God in Christ, and being indued with his Spirit, they doe not serue sin, neither are deadly wounded of Satan.

18 Euery man must particularly apply to himselfe the generall promises, that we may certainely perswade our selues, that whereas all the world is by nature lost, we are freely made y sonne of God, by y sending of Iesus Christ his Sonne vnto vs, of whom we are lightened with the knowledge of the true God, and euerlasting life. * Luke 24.45. m The diuinitie of Christ is most plainely proued by this place. 19 He expresseth a plaine precept of taking heed of idoles: which he setteth against the onely true God, that with this seale as it were he might seale vp all the former doctrine.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF IOHN.

1 This Epistle is written to a woman of great renowme, 4 who brought vp her children in the feare of God: 6 he exhorteth her to continue in Christian charitie, that she accompanie not with Antichrists, 10 but auoid them.

THE ELDER to the a electb Ladie, and her children, c whom I loue in the trueth: and not I onely, but also all that haue knowen the trueth,

2 For the trueths sake which dwelleth in vs, and shall be with vs for euer:

3 Grace be with you, mercy and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ the Sonne of the Father, with c trueth and loue.

4 2 I reioyced greatly, that I found of thy children walking in d trueth, as we haue receiued a commandement of the Father.

5 And now beseech I thee, Lady, (not as writing a new commandement vnto thee, but the same which we had from the beginning) that we * loue one another.

6 And this is that loue that we should walke after his commandements. This commandement is, that as ye haue heard from the beginning, yee should walke in it.

7 3 For many deceiuers are entred into this world, which confesse not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. He that is such one, is a deceiuer and an Antichrist.

8 4 e Looke to your selues, that we loose not the things, which we haue done, but that we may receiue a full reward.

9 Whosoeuer transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that continueth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Sonne.

10 5 If there come any vnto you, and bring not this doctrine, * receiue him not to house, neither bid him God speed.

11 For he that biddeth him God speed, is partaker of his euill deeds. Although I had many things to write vnto you, yet would I not write with paper and ynke: but I trust to come vnto you, and speake mouth to mouth, that our ioy may be full.

12 The sonnes of thine elect sister greete thee, Amen.

a This is no proper name, but to be taken as the word foundeth, that is to say, to the worthy and noble Lady. b Excellent and honourable Dame. c The bond of Christian coniunction or linking together, is the true and constant profession of the trueth.

d With true knowledge, which hath alwayes loue ioyned with it, and following it. e This true profession consisteth both in loue one toward another which the Lord hath commanded, and also especially in wholesome and sound doctrine, which also is deliuered vnto vs: for the commandement of God is a sound and sure foundation both of the rule of manners and of doctrine, and these cannot be separated the one from the other. d According as the trueth directeth them. * Iohn 15.12.

3 Antichrists fighting against the person and office of Christ, were already crept into the Church, in the time of the Apostles. 4 He that maketh a shipwracke of doctrine, loseth all. e Beware and take good head.

5 We ought to haue nothing to doe with them that defend peruerse doctrine. * *Rom.*16.17.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF IOHN.

1 He commendeth Gaius for hospitalitie, 9 and reprehendeth Diotrephes for vaine glory: to hee exhorteth Gaius to continue in well doing: 12 and in the ende commendeth Demetrius.

THE 1 Elder vnto the beloued Gaius whom I loue in the trueth.

2 Beloued, I wish chiefly that thou prosperedst and faredst wel as thy soule prospereth.

3 For I reioyced greatly when the brethren came and testified of the trueth that is in thee, how thou walkest in the trueth.

4 I haue no greater ioy then a these, that is, to heare that my sonnes walke in veritie.

5 Beloued, thou doest b faithfully, whatsoeuer thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers.

6 Which bare witnesse of thy loue before the Churches, Whom if thou c bringest on their iourney as it beseemeth according to God, thou shalt doe well,

7 Because that for his Names sake they went forth, and tooke nothing of the Gentiles.

8 Wee therefore ought to receiue such, that we might be d helpers to the trueth.

9 2 I wrote vnto the Church, but Diotrephes which loueth to haue the preeminence among them, receiueth vs not.

10 Wherefore if I come, I will call to your remembrance his deeds which hee doeth, prating against vs with malicious words, and not therewith content, neither hee himselfe receiueth the brethren, but forbiddeth them that would, and thrusteth them out of the Church.

11 Beloued, follow not that which is euill, but that which is good: he that doth well is of God: but he that doeth euill, hath not e seene God.

12 Demetrius

1 An example of a Christian gratulation. a Thou these toyes. b As becommeth a beleeuer and a Christian. c He commendeth to Gaius either those selfe same men whom he had entertained before, returning now againe to him about the affaires of the Church or els some other which had like businesse.

d That wee our selues may helpe somewhat to the preaching of the trueth. 2 Ambition and courtousnesse, two pestilent plagues (especially in them which haue any Ecclesiasticall function) are condemned in Diotrephes person.

e Hath not known God.

12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the trueth it selfe: yea, and wee our selues beare record, and ye know that our record is true.
13 I haue many things to write: but I will not with yncke and pen write vnto thee:
14 For I trust I shall shortly see thee, & we shall speake mouth to mouth. Peace be with thee. The friends salute thee. Greete the friends by name.

THE GENERALL EPISTLE OF IVDE.

3 Hee warneth the godly to take heede of such men, 4 that make the grace of God a cloake for their wantonnesse: 5 and that they shall not escape vnpunished, for the contempt of that grace, 6, 7 hee proueth by three examples: 14 and alleageth the prophecie of Enoch. 20 Finally hee sheweth the godlyes meane to auoyd how all the snares of those deceiuers.

IVde a seruant of Iesus Christ, and a brother of Iames, to them which are called and sanctified of God the Father, and preserued to Iesus Christ:
2 Mercy vnto you, and peace and loue be multiplied.

3 Beloued, when I giue all diligence to write vnto you of the common saluation, it was needfull for me to write vnto you, to exhort you, that ye should earnestly contend for the maintenance of the faith, which was once giuen vnto the Saints.

4 For there are certaine men crept in, which were before of olde ordained to this condemnation: vngodly men they are, which turne the grace of our God into wantonnesse, and deny God the onely Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, forasmuch as yee once knew this, how that the Lord, after that hee had deliuered the people out of Egypt, destroyed them afterward which beleeued not.

6 The Angels also which kept not their first estate, but left their owne habitation, he hath reserued in euerlasting chaines vnder darkenesse vnto the iudgement of the great day.

7 As Sodom and Gomorrhe, and the cities about them, which in like maner as they did, committed fornication, and followed strange flesh, are set forth for an example, and suffer the vengeance of eternall fire.

8 Likewise notwithstanding these sleepers also defile the flesh, and despise gouernment, and speake euill of them that are in authoritie.

9 Yet Michael the Archangel, when hee strouue against the deuill, and disputed about the body of Moses, durst not blame him with cursed speaking, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speake euill of those things, which they know not: and whatsoeuer things they know naturally as beasts, which are without reason, in those things they corrupt themselues.

11 Woe be vnto them: for they haue followed the way of Cain, and are cast away by the deceit of Balaams wages, and perish in the gainesaying of Core.

12 These are rockes in your feastes of charity, when they feast with you, without all feare, feeding themselues: clouds they are without water, carried about of windes, corrupt trees and without fruit, twise dead, and plucked vp by the rootes.

13 They are the raging waues of the sea, foming out their owne shames: they are wandring starres, to whom is reserued the blackenesse of darkenesse for euer.

14 And Enoch also the seuenth from Adam, prophecied of such, saying, Beholde, the Lord commeth with thousands of his Saints.

15 To giue iudgement against all men, and to rebuke all the vngodly among them of all their wicked deedes, which they haue vngodly committed, and of all their cruell speakings, which wicked sinners haue spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their owne lustes: whose mouthes speake proud things, hauing mens persons in admiration, because of aduantage.

17 But, yee beloued, remember the wordes which were spoken before of the Apostles of our Lord Iesus Christ:

18 How that they tolde you that there should be mockers in the last time, which should walke after their owne vngodly lustes.

19 These are they that separate themselues from other, naturall, hauing not the Spirit.

20 But, yee beloued, edifie your selues in your most holy faith, praying in the holy Ghost.

21 And keepe your selues in the loue of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Iesus Christ, vnto eternall life.

22 And haue compassion of some, in putting difference:

23 And other saue with feare, pulling them out of the fire, and hate euen that garment which is spotted by the flesh.

24 Now vnto him that is able to keepe you that yee fall not, and to present you faultlesse before the presence of his glory with ioy, 25 That is, to God onely wise, our Sauiour be glory, and maiestie, and dominion, and power, both now and for euer, Amen.

a This it put to make a difference betweene him and Iudas Iscariot.
b By God the Father.
c Set apart by the everlasting counsell of God, to be deliuered to Christ to be kept.
1 The end and marke whereat he shooteth in this Epistle, is, that he confirmeth the godly against certaine wicked men, both in wholesome doctrine and good maners.
d Of these things that pertaine to the saluation of all of vs.
e That ye should defend the faith by all the might you can, both by true doctrine and good example of life.
f Which was once so giuen, that it may neuer be changed.
2 It is by Gods prouidence and not by chance, that many wicked men creepe into the Church.
3 Hee condemneth this fault in them, that they take a pretence or occasion to waxe wanton, by the grace of God: which cannot be, but the chiefe empire of Christ must be abrogated, but that such men giue vp themselues to Satan: as at this time the sect of the Anabaptists doth, which they call Libertines.
* 2. Pet. 2, 1. 4 Hee setteth foorth the horrible punishment of them which haue abused the grace of God to follow their owne lustes. * Numb. 14, 37 5 The fall of the Angels was most sincerely ratified how much more then will the Lord punish wicked and faithlesse men? * 2. Pet. 2, 4. * Gen 19, 24. g Following the steps of Sodome and Gomorrhe. h Thus he courtly setteth foorth their horrible and monstrous lustes. i Which are so blockish & voide of reason, as if all their senses and wits were in a sleep, or dead sleepe. 6 Another most pernitious doctrine of their, in that they take away the authority of Magistrates, & speake euill of them, as at this day the Anabaptists doe. k It is a greater matter to despise gouernment, then the gouernors, that is to say, the matter is greater, then the persons. 7 An argument of comparison, Michael one of the chiefest Angels, was content to deliuer Satan, although a most cursed enemie, to the iudgement of God to be punished: & hee peruerte men are not ashamed to speake euill of the powers which are ordained of God. 8 The conclusion. These men are in a double fault, to wit, both for their rash follie in condemning some, and for their impudent and shamelesse contempt of that knowledge, which when they had gotten, yet not with standing they, liue as bare beasts, seruing their bellies.
9 He foretelleth their destruction, because they resemble or shew forth Cains shamefull malice, Balaams filthy couetousnesse, and to be short, Cores seditious and ambitious head.
* Gene. 4. 8.
* Num. 22, 21. 2. pet. 2, 15.
* Num. 16, 1.
10 He rebuketh most sharply with many other notes and markes, both their disloneste life & shamefull, and their fawcinesse, but especially their vaine bragery of words, and most vaine pride, ioyning therewithall a most graue and braue threatning out of a most ancient prophecie of Enoch touching the iudgement to come.
1 The feasts of charitie were certaine banketts, which the then elect were members of the Church, kept all together, as Tertullian setteth them forth in his Apolog. Chap. 39. in impudently, without all reuerence either to God or man.
* 2. Pet. 2, 17.
n Most grosse darkenesse.
* Reuel. 1, 7.
o The present time for the time to come.
* Psal. 17, 10.
11 The rising vp of such monsters was spoken of before, that wee should not be troubled at the newnesse of the matter.
* 1. Tim. 4, 1.
12 to separate themselues from the godly, because they are not governed by the Spirit of God: and contrariwise it is the propertie of Christians to edifie one another through godly prayers both in faith and also in loue vntill the mercy of Christ appeare to their full saluation. 13 Among them which wonder and goe astray, the godly haue to vse this choise, that they handle some of them gently, and that other some being set in the very flame, they endeuour to saue with feare and sharpe instruction of the present danger: yea so, that they doe in such sort abhorre the wicked and dissolute, that they eschew euen the least contagion that may be. p By fearing them, & holding them backe with godly feare, q An amplification taken from the forbidden things of the Law which did defile. 14 He commendeth them to the grace of God, declaring sufficiently that it is God onely that can giue vs that confidence which hee requireth of vs.

THE REVELATION OF SAINT IOHN THE APOSTLE AND Euangelist, with the Annotations of Francis Iunius.

CHAP. I.

a He declareth what kind of doctrine is here handled, 3 euen his that is the beginning & ending: 11 Then the mystery of the seuen Candlesticks and starres is expounded.

THE[1] Reuelation of[2] Iesus Christ, which God gaue vnto him, to shewe vnto his seruants things which must shortly be done: which hee sent, and shewed by his Angel vnto his seruant Iohn,

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimonie of Iesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that heare the words of this prophecie, and keepe those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 [a] Iohn to the seuen Churches which are in Asia, Grace be with you, and peace from him, [c] Which * is, and which was, and Which is to come, and from [4] the [d] seuen Spirits which are before his Throne,

5 And from Iesus Christ s which is that * faithfull witnesse, and * that first begotten of the dead, and that Prince of the Kings of the earth, vnto him that loued vs, and washed vs from our sinnes in his * blood,

6 And made vs * Kings and Priests vnto God euen his Father, to him, I say, be glory, and dominion for euermore, Amen.

7 Behold, he commeth with * clouds, and euery [e] eye shall see him: yea, euen they which pearced him thorow: and all kindreds of the earth shall waile before him. Euen so, Amen.

8 [6] I * am [f] Alpha and Omega, the beginning and [g] ending, saith the Lord, Which is, and Which was, and Which is to come, euen the Almighty.

7 [7] I Iohn, euen your brother and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdome and patience of Iesus Christ, was in the [8] Ile called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the witnessing of Iesus Christ.

10 And I was rauished in [h] spirit on the [i] Lords day, and heard behind me a great voyce, as it had beene of a trumpet,

11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, that first and that last: and that which thou seest write in a booke, and send it vnto the seuen Churches which are in Asia, vnto Ephesus, and vnto Smyrna, & vnto Pergamus, and vnto Thyatira, and vnto Sardis, and vnto Philadelphia, and vnto Laodicea.

12 [8] Then I turned backe to [k] see the voyce that spake with me: 9 and when I was turned, I sawe seuen golden candlesticks,

13 And in the mids of the seuen candlesticks, one like vnto the Sonne of man, cloathed with a garment downe to the feete, and girded about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and haires were white as white wool, & as snow, & his eyes were as a flame of fire,

15 And his feete like vnto fine brasse burning as in a fornace: and his voyce as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seuen starres: and out of his mouth went a sharpe two edged sword: and his face shone as the sunne shineth in his strength.

17 [10] And when I sawe him, I fell at his feete as dead: 11 then he laide his right hand vpon me, saying vnto me, Feare not: [12] I am that * first and * last: 18 I am he that liued, and was dead, and behold, I am aliue for euermore, Amen, and haue the keyes of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seene, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter:

20 The mystery of the seuen starres which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seuen golden candlesticks. The seuen starres are the Angels of the seuen Churches: and the seuen candlesticks which thou sawest, are the seuen Churches.

1 This Chapter hath two principall parts, the title or inscription, which containeth in deed of an exordium: and a narration going before the whole prophesie of this booke: The inscription is double, ge. erall and particular. The generall containeth the kind of prophecie, the author, end, matter, instruments, and maner of communicating the same, in the first verse: the most religious faithfulnesse of the Apostle as a publike witnesse, verse 2. And the vse of communicating the same taken from the promise of God, and confirmed the circumstance of the time, verse the third.

a An opening of a secret and hid thing.

b Which the Sonne opened to vs out of his Fathers bosome by Angels.

2 This is the particular of singular inscription, where in salutation is written vnto certaine Churches by name, which represent the Church Catholike: and the certainty and the truth of the same is declared, from the Authour thereof, vnto the eight verse. 3 That is, from God the Father, eternall, immortall, immutable: whose vnchangeablenesse S. Iohn declareth by a forme of speach which is vnfeelinesse. For there is no incongruitie in this place, where, of necessitie the words must be ascribed vnto the mysteries, and not the mysteries corrupted or impaired by the word. c By these three times, Is, Was and Shall be, is signified that word Iehouah, which is the proper name of God. * Exod. 3.14. 4 That is, from the holy Ghost which proceedeth from the Father and the Sonne. This Spirit is one in person according to his sustinence: but in communication of his vertue, and in demonstration of his diuine workes in those seuen Churches, doeth so perfectly manifest himselfe, as if there were so many Spirits, euery one perfectly working in his owne Church, wherefore after Chap. 3.6 they are called the seuen horns and seuen eyes of the Lambe, as much to say, in his most absolute power and wisedome: and Chap. 4.5. Christ is said to haue there seuen Spirits of God, and Chap. 4.5. it is said, that seuen lampes doe burne before his throne, which also are those seuen Spirits of God. That this place ought to be so vnderstood, it is thus prooued: For first grace and peace is asked by prayer of this Spirit, which is a diuine worke, & in action incommunicable, in respect of his most high Deitie. Secondly, he is placed betweene the Father and the Sonne, as for in the same degree of dignitie & operation with them. Besides he is before the throne, as of the same substance with the Father and the Son: as the seuen eyes and seuen hornes of the Lambe. Moreouer, these spirits are neuer layde to adore God, as all other things are. Finally, that is the power whereby the Lambe opened the booke, & loosed the seuē seales thereof, when none could be found amongst all creatures by whom the booke might be opened. Chap. 5. Of these things long agoe Master Iohn Luid of Oxford wrote learnedly vnto mee, Now the holy Ghost is set in order of words before Christ, because there was in that which followeth, a long processe of speach to be vsed concerning Christ. d These are the seuen Spirits, which are afterward Chap 5. verse 6. called the hornes and eyes of the Lambe, and are now made as a garde waiting vpon God, for most ample and graue commendation of Christ. first from his offices the Priesthood & kingdomes, secondly from his benefits, as his loue toward vs, and washing vs with his blood, in this verse, and communication of his kingdome and Priesthood with vs: thirdly from his eternall glory and power, which alwayes is to be celebrated of vs, verse 6. Finally from the accomplishment of all things once to be effected by him, at his second comming, what time he shall openly destroy the wicked, and shall comfort the godly in the truth, verse 7. * Psal. 89.38. * 1 Cor. 15.2.1. colos. 2.18. * Heb. 9.14. 1. pet. 1.19. 1. Iohn 1.9. * 1. Pet. 2.5. * Esay 3.14. matth. 24.30. iude 14. e All men.

6 A confirmation of the saluration aforegoing, taken from the Words of God himselfe: in which he auoucheth his operation in euery singular creature, the immutable eternitie that is in himselfe, and his omnipotencie in all things: and concludeth in the vanitie of his owne essence, that Trinitie of persons, which was before spoken of.

* Chap. 21.6. and 22.13.

f I am he before whom there is nothing, yea, by whom euery thing that is made, was made and shall remaine though all they should perish.

7 The narration, opening the way to the declaring of the authoritie and calling of Saint Iohn the Euangelist in th s singular Reuelation, and to procure faith, and credit vnto this prophecie. This is the second part of this Chapter consisting of a proposition and an exposition. The proposition sheweth, first who was called vnto this Reuelation, in what place, & how occupied, verse 9. Then the word, and that on the Lords day, which day euer since the resurrection of Christ, was consecrated for Christians vnto the religion of the Sabbath: that is to say, to be a day of rest, verse. 10 Thirdly, who is the authour that calleth him, and what is the sum of his calling. g Patmos is one of the Iles of Sporas whither Iohn was banished as some write. h This is that holy rauishment expressed, wherein the the Prophets were rauished, and being as it were carried out of the world, were conuersant with God, and so Ezekiel saith often that hee was carried from place to place of the Lords Spirit, and that the Spirit of the Lord fell vpon him. i Hee calleth it the Lords day, which Paul calleth the first day of the weeke, 1. Cor. 16.2. 8 The expotition, declaring the third & last point of the proposition (for the other points are euident of themselues) wherein is spoken first of the authour of his calling vnto the 17. verse. Secondly of the calling it selfe vnto the end of the Chap. And first of all the occasion is noted in this verse, in that S. Iohn turned himselfe towards the vision after is set downe the discription of the authour in the verses following, 13. 14. 15. 16.

k To see him whose voyce I had heard. 9 The description of the Authour, which is Christ: by the candlesticks that standeth about him, that is the Churches that stand before him, and depend vpon his direction, in this verse: by his properties, that hee is one furnished with wisdome and dexteritie to the archieuing of great things, verse 13. and ancient grauitie and most excellent sight of the eye, verse 14. with strength inuincible and with a mighty word, verse 15. By his operations, that he ruleth the ministery of his seruants in the Church, giueth the effect thereunto by the force of his word, & enlightening all things with his countenance, doeth most mightily prouide for euery one by his diuine prouidence, verse 16. 10 A religious feare that goeth before the calling of the Saints, & their full confirmation to take vpon them the vocation of God. 11 A diuine confirmation in this calling partly by signe and partly by word of power. 12 A most elegant description of this calling contained in three things, which are necessary vnto a iust vocation: first the authoritie of him that calleth, for that he is the beginning and the end of all things, in this verse, for that hee is eternall and omnipotent, verse. 18. Secondly the sum of this prophetical calling, and reuelation, verse 19. Lastly a declaration of those persons vnto whom this prophecie is by the commandement of God directed in the description thereof, verse 20. * Esay 41. 4.

13 The summe of this prophecie, that the Apostle must write what soeuer he should see, adding nothing, nor taking away any thing, as verse 2. Hereof there are two parts: one is narration of those things which are, that is, which then were at that time contained in the second and third Chapters, the other part is of those things which were things which was going. 1 By the Angels he meaneth the Ministers of the Church.

and that last,

18 And am aliue, but I was dead: and behold, I am aliue for euermore, Amen: and I haue the keyes of hell and of death.

19 [13] Write these things which thou hast seene, and the things which are, and the things which shall come hereafter.

20 [14] The mystery of the seuen starres which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seuen golden candlesticks is this, The seuen starres are the [1] Angels of the seuen Churches: and the seuen candlesticks which thou sawest, are the seuen Churches.

[13] To come, contained in the rest of this booke. [14] That is, the mysticall, signified by the particulars of the vision before going.

CHAP. II.

1 Iohn is commanded to write those things which the Lord knew necessarie to the Churches of Ephesus, 8 Of the Smyrnians, 12 of Pergamus, 18 and of Thyatira, 25 that they keepe those things which they receiued of y Apostles.

[2] The former part of this booke is comprised in a narration of those things which then were as S. Iohn taught vs, chap. 1. 19. it belongeth wholly to instruction: and in these 2. next Chapters, contained seuen places according to the number, and condition of those Churches which were named before, Chap. 1. 11. figured verse 12. and distributed most aptly into their Pastors and flockes verse 20. which verse of that Chap. is as it were a passage vnto the first part. Euery one of the seuen places hath three principall members, an Exordium taken from the person of the Author: a Propositon, in which is praise and commendation of that which is good, reprehension of that which is euill: and instruction conteining either an exhortation, or withall a dissuasion, opposite vnto it, and a conclusion stirring vnto attention by diuine promises. And this first place is vnto the Pastours of the Church of Ephesus. 2 The exordium wherein are contained the speciall praises of Christ Iesus the Author of this prophecie, out of the 16 and 13 verse of the first Chapter. 3 The proposition, first condemning the Pastors of this Church verse 2, 3. then reprouing him verse 4. after informing him and withall threatning that hee will assiste the Church to another place, verse 5. This communion or threat Christ aggreeth by a kind of correction, calling to minde the particular vertue & pietie the Church, which God neuer leaueth without recompense verse 6. Concerning the Nicolaitans see more vpon the 15 verse. 7 To deale with thee for. 4 The conclusion, containing a commandement of attention & a promise of euerlasting blessednes vnder the figure of which Genes. 2. 9. 5 That is, in Paradise after the manner of the Hebrew phrase. b Thus Christ speaketh as the Mediator. 6 The second place is vnto the Pastours of the Church of the Smyrnians. The exordium taken out of the 17 and 18 verses of the first Chap. c Smyrna was one of the cities of Ionia in Asia. 7 The proposition of praise is in this verse, and of exhortation ioyned with promise, is in the next verse.

VNto the Angel of the Church of Ephesus write, [2] These things saith he that holdeth the seuen starres in his right hand, and walketh in the midis of the seuen golden candlesticks,

2 [3] I know thy workes, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not beare with them which are euill, and hast examined them which say they are Apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars.

3 And thou hast burdened, and hast patience, and for my Names sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

4 Neuertheless, I haue somewhat [2] against thee, because thou hast left thy first loue.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and doe the first workes: or else I will come against thee shortly, and will remoone thy candlesticke out of his place, except thou amend.

6 But this thou hast that thou hatest the workes of the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.

7 [4] Let him that hath an eare heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches: To him that ouercommeth, will I giue to eate of the tree of life which is in [5] the middes of the [b] Paradise of God.

8 ¶ [6] And vnto the Angel of the Church of the [c] Smyrnians write, These things saith hee that is first and last, which was dead and is aliue,

9 [7] I know thy workes and tribulation, and pouertie (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemie of them, which say they are Iewes, and are not, but are the Synagogue of Satan.

10 Feare none of those things, which thou shalt suffer: behold, it shall come to passe, that the deuill shall cast some of you into prison, that yee may be tried, and ye shall haue tribulation ten dayes: be thou faithfull vnto the death, and I will giue thee the crowne of life.

11 [9] Let him that hath an eare heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches. He that ouercommeth shall not be hurt [10] of the second death.

12 [11] And to the Angel of the Church, which is at [d] Pergamus write, Thus saith he which hath that sharpe sword with two edges.

13 [12] I know thy workes, and where thou dwellest, euen where Satans throne is, and thou keepest my Name, and hast not denied my faith, euen in [e] those dayes when Antipas my faithfull martyr was slaine among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I haue a fewe things against thee, because thou hast there them that maintaine the doctrine of [*] Balaam, which taught Balac to put a stumbling blocke before the children of Israel, that they should eate of things sacrificed vnto idoles, and commit fornication.

15 Euen so hast thou them that maintaine the doctrine of the [13] Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

16 Repent thy selfe, or else I will come vnto thee shortly, and will fight against thee with the sword of my mouth.

17 [14] Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches. To him that ouercommeth, will I giue to eate [15] of the [g] Manna that is hid, and will giue him a [h] [16] white stone, and in the stone a new [17] name written, which no man knoweth, sauing he that receiueth it.

18 ¶ And vnto [18] the Angel of the Church which is at Thyatira write, These things saith the Sonne of God, which hath his eyes like vnto a flame of fire, and his feete like fine brasse.

19 I know [19] thy workes and thy loue, [i] and seruice and faith, and thy patience, & thy workes, and that they are moe at the last, then at the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I haue a few things against thee, that thou suffereſt the woman Iezabel which calleth herselfe a prophetesse, to teach and to deceiue my seruants, to make them commit [k] fornication and to eat meate sacrificed vnto idoles.

21 And I gaue her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

[3] That is, often yeeres. For so commonly both in this booke and in Daniel, yeeres are figuified by the name of dayes: that God thereby might declare, that the space of time is appointed by him, and the same very short. Now because Saint Iohn wrote this booke in the end of Domitian the Emperour his reigne, as Iustine and Ireneus doe witnesse, it is altogether necessarie that this should be referred vnto that persecution which was done by the authoritie of the Emperour Traian, who began to make bauocke of the Christian Church in the tenth yeere of his reigne, as the Historiographers doe write: and his bloody persecution continued vntill Adrian the Emperour had succeeded in his place: the space of which time is precisely tenne yeeres, which are here mentioned. 9 The conclusions as verse 7.10. See Chap. 20. 6. 11 The third place is vnto the Pastors of Pergamus. The Exordium is taken out of the 16. verse of the first Chapter. d Pergamus was the name of a famous citie in old time in Asia, where the Kings of the Attalians were alwayes resident. 12 The proposition of praise is in this verse, of reprehension in the two following, and of exhortation ioyned with a conditionall threate, verse 16. Now this Antipas was the Angel or minister of y Church of Pergamus, as Aretas writeth. e The faith of them of Pergamus is so much the more highly commended, because they remained constant euē in the very heat of persecution. * Num. 24, 14 & 25. 1. f That which is here spoken of things offered to idoles, is meant of the same kinde which Paul speaketh of 2 Cor. 10, 13. 13 Which follow the footsteps of Balaam, and such as are abandoned vnto all filthinesse, as he shewed in the verse aforegoing, and is here figuified by a note of similitude. And thus also must the first verse bee vnderstood. For this matter especially Ireneus must be consulted withall. 14 The conclusion, standing of exhortation as before, & of promise. g Hee alludeth to that sermon which wee reade of John 6. and to the place we finde Psalme 105. 40. h Aretas writeth, that such a stone was wont to be giuen to wrestlers at games, or else that such stones did in olde time witnesse the quiting of a man. 15 The bread of life, inuisible, spirituall, and heauenly, which is kept secretly with God, from before all eternitie. 16 Which is a figure and witnesse of forgiuenesse and remission of sinnes, of righteousnesse and true holinesse, and of puritie vncorrupted, after that the old man is killed. 17 A figne and testimonie of newnesse of life in righteousnesse and true holinesse, by putting on the new man: whom none doeth inwardly know, saue the Spirit of man which is in himselfe, the praise whereof is not of man, but of God Rom. 2. 28. 18 The fourth place is vnto the Pastours of Thyatira. The exordium is taken out of the 14. and 15. verses of the first Chapter. 19 The proposition of praise is in this verse: of reprehension, for that they tolerated with them, the doctrine of vngodlinesse and vnrighteousnesse, in verse 20. the authours whereof though they were called backe of God, yet repented not verse 21. whereunto is added a most heauie threatning, verse 22 and 23. of a conditionall promise, and of exhortation to hold fast the truethis in the two verses following. i So hee calleth those offices of charity which are done to the Saints. k By fornication, is oft times in the Scripture idolatrie meant.

22 Behold,

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit fornication with her, into great affliction, except they repent them of their workes.

23 And I will kill her children with death, and all the Churches shall know that I am he which * search the reines and hearts: and I will giue vnto euery one of you according vnto your works.

24 And vnto you I say, the rest of them of Thyatira, As many as haue not this learning, neither haue knowen the l deepeneſſe of Satan (as they speake) I will m put vpon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye haue already, holde faſt till I come.

26 n For he that ouercommeth and keepeth my words vnto the end, to him will I giue o power ouer nations.

27 * And he ſhall rule them with a rod of yron: and as the veſſels of a potter, ſhall they be broken:

28 Euen as I receiued of my Father, ſo will I giue him p the morning Starre.

29 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit ſaith to the Churches.

CHAP. III.

1 The firſt Epiſtle ſent to the Paſtors of the Church of Sardis, 7 of Philadelphia, 14 And of the Laodiceans, 16 that they be not luke warme. 20 but endeauour to further Gods glory.

1 AND write vnto the Angel of the Church which is at a Sardis, Theſe things ſaith he that hath the ſeuen Spirits of God, and the ſeuen ſtars: * I know thy workes: for thou haſt a b name that thou liueſt, but thou art dead.

2 Be awake, and ſtrengthen the things which remaine, that are c ready to die: for I haue not found thy worke perfit before God.

3 Remember therefore, how thou haſt receiued and heard, and hold faſt and repent.* If therefore thou wilt not watch, I will come on thee as a thiefe, and thou ſhalt not know what houre I will come vpon thee.

4 Notwithſtanding thou haſt a few names yet in Sardis, which haue not defiled their garments: and they ſhall walke with me in d white: for they are e worthy.

5 He f that ouercommeth, ſhall be cloathed in white aray, and I will not put out his Name out of the * booke of life, but I will confeſſe his name before my Father, and before his Angels.

6 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit ſaith vnto the Churches.

7 ¶ 6 And write vnto the Angel of the Church which is of Philadelphia, Theſe things ſaith hee that is Holy, and True, which hath the g key of Dauid, which openeth and no man ſhutteth, and ſhutteth and no man openeth.

8 7 I know thy workes: behold, I haue ſet before thee an open doore, and no man can ſhut it: for thou haſt a little ſtrength, and haſt kept my word, and haſt not denied my Name.

9 Behold, I will make them h of the Synagogue of Satan, which call themſelues Iewes, and are not, but doe lie: behold, I ſay, I will make them that they ſhall come i and worſhip before thy feet, and ſhall know that I haue loued thee.

10 Becauſe thou haſt k kept the word of my patience, therefore I will deliuer thee from the houre of tentation, which will come vpon all the world, to try them that dwell vpon the earth.

11 Behold, I come ſhortly: hold that which thou haſt, that no man take thy crowne.

12 9 Him that ouercommeth, will I make a pillar in the Temple of my God, and he ſhall goe no more out: l 10 and I will write vpon him the Name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is the new Ieruſalem, which commeth downe out of heauen from my God, and I will write vpon him my new Name.

13 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit ſayeth vnto the Churches.

14 11 And vnto the Angel of the Church of the Laodiceans write, Theſe things ſaith h Amen, the faithfull and true witnes, that i beginning of the creatures of God.

15 12 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hote: I would thou wereſt cold or hot.

16 Therefore becauſe thou art luke warme, and neither cold nor hote, it will come to paſſe, that I ſhall ſpew thee out of my mouth.

17 For thou ſayeſt, I am rich, and increaſed with goods, and haue need of nothing, and knoweſt not how thou art wretched and miſerable, and poore, and blind, and naked.

18 I counſell thee to buy of me gold tryed by the fire, that thou mayeſt be made rich: and white raiment, that thou mayeſt be cloathed, and that thy filthy nakednеſſe doe not appeare: and anoint thine eyes with eye ſalue, that thou mayeſt ſee.

19 As many as I loue, * I rebuke and chaſten: be k zealous therefore and amend.

20 Behold, I ſtand at the doore, and knocke, l If any man heare my voyce, and open the doore, I will come in vnto him, and will ſup with him, and he with me.

21 13 To him that ouercommeth, will I graunt to ſit with me in my throne, euen as I ouercame, and ſit with my Father in his throne.

22 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit ſayeth vnto the Churches.

heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with me, saying, Come vp hither, and I will shew thee things which must be done hereafter.

2 And [a] immediatly I was rauished [a] in the spirit, [3] and beholde, a throne was set in heauen, and one sate vpon the throne.

3 4 And he that sate, was to looke vpon, like vnto a Iasper stone, and a sardine, and there was a rainebow round about the throne, in sight like to an emerauld.

4 5 And round about the throne were foure and twentie seats, and vpon the seats I saw foure and twentie Elders sitting, cloathed in white rayment, and had on their heads crownes of gold.

5 6 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thundrings and voices, and there were seuen lampes of fire burning before the throne, which are the seuen spirits of God.

6 7 And before the throne there was a Sea of glasse like vnto chrystall: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne were foure beastes, full of eyes before and behinde.

7 And the first beast was like a lyon, and the second beast like a calfe, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying Eagle.

8 And the [b] foure beasts had each one of them sixe wings about him, and they were full of eyes within, and they ceased not [c] day nor night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, Which was, and which is, and which is to come.

9 And when those beastes [c] gaue glory, and honour, and thanks to him that sate on the throne, which liueth for euer and euer,

10 [9] The foure and twentie Elders fell downe before him that sate on the throne, and worshipped him that liueth for euermore, and cast their crownes before the throne, saying,

11 [10] Thou art * worthy, O Lord, [11] to receiue glory, and honour, and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy wils sake they are, and haue beene created.

vpon the throne, [12] a booke written within, and on the backside sealed with seuen seales.

2 And I saw a strong Angel which preached with a loude voyce, Who is worthy to open the booke, and to loose the seales thereof?

3 4 And no man in heauen nor in earth, neither vnder the earth, was able to open the booke, neither to looke thereon.

4 Then I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, and to reade the booke, neither to looke thereon.

5 [5] And one of the Elders said vnto me, Weepe not: behold, that * 6 Lion which is of the tribe of Iuda, that roote of Dauid, hath obtained to open the booke, and to open the seuen seales thereof.

6 Then I beheld, and loe, [7] in the mids of the throne, and of the foure beasts, and in the mids of the Elders stood a Lambe, as though he had beene killed, which had seuen hornes, and seuen eyes, which are the seuen spirits of God, sent into all the world.

7 [8] And he came, and tooke the booke out of the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne.

8 9 And when hee had taken the booke, the foure beasts, and the foure and twenty Elders fell done before the Lambe, hauing euery one [10] harpes and golden vials full of odours, which are the * prayers of the Saints,

9 And they sung a [b] new [11] song, saying, [12] Thou art worthy to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast redeemed vs to God by thy blood out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation,

10 And hast made vs vnto our God * Kings, and Priests, and we shall reigne on the earth.

11 [13] Then I beheld, & I heard the voice of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beasts and the Elders, [14] and there was * [c] ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousand thousands,

12 Saying with a loude voyce, Worthy is the Lambe that was killed, to [d] receiue power, and riches,

2 The maner of reuelation, as before, 1.10.
a Luke Chap. 1.12.
3 A description of God the Father, and of his glory in the heauens, framed vnto the maner of men, by his office, nature, company, attending, effect, instruments and euents that follow afterwards. In this verse, hee is presented in office a iudge, as Abraham sayd, Gen. 18. which is declared by his throne, as an ensigne of iudgement, and his sitting thereupon.
4 By his nature, in that he is the Father, most glorious in his owne person, and with his glory ouershining all other things.
5 By the company attending about him in that, as that most high Iudge, he is accompanied with the most honourable attendance of Prophets and Apostles, both of the old and new Church, whom Christ hath made to be Priests and Kings, Chap. 1, 6. and 5, 10.
6 By effects, in that most mightily he speaketh all thing by his voice and word, as Psal. 29. 3. and with the light of his spirit & prouidence perfecteth and paseth through all.
7 By instruments vsed, in that he both hath a most readie treasurie, and as it were a workehouse excellently furnished with all things, vnto the executing of his will, which things flow from his commandement, as is repeated, chap. 15. 8. And hath also the Angels most ready administers of his counsels and pleasure vnto all parts of the world, continually watching (in this verse) working by reason otherwise then the instruments, without life last mentioned, couragious as lions, mightie as buls, wise as men, swift as eagles, verf. 7. most apt vnto all purposes, as furnished with wings on euery part, most piercing of sight, and finally pure and perfect Spirits, alwayes in continuall motion, verf. 8.
b Euery beast had sixe wings.
8 By euents, in that for all the causes before mentioned, God is glorified both of Angels, as holy, Iudge, omnipotent eternall and immutable, verf. 8. and also after their example hee is glorified of holy men (verf 9.) in signe and in speach, verse 10, 11. e God is sayd to haue glory, honour, kingdome, and such like giuen vnto him, when we godly and reuerently set forth that which is properly and onely his.
9 Three signes of diuine honour giuen vnto God, prostration or falling downe, adoration and casting their crownes before God, in which the godly, though made kings by Christ, doe willingly emptie themselues of all glory, mooued with a religious respect of the maiesty of God.
10 The summe of their speach: that all glory must be giuen vnto God: the reason, because hee is the eternall beginning of all things, from whose onely will they haue their being and are gouerned: and finally in all respects are that which they are. * Chap. 11.
11 That is, that thou shouldest challenge y same to thy self alone. But as for vs, we are vaworthy, that euen by thy goodnes we should be made partakers of this glory. And hitherto hath bin handled the principall cause vnapproachable, which is God.

CHAP. V.

1 The booke sealed with seuen seales, 3 which none could open. 6 That Lambe of God 9 is thought worthy to open, 12 euen by the consent of all the company of heauen.

3 Here are shewed the occasions for which this Principall cause, and this Reuelation was also necessary: the same are three, the first a present vision of the booke of the counsels of God, concerning the gouernment of this whole worlde, which booke is sayd to be layd vp with the Father as it were in his hand: but shut and vnknowen vnto all creatures, in this verse. The second is a religious desire of the Angels of God to vnderstand the mysteries of this booke, verf. 2. whereof see 1. Pet. 1. 12. The third is a lamentation of Saint Iohn and all the godly, mooued by the same desire, verse 4. when they sawe that it was a thing vnpossible for any creature to effect: which is declared in the third verse.
4 That neither of them that are in heauen, nor of them which are in the earth, &c. And this I like better. Now this enumeration of partes is sufficient to the denying of the whole. For of the creatures one sort is in heauen about the earth: another in the earth: and another vnder the earth in the sea, as is after declared, verse 13. 5 The second part of this chapter, in which is set downe the Reuelation of the Sonne, as before was said. This part conteineth first an history of the maner how God prepared S. Iohn to vnderstand this Reuelation in this verse. Secondly, the Reuelation of the Sonne himselfe vnto the 7 verse. Thirdly, the accidents of this Reuelation, in the rest of y chapter. The maner how, is here described in two sorts, one from without him, by speech in this verse. Another within, by opening the eyes of S. Iohn (which before were held) that he might see, in the verse following. * Gen. 49. 6. 6 That is, the most mighty and most approoued Prince according to the vse of the Hebrew speach. 7 The summe of this Reuelation: Christ the mediator taketh and openeth the booke, verse 6. 7. Therefore in his Reuelation is described the person of Christ, in this verse. His fact, in the next verse. The person is thus described, Christ, the mediatour betweene God, Angels and men, as the eternall word of God, and our redeemer: as the Lambe of God, standing as slaine, and making intercession for vs by the vertue & merit of his euerlasting sacrifice, is armed with the Spirit of God, in his owne person, y, with the power & wisdom of God essentially vnto y gouernment of this whole world.
8 The fact of Christ the Mediator, that he commeth vnto the throne of the Father, of which chap. 4 and taketh the booke out of his hand to open it. For that he opened it, it is first expressed, chap. 6. 1, &c. 9 Now follow in the ende the accidents of the Reuelation last spoken of, that all the holy Angels, & men did sing vnto him: both the chiefe, verf. 9. 10. & common order of Angels, verf. 11. 12. and of all thing created, verf. 13. the princes of both sorts agreeing thereunto, verse 14. 10 The symbols or signes of praise, fauor in fauour, & acceptable vnto God. See chap. 3. a Luke chap. 9. 3. b No common song. 11 That is, composed according to the present matter: the Lambe hauing receiued the booke, as it were with his feete, and opened it with his hornes, as is said in the Canticles. 12 The song of the Nobles or Princes standing by the throne, consisting of a publication of the praise of Christ, & a confirmation of the same from his benefits, both which we haue receiued of himselfe (as are the suffering of his death, our redemption vpon y crosse by his blood in this verse) and our communion with him in Kingdome & Priesthood, which long ago he hath granted vnto vs (with himself) & which we hereafter hope to obtaine, as our kingdome to come in Christ, in the verse following. * Chap. 1, 6. 1. Pet. 2. 9. 13 The consent of the common order of Angels, answering in melody vnto their Princes that stood by the throne. 14 A number finite, but almost infinite for one infinitie indeede, as Dan. 7. 10. * Daniel 7. 10. c By this is meant a great number, & To haue all praysegiuen to him, as to the mightest & wisest, &c.

a A passing vnto the second principall cause, which is the Sonne of God, God and man, the mediator of all, as the eternall word of God the Father manifested in the flesh. This chapter hath two partes: one that prepareth the way vnto the Reuelation, by rehearsall of the occasions that did occurre in the first foure verses. Another, the history of the Reuelation of Christ, thence vnto the end of the chapter.
a That is, in the very right hand of God.

ches, and wisdome, and strength, and honour, and glory, and praise.

13 15 And all the creatures which are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Praise, and honour, and glory, and power be vnto him, that sitteth vpon the throne, and vnto the Lambe for euermore.

14 16 And the foure beasts said, Amen, and the foure and twenty Elders fell downe and worshipped him that liueth for euermore.

CHAP. VI.

1 The Lambe openeth the first seale of the booke. 3 The second, 5 the third, 7 the fourth, 9 the fifth, 12 and the sixth; and then arise murders, famine, pestilence, outcries of Saints, earthquakes, and diuers strange sights in heauen.

1 AFter I beheld when the Lambe had opened one of the seales, and I heard one of the foure beasts say, as it were the noise of thunder, Come and see.

2 Therefore a I beheld, and loe, there was a white horse, and he that sate on him had a bow, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and he went forth conquering that he might ouercome.

3 And 3 when he had opened the second seale, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse, that was red, and power was giuen to him that sate thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and there was giuen vnto him a great sword.

5 4 And when he had opened the third seale, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. Then I beheld, and loe, a blacke horse, and he that sate on him, had balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voyce in the mids of the foure beasts say. A a measure of wheate for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny, 5 and oyle, and wine hurt thou not.

7 6 And when he had opened the fourth seale, I heard the voyce of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold, a pale horse, and his name that sate on him was Death, and Hell followed after him, and power was giuen vnto them ouer the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 7 And when he had opened the fifth seale, I saw vnder the altar the soules of them that were killed for the word of God, and for the testimony which they maintained.

10 And they cryed with a loud voyce, saying, How long, Lord, which art holy and true! doest not thou iudge and auenge our blood on them, that dwell on the earth?

11 And long 8 white robes were giuen vnto euery one, and it was said vnto them, that they should rest for a little season vntill their fellow seruants, and their brethren that should be killed euen as they were, were 9 fulfilled.

12 9 And I beheld when hee had opened the sixt seale, and loe, there was a great earthquake, and the Sunne was as blacke as c sackcloth of haire, and the Moone was like blood.

13 And the starres of heauen fell vnto the earth, as a figge tree casteth her greene figges, when it is shaken of a mighty winde.

14 And heauen departed away, as a scroule, when it is rolled, and euery mountaine and yle were moued out of their places.

15 10 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chiefe captaines, and the mightie men, and euery bondman, & euery free man, hid themselues in dennes, and among the rockes of the mountaines,

16 And said to the mountaines and rockes, 11 * Fall on vs and hide vs from the presence of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lambe.

17 For the great day of his wrath is come, and who can stand?

1 The consent of all the common multitude of the creatures.
16 A confirmation of the praise beforegoing, from the consultation of the Nobles, expressed inward and signes, as once or twise before this,

a This is the second part of this first history (which I find was common and of the whole world) of the workes of God in the government of all things. Of this part there are generally 3. members, the foresignifying, the caution, and the execution: all the euils which God powred out vpon this world, which hath most hardly deserued of him. The foresignifying is set downe in this chap. the caution for preseruing the Church, is in the next chap. and the execution is described, chap. 8. 9. in euery part of the foresignifying, there are three branches: the seuerall and expresse calling of S. Iohn, to prepare himselfe to take knowledge of the things that were to bee shewed vnto him in the opening of the seales: the signe & the word expounding the signe: And albeit the expresse calling of S. Iohn, be read only in foure of the figures yet the same is also to be vnderstood in the rest that follow. The author of the foresignifyings is the Lamb, as that word of the Father made the Mediator opening the seales of the booke. The instruments are the Angels in most of the visions, who expound the signe & the words thereof. Now this first verse containeth an expresse calling of S. Iohn, to make the opinion of the first seale. 2 The first signe ioyned with declaration, is that God for the sins and horrible rebellion of the world, will inuade the same: and first of all will as a farre off, with his darts of pestilence most suddenly, mightily, and gloriously breake downe the same as iudge, and triumph ouer it as conquerour. 3 The second signe ioyned with words of declaration (after the expresse calling of S. Iohn as before) is that God being prouoked vnto wrath by the obstinacy & hard heartednes of the world not repenting for the former plague, as setting vpon the same at hand, will kindle the fire of debate amongst men, and will destroy the inhabitants of this world, one by the sword of another. 4 The third signe with declaration, is, that God will destroy the world with famine, withdrawing all prouision: which is by the figure Synecdoche comprehended in wheate, barley, wine, & oyle. a Hereby is signified what great scarcity of corn there was, for the wordhere vsed is a kind of measure of thry things, which is in quality but the eight part of a bushel, which was an ordinary portion to bee giuen to seruants for their stint of meat for one day. 4 I had rather distinguish and read the words thus, and the wine and the oyle thou shalt not deale vniustly. In this fence likewise the wine and the oyle shall be sold a very little for a penny. Thou shalt not deale vniustly, namely, when thou shalt measure out a very little for a great price: so is the place euident: otherwise that is most true, which the Wise man saith, that who so with-holdeth the corne shall be cursed of the people, Prouerb. 11 26. 6 The fourth signe ioyned with wordes of declaration, is, that God will addict the fourth part of the world indifferently, vnto death & hel, or the graue by all those meanes at once, by which before seuerally and in order hee had recalled their mindes vnto amendment. Vnto these are also added the wilde and cruell beastes of the earth, out of Leuiticus 26.22. Thus doeth God according to his wisedome dispense the treasures of his power, iustly towards all, mercifully towards the good, and with patience or long sufferance towards his enemies.

7 The fift signe is that the holy Martyrs which are vnder the altar, whereby they are sanctified, that is, received into the trust and tuition of Christ (into whose hands they are committed) shall cry out for the iustice of God, in an holy zeale to aduance his kingdome, and not of any priuate perturbation of the mind, in this and the next verse, and that God will, in deed, signe and word comfort them, vers. 11. 8 As before, 3.4. b Vntill they number be fulfilled.

9 The sixt signe, the narration whereof hath two parts, the figue, and the euent. The figue is, that the earth, heauen, and the things that are in them for horrour of the sinnes of the world vpon those most beastie foretellings of God, and complaints of the Saints shall be shaken most vehemently, trembling in horrible manner, and loosing their light, in this verse: falling from on high, verse 13. withdrawing themselues, and flying away for the greatnesse of the tremble, verse 14. So boldly doe all creatures depend vpon the will of God, and content themselues in his glory. c So they called in old time those women workes that were of hatre. 10 The euent of the signe afore going: that there is no man that shall not bee astonished at that generall commotion, flie away for feare, and hide himselfe in this verse, and wish vnto himselfe most bitter death for exceeding horror of the wrath of God, & of the Lambe, at which before he was astonished. Now this perplexity is not of the godly, but of the wicked, whose portion is in this life, as the Psalmist speaketh, Psal. 17.14. Not that sorrow which is according vnto God, which worketh repentance vnto saluation, whereof a man shall neuer repent him, but that worldly sorrow that bringeth death, 2 Cor. 7.9 as their wishings doe declare: for this history is of the whole world, feasted from the history of the Church, as I haue before, and shall hereafter, chap. 9.11. 11 These are words of such as despaire of their escape: of which despaire there are two arguments, the presence of God and of the Lamb prouoked to wrath against the world in this verse, and the conscience of their owne weaknesse, whereby men feele that they are no way able to stand in the day of the wrath of God, verse 17, as it is Esay 14.27. * Esa.2.19. hos.10.8, luke 23,30.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Angels comming to hurt the earth, 3 are stayed vntill the elect of the Lord 5 of all tribes were sealed, 13 Such as suffered persecution for Christs sake, 16 haue great felicitie, 17 and ioy.

ANd 1 after that, I saw foure Angels stand on the a foure corners of the earth, holding the foure winds of the earth, that the windes should

1 The 2. member of this part, is a preuenting of danger, as wee distinguished the same before, Chap. 6.1. that is of the caution whereby God tooke care before hand and prouided for his that after the example of the Israelites of old, Exod. 8.23. the faithfull might be exempted from the plagues of this wicked world. This whole place is a certaine interlocution & bringing in for this whole Chap. by occasion of the prediction & argument of the sixt seale. For first that euill is preuented in the elect vnto the 9. vers. Then thanks are giuen by the elect for that cause, ver. 10. 11, 12. Lastly, the accomplishment of the thing is set forth vnto the end of the chap. The first vers. is a transition speaking of ỹ Angels which keep these inferiours parts from all euill, vntill God doe command. For (as it is excellently figured by Ezech. 11.12.) their faces and their winds are reached vpwards, continually waiting vpon & beholding the countenance of God for their direction, and euery of them goeth into that part, that is right before his face, whithersoeuer the Spirit shall goe, they goe, they step not out of the way, that is, they depart not so much as a foot bredth frō the path cōmanded thē of God, a On the foure quarters or coasts of the earth.

2 That is, neither into the ayre, into which the tops of trees are aduanced.

3 Now God prouideth against the danger of his elect by commandement, verse 2. and 3. and by signe, or figure, both for those of the nation of the Ieowes, thence vnto the 8. verse, and also of the Gentiles, verse 9.

4 Not onely another, or differing in number from the common Angels of God, but also in essence, office, and operation excelling all Angels: that is: Christ Iesus the eternall Angel or word of God, and mediatour of the couenant. So hereafter, chapter 8. 3. and 10. 1. 5 That is, of the Ieowes a number certaine in it selfe before God and such as may be numbred of vs: for which cause also the same is here set downe as certain. But of the elect which are of the Gentiles, the number indeed is in it selfe certaine with God, but of vs not possibly to be numbred, as God, Gen. 15. 5. and often else where, and so by figure is set forth excellently, Chap. 49. and 60. This therefore is spoken with respect, when a certaine number is put for one vncertaine. Confertur this with verse 6.

b He skipped Dan, & reckoneth Leui. c Of Ephraim, who was Iosephs other sonne, and had the birthright giuen him, wherefore he is called Ioseph.

6 Here the tribe of Leui is reckoned vp in common with the rest because all the Israelites were equally made Priestes with them in Christ by his Priesthood, chap. 1. 6. and 5. 10. and Rom. 12. 1. and 1. Pet. 2. 9. The name of Dan is not mentioned because the Danites long before forsaking the worship of God, were fallen away from the fellowship of Gods people vnto the part of the Gentiles, which still more appeareth before Iacob foresaw, Gen. 49. 18. for which cause also there it is no mention made of this tribe in the first booke of the Cronicles. 7 See before vpon the 4. verse. 8 As Priests, Kings, and glorious conquerers by martyrdome: which things are noted by their proper figures in this verse. 9 The praise of God celebrated first by the holy men, in this verse, then by the heauenly Angels in the two verses following. 10 A passage ouer vnto the expounding of the vision, of which the Angell enquireth of S. Iohn to stir him vp withall, in this verse & Iohn in the forme of speech, both acknowledgeth his owne ignorance, attributing knowledge vnto the Angel and also in most modest manner requireth the expounding of the vision. 11 The exposition of the vision, wherein the Angel telleth, first the acte of the Saints, that is, their sufferings and work of Faith in Christ Iesus, in this verse. Secondly, their glory both present, which consisteth in two things, that they ministre vnto God, and that God protecteth them verse 15. and to come in their perfect deliuerance from all annoiances verse 16. and in participation of all good things which euen the memory of former euils shall neuer be able to diminish, vers. 17. The cause efficient & which containeth all these things, is only one, euen the Lambe of God, the Lord, the Mediator, and the Sauiour Christ Iesus.

not blow on the earth, neither on the sea, neither on any tree.

2 3 And I saw 4 another Angel come vp from the East, which had the seale of the liuing God, and he cryed with a loud voyce to the foure Angels to whom power was giuen to hurt the earth, and the sea, saying,

3 Hurt ye not the earth, neither the sea, neither the trees, till we haue sealed the seruants of our God in their foreheads.

4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed, and there were sealed; an hundreth and foure and fourtie thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Iuda were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelue thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Nephtali were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelue thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelue thousand. 6 Of the tribe of b Leui were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelue thousand.

8 Of the tribe of c Ioseph were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Beniamin were sealed twelue thousand.

9 After these things I beheld, and loe, a great multitude, 7 which no man could number, of all nations, and kinreds, & people, and tongues 8 stood before the throne, and before the Lambe, cloathed with long white robes, and palmes in their hands.

10 9 And they cryed with a loud voice, saying, Saluation commeth of our God, that sitteth vpon the throne, and of the Lambe.

11 And all the Angels stood round about the throne, and about the Elders, and the foure beasts, and they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

12 Saying, Amen, Praise, and glory, and wisedome, and thankes, and honour, and power, and might, be vnto our God for euermore, Amen.

13 10 And one of the Elders spake, saying, vnto me, What are these which are arayed in long white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said vnto him, Lord, thou knowest. And he said vnto me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and haue washed their long robes, and haue made their long robes white in the blood of the Lambe.

15 Therefore are they in the presence of the throne of God, and serue him day and night in his Temple, and he that sitteth on the throne will dwell e among them.

16 * They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sunne light on them, neither any heate.

17 For the Lambe, which is in the mids of the throne, shall gouerne them, and shall leade them vnto the liuely fountaines of waters, and * God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes.

CHAP. VIII.

1 After the opening of the seuenth seale, 3 the Saints prayers are offered vp with odours. 6 The seuen Angels come fourth with trumpets. 7 The foure first blow, and fire falleth on the earth, & the sea is turned into blood, 10. 11. the waters waxe bitter, 12 and the starres are darkened.

1 AND when he had opened the seuenth seale, there was silence in heauen about halfe an houre.

2 And I saw the seuen Angels, which a stood before God, and to them were giuen seuen trumpets.

3 Then another Angel came and stood before the Altar, hauing a golden censer, and much odours was giuen vnto him, that he should offer with the prayers of all Saints vpon the golden Altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the smooke of the odours with the prayers of the Saints, b went vp before God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel tooke the censer, and filled it with fire of the Altar, and cast it into the earth, and there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, and earthquake.

6 4 Then the seuen Angels which had the seuen trumpets, prepared themselues to blow the trumpets.

7 5 So the first Angel blew the trumpet, and there was haile and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast into the earth, and the third part of trees was burnt, and all greene grasse was burnt.

8 6 And the second Angell blew the trumpet,

d He alludeth to the Leuites which serued day and night, for else there is no night in heauen.
e Or, vpon them, whereby is meant Gods defence and protection, as it were towards them, who are as safe, as men in the Lords tents.
 Esai. 49. 10.*
 Esai. 25. 8. chap. 21. 4.*

1 He returneth to the history of the seales of the booke, which the Lambe openeth. The seuenth seale is the next foresignification, and a precise commandement of the execution of the moth heauy iudgments of God vpon this wicked world: which foresignification being vnderstood by the seale, all things in heauen are silent, and in horror thereof admiration, vntill commandement of execution be seuerally giuen of God vnto the ministers of his wrath. So he passeth vnto the third mentioned, of which I spake before in Chapt. 6. vers. 1. which is of the execution of those euils wherewith God most iustly determine[th] to afflict the world. 2 Now followeth the third branch of the common history, as euen now I said, which is the execution of the iudgements of God vpon this world. This is first generally prepared vnto the 6. verse, then by seuerall parts expounded according to the order of those that administred the same vnto the end of the chapter following. Vnto the preparation of this execution are declared these things: First, who were the administers and instruments thereof in this verse. Secondly, what is the worke both of the Prince of Angels, giuing order for this execution, thence vnto the 5. verse, and of his administers in the 6. verse. The administers of the execution are said to be seuen Angels: their instruments, trumpets, whereby they should as it were sound the alarme at the commandement of God. They are proponded seuen in number, because it pleased God not at once to powre out his wrath vpon the rebellious world, but at diuers times, and by piece meale, and in slow order, & as with an vnwilling mind to exercise his iudgements vpon his creatures, so long called vpon both by word & signes if happily they had learned to repent. a Which appeare before him as his ministers. 3 This is that great Emperour, the Lord Iesus Christ our King and Sauiour: who both maketh intercession to God the Father for the Saints, filling the heauenly Sanctuary with most sweete odour, and offering vp their prayers, as the Calues & burnt sacrifices of their lips, in this verse, in such sort as euery one of them (so poore still a thing soeuer) auour of Christ, and the efficacy of his sacrifice) are held in reconcilement with God and therefore made most acceptable vnto him, verse 4. And then also out of his treasury, & from the same sanctuary powreth forth vpon the world the fire of his wrath, adding also diuine tokens thereunto and by that meanes (as of old the Heraulds of Rome were wont to doe) he proclaimeth warre against the rebellious world. b Our prayers are nothing worth, vnlesse that true and sweet sauour of that only oblation be especially and before all things with them, that is to say, vnlesse they being first of all sanctified through faith in his Sonne, be acceptable vnto him. 4 This is the worke of the administers. The Angels the administers of Christ, only by sounding trumpet and voyce (for they are onely as Heraulds) do effectually all forth the instruments of the wrath of God, through his power. Hitherto haue beene things generall. Now followeth the narration of things particular, which the Angels fix in number wrought in their order set out in the 19. verse of the next chap. and is concluded with the declaration of the euent which followed vpon these things done in the world, and this to the 12. and 13 chap. 5 The first execution at the sound of the first Angel vpon y earth, that is, the inhabitants of the earth (by Metonymie) & vpon all the fruits thereof as the conuerting of this verse with the 6. & 9 member of the 9 verse doth not obscurely declare. 6 The second execution, vpon the sea in this verse, and all things that are therein in the next verse, and as it were a great mountaine, burning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood.

9 And the third part of the creatures, which were in the sea, and had life, died, and the third part of ships were destroyed.

10 7 Then the third Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell a great starre from heauen, burning like a torch, and it fell into the third part of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the star is called 8 wormewood: therefore the third part of the waters became wormewood, and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 9 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the third part of the sunne was smitten, and the third part of the moone, and the third part of the starres, so that the third part of them was darkened: and the day was smitten, that the third part of it could not shine, and likewise the night.

13 10 And I beheld, and heard one Angel flying thorow the middes of heauen, saying with a loud voyce, Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the sounds to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blowe the trumpets.

7 The third execution vpon the floods and fountaines, that is, vpon all fresh waters, in this verse: the effect whereof is, that many are destroyed with the bitternesse of waters, in the verse following.

8 This is spoken by Metaphor, of the name of a most bitter herbe, and commonly knowen, vnlesse perhaps a man following those that note the deriuation of words had rather expound it actiuely, for that which by reason of bitternes cannot be drunke, or which maketh the liquour into which it is prowred, more bitter then y any man can drink the same.

9 The fourth execution vpon the celestiall bodies of heauen, which minister vnto this inferiour world. 10 A lameutable prediction or foretelling of those parts of the diuine execution which are yet behinde: which also is a passage vnto the argument of the next Chapter. Of all these things in a manner Christ himselfe expressly foretold in the 21. Chapter of S Luke, Verse 24, &c. and they are common plagues generally denounced, without particular note of time.

CHAP. IX.

1 The first Angel bloweth his trumpet, 3 and spoiling locusts come out. 13 The sixt Angel bloweth, 16 and bringeth fourth horsemen, 20 to destroy mankind.

AND the 1 fift Angel blew the trumpet, and I saw a 2 starre fall from heauen vnto the earth, 3 and to him was giuen the key of the bottomlesse pit.

2 4 And he opened the bottomlesse pit, and there arose the smoke of the pit, as the smoke of a great fornace, and the sunne, and the ayre were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 5 And there came out of the smoke Locusts vpon the earth, and vnto them was giuen power, as the scorpions of the earth haue power.

4 6 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grasse of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree: but only those men which haue not ȳ seale of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them was commaunded that they should not kill them, but that they should bee vexed fiue moneths, and that their paine should be as the paine that commeth of a scorpion, when he hath stung a man.

6 *Therefore in those dayes shall men seeke death, and shall not find it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flie from them.

7 7 And the forme of the locusts was like vnto horses prepared vnto the battell, and on their heads were as it were crownes, like vnto gold, and their faces were like the faces of men.

8 And they had haire as the haire of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lyons.

9 And they had habbergions, like vnto habbergions of yron, and the sound of their wings was like the sound of charets when many horses runne vnto battell.

10 And they had tailes like vnto scorpions, and there were stings in their tailes, and their power was to hurt men fiue moneths.

11 8 And they haue a king ouer them, which is the Angel of the bottomlesse pit, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Grecke hee is named Apollyon, that is, destroying.

12 9 One woe is past, and behold, yet two woes come after this.

6 Here that power of the deuils in particulary described according to their actions and effects of the same. Their actions are said to be bounded by the counsell of God: both because they hurt not all men, but onely the reprobate (for the godly and elect, in whom there is any part of a better life, God gardeth by his decree) whom Christ shall not haue sealed, is in this verse: and also because they neither had all power nor at all times, no not ouer those that are their owne, but limited in manner and time, by the prescripts of God, verse 5. So their power to afflict the godly, is none, & for the wicked is limited in act and in effect by the will of God: for the matter was prescribed vnto them that they should not slay, but torment ȳ wretched world. The time is for so many yeeres in which the deuils haue indeed mightily peruerted all things in the world: and yet without that publike and vnpunished licence of killing, which afterward they vsurped when the sixt Angel had blowen his trumpet, as shalbe said vpon the 13 verse. Now this space is to bee accounted from the end of that thousand yeeres mentioned, Chap. 20. 3 & that is from the Popedome of that Gregory the seuenth, a most monstrous Necromancer, who before was called Hildebrandus Senensis: for this man being made altogether of impiety and wickednesse, as a stue of the deuil, who in be ferued, was the most wicked firebrand of the world: he excommunicated he Emperor Henry the fourth: went about by all maner of mischeife to set vp and put downe empires and kingdomes as liked himselfe: and doubted not to set Rodolph the Swedon ouer the Empire in stead of Henry before named, sending vnto him a Crowne with this verse annexed vnto it, Petra dedit Petro, Petra dedit Petro Rodolpho: that is, The Rocke to Peter gaue the crowne, and Peter Rodolph doth renowne. Finally, he so finely bestirred himselfe in his affaires, as he miserably set all Christendome on fire, and conueyed ouer vnto his successours the burning brand of the same: who enraged with like ambition, neuer ceased to nourish that flame, and to enkindle it more and more: whereby Cities, Common-weales, and whole kingdomes set together by the eares amongst themselues by most expert curthroats, came to ruine, whiles they miserably wounded one another. This terme of an hundred and fiftie yeeres, taketh end in the time of Gregory the ninth, or Hugolinus Anagninensis (as he was before called) who caused to be compiled by one Raimond his chapleine and confessour, the body of Decretals, and by sufferance of the Kings and Princes to be published in the Christian world, and established for a law. For by this sleight at length the Popes arrogated vnto themselues licence to kill whome they would, whiles other were vnwares: and without feare ehalf ordained a butchery out of many of the wicked Canons of the Decretals, which the trumpet of the fift Angel had expreily forbidden, and had hindered vntill this time. The effects of these bloody actions are declared vpon the fixt verse: that the miserable world languishing in so great calamities, should willingly runne together vnto death, and preferre the same before life, by reason of the grieuousnesse of the miseries that oppressed them. * Chap. 6. 16. Esa. 2. 19. Hos. 10. 8. 7 The forme of these hellish spirits and administers, is shadowed out by signes and visible figures of these hellish spirits and administers, is shadowed out by signes and visible figures in this sort: that they are very expert and swift: that wheresoeuer they are in the world, the kingdome is theirs: that they manage all their affaires with cunning & skill, in this verse, that making shew of mildnesse and tender affection to draw on men withall, they most impudently rage in all mischiefe: that they are most mighty to doe hurt. Vers. 8. that they are freed from being hurt of any man, as armed with the colour of religion, and sacred authoritie of priuiledge, that they fill all things with horror. Vers. 9. that they are fraudulent: that they are venemous & extremely noisome, though their power be limited, Verse 10. All which things are properly in the infernall powers, & communicated by them vnto their ministers & vassals. 8 The order of the powers of maliciousnes: that they are subiect to one infernall King, whom thou mayest call in English, The Destroyer: who driueth the whole world both Iewes and Gentiles into the destruction that belongeth vnto himselfe. And I cannot tell whether this name belongeth vnto the Etymologicall interpretation of Hildebrand, by a figure often vsed in the holy Scripture: which albeit it may otherwise be turned of the Germanes (as the seate of compound words is commonly ambiguous) yet in very deed it signifieth as much as if thou shouldest call him the firebrand, that is, he that setteth on fire those that be faithfull vnto him.

1 The sixt execution vpon the wicked men inhabiting the earth (as a little before the Angel said) wrought by the infernall powers, is declared in this place vnto the eleuenth verse. And after the sixt execution the next vnto the nineteenth. And lastly is shewed the common euent that followed the former execution in the world, in the two last verses. 2 That is, that the Angel of God glittering with glory, as a starre fell downe from heauen. Whether thou take him for Christ, who hath the keyes of hell of himselfe, and by Princely authority. Chap. 1. verse 18. or whether for some inferior Angel, who hath the same key permitted vnto him, & occupieth it ministerially, or by office of his ministery here. & Chap. 20. 1. for the word falling, is taken. Gen. 14. 10. and 24. 64. and Heb. 6. 6. 3 The key was giuen to this starre. For those powers of wickednesse are shut downe into hell, & bound with chaines of darknesse. and are there kept vnto damnation, vnlesse God for a time doe let them loose, 2. Pet. 2. 4. Iude 6. and of this booke, Chap. 20. 10. the historie of which chapter hath agree-ment of time with this present chapter. a By the bottomlesse pit, Are meaneth the deepest darknesse of hell. 4 Vnto this is added, the smoke of the bottomlesse pit, which is expounded in the next verse to be the smoke of a great fornace, and the sunne, and the ayre were darkened by the smoke of the pit. This smoke of the bottomlesse pit, is the darkenesse of ignorance, and errours, and of all sinne, which is the fruit of ignorance, and errour, and the cause of all sinne. Ephes. 4. 18. 19. 5 A description of the malignant spirits inuading of the spirits themselues. 5 A description of the malignant spirits inuading of the world, taken from their nature, power, forme and order. From their nature, for that they are like vnto certaine locustes, in quicknesse, subtiltie, burstfulnesse, number, and such like, in this verse. From their power, for that they are as the scorpion of the earth, of a secret force to doe hurt. For our battell is not here with flesh and blood, but with powers, &c. Ephes. 6. 12. This place of the power of the Deuils generally noted to this verse, is particularly declared afterwards in the three next verses.

13 ¶ 10 Then the sixt Angel blew the trumpet, 11 and I heard a voyce from the b foure hornes of the golden altar, which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixt Angel which had the trumpet, 12 Loose the foure Angels, which are bound in the great riuer Euphrates.

15 13 And the foure Angels were loosed, which were prepared at an houre, at a day, at a moneth, and at a yeare, to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of horsemen of warre were twenty thousand times ten thousand: for I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, hauing fierie habergions, and of Iacynth, and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lyons: and out of their mouthes went foorth fire, and smoake, and brimstone.

18 Of these three was the third part of men killed, that is, of the fire, and of the smoke, and of the brimstone, which came out of their mouthes.

19 For their power is in their mouthes, and in their tailes: 14 for their tailes were like vnto serpents, and had heads wherewith they hurt.

20 15 And the remnant of the men which were not killed by these plagues, repented not of the workes of their hands that they should not worship deuils, and * idoles of gold, and of siluer, and of brasse, and of stone, and of wood, which neither can see, neither heare, nor goe.

21 Also they repented not of their murther, and of their sorcerie, neither of their fornication, nor of their theft.

20 The fixt execution done vpon the world by the tyrannicall powers thereof, working in the foure parts of the earth, that is in most cruell manner executing their tyrannous dominion through the whole world, and killing the infinite people without punishment, which before was not lawfull for them to doe in that sort, as I shewed vpon the fourth verf. This narration hath two parts: a commandement from God, in the 14 ver. and an execution of the commandement, in the verse following.

21 The commandement giuen by Christ himselfe, who is gouernour ouer all.

b Hee alludeth to the altar of incense, which stood in the Court which the Priests were in, ouer against the Arke of the Couenant, hauing a vaile betwixt them.

22 As if he should haue said, These hitherto haue bene so bound by the power of God, that they could not freely run vpon all men as themselues lusted, but were stayed & restrained at that great flood of Euphrates, that is, in their spirituall Babylon (for this is a Periphrasis of the spirituall Babylon, by the limits of the spirituall Babylon long since ouerthrowen) that they might not commit those horrible slaughters which they long breathed after. Now goe to: let loose those foure Angels, that is, administers of the wrath of God, in that number that is conuenient to the slaughtering of the foure quarters of the world: stirre them vp and giue them the bridle, that rushing of that Babylon of theirs, which is the seate of the wicked ones, they may flie vpon all the world, therein to age, and most licentiously to exercise their tyrannie, as God hath ordained. This was done when Gregorie the ninth by publike authoritie established for law his owne Decretals, by which he might freely lay traines for the life of simple men. For who is it that seeth not that the lawes Decretall most of them are as snares to catch soules withall? Since that time (O good God!) how great slaughters haue there beene? how great massacres? All histories are full of them: and this our age aboundeth with most horrible and monstrous examples of the same. 23 The execution of the commandement is in two points: one, that those butchers are let loose, that out of their tower of the spirituall Babylon they might with furie runne abroad through all the world, as well the chiefe of that crew which are most prompt vnto all assayes, in their seuerse as their multitudes, both most copious, of which a number certaine is named for a number infinite, Verse 16. and in themselues by all meanes fully furnished to bide and to hurt, Verse 17. as being armed with fire, smoake & brimstone, as appeareth in the colour of their armour, which dazeleth the eyes of all men: and haue the strength of Lyons to hurt withall, from which (as out of their mouth) the fierie, smoakie, and stinking darts of the Pope are shot out, Verse 18. The other point is, that these butchers haue effected the commandement of God by fraud and violence, in the two verses following. 24 That is, they are harmefull euery way: on what part soeuer thou put thine hand vnto them, or they touch thee, they doe hurt. 5 The former are called Scorpions, Verse 3. 15 Now remaineth the euent (as I said vpon the first verse) which followed of so many and so grieuous iudgements in the most wicked world: namely, an impenitent obstination of the vngodly in their impietie and vnrighteousnesse, though they seele themselues most vehemently prested with the hand of God: for their obstinate vngodlinesse is shewed in this verse: and their vnrighteousnesse in the verse following. Hitherto hath bene the generall historie of things to bee done vniversally in the whole world: which because it doeth not so much belong to the Church of Christ, is therefore not so exactly distinguished by certainty of time & other circumstances, but is vsually as they say with a slight hand. Also there is none other cause why the historie of the seuenth Angel is passed ouer in this place, then for that the same more properly appertaineth vnto the historie of the Church. But this is more diligently set out according to the time thereof, Chap. 11. and 16. as shall appeare vpon those places. * Psal. 115. 4. and 135. 15.

CHAP. X.

2 Another Angel appeareth clothed with a cloude, 2 holding a booke open, 3 and crieth out. 8 A voice from heauen commandeth Iohn to take the booke, 10 He eateth it.

AND 1 I saw a another mightie Angel come downe from heauen, clothed with a cloud, and the rainebowe vpon his head, and his face was as the Sunne, and his face as pillars of fire.

2 And hee had in his hand a 2 little booke open, and hee put his right foot vpon the sea, and his left on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voyce, as when a lion roareth: and when hee had cried, seuen thunders vttered their voyces.

4 4 And when the seuen thunders had vttered their voyces, I was aboue to write: but I heard a voyce from heauen, saying vnto mee, a Seale vp those things which the seuen thunders haue spoken, and write them not.

5 And the Angel which I sawe stand vpon the sea, and vpon the earth, b lift vp his hand to heauen,

6 And sware by him that liueth for euermore, which created heauen, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things that therein are, 5 that e time should be no more.

7 But in the dayes of the 6 voyce of the seuenth Angel, when hee shall begin to blow the trumpet, euen the mysterie of God shall be finished, as he hath declared to his seruants the Prophets.

8 7 And the voyce which I heard from heauen, spake vnto mee againe, and said, Goe, and take the little booke which is open in the hand of the Angel, which standeth vpon the sea, and vpon the earth.

9 So I went vnto the Angel, and sayd to him, Giue mee the little booke. And he said vnto mee, Take it, and eate it vp, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall bee in thy mouth as sweet as hony.

10 Then I tooke the little booke out of the Angels hand, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as sweet as hony: but when I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 8 And he said vnto mee, Thou must prophesie againe among the people and nations, and tongues, and to many Kings.

1 Now Saint Iohn passeth vnto the other Prophetical historie, which is of the Church of God, as I shewed that this booke should be distinguished, Chap. 4. 1. This storie reacheth hence vnto the two and twentieth Chapter. And this whole Chapter is but a transition from the common historie of the world, vnto that which is particular of the Church. There are in this transition or passage, two preparatiues, as it were vnto this Church storie comprised in this whole Chapter. One is the authoritie of Christ, reuealing his mysteries, and calling his seruant vnto the seuenth verse. The other is Saint Iohn his calling, proper vnto this place, and repeated from before vnto the end of this chapter. Authoritie is giuen vnto this Reuelation by these things: First, by the appearing from heauen in this habite and countenance, strong, ready, glorious, fatuerie ing all things by his prouidence and gouerning them by his omnipotencie, verse the first. Secondly, that he brought not by chance, but out of a booke this vnto the sea & land, the same not whispering but with a lowd noyse roused vp the secure: the very thunders themselues giuing testimony thereunto, verse the third. Lastly, for that he confirmed all by an oath, Verse 5.6.7. 2 Christ Iesus, see the seuenth Chapter, & the second verse. 3 Namely, a speciall booke of the affaires of Gods Church. For the booke that contained things belonging vnto the whole world, is said to bee kept with the Creatour, the fift Chapter, and the first verse, but the booke of the Church, with the Redeemer, and out of this booke is taken the rest of the historie of this Apocalypse. 4 A godly care is laudable, but most bee ioyned with knowledge. Therefore nothing is to bee take in hand, but by calling, which must bee expected & waited for of the godly. a Keepe them close. b This was a gesture vsed of one that sweareth, which men doe now a dayes vse. 5 Neither time is selfe, nor the things that are in time: but that the world to come is at hand, which is altogether of eternitie & beyond all times. c There shall neuer bee any more time. 6 Whereof Chap. 11. 15. and 16. 17. 7 The other part of this Chapter, concerning the particular calling of Saint Iohn to the receiuing of the prophesy following, which is enioyned him, first by signe in three verses, then in plaine words in the last verse. Vnto the seeing forth of the signe belong these things: That Saint Iohn is taught from heauen to demaund the booke of the Prophecy in this verse: For these motions & desires God doeth inspire: y demaunding the booke, bee is charged to take it in a figurative maner, the vse whereof also is expounded, verse the ninth, (as in the second Chapter of Ezechiel, and the ninth verse) whence this similitude is borrowed: Lastly, for that Saint Iohn at the commandement of Christ tooke the booke, and found by experience that the same as proceeding from Christ, was most sweet, but in that it foretelleth the afflictions of the Church it was most bitter vnto his spirit. 8 A simple and plaine declaration of the signe before going, witnessing the diuine calling of S. Iohn, and laying vpon him the necessitie thereof.

open Reuelation, set foorth vnto the eye, to signifie the same as Lord ouer all, verse the second. Thirdly, that he offered ring or muttering in a corner (as false prophets doe) but cry voyce vnto them which sleepe, and with a lyonish & terrible noyse roused vp the secure: the very thunders themselues giuing testimony thereunto, verse the third. Lastly, for that he confirmed all by an oath, Verse 5.6.7. 2 Christ Iesus, see the seuenth Chapter, & the second verse. 3 Namely, a speciall booke of the affaires of Gods Church. For the booke that contained things belonging vnto the whole world, is said to bee kept with the Creatour, the fift Chapter, and the first verse, but the booke of the Church, with the Redeemer, and out of this booke is taken the rest of the historie of this Apocalypse. 4 A godly care is laudable, but most bee ioyned with knowledge. Therefore nothing is to bee take in hand, but by calling, which must bee expected & waited for of the godly. a Keepe them close. b This was a gesture vsed of one that sweareth, which men doe now a dayes vse. 5 Neither time is selfe, nor the things that are in time: but that the world to come is at hand, which is altogether of eternitie & beyond all times. c There shall neuer bee any more time. 6 Whereof Chap. 11. 15. and 16. 17. 7 The other part of this Chapter, concerning the particular calling of Saint Iohn to the receiuing of the prophesy following, which is enioyned him, first by signe in three verses, then in plaine words in the last verse. Vnto the seeing forth of the signe belong these things: That Saint Iohn is taught from heauen to demaund the booke of the Prophecy in this verse: For these motions & desires God doeth inspire: y demaunding the booke, bee is charged to take it in a figurative maner, the vse whereof also is expounded, verse the ninth, (as in the second Chapter of Ezechiel, and the ninth verse) whence this similitude is borrowed: Lastly, for that Saint Iohn at the commandement of Christ tooke the booke, and found by experience that the same as proceeding from Christ, was most sweet, but in that it foretelleth the afflictions of the Church it was most bitter vnto his spirit. 8 A simple and plaine declaration of the signe before going, witnessing the diuine calling of S. Iohn, and laying vpon him the necessitie thereof.

CHAP. XI.

1 The temple is commanded to be measured. 3 The Lord shutteth up two witnesses, 7 whom the beast nourisheth, 9 and no man burieth them. 11 God raiseth them to life, 12 and calleth them up to heaven, 13 the wicked are terrified, 15 by the trumpet of the seventh Angel the resurrection, 18 and judgement is described.

1 THen was giuen me a reede like vnto a rod, and the Angel stood by, saying, Rise and 1 meete the Temple of God, and the Altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But the 2 Court which is without the Temple 3 cast out, and mete it not: for it is giuen vnto the 4 Gentiles, and the holy citie shall they tread vnder foote, 5 two and fourtie Moneths.

3 But 6 I will giue power vnto my two witnesses, & they shal 7prophecie a thousand two hundreth and threescore dayes cloathed in sackcloath.

4 These 8 are two oliue trees, and two candlestickes, standing before the God of the earth.

5 9 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouthes, and deuoureth their enemies: for if any man would hurt them, thus must hee be killed.

6 These haue power to 10 shut heauen, that it raine not in the dayes of their prophecying, and haue powers ouer waters to turne them into blood, and to smite the earth with all maner plagues, as often as they will.

7 10 And when they haue 6 finished their testimonie, 11 the beast that commeth out of the bottomlesse pit, shall make warre against them, and shall 12 ouercome them, and kill them,

8 And their corpses shall lie in the 13 streets of the great citie, which d spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, 14 where our Lord also was crucified.

9 And they of the people and kinreds, and tongues, and Gentiles, shall see their corpses 15 three dayes and an halfe, and shall not suffer their carkeises to be put in graues.

10 And they that dwell vpon the earth, 16 shall reioyce ouer them and be glad, and shall send gifts one to another, for these two Prophets 17 vexed them that dwelt on the earth.

1 The temple is commanded to be measured.

2 The authorisie of the intended reuelation being declared, together with the necessity of that calling, which was particularly imposed vpon Saint Iohn: hereafter followeth the historie of the estate of Christ his Church both conflicting or warfaring, and ouercomming in Christ. For both the true Church of Christ is said to fight against ȳ which is falsly so called, ouer the which Antichrist ruleth, Christ Iesus ouerthrowing Antichrist by ȳ spirit of his mouth: and Christ is said to ouercome most gloriously vntill he shall slay the Antichrist by the appearance of his comming, as the Apostle excellently teacheth, 2 Thess. 2. 8. So this historie hath two parts. One of the state of the Church conflicting with temptations, vnto the 16. Chapter. The other of the state of the same Church obtaining victory, thence vnto the 20 Chapter. The first part hath two members moste conueniently distributed into three times, wherof the first containeth an historie of the Christian Church for 3 yeres: that time the Gospell of Christ was as it were taken vp from amongst men into heauen: the second containeth an historie of the same Church vnto the victorie perfected. And these two members are briefly, though distinctly, propounded in this Chapter, but are both of them more at large discoursed after in due order. For wee vnderstand the state of the Church conflicting out of Chapters 12. and 13. and of the same growing out of affections, out of the 14, 15. & 16. Chapters. Neither did Saint Iohn at vncawares ioyne together the historie of these two times in this Chapter, because here is spoken of prophecie, which all confesse to be but one and immediate in the Church, and which Christ commanded to be continuall. The historie of the former time reacheth vnto the 14. verse: the latter is set downe in the rest of this Chapter. In the former are shewed these things: the calling of the seruants of God in 4. verses: the conflicts which the faithfull must vndergoe in their calling, for Christ and his Church, thence vnto the 10. verse, and their resurrection and receiuing vp into heauen vnto the 14. verse. In the calling of the seruants of God are mentioned two things: the begetting and seeling of the Church in two verses, and the education thereof in two verses. The begetting of the Church is here commended vnto 5 Iohn by figure and by plaine speech: the figure is measuring rod, and the speech a commandement to measure the Temple of God, that is, to reduce the same vnto a new forme: because the Gentiles are already entred into the Temple of terrestiall, and shall shortly deface and ouerthrow the same vtterly.

2 Either that of Ierusalem which was a figure of the Church of Christ, or that heauenly example, whereof verse 19. but the first liketh me better. and the things following doe all agree therevnto. The feare therefore is, Thou seest all things in Gods house, almost from the passion of Christ to be disordered: and that not onely the citie of Hierusalem but also the court of the Temple is trampled vnder foot of the nations, and of prophane men whether Iewes or strangers: and that onely the Temple, that is, the body of the Temple, with the Altar, and a small company of good men which truely worship God, doe now remaine, whom God doeth sanctifie and confirme by his presence. Measure therefore this, euen this true Church, or rather the true type of the true Church omitting the rest, and so describe all things from me that the true Church of Christ may be as it were a very litle center, and the Church of Antichrist as the circle of the center, euery way in length and breadth compassing about the same, that by way of prophecie thou maiest so declare openly, that the state of the Temple of God and the faithfull which worship him, that is, of the Church, is much more streight then the Church of Antichrist. 3 As if he should say, it belongeth nothing vnto thee to iudge those which are without, 1 Cor. 15, 12. which bee innumerable: looke vnto those of the houshold onely, or vnto the house of the liuing God. a Hee speaketh of the outward court, which was called the peoples court, because all men might come into that. b That is counted to be cast out, which in measuring is refused as prophane. 4 To prophane persons wicked & vnbeleeuers, adue estate vnto the Church. 5 Or a thousand, two hundred and threescore dayes, as is sayd in the next verse: that is a thousand two hundred and threescore yeares, a day for a yere, as often in Ezechiel & Daniel, which thing I haue before 2. 10. The beginning of these thousand two hundred and threescore yeares, wee account from the passion of Christ, whereby (the partition wall being broken downe) wee were made of two one, Ephes. 2, 14. I say one flocke vnder one Shepheard, Iohn 10, 16. and the end of these yeares precisely falleth into the Popedome of Boniface the eight who a little before the end of ȳ yeere of Christ a thousand two hundreth ninetie foure, entred the Popedome of Rome, in the feast of S. Lucie (as Bergomensis saith) hauing put in prison his predecessor Coelestinus, whom by fraud, vnder colour of oracle, he deceiued: for which cause, that was well sayd of him, Intrauit vt vulpes, regnauit vt leo, moriturus vt canis. That is, he entred like a foxe, raigned like a lyon, and died like a dogge. For if from a thousand two hundred ninetie foure yeeres thou shalt take the age of Christ which he liued on the earth, thou shalt finde there remaineth iust 1260 yeeres, which are mentioned in this place and many others. 6 I had rather translate it illud then illam, for the Temple then the citie: for God saith, I will giue that Temple, and commit it vnto my two witnesses, that is vnto the Ministers of the word, who are few indeede, weake & contemptible: but yet two, that is, of such a number as one of them may helpe another, and one confirme the testimony of another vnto all men, that from the mouth of two of three witnesses euery word may bee made good amongst men, 2. Cor. 13. 1.

7 They shall exercise their office enioyned by me by the space of three thousand two hundred & sixtie yeeres, in the middest of afflictions though neuer so lamentable, which is figuratiuely shewed by the mourning garment.

9 That is, the ordinary and perpetuall instruments of spirituall grace, peace and light in my Church which God by his onely power preserued in this Temple. See Zacharie 4. 3.

9 The power and efficacie of the holy ministerie, and which is truely Euangelicall, is declared both in Scripture & in Heauen, protecting the administers thereof, and destroying the enemies in this verse, vertue indeed diuine most mightily shewing it selfe forth in heauen, earth and the sea, verse. 6 as it is described, 2. Corinth. 10. 4. according to the promise of Christ, Mark 16, 17. And this is the second place (as I said before) of the combat which the seruants of God must needes vndergoe in the executing of their calling, and of the things that follow the same combats. In the combats or conflicts are these things: to ouercome, in these two verses: to be ouercomme and killed, verse 7. After the slaughter follow these things, that the carkeises of the godly are layd abroad, verse 8. being vnburied, are made a matter of scorne, together of cursing and bitter execration, verse 9. and that therefore gratulations are publikely and priuately made, verse 10. To that is, when they haue spent those thousand two hundred and threescore yeeres, mentioned verse 3. and 5. in publishing their testimonie according to their office. 6 When they haue done their testimonie. 11 This is that after, chap. 13. &c. That beast is the Roman Empire, made long agoe of ciuill, Ecclesiasticall: the chiefe heade whereof was then Boniface the eight, 12 I said before: who lifted vp himselfe in so great arrogancy (saith the authour of Fasciculus temporum) that he called himselfe Lord of the whole world, as well in temporal causes as in spirituall: There is an extant of that matter, written by the same Boniface moste arrogantly, shall I say, or moste wickedly. ca. vna sanctam, extra de maioritate & obedientia, and in the 6. booke of the Decretals (which is from the same authour) many things are found of the same argument. 12 Hee shall persecute most cruelly the holy men, and put them to death, and shall wound and pierce through with cursings both their names and writings. And that this was done to very many godly men by Boniface and others, the histories do declare, especially since the time that the odious and coademned name amongst the multitude first of the brethren Waldenses or Lugdunenses, then also of the Fraticels, was pretended, that good men might with more approbation be massacred. 13 That is, openly at Rome: where at that time was a most great concourse of people, the yeere of Iubile being then first ordained by Boniface vnto the same ende, in the yeere of Christ a thousand three hundred, example whereof is read chap. 3. Extra de penitentijs & remissionibus. So by one act be committed double iniurie against Christ, both abolishing his trueth by the restoring of the type of Iubile, and triumphing ouer his members by most wicked superstitions. O religious heart! Now that wee should vnderstand the things of Rome, Saint Iohn himselfe is the authour, both after in the seuenteenth Chapter almost throughout, and also in the circumscription now next following, when he faithfit is that great Citie (as Chap. 17, 18. hee calleth it) and is spiritually termed Sodome and Egypt: that spiritually (for that must here againe be repeated from before) Christ was there crucified. For the two first appellations signifie spirituall wickednesse: the latter signifieth the shew and pretence of good, that is, of Christian & found religion. Sodome signifieth most licentious impiety and iniustice: Egypt most cruell persecution of the people of God: and Ierusalem signifieth the most confident glorying of that citie, as it were in true religion, being yet full of falsehood and vngodlinesse. Now who is ignorant that these things doe rather, and more agree vnto Rome, then vnto any other cities? The commendations of the citie of Rome for many yeeres past are publikely notorious, which are not for me to gather together. This only I will say that he long since did very well see what Rome is, who taking his leaue thereof, vsed these verses:

Roma vale, vidi satis & vidisse: venertar
Quem lene mercetrix, saeva canadus ero.

Now farewell Rome, I haue thee seene. It was inough to see:
I will returne when as I meane, baud, harlot, knaue to be.

d After a most secret kinde of meaning and vnderstanding. 14 Namely in his members, as also he said vnto Saul, Acts 9, 5. 15 That is, for three yeeres and a halfe: for so many yeeres Boniface liued after his Iubile, as Bergomensis witnesseth. 16 So much the more shall they by this occasion exercise the iolity of their Iubile. 17 The Gospell of Christ, is the affliction of the world, and the ministery thereof, the sauour of death vnto death to those that perish, 2. Cor. 2. 16.

18 The third place as I noted before, is of the rising againe of the Prophets from the dead, and their carrying vp into heauen. For their resurrection is shewed in this verse: their calling and lifting vp into heauen, in the verse following.

19 That is, what time God shall destroy that wicked Boniface.

20 That is, the Prophets of God shall in a short tise againe, not the same in person (as they say) but in spirit, that is in the power and efficacie of their ministery, which S. Iohn expresseth before verse. 5. & 6. And so the prophecie that is spoken of Elias, is interpreted by the Angel to be vnderstood of Iohn the Baptist, Luke 1. 17. For the same Boniface himselfe, who sought to kill and destroy them, was by the fire of Gods mouth (which the holy ministery sheweth & exhibite h) deuoured and died miserably in prison, by the endeauour of Sarra Columesis, and Nogaretus a french knight, whom Philip the faire King of France sent into Italy but with a small power.

11 13 But after 19 three dayes & an halfe, 20 the spirit of life comming from God, shall enter into them, and they 21 shall stand vp vpon their feete: and great feare shall come vpon them which saw them.

12 And they shall heare a great voyce from heauen, saying vnto them, 22 Come vp hither: And they shall ascend vp to heauen in a cloude, 23 and their enemies shall see them.

13 24 And the same houre shall there be a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the citie shall fall, and in the earthquake shall be slaine in number seuen thousand: & the remnant were sore feared, 25 and 26 gaue glory to God of heauen.

14 26 The second woe is past, and behold, the third woe will come anon.

15 27 And the seuenth Angel blew the trumpet, and there were great voyces in heauen, saying, 28 The kingdomes of the world are our Lords, and his Christs, and he shall reigne for euermore.

16 29 Then the foure and twenty Elders, which sate before God on their seates, fell vpon their faces and worshipped God, 17 Saying, We giue thee thanks, Lord God Almighty, Which art, and which wast, and which art to come: for thou hast receiued thy great might, and hast obtained thy kingdome.

18 30 And the Gentiles were angry, & thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be iudged, and that thou shouldest giue reward vnto thy seruants the Prophets, & to the Saints, & to them that feare thy Name, to small and great, and shouldest destroy them, which destroy the earth.

19 Then the Temple of God was 31 opened in heauen, and there was seene in the Temple the Arke of his couenant: and there were lightnings, and voyces, and thundrings, and earthquake, and much haile.

CHAP. XII.

1 A woman 2 appeareth trauelling with child, 4 whose childe the dragon would deuoure, 7 but Michael ouercommeth him, 9 and caseth him out, 13 and the more he is cast down: and vanquished, the more fiercely he exerciseth his subtilties.

AND 1 there appeared a great wonder in heauen: 2 A woman cloathed with the Sun, and the Moone was vnder her feet, and vpon her head a crowne of twelue Starres.

2 And 3 she was with childe, and cried trauelling in birth, and was pained ready to be deliuered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heauen: 4 for behold, a great red dragon hauing 5 seuen heads, and ten 6 hornes, and seuen crowns vpon his heads:

4 7 And his taile drewe the third part of the starres of heauen, and cast them to the earth. And the dragon 8 stood before the woman, which was ready to be deliuered, 9 to deuoure her child, when she had brought it forth.

5 10 So she brought forth a man 11 child, which should rule all nations with a rod of yron: and that her child was taken vp vnto God & to his throne.

6 12 And the woman fled into the wildernes, where she hath a place prepared of God, that 13 they should feed her there a thousand, two

1 Hitherto hath beene the generall prophecy comprehended in 2. parts, as I shewed vpon Cha. 11. Now shall be declared the first part of this prophecy, in this & the next cha. and the latter part in the 14, 15, and 16. chap. Vnto the first part, which is of the conflicting or militant Church belong 2. things. The beginning and the progresse of the same in conflicts & Christian combats. Of which two, the beginning or vprising of the Church is described in this Chap. and the progresse thereof in the Chap. following. The beginning of the Christian Church, we define to be from the conception of Christ, vntill that time wherein this Church was as it were weined and taken away from the brest or milke of her Mother: which is the time when the Church of the Iewes with their citie & Temple was ouerthrowne by ỹ iudgement of God. So we haue in this chapter the story of 60. yeeres and vpwards. The parts of this chap. are three. The first is, the historie of the conception & bearing in womb, in 4. verses. The second, an history of the birth from the 5. verse vnto the 12. The third is, of the woman that had brought foorth, vnto the end of the chap. And these seuerall parts haue euery one their conflicts. Therefore in that first part are two things contained, one, the conception & bearing in womb, in two verses: and another the lying in wait of the Dragon against that should be brought forth, in the next 4. verses. In the first point are these things, the description of ỹ mother, verse 1. and the dolors of childbirth, verse 2. all shewed vnto Iohn from heauen. 2 A type of the true and holy Church, which then was in the nation of the Iewes. This Church (as is the state of the holy Church Catholike) did in it selfe shine about with glory giuen of God, trod vnder feet mutability and changeablenesse, and possessed the kingdome of heauen as the heire thereof. 3 For this is that barren woman that brought not forth, of which Esa. 45. 1. and Gal. 4. 27. shee cried out for good cause, and was tormented at that time, when in the iudgement of all the learned neere vnto death, and in meanes ready to giue vp the ghost for her great weaknesse and pouerty. 4 That is the deuill or Satan (as is declared verse 9.) mighty, angry, and full of wrath. 5 Thereby to withstand those seuen Churches spoken of, that is the Catholike Church, and that with kingly furniture & tyrannical magnificence: signified by the crowns set vpon his heads, & if the same with our controuersie belonged vnto him by the proper right: as also hee boasted vnto Christ, Matth. 4. 9. See after, vpon chap. 13. 1. 6 More then are the hornes of the Lambe, or then the Churches are: so well furnished doth the tyrant brag himselfe to be, vnto all maner of mischiefe. 7 After the description of Satan followeth this action, that is, his battell offered vnto the Church partly to ỹ which is visible wherein the wheat is mingled with the chaffe, & the good fish with that which is euill: a good part thereof, though in appearance it shined as the Starres shine in heauen, he is said to thrustdown out of heauen, & to peruert: for if it were possible he would peruert euen the elect, Matth. 24. 24. and partly to the elect members of the holy Catholike Church in the second part of this verse. Many therefore of the members of this visible Church (saith S. Iohn) be ouerthrew and triumphed vpon them. 8 He withstood that elect Church of the Iewes which was now ready to bring forth the Christian Church, and watched for that she should bring forth. For the whole Church and whole body is compared vnto a woman: and a part of the Church vnto that which is brought foorth as wee haue noted at large vpon Cant. 7, 6. 9 Christ misticall (as they call him) that is the whole Church, consisting of the person of Christ as the head, and of the body vnited thereunto by the Spirit, so is the name of Christ taken, 1. Cor. 12. 12. 10 The 2 history of the Church deliuered of child: in which first the consideration of the child borne, and of the Mother is described in 1 verses: secondly the battell of the Dragon against the yong child, and the victory obtained against him 3. verses following: last of all is sung a song of victory, vnto the 12 verse. Now S. Iohn in consideration of the child borne, noteth two things: for he describeth him, and his station or place in this verse. 11 That is, Christ the head of the Church (the beginning, roote and foundation whereof is the same Christ) endowed with kingly power, & taken vp into heauen out of the iawes of Satan (who as a serpent did bite him vpon the crosse) that sitting vpon the celestial throne he might raigne ouer all. 12 The Church of Christ which was of the Iewes, after his assumption into heauen, did it selfe in the worldas in a wildernes, trusting in the only defence of God, as witnesseth S. Luke in the Acts of the Apostles. 13 Namely the Apostles, and seruants of God ordained to feed with the word of life, the Church collected both of the Iewes and Gentiles, vules that any man will take the word alereni imperfonally after the vse of the Hebrewes inflexed, of alo ctus, but I like the first better. For bee hath respect vnto those two Prophets of whom chap 11. 3. as for the meaning of the 1260 dayes, looke the same place.

24 Christ is the Prince of Angels, and head of the Church, who beareth that yron rod verse the fift. See the notes vpon Daniel, chap. 12, 1. 24 this verse a description of the battell and of the victory in the two veries following. The Psalmist had respect vnto this battell, Psal. 68, 9. and Paul Ephesians 4, 8. and Colossians 2, 15.

25 The description of the victory, by denying of the thing in this verse, and by affirming the contrary in the next verse. As that Satan gained nothing in heauen but was by the power of God thrown downe into the world, whereof he is the prince, Christ himselfe and his elected members standing still by the throne of God.

a They were cast out, so that they were neuer seene any more in heauen.

26 The song of victory or triumph containing first, a proposition of the glory of God and of Christ shewed in that victory: secondly, it contayneth a reason of the same proposition taken from the effects, as that the enemie is ouercome in battell in this, verse, and that the godly are made conquerours (and more then conquerours. Rom. 8. 37.) verse 11. Thirdly, a conclusion wherein is an exhortation vnto the Angels, and the Saints, and vnto the world, a prophecie of great misery, and of destruction procured by the deuill against mankind, least himselfe should shortly be miserable alone, verse 12.

b He is said in the Hebrew tongue, to loue his life that esteemeth nothing more precious then his life: and on the other side, he is said not to loue his life, who doubteth not to hazard it, where-soeuer neede requireth.

17 The third part: an history of the woman deliuered, consisting of two members, the second battell of Satan against the Christian Church of the Iewish nation, in foure verses: and the battell intended against the seed thereof, that is, against the Church of the Gentiles, which is called holy, by reason of the Gospel of Christ in the two last verses. 18 That is, being strengthened with diuine power: and taught by oracle, the fled swiftly from the assault of the deuill, and from the common destruction of Ierusalem, and went into a solitary Citie beyond Iordan called Pella, as Eusebius telleth in the fift Chapter of the third booke of his Ecclesiasticall historie, which place God had commanded her by Reuelation.

c Into that place where God had appointed her.

19 That is, for three yeeres and a halfe: for the same speech is taken, Dan. 7, 25. This space of time is reckoned in maner from that last and most grieuous rebellion of the Iewes, vnto the destruction of the citie and Temple, for their destruction or falling away, began in the twelft yeere of Nero, before the beginning whereof, many forelgnes and predictions were shewed from heauen, as Iosephus writeth, lib. 7. chap. 12. and Hegesippus lib. 5. cap. 44. amongst which this is very memorable, that in the feast of Pentecost, not only a great sound and noise was heard in the Temple, but also a great voyce was heard of many out of the Sanctuary which cried out vnto all, Let vs depart hence. Now three yeeres and a halfe after this defection was begun of the Iewes, & those wonders happened, the Citie was taken by force, the Temple ouerthrowen, and the place forsaken of God: and this compasse of time Saint Iohn noted in this place.

27 That is, he enflamed the Romanes and nations, that they persecuting the Iewish people with cruell armes might by the same occasion inuade the Church of Christ, now departed from Ierusalem and out of Iudea. For it is an vsuall thing in Scripture, that the raging tumults of the nations, should be compared vnto waters.

28 That is, there was offered in their place other Iewes, vnto the Romanes and nations raging against that people: and it came to passe thereby that the Church of God was saued whole from that violence, that most raging flood of persecution which the Dragon vomited out being altogether spent in the destruction of those other Iewes, hundreth and threescore dayes.

7 And there was a battell in heauen, 24 Michael and his Angels, fought against the dragon, and the dragon fought and his angels.

8 25 But they preuailed not, neither was their a place found any more in heauen.

9 And the great dragon that olde serpent, called the deuill and Satan, was cast out, which deceiueth all the world: hee was euen cast into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 Then I heard a loude voyce in heauen, saying, 26 Now is saluation, and strength, and the kingdome of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast downe, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 But they ouercame him by that blood of that Lambe, and by that worde of their testimonie, and they b loued not their liues vnto the death.

12 Therefore reioyce, ye heauens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the deuill is come downe vnto you, which hath great wrath, knowing that he hath but a short time.

13 And when 27 the dragon saw that he was cast vnto the earth, hee persecuted the woman which had brought foorth the man child.

14 28 But to the woman were giuen two wings of a great Eagle, that shee might flie into the wildernes, into her c place where she is nourished for a 29 time, and times, and halfe a time, from the presence of the serpent.

15 30 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water after the woman, like a flood, that hee might cause her to bee caried away of the flood.

16 31 But the earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed vp the flood, which the dragon had cast out of his mouth.

17 32 Then the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went and made warre with the remnant of her seede, which keepe the commandements of God, and haue the testimonie of Iesus Christ.

18 33 And I stood on the sea sand.

32 Being set on fire by this means, he began to be more madde, and because hee perceiued that his purpose against the Christian Church of the Iewish remnant was come to nought, hee refused, that is, the Church gathered also by God of the Gentiles, and the holy members of the same. And this is that other branch, as I said vpon the 13 verse, of which the purpose of Satan is shewed, verse 17. and his attempt verse 18. 33 That is, a most mighty tempest, that he rushed vpon the whole world (whose prince hee is) to raise the floods and prouoke the nations, that they might with their furious bellowes rosse vp and downe, driue here and there, and finally destroy the Church of Christ with the holy members of the same. But the prouidence of God resisted his attempt, that he might fauour the Church of the Gentiles, yet tender and as it were greene. The veit of the story of the Dragon is excellently prosecuted by the Apostle S. Iohn hereafter in the twentieth chapter. For heere the Dragon endeuouring to doe mischiefe, was by God cast into prison,

CHAP. XIII.

1 The Beast with many heads is described, 12 which draweth the most part of the world to idolatrie. 13 The other beast rising out of the earth, 15 giueth power vnto him.

AND 1 I saw a beast rise 2 out of the sea, hauing seuen heads, and 3 ten hornes, and vpon his hornes were ten crownes, and 4 vpon his head 5 the name of blasphemie.

2 And the beast which I saw was

1 The Apostle hauing declared the springing vp of the Christian Church and the state of the Church from which ours proceeded thereof, as I shewed in the entrance of the former Chapter. And this historie of the progresse of the Church, and the battels thereof is set downe in this Chapter, but distinctly in two parts, one is of the ciuill Roman Empire, vnto the tenth verse. Another of the body Ecclesiasticall or prophetical, thuce vnto the ende of the chapter. In the former part are shewed these things: First the state of that Empire, in foure verses: then the actes thereof in three verses: after the effect, which is exceeding great glory, verse 8. And last of all is commended the vse: and the instruction of the godly against the euils that shall come from the same, verse 9, 10. The historie of the state contayneth a most ample description of the beast, first entire, verse 1, 2. and then restored after hurt, verse 3, 4. 2 On the sand whereof flood the deuill practising new tempests against the Church, in the verse next before going: what time the Empire of Rome was endangered by domestical dissentions, and was mightily tossed, hauing euer and an one new heads, and new Emperours. See in the seuenteenth chapter and the eight verse. 3 Hauing the same instruments of power, prouidence, and most expert gouernment which the Dragon is said to haue had in the 12 chapter and in the verse 3. 4 We read in the twelfth chapter & third verse, that the Dragon had seuen crownes set vpon seuen heads: because the theefe auoucheth himselfe to be proper Lord and Prince of the world: but this beast is said to haue ten crowns set vpon seuerall, not heads, but hornes: because the beast is beholden for all vnto the Dragon, verse 2. and doth not otherwise raigne them by law of subiection giuen by him, namely that he employ his hornes against the Church of God. The speech is taken from the ancient custome & forme of dealing in such cases: by which they that were absolute kings did weare the diademe vpon their heads: but their vassals and such as raigned by grace from them, wore the same vpon their hoods: for so they might comodiously lay downe their diademes when they came into the presence of their Soueraignes: as also their Elders are said, when they adored God which sate vpon the throne, to haue cast downe their crowneres before him, chap. 4. verse 10. 4 Contrary to that which God of old commanded should be written in y head peece of the hie Preist, that is, Sanctitas Iehoua, Holinesse vnto the Lord. The name of blasphemie imposed by the Dragon, is (as I thinke) that which S. Paul sayeth in the 2 chapter of his 2. Epistle to the Thessalonians, the 4 verse. He sitteth as God, and boasteth himselfe to be God. For this name of blasphemie both the Romane Emperors did then challenge vnto themselues, as Suetonius and Dion doe report of Caligula and Domitian: and, after them the Popes of Rome did with full mouth professe the same of themselues, when they challenged vnto themselues soueraignitie in holie things: of which kind of sayings the first booke of the Decretals, the Clementines, and the Extrauagants, are very full. For these men were not ouercome with that which Anglicus wrote in his Portria (the beginning whereof is, Papa sinpor mundi, The Pope is the wonder of the world. Nec Deus es, nec homo, sed neuter es inter virumque. Thou art not God, ne art thou man, but neuter mixt of both: as the glosse witnesseth vpon the first booke: but they were bold to take vnto themselues the very name of God, and to accept it giuen of other: according as almost an hundred and twentie yeere since, there was made for Sixtus the fourth, when he should first enter into Rome in his dignitie Papall, a Pageant of triumph, and cunningly fixed vpon the gate of the citie he should enter at, hauing written vpon it this blasphemous verse,

Oraclo vocis mundi moderaris habenas,
Et merito in terris crederis esse deus.

By oracle of thine owne voice the world thou gouernst all,
And worthily a god on earth, men thinke, and doe thee call.

These and sixe hundred the like who can impute vnto that modestie wherebey good men of old would haue themselues called the seruants of the seruants of God, vesible either this is a name of blasphemie, or there is none at all.

5 like a leopard, and his feete like a beares, and his mouth as the mouth of a Lyon: 7 and the dragon gaue him his power and his throne, and great authoritie.

3 8 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death, but his deadly wound was healed, and all the world wondered and followed the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gaue power vnto the beast, and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like vnto the beast? who is able to warre with him?

5 9 And there was giuen vnto him a mouth, that spake great things & blasphemies, and power was giuen vnto him, 10 to doe two and fourtie moneths.

6 And hee opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against God, to blaspheme his Name, 11 and his tabernacle, 12 and them that dwell in heauen.

7 And it was giuen vnto him to make warre with the Saints, and to ouercome them, and power was giuen him ouer euery kinred, and tongue, and nation.

8 Therefore all that dwell vpon the earth, shall worship him, 13 whose names are not written in the booke of life of that Lambe, which was slaine from the beginning of the world.

9 14 If any man haue an eare, let him heare.

10 If any leade into captiuity, he shall goe into captiuitie: * if any kill with a sword, he must be killed by a sword: heere is the patience and the faith of the Saints.

11 15 And I beheelde, another beast comming out of the earth, 16 which had two hornes like the Lambe, but he spake like the dragon.

12 17 And he did all that the first beast could do before him, and he caused the earth, and them which dwell therein, 18 to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 19 And hee did great wonders, so that hee made fire to come downe from heauen on the earth, in the sight of men.

14 And deceiued them that dwell on the earth by the signes, which were permitted to him to do in the sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make the 20 image of the 21 beast, which had the wound of a sword, and did liue.

15 22 And it was permitted to him to giue a spirit vnto the image of the beast, so that the

6 Swift as the Leopard, eafily clafping all things, as the Beare doth with his foote, and tearing and deuouring all things with the mouth as doth the Lion.
7 That is, hee, ſent the ſame vnto the beaſt to vſe, when he perceiued that himſelfe could not eſcape, but muſt needes be taken by the hand of the Angel, and caſt into the bottomleſſe pit, Chapter 20. yet did not he abandon the ſame vterly from himſelfe, but that hee might vſe it as long as he could.
8 This is the other place that pertaineth to the deſcription of the beaſt of Rome: that beſides that naturall dignitie and amplitude of the Roman Empire, which was ſhadowed in the two former verſes, there was added this alſo as miraculous, that one head was wounded as it were vnto death, and was healed againe, as from heauen, in the ſight of all men. This head was Nero the Emperour, in whome the race of the Ceſars fell from the imperiall dignitie, and the gouernement of the Common weale was tranſlated vnto others: in whoſe handes the Empire was ſo cured and recouered vnto health, a he ſeemed vnto all to much the more deepely rooted and grounded faſt, then euer before. And hence followed thoſe effects, which are next ſpoken of: Firſt on admiration of certaine power, as it were ſacred and diuine, ſuſtaining the Empire and gouerning it: Secondly the obedience and ſubmiſſion of the whole earth in this verſe: Thirdly, the adoration of the Dragon and moſt wicked worſhipping of Deuils, confirmed by ỹ Romane Emperours: Laſtly, the adoration of the beaſt himſelfe, which grew into ſo great eſtimation, as that both the name and worſhip of a God was giuen vnto him, verſe the fourth. Now there were two cauſes which brought in the mindes of men this religion: the ſhew of excellencie, which bringeth with it reuerence: and the ſhew of power inuincible, which bringeth feare. Who is like (ſay they) vnto the beaſt? Who ſhallbe able to fight with him? 9 The ſecond member containing an hiſtorie of the acſes of the beaſt, as I ſaid verſe 1. The hiſtorie of them is concluded in two points, the beginning and the matter of them. The beginning is the gift of the Dragon, who put and inſpired into the beaſt both his impiety againſt God and his immanite and iniuſtice againſt all men, eſpecially againſt the godly and thoſe that were of the houſhold of faith, verſe the fift. The matter of the acſes or actions done, is of two ſorts, both impious in minde, and blaſphemous in ſpeach againſt God, his Church and the godly, verſe ſixt: and alſo moſt cruell & iniurious to mennes, euen ſuch as were done of moſt ragyng enemies, & of moſt inſolent and proud conquerors, verſe the ſeuenth. 10 Namely his actions and maner of dealing. As concern ng thoſe two and fourtie moneths, I haue ſpoken of them before in the twelfth Chapter and ſecond verſe. 11 That is, the holy Church, the true houſe of the liuing God. 12 That is, the godly in ſeuerall who bid themſelues from his cruelties. For this bloodie beaſt ſuncharged thoſe holy ſoules moſt falſely with innumerable accuſations for the Name of Chriſt, as wee reade in Iuſtine Martyr, Tertullian, Arnobius, Minutius, Euſebius, Auguſtine, and others: which example the latter times followed moſt diligently in deſtroying the flocke of Chriſt, and wee in our owne memorie haue found by experience, to our incredible griefe. Concerning heauen, See the eleuenth Chapter, and the twelfth verſe. 13 That is, ſuch as are not from euerlaſting elect in Chriſt Ieſus. For this is that Lambe ſlaine, of which Chapter the firſt, verſe the ſixt. Theſe wordes I doe with Aretas diſtinguiſh in this maner: Whoſe names are not written euen from the laying of ỹ foundation of the world, in the book of life of the Lambe ſlaine. And this diſtinction is confirmed by a like place hereafter, chap 17, 8. 14 The concluſion of this ſpeech of the firſt beaſt, conſiſting of two parts. An exhortation to attentiue audience, in this verſe: and a foretelling, which partly containeth threatnings againſt the wicked, and partly comforts for thoſe which in patience and faith ſtaid waite for that glorious comming of our Lord and Sauiour Chriſt, verſe the tenth. * Gene. 9. 6. Matt. 26, 52.

15 The ſecond member of the viſion, concerning the eccleſiaſticall dominion, which in Rome ſucceeded that which was politicke, and is in the power of the corporation of falſe Prophets, and of the forgers of falſe doctrine. Wherefore the ſame beaſt, and the ſame body or corporation is called of S. Iohn by the name of falſe prophet, chap. 6. ver. 13 and 19. ver 20. The ſome of this beaſt is firſt deſcribed in this verſe, then his acſes, in the verſes following: and the whole ſpeech is concluded in the laſt verſe. This beaſt is by his breed a Sonne of the earth (as they ſay) obſcurely borne, and by little and little creeping vp out of his abiect eſtate. 16 That is, in ſhew hee ſemoled the Lambe (for what is more mild or more humble then to be the ſeruant of the ſeruants of God) but in deede hee played the part of the Dragon, and of the Wolfe, Matth. 7. 15 For euen Satan changeth himſelfe into an Angel of light, 2 Corint. 11. 14 and what ſhould his ſhamefull diſciples and ſeruants doe? 17 The hiſtorie of the acſes of this beaſt, containeth in ſumme three things, hypocriſie, the witneſſe of miracles, and tyrannie, of which the firſt is noted in this verſe, the ſecond in the 3 verſes following: the third in the ſixteenth and ſeuenteenth verſes. His hypocriſie is moſt full of leaſing, whereby he abuſeth both the former beaſt and the whole world: in that albeit he hath by his cunning, as it were by ſine, made of the former beaſt a moſt miſerable ΘΧΕΛΕΤΟΝ or anatomie, vſurped all his authoritie vnto himſelfe and moſt impudently exerciſeth the ſame in the ſight and vieyve of him: yet hee carieth himſelfe ſo, as if hee honoured him with moſt high honour, and did in very trueth cauſe him to bee honoured of all men, 18 For vnto this beaſt of Rome, which of a ciuill Empire is made an Eccleſiaſticall hierarchie, are giuen diuine honours, and diuine authoritie: ſo farre as he is beleeued to bee about the Scriptures, which the gloſſe vpon the Decretals declareth by this diuiſion verſe, Articulos ſoluit, ſynodumque facit generalem.

That is,
He changeth the Articles of faith, and giueth authoritie to generall Councels.

Which is ſpoken of the Papal power. So the beaſt is by birth, foundation, ſeate, and finally ſubſtance, one: onely the Pope hath altered the forme and maner thereof being himſelfe the head both of that tyrannicall Empire, and alſo of the falſe Prophets, for the Empire hath taken vnto himſelfe, and thereunto hath added this cunning deuiſe. Now theſe words, whoſe deadly wound was cured, are put here for diſtinctions ſake, as alſo ſometimes afterwards: that euen at that time the godly readers of this prophecie might by this figure bee brought to ſee the things as preſent: as if it were ſaid, that they might adore this very Empire, that now is, whoſe head wee haue ſeene in our owne memorie to haue bene cut off, and to bee cured againe. 19 The ſecond point of the things done by the beaſt, is the credite of great wondeis or miracles, appertaining to the ſtrength of this impietie: of which ſignes ſome were giuen from aboue, as it is ſaid, that fire was ſent downe from heauen by falſe ſorceine, in this verſe. Others were ſhewed here below in the ſight of the beaſt to eſtabliſh idolatrie, and deceiue ſoules, which part S. Iohn ſetteth forth beginning (as they ſay) at that which is laſt, in this maner. Firſt the effect is declared in theſe words, He deceiueth the inhabitants of the earth. Secondly the common maner of working in two ſorts, one of miracles, For the ſignes that were giuen him to doe in the preſence of the beaſts: the other of the words added to the ſignes, and teaching the idolatrie confirmed by thoſe ſigne, Saying vnto the inhabitants of the earth, ỹ they ſhould make an image vnto the beaſt, which &c. Thirdly, a ſpeciall maner is declared: That it is giuen vnto him to put life into the image of the beaſt: and that ſuch a kind of quickening, that the ſame both ſpeaketh by anſwer vnto thoſe that aske counſell of it, and alſo pronounceth death againſt all thoſe that doe not obey nor worſhip it: all which things oftentimes by falſe miracles through the procurement and inſpiration of the Deuil, haue bin effected & wrought in images. The hiſtories of the Papiſts are full of examples of ſuch miracles, the moſt of them fained, many alſo done by the deuill in images: as of old in the ſerpent. Gene. 3, 1, By which examples is confirmed, not the authoritie of the beaſt, but the trueth of God, and of theſe prophecies. 20 That is, images by enallage or change of the number: for the worſhip of them euer ſince ỹ ſecond Councill of Nice, hath bene ordained in the Church by publike credite. 21 Authoritie contrary vnto the Law of God. 22 In the Greeke the word is in the Datiue caſe, and muſt ſo ſay as vnto the worſhip, honour and obeying of the beaſt: for by this maintenance of images, this Pſeudoprophetical beaſt doth mightily profite the beaſt of Rome, of whom long ague hee receiued them. Wherefore the ſame is hereafter very fitly called the image of the beaſt, for that images haue their beginning from the beaſt, and haue their forme or maner from the will of the beaſt, and haue their end and vſe fixed in the profit and commoditie of the beaſt: 23 And of this miracle of the images of the beaſt (that is, which the beaſt hath ordained to eſtabliſh idolatry) which miraculouſly ſpeake and giue iudgement, or rather naturelouſly, by the fraud of the falſe prophets, the Papiſts bookes are full fraughted. A Togune life at Lauues and Lambres imitated the wonders that Moſes wrought.

image of the beast should speake, and should cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast, should be killed.

16 23 And he made all, both small and great, rich and poore, free and bond, to receiue 24 a b marke in their right hande or in their foreheads,

17 And that no man might 25 buy or sell, saue he that had the 26 marke or the name of the beast or the number of his name.

18 27 Here is wisdome. Let him that hath wit, count the number of the beast: for it is the 28 number of a man, and his number is sixe hundreth threescore and sixe.

23 The third place, is a most wicked and most insolent tyranny as was sayd before, vsurped ouer the persons of men in this verse: and ouer their goods and actions, in the next verse. For he is said, both to bring vpon all persons a tyrannous seruitude, that as bondslaues they might serue the beast: and also to exercise ouer all their goods and actions, a pedler like abuse of indulgences and dispensations (as they terme them) amongst their friends, and against other to vse most violent interdictions, and to shoot out cursings, euen in naturall and ciuill, priuate & publike contracts, wherein all good faith ought to haue place. 24 That is, their Chrisme, by which in the Sacrament (as they call it) of Confirmation, they make sensible vnto themselues, the persons and doings of men signing them in their forehead and hands: and as for the signe left by Christ (Of which Chapter 7.3.) and the holy Sacrament of Baptisme they make as voyd. For whom Christ hath soyned vnto himselfe by Baptisme, this beast maketh challenge vnto them by her greatie Christme, which hee doubteth not to preferre before Baptisme, both in authoritie and in efficacie. b The marke of the name of the beast. 25 That is, haue any traffique or entercourse with men, but they onely which haue this annointing and consecration of Cleerkely tonsure, as they call it. Read Gratian de Consecratione, distinct. 5. c. omnes. cap. Spiritus, &c. of these matters. 26 Here the false Prophets doe require three things, which are set down in the order of their greatnesse, a character, a name and the number of the name. The meaning is, that man that hath not first their annoynting and clerical tonsure or shauing: friendly holy order, by reserving whereof is communicated the name of y beast: or finally hath not attained that high degree of Pontificall knowledge, and of the Law, (as they call it) Canonicall, and hath not as it were made vp in account and cast the number of the mysteries thereof: for in these things consisteth the number of that name of the beast. And this is excellently set forth in the next verse. 27 That is in this number of the beast consisteth that Popish wisedome, which that saying which went before of the number of the beast, what it hath about his marke or accoupliance and his name. These things, sayth S. Iohn, the marke and name of the beast, doe easily happen vnto any man: but to haue the number of the beast, is wisedome: that is, onely the wise & such as haue vnderstanding, can come by that number for they must be most illuminate doctours that attaine thereynto, as the wordes following doe declare. 28 How great and of what denomination this number of the beast is, by the which the beast accounteth his wisedome, S. Iohn declareth these wordes, Doeth thou demaund how great it is? it is so great, that it occupieth the whole man: he is alwaye learning, and neuer commeth to the knowledge thereof: he must be a man indeed that doeth attaine vnto it. After thou of what denomination it is? verily it standeth of fiue throughout, & perfectly ariseth of all the parts thereof in their seuerall denominations (as they terme them) it standeth of sixe by vnities, tennes, hundreds, &c. so as there is no one part in the learning, and order Pontificall, which is not either referred vnto the head, and as it were the top thereof, or contained in the same: so fitly doe all things in this hierarchie agree one with another, and with their head. Therefore that cruell beast Boniface the eight doeth commend by the number of sixe thofe Decretals which hee perfected, in the poeme of the sixt booke. Which booke (sayeth hee) being to be added vnto fiue other bookes of the same volume of Decretals, wee thought good to name Sextum the sixt: that the same volume by addition thereof sonteining a fenarie, or the number of sixe bookes (which is a number perfect) may yeeld a perfect forme of managing all things, and perfect discipline of behauiour. Here therefore is the number of the beast, who powreth from himselfe all his parts, & bringeth them all backe againe vnto himselfe by his discipline in most wise and cunning manner. If any man desire more of this, let him reade the glosse vpon that place. I am not ignorant that other interpretations are brought vpon this place: but I thought it my dutie, with the good fauour of all, & without the offence of any, to propound mine opinion in this point. And for this cause especially, for that it seemed vnto mee neither profitable, nor like to be true, that the number of the beast, or of the name of the beast should be taken as the common sort of interpreters doe take it. For this number of the beast teacheth, giueth out, imprinteth, as a publike marke of such as be his, and esteemeth that marke aboue all others as the marke of those whom hee loueth best. Now those other expositions seeme rather to be farre removed from his propertie and condition of that number: whether you referre the name Latinus, or Titan, or another. For these y beast doeth not teach, nor giue foorth, nor imprint, but most diligently forbideth to be taught, and audaciously denieth: hee approueth not these, but reproueth them: and hateth them that thinke so of this number, with an hatred, greater then that of Vatinius.

CHAP. XIIII.

The Lambe standeth on mount Sion: 4 with his chaste worshippers. 6 One Angel preacheth the Gospel: 8 another foretelleth the fall of Babylon: 9 the third warneth that the beast be auoyded. 13 A voyce from heauen pronounceth them happie who die in the Lord. 16 The Lords sickle thrust into the haruest, 18. and into the vintage.

THen I looked, and loe, a Lambe 1 stood on mount Sion, and with him 2 an hundreth, fourtie and foure thousand, hauing his Fathers 3 Name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voyce from heauen as the sound of many waters, and as the sound of a great thunder: and I heard the voyce of harpers, harping with their harpes.

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the foure beasties, and the Elders: and no man could learne that song, but the hundreth, fourtie and foure thousand, which were bought from the earth.

4 These are they which are not defiled with women: for they are virgins: these follow the Lambe whithersoeuer he goeth: these are bought frō men, being the first fruits vnto God, and vnto the Lamb.

5 And in their mouthes was found no guile: for they are without spot before the throne of God.

6 ¶ 4 Then I saw 5 another Angel fly in y mids of heauen, hauing an euerlasting Gospel to preach vnto them that dwell on the earth, and to euery nation and kinred, and tongue, and people,

7 6 Saying with a loude voyce, Feare God, and giue glory to him: for the houre of his iudgement is come: and worship him that made * heauen and earth, and the sea and the fountaines of waters.

8 And there followed another Angel, saying, * Babylon that great citie is fallen, it is fallen: for she made all nations to drinke of the wine of the 7 wrath of her fornication.

9 ¶ And the third Angel followed them, saying with a loud voyce, 7 If any man worship the

1 The history of the Church of Christ being finished for more then a thousand and three hundreth yeeres at which time Boniface the eight liued, as before hath beene said, there remaineth the rest of the historie of the conflicting or militant Church, from hence vnto the time of the last victorie in three chapters. For first of all, as the foundation of the whole history is described the standing of the lambe with his armie and retinue in fiue verses, after his worthie acts which he hath done, and yet doth in most mightie maner, whilest he ouerthroweth antichrist with y spirit of his mouth, in the rest of this chapter, and in the two following. Vnto the description of the Lambe are propounded three things: his first honour place & attendance: for y rest are expounded in the former foe his office (as act. 5.56.) in the midst of the Church which afore time mount Sion did prefigure. 3 As before 7.2. This retinue of the Lambe is described first by diuine marke (as before 7.2.) in this verse. Then by diuine occupation, in that all and euery one in his retinue moit vehemently and sweetly (verse 3.) doe glorifie the Lambe with a special song before God and his elect Angels: which song flesh and blood cannot heare, nor vnderstand, verse 3. Lastly by their deeds done before, and their sanctification in that they were virgins, pure from spirituall and bodily fornication, chaste from impietie, & vprightnesse of life, that they followed the Lambe as a guide vnto all goodnes, & cleaued vnto him that they are holy vnto him, as of grace redeemed by him: that in truth & in simplicity of Christ, they haue exercised all these things, sanctimony of life, the direction of the Lambe, a thankefull remembrance of the redemption by him: finally (to conclude in a word) that they are blameles before the Lord, verse 4, 5. 4 The other part (as I said on the first verse) is of the acte of the Lambe, the maner whereof is deliuered in two sorts of his speech, and of his facts. His speeches are set foorth vnto the 13 verse of this chapter, and his facts vnto the 16. chapter. In the speach of the Lambe, which is the word of the Gospel, are taught in this place, these things: The seruice of y godly consisting in wardly & reuerence towardes God, and outwardly of the glorifying of him: The visible signe of which is adoration, verse 7. The ouerthrowing of wicked Babylon, verse 8 and the fall of euery one of the vngodly which worship the beast, verse 9, 10, 11. Finally, the state of the holy seruants of God both present verse 12. and to come, most blessed, according to the promise of God, verse 13. This beast is a liuely figure of the good and faithfull seruants of God, whom God especially from that time of Boniface the eight, hath raised vp to the publishing of the Gospel of Christ, both by preaching and by writing. So God stirr'd vp, neere vnto the time of the same Boniface, y sted Peter Cassidorus an Italian after, Arnold de villa nova a French man, then Ockam, Dante, Petrarch, after that Iohannes de rupe cassa, a Franciscane: after again, Iohn Wicklife an Englishman, and so continually one or another vnto the restoring of the truth, and enlarging of this Church. 6 That is, Babylon is destroyed by the sentence and iudgement of God: the execution whereof S. Iohn describeth chap. 18. And this voyce of the ministers of Christ hath continued since the time that Babilon (which is Rome) hath by deliberate counsell and manifest malice oppugned the light of the Gospel offered from God. * Psal. 145. 6. & Acts 14. 15. Hearken 9. 1 cor. 7. 8 chap 18. 2. A Of her fornication, wherevby God was provoked to wrath. 7 That is, shall not worship God alone, but shall transferre his diuine honour vnto this beast, whether he doth it with his heart or counterfeiting in shew. For he (saith Christ) that denieth me before men, him will I denie before my Father, and his Angels. Matt. 10. 32. And this is that voyce of the holy ministery, which at this time is very much vsed of the holy and faithfull seruants of God. For hauing now sufficiently found out the pestilent obstinacy of Babylon: they labour not any longer to thunder out against the same but to saue some particular members by terror (as S. Iude speaketh) and to pluckе them out of y publique flame, or els by a vehement commiseration of their estate to lead them away: they set before the eternall death, into which they rush vnwares, vnlesse in good time they returne vnto God, but the godly which are of their owne flocke, they exhort vnto patience & obedience and faith in the Lord Iesus, and charge them to giue light by their good example, of good life vnto others.

10 The same shall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, yea, of the pure wine, which is powred into the cup of his wrath, and hee shall be tormented in fire and brimstone before the holy Angels, and before the Lambe.

11 And the smoke of their torment shall ascend euermore: and they shall haue no rest day nor night, which worship the beast and his image, and whosoeuer receiueth the print of his name.

12 [8] Here is the patience of Saints: here are they that keepe the commandements of God, and the faith of Iesus.

13 Then I heard a voice from heauen, saying vnto mee, Write, Blessed are the dead which die [b] in the Lord, are fully blessed. Euen so saith the Spirite: for they rest from their labours, and their [c] works follow them.

14 ¶ [9] And I looked, and behold, [10] a white cloud, and vpon the cloud one sitting like vnto the Sonne of man, [11] hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hand a [12] sharpe sickle.

15 [13] And another Angel came out of the Temple, crying with a loud voyce to him that sate on the cloude, * Thrust in thy sickle and reape, for the time is come to reape: for the * harnest of the earth is ripe.

16 And hee that sate on the cloude, thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 [14] Then another Angel came out of the Temple, which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle.

18 And another Angel came out from the altar, which had power ouer fire, and cryed with a loude cry to him that had the sharpe sickle, and sayd, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, and gather the clusters of the vineyarde of the earth: for her grapes are ripe.

19 And the Angel thrust in his sharpe sickle on the earth, and cut downe the vines of the vineyard of the earth, and cast them into that great winepresse of the wrath of God.

20 And the winepresse was troden without the citie, [15] and blood came out of the winepresse vnto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and sixe hundreth furlongs.

[8] The patience, sanctification, and iustification by faith: the consequence whereof are, rest, felicitie, and glory eternall, in the heauenly fellowship of God and his Angels.

9 The second part of this Chapter, as I sayde verse 1. Of the acts and doings of Christ in ouerthrowing of Antichrist and his Church by the Spirit of his diuine mouth: seeing that hauing beene called back by worde both publickely and priuately vnto his duetie, and admonished of his most certaine ruine: he yet ceaseth not to maintaine and protect his owne adherents, that they may doe him seruice: and to afflict the godly with moste barbarous persecutions. Of those things which Christ doeth, there are two kindes: one common or generall in the rest of this chapter, another particular against that sauage and rebellious beast and his worshippers in the 15 and 16 chapters. That common kinde, is the calamitie of warres spread abroad through the whole earth, and filling all things with blood, and that without respect of any person. This is figured or shadowed out in two types, of the harueit and vintage. Since the time that the light of the Gospell began to shine out, and since prophecie or preaching by the grace of God was raised vp againe, how horrible warres haue beene kindled in the world? how much humane flesh hath beene throwen to the earth by his diuine reaping? how much blood (alas for woe) hath ouerflowen for these hundred yeeres almost? all the stories doe cry out, and this our age (if euer before) is now in horrour, by reason of the rage of y sickle which Antichrist calleth for. To this place is the first type, that is, of the harueit. 10 Declaring his fiercenesse by his colour, like vnto that which is in the white or milke cirkle of heauen. b That is for the Lord. c By workes, is meant the reward which followeth good workes. 11 As one that shall reigne from God, and occupie place of Christ in this miserable execution. 12 That is a most fit and commodious instrument of Execution, destroyed all by hewing and thrusting through, for who may, stand against God? * Ioel 3.13. * Matth. 13.39. 13 Christ giueth a commandement in this verse. And the Angel executeth it in the next verse. 14 The other type (as I sayde verse 14.) is the vintage: the matter whereof is one with that which went before, if thou except this, that the grape gathering is more exact in seeking out euery thing, then is the harueist labour. This is therefore a more grieuous iudgement, both because it succeedeth the other: and because it is vnderstood to be executed with great diligence. 15 That is, it ouerflowed very deepe, and very farre and wide: the speach is hyperbolicall or excessiue, to signifie the greatnesse of the slaughter. And these be those pleasant fruites forsooth, of the contempt of Christ, and desiring of Antichrist rather then him, which the miserable, mad, and blinde world doeth at this time reape.

CHAP. XV.

2 The seuen Angels hauing the seuen last plagues. 3 They that conquered the beast praise God. 6 To the seuen Angels. 7 seuen vials full of Gods wrath are deliuered.

AND [1] I sawe another signe in heauen, great and marueilous, seuen [2] Angels hauing the seuen last plagues: for by them is fulfilled the wrath of God.

2 3 And I saw, [4] as it were a glassie sea, mingled with fire, and [5] them that had gotten victorie of the beast, and of his image, and of his marke, and of the number of his name, [6] stand at the glassie sea, hauing the harpes of God,

3 And they sung [7] the song of Moses the [a] seruant of God, and the song of the Lambe, saying, [8] Great and marueilous are thy works, Lord God Almighrie: iust and true are thy * [b] wayes, King of Saints.

4 * Who shall not feare thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy Name! for thou onely art holy, and all nations shall come and worship before thee: for thy iudgements are made manifest.

5 [9] And after that, I looked, and behold, the Temple of the tabernacle of Testimony was open in heauen.

6 And the seuen Angels came out of the Temple, which had the [10] seuen plagues, cloathed in [11] pure and bright linen, and hauing their breasts [12] girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the [13] foure beasts gaue vnto the seuen Angels seuen golden vials full of the wrath of God which liueth for euermore.

8 And the temple was full of the smoke of the glory of God and of his power, and [14] no man was able to enter into the Temple, till the seuen plagues of the seuen Angels were fulfilled.

1 This is that other place of the acts of Christ, as I noted before 14, 14. Now therefore is shewed a singular worke of the iudgement of God belonging to the ouerthrow of Antichrist and his forces, of which diuine worke the preparation is described in this Chapter: and the execution in the next. The preparation is first set downe generally and in type in this verse: and is after particularly set forth in the rest of the Chapter.

a Of which Chap. 8.9. in powring forth in the plagues of the world: for euen these plagues doe for the most part agree with those.

3 There are two parts of the narration: one the confession of the Saints glorifying God, when they saw that preparation of the iudgements of God, vnto the

4. verse: another the vocation, instruction, and confirmation of those instruments which God hath ordained for the execution of his iudgements in 4 other verses.

4 This part of the vision alludeth vnto the sea or large vessel of brasse in which the Priests washed themselues in the enterance of the Temple: for in the enterance of the heauenly Temple (as it is called verse 5.) is said to haue bene a sea of glasse, most light, some and cleare, vnto the commoditie of which mixed with fire, that is, as containing the treasurie of the iudgements of God, which he bringeth forth and dispenseth according to his owne pleasure: for out of the former, the Priests were cleansed of old: and out of this the vngodly are destroyed now chap. 4, 6. 5 That is the Martyrs of Christ, who shall not giue place euen in miracles vnto that beast: of these see before Chap. 13. 17 and 14, 9, 10. 6 Glorified God, from the particular obseruation of the weapons and instruments of Gods wrath, flooting in the sea of glasse. 7 That song of triumph which is Exo. 15, 1. a So is Moses called, for honours sake, as it is set forth, Deut. 34, 10. 8 This song hath two parts, one a confession, but particular in this verse, and generall, in the beginning of the next verse: another, a narration of causes belonging to the confession, where of one kind is eternall in it selfe, and most present vnto the godly to that God is both holy, and alone God, another kind is future and to come in that the elect taken out of the Gentiles (that is, out of the wicked ones and vnbeleeuing: as Chap. 11, 2.) were to be brought vnto the same state of happinesse, by y magnificencie of the iudgement of God, in the next verse. * Psal. 145, 17. b Thy doings. * Ier. 10, 7. 9 The second part of the narration (as was not verse 2.) wherein first the authoritie of the whole argument & matter thereof is figured by a forerunning type of a temple opened in heauen, as Chap. 11, 19. namely that all those things are diuine and of God, that proceede from thence, in this verse. Secondly, the administers or executers, come forth out of the Temple, verse 6. Thirdly, they are furnished with instruments of the iudgements of God, and weapons fit for the manner of the same iudgements, verse 7. Finally, they are confirmed by testimonie of the visible glory of God, in the last verse. A like testimonie wherevnto was exhibited of old in the lawe, Exod. 40, 34. 10 That is, commandements to inflict those seuen plagues. Here is the figure called Metonymia. 11 Which was in old time a signe of the kingly or princely dignitie. 12 That is, girding was a signe of diligence, and the girdle of gold was a signe of sincerity, and trustines in taking in charge the commandements of God. 13 Of these before, Chap. 4, 7. 14 None of those seuen Angels might returne, till he had performed fully the charge committed vnto him according to the decree of God.

CHAP. XVI.

2 And 17 the Angels powre out the seuen vials of Gods wrath giuen vnto them, and so diuers plagues arise in the world, 18 to terrifie the wicked, 19 and the inhabitants of the great citie.

1 In the former Chapter was set downe the preparation vnto the worke of God: here is deliuered the execution thereof. And in this discourse of the execution, is a generall commandement, in this verse, then a particular recitall in order of the execution done by euery of the seuen Angels, in the rest of the chapter. This speciall execution against Antichrist and his crew, doth in manner agree vnto that which was generally done vpon the whole world, chap.8. and 9. & belongeth (if my coniecture faile me not) vnto the same time. Yet here in they doe differ one from another, that this was particularly effected vpon the Princes and ringleaders of the wickednesse of the world, the other generally against the whole world being wicked. And therfore these iudgements are figured more grieuous then those.

2 The history of the first Angel, who the plague vpon the earth is described almoſt in the same words with that ſixt plague of the Egyptians, Exo.9.9. But it doeth ſignifie a ſpirituall vlcer, and that torture or butcherie of conſcience feared with an hote yron, which accuſeth the vngodly within and both by truth of the word (the light whereof God hath now ſo long ſhewed forth) & by bitternes therwith ryp & fetcheth out the ſwood of Gods wrath. 3 See chap.13.16. 4 The hiſtory of the ſecond Angel who troubleth and moleſteth the ſeas, that he may ſtirre vp the conſcience of men ſleeping in their, wickednes. See Chap.8.8. All was turned into rotten & filthy blood, ſuch as is in dead bodies.

5 The hiſtory of the third Angel ſtriking the riuers, in this verſe who proclaiming the iuſtice of God, commendeth the ſame by a moſt graue compariſon of the ſinnes of men with the puniſhment of God: which is common to this place, & that which went before. Wherfore alſo this praiſing is attributed to the Angel of the waters, a name common to the ſecond and third Angels according as both of them are laid to be ſent againſt the waters, all be it, the one of the ſea the other of the riuers, in two verſes. 6 A confirmation of the praiſe before going, out of the ſanctuary of God, whether immediatly by Chriſt, or by ſome of his Angels, for Chriſt alſo is called another Angel, Chap.7.2.3.8.& 12.1. 7 The hiſtorie of the fourth Angel. who throweth the plague vpon the heauen & vpon the Sun, of which Luk.21.26. the effects wherof are noted two. The one peculiar, that it ſhall ſcorch men with heat, in this verſe. The other proceeding accidentally from the former, that their furie ſhall ſo much the more be enraged againſt God in the next verſe, when yet (O wonderful mercy & patience of God) al other creatures are ſtil ſtriken of & grieuously vſed by the hand of God before mankind by whom he is prouoked: as the things before going do declare. 8 The ſtory of the fifth Angel, who ſtriketh the kingdom of ſ beaſt with two plagues abroad with darknes, within with byles & dolours moſt grieuous, through out his whole kingdome, that thereby he might wound the conſcience of the wicked, & puniſh that moſt peruerſe obſtinacie of the idolaters, whereof aroſe perturbation, and thence a furious indignation and deſperate madnes, raging againſt God and burſtil vnto it ſelfe. 9 The ſtory of the ſixt Angel, diuided into his act, & the euent thereof. The act is, that the Angel did caſt out of his mouth the plague of a moſt glowing heat, wherewith euil the greateſt ſtrength & which moſt were wont to ſweil & ouerflow (as Euphrates) were dried vp by the counſell of God in this verſe. The euent is, that the meere madnes wherewith the wicked are enraged, that they may ſcorne the iudgements of God, & abuſe them furiouſly to ſeeke their owne ruine, & to ſ executing of their owne, wicked outrages. 10 The bound of the ſpirituall Babylon, and to the fortreſſes of the ſame, chap.9.14. 11 So the Church of the vngodly and kingdom of the beaſt is ſaid to be left naked, all the defences whereof, in which they put their truſt, being taken away from it. 12 That is, that euen they which ſwell furtheſt of, may with more commodity make haſte vnto that ſacrifice which the Lord hath appointed.

AND I heard a great voyce out of the Temple, ſaying to the ſeuen Angels, Goe your wayes, and powre out the ſeuen vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth.

2 And the firſt went and powred out his viall vpon the earth: and there fell a noyſome & a grieuous ſore vpon ſ men which had the 3 mark of the beaſt, and vpon them which worſhipped his image.

3 And the ſecond Angel powred out his viall vpon the ſea, and it [a] became as the blood of a dead man: and euery liuing thing died in the ſea.

4 And the third Angel powred out his viall vpon the riuers and fountains of waters, and they became blood.

5 And I heard the Angel of the waters ſay, Lord, Thou art iuſt, which art, and which waſt: and Holy, becauſe thou haſt iudged theſe things.

6 For they ſhed the blood of the Saints, and Prophets, and therfore haſt thou giuen them blood to drinke: for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the Sanctuary ſay, Euen ſo, Lord God almighty, true and righteous are thy iudgements.

8 And the fourth Angel powred out his viall on the ſunne, and it was giuen to him to torment men with heate of fire,

9 And men boyled in great heat, and blaſphemed the Name of God, which hath power ouer theſe plagues, and they repented not to giue him glory.

10 And the fifth Angel powred out his viall vpon ſ throne of the beaſt, and the kingdom waxed darke, and they gnawed their tongues for ſorow,

11 And blaſphemed the God of heauen for their paines, and for their ſores, and repented not of their workes.

12 And the ſixt Angel powred out his viall vpon the great riuer [10] Euphrates, and the [11] water thereof dried vp, [12] that the way of the Kings of the Eaſt ſhould be prepared.

13 And I ſawe [13] three vncleane ſpirits [14] like frogs come out of the mouth of that [15] dragon, and out of the mouth of that [16] beaſt, and out of the mouth of that [17] falſe prophet.

14 For they are the ſpirits of deuils, working miracles, to goe vnto the kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battell of that great day of God Almighty.

15 [18] (* Behold, I come as a theefe. Bleſſed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, leaſt he walke naked, and men ſee his filthineſſe.)

16 [19] And they gathered them together into a place called in Hebrew, [20] Armagedon.

17 [21] And the ſeuenth Angel powred out his viall into the [22] aire: and there came a loud voyce out of the Temple of heauen from [23] the throne, ſaying, [24] It is done.

18 [25] And there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, and there was a great earthquake, ſuch as was not ſince men were vpon the earth, euen ſo mightie an earthquake.

19 [26] And the great citie was diuided into three parts: and the cities of the nations [27] fell: and that great [28] Babylon came in remembrance before God, * to giue vnto her the cuppe of the wine of the fierceneſſe of his wrath.

20 And euery yle fled away, and the mountaines [29] were not [b] found.

21 [30] And there fell a great haile, like [c] talents, out of heauen vpon the men, and men blaſphemed God, becauſe of the plague of the haile: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

13 That is, euery of them bent their whole force, and conſpired that by wonders, word and worke, they might bring into the ſame deſtruction all Kings, Princes and Potentates of the world, curſedly bewitched of them by their ſpirits, and teachers of the vanity and impurity of the beaſt that committed fornication with the kings of the earth. And this is a right deſcription of our times.

14 Croking with importunity and continualy day and night prouoking and calling foorth to armes, as the trumpets, and furies of warres: as is declared in the next verſe.

15 That is, the deuil, as chap.12.3. 16 Whereof chap.13.11.

17 That is, of that other beaſt, of which, chap.13.11. for ſo he is called alſo chap.19.20 and 20.10.

18 A parenthеſis for admonition in which God warneth his holy ſeruants who reſt in the expectation of Chriſt, alwayes to addreſſe their minds vnto his comming, and to looke vnto themſelues, that they be not ſhamefully made naked and circumuented of theſe vncleane ſpirits, and ſo they be miſerably vnprepared at the commig of their Lord, Mat.24.26.& 25.13. Cha.3.3. mat.24.44. luk 12.39. 19 Namely y Angel, who boldly according to the commandment of God was to doe ſacrifice: notwithſtanding that the impure Spirits do the ſame wickedly as ſeruants not vnto God, but vnto that beaſt that hath ſeuen heads. 20 That is (to ſay nothing of other expoſitions) the mountaine it ſelfe, or mountaine places of Megiddon. Now it is certaine by the holy Scripture, that Megiddon is a city & territory in the tribe of Manaſſes, bordering vpon Iſſacar & Aſſer, and was made famous by that lamentable ouerthrow of king Iоſias, whereof 2.Reg.22.30 & 2.Cor.35.22. and Zach.12.11. In this mountaine country God ſaith by figure & type, that the kings of the peoples which ſerue the beaſt, ſhal meet together: becauſe the Gentiles did alwayes cait that lamentable ouerthrow in the teeth of the Church of the Iewes vnto their great reproach: and the ſpirit were perſwaded that that place ſhould be moſt fortunate vnto them (as they ſpeake) and vnfortunate vnto the godly: but God heere pronounceth, that that reproach of the Church, and confidence of the vngodly, ſhall by himſelfe be taken away, in the ſelfe ſame places where the nations perſwaded themſelues, they ſhould mightily exſult & triumph againſt God and his Church. 21 The ſtory of the ſeuenth Angel vnto the end of the chapter, in which firſt is ſhewed by figure and ſpeach, the argument of this plague, in this verſe: and then is declared the execution therof in the verſes following. 22 From whence he might mouе the heauen aboue and the earth beneath. 23 That is, from him that ſitteth on the throne, by the figure called Metonymia. 24 That is, Babylon is vndone, as is ſhewed ver. 16.& in the Chapters following. For the firſt onſet (as I might ſay) of this denunciation, is deſcribed in this Chapter: and the laſt containing a perfect victory is deſcribed in thoſe that follow. 25 Now is declared the execution (as is ſaid in ver.27.) and the things that ſhall laſt come to paſſe in heauen and in earth, before the ouerthrow of the beaſt of Babylon: both generally, verſ.18. and particularly in the curſed citie, and ſuch as haue any familliaritie therewith, in the 3 laſt verſes. 26 That feat or ſtanding place of Antichriſt. 27 Of all ſuch as cleaue vnto Antichriſt, and fight againſt Chriſt. 28 That harlot of whom in the Chapter next following. Now this phraſe, to come into remembrance is after the common vſe of the Hebrew ſpeech, but borowed from men, attributed vnto God. * Ier.44.15. 29 That is, were ſeene no more, or were no more extant. A borowed Hebraiſme. b Appeared not, which the Hebrews vſes after this ſort, were not. Reuc.5.14. 30 The maner of the particular execution, moſt euidently teſtifying the wrath of God by the originall & greatneſſe thereof: the euent whereof is the ſame with that which is Chap.9.12. and that which hath been mentioned in this Chapter, from the execution of the fourth Angel hitherto, that is to ſay, an incurigible pertinacie of the world in their rebellion, and an heart that cannot repent, verſe 9 and 11. c As it were about the weight of a talent was threeſcore pound, that is ſixe hundred groates, whereby is ſignified a maruellous and ſtrange kind of waight.

CHAP. XVII.

1 That great whore is deſcribed. 2 with whom the Kings of the earth committed fornication. 6 She is drunken with the bloud of Saints. 7 The myſterie of the woman, and the beaſt that carried her, expounded. 14 Their deſtruction. 17 The Lords will.

Then

1 The state of the Church militant being declared, now followeth the state of the Church ouercomming and getting victorie, as I shewed before in the beginning of the 10. chapter. The state is set forth in 4 chapters. As in the place before going I noted, that in that historie the order of time was not alwayes exactly obserued, so the same is to be vnderstood in this history, that it is distinguished according to the persons of which it treateth, and that in the seuerall stories of the persons is seuerally obserued in the time thereof. For first is deliuered the story of Babylon described, in this & the next chap. (for this Babylon out of all doubt shall perish before the 2 beasts and the Dragon.) Secondly is deliuered the destruction of both the two beasts, chap. 19. And lastly of the Dragon, chap. 20. in y story of the spirituall Babylon are distinctly set forth the state therof in this chap. & the ouerthrow done from God, cha. 18. As this verse & that which followeth is a traustion or passage vnto the first argument, manifesting of a particular calling of the Prophet (as often heretofore) and a generall proposition.

a That is, the damnable harlot, by a figure called Hypallage. For S. John as yet had not seene her. Although another interpretation may be borne, yet I like this better. a The sentence that is pronounced against this harlot.

3 Henceforth is propounded the type of Babylon, and the state therof in 4 verses. After a declaration of the type, in the rest of this chap. in the type are described two things, the beast (of whom chap. 13.) in the 3. verse, & the woman that sitteth vpon the beast, verse 4, 5, 6. The beast in processe of time hath gotten somewath more then was expressed in the former vision. First in that it is not read before that he was appareiled in scarlet, a robe imperiall and of triumph. Secondly, in that this is full of names of blasphemy: the other carried the name of blasphemy only in his head. So God did teach that this beast is much increased in impiety and in iustice, and doeth in this last age, triumph in both these more insolently and proudly then euer before. b A Scarlet colour, that is, with a red and purple garment: and surely it was not without cause that the Romish clergie were so much delighted with this colour. 4 That harlot, the spirituall Babylon, which is Rome. She is described by her attire, profession & deeds. c In attire most glorious, triumphant, most rich, and most gorgious. 6 In profession, the nourisher of all, in this verse, and reaching her mysteries vnto all, verse 5. seeing forth all things most magnificently: but indeed most pernicious beforting miserable men with her cup. & bringing vpon them a deadly giddines. 7 Deceiuing with the title of religion, and publishe in scription of mystery: which the beast in times past did not beare. 8 An exposition in which S. John declareth what maner of woman this is. 9 In maner of deeds: She is red with blood, and shedeth it most licentiously, and therefore is coloured with the blood of the Saints, as on the contrary part. Christ is set forth imbrued with the blood of his enemies, Esa. 63. 10 A passage vnto the second part of this chapter, by occasion giuen of S. John, as the words of y Angel do shew, in the next verse. 11 The second part or place, as I said verse 1. The declaration of the vision, promised in this verse, and deliuered in the verse following. Now there is deliuered first an enarration of the beast, and his story, vnto the 14 verse. After, of the harlot, vnto the end of the chap. 12 The story of the beast hath a triple description of him. The first is a distinction of this beast from al that euer hath bene at any time: which distinction is contained in this verse. The second is a delineation or painting out of the beast by things present, by which he might euen at that time be knowne of the godly. & this delineation is according to his heads, verse 9, 10, 11. The third is an historicall foretelling of things to come, and to be done by him: and these are ascribed vnto his hornes, verse 12, 13, 14. This beast is that Empire of Rome, of which I spake chap. 13, 11. according to the mutations and changes where of which then had already happened. the holy Ghost hath distinguished and set out the same. The Apostle distinguisheth this beast from all others in these words. The beast which thou sawest, was and is not. For so I expound the words of the Apostle for euidency sake, as I will further declare in the notes following.

13 The meaning is, that beast which thou sawest before (chap. 13. 1.) and which yet thou hast now seene, was, (if thy was) euen from Iulius Cæsar in respect of beginning, rising vp, station, glory, dominion, maner and stock, from the house of Iulius: and yet is not now the same, if thou looke vnto the house and stocke: for the dominion of this family was translated vnto another, after the death of Nero, from y other vnto a third, from a third vnto a fourth, & so forth, was varied & altered by innumerable changes. Finally, y Empire is one, as it were one beast: but succeeding by varie I by kinreds, families & persons. It was therefore (faith S. John) in y hinred or house of Iulius: and now it is not in that hinred, but translated vnto another, is not, and 14 shall ascend out of the bottomlesse pit, and shall go into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder (whose names are not written in the booke of life from the foundation of the world) 15 when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 16 Here is the minde that hath wisedome, The c seuen heads 17 are seuen mountaines, whereon the woman sitteth: 18 they are also seuen Kings.

10 19 Fiue are fallen, 20 and one is, 21 and another is not yet come: and when he commeth, he must continue a short space.

11 22 And the beast that was, and is not, is euen 23 the eight, and is 24 one of the seuen, 25 and shall goe into destruction.

12 26 And the ten hornes which thou sawest,

14 As if hee should say, Also the same that is, shall shortly not be: but shall ascend out of the depth, or out of the sea (as was said, cha. 13. 1.) that is, shall be a new stock from amongst the nations without difference, and shall in the same state goe vnto destruction or ruine, and perish: and so shall succeessively new Princes or Emperours come & go, arise and fall, the body of the beast remaining still, but tossed with so many and often alterations, as no man can but marueile that this beast was able to stand and hold out, in so many mutations. Verily no Empire that euer was tossed with so many changes, and as it were with so many tempests of the sea, euer continued so long. 15 That is as many as haue not learned the providence of God, according to the faith of the Saints, shall marueil at these grieuous & often changes whereby they shal consider, the seate of which is the Romane Empire, to haue bin, not to be, and to be and still molested with perpetuall mutation: and yet in the same to stand and continue. This in mine opinion is the most simple exposition of this place, confirmed by the euent of the things themselues. Although the last change also, by which the Empire, that before was ciuill became Ecclesiasticall, is not obscurely signified in these words: of which two, the first exercised cruelty vpon the bodies of the Saints: the other also vpon their soules: the first by humane order and politicie, the other vnder the colour of the lawe of God, and of Religion, raged and imbrued it selfe with the blood of the godly. 16 An exhortation preparing vnto audience, by the same argument, with that of Christ: He that hath eares to heare, let him heare. Wherefore, for mine owne part, I had rather read in this place, Let there be here a minde, &c. So the Angel passeth fully vnto the second place of this description. c Very children know what that seuen hilled citie is, which is so much spoken of, and whereof Virgil thus reporteth. And compasseth seuen towres in one wall: that citie it is, which when Iohn wrote these things had rule ouer the kings of the earth: It was and is not, and yet it remaineth this day, but it is declining to destruction. 17 This is the painting out of the beast by things present (as I said before) whereby S. John endeauoured to describe the same, that he might both be known of the godly in that age, and be further obserued and marked of posteritie afterwards. The first delineation hath one type, that is, his heads, but a double description or application of the type: one permanent from the nature of it selfe, the other changeable, by the working of men. The description permanent, is by the seuen hils, in this verse, the other that foureth, is from the seuen kings, verse 10, 11. And here it is worthy to be obserued, that one type hath sometimes two or more applications, as seemeth good vnto the holy Ghost to expresse either one thing by diuers types, or diuers things by one type. So I noted before, of the seuen spirits chap. 1. 4. Now this woman that sitteth vpon seuen hils, is the citie of Rome, built of the Greeians ἑπτάλοφος, i. of seuen tops or creasts, and of Vatro septiceps, i. of her seuen heads (as here) of seuen heads, and of others septicollis. i. standing vpon seuen hils. 18 The beginning of these Kings or Emperours is almost the same with the beginning of the Church of Christ, which I shewed before chap. 11. 1. Namely from the yeere 31. after the passion of Christ, what time the Temple and Church of the Iewes was ouerthrowen. In which yeere it came to passe, by the prouidence of God that that saying. The beast was and is not, was fulfilled before that the destruction the Iewes immediatly following came to passe. That was the yeere from the building of the city of Rome 809 from which yeere S. Iohn both numbred the Emperors which hitherto had bene, when he wrote these things, and foretelleth of two other next to come: and that with this purpose, that when this particular prediction or foretelling of things to come, should take effect the truth of all other predictions in the Church, might be the more confirmed. Which figne God of old mentioned in the Law, Deut. 18. and Esaie confirmed chap. 48. 19 Whose names are these: the first Seruius Sulpitius Galba, who was y seuenth Emperor of y people of Rome, the second Marcus Saluius Otho, the third, Aulus Vitellius, the fourth, Titus Flauius Vespasianus, the fifth, Titus Vespasianus his sonne of his owne name. 20 Flauius Domician sonne of the first Vespasian. For in the latter end of his dayes S. Iohn wrote these things: as witnesseth Irenæus Lib 5. aduersus heresies. 21 Nerua. The Empire being now translated from the family of Flauius. This man reigned onely one yeere, foure moneths, and nine dayes, as the history witnesseth. 22 This is spoken by the figure Epiecthesis, a much to say, as that head of the beast which was & is not, he saith it is cut off, and Nerua in so short time extinguished. How many heads there were, so many beasts there seemed to be in one. See the like speech in the 3 verse of the 13 chap. 23 Nerua Traianus, who himself in diuers respects is called here the seuenth and eight. 24 Though in number and order of succession hee be the eight, yet he is reckoned together with one of these heads, because Nerua and he were one head. For this man obtained authoritie together with Nerua, and was Consul with him, when Nerua left his life. 25 Namely to moleet with persecutions the Churches of Christ, as the histories do accord. & I haue briefly noted chap. 2. 10. 26 The third place of this description as I said verse 8. is a prophetical prediction of things to come which the beast should doe, as in the words following S. John doeth not obscurely signifie, saying, which haue not yet receiued the kingdome, &c. For there is an Antithesis or opposition, betweene the seuen kings, and those that were before. And first the persons are described, in this verse, then their deeds in the two verses following.

13 29 These haue one minde, and shall giue their power and authoritie vnto the beast,

14 These shal fight with the 30 Lambe, and the Lambe shall ouercome them: * for he is Lord of Lords, and King of Kings: and they that are on his side, called, and chosen, and faithfull.

15 31 And he sayd vnto me, The waters which thou saweſt, where the whore sitteth, 32 are people, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten 33 hornes which thou saweſt vpon the beast, are they that shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate, and naked, and shall eate her flesh, and burne her with fire.

17 34 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to doe with one consent for to giue their kingdome vnto the beast, vntill the words of God be fulfilled.

18 And that woman which thou saweſt, is that 35 great citie, which reigned ouer the Kings of the earth.

27 That is, arising with their kingdomes out of the Romane beast: at such time as that politicall Empire began by the craft of the Popes greatly to fall.

28 Namely, with the second beast, whom we called before a false prophet, which beast, ascending out of the earth got vnto himselfe all the authoritie and power of the first beast and exerciseth the same before his face, as was sayd Chapter 4. 11. 12. For when the politicall Empire of the West began to bow downewards, there both arose those ten Kings, and the second beast tooke the opportunity offered to vsurpe vnto himselfe all the power of the former beast. These kings long ago, many haue numbred & describe d to be ten and a great part of the euents plainely testifieth the same in this our age. 29 That is, by consent and agreement, that they may consspire with the beast, and depend vpon his becke. Their storie is diuided into three parts, counsells, actes, and euents. The counsellers some of them consist in communicating of iudgements and affections: and some in communicating of power, which they are said to haue giue vnto this beast in this verse. 30 With Christ and his Church, as the reason following doeth declare, and here are mentioned the actes and the euents which followed for Christ his sake, and for the grace of God the Father towards those that are called, elected, & are his faithfull ones in Christ. * Chap. 1. 1 tim. 6. 15. 31 This is the other member of the enarration, as I said verse 7. belonging vnto the harlot, shewed in the vision verse 3. In this historie of the harlot, these 3. things are distinctly propounded, what is her magnificence in this verse, what is her fall, and by whom it shall happen vnto her, in the two verses following: and lastly, who that harlot is, in the last verse. This place which by order of nature should haue bene the first, is therefore made the last, because it was more fit to bee ioyned with the next Chap. 32 That is, as vnconstant and variable as are the waters. Vpon this foundation sitteth this harlot as Queene, a vaine person vpon that which is vaine. 33 The ten Kings as verse 12. The accomplishment of this fact and euent, is dayly increased in this our age by the singular prouidence, and most mighty gouernment of God. Wherefore the facts are propounded in this verse, and the cause of them in the verses following. 34 A reason rendred from the chiefe efficient cause, which is the prouidence of God, by which alone S. Iohn by insertion of order affirmeth to haue come to passe, both that the kings should execute vpon the harlot, that which pleased God, and which hee declared in the verse next before going: and also that by one consent and counsell they should giue their kingdome vnto the beast, &c. verse 13, 14. For as these being blinded haue before depended vpon the becke of the beast that lifteth vp the harlot, so it is said that afterward it shall come to passe, that they shall turne backe, and shall fall away from her when their hearts shall bee turned into better state by the grace and mercy of God. 35. That is, Rome that great Citie, or onely Citie (as Iustinian calleth it) the King & head whereof was then the Emperour, but now the Pope, since that the condition of the beast was changed.

CHAP. XVIII.

a The horrible destruction of Babylon set out, 11. 16, 18. The marchants of the earth, who were enriched with the pompe and luxuriousnesse of it, weepe and wayle: 20 but all the elect reioyce for that iust vengeance of God.

1 AND after these things, I saw another 2 Angel come down from heauen, hauing great power, so that the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cryed out mightily with a loude voyce, saying, * It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon the great Citie, or onely Citie (as Iustinian calleth it) the King & head whereof was then the Emperour, but now the Pope, since that the condition of the beast was changed, that great city, and is become the habitation of deuils, and the hold of all foule spirits, and a cage of euery vncleane and hatefull bird.

3 For all nations haue drunken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich of the abundance of her pleasures.

4 4 And I heard an other voice from heauen say, 5 Go out of her, my people, ỹ ye be not partakers of her sinnes, & that ye receiue not of her plagues:

5 For her sinnes are 6 come vp into heauen, and God hath remembred her iniquities.

6 7 Reward her, euen as shee hath rewarded you, and giue her double according to her works: and in the cup that she hath filled to you, fill her the double.

7 In as much as she glorified her self, & liued in pleasure, so much giue ye to her torment & sorow: for she saith b in her heart, I sit being a queen, and am c no widow, and shall d see no mourning.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come at e one day, death, and sorow, and famine, and she shall be burnt with fire: for that God which condemneth her, is a strong Lord,

9 And the 8 kings of the earth shall bewaile her, and lament for her, which haue committed fornication, and liued in pleasure with her, when they shall see that smoke of that her burning,

10 And shall stand afarre off for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great citie Babylon, that mightie citie: for in one houre is thy iudgement come.

11 9 And the merchants of the earth shall weepe and wayle ouer her: for no man buyeth their ware any more.

12 The ware of gold, and siluer, and of precious stone, and of pearles, and of fine linnen, and of purple, and of silke, and of skarlet, and of all maner of Thynewood, and of all vessels of yuorie, and of all vessels of most precious wood, and of brasse, and of yron, and of marble,

13 And of cinamon, and odours, and oyntments, and frankincense, and wine, and oyle, and fine floure, and wheate, and beasts, and sheepe, and horses, and charets, and seruants, and soules of men.

14 (10 And the fapples that thy foule lusted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were fat and excellent, are departed from thee, and thou shalt finde them no more.)

15 The merchants of these things which were waxed rich, shall stand a farre off from her, for feare of her torment, weeping and wayling.

1 The second place (as I said before 17. 1.) of the history of Babylon, is of the worldly fall and ruine of that whore of Babylon. This historical prediction concerning her, is three fold. The first a plaine and simple foretelling of her ruine in three verses, the second a figurative prediction by the circumstances, thence vnto the 20. verse. The third, a confirmation of the same by signe or wonder, vnto the end of the Chapter. 2 Either Christ the eternall word of God the Father (as often elsewhere) or a created Angel, and one deputed vnto this seruice: but throughly furnished with greatnesse of power, and with lightof glory, as the ensigne of power. 3 The prediction or foreshewing of her ruine, conteining both the fall of Babylon, in this verse, and the cause thereof vttered by way of allegory, concerning her spirituall & carnall wickednesse, that is, her most great impietie and vniustice in the next verse: her fall is first simply declared of the Angel: and then the greatnesse thereof is shewed heere by the euents, when hee sayth it shall bee the seate and habitation of deuils, of vnlde beasts & of cursed foules, as of old Esay 13. 21. and often elsewhere. * Chap. 14. 8. esay. 21. 9. Ier. 51. 8.

4 The second prediction, which is of the circumstances of the ruine of Babylon: of these there are two kinds: one going before it: as that before hand the godly are deliuered vnto the ninth verse: the other following vpon her ruine, namely the lamentation of the wicked and reioycing of the godly, vnto the twentieth verse.

5 Two circumstances going before the ruine, are commanded in this place: one is, that the godly depart out of Babylon: as I mentioned, chapter 12. to haue beene done in time past, before the destruction of Hierusalem: this charge is giuen here, and in the next verse. The other is, that euery one of them occupy themselues in their owne place, in executing the iudgement of God, as it was commanded the Leuites of old, Exod. 32. 27. and that they sanctifie their handes vnto the Lord, verse 6. 7. 8.

6 Of his commaundement it is that he vseth causes to auoid the contagion of sinne, and to shun the participation of those punishments that belong thereunto.

a He vseth a word which signifieth the fastning of sinne one after another, and reising one of another in such sort, that they grew at length to such an heape that they came vp euen to heauen.

7 The prouocation of the godly, and the commandement of executing the iudgements of God, stand vpon three causes which are here expressed: the vniust wickednes of the whore of Babylon, in this verse her cursed pride oppoſing it selfe against God, which is the fountaine of all euil actions, verse 7. and her most iust damnation by the sentence of God, verse 8. b With her selfe. c I am full of people and mightie. d I shall taste of none. e Shortly and at one instant. 8 The circumstances following the fall of Babylon, or the consequents thereof (as I distinguished them, verse 4.) are two. Namely the lamentation of the wicked vnto the 19. verse: and the reioycing of the godly, verse 20. This most sorowfull lamentation, according to the persons of them that lament, hath three members: the first whereof is the mourning of the kings and mightie men of the earth, in two verses. The second is, the lamentation of the merchants that traffike by land thence vnto the 16. verse. The third is the wailing of those ỹ merchandise by sea, verse 16. 17. 18. In euery of these the cause & maner of their mourning is described in order, according to the condition of those that mourne with obseruation of that which belongeth vnto them. 9 The lamentation of these that trade by land, as I distinguished immediatly before. 10 An apostrophe, or turning of the speach by imitation, vsed for more vehemencie, as if those merchants, after the maner of mourners should in passionate speech speake vnto Babylon, though now vtterly fallen and ouerthrowen. So Esai. 22. 9. and in many other places. f By this is meant what season which is next before the fall of the leafe, as what season fruits ripen, and the word signifieth such fruits as are longest ere

16. And

16 And saying, Alas, alas, that great citie, that was cloathed in fine linnen and purple, and skarlet, and gilded with gold, and precious stones, and pearles.

17 11 For in one houre so great riches are come to desolation. And euery shipmaster, and all the people that occupy ships and shipman, and whosoeuer traffike on the sea, shall stand a farre off.

18 And cry, when they see that smoke of that her burning, saying, What city was like vnto this great city?

19 And they shall cast dust on their heads, and cry, weeping, and wayling, and say, Alas, alas that great citie, wherein were made rich all that had ships on the sea by her costlines: for in one houre she is made desolate.

20 12 O heauen, reioyce of her, and ye holy Apostles and Prophets: for God hath punished her, to be reuenged on her for your sakes.

21 13 Then a mighty Angel tooke vp a stone, like a great millstone, *and cast it into the sea, saying, With such violence shall that great city Babylon be cast and shall be found no more.

22 14 And the voyce of harpers, and musicians and of pipers, and trumpetters shall bee hard no more in thee, and no craftsman, of whosoeuer craft he bee, shalbe found any more in thee: and the sound of a millstone shalbe heard no more in thee.

23 And ℣ light of a candle shall shine no more in thee: and the voice of the bridegrome & of the bride shalbe heard no more in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth: and with thine inchantment were deceiued all nations.

24 And in her was found the 15 blood of the Prophets 16 and of the Saints, and of all that were slaine vpon the earth.

11 The manner of mourning vsed by them that trade by sea.

12 The other consequent vpon the other ruine of Babylon, is the exaltation or reioycing of the godly in heauen and in earth as was noted verse 9.

13 The third prediction, as I said verse 1. standing of a signe, and the interpretation thereof: the interpretation thereof is in a sort, first by a simple propounding of the thing it selfe, in this verse, and then by declaration of the euents in the verses following.

* Ierem.51.63.

14 The euents are two, the one of them opposite vnto the other for amplification sake. There shalbe, saith he, in Babylon no mirth nor ioy at all, in this and the next verse, but all heauy and lamentable things from the bloody slaughters of the righteous and the vengeance of God comming vpon it for the same. 15 That is, shed by bloody massacres, and calling for vengeance. 16 That is, proued and found out, as if God had appointed a iust enquirie, concerning the impietie, vnnaturalnesse and vniustice of those men.

CHAP. XIX.

1 The heauenly company praise God for auenging the blood of his seruants on the whore. 9 They are written blessed, that are called to the Lambes supper. 10 The Angell will not bee worshipped. 11 That mighty King of Kings appeareth from heauen. 19 The battell, 20 wherein the beast is taken, 21 and cast into the burning lake.

AND ‡ after these things I heard a great voyce of a great multitude in heauen, saying, a 2 Hallelu-iah, saluation, and glory, and honour, and power be to the Lord our God.

2 For true and righteous are his iudgements: for hee hath condemned the great whore which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath auenged the blood of his seruants shed by her hand.

3 And againe they said, 3 Halleluiah: and that her smoke rose vp for euermore.

4 And the foure and twenty Elders, and the foure beast fell downe, and worshipped God that sate on the throne, saying, Amen, Halleluiah.

5 4 Then a voyce came out of the 5 throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his seruants, and yee that feare him, both small and great.

6 And I heard 6 like a voyce of 7 a great multitude, and as the voyce of many waters, and as the voyce of strong thundrings, saying, Halleluiah: for the Lord that God that Almighty one hath reigned.

7 Let vs bee glad and reioyce, and giue glory to him: for the marriage of the Lambe is come, and his wife hath made 7 her selfe ready.

8 And to her was granted, that shee should be arayed with 8 pure fine linnen and shining, for the fine 9 linnen is the 9 righteousnesse of Saints.

9 10 Then he said vnto me, Write, * Blessed are they which are called vnto the Lambs supper. And he said vnto me, These words of God are true.

10 11 And I fell before his feet, * to worship him, but he said vnto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellow seruant, and one of thy brethren, which haue the ‹ testimony of Iesus, Worship God: for the testimony of ‹ Iesus is the Spirit of prophesie.

11 12 And I saw 13 heauen open, and behold a white horse, and he that sate vpon him was called faithfull and true, and he iudgeth and fighteth righteously.

12 And his eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crownes: and hee had a name written, that no man knew but himselfe.

13 And hee was cloathed with a garment dipt in blood, & his name was called, THE WORD OF GOD.

14 14 And the hostes which were in heauen, followed him vpon white horses, cloathed with fine linnen white and pure.

15 15 And out of his mouth went out a sharpe sword, that with it he should smite the heathen: for he shall * rule them with a rod of yron, for he it is that treadeth the wine presse of the fiercenes and wrath of Almighty God.

16 16 And he hath vpon his garment, and vpon his thigh, a name written, * THE KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 17 And I saw an Angel stand in the 18 sunne, who cryed with a loud voyce, saying, to all the foules that did flie by 19 the mids of heauen, Come,

4 The second place of praise as I said verse 1. which first is commanded from God in this verse: and then is in most ample manner pronounced of the creatures, both because they see that Kingdom of Christ to come, which made they desire, verse 6. also because they see that the Church is called fort to be brought home into the house of her husband by holy marriage vnto the fellowship of his kingdom, verse 7.8. Wherefore S. Iohn is commaunded to write in a booke the Epiphonema, or acclamation ioyned with a diuine testimony verse 9.

5 Out of the Temple from God, as 11.19.

6 Without the Temple in heauen.

7 Namely vnto that holy mariage both her selfe in person in this verse and also furnished of her spouse with mariage gifts princely and diuine in adorned and prepared in the next verse.

8 As an ensigne of Kingly and priestly dignitie: which dignitie Christ bestoweth vpon vs, Chap.1.6.

9 This is a gift giuen by the husband for mariage-fake and a mait choice ornament, which Christ bestoweth vpon vs, as vpon his spouse. b Good workes which are truely testimonies of faith. * Mat. 22.2. 10 Namely the Angel, as appeareth by the next verse. 11 The particular historie of this verse is brought in by occasion, and as it were beside the purpose, that Saint Iohn might make a publike example of his owne infirmitie, and of the modest sanctimonie of the Angel, who hath renounced for himselfe the diuine honours, & recalled all the seruants of God, vnto the worship of him alone: as also 22.8. * *Chap.*22.8. c Which are commanded to beare witnesse of Iesus. d For Iesus is the marke that all the prophesies shote at. 12 The second place of this Chapter (as I saide verse 1.) is of the victory gotten by Christ against both the beastes: in which first Christ is described as one ready to fight, vnto the 16. verse then is shewed the battell to bee begun, thence vnto the 21. verse: lastly is set foorth the victory vnto the end of the Chapter. In this place doe shine most excellent properties of Christ as our heauenly iudge and reuenger, according to his person, companie, effects, and names. 13 Properties belonging to his person, that hee is heauenly, iudge, faithfull, true, iust, in this verse, searching out all things and ruling ouer all, to bee searched out of none, verse 12 the trumpet, and the very essentiall word of God, verse 13. 14 The compagny or tetinue of Christ, holy, innumerable, heauenly, iusticiall, royall and pure. 15 The effects of Christ prepared vnto battell, that with his mouth hee striketh the Gentiles, ruleth and destroyeth. * Psalme 2. 9. 16 The name agreeing vnto Christ according to the former properties, expressed after the manner of the Hebrewes. * *Chap.*17. 14. 1 *Tim.*6.15. 17 The second member as I sayde verse 11. A reproachfull calling forth of his enemies vnto battell: in which not themselues (for why should they be called foorth of the king of the world, or prouoked being his subiects? for that were not comely) but in their bearing, the birds of the ayre are called to eate their carkasses. 18 That is, openly, and in sight of all, as Numb.25.4. and 2.Sam.12.11. 19 That is, through this inferiour heauen, and which is neere vnto vs: an Hebrew phrase.

‡ This chapter hath in summe two parts, one transitory or of passage vnto the things that follow vnto the 19. verse, another historicall of the victorie of Christ gotten against both the beastes vnto the end of the chapter, which I sayd was the second historie of this argument, chap.17.1. The transition hath two places, one of praising God for the ouerthrow done vnto Babylon in 4. verses, & another like vnto of praise, and Prophetierll, for the comming of Christ vnto his kingdome, and his most royall marriage with his Church thence vnto the tenth verse. The former praise hath three branches, distinguished after the ancient maner of those that sing: πρσοφώνησις, that is, an inuitation or prouokement in two verses, ἀντιφωνία, a responce or answer in the third verse, and συμφωνία, a close or ioyning together in harmonie; al which I thought good of purpose to distinguish in this place, lest any man should with Porphyrius, or other like dogs, obiect to Saint Iohn of the heauenly Church, a childish and idle repetition of speech. a Praise the Lord. 2 The proposition of praise with exhortation in this verse, and the cause thereof, in the next verse. 3 The song of the Antiphonie or responce, containing an amplification of the praise of God, from the perpetuall and most certaine testimony of his diuine iudgement as was done at Sodome and Gomorrah, Gen.19.

18 That yee may eate the flesh of kings and the flesh of high captaines, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all free men, and bond men, and of small and great.

19 20 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their hosts gathered together to make battell against him that sate on the horse, and against his armie.

20 But the beast 21 was taken, and with him 22 that false prophet that wrought miracles before him, whereby he deceiued them that receiued the beasts marke, and them that worshipped his image. These both were aliue cast into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slaine with the sword of him that sitteth vpon the horse, which commeth out of his mouth, and all the fowles were filled full with their flesh.

20 The 3. member (as was tayde verse 11.) of the victory conteined by Christ. Vnto this apperteineth two things: his buckling with the beast and his forces in this verse: and the euent most magnificent, described after the maner of men, in the verses following. All these things are plaine. 21 Namely, that beast with seuen heads, of which before, Chapter 13 1. and 17. 3. 22 That is, that beast with two heads, of which 13. 11. Looke more, Chap. 16, 14.

CHAP. XX.

1 The Angel 2 tindeth Satan for a thousand yeeres. 3 Being loosed, hee stirreth vp Gog and Magog, that is, prouide and open enemies against the Saints. 11 But the vengeance of the Lord cutteth off their insolencie. 12 The bookes are opened, by which the dead are iudged.

AND I saw an Angel come downe from heauen, hauing the key a of the bottomlesse pit, and a great chaine in his hand.

2 And he tooke the dragon that old serpent, which is the deuill and Satan, and he bound him 3 a thousand yeeres:

3 And cast him into the bottomles pit, and he shut him vp, and sealed the doore vpon him, that hee should deceiue the people 4 no more till the thousand yeeres were fulfilled: for after that he must bee loosed for 5 a little season.

4 6 And I saw 27 seates: and they sate vpon them, and iudgement was giuen vnto them, and I saw the soules of them that were 8 beheaded for the witnesse of Iesus, and for the word of God, and which 9 did not worship the beast, neither his image, neither had taken his marke vpon their foreheads, or on their hands: and they liued, and reigned with Christ a thousand yeere.

5 10 But the rest of the dead men 11 shall not liue againe, vntill the thousand yeeres be finished: this is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he, that hath part in the first resurrection: for on such the 12 second death hath no power: but they shall be the Priestes of God and of Christ, 13 and shall reigne with him a thousand yeere.

7 14 And when the 15 thousand yeeres are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison.

8 16 And shall goe out to deceiue the people, which are in the foure quarters of the earth: euen * Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battell, whose number is as the sand of the Sea.

9 And they went vp into the b plaine of the earth, and they compassed the tents of the Saints about, and the beloued citie: but 17 fire came downe from God out of Heauen, and deuoured them.

10 18 And the deuill that deceiued them, was cast into a lake of fire and brimstone, where that beast and that false prophet are, and shall bee tormented euen day and night for euermore.

11 19 And I saw a great 20 white throne, and one that sate on it, 21 from whose face fled away both the Earth and Heauen, and their place was no more found.

12 And I saw the dead both great and small, stand before 22 God: and the 23 bookes were opened, and * another booke was opened, which is the booke 24 of life, and the dead were iudged of those things, which were written in the bookes, according to their workes.

13 25 And the sea gaue vp her dead, which were in her, and death and hell deliuered vp the dead, which were in them: and they were iudged euery man according to their workes.

14 26 And death, and Hell were cast into the lake of fire: this is the second death.

15 And whosoeuer was not found written in the booke of life, was cast into the lake of fire.

1 Now followeth the 3 place of the prophetical historie, which is of the victory whereby Christ ouercame the dragon, as I noted Chap. 7 1. This place must necessarily bee ioyned with the ende of the 12. chapter, and be applyed vnto the iust vnderstanding thereof. This chapter hath two parts, one of the dragon ouercome, vnto the 10 verse, the other of the resurrection and last iudgement vnto the end of the chapter. The history of the dragon is double: First of the first victory after which he was bound by Christ, vnto the 6 verse. The second is of the last victory, whereby he was throwen downe into euerlasting punishment, thence vnto the 10 verse. This first history happened in the first time of the Christian Church, when the dragon throwen downe from heauen by Christ, went about to inuest the new birth of the Church in the earth, Chap 12, 17, 18. For which cause I gaue warning, that this story of the Dragon must bee annexed vnto that place. 2 That is of hell, whither God threw downe the Angels which had sinned, and bound them in chaines of darkenesse to bee kept vnto damnation, 2. Pet 2. 4. Iude 6. 3 The first whereof (continuing this history with the end of the 12. chapter) is the 36 yeere from the passion of Christ, when the Church of the Iewes bei g ouer throwen, Satan allyed to Imadeth the Christian Church gathered of the Gentiles, and to destroy part of her seed, Chap. 12. 17. The thousandth yeere falleth precisly vpon the times of that wicked Hildebrand, who was called Gregorie the seuenth, a most damnable Necromancer & sorcerer, whom Satan vsed as an instrument when he was loosed out of bonds, thenceforth to annoy the Saints of God with most cruel persecutions, and the whole world with dissentions, and most bloody warres: 21 Beno the Cardinall reporteth at large. And this is the first victory gotten ouer the Dragon in the earth. 4. Namely, with that publike and violent deceit which he attempted before. Chap. 12. and which after a thousand yeeres (a lacke for woe) bee most mightily procured in the Christian world. 5 Which being once expired, this second battell and victory shall bee, of which verse 7, 8. 6 A description of the common state of the Church of Christ in earth in that space of a thousand yeeres, for which the deuill was in bonds: in which first the authoritie, life, and common honour of the godly is declared, verse 4. Secondly, newnes of life is preached vnto other by the Gospel, after that space, ver 5. Finally, he concluded with promises verse 6. a For iudgement was committed to them, as to the members ioyned to the head, not that Christs office was giuen ouer them. 7 This was a type of the authoritie of the good and faithfull seruants of God in the Church, taken from the maner of men. 8 Of the Martyrs, which suffered in those first times. 9 Of the Martyrs which suffered after that both the beasts were now risen vp, Chap. 13. For these three things are expounded.

10 Whosoeuer shall lie dead in sin, and not know the truth of God. 11 They shall not be renewed with that newnesse of the life by the enlightning of the Gospell of the glory of Christ. For this is the first resurrection, by which the soules of the godly doe rise from their death. In the second resurrection their bodies shal rise againe. 12 That whereby both body and soule, that is, the whole man is addicted and deliuered vnto eternall death. So chapter 2, 11.

13 A returne vnto the intended history, by resuming the words which are in the end of the fourth verse.

14 The second history, of the latter victorie of Christ, as was said before. In which are summarily described the worke, ouerthrow and eternall punishment of Satan.

15 Of which I spake verse 2. Then therefore shall be giuen vnto him liberty to rage against the Church and to moue the Saints for the sinnes of men: then was meete,

16 The worke or acte of Satan (which is the first member as I distinguished in the verse before going) to deceiue the whole world, euen vnto the vttermost nations thereof: to arme them against the people of God to this verse, and to besiege & oppresse the Church, with his whole strength, in the verse following. * Ezechiel 39. 2. b As if he said in so much that the whole face of the earth, I ow great former it is, was filled. 17 The wrath of God consuming the aduersaries, and ouerthrowing all their enterprises. Heb. 10. 27. And this is the second member mentioned verse 7. the ouerthrow of Satan. 18 The third member, eternall destruction against those that are ouercome: as I noted in the same place. 19 The second part of this Chapter, in which is described the iudge, in this verse, and the last iudgement in the verse following. 20 That is, a tribunal seate most Princelike and glorious: for so doth the Greeke word also signifie. 21 That is, Christ, before whom when he commeth vnto iudgement, heauen & earth shall perish for the greatnesse of his maiestie. 2 Peter 3. 7 10. &c. 22 That is, Christ the iudge, 2 Cor. 5. 10. 23 As it were, our books of reckoning or accompt: that is, the testimonie of our conscience, and of our works, which by no meanes can be auoyded. That is spoken after the manner of men. * Chap. 3. 5. and 21. 27. phil 4. 3. 24 The booke of the eternall decree of God, in which God the Father hath elected in Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, those that shalbe heires of life. This also is spoke according to the manner of men. 25 This is a preuention or an answer to an obiection: for happily some man will say, but they are dead, whom the sea death & the graue hath consumed, how shall they appeare before the iudge? S. Iohn answereth by resurrection from death, whereunto all things (howsoeuer repugnant shall minister and serue at the commandement of God, as Dan. 12. 26 The last enemie which is death shalbe abolished by Christ (that he may no more make any attempt against vs) 1 Cor. 15. 26. and death shall feede vpon the reprobation in hell for euermore, according to the righteous iudgement of God, in the next verse.

CHAP. XXI.

1 He describeth new Hierusalem descending from heauen. 6 The bride the Lambes wife, 12 and the glorious building of the citie, 19 garnished with precious stones, 22 whose Temple the Lambe is.

1 Now followeth the second part of the history prophetical (as I said Cha. 1. and 11. 1.) of the future estate of the Church in heauen after the last iudgment, vnto the fift verse of the next chapter, in this are two things briefly declared. The station, seate or place thereof, verse 1. Then her state and condition in the verses following. Before the state of the Church described, is set down the state of the whole world, that there shalbe a new heauen, and a new earth, as Esay 65.7. and 66.22. and 2. Pet. 3.13. and this is the seat or place of the Church, in which righteousnes shall dwell. * Esay 65.17. and 66.22.

a 2 Pet. 3. 13.

2 The state of this glorious Church is first described generally, vnto the 8. verse and then specially and by parts, in the verses following. The generall description confisteth in a vision, shewed afarre off, verse 2. and in speach spoken from heauen. In the general these things are common, that the Church is holy, new, the workmanship of God, heauenly, most glorious, the spouse of Christ, and partaker of this glorie in this verse.

3 The Church is described by speach two verses, then of God himself, in 4. verses. The Angels speach describeth the glory of the Church by the most familiar cohabitatiō of God therewith, by communicating of all maner good things according to the couenant, in this verse: and by removing or putting far away of all euill things in the verse following. * Chap. 7. 17. esa. 15. 8. 4. In the speach of God himselfe describing the Church, is first a certaine exordium, or entrance, verse 5. Then followeth a magnificent description of the Church, by the present & future good things of the same, in 3. verses following. In the exordium God challengeth to himselfe the restoring of all the creatures, of which verse 1. and witnesseth the calling of S Iohn vnto the writing of these things, in this verse. * Esa. 43. 19. 2 Cor. 5. 17. * Chap. 2. 8. and 21. 13. 5 The description of the Church is of three sorts, by abolishing of olde things: by the being of present things in God, that is of things eternall: and by the communication of all good things with the godly, verse 6. If so bee, they shall striue manfully, verse 7. But the reprobate are excluded from thence, verse 8. a Their lot, and inheritance as it were. 6 A transition vnto the particular describing of the heauenly Church by the expresse calling of Saint Iohn in this verse, and his rapting vp by the Spirits in confirmation of the trueth of God in the verse following. 7 Hee meaneth the place & stately seate of the Church, shadowed out in a mountaine. 8 A type of that Church which is one, ample, or Catholike, holy celestiall, built of God, in this verse: and glorious in the verse following. This type propounded generally, is after particularly declared, verse 12. &c. 9 A particular description (as I noted verse 2.) of the celestiall Church. First, by the essentiall parts of the same, vnder the similitude of a citie to verse 12. Secondly, by forreine accidents, vnto the end of the chapter. Thirdly, by the effects in the beginning of the next chapter, the essentiall parts are noted the matter & the forme in the whole worke: of these the superficies and foundation of the wall are entire parts (as they vse to bee called) which parts are first described in figure, vnto the 14 verse and afterward more exactly. 10 According to the number of the tribes, of which chap 7. For here the outward part is attributed vnto the old Testament, and the foundation of the new Testament. 11 Hee meaneth the Prophet, who are the messengers of God, and watchmen of the Church.

AND 1 I saw * a new heauen, and a new earth: for the * first heauen and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more sea.

2 a And I Iohn saw the holy citie new Hierusalem come downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a bride trimmed for her husband.

3 3 And I heard a great voyce out of heauen, saying, Beholde, the Tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them: and they shall be his people, and God himselfe shalbe their God with them.

4 * And God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes: and there shalbe no more death, neither sorrow, neither crying, neither shall there be any more paine: for the first things are passed.

5 4 And he that sate vpon the throne, said, * Behold, I make all things new, and he said vnto me, Write: for these things are faithfull and true.

6 And he sayd vnto mee, * 5 It is done, I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end: I will giue to him that is a thirst, of the well of the water of life freely.

7 He that ouercommeth, shall inherit all things, and I will be his God, and he shalbe my Sonne.

8 But the fearefull and vnbeleeuing, and the abominable, and murtherers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars shall haue their a part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.

9 6 And there came vnto me one of the seuen Angels, which had the seuen vials full of the seuen last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come: I will shew thee the bride the Lambs wife.

10 And hee caried me away in the spirit to a great and 7 an high mountaine, and he shewed me 8 that great city, that holy Ierusalem, descending out of heauen from God.

11 Hauing the glory of God, and her shining was like vnto a stone most precious, as a iasper stone cleare as chrystall.

12 9 And had a great wall and high, and had 10 twelue gates, and at the gates 11 twelue Angels, and the names written which are the twelue tribes of the children of Israel:

13 On the East part there were three gates, and on the North side three gates, on the South side three gates, and on the West side three gates.

14 And the wall of the citie had 12 twelue foundations, and in them the names of the Lambes twelue Apostles.

15 13 And he that talked with me, had a golden reede, to measure the citie withall, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 14 And the citie lay b foure square, and the length is as large as the bredth of it, and he measured the citie with the reed, twelue thousand furlongs: and the length, and the bredth, and the height of it are equall.

17 And he measured the wall thereof an hundred fourty and foure cubits, by the measure of man, that is, of the c Angel.

18 15 And the building of the wall of it was of iasper: and the citie was pure golde, like vnto cleare glasse.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the citie were garnished with all maner of precious stones: the first foundation was iasper: the second of Saphire: the third of a Chalcedonie: the fourth of an Emerald:

20 The fift of a Sardonix: the sixt of a Sardius: the seuenth of a Chrysolite: the eight of a Beril: the ninth of a Topaz: the tenth of a Chrysophrasus: the eleuenth of a Iacynth: the twelfth an Amethyst.

21 And the twelue gates were twelue pearles, and euery gate is of one pearle, and the d street of the citie is pure gold, as shining glasse.

22 And I saw no Temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty & the Lambe are the Temple of it.

23 * 16 And their citie hath no neede of the Sunne, neither of the Moone to shine in it: for the glory of God did light it: and the Lambe is the light of it.

24 * And the people which are saued, shall walke in the light of it, and the kings of the earth shall bring their glory and honour vnto it.

25 * And the gates of it shall not be shut by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And the glory and honour of the Gentiles shall be brought vnto it.

27 And there shall enter into it none vncleane thing, neither whatsoeuer worketh abomination or lies: but they which are written in the Lambs * booke of life.

the last. * Esay. 60. 3. * Esay. 60. 11. Chap. 2. 3. and

CHAPTER XXII.

1 The riuer of water of life is shewed, 2 and the tree of life: 6, 7 Then followeth the conclusion of this prophesie, 8 where Iohn declareth, that the things herein contained are most true. 13 and now the third time repeateth these wordes, All things come from him, who is the beginning and the end.

AND 1 hee shewed me a pure riuer of water of life, cleare as chrystal, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lambe.

2 In the middest of the streete of it, and of either side of the riuer was the tree of life, which bare twelue maner of fruits, and gaue fruits euery moneth: and the leaues of the tree serued to heale the nations with.

3 And there shall be no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lambe shalbe in it, and his seruants shall serue him.

12 That is, foundation stones, according to the number of the gates, as is shewed verse 19.

13 A transition vnto a more exquisite description of the parts of the Church, by finding out the measure of the same by the Angel that measured them.

14 The measure and forme most equall in 12. verses.

b A foure squared figure hath equall sides, and outright corners, and therefore the Grecians call by this name those things that are steady, and of continuance, and perfect.

c He addeth this, because the Angel had the shape of a man.

15 The matter most precious and glittering which the preheminence of God maketh most glorious.

d By streete, he meaneth the broadest place of the citie. * Esa. 10. 19.

16 The second forme of particular description (as I said verse 12.) from forraine and outward accidents: which are these, Light from God himselfe, in this verse, glory from men, verse 24. peace & securitie from all harme, verse 25. Finally, such trueth and incorruption of glory (verse 26.) as can beare and abide with it, nothing that is inglorious, verse 20, 12. Phil. 4. 8.

1 Here is absolued and finished the description of the celestiall Church (as I shewed before chap. 21. 12.) by the effects in 5. verses, and then this booke is concluded in the rest of the chapter. The effects proceeding from God, who dwelleth in the Church are these: of the godly, as chap. 2. 7. the eternall fruits which the godly bring foorth vnto God, themselues and others, verse 1. 2. freedome and immunity from all euill. God himselfe taking pleasure in his seruants, and they likewise in their God, ver. 3. The beholding and sight of God, and sealing of the faithfull from all eternity, ver. 4. the light of God, and an euerlasting kingdome and glory, verse 5.

4 And

the euerlasting grace of God in this verse, the eternell liuing of the godly, as chap. 2. 7. the eternall fruits which the godly bring foorth vnto God, themselues and others, verse 1. 2. freedome and immunity from all euill. God himselfe taking pleasure in his seruants, and they likewise in their God, ver. 3. The beholding and sight of God, and sealing of the faithfull from all eternity, ver. 4. the light of God, and an euerlasting kingdome and glory, verse 5.

* Esai. 59, 19.

2 This whole booke is concluded and made vp by a confirmation, and a salutation. The confirmation hath three places: The words of the Angel vnto the 15. verse, the words of Christ: verse 16. 17. and the obtestation made by S. Iohn from diuine authority, thence vnto the 20 verse. By the speech of the Angel this prophecie is confirmed vnto the 5. verse, and then he speaketh of the vse of this booke in the verses following. The prophecie is first confirmed by the Angel from the nature thereof, that it is faithfull and true. Secondly, from the nature of the efficient cause, both principall, which is God, and instrumentall, which is the Angel in this

4 And they shall see his face, and his Name shalbe in their foreheads.

5 * And there shall be no night there, and they need no candle, neither light of the Sunne: for the Lord God giueth them light, and they shall reigne for euermore.

6 2 And hee sayd vnto mee, These words are faithfull and true: and the Lord God of the holy Prophets sent his Angel to shew vnto his seruants the things which must shortly be fulfilled.

7 Behold, I come shortly. Blessed is hee that keepeth the wordes of the prophecie of this booke.

8 And I am Iohn, which saw and heard these things: and when I had heard and seene, ✠ I fell downe to worship before the feete of the Angel which shewed me these things.

9 But he said vnto mee, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow seruant, and of thy brethren the Prophets, and of them which keepe the words of this booke: worship God.

10 3 And hee sayd vnto mee, 4 Seale not the wordes of the prophecie of this booke: for the time is at hand.

11 5 He that is vniust, let him be vniust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 6 And beholde, I come shortly, and my reward is with mee, ✠ to giue to euery man according as his worke shall be.

13 I am ✠ Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blessed are they, that doe his Commandements, 7 that their right may be in the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the Citie.

15 For without shallbe dogs and inchanters, and whoremongers, and murtherers, and Idolaters, and whosoeuer loueth or maketh lies.

16 8 I Iesus haue sent mine Angel, to testifie vnto you these things in the Churches: I am the root and the generation of Dauid, and the bright morning starre.

17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come: and let him that is athirst, come: and 9 let whosoeuer will, take of the water of life freely.

18 9 For I protest vnto euery man that heareth the words of the prophecie of this booke, If any man shall adde vnto these things, God shall adde vnto him the plagues that are written in this booke:

19 And if any man shall diminish of the words of the booke of this prophecie, God shall take away his part out of the booke of life, and out of the holy Citie, and from those things which are written in this booke.

20 10 He which testifieth these things, sayth, Surely I come quickely. Amen. Euen so, come Lord Iesus.

21 11 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all, AMEN.

THE END.

✠ Rom. 2. 6.

✠ Chap. 1, 8. and 21. 6. Esai. 41. 4. and 44. 6.

7 The blessednes of the godly set downe by their title and interest thereunto: and their fruit in the same.

8 The second place of confirmation, and that is the speech of Christ auouching the vocation of S. Iohn, and the authority of his calling, and testimonie, both from the condition of his owne person being God and man, in whom all the promises of God are Yea and Amen, 2. Cor. 1. 20. and also from the testification of other persons, by the acclamation of the holy Ghost, who here is as it were an honourable assistant of the marriage of the Church as the spouse: and of euery of the godly as members: and finally, from the thing present, that of their owne knowledge and accord they are called forth vnto the participation of the good things of God, verse 17.

Esai. 55. 1.

9 The obtestation of Saint Iohn (which is the third place of the confirmation, as was noted verse 6.) ioyned with a curse of execration, to preserue the truth of this booke entire and vncorrupted, in two verses. 10 A diuine confirmation of the obtestation: First from Christ auouching the same, and denouncing his comming against all those that shall put their sacrilegious hands thereunto: then from Saint Iohn himselfe, who by a most holy prayer calleth Christ to take vengeance of them. 11 The salutation Apostolicall, which is the other place of the conclusion, as I said, verse 6. and is the end almost of euery Epistle written we with vnto the Church, and to all the holy and elect members thereof in Christ Iesus our Lord, vntill his comming to iudgement, Come Lord Iesus, and do it, Amen, againe, Amen.

Veni Creator.

Thou art the very comforter
in all woe and diſtreſſe:
The heauenly gift of God moſt high,
Which no tongue can expreſſe.
The fountaine and the liuely ſpring of ioy celeſtiall:
The fire ſo bright, the loue ſo cleare,
and vnction ſpirituall.

Thou in thy gifts are manifold, whereby Chriſts Church doth ſtand,
In faithfull hearts writing thy Law
the finger of Gods hand.
According to thy promiſe made,
thou giueſt ſpeech of grace:
That through thy helpe the prayſe of God may ſtand in euery place.

O holy Ghoſt into our minds
ſend downe thy heauenly light:
Kindle our hearts with feruent loue,
to ſerue God day and night.
Strength and ſtabliſh all our weakneſſe
ſo feeble and ſo fraile,
That neither fleſh, the world nor diuell,
againſt vs doe preuaile.

Put backe our enemies farre from vs,
and graunt vs to obtaine:
Peace in our hearts with God and man, without grudge or diſdaine.
And grant O Lord, that thou being our leader and our guide:
We may eſchew the ſnares of ſinne,
and from thee neuer ſlide.

To vs ſuch plenty of thy grace,
good Lord grant we thee pray:
That thou maiſt be our comforter at the laſt dreadfull day.
Of all ſtrife and diſſention
O Lord diſſolue the bands:

The humble ſuit of a ſinner.

And make the knots of peace and loue, throughout all Chriſtian Lands.

Grant vs O Lord, through thee to know,
the Father moſt of might:
That of his deare beloued ſonne,
we may attaine the ſight.
And that with perfect faith alſo,
we may acknowledge thee:
The ſpirit of them both alway,
one God in perſons three.

Laud and prayſe be to the Father,
and to the ſonne equall:
And to the holy ſpirit alſo,
one God coeternall.
And pray we that thy onely Sonne, vouchſafe his ſpirit to ſend.
To all that doe profeſſe his name,
vnto the worlds end.

The humble ſuite of a Sinner.

But onely thou whoſe aide I craue, whoſe mercy ſtill is preſt:
To eaſe all thoſe that come to thee,
for ſuccour and for reſt.
And ſith thou ſeeſt my reſtleſſe eyes,
my teares and grieuous grone:
Attend vnto my ſuite O Lord, marke well my plaint and mone.

For ſinne hath ſo incloſed me,
And compaſſe me about,
That I am now remedileſſe,
if mercy helpe not out:
For mortall man cannot releaſe,
or mittigate this paine:
But euen thy Chriſt my Lord, and God, which for my ſinne was ſlaine.

Whoſe bloody wound are yet to ſee, though not with mortall eye:

Venite exultemus.

Yet doe thy Saints behold them all,
and so I truſt ſhall I.
Though ſinne doth hinder me a while,
when thou ſhalt ſee it good,
I ſhall enioy the ſight of him,
and ſee his wounds and blood.

And as thine Angels and thy Saints,
doe now behold the ſame:
So truſt I to poſſeſſe that place,
with them to praiſe thy name.
But whille I liue here in this vaile, where ſinners doe frequent, Aſſiſt me euer with thy grace,
my ſinnes ſtill to lament.

Leaſt that I tread in ſinners trace,
and giue them my conſent.
To dwell with them in wickednesſe,
whereto nature is bent.
Onely thy grace muſt be my ſtay, leaſt that I fall downe flat:
And being downe, then of my ſelfe, cannot recouer that.

Wherefore, this is yet once againe,
my ſuite and my requeſt,
To graunt me pardon for my ſinnes,
that I in thee may reſt.
Then ſhall my heart, my tongue, and voice,
be inſtruments of praiſe,
And in the Church and Houſe of Saints,
ſing Pſalmes to thee alwaies.

Venite exultemus. Pſal. xcv.

Sing this as the Benedictus.

O Come and let vs now reioyce,
And ſing vnto the Lord,
And to our onely ſauiour:
Alſo with one accord.
O let vs come before his face,
With inward reuerence,
Confeſſing all our former ſinnes,
And that with diligence.

To thanke him for his benefites,
Alway diſtributing:
Wherefore to him right ioyfully,
In Pſalmes now let vs ſing:
And that becauſe that God alone,
Is Lord magnificent,
And eke aboue all other Gods,
A King omnipotent.

His people doth not he forſake,
At any time or tide:
And in his hands are all the coaſts
Of all the world ſo wide.
And with his louing countenance
He looketh euery where:
And doth behold the tops of all;
The mountaines farre and neere.

The ſea and all that is therein
Are his, for he them made:
And eke his hand hath faſhioned,
The earth which doth not fade.
O come therefore and worſhip him,
And downe before him fall,
And let vs kneele before the Lord,
The which hath made vs all.

Te Deum.

Hee is our God, our Lord, and King,
And wee his people are:
His flockes and ſheepe of his paſture,
On whom he taketh care.
This day if ye will heare his voyce,
Yet harden not your heart,
As in their bitter murmuring,
When ye were in deſart.

Which thing was of their negligence
Committed in the time
Of trouble in the wilderneſſe:
A great and grieuous crime.
Whereas your fathers tempted me,
And tried me euery way:
They prooued mee and ſaw my workes,
What I could doe or ſay.

Theſe forty yeeres I haue bene grieued,
With all this generation?
And euermore I ſaid they erred
In their imagination.
Wherewith their hearts were ſore cumbred
Long time and many dayes, Wherefore I know aſſuredly,
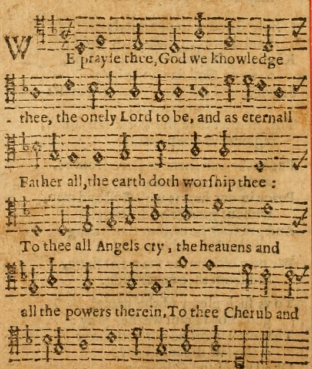
They haue not knowne my wayes.



To whom I in my anger ſwore,
That they ſhould not be bleſt,
Nor ſee my ioy celeſtiall,
Nor enter in my reſt.

Gloria Patri.

All laud and praiſe be to the Lord
O that of might art moſt:
To God the Father, and the Sonne,
And to the Holy Ghoſt.
As it in the beginning vvas,
For euer heretofore:
And is now at this preſent time,
And ſhall be euermore.

The ſong of S. Ambroſe, called

Te Deum.

O holy, holy, holy Lord,
of Sabboth Lord the God, Through heauen & earth thy praise is spread,
and glory all abroad
The Apostles glorious company
yeeld praises vnto thee:
The Prophets goodly fellowshig praise thee continually.

The noble and victorious hoast of Martyrs sound thy praise:
The holy Church throughout the world,
doth knowledge thee alwayes, Father of endlesse Maiestie
they doe acknowledge thee:
Thy Christ, thine honourable true, and onely sonne to be,

The holy Ghost the Comforter, of glory thou art King.
O Christ and of the Father art
the sonne euerlasting.
When sinfull mans decay in hand
thou tookest to restore,
To be inclos'd in virgins wombe
thou diddest not abhorre,

When thou hadst ouercome of death the sharpe and cruell might, Thou heauens kingdome didst set ope to each beleeuing wight,
In glory of the Father thou doest sit on Gods right hand:
We trust that thou shalt come our Iudge,
our cause to vnderstande.

Lord helpe thy seruants whom thou hast bought with thy precious blood:
And in eternall glory set them with thy Saints soo good.
O Lord, doe thou thy people saue, bleisse thine inheritance:
Lord gouerne them and Lord doe thou
For euer them aduance.

We magnifie thee day by day,
and world without an end Adore thy holy name, O Lord, vouchsafe vs to defend.
From sinne this day. Haue mercy Lord, haue mercy on vs all:
And on vs as we trust in thee,
Lord let thy mercy fall.

O Lord, I haue reposed all my confidence in thee:
Put to confounding shame therefore,
Lord let mee neuer be.

The song of the three Children,

praysing God, prouoking all creatures to doe the same.

O All ye workes of God the Lord, blesse yee the Lord, praise him, and magnifie him for euer.

2 O all ye Angels of the Lord,
blesse ye the Lord, &c 3 O ye starrie heauens hie,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
4 O ye the waters aboue the skie,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
5 O all ye powers of the Lord,
blesse ye the Lord &c.
6 O ye the shining Sunne and Moone,
blesse ye the Lord. &c,
7 O ye the glistering starrs of heauen,
blesse ye the Lord. &c.
8 O ye the showrs and dropping dew,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
9 O ye the blowing windes of God,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
10 O ye fire and warming heate,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
11 Ye winter and the summer tide,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
12 O ye the dewe, and binding frosts,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
13 O ye the frosts and chilling cold,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
14 O ye congealed ice and snow,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
15 O ye the nights and lightsome dayes,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
16 O ye the darkenesse and the light,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
17 O ye the lightnings and the clouds,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
18 O let the earth eke blesse the Lord, yea blesse the Lord, &c.
19 O ye the mountaines and the hills,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
20 O all ye greene things of the earth,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
21 O ye the euer springing wels,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
22 O ye the seas and ye the floods,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
23 Whales and all that in the waters moue,
blesse ye the Lord. &c.
24 O all ye flying fowles of the ayre,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
25 O all ye beasts and cattell eke,
blesse ye the Lord. &c.
26 O ye the children of mankind,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
27 Let Israel eke blesse the Lord,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
28 O ye the Priests of God the Lord,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
29 O ye the seruants of the Lord,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

The song of Zacharias, called Benedictus.

THe onely Lord of Israel be praised euermore : For through his visitation and mercy kept in store, His people now he hath redeem'd, that long hath bene in thrall : And spread abroad his sauing health vpon his seruants all.

In Dauids house his seruant true,
According to his minde :
And also his anoynted King,
As we in Scripture finde.
As by his holy Prophets all,
Ofttimes he did declare :
The which were since the world began,
His wayes for to prepare.

That we might be deliuered
From those that make debate :
Our enemies, and from the hands,
Of all that doe vs hate.
The mercies which he promised
Our fathers, to fulfill,
And thinke vpon his couenant made
According to his will.

And also to performe his oath,
Which he before had sworne
To Abraham our father deare,
For vs that were forlorne.
That he would giue himselfe for vs,
And vs from bondage bring,
Out of the hands of all our foes,
To serue our heauenly King.

And that without all manner feare,
And eke in righteousnesse :
And also for to lead our liues
In stedfast holinesse.
And thou O childe which now art borne,
And of the Lord elect,
Shalt be the Prophet of the highest,
His wayes for to direct.

For thou shalt goe before his face
For to prepare his wayes :
And also for to teach his will
And pleasure all thy dayes.
To giue them knowledge how that their Saluation is neere,
And that remission of their sinnes
Is through his mercy meere.

Whereby the Day-spring from on high
Is come vs for to visit :
And those for to illuminate :
Which doe in darkenesse sit.
To lighten those that shadowed be
With death and eke oppresse :
And also for to guide their feete
The way to peace and rest.

The Song of the blessed Mary, called Magnificat.

MY soule doth magnifie the Lord, my spirit eke euermore, Reioyceth in the Lord

my God, which is my Sauiour. And why?

because he did regard, and gaue respect vnto, So base estate of his handmaid, and let the mighty goe.

For now behold all nations,
And generations all,
From this time forth for euermore
Shall me right blessed call.
Because he hath me magnified
Which is the Lord of might :
Whose name be euer sanctified,
And praised day and night.

For with his mercy and his grace
All men he doth enflame,
Throughout all generations,
To such as feare his name.
He shewed strength with his great arme,
And made the proud to start,
With all imaginations
That they bare in their heart.

He hath put downe the mighty ones
From their supernall seat :
And did exalt the meeke in heart,
As he hath thought it meet.
The hungry he repleniished
With all things that were good :
And through his power he made the rich
Ofttimes to want their food.

And calling to remembrance
His mercy euery deale
Hath holpen vp assistantly
His seruant Israel,
According to his promise made To Abraham before,
And to his seede successiuely,
To stand for euermore.

The ſong of Simeon called, Nunc dimittis.

O Lord, becauſe my hearts deſire, hath wiſhed long to ſee, My onely Lord and Sauiour, thy Sonne before I die:

The ioy and health of all mankinde, deſired long before, which now is come into the world, of mercy bringing ſtore.

Thou ſuffreſt thy ſeruant now,
In peace for to depart,
According to thy holy word,
Which lighteneth my heart:
Becauſe mine eyes which thou haſt made,
To giue my body light:
Haue now behold thy ſauing health
Which is the Lord of might.

Whom thou mercifully haſt ſet,
Of thy abundant grace;
In open ſight and viſible,
Before all peoples face.
The Gentiles to illuminate,
And Sathan ouerquell:
And eke to be the glory of Thy people Iſrael.

The Symbole or Creede of Athanaſius, called, Quicunque vult.

WHat man ſoeuer he be that, ſaluation will attaine, the Catholike beliefe he muſt before all things retaine: Which faith vnleſſe he holy keepe and vndefiledly:

Without all doubt eternally, he ſhall be ſure to die.

The Catholike beliefe is this,
that God we worſhip one In Trinity, and Trinity in vnity alone,
So as we neither doe confound
the perſons of the three,

Quicunque vult.

Nor yet the ſubſtance whole of one,
in ſunder parted be:

One perſon of the father is,
another of the ſonne:
Another perſon proper of the holy Ghoſt alone.
Of father, ſonne and holy Ghoſt, but one the Godhead is:
Like glory coeternall eke,
the maieſtie likewiſe.

Such as the father is, ſuch is the ſonne in each degree:
And ſuch alſo we doe beleeue
the holy Ghoſt to be.
Vncreate is the father, and vncreate is the ſonne:
The holy Ghoſt vncreate ſo, vncreate is each one.

Incomprehenſible father is,
incomprehenſible ſonne,
And comprehenſible alſo is,
the holy Ghoſt of none.
The father is eternall, and the ſonne eternall ſo:
And in like ſort eternall is,
the holy Ghoſt alſo.

And yet though we beleeue that each of theſe eternall be;
Yet there but one eternall is,
and not eternalls three.
As ne incomprehenſible we ne yet vncreate three.
But one incomprehenſible, one vncreate hold to be.

Almighty ſo the father is,
the ſonne almighty ſo:
And in like ſort almighty is
the holy Ghoſt alſo.
And albeit that euery one,
of theſe almighty be:
Yet there but one almighty is,
and not almighties three.

The father God is, God the ſonne,
God holy Ghoſt alſo:
Yet there are not three Gods in all
But one God and no moe:
So likewiſe Lord the father is,
and Lord alſo the ſonne,
And Lord the holy Ghoſt, yet are there not three Lords but one.

For as we are compell'd to grant
by Chriſtian verity:
Each of the perſons by himſelfe, both God and Lord to be.
So Catholike Religion, forbidden vs alway,
That either Gods be three, or that there Lords be three to ſay.

Of none the father is ne made,
ne create nor begot.
The ſonne is of the father, not create, ne made, but got.
The holy Ghoſt is of them both the father and the ſonne:
Ne made, ne create, nor begot,
but doth proceede alone.

So we one Father hould not three,
one Sonne also not three :
One holy Ghost alone, and not three holy Ghosts to be.
None in this Trinitie before, nor after other is,
Ne greater any then the rest,
ne lesser is likewise.

But euery one among themselues, of all the persons three,
Together coeternall all,
and all coequall be :
So vnity in Trinity,
as said it is before.
And trinity in vnity,
in all things we adore.

Therefore what man soeuer that saluation will attaine :
This faith touching the trinite,
of force we must retaine.
And needfull to eternall life,
it is that euery wight
Of the incarnating of Christ
our Lord beleeue a right.

For this the right faith is, that we beleeue and eke doe know, That Christ our Lord the Sonne of God, is God and man also :
God of his fathers substance got before the world began,
And of his mothers substance borne,
in world a very man.

Both perfect God and perfect man,
in one, one Iesus Christ,
That doth of reasonable soule,
and humaine flesh subsist.
Touching his Godhead equall with,
his father God is he,
Touching his manhood lower then,
his father in degree.

Who though he be both very God,
and very man also :
Yet is he but one Christ alone,
and is not persons two.
One not by turning of Godhead, into the flesh of man :
But by taking manhood to God,
this being one began.

All one, not by confounding of the substance into one.
But onely by the vnity,
that is of one person.
For as the reasonable soule,
and flesh but one man is.
So in one person God and man, is but one Christ likewise.

Who suffred for to saue vs all,
to hell he did descend :
The third day rose againe from death,
to heauen he did ascend.
He sits at the right hand of God,
the Almighty father there.
From thence to iudge the quicke and dead,
againe he shall retire,

At whose returne all men shall rise, with bodies new restorde :

And of their owne workes they shall giue account vnto the Lord.
And they into eternall life shall goe, that haue done well, Who haue done ill, shall goe into eternall fire to dwell.

This is the Catholike beliefe, who doth not faithfully Beleeue the same, without all doubt, he saued cannot be.
To father, sonne, and holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore.
As in beginning was, is now,
and shalbe euermore.

The lamentation of a sinner M.

And call me not to mine accounts,
How I haue liued here :
For then I know right well, O Lord,
How vile I shall appeare :
I need not to confesse my life,
I am sure thou canst tell :
What I haue beene, and what I am,
I know thou knowest it well,
O Lord thou knowest what things be past,
And eke the things that be,
Thou knowest also what is to come,
Nothing is hid from thee :
Before the heauens & the earth were made Thou knewest what things were then :
As all things else that hath beene since,
Among the Sonnes of men.

And can the things that I haue done,
Be hidden from thee then ?
Nay, nay thou knowest them all, O Lord,
Where they were done and when.
Wherefore with teares I come to thee,
To beg and to intreat:

Euen

The Lords prayer.

Euen as the Child that hath done euill,
And feareth to be beat,
So come I to thy mercy gate where mercy doth abound, Requiring mercy for my sinne.
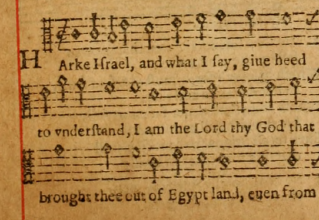
To heale my deadly wound.
O Lord I need not to repeate,
What I doe beg or craue:
Thou know'st, O Lord, before I aske,
The thing that I would haue.
Mercy good Lord, mercy I aske,
This is the totall summe:
For mercy Lord is all my suite,
Lord let thy mercy come.



The Lords prayer, or

Pater Noster.

The X. Commandements.

No maner grauen image shalt thou make at all to be,
Nor any figure like by thee, shall conterfaited be,
Or any thing in heauen aboue,
nor in the earth below:
Nor in the waters beneath the earth,
to them thou shalt not bow,

Nor shalt thou serue. The Lord thy God,
a iealous God am I,
That punish parent faults vnto
the third and fourth degree.
Vpon their children that me hate, and mercy doe display
To thousands of such as me loue, and my precepts obey:

The name thou of thy Lord thy God,
in vaine shalt neuer vse:
For him that takes his name in vaine,
the Lord will not excuse, Remember that thou holy keepe,
the sacred Sabbath day:
Sixe dayes thou labour shalt and doe,
thy needfull works alway.

The seuenth day is set by the Lord,
thy God to rest vpon,
No worke then shalt thou doe in it,
ne thou, nor yet thy sonne:
Thy daughter, seruant, nor handmaid,
thine Oxe nor yet thine Asse:
Nor stranger that within thy gates,
hath his abiding place:

For in sixe dayes God heauen and earth,
and all therein did make:
And after those his rest he did vpon the seuenth day take.
Wherefore he blest the day that he
for resting did ordaine:
And sacred to himselfe alone, appointed to remaine.

Yeeld honour to thy parents that prolongd thy dayes may be:
Vpon the land the which the Lord,
thy God hath giuen thee:
Thou shalt not murther: thou shalt not commit adultery:
Thou shalt not steale, nor witnesse false against thy neighbour be.

Thou shalt not couet house that to thy neighbour doth belong:
Ne couet shalt in hauing of his wife to doe him wrong.

Nor his man-seruant, nor his maide:
Nor oxe, nor asse of his,
Nor any other thing that to thy neighbour proper is.

The Complaint of a sinner, who craueth of Christ, to be kept vnder his mercie.

Here righteousnesse doth say, Lord for my sinfull part. In wrath thou shouldst me pay, Vengeance for my desart, I can it not deny, but needs I must confesse, how that continually thy lawes I doe transgresse, thy lawes I doe transgresse.

But if it be thy will
With sinners to contend,
Then all thy flocke shall spill,
And be lost without end.
For who liueth heere so right,
That rightly he can say,
He sinnes not in thy sight,
Full oft and euery day?

The Scripture plaine tels me
The righteous man offendeth
Seuen times a day to thee,
Whereon thy wrath dependeth.
So that the righteous man,
Doth walke in no such path,
But he fall'th now and than
In danger of thy wrath.

Then sith the case so stands,
That euen the man right wise
Fall'th oft in sinfull bands,
Whereby thy wrath may rise,
Lord I that am vniust,
And righteousnesse none haue,
Whereto then shall I trust,
My sinfull soule to saue?

But truely to that post,
Whereto I cleaue and shall,
Which is thy mercy most,
Lord let thy mercy fall.
And mittigate thy moode,
Or else wee perish all,
The price of this thy blood,
Wherein mercy I call.

The Scripture doth declare,
No drop of blood in thee,
But that thou didst not spare,
To shed each drop for me.
Now let those drops most sweete,

So moist my heart so drie,
That I with sinne repleat,
May liue and sinne may die.

That being mortified,
This sinne of mine in me:
I may be sanctified,
By grace of thine in thee:
So that I neuer fall,
Into such mortall sinne,
That my foes infernall,
Reioyce my death therein.

But vouchsafe me to keepe
From those infernall foes,
And from that lake so deepe,
Whereas no mercie growes.
And I shall sing the songs Confirmed with the iust,
That vnto thee belongs,
Which art mine onely trust.

FINIS.

THE PSALMES OF DAVID.

Beatus vir. Psalme I. T.S.

This Psalme is set first, as a preface to exhort all godly men to studie and meditate the heauenly wisedome: for they are blessed that so doe, but the wicked contemners thereof at length shall come to misery.

HE man is blest that hath not bent, to wicked reade his eare: nor led his life as sinners do, nor sate in scorners chaire. 2. But in the Law of God the Lord doth set his whole delight: And in that Law doth exercise himselfe both day and night.

3 He shall be like the tree that growes fast by the riuers side:
Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit,
in her due time and tide.
Whose leafe shall neuer fade nor fall,
but flourish still and stand:
Euen so all things shall prosper well that this man takes in hand.

4 So shall not the vngodly men, they shall be nothing so:

But

But as the dust which from the earth
the winde driues to and fro.
5 Therefore shall not the wicked men in iudgement stand vpright:
Nor yet the sinners with the iust, shall come in place or sight.

6 For why? the way of godly men
vnto the Lord is knowne:
And eke the way of wicked men shall quite be ouerthrowne.

Quare fremuerunt? Psal.ij.T.S.

Dauid reioyceth, that albeit enemies and worldly power rage, God will aduance his kingdome, euen to the farthest end of the world. Therefore hee exhorteth Princes humbly to submit themselues vnder the same. Herein is signifyed Christ and his Kingdome.

Sing this as the 1. Psalme.

WHy did the Gentiles tumult raise,
what rage was in their braine?
Why did the Iewish people muse, seeing all is but vaine?
2 The kings and rulers of the earth conspire, and are all bent, Against the Lord and Christ his sonne, which he among vs sent.

3 Shall we be bound to them, say they?
let all their bonds be broke:
And of their doctrine and their law
let vs reiect the yoke.
4 But he that in the heauen dwels their doings will deride:
And make them all as mocking stockes
throughout the world so wide.

5 For in his wrath the Lord will say,
to them vpon a day,
And in his fury trouble them,
and then the Lord will say:
6 I haue anoynted him my King,
vpon my holy hill:
I will therefore, Lord preach thy lawes, and eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wise the Lord himselfe did say to me I wot:
Thou art my deare and onely sonne,
to day I thee begot.
8 All people I will giue to thee,
as heyres at thy request:
The ends and coasts of all the earth,
by thee shalbe possest.

9 Thou shalt them bruise euen with a mace,
as men vnder foot trod:
And as the potters sheards shalt breake them with an iron rod.
10 Now yee, O Kings and rulers all,
be wise therefore and learn'd:
By whom the matters of the world be iudged and discern'd.

11 See that ye serue the Lord aboue in trembling and in feare:
See that with reuerence ye reioyce to him in like manner.
12 See that ye kisse and eke embrasse his blessed Sonne I say:
Least in his wrath ye suddainely perish in the mid way.
13 If once his wrath neuer so small,
shall kindle in his breast:
Oh then all they that trust in Christ shall happy be and blest.

Domine quid? Psal.iij.T.S.

Dauid driuen out of his kingdome by his sonne Absalon, was greatly tormented in his minde for his sin. Therefore he calleth vpon God, and is bold in his promises, against the terrour both of enemies and present death. Then he reioyceth for the victory giuen to him and the Church, ouer their enemies.

O Lord, how are my foes increast, which vexe me more and more? 2. They kill mine heart when as thy say, God can him not restore. But thou, O Lord, art my defence, when I am hard bested: My worship and mine honour both, and thou holdst vp mine head.

4 Then with my voyce vpon the Lord,
I did both call and cry:
And he out of his holy hill did heare me by and by.
5 I layd me downe, and quietly
I slept and rose againe:
For why? I know assuredly
The Lord will me sustaine.

6 If ten thousand had hem'd me in,
I could not be affraid:
For thou art still my Lord, my God,
my Sauiour and mine aide.
7 Rise vp therefore, saue me my God,
for now to thee I call:
For thou hast broke the cheekes and teeth of these wicked men all.
8 Saluation onely doth belong to thee, O Lord aboue:
Thou dost bestow vpon thy folke thy blessing and thy loue.

Cum inuocarem. Psal.iiij.T.S.

Dauid persecuted by Saul, calleth vpon God, with assured trust, reproueth his enemies for resisting his dominion, and preferreth the fauour of God before all treasure.

Sing this as the 1. Psalme.

O God, that art my righteousnesse,
Lord heare me when I call:
Thou hast set me at liberty when

when I was bound and thrall.
2 Haue mercy Lord therefore on me,
and grant me my requeſt:
For vnto thee vnceſſantly to cry I will not reſt.
3 O mortall men how long will ye, my glory thus diſpiſe?
Why wander ye in vanitie,
and follow after lies?
4 Know ye that good and godly men,
the Lord doth take and chuſe:
And when to him I make my plaint
he doth me not refuſe.
5 Sinne not but ſtand in awe therefore,
examine well your heart:
And in your chamber quietly
ſee you your ſelues conuert.
6 Offer to God the ſacrifice of righteouſneſſe, I ſay, And looke that in the liuing Lord
you put your truſt alway.
7 The greater ſort crane worldly goods,
and riches doe embrace:
But Lord grant vs thy countenance,
thy fauour and thy grace.
8 For thou thereby ſhalt make my heart more ioyfull and more glad,
Then they that of their corne and wine,
full great increaſe haue had.
9 In peace therefore lie downe will I,
taking my reſt and ſleepe:
For thou onely wilt me, O Lord, alone in ſafety keepe.

Verba mea auribus. Pſal.v. T.S.

Dauid perſecuted by Doeg and Achitophell, Sault flatterers, calleth vpon God to puniſh their malice. Then aſſured of ſucceſſe, he receiueth comfort.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

INcline thine eare vnto my word,
O Lord my plaint conſider:
2 And heare my voyce, my King, my God,
to thee I make my prayer.
3 Heare me betime Lord tarry not,
for I will haue reſpect,
My prayer earely in the morne to thee for to direct.
4 And I will truſt through patience,
in thee my God alone:
That art not pleaſde with wickedneſſe,
and ill with thee dwels none.
5 And in thy ſight ſhall neuer ſtand
theſe furious fooles O Lord:
Vaine workers of iniquitie thou haſt alwaies abhord.
6 The lyars and the flatters, thou ſhalt deſtroy them than:
And God will hate the blood-thirſtie,
and the deceitfull man.
7 Therefore will I come to thy houſe, truſting vpon thy grace:
And reuerently will worſhip thee, toward thy holy place.
8 Lord lead me in thy righteouſneſſe, for to confound my foes:
And eke the wayes that I ſhall walke,
before my face diſcloſe.
9 For in their mouths there is no truth, their hearts are foule and vaine:
Their throat an open ſepulchre, their tongues doe gloſe and faine.
10 Deſtroy their falſe conſpiracies, that they may come to nought:
Subuert them in their heapes of ſinne, which haue rebellion wrought.
11 But thoſe that put their truſt in thee,
let them be glad alwaies:
And render thankes for thy defence,
and giue thy name the praiſe.
12 For thou with fauour wilt increaſe the iuſt and righteous ſtill:
And with thy grace as with a ſhield.
defend him from all ill.

Domine in furore. Pſal.vj. T.S.

Dauid for his ſinnes felt Gods hand, and conceiueth the horror of euerlaſting death. Therefore he deſireth forgiuenes, and not to die in Gods indignation: then ſudainely feeling Gods mercy, he rebuketh his enemies, who reioyced at his afflictions.

Sing this as them. Pſalme.

LOrd in thy wrath reproue me not,
though I deſerue thine ire:
Nor yet correct me in thy rage,
O Lord, I thee deſire:
2 For I am weake, therefore, O Lord,
of mercy me forbeare:
And heale me Lord, for why? thou knoweſt,
my bones doe quake for feare.
3 My ſoule is troubled very ſore,
and vexed vehemently:
But Lord how long wilt thou delay to cure my miſerie:
4 Lord turne thee to thy wonted grace,
my filly ſoule vp take:
O ſaue me not for my deſerts,
but for thy mercies ſake.
5 For why? no man among the dead remembreth thee one whit.
Or who ſhall worſhip thee, O Lord,
in the infernall pit?
6 So grieuous is my plaint and moane, that I waxe wondrous faint:
All the night long I waſh my bed,
with teares of my complaint.
7 My ſight is dim and waxeth olde, with anguiſh of my heart:
For feare of thoſe that be my foes,
and would my ſoule ſubuert.
8 But now away from me all ye,
that worke iniquitie:
For why? the Lord hath heard the voyce of my complaint and cry.
9 He heard not onely the requeſt, and prayer of my heart:
But it receiued at my hand,
and tooke it in good part.
10 And now my foes that vexed me
the Lord will ſoone defame:
And ſodainly confound them all,
to their rebuke and ſhame.

Domine

Domine Deus meus. Pſal. vij. T. S.

David falſely accuſed by Chuſh Sauls kinſman, calleth God to be his defender. Firſt, for that his conſcience did not accuſe him of any euill towards Saul. Next that it toucheth Gods glorie to award ſentence againſt the wicked. And ſo vpon Gods mercies and promiſes he waxeth bold, threatning that it ſhall fall vpon their neckes, that which his enemies purpoſed for others.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

O Lord my God I put my truſt, and confidence in thee:
Saue me from them that me purſue,
and eke deliuer me.
2 Leaſt like a Lyon they me teare,
and rent in pieces ſmall:
Whileſt there is none to ſuccour me,
and rid me out of thrall,
3 O Lord my God, if I haue done
the thing that is not right:
Or elſe if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy ſight.
4 Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or left him in diſtreſſe,
Which me purſued moſt cruelly,
and hated me cauſeleſſe:
5 Then let my foes purſue my ſoule, and eke my life downe thruſt Vnto the earth, and alſo lay mine honour in the duſt.
6 Start vp, O Lord, now in thy wrath,
and put my foes to paine:
Performe thy kingdom promiſed, to me which wrong ſuſtaine.
7 Then ſhall great nations come to thee,
and know thee by this thing:
If thou declare for loue of them thy ſelfe as Lord and King.
8 And thou that art of all men Iudge,
O Lord now iudge thou mee
According to thy righteouſneſſe,
and mine integritie,

The ſecond part.

9 Lord ceaſe the hate of wicked men,
and be the iuſt mans guide:
By whom the ſecrets of all hearts are ſearched and deſcride.
10 I take mine helpe to come of God,
in all my griefe and ſmart:
That doth preſerue all thoſe that be of pure and perfect heart.
11 The iuſt man and the wicked both God iudgeth by his power:
So that hee feeleth his mighty hand
euen euery day and houre.
12 Except he change his minde, I die, for euen as he ſhould ſmite:
He whets his ſword, his bow he bends, ayming where he may hit.
13 And doth prepare his mortall darts, his arrowes keene and ſharpe:
For them that doe me perſecute, whiles he doth miſchiefe warpe.
14 But loe, though he in trauell be of his diueliſh forcaſt:
And of his miſchefe once conceiued,
yet brings forth nought at laſt.
15 He digs a ditch, and delues it deepe,
in hope to hurt his brother,
But he ſhall fall into the pit,
that he digd vp for other.
16 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt of him in whom it bred:
And all the miſchiefe that he wrought
ſhall fall vpon his head.
17 I will giue thankes to God therefore,
that iudgeth righteouſly:
And with my ſong will praiſe the name,
of him that is moſt hie.

Domine Deus noſter. Pſa. viij. T. S.

The Prophet conſidering the excellent liberality, and fatherly prouidence of God towards man, whom he made as it were a God ouer all his works, giueth thankes, and is aſtoniſhed with the admiration of the ſame.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

O God our Lord how wonderfull, are thy workes euery where?
Whoſe fame ſurmounts in dignity,
aboue the heauens cleare.
2 Euen by the mouthes of ſucking babes, thou wilt confound thy foes:
For in theſe babes thy might is ſeene,
thy graces they diſcloſe.
3 And when I ſee the heauens high,
the workes of thine owne hand:
The Sunne, the Moone, and all the Starres,
in order as they ſtand.
4 What thing is man, Lord, thinke I then that thou doſt him remember?
Or what is mans poſterity, that thou doſt him conſider?
5 For thou haſt made him little leſſe,
then Angels in degree:
And thou haſt crowned him alſo with glory and dignity.
6 Thou haſt preferr'd him to be Lord of all thy workes of wonder:
And at his feete haſt ſet all things,
that he ſhould keepe them vnder.
7 As ſheepe, and neate, and all beaſts elſe that in the fields doe feede:
8 Fowles of the aire, fiſh of the ſea, and all that therein breed.
9 Therefore muſt I ſay once againe,
O God that art our Lord:
How famous and how wonderfull, are thy workes through the world!

Confitebor tibi Domine Pſ. ix. T. S.

David giving thankes for his manifold victories received, deſireth the ſame vnited helpe againſt againſt his newe enemies, and their malicious arrogancy to be deſtroyed.

Sing this as the 4 Pſalme.

WIth heart and mouth vnto thee, Lord,
will I ſing laud and prayſe:
And ſpeake of all thy wondrous works,
and them declare alwayes.
2 I will be glad and much reioyce,
in thee O Lord moſt hie:
And make my ſongs extoll thy name,
aboue the ſtarry ſkie.

3 For that my foes are driuen backe,
and turned vnto flight:
They fall downe flat, and are destroid by thy great force and might.
4 Thou hast reuenged all my wrong,
my griefe and all my grudge:
Thou dost with iustice heare my cause,
most like a righteous Iudge.

5 Thou dost rebuke the heathen folke, and wicked so confound:
That afterward the memory of them cannot be found.
6 My foes thou hast made good dispatch, and all their townes destroyd:
Thou hast their fame with them defac'd,
Through all the world so wide.

7 Know thou that he which is aboue, for euermore shall raigne:
And in the seat of equitie,
true iudgement will maintaine.
8 With iustice he will keepe and guide,
the world and euery wight:
And so will yeeld with equity,
to euery man his right.

9 He is Protector of the poore, what time they be oppreſt:
He is in all aduersitie,
their refuge and their rest:
10 All they that know thy holy Name, therefore shall trust in thee:
For thou forsakest not their suite,
in their necessitie.

The second part.

11 Sing Psalmes therefore vnto the Lord, that dwels in Sion hill:
Publish among all Nations his noble acts and will.
12 For he is mindfull of the blood of those that be oppreſt.
Forgetting not the afflicted heart,
that seekes to him for rest.

13 Haue mercy Lord on me poore wretch, whose enemies still remaine:
Which from the gates of death art wont to raise me vp againe.
14 In Sion that I may set forth thy prayse with heart and voyce:
And that in thy saluation Lord,
my soule may still reioyce.

15 The heathen sticke fast in the pit, that they themselues preparde:
And in the net that they did set,
their owne feete fast are snarde.
16 God sheweth his iudgements which were (good for euery man to marke:
When as you see the wicked man lie trapt in his owne warke.

17 The wicked, and the sinfull men
goe downe to hell for euer:
And all the people of the world,
that will not God remember.
18 But sure the Lord will not forget the poore mans griefe and paine:
The patient people neuer looke for helpe of God in vaine.

19 O Lord arise, least men preuaile that be of worldly might.
And let the heathen folke receiue their iudgement in thy sight.
20 Lord, strike such terrour, feare and dread into the hearts of them,
That they may know assuredly they be but mortall men.

Vt quid Domine. Psal. x. T. S.

Hee complaineth of all the wrongs which worldly men vse because of their prosperity, who therefore without all feare of God, thinke they may doe all things vncontrouled. He calleth for remedie against such, and is comforted with the hope thereof.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

WHat is the cause, that thou, O Lord,
art now so farre from thine:
And keepest close thy countenance,
from vs this troublous time?
2 The poore doe perish by the proud,
and wicked mens desire:
Let them be taken in their craft,
that they themselues conspire.

3 For in the lust of their owne heart,
th'vngodly doth delight:
So doth the wicked prayse himselfe, and doth the Lord despite.
4 He is so proud, that right and wrong
He setteth all apart:
Nay, nay, there is no God, saith he for thus he thinks in heart.

5 Because his waies doe prosper still,
he doth thy lawes neglect:
And with a blast doth puffe against such as would him correct.
6 Tush, tush, saith he, I haue no dread, least mine estate should change:
And why? for all aduersity to him is very strange.

7 His mouth is full of cursednesse, of fraude, deceit, and guile:
Vnder his tongue doth mischiefe sit,
and trauell all the while.
8 He lieth hid in waies and holes,
to slay the innocent:
Against the poore that passe him by,
his cruell eies are bent.

9 And like a Lion priuily, lies lurking in his den:
(If he may snare them in his net)
to spoile poore simple men.
10 And for the nonce full craftily
he coucheth downe, I say:
11 So are great heapes of poore men made by his strong power, his pray.

The second part.

12 Tush, God forgetteth this, saith he, therefore may I be bold:
His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold, 13 Arise, O Lord, O God in whom the poore mans hope doth rest:
Lift vp thine hand, forget not Lord,
the poore that be oppreſt.

14 What blasphemy is this to thee,
Lord, dost thou not abhorre it?

To heare the wicked in their hearts say, Tuſh, thou careſt nor for it.
15 But thou ſeeſt all their wickednesse, and wel doſt vnderſtand :
16 That friendleſſe and poore fatherleſſe are left into thy hand.

17 Of wicked and malicious men, then breake the power for euer :
That they with their iniquity may periſh altogether.
18 The Lord ſhall reigne for euermore, as King and God alone :
And he will chaſe the heathen folke,
out of his land each one.

19 Thou heareſt (O Lord) the poore mens their prayers and requeſt : (plaint Their hearts thou wilt confirme vntill thine eares to heare be preſt.
20 To iudge the poore and fatherleſſe, and helpe them to their right :
That they may be no more oppreſt with men of worldly might.

In Domino. Pſal.xj.T.S.

This Pſalme ſheweth firſt what aſſaults of temptation and anguiſh of minde he ſuſtained in perſecution. Next, he reioyceth that God ſent him ſuccour in neceſſitie, declaring his iuſtice as well in gouerning the good and wicked men, as the whole world.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

I Truſt in God : how dare ye then say thus my ſoule vntill, Fly hence as faſt as any foule and hide you in your hill?
2 Behold the wicked bend their bowes,
and make their arrowes preſt,
To ſhoot in ſecret, and to hurt
the ſound and harmeleſſe breſt.

3 Of wordly hope all ſtayes were ſhrunke, and clearely brought to nought :
Alas, the iuſt and righteous man,
what euill hath he wrought?
4 But he that in his temple is,
moſt holy and moſt hie :
And in the heauens hath his ſeate of royall maieſtie,
The poore and ſimple mans eſtate conſidereth in his minde :
And ſearcheth out full narrowly the manners of mankinde.
5 And with a chearefull countenance the righteous man will vſe :
But in his heart he doth abhorre all ſuch as miſchiefe muſe.
6 And on the ſinners caſteth ſnares,
as thick as any raine :
Fire and brimſtone, and whirle-windes thick, appointed for their paine.
7 Ye ſee then how a righteous God doth righteouſneſſe imbrace :
And to the iuſt and vpright man ſhewes forth his pleaſant face.

Saluum me fac. Pſal.xij.T.S.

The Prophet ſeeing the miſerable decay of all good order, deſireth God ſpeedily to ſend reformation. Then comforted with the aſſurance of Gods helpe and promiſes, concludeth that when al orders are moſt corrupted, then God will deliver his.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

HElpe Lord for good and godly men
doe periſh and decay,
And faith and trueth from wordly men,
is parted cleane away.
2 Who ſo doth with his neighbour talke, his talke is all but vaine :
For euery man beſhinketh how to flatter, lie, and faine.

3 But flattering and deceitfull lips,
and tongues that be ſo ſtout,
To ſpeake proud words & make great brags,
the Lord ſoone cuts them out.
4 For they ſay ſtill, we will preuaile, our tongues ſhall vs extoll :
Our tongues are ours, we ought to ſpeake,
what Lord ſhall vs controll ?

5 But for the great complaint and cry of poore men and oppreſt, Ariſe will I, now ſaith the Lord,
and them reſtore to reſt.
6 Gods word is like to ſilner pure, that from the earth is tride :
And hath no leſſe then ſeuen times in fire bene purified.

7 Now ſince thy promiſe is to helpe,
Lord keepe thy promiſe then :
And ſaue vs now and euermore from this ill kinde of men.
8 For now this wicked world is full of miſchiefes manifold,
When vanity with mortall men
ſo highly is extold.

Vſque quo Domine. Pſal.xiij.T.S.

Dauid, as it were ouercome with afflictions, flyeth to God his onely refuge, and encouraged through Gods promiſes, hee conceiueth confidence againſt the extreame horrours of death.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

HOw long wilt thou forget me Lord ?
ſhall I ne'er be remembred ?
How long wilt thou thy viſage hide,
as if thou were offended ?
2 In heart and minde how long ſhall I with care tormented be ?
How long eke ſhall my deadly foe
thus triumph ouer me ?

3 Behold me now O Lord my God, and heare me ſore oppreſt :
Lighten mine eyes leaſt that I ſleepe,
as one by death poſſeſt.
4 Leaſt thus mine enemie ſay to me,
behold I doe preuaile :
Leaſt they alſo that hate my ſoule
reioyce to ſee me quaile.

5 But from thy mercies and goodnes my hope ſhall neuer ſtart :
In thy reliefe and ſauing health, right glad ſhalbe mine heart.
6 I will giue thankes vnto the Lord,
and praiſes to him ſing :
Becauſe he hath heard my requeſt, and granted my wiſhing.

Dixit inſipiens. Pſal.xiiij. T. S.

He deſcribeth the wickednesse of men, so growne to such licentiousnesse, that God was brought to vtter contempt, for which albeit he was greatly grieved, yet perſwaded that God would redresse it, he is comforted.

3 They went all wide and were corrupt, and truely there was none:
That in the world did any good,
I ſay there was not one.
4 Is all their iudgement ſo far loſt, that all worke miſchiefe ſtill:
Eating my people euen as bread, not one to ſeeke Gods will?

5 When they thus rage, then ſuddenly great feare on them ſhall fall:
For God doth loue the righteous men,
and will maintaine them all.
6 Ye mocke the doings of the poore, to their reproach and ſhame:
Becauſe they put their truſt in God,
and call vpon his name.

7 But who ſhall giue thy people health, and when wilt thou fulfill:
The promiſe made to Iſrael
from out of Sion hill?
8 Euen when thou ſhalt reſtore againe
ſuch as were captiue lad:
Then Iacob ſhall therein reioyce,
and Iſrael ſhalbe glad.

Domine quis? Pſal.xv. T.S.

Here is taught why God choſe the Iewes his peculiar people, and placed his temple among them, which was, that they by liuing vprightly, might witneſſe, that they were his holy ſpeciall people.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

O Lord within thy tabernacle who ſhall inhabite ſtill?
Or whom wilt thou receiue to dwell in thy moſt holy hill?
2 The man whoſe life is vncorrupt, whoſe workes are iuſt and ſtraight:
Whoſe heart doth thinke the very trueth, whoſe tongue ſpeakes no deceit.

3 Nor to his neighbour doth none ill in body, goods, or name:
Nor willingly doth mooue falſe tales which might impaire the ſame.
4 That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men,
But thoſe that loue and feare the Lord
he maketh much of them.

5 His oath and all his promiſes that keepeth faithfully:
Although he make his couenant ſo, that he doth loſe thereby.
6 That putteth not to vſury his money, and his coine:
Ne for to hurt the innocent, doth bribe or elſe purloine.

7 Who ſo doth all things as you ſee,
that here is to be done,
Shall neuer periſh in this world,
nor in the world to come.

Conſerua me. Pſal.xvj. T.S.

David prayeth to God for ſuccour, not for his workes but for his faiths ſake, proteſting that he hateth all idolatrie, taking God onely for his comfort and felicitie, who ſuffereth his to lacke nothing.

Sing this as the 14. Pſalme.

LOrd keepe me for I truſt in thee,
and doe confeſſe indeed,
Thou art my God, and of my goods
O Lord thou haſt no neede.
2 I giue my goods vnto the Saints that in the world doe dwell:
And namely to the faithfull flocke in vertue that excell.

3 They ſhall heape ſorrowes on their heads which runne as they were mad
To offer to the Idoll Gods:
alas it is too bad.
4 As for their bloody ſacrifice, and offrings of that ſort:
I will not touch, nor yet thereof
my lips ſhall make report.

5 For why? the Lord the portion is of mine inheritance:
And thou art hee that doſt maintaine
my rent, my lot, my chance.
6 The place wherein my lot did fall,
in beauty did excell:
Mine heritage aſſigne to me
doth pleaſe me wondrous well.

7 I thanke the Lord that cauſed me to vnderſtand the right:
For by this meanes my ſecret thoughts doe reach me euery night.
8 I ſet the Lord ſtill in my ſight, and truſt him ouer all:
For he doth ſtand on my right hand,
therefore I ſhall not fall,

7 Wherefore my heart and tongue alſo, doe both reioyce together:
My fleſh and body reſt in hope,
when I this thing conſider.
8 Thou wilt not leaue my ſoule in graue,
(for Lord thou loueſt me)
Nor yet wilt giue thy holy one corruption for to ſee.

9 But wilt teach me the way to life,
for all treaſure and ſtore,
Of perfect ioy are in thy face,
and power for euermore.

Exaudi Domine. Pſal. xvij. T.S.

Here he complaineth to God of the cruell pride and arrogancie of Saul, who rageth without any cauſe, wherefore he deſireth God to reuenge his innocencie, and deliuer him.

Sing this as the 3 Pſalme.

O Lord giue eare to my iuſt cauſe, attend when I complaine:
And heare the prayer that I put forth with lipps that doe not faine.
2 And let the iudgement of my cauſe proceede allwayes from thee:
And let thine eyes behold and cleare
this my ſimplicitie.

3 Thou haſt well tride me in the night,
and yet couldſt nothing finde,
That I haue ſpoken with my tongue,
that was not in my minde.
4 As for the workes of wicked men,
and paths peruerſe and ill,
For loue of thy moſt holy word,
I haue refrained ſtill.

5 Then in the paths that be moſt pure,
ſtay me Lord and preſerue:
That from the way wherein I walke
my ſteppes may neuer ſwerue.
6 For I doe call to thee, O Lord, ſurely thou wilt me aide:
Then hearе my prayer, and weigh right well
the wordes that I haue ſaid.

7 O thou the Sauiour of all them that put their truſt in thee:
Declare thy ſtrength on them that ſpurne
againſt thy Maieſtie.
8 O keepe me Lord, as thou wouldſt keepe
the apple of thine eye:
And vnder couert of thy wings defend me ſecretly.

The ſecond part.

9 From wicked men that trouble me,
and dayly me annoy:
And from my foes that goe about my ſoule for to deſtroy.
10 Which wallow in their worldly wealth,
ſo full and eke ſo fat:
That in their pride they doe not ſpare to ſpeake they care not what.

11 They lie in waite where I ſhould paſſe, with craft me to confound:
And muſing miſchiefes in their mindes,
to caſt me on the ground.

12 Much like the Lyon greedily that would his prey embrace:
Or lurking like a lyons whelpe within ſome ſecret place.

13 Vp Lord with haſt preuent my foes,
and caſt him at my feete:
Saue thou my ſoule from the ill man,
and with the ſword him ſmite.
14 Deliuer me Lord by thy power, out of theſe tyrants hands:
Which now ſo long time reigned haue and kept vs in their bands.

15 I meane from worldly men, to whom all worldly goods are rife:
That haue no hope or part of ioy,
but in this preſent life.
16 Thou of thy ſtore their bellies fill'ſt with pleaſures to their minde:
Their children haue enough, and leaue to theirs the reſt behinde.

17 But I ſhall with pure conſcience, behold thy gracious face:
So when I wake I ſhall be full of thine image and grace.

Diligam te Dom. Pſal. xviij. T.S.

Dauid giueth thankes, entring into his kingdome extolling the marueilous graces of God in his preſeruation: wherein is the image of Chriſts Kingdome, which ſhall conquere through Chriſt, by the vnſpeakable loue of God, though all the world reſiſt.

3 When I ſing laud vnto the Lord,
moſt worthy to be ſeru'd,
Then from my foes I am right ſure that I ſhall be preſeru'd.
4 The pangs of death did compaſſe me,
and bound me euery where:
The flowing waues of wickedneſſe did put me in great feare.

5 The ſlie and ſubtill ſnares of hell were round about me ſet:

And for my death there was prepar'd a deadly trapping net.
6 I thus beſet with paine and griefe,
did pray to God for grace,
And he foorthwith did heare my plaint
out of his holy place.
7 Such is his power, that in his wrath,
he made the earth to quake:
Yea, the foundations of the mount of Aſan for to ſhake.
8 And from his noſtrils came a ſmoake,
when kindled was his ire:
And from his mouth came kindle coales,
of hot conſuming fire.
9 The Lord deſcended from aboue,
and bowed the heauens hie:
And vnderneath his feete he caſt
the darkeneſſe of the skie.
10 On Cherubs and on Cherubins full royally he rode:
And on the wings of all the windes came flying all abroad.

The ſecond part.

11 And like a den moſt darke he made his hid and ſecret place:
With waters blacke, and ayrie clouds, enuironed he was.
12 But when the preſence of his face in brightneſſe ſhall appeare:
The clouds conſume, and in their ſtead,
come haile and coales of fire.
13 The fiery darts and thunder-bolts, diſperſe them here and there:
And with his often lightenings
he puts them in great feare.
14 Lord at thy wrath and threatnings, and at thy chiding cheare,
The ſprings and the foundations of all the world appeare.
15 And from aboue the Lord ſent downe to fetch me from below:
And pluckt me out of waters great,
that would me ouerflow.
16 And me deliuered from my foes,
That would haue made me thrall:
Yea, from ſuch foes as were too ſtrong for me to deale withall.
17 They did preuent me to oppreſſe, in time of my great griefe:
But yet the Lord was my defence,
my ſuccour and reliefe.
18 He brought me foorth in open place,
whereas I might be free:
And kept me ſafe becauſe he had a fauour vnto me.
19 And as I was an innocent, ſo did he me regard:
And to the cleanneſſe of my hands
he gaue me my reward.
20 For that I walked in his wayes, and in his paths haue trod:
And haue not wauered wickedly againſt the Lord my God.

The third part.

21 But euermore I haue reſpect to his law and decree:
His ſtatutes and commandements,
I caſt not out from me.
22 But pure and cleane and vncorrupt, appear'd before his face:
And did refraine from wickedneſſe,
and ſinne in any caſe.
23 The Lord therefore will me reward,
as I haue done a right:
And to the cleanneſſe of my hands,
appearing in his ſight.
24 For Lord with him that holy is wilt thou be holy to:
And with the good and vertuous man, right vertuouſly wilt doe.
25 And to the louing and elect thy loue thou wilt reſerue:
And thou wilt vſe the wicked men,
as wicked men deſerue.
26 For thou doeſt ſaue the ſimple folke,
in trouble when they lie:
And doeſt bring downe the countenance of them that looke full hie.
27 The Lord will light my candle ſo that it ſhall ſhine full bright:
The Lord my God will make alſo my darkeneſſe to be light.
28 For by thy helpe an hoaſt of men
diſcomfit Lord I ſhall:
By thee I ſcale and ouerleape
the ſtrength of any wall.
29 Vnſpotted are the wayes of God,
his word is purely tride,
He is a ſure defence to ſuch
As in his faith abide.
30 For who is God except the Lord?
for other there is none:
Or elſe who is omnipotent ſauing our God alone?

The fourth part.

31 The Lord that girdeth me with ſtrength, is he that I doe meane:
That all the wayes wherein I walke
doth euermore keepe cleane.
32 That made my feete like to the Harts,
in ſwiftneſſe of my pace:
And for my ſuretie brought me foorth into an open place.
33 He did inorder put my hands,
to battell and to fight:
To breake in ſunder barres of braſſe he gaue my arme the might.
34 Thou teacheſt me thy ſauing health, thy right hand is my tower:
Thy loue and familiarity doth ſtill increaſe my power.
35 And vnder me thou makeſt plaine
the way where I ſhould walke:
So that my feete ſhall neuer ſlip,
nor ſtumble at a balke.
36 And fiercely I purſue and take my foes that me annoid:
And from the field doe not returne, till they be all deſtroyed.
37 So I ſuppreſſe and wound my foes, that they can riſe no more:

For at my ſeete they fall downe flat,
I ſtrike them alſo ſore:
38 For thou doeſt gird me with thy ſtrength to warre in ſuch a wiſe:
That they be all ſcattered abroad that vp againſt me riſe.

39 Lord thou haſt put into my hands,
my mortall enemies yoke:
And all my foes thou doeſt deuide,
in ſunder with thy ſtroke:
40 They call'd for helpe, but none gaue eare, nor helpt them with reliefe:
Yea, to the Lord they call'd for helpe, yet heard he not their griefe.

The fifth part.

41 And ſtill like duſt before the winde,
I driue them vnder feet:
And ſweepe them out like filthy clay,
that ſticketh in the ſtreet.
42 Thou keep'ſt me from ſedicious folke that ſtill in ſtrife be led:
And thou doeſt of the heathen folke, appoynt me to be head.

43 A people ſtrange to me vnknowne,
And yet they ſhall me ſerue:
And at the firſt obey my word,
whereas mine owne will ſwerue.
44 I ſhall be irkeſome to mine owne,
they will not ſee my light:
But wander wide out of the way,
and hide them out of ſight.

45 But bleſſed be the liuing Lord,
moſt worthy of all prayſe:
That is my rocke and ſauing health,
praiſed be he alwayes.
46 For God it is that gaue mee power reuenged for to be:
And with his holy word ſubdude
the people vnto me.

47 And from my foe deliuered me,
and ſet me higher then thoſe:
That cruell and vngodly were,
and vp againſt me roſe:
48 And for this cauſe, O Lord my God,
to the giue thanks I ſhall:
And ſing out praiſes to thy name,
among the Gentiles all.

49 Thou gaueſt great proſperity, vnto the King I ſay:
To Dauid thine anoynted King, and to his ſeede for aye.

Cœli enarrant. Pſal. xix. T.S.

Hee mooueth the faithfull to glorifie God by the workemanſhip, proportion, and ornaments of the heauens, and by the lawe wherein God is reuealed familiarly to his choſen people.

Sing this as the 14. Pſalme.

THe heauens and the firmament,
doe wondrouſly declare:
The glory of God omnipotent,
his workes and what they are.
2 The wondrous works of God appeare by euery dayes ſucceſſe:
The nights likewiſe which their race runne,
the ſelfe ſame thing expreſſe.
3 There is no language, tongue or ſpeech, where their ſound is not heard:
In all the earth and coaſtes thereof,
their knowledge is conferd.
4 In them the Lord made for the ſunne,
a place of great renowne:
Who like a bridegroome readie trimd, doth from his chamber come.

5 And as a valiant champion, who for to get a prife:
With ioy doth haſte to take in hand,
ſome noble enterprife.
6 And all the skie from end to end, he compaſſeth about:
Nothing can hide it from his heate,
but he will finde it out.

7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his couenant ſure?
Conuerting ſoules and making wiſe
the ſimple and obſcure.
8 Iuſt are the Lords commandements, and glad both heart and minde:
His precepts pure and giueth light to eyes that be full blind.

9 The feare of God is excellent, and doth endure for euer:
The iudgements of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether.
10 And more to be imbrac'd al'w ayes,
then fined gold I ſay:
The hony and the hony combe, are not ſo ſweete as they.

11 By them thy ſeruant is forwarn'd, to haue God in regard;
And in performance of the ſame,
there ſhalbe great reward.
12 But Lord what earthly man doth know
the errours of this life?
Then cleanſe my ſoule from ſecret ſinnes,
which are in me moſt rife.

13 And keepe me that preſumptuous ſinnes
preuaile not ouer me:
And then ſhall I be innocent and great offences flee.
14 Accept my mouth and eke my heart,
my words and thoughts each one:
For my redeemer and my ſtrength,
O Lord thou art alone.

Exaudite Deus. Pſal. xx. T.S.

The people pray to God to heare their King, and receiue his ſacrifice, which hee offered before he went to battell againſt the Ammonites, declaring that the heathen put their truſt in horſes, but they truſt onely in his Name: wherefore the other ſhall fall, but the King and his people ſhall ſtand.

Sing this as the 14. Pſalme.

IN trouble and aduerſitie,
the Lord God heare thee ſtill:
The maieſtie of Iacobs God, defend thee from all ill.
2 And ſend thee from his holy place his helpe at euery need:
And ſo in Sion ſtabliſh thee,
and make thee ſtrong indeed.

3 Remembring well the sacrifice, that now to him is done.
And to receiue right thankefully thy burnt offrings each one:
4 According to thy hearts desire,
the Lord grant vnto thee:
And all thy counsell and deuice full well performe may he.

5 We shall reioyce when thou vs sauest,
and our banners display:
Vnto the Lord which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.
6 The Lord will his anoynted saue,
I know well by his grace:
And send him health by his right hand,
out of his holy place.

7 In chariots some put confidence, and some in horses trust:
But we remember God our Lord, that keepeth promise iust.
8 They fall downe flat, but we doe rise,
and stand vpstedfastly:
Now saue and helpe vs Lord and king,
on thee when wee doe crie.

Domine in virtute. Psal. xxj. T.S.

Dauid in the person of the people praised God for the victory giuen them against the Syrians and Ammonites, Sam. 11 when hee was crowned with the crowne of the king of Ammon, 2. Sam. 12. and indued with the manifold blessings of God.

3 Thou didst preuenth him with thy gifts, and blessings manifold:
And thou hast set vpon his head,
a crowne of perfect gold.
4 And when he asked life of thee, thereof thou madst him sure,
To haue long life, yea such a life,
as euer should endure.

5 Great is his glory by thy helpe,
thy benefits and aide:
Great worship and great honour both,
thou hast vpon him laid:
6 Thou shalt giue him felicity, that neuer shall decay:
And with thy cheerefull countenance,
wilt comfort him alway.

7 For why? the king doth strongly trust in God for to preuaile:
Therefore his goodnesse and his grace,
will not that he shall quaile:
8 But let thine enemies feele thy force, and those that thee withstand:
Finde out thy foes, and let them feele,
the power of thy right hand.

9 And like an Ouen burne them Lord in fiery flame and fume:
Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and fire shall them consume.
10 And thou wilt root out of the earth,
their fruit that should encrease,
And from the number of thy folke,
their seede shall end and cease.

12 For why? much mischiefe they doe muse, against thy holy name:
Yet did they faile, and had no power,
for to performe the same.
12 But as a marke thou shalt them set,
in a most open place:
And charge thy bow strings readily against thine enemies face.

13 Be thou exalted Lord therefore,
in thy strength euery houre:
So shall we sing right solemnely, praising thy might and power.

Deus Deus meus. Psa. xxij. T.S.

Dauid complaineth of his desperate extremities, and declareth wherby hee recouereth himselfe from temptation. Vnder his person Christ is figured.

Sing this as the 21 Psalme.

O God my God wherefore doest thou forsake me vtterly,
And helpest not when I doe make,
my great complaint and crie.
2 To thee my God euen all day long,
I doe both crie and call;
I cease not all the night and yet thou heerest not at all.

3 Euen thou that in thy sanctuary, and holy place doest dwell:
Thou art the comfort and the ioy,
and glory of Israel.
4 And he in whom our fathers old,
had all their hope for euer,
And when they put their trust in thee,
so didst thou them deliuer.

5 They were deliuered euer when they called on thy name:
And for the faith they had in thee,
they were not put to shame.
6 But now I am become a worme,
more like then any man:
An out cast whom the people scorne, with all the spight they can.

7 And me despise, as they behold me walking on the way:

They grin, they mow, thy nod their heads,
and in this wiſe they ſay :
8 Tis man did glory in the Lord,
his fauour and his loue :
Let him redeeme and help him now,
his power if he will proue.

9 But Lord, out of my mothers wombe
I came by thy beheſt :
Thou didſt preſerue me ſtill in hope,
while I did ſucke her breſt.
10 I was committed from my birth,
with thee to haue aboad :
Since I was in my mothers wombe :
thou haſt beene euer my God.

The ſecond part:

11 Then Lord depart not now from mee,
in this my wretched griefe :
Since I haue none to be my helpe,
my ſuccour and reliefe.
12 So many buls doe compaſſe mee, that be full ſtrong of head :
Yea, buls ſo fat, as though they had in Baſen field beene fed.

13 They gape vpon mee greedily, as though they would me slay :
Much like a lyon roaring our,
and ramping for his prey.
14 But I drop downe as water ſhed, my ioynts in ſunder breake :
15 My heart doth in my body melt like waxe againſt the heate.

16 And like a potſheard drieth my ſtrength, my tongue it cleaueth faſt Vnto my iawes, and I am brought to duſt of death at laſt.
17 And many dogs doe compaſſe me,
and wicked counſell eke Conſpire againſt me curſedly, they pierce my hands and feete.

18 I was tormented, ſo that I might all my bones haue told:
Yet ſtill vpon mee did they looke,
and ſtill they mee behold :
19 My garments they diuided eke in parts among them all :
And for my coat they did caſt lots,
to whom it might befall.

20 Therefore I pray thee be not farre from me at my great neede :
But rather ſith thou art my ſtrength,
to help mee Lord make ſpeede.
21 And from the ſword Lord ſaue my ſoule by thy might and thy power :
And keepe my ſoule, thy darling deare from dogs that would deuoure.

22 And from the Lyons mouth that would me all in ſunder ſhiner :
And from the hornes of Vnicornes
Lord ſafely mee deliuer.
23 And I ſhall to my brethren all thy maieſty record,
And in thy Church ſhall praiſe the name of thee the liuing Lord.

The third part.

24 All yee that feare him praiſe the Lord,
thou Iacob honour him :
And all yee houſe of Iſrael, with reuerence worſhip him.
25 For he deſpiſeth not the poore,
he turneth not away,
His countenance when they doe call,
but graunteth to their crie.

26 Among the flocke that feare the Lord
I will therefore proclaime Thy praiſe and keepe thy promiſe made for ſetting forth thy name.
27 The poore ſhall eate and be ſuffic'd, and thoſe that doe their deuer
To know the Lord and praiſe his name, their hearts ſhall liue for euer.

28 All coaſts of earth ſhall praiſe the Lord, and turne to him for grace :
The heathen folke ſhall worſhip him before his bleſſed face.
29 The kingdome of the heathen folke the Lord ſhall haue therefore :
And hee ſhall be their gouernour, and king for euermore.

30 The rich men of his goodly gifts
ſhall feede and taſte alſo :
And in his preſence worſhip him,
and bow their knees full low.
31 And all that ſhall goe downe to duſt, of life by him muſt taſte :
My ſeede ſhall ſerue and praiſe the Lord,
while any world ſhall laſte.

32 My ſeede ſhall plainely ſhew to them that ſhall be borne hereafter,
His iuſtice and his righteouſneſſe,
and all his workes of wonder.

Dominus regit. Pſal. xxiij. W. W.

Dauid hauing tryed Gods manifold mercies diuers times, gathereth aſſurance that God will continue his goodneſſe for euer.

Sing this as the 21 Pſalme.

THe Lord is onely my ſupport, and he that doth mee feede :
How can I then lacke any thing
whereof I ſtand in neede ;
2 He doth mee fold in coates moſt ſafe :
the tender graſſe faſt by :
And after driues mee to the ſtreames, that runne moſt pleaſantly.

3 And when I feele my ſelfe neere loſt, then doth he mee home take,
Conducting mee in his right paths,
euen for his owne name ſake.
4 And though I were euen at deaths doore, yet would I feare none ill :
For with thy rod and ſheapheards crooke
I am comforted ſtill.

5 Thou haſt my table richly decke in deſpight of my foe :
Thou haſt my head with balme refreſht,
my cup doth ouerflow.
6 And finally while breath doth laſt, Thy grace ſhall mee defend :
And in the houſe of God will I my life for euer ſpend.

Another of the ſame by Th. Stern.

Sing this as the 21 Pſalme.

MY ſhepheard is the liuing Lord,
nothing therefore I neede:
In paſtures faire, with waters calme
he ſets me for to feede.
2 He did conuert and glad my ſoule, and brought my minde in frame:
To walke in paths of righteouſneſſe,
for his moſt holy name.

3 Yea, though I walke in vaile of death,
yet will I feare none ill:
Thy rod thy ſtaffe doth comfort me,
and thou art with me ſtill.
4 And in the preſence of my foes,
my table thou ſhalt ſpread:
Thou ſhalt, O Lord, fill full my cup, and eke anoynt my head.

5 Through all my life thy fauour is ſo frankely ſhewed to me:
That in thy houſe for euermore my dwelling place ſhall be.

Domini eſt terra. Pſal. xxiiij. I.H.

The grace of God being now vttered in the temple more glorious then before in the tabernacle. David with exclamation, ſetteth forth the honour thereof, mouing the conſideration of the eternall manſions prepared in heauen, whereof this was a figure.

Sing this as the 21. Pſalme.

THe earth is all the Lords, with all her ſtore and furniture:
Yea, his is all the world, and all that therein doth endure.
2 For he hath faſtly founded it,
aboue the ſea to ſtand:
And laid alow the liquid flouds,
to flow beneath the land.

3 For who is he, O Lord, that ſhall aſcend into thy hill?
And paſſe into thy holy place,
there to continue ſtill?
4 Whoſe hands are harmeleſſe, and whoſe no ſpot there doth defile: (heart,
His ſoule not ſet on vanitie, who hath not ſworne to guile.

5 Him that is ſuch a one, the Lord
ſhall place in bliſſefull plight:
And God his God and Sauiour, ſhall yeeld to him his right.
6 This is the brood of trauellers in ſeeking of his grace:
As Iaakob did the Iſraelites,
in that time of his race.

7 Yee Princes open your gates, ſtand ope
the euerlaſting gate:
For there ſhall enter in thereby
the king of glorious ſtate.
8 What is the king of glorious ſtate?
the ſtrong and mightie Lord:
The mightie Lord in battell ſtout,
and tryall of the ſword.
9 Yee Princes open your gates, ſtand ope
the euerlaſting gate:
For there ſhall enter in thereby
the King of glorious ſtate.
10 What is the King of glorious ſtate?
the Lord of hoaſts hee is:
The Kingdome and the royalty of glorious ſtate is his.

Ad te Domine. Pſal. xxv. T.S.

Dauid grieued at his ſinne and malicious enemies, moſt feruently prayeth for forgiueneſſe, eſpecially of ſuch ſinnes as he committed in his youth.

3 But ſhame ſhall them befall, which harme them wrongfully:
Therefore thy paths and thy right wayes
vnto me Lord deſcry.
4 Direct me in thy trueth,
and teach me I thee pray:
Thou art my God and Sauiour, on thee I waite alway.

5 Thy mercies manifold
I pray thee Lord remember:
And eke thy pitie plentifull, for they haue beene for euer.
6 Remember not the faults,
and frailty of my youth:
Remember not how ignorant
I haue beene of thy truth.

Nor after my deſerts
let mee thy mercy finde:
But of thine owne benignitie
Lord haue mee in thy minde.
7 His mercies is full ſweet, his trueth a perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will ſinners teach and ſuch as goe aſide.

8 The humble he will teach his precepts for to keepe:
He will direct in all his wayes
the lowly and the meeke.
9 For all the wayes of God are trueth and mercie both,
To them that keepe his teſtament,
the witneſſe of his troth.

The second part.

10 Now for thy holy Name,
O Lord I the intreat:
To grant me pardon for my sinne,
for it is wondrous great.
11 Who so doth feare the Lord,
the Lord doth him direct:
To leade his life in such away:
as he doth best accept.

12 His soule shall euermore, in goodnesse dwell and stand:
His seede and his posterity, inherit shall the land.
13 All those that feare the Lord, know his secret intent:
And vnto them he doth declare, his Will and Testament.

14 Mine eyes and eke my heart, to him I will aduance:
That pluckt my feet out of the snare,
of sinne and ignorance:
15 With mercie me behold,
to thee I make my mone:
For I am poore and desolate, and comfortlesse alone.

16 The troubles of my heart, are multiplied indeed: Bring me out of this miserie, necessitie and need.
17 Behold my pouertie, mine anguish and my paine;
Remit my sinne and mine offence,
and make me cleane againe.

18 O Lord, behold my foes, how they doe still increase:
Pursuing me with deadly hate,
that faine would liue in peace.
19 Preserue and keepe my soule,
and eke deliuer me:
And let me not be ouerhrowne, because I trust in thee.

20 Let my simple pureness, me from mine enemies shend,
Because I looke as one of thine, that thou shouldst me defend:
21 Deliuer Lord thy folke, and send them some reliefe:
I meane thy chosen Israel, from all their paine and griefe.

Iudica me Dom. Psal. xxvj. I. H.

Dauid iniuriously oppressed and helpless, yet assured of his integrity to Saul, calleth God to defend him causeless afflicted, then he desireth to be in the company of the faithfull in the congregation of God, when he was banished by Saul, promising godly life, open praises, thankesgiuing and sacrifice for his deliuerance.

Sing this as the 14. Psalme.

LOrd be my iudge, and thou shalt see,
my pathes be right and plaine:
I trust in God, and hope that he,
will strength me to remaine.
2 Prooue me my God I thee desire,
my wayes to search and trie:
As men doe prooue their gold with fire,
my reines and heart espie.

3 Thy goodnesse laid before my face,
I durst behold alwayes:
For of thy truth I tread the trace,
and will doe all my dayes.
4 I doe not lust to haunt or vse, with men whose deeds are vaine;
To come in house I doe refuse,
with the deceitfull traine.

5 I much abhorre the wicked sort,
their deeds I doe despise:
I doe not once to them resort, that hurtfull things deuise.
6 My hands I wash and doe proceed, in works to walke vpright;
Then to thine altar I make speed,
to offer their in sight.

7 That I may speake and preach the praise, that doth belong to thee:
And so declare how wondrous wayes,
thou hast beene good to mee.
8 O Lord thy house I loue most deare, to me it doth excell:
I haue delight and would be neere,
whereas thy grace doth dwell.

9 O shut not vp, my soule with them, in sinne that take their fill:
Nor yet my life among those men,
that seeke much blood to spill.
10 Whose hands are heapt with craft and guile their lips thereof are full,
And their right hand with wrench and wile for bribes doth pluck and pull.

11 But I in righteousnesse intend,
my time and dayes to serue:
Haue mercy Lord and me defend.
so that I doe not swarue.
12 My foot is staid for all assayes,
it standeth well and right:
Wherefore to God will I giue prayse,
in all the peoples sight.

Dominus illum. Psal. xxvij. I. H.

Dauid deliuered from great perill, giueth thankes, wherein vve see his constant faith against the assaults of all enemies, and the end vvhy he desireth to liue, and to be deliuered: Then he exhorteth to faith, and to attend vpon the Lord.

Sing this as the 18. Psalme.

THe Lord is both my health and light, shall man make me dismaid?
Sith God doth giue me strength and might,
Why should I be afraid?
2 While that my foes with all their strength begin with me to braule:
And thinke to eate me vp, at length themselues haue caught the fall.

3 Though they in campe against me lie,
my heart is not afraid;
In battell pight if they will trie,
I trust in God for aid.
4 One thing of God I doe require, that he will not denie:
For which I pray and will desire, till he to me apply.

5 That I within his holy place,
my life throughout may dwell;

To see the beauty of his face,
and view his temple well:
6 In time of dread he ſhall me hide, within his place moſt pure,
And keepe me ſecret by his ſide,
as on a rocke moſt ſure.

7 At length I know the Lords good grace, ſhall make me ſtrong and ſtout:
My foes to foile and cleane deface, that compaſſe me about.
8 Therefore within his houſe will I,
giue ſacrifice of praiſe:
With Pſalmes and Songs I will apply, to laud the Lord all wayes.

The ſecond part.

9 Lord heare the voyce of my requeſt, for which to thee I call:
Haue mercy Lord on me oppreſt, and ſend me helpe withall.
10 My heart doth knowledge vnto thee,
I ſue to haue thy grace:
Then ſeeke my face ſay'ſt thou to me,
Lord I will ſeeke thy face.

11 In wrath turne not thy face away,
nor ſuffer me to ſlide:
Thou art my helpe ſtill to this day,
be ſtill my God and guide.
12 My parents both their ſonne forſooke, and caſt me off at large:
And then the Lord himſelfe yet tooke, of me the care and charge.

13 Teach me, O Lord, the way to thee,
and lead me on forth right:
For feare of ſuch as watch for me,
to trap me if they might.
14 Doe not betake me to the will,
of them that be my foes:
For they ſurmiſe againſt me ſtill,
falſe witneſſe to deſpoſe.
15 My heart would faint but that in me
this hope is fixed faſt:
The Lord Gods good grace ſhall it ſee,
in life: that aye ſhall laſt.
16 Truſt ſtill in God whoſe whole thou art,
his will abide thou muſt:
And he ſhall eaſe and ſtrength thy heart,
if thou in him doe truſt.

Ad te Domine. Pſal. xxviij. T.S.

Being in feare and perſuaſion eſſe to ſee God diſhonoured by wicked men, hee crieth for vengeance againſt them, and being aſſured that God hath heard him, he commendeth all the faithfull to his tuition.

Sing this as the 21 Pſalme.

THou art, O Lord, my ſtrength and ſtay,
the ſuccour which I craue:
Neglect me not leaſt I be like to them that goe to graue.
2 The voyce of thy ſuppliant heare,
that vnto thee doth crie,
When I lift vp my hands vnto thy holy Arke moſt hie.
3 Repute me not among the ſort of wicked and peruerſt:
That ſpeake right faire vnto their friends,
and thinke full ill in heart.
4 According to their handy worke,
as they deſerue indeed:
And after their inuentions,
let them receiue their meed.
5 For they regard nothing Gods word,
his law, ne yet his lore:
Therefore he will them and their ſeed,
deſtroy for enermore.
6 To render thankes vnto the Lord,
how great a cauſe haue I?
My voyce, my prayer and my complaint,
that heard ſo willingly.
7 He is my ſhield and fortitude, my buckler in diſtreſſe,
My hope, my health, my hearts relieſe,
my ſong ſhall him confeſſe.
8 He is our ſtrength and our defence,
our enemies to reſiſt:
The health and the ſaluation, of his elect by Chriſt.
9 Thy people and thy heritage,
Lord bleſſe, guide and preſerue:
Increaſe them Lord and rule their hearts, that they may neuer ſwerue.

Afferte Domino. Pſal. xxix. T.S.

Dauid exhorteth Princes, (who for the moſt part thinke there is no God) at the leaſt to feare him for the thunders and tempeſts, for feare whereof all creatures tremble. And albeit it threatneth ſinners, yet it moueth his to praiſe his name.

Sing this as the 30 Pſalme.

GIue to the Lord ye Potentates, ye rulers of the world,
Giue ye all prayſe, honour and ſtrength, vnto the liuing Lord.
2 Giue honour to his holy name,
and honour him alone:
Worſhip him in his maieſtie,
within his holy throne.
3 His voyce doth rule the waters all,
euen as himſelfe doth pleaſe.
He doth prepare the thunder-claps,
and gouernes all the ſeas.
4 The voyce of God is of great force,
And wondrous excellent:
It is moſt mightie in effect,
and moſt magnificent.
5 The voyce of God doth rend and breake,
the Cedar-trees ſo long:
The Cedar trees of Lebanus, which are moſt high and ſtrong.
6 And makes them leape like as a calfe, or els the Vnicorne:
7 Not onely trees but mountaines great, whereon the trees are borne.
8 His voyce diuides the flames of fire,
and ſhakes the wilderneſſe:
It makes the deſart quake for feare, that called is Cades.
9 It makes the hindes for feare to calue,
and makes the couert plaine:
Then in his temple euery man,
his glory doth proclaime.
10 The Lord was ſet aboue the flouds, ruling the raging ſea:
So ſhall he reigne as Lord and King,
for euer and for aye.

11 The Lord will giue his people power,
in vertue to encreaſe:
The Lord will bleſſe his choſen folke, with euerlaſting peace.

Exaltabo te Domine. Pſ. xxx. T. S.

When Dauid ſhould dedicate his houſe to the Lord, he fell extreeme ſicke, without all hope of life, and therefore after recouery he thanketh God, exhorting others to doe the like, and to learne by him that God is rather mercifull then ſeuere towards his, alſo that aduerſity is ſodaine: Then he prayeth and promiſeth to prayſe God for euer.

A LL laud and prayſe with heart and voyce, O Lord, I giue to thee: which didſt not make my foes reioyce, but haſt exalted me: 2. O Lord my God to thee I cride, in all my paine and griefe. Thou gaueſt an eare and didſt prouide to eaſe me with reliefe.

3 Of thy good will thou haſt call'd back my ſoule, from hell to ſaue:
Thou didſt reuiue when ſtrength did lacke,
and kep'ſt me from the graue.
4 Sing prayſe ye Saints that proone and ſee
the goodnes of the Lord,
In memory of his maieſtie,
reioyce with one accord.

5 For why? his anger but a ſpace doth laſt and ſlacke againe:
But in his fauour and his grace,
alwaies doth life remaine.
Though gripes of griefe and pangs full ſore
ſhall lodge with vs all night:
The Lord, to ioy ſhall vs reſtore, before the day be light.

6 When I enioy'd this world at will,
this would I boaſt and ſay:
Tuſh, I am ſure to feele none ill,
this wealth ſhall not decay.
7 For thou, O Lord, of thy good grace, haſt ſent me ſtrength and aid:
But when thou turn'dſt away thy face,
my minde was ſore diſmaid.

8 Wherefore againe yet did I crie, to thee, O Lord of might:
My God with plaints I did apply, and prayd both day and night.
9 What gaine is in my blood, ſayd I,
if death deſtroy my dayes?
Doth duſt declare thy maieſtie?
or yet thy trueth doth prayſe?

10 Wherefore my God ſome pitty take
O Lord, I thee deſire:
Doe not this ſimple ſoule forſake;
of helpe I thee require.
11 Then didſt thou turne my griefe and woe into a chereſull voice:
The mourning weed thou tookſt me fro,
and mad'ſt me to reioyce.

12 Wherefore my ſoule vnceſſantly, ſhall ſing vnto thy prayſe,
My Lord my God, to thee will I, giue laud and thankes alwaies.

In te Domin. ſperaui. Pſ. xxxj. T. S.

Dauid deliuered from great danger, ſheweth firſt what meditations hee had by the power of faith, when death was before his eyes, and howe the fauour of God is alwaies ready to thoſe that feare him. Hee exhorteth the faithfull to truſt in God, becauſe he preſerueth them.

Sing this as the 18. Pſalme.

O Lord, I put my truſt in thee,
let nothing worke me ſhame,
As thou art iuſt deliuer me,
and ſet me quite from blame.
2 Heare me, O Lord, and that anone, to helpe me make good ſpeed.
Be thou my rocke and houſe of ſtone,
my fence in time of need.

3 For why? as ſtones thy ſtrength is tride, thou art my forr and tower:
For thy names ſake be thou my guide,
and lead me in thy power.
4 Plucke foorth my feet out of the ſnare, which they for me haue laid:
Thou art my ſtrength, and all my care is for thy might and aid.

5 Into thy hands Lord I commit my ſpirit which is thy due.
For why? thou haſt redeemed it,
O Lord my God moſt true.
6 I hate ſuch folke as will not part,
from things to be abhord:
When they on trifles ſet their heart,
my truſt is in the Lord.

7 For I will in thy mercy ioy,
I ſee it doth excell:
Thou ſeeſt when ought would me annoy,
and knoweſt my ſoule full well.
8 Thou haſt not left me in their hand,
that would me ouercharge:
But thou haſt ſet me out of band,
to walke abroad at large.

The ſecond part.

9 Great griefe, O Lord, doth me aſſaile, ſome pitty on me take:
Mine eyes waxe dimme, my ſight doth faile,
my wombe for woe doth ake:
10 My life is worne with griefe and paine,
my yeeres in woe are paſt:
My ſtrength is gone and through diſdaine,
my bones corrupt and waſt.

11 Among my foes I am a ſcorne,
my friends are all diſmaid;
My neighbours and my kinſmen borne,
to ſee mee are afraid.

12 As men once dead are out of minde,
so am I now forgot:
As small effect in me they finde,
as in a broken pot.

13 I heard the brages of all the rout, their threats my minde did fray:
How they conspir'd, and went about,
to take my life away.

14 But Lord I trust in thee for aide, not to be ouertrod:
For I confesse and still haue sayd, thou art my Lord my God.

15 The length of all my life and age,
O Lord is in thy hand:
Defend me from the wrath and rage,
of them that me withstand.

16 To me thy seruant Lord expresse, and shew thy ioyfull face:
And saue me Lord for thy goodnesse, thy mercy and thy grace.

The third part.

17 Lord let me not be put to blame, for that on thee I call,
But let the wicked beare their shame,
and in the graue to fall.

18 O how great good hast thou in store,
laid vp full safe for them,
That feare and trust in thee therefore,
before the sonnes of men.

19 Thy presence shal them fence and guide from all proud brags and wrongs:
Within thy place thou shalt them hide,
from all the strife of tongues.

20 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd, on me his grace so farre:
Me to defend with watch and ward,
as in a towne of warre.

21 This did I say both day and night,
when I was sore oppreſt:
Loe I was cleane cast out of sight,
yet heardst thou my request.

22 Ye Saints loue ye the Lord I say,
the faithfull he doth guide:
And to the proud he will repay,
according to their pride.

23 Be strong and God shall stay your heart, behold and haue a lust:
For sure the Lord will take your part,
sith ye in him doe trust.

Beati quorum. Psal. xxxij. T.S.

Dauid punished with grieuous sickenes for his sins, counteth them happy to whom God doth not impute their transgressions, and after that he had confessed his sinnes and obtained pardon, hee exhorteth the wicked men to liue godly, and the good to reioyce.

Sing this as the 30 Psalme.

THe man is blest whose wickednesse,
the Lord hath cleane remitted,
And he whose sinne and wretchednesse, is hid and also couered.

2 And blest is he, to whom the Lord,
imputeth not his sinne:
Which in his heart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.

3 For whilst that I kept close my sinne,
in silence and constraint:
My bones did weare and waste awaye with daily mone and plaint.

4 For night and day thy hand on me,
so grieuous was and smart:
That all my blood and humours moist,
to drinesse did conuert.

5 I did therefore confesse my fault,
and all my sinnes discouer:
Then thou O Lord, didst me forgiue, and all my sinnes passe ouer.

6 The humble man shall pray therefore,
and seeke thee in due time:
So that the flouds of waters great,
shall haue no power on him.

7 When trouble and aduersitie, doe compasse me about:
Thou art my refuge and my ioy,
and thou dost rid me out.

8 Come hither and I shall thee teach,
how thou shalt walke aright,
And will thee guide as I my selfe, haue learn'd by proofe and sight.

9 Be not so rude and ignorant,
as is the horse and mule:
Whose mouth without a reyne or bit,
from harme thou canst not rule.

10 The wicked man shall manifold sorowes and griefe sustaine:
But vnto him that trust in God,
his goodnesse shall remaine.

11 Be merrie therefore in the Lord,
ye iust lift vp your voyce:
And ye of pure and perfect heart,
be glad and eke reioyce.

Exultate iusti. Psal. xxxiij. T.S.

Hee exhorteth good men to prayse God for creating and gouerning all things, and his faithfull promises, for scattering the counsell of the wicked, teaching that no creature preserueth any man, but only his mercy.

Sing this as the 30. Psalme.

YE righteous in the Lord reioyce,
it is a seemely sight:
That vpright men with thankfull voyce, should prayse the Lord of might.

2 Prayse ye the Lord with harpe and song,
in Psalmes and pleasant things:
With Lute and instrument among,
that foundeth with ten strings.

3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage giue him prayse:
For why? his word is euer true,
his workes and all his waies.

4 To iudgement, equitie and right, he hath a great good will,
And with his gifts he doth delight,
the earth throughout to fill.

5 For by the word of God alone,
the heauen all were wrought,
Their hoastes and powers euery one,
his breath to passe hath brought.

6 The waters great gathered hath he on heapes within the shore,
And hid them in the depth to be,
as in a house of store.

8 All men on earth, both leaſt and moſt, feare God and keepe his Law:
Ye that inhabite in each coaſt, dread him, and ſtand in awe.
9 What he commanded wrought it was,
at once with preſent ſpeede:
What he doth will is brought to paſſe with full effect indeede.

10 The counſels of the nations rude
the Lord doth bring to nought:
He doth defeate the multitude,
of their deuiſe and thought.
11 But his decrees continue ſtill,
they neuer ſlacke nor ſwage:
The motions of his minde and will take place in euery age.

The ſecond part.

12 And bleſt are they to whom the Lord,
as God and guide is knowne:
Whom he doth chuſe of meere accord to take them as his owne.
13 The Lord from heauen caſt his ſight on men mortall by birth: 14 Conſidering from his ſeat of might the dwellers on the earth.

15 The Lord I ſay, whoſe hand hath wrought mans heart, and doth it frame:
For he alone doth know the thought and working of the ſame.
16 A King that truſteth in his hoaſt ſhall nought preuaile at length:
The man that of his might doth boaſt ſhall faile for all his ſtrength.

17 The troopes of horſe-men eke ſhall faile, their ſturdie ſteeds ſhall ſterue:
The ſtrength of horſe ſhall not preuaile
the rider to preſerue:
18 But loe the eyes of God intend,
and watch, to aide the iuſt:
With ſuch as feare him to offend,
and on his goodneſſe truſt.

19 That he of death and great diſtreſſe, may ſet their ſoule from dread:
And if that dearth their land oppreſſe,
in hunger them to feede.
20 Wherefore our ſoules doe ſtill depend on God our ſtrength and ſtay:
He is our ſhield, vs to defend,
and driue all darts away.

21 Our ſoule in God hath ioy and game, reioycing in his might:
For why? in his moſt holy name
we hope and much delight.
22 Therefore let thy goodneſſe, O Lord, ſtill preſent with vs be:
As we alwaies with one accord,
doe onely truſt in thee.

Benedicam Dom. Pſa. xxxiiij. T. S.

Dauid hauing eſcaped Achis (1. Sam. 21) prayſeth God for his deliuerance, giueth others example to truſt in God, to feare and ſerue him, who defendeth the godly with his Angels, and vtterly deſtroyeth the wicked in their ſinnes.

Sing this as the 30. Pſalme.

I Will giue laud and honour both vnto the Lord alwaies:
And eke my mouth for euermore ſhall ſpeake vnto his prayſe.
2 I doe delight to laud the Lord in ſoule, and eke in voyce:
That humble men and morſified may heare, and ſo reioyce.

3 Therefore ſee that ye magnifie, with me the liuing Lord:
And let vs now exalt his name, together with one accord.
4 For I my ſelfe beſought the Lord,
he anſwered me againe:
And me deliuered incontinent from all my feare and paine.

5 Who ſo they be that him behold, ſhall ſee his light moſt cleare:
Their countenance ſhall not be daſht,
they needе it not to feare.
6 This ſillie wretch for ſome reliefe vnto the Lord did call:
Who did him heare without delay,
and rid him out of thrall.

7 The Angell of the Lord doth pitch his tents in euery place:
To ſaue all ſuch as feare the Lord,
that nothing them deface.
8 Taſte and conſider well therefore,
that God is good and iuſt:
O happy man that maketh him his onely ſtay and truſt.

9 Feare ye the Lord ye holy ones,
aboue all earthly thing:
For they that feare the liuing Lord are ſure to lacke nothing.
10 The Lions ſhalbe hunger-bit, and pin'd with famine much?
But as for them that feare the Lord no lacke ſhall be to ſuch.

The ſecond part.

11 Come neare therefore my children deare, and to my words giue eare:
I ſhall you teach the perfect way
how ye the Lord ſhould feare.
12 Who is the man that would liue long and lead a bleſſed life?
13 See thou refraine thy tongue and lips from all deceit and ſtrife.

14 Turne backe thy face from doing ill and doe the godly deed:
Inquire for peace and righteouſneſſe,
and follow it with ſpeed.
15 For why? the eyes of God aboue
vpon the iuſt are bent:
His eares likewiſe doe heare the plaint of the poore innocent.

16 But he doth frowne and bend the browes, vpon the wicked traine:
And cuts away the memory that ſhould of them remaine.
17 But when the iuſt doe call and cry,
the Lord doth heare them ſo:
That out of paine and miſerie forthwith he lets them goe.

18 The Lord is kind, and ſtraight at hand, to ſuch as be contrite;

He

He ſaues alſo the ſorrowfull,
the meeke and poore in ſpirit.
19 Full many be the miſeries that righteous men doe ſuffer,
But out of all aduerſities
the Lord doeth them deliuer.
20 The Lord doth ſo preſerue and keepe his very bones alway,
That not ſo much as one of them
doth periſh or decay.
21 The ſinne ſhall ſlay the wicked man, which he himſelfe hath wrought:
And ſuch as hate the righteous man
ſhall ſoone be brought to nought.
22 But they that ſerue the liuing Lord,
the Lord doth ſaue them ſound:
And who that put their truſt in him,
nothing ſhall them confound.

Iudica me Domine. Pſa. xxxv. I.H.

Sauls flatterers perſecuted Dauid, who prayeth for reuenge, that his innocency may be declared, and that ſuch as take his part may reioyce, for which he promiſeth to magnifie Gods name all the dayes of his life.

Sing this as the humble ſuit of a ſinner.

LOrd plead my cauſe againſt my foes, confound their force and might:
Fight on my part againſt all thoſe that ſeeke with me to fight.
2 Lay hand vpon the ſpeare and ſhield, thy ſelfe in armour dreſſe:
Stand vp for me, and fight the field,
to keepe me from diſtreſſe.
3 Gird on thy ſword, and ſtop the way,
mine enemies to withſtand:
That thou vnto my ſoule maiſt ſay,
loe I thy helpe at hand.
4 Confound them with rebuke and blame,
that ſeeke my ſoule to ſpill:
Let them turne backe, and flie with ſhame, that thinke to worke me ill.
5 Let them diſperſe and flie abroad,
as winde doth driue the duſt:
And that the Angell of our God, their might away may thruſt.
6 Let all their waies be void of light,
and ſlippery like to fall:
And ſend thine Angell with thy might,
to perſecute them all.
7 For why? without my fault they haue in ſecret ſet their gin:
And for no cauſe haue digd a caue to catch my ſoule therein.
8 When they thinke leaſt, and haue no care,
O Lord, deſtroy them all,
Let them be trapt in their owne ſnare,
and in their miſchiefe fall.
9 And let my ſoule, my heart, and voyce,
in God haue ioy and welth:
That in the Lord I may reioyce, and in his ſauing health.
10 And then my bones ſhall ſpeake and ſay,
my parts ſhall all agree:
O Lord, though they doe ſeeme full gay,
what man is like to thee?

The ſecond part.

11 Thou did'ſt defend the weake from them that are both ſtout and ſtrong:
And rid the poore from wicked men,
that ſpoyle and doe them wrong.
12 My cruell foes againſt me riſe, to witneſſe things vntrue:
And to accuſe me they deuiſe,
of that I neuer knew.
13 Where I to them doe owe good will,
they quite me with diſdaine,
That they ſhould pay my good with ill,
my ſoule doth ſore complaine:
14 When they were ſicke I mourn'd therefore and clad my ſelfe in ſack:
With faſting I did faint full ſore,
to pray I was not ſlack.
15 As they had bene my brethren deare,
I did my ſelfe behaue:
As one that maketh wofull cheare,
about his mothers graue.
16 But they at my diſeaſe did ioy,
and gather on a rout:
Yea abiect ſlaues at me did toy, with mockes and checkes full ſtout.
17 The belly gods and flattering traine, that all good things deride:
At me doe grin with great diſdaine, and pluck their mouths aſide.
18 Lord when wilt thou amend this geare
why doeſt thou ſtay and pauſe?
O rid my ſoule mine onely deare, out of theſe Lyons clawes.
19 And then I will giue thankes to thee, before thy Church alwaies.
And whereas moſt of people be,
there will I ſhew thy praiſe.
20 Let not my foes preuaile on me,
which hate me for no fault:
Nor yet to winke or turne their eye,
that cauſeleſſe me aſſault.

The third part.

21 Of peace no word they thinke or ſay,
Their talke is all vntrue:
They ſtill conſult, and would betray all thoſe that peace enſue.
22 With open mouthes they runne at mee,
they gape, they laugh, they ſleere:
Well, well, ſay they, our eye doth ſee
the thing that wee deſire.
23 But Lord thou ſeeſt what waies they take ceaſe not this geare to mend:
Be not farre off nor me forſake,
as men that faile their friend.
24 Awake, ariſe, and ſtirre abroad, defend me in my right:
Reuenge my cauſe, my Lord, my God,
and aide me with thy might.
25 According to thy righteouſneſſe,
my Lord God ſet me free:
And let them not their pride expreſſe, nor triumph ouer mee.
26 Let not their hearts reioyce and crie;
there, there, this geare goes trim:
Nor giue them cauſe to ſay on high,
we haue our will on him.

27 Confound them with rebuke and ſhame, that ioy when I doe mourne :
And pay them home with ſpite and blame,
that brag at me with ſcorne.
28 Let them be glad and eke reioyce, which loue mine vpright way.
And they all times with heart and voice,
ſhall prayſe the Lord and ſay ;

29 Great is the Lord and doth excell, for why ? he doth delight
To ſee his ſeruants proſper well, that is his pleaſant ſight.
30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply, thy righteouſneſſe to prayſe :
Vnto the Lord my God will I, ſing laud and thankes alwaies.

Dixit injuſtus. Pſal. xxxvj. I.H.

Dauid vexed by the vvicked, complaineth of their malice, but conſidering Gods great mercy to all creatures, ſpecially towards his children, by faith thereof, he is comforted and aſſured of his deliuerance.

Sing this as the humble ſuite of a ſinner.

THE wicked with his workes vniuſt, doth thus perſwade his heart,
That of the Lord he hath no truſt,
his feare is ſet a part.
2 Yet doth he ioy in his eſtate, to walke as he began :
So long till he deſerue the hate,
of God and eke of man.

3 His words are wicked, vile and naught, his tongue no trueth doth tell,
Yet at no hand will he be taught,
which way he may doe well.
4 When he ſhould ſleepe then doth he muſe his miſchiefe to fulfil :
No wicked waies doth he refuſe,
nor nothing that is ill.

5 But Lord thy goodneſſe doth aſcend, aboue the heauens high :
So doth thy trueth it ſelfe extend,
vnto the cloudy ſkie
6 Much more then hills ſo hie and ſteepe, thy iuſtice is expreſt :
Thy iudgements like to ſeas moſt deepe, thou ſau'ſt both man and beaſt.

7 Thy mercy is aboue all things,
O God, it doth excell :
In truſt whereof as in thy wings,
the ſonnes of men ſhall dwell.
8 Within thy houſe they ſhalbe fed, with plenty at their will :
Of all delights they ſhalbe ſped,
and take thereof their fill.

9 For why ? the well of liſe ſo pure,
doth ouerflow from thee :
And in thy light we are full ſure,
the laſting light to ſee.
10 From ſuch as thee deſire to know,
let not thy grace depart,
Thy righteouſneſſe declare and ſhew,
to men of vpright hart.

11 Let not the proud on me preuaile
O Lord, of thy good grace :
Nor let the wicked mee aſſayle, to throw mee out of place.
12 But they in their deuiſe ſhall fall, that vvicked vvorkes maintaine :
They ſhall be ouerthrovvne vvithall, and neuer riſe againe.

Noli æmulari. Pſal. xxxvij. W.W.

Becauſe the godly ſhould not be daunted to ſee vvicked men proſper, Dauid ſheweth that all things ſhalbe granted euen vvith hearts deſire to them that loue and feare God : but the vvicked albeit they flouriſh for a time, ſhall at length periſh.

Sing this as the 23. Pſalme.

GRudge not to ſee the wicked men in wealth to flouriſh ſtill, Nor yet enuie ſuch as to ill
haue bent and ſet their will.
2 For as greene graſſe flouriſhing herbs are cut and wither away :
So ſhall their great proſperity, ſoone paſſe fade and decay.

3 Truſt thou therefore in God alone, to doe well giue thy minde :
So ſhalt thou haue the land as thine,
and there ſure food ſhalt finde.
4 In God ſet all thy hearts delight, and looke what thou wouldeſt haue,
Or elſe canſt wiſh in all the world,
thou needſt it not to craue.

5 Caſt both thy ſelfe and thine affaires, on God with perfect truſt :
And thou ſhalt ſee with patience,
the effect both ſure and iuſt.
6 Thy perfect life and godly name,
he will cleare as the light :
So that the Sunne euen at noone dayes, ſhall not ſhine halfe ſo bright.

7 Be ſtill therefore and ſtedfaſtly, on God tee thou waite them.
Not ſhrinking for the proſperous ſtate, of lewd and wicked men.
8 Shake off deſpight, enuie and hate,
at leaſt in any wiſe,
Their wicked ſteps auoid and flie,
and follow not their guiſe.

9 For euery wicked man will God
deſtroy both more and leſſe :
But ſuch as truſt in God are ſure,
the land for to poſſeſſe.
10 Watch but a while and thou ſhalt ſee
no more the wicked traine :
No not ſo much as houſe or place,
where once they did remaine.

The ſecond part.

11 But merciſull and humble men,
enioy ſhall ſea and land :
In reſt and peace they ſhall reioyce, for nought ſhall them withſtand :
12 The lewd men and malicious, againſt the iuſt conſpire :
They gnaſh their teeth at him as men
Which doe his bane deſire.

13 But while that lewd men thus doe thinke,
the Lord laughes them to ſcorne.
For why ? he ſeeth their terme approach, when they ſhall ſigh and mourne :

14 The

14 The wicked haue their ſword out drawne, their bow eke haue they bent:
To ouerthrowe and kill the poore,
as they the right way went.
15 But the ſame ſword ſhall pierce their harts which was to kill the iuſt:
Likewiſe the bow ſhall breake in ſhiuers,
wherein they put their truſt.
16 Doubtleſſe the iuſt mans poore eſtate, is better a great deale more,
Then all theſe lewd and worldly mens,
rich pompe and heaped ſtore.
17 For be their power neuer ſo ſtrong,
God will it ouerthrow:
Where contrary he doth preſerue
the humble men and low:
18 He ſeeth by his great prouidence,
the good mans trade and way:
And will giue them inheritance,
which neuer ſhall decay.
19 They ſhall not be diſcouraged, when ſome are hard beſtead:
When others ſhall be hunger bit,
they ſhall be clad and fed.
20 For whoſoeuer wicked is,
and enemie to the Lord:
Shall quaile, yea melt euen as lambes greaſe, or ſmoake that flies abroad.

The third part.

21 Behold the wicked borroweth much,
and neuer payeth againe:
Whereas the iuſt by liberall gifts,
make many glad and faine.
22 For they whom God doth bleſſe ſhall haue
the land for heritage,
And they whom he doth curſe likewiſe,
ſhall periſh in his rage.
23 The Lord the iuſt mans cauſe doth guide, and giues him good ſucceſſe:
To euery thing he takes in hand,
he ſendeth good addreſſe.
24 Though that he fall, yet is he ſure,
not vtterly to quaile, Becauſe the Lord ſtretches out his hand at need, and doth not faile.
25 I haue beene young and now am old,
yet did I neuer ſee,
The iuſt man left, nor yet his ſeede to beg for miſery.
26 But giues alwaies moſt liberally, and lends whereas is neede,
His children and poſterity, receiue of God their meede.
27 Flie vice therefore and wickedneſſe, and vertue doe embrace:
So God ſhall grant thee long to haue,
on earth a dwelling place:
28 For God ſo loueth equitie, and ſheweth to his ſuch grace,
That he preſerues them euermore,
but ſtroyes the wicked race.
29 Whereas the good and godly men, inherit ſhall the land:
Hauing as Lords all things therein,
in their owne power and hand.
30 The iuſt mans mouth doth euer ſpeake,
of matters wiſe and hie;
His tongue doth talke of ediſie,
with trueth and equitie.
31 For in his heart the law of God his Lord doth ſtill abide:
So that where euer he goe or walke,
his foot can neuer ſlide.
32 The wicked like a rauening wolfe,
the iuſt man doth beſet:
By all meanes ſeeking him to kill,
if he fall in his net.

The fourth part.

33 Though he ſhould fall into his hands,
yet God would ſuccour ſend,
Though men againſt him ſentence giue,
God will him yet defend.
34 Waite thou on God and keepe his way, he ſhall preſerue thee then;
The earth to rule, and thou ſhalt ſee deſtroy'd theſe wicked men.
35 The wicked haue I ſeene moſt ſtrong, and plac'd in hie degree:
Flouriſhing in all wealth and ſtore,
as doth the Lawrell tree.
36 But ſuddenly hee paſſeth away,
and loe he was quite gone:
Then I him ſought but could ſcarce finde,
the place where dwelt ſuch one.
37 Marke and behold the perfect man,
how God doth him increaſe:
For the iuſt man ſhall haue at length, great ioy with reſt and peace.
48 As for tranſgreſſours woe to them, deſtroy'd they ſhall all be:
God will cut off their budding race,
and rich poſterity.
29 But the ſaluation of the iuſt,
doth come from God aboue:
Who in their trouble ſends them aide,
of his meere grace and loue.
40 God doth him helpe, ſaue and deliuer,
from lewd men and vniuſt:
And ſtill will ſaue them while that they in him doe put their truſt.

Domine in furore. Pſ. xxxviij. I.H.

Dauid ſicke of ſome grieuous diſeaſe, acknowledgeth himſelfe to be chaſtiſed of the Lord for his ſins: and therefore prayeth God to turne away his wrath, but in the ende with firme confidence commending his cauſe to God, hopeth for ſpeedy helpe at his hand.

Sing this as the humble ſuite of a ſinner.

1 PUt me not to rebuke (O Lord)
in thy prouoaked ire: Ne in thy heauie wrath (O Lord) correct me I deſire.
2 Thine arrowes doe ſticke faſt in me,
thy hand doth preſſe me ſore:
And in my fleſh no health at all,
appeareth any more.
3 And all this is by reaſon of thy wrath that I am in:
Nor any reſt is in my bones,
by reaſon of my ſinne.
4 For loe my wicked doings Lord,
aboue my head are gone:
A greater loade then I can beare,
they lie me ſore vpon.

5 My wounds stinke and are festered sore,
as loathsome for to see :
Which all through mine owne foolishnesse betideth vnto me.
6 And I in carefull wise am brought in trouble and distresse :
That I goe wayling all the day in dolefull heauinesse.
7 My loynes are fil'd with sore disease, my flesh hath no whole part :
8 I feeble am, and broken sore,
I roare for griefe of heart.
9 Thou know'st Lord my desire, my groanes are open in thy sight :
10 My heart doth pant, my strength hath faild, mine eyes haue lost their light.

11 My louers and my wonted friends stand looking on my woe :
And eke my kinsmen farre away are me departed fro.
12 They that did seeke my life layd snares, and they that sought the way To doe me hurt, spake lies and thought on treason all the day.

The second part.

13 But as a deafe man I became,
that cannot heare at all :
14 And as one dumbe that opens not his mouth to speake withall.
15 For all my confidence, O Lord, is wholy set on thee :
16 O Lord, thou Lord that art my God, thou shalt giue eare to me.
17 This did I craue that they my foes triumph not ouer me :
For when my foote did slip, then they did ioy my fall to see,
And truely I poore wretch am set in place a wofull wight :
And eke my grieuous heauinesse is euer in my sight.
18 For while that I my wickednesse in humble wise confesse :
And while I for my sinfull deedes
my sorrowes doe expresse.
19 My foes doe still remaine aliue, and mightie are also :
And they that hate me wrongfully in number hugely grow.

20 They stand against me that my good,
with euill doe repay :
Because that good and honest things
I doe ensue alway.
21 Forsake me not my Lord my God,
be thou not farre away :
Haste me to helpe, my Lord my God,
my safety and my stay.

Dixi custodiam. Psal. xxxix. I.H.

Dauid hauing determined silence, yet brast forth into words that he would not, through his bitter griefe. For he maketh certaine requests which taste of mans infirmities, yet mixed with many prayers, and all to shew a minde wonderfully troubled, that it might appeare how he did striue mightily against death and desperation.

Sing this as the humble suite of a Sinner.

I Sayd I will looke to my wayes, for feare I should goe wrong :
I will take heede all times that I offend not in my tongue :
2 As with a bit I will keepe fast my mouth with force and might :
Not once to whisper all the while the wicked are in sight.
3 I held my tongue, and spake no word, but kept me close and still :
Yea from good talke I did refraine, but sore against my will.
4 My heart waxt hot within my breast, with musing, thought and doubt :
Which did increase and stirre the fire,
at last these wordes burst out.
5 Lord number out my life and dayes, which yet I haue not past :
So that I may be certified how long my life shall last.
6 Lord thou hast pointed out my life in lenght much like a span :
Mine age is nothing vnto thee,
so vaine is euery man.

7 Man walketh like a shade, and doth in vaine himselfe annoy :
In getting goods and cannot tell who shall the same enioy.
8 Now Lord such things this wise doe frame, what helpe doe I desire ?
Of trueth my helpe doth hang on thee,
I nothing els require.

The second part.

9 From all the sinnes that I haue done,
Lord quite mee out of hand :
And make mee not a scorne to fooles,
that nothing vnderstand.
10 I was as dumbe, and to complaine,
no trouble might mee moone:
Because I knew it was thy worke,
my patience for to prooue.

11 Lord take from mee thy scourge & plague
I can them not withstand :
I faint and pine away, for feare,
of thy most heauie hand.
12 When thou for sinne doest man rebuke
he waxeth wo and wan :
As doth a cloath that mothes haue fret,
so vaine a thing is man.

13 Lord heare my suite & giue good heede regard my teares that fall :
I sojourne like a stranger here,
as did my fathers all.
14 O spare a little, giue me space,
my strength for to restore :
Before I goe away from hence,
and shall be seene no more.

Expectans expectavi. Psa. xl. I.H.

Dauid deliuered from great danger, doeth magnifie God therefore, and commendeth his prouidence towards all mankinde. Then he promiseth to giue himselfe wholy to Gods seruice, and declareth how God is truely worshipped, afterward he giueth thankes, and hauing complained of his enemies, he calleth for aid and succour.

Sing this as the 35. Psalme.

I Wayted long and sought the Lord,
and patiently did heare,
At length to me he did accord,

my

my voyce and crie to heare.
2 He pluckt me from the lake ſo deepe,
out of the mire and clay:
And on a rocke did ſet my feet,
and he did guide my way.

3 To me he taught a Pſalme of prayſe, which I muſt ſhew abroad:
And ſing new ſongs of thankes alwaies,
vnto the Lord our God.
4 When all the folke theſe things ſhall ſee,
as people much afraid:
Then they vnto the Lord will flee,
and truſt vpon his aid.

5 O bleſt is he whoſe hope and heart
doth in the Lord remaine, That with the proud doth take no part,
nor ſuch as lie and faine.
6 For Lord my God thy wondrous deedes in greatneſſe farre doe paſſe:
They fauour towards vs exceedes all things that euer was.

7 When I intend, and doe deuiſe thy workes abroad to ſhew:
To ſuch a reckoning they doe riſe, thereof no end I know.
8 Burnt offrings thou delightſt not in,
I know thy whole deſire:
With ſacrifice to purge his ſinne, thou doeſt no man require.

9 Meate offerings and ſacrifice, thou wouldſt not haue at all:
But thou, O Lord haſt open made mine eares to heare withall.
10 But then ſayd I, behold and looke,
I come a meane to be:
For in the volume of thy Booke,
thus is it ſayd of mee;

11 That I O God ſhould doe thy minde, which thing doth like me well:
For in my heart thy Law I finde, faſt placed there to dwell.
12 Thy iuſtice and thy righteouſneſſe in great reſorts I tell:
Behold my tongue no time doth ceaſe,
O Lord, thou knowſt full well.

The ſecond part.

13 I haue not hid within my breaſt thy goodneſſe as by ſtealth:
But I declare and haue expreſt, thy truetb and ſauing health.
14 I keepe not cloſe thy louing minde, that no man ſhould it know:
The truth that in thy trueth I finde, to all the Church I ſhow.

For I with miſchiefes many one am ſore beſet about:
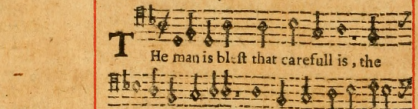
My ſinnes increaſe and ſo come on,
I cannot ſpie them out.
15 For why? in number they exceede
the haires vpon my head:
My heart doeth faint for very dread,
that I am almoſt dead.

16 With ſpeede ſend helpe, and ſet me free,
O Lord, I thee require:
Make haſt with aid to ſuccour me,
O Lord at my deſire.



17 Let them ſuſtaine rebuke and ſhame,
that ſeeke my ſoule to ſpill:
Driue backe my foes, and them defame that wiſh and would me ill.

18 For their ill feates doe them deſcrie, that would deface my name:
Alwayes at me they rayle and crie,
fie on him, fie for ſhame.
19 Let them in thee haue ioy and wealth, that ſeeke to thee alwayes:
That thoſe that loue thy ſauing health,
may ſay to God be prayſe.

20 But as for me, I am but poore, oppreſt, and brought fullow;
Yet thou, O Lord, wilt me reſtore to health full well I know: 21 For why? thou art my hope and truſt,
my refuge, helpe, and ſtay:
Wherefore my God, as thou art iuſt, with me no time delay.

Beatus qui intelligit. Pſal. xlj. T.S.

Dauid grieuously afflicted, bleſſeth them that pitty his caſe, complaining of faithleſſe friends, ſuch as Iudas, Ioh. 13. Then he giueth thanks for Gods mercie, in chaſtiſing him gently, not ſuffering his enemies to triumph.

3 And in his bed when he lies ſicke,
the Lord will him reſtore:
And thou, O Lord, wilt turne to health his ſickneſſe and his ſore.
4 Then in my ſickneſſe thus ſay I,
haue mercy Lord on me,
And heale my ſoule, which is full woe that I offended thee.

5 Mine enemies wiſh me ill in heart,
and thus of me did ſay:
When ſhall he die that all his Name may vanish quite away?
6 And when they come to viſit me,
they aske if I doe well:
But in their hearts miſchiefe they hatch,
and to their mates it tell.

7 They bite their lips, and whiſper ſo, as though they would me charme:

And

And caſt their fetches how to trap me with ſome mortall harme.
8 Some grieuous ſinne hath brought him to this ſickenes ſay they plaine:
He is ſo low that without doubt riſe can he not againe.

9 The man alſo that I did truſt with me did vſe deceit:
Who at my table eate my bred,
the ſame for me laid waite.
10 Haue mercy Lord on me therefore,
and let me be preſerued:
That I may render vnto them,
the things they haue deſerued.

11 By this I know aſſuredly,
I am beloued of thee:
When that mine enemies haue no cauſe to triumph ouer mee.
12 But in my right thou haſt me kept,
and maintained alway:
And in thy preſence place aſſign'd,
where I ſhall dwell for aye.

13 The Lord the God of Iſrael be praiſed euermore:
Euen ſo be it, Lord will I ſay, euen ſo be it therefore.

Quemadmodum. Pſal. xlij. I. H.

David is grieued that through perſecution he could not be preſent in the congregation, proteſting his preſence in heart, albeit in body ſeperate: at laſt hee ſorroweth, that notwithſtanding theſe ſorrowes and thoughts, yet hee continually putteth his confidence in the Lord.

Sing this as the 35. Pſalme.

LIke as the Hart doth breath and bray
the welſpring to obtaine:
So doth my ſoule deſire alway with thee Lord to remaine.
2 My ſoule doth thirſt, and would draw neare
the liuing God of might:
Oh when ſhall I come and appeare in preſence of his ſight?

3 The teares all times are my repaſt, which from mine eyes doe ſlide:
When wicked men crie out ſo faſt,
where now is God thy guide?
4 Alas, what griefe is this to thinke what freedome once I had?
Therefore my ſoule as at pits brinke
moſt heauy is and ſad.

When I did march in good aray,
furniſhed with my traine, Vnto the temple was our way,
with ſongs and hearts moſt faine.
5 My heart why art thou ſad alwayes,
and freſt thus in my breſt?
Truſt ſtill in God, for him to praiſe
I hold it euer beſt.

By him I haue ſuccour at need againſt all paine and griefe:
He is my God vvhich vvith all ſpeed vvill haſte to ſend reliefe.
6 And thus my ſoule vvithin me Lord doth faint to thinke vpon,
The land of Iordan, and record
the little hill Hermon,

7 One griefe another in doth call,
as clouds burſt out their voyce:
The flouds of euill that doe fall,
runne ouer me with noiſe.
8 Yet I by day felt thy goodnes, and helpe at all aſſaies:
Likewiſe by night I did not ceaſe
the liuing God to praiſe.

9 I am perſwaded thus to ſay to him with pure pretence:
O Lord, thou art my guide and ſtay,
my rocke and my defence.
Why doe I then in penſiueneſſe hanging the head thus walke?
While that mine enemies me oppreſſe and vexe me with their talke.

10 For why? they vexe mine inward parts,
with pangs to be abhor'd:
When they cry out with ſtubborne hearts,
where is thy God thy Lord?
11 So ſoone why doſt thou faint and quaile, my ſoule, with paine oppreſt?
With thoughts why doſt thy ſelfe aſſaile,
ſo ſore within my breſts?

12 Truſt in the Lord thy God alwayes, and thou the time ſhalt ſee,
To giue him thankes with laud and praiſe,
for health reſtored to thee.

Iudica me Dom. Pſal. xliij. T. S.

He prayeth to be deliuered from them vvhich conſpire vvith Abſalon, to the end that he might ioyfully praiſe God in his holy congregation.

Sing this as the 35. Pſalme.

IVdge and reuenge my cauſe, O Lord, from them that euill be:
From wicked and deceitfull men,
O Lord deliuer mee.
2 For of my ſtrength thou art the God
why puſt thou me thee fro?
And why walke I ſo heauily oppreſſed with my foe.

3 Send out thy light, and eke thy truetht, and lead me with thy grace:
Which may conduct me to thy hill,
and to thy dvvelling place.
4 Then ſhal I to the Altar goe of God my ioy and cheare:
And on my Harpe giue thankes to thee,
O God, my God moſt deare.

5 Why art thou then ſo ſad my ſoule,
and freſt thus in my breſt?
Still truſt in God for him to praiſe
I hold it alvvayes beſt.
6 By him I haue deliuerance
againſt all paine and griefe:
He is my God, vvhich doth alvvay at need ſend me reliefe.

Deus auribus. Pſal. xliiij. T. S.

A moſt earneſt prayer made in the name of the faithfull in perſecution for ſuſtaining the quarrell of Gods vvord, as in Paul, Rom. 8.

OVr eares haue heard our fathers tell,

3 The people he shall make to be,
vnto our bondage thrall:
And vnderneath our feete he shall,
the nations make to shall.
4 For vs the heritage he chose,
which we possesse alone:
The flourishing worship of Iaakob, his well beloued one.

5 Our God ascendeth vpon hie, with ioy and pleasant noise:
The Lord goeth vp aboue the skie, with trumpets royall voyce.
6 Sing praises to our God, sing praise,
sing praises to our King;
7 For God is king of all the earth,
all skilfull praises sing.

8 God on the heathen raignes, and sits vpon his holy throne:
9 The Princes of the people haue, them ioyned euery one:
To Abrahams people, for our God which is exalted hie:
As with a buckler doth defend,
the earth continually.

Magnus Dom. xlviij. I.H.

Thankes are giuen to God for the notable deliuerance of Ierusalem from the hands of many kings, the estate whereof is praised for that God is present at all times to defend it: this Psalme seemeth to be made in the time of Ahaz, Iosaphat, Asa, or Ezekias, for then chiefly was the City by forraine Princes assaulted.

Sing this as the 46 Psalme.

GReat is the Lord and with great praise, to be aduanced still:
Within the Citie of our God,
vpon his holy hill.
2 Mount Sion is a pleasant place,
it gladdeth all the land:
The city of the mighty King,
on her Northside doth stand.

3 Within the Pallaces thereof,
God is a refuge knowne:
For loe the kings are gathered, and together eke are gone.
4 But when they did behold it so, they wondred and they were Astonied much, and sodainely, were driuen backe with feare.

5 Great terrors then on them doe fall,
for very woe they cry:
As doeth a woman when she shall,
goe trauell by and by.
6 As thou with Easterne winde thy ships,
vpon the sea dost breake:
So they were staid, and euen as we heard our father speake.

7 Loe in the City of our God, we saw as it was told:
Yea in the Citie which our God,
for euer will vphold.
8 O Lord we waite and doe attend, on thy good help and grace,
For which we doe all times attend within thy holy place.

9 O Lord according to thy name, for euer is thy praise:
And thy right hand, O Lord is full of righteousnes alwayes.
10 Let for thy iudgements Sion mount, fulfilled be with ioyes:
And eke of Iudah graunt (O Lord)
the daughters to reioyce.

11 Go walke about all Syon hill,
yea round about her go:
And tell the towres that there vpon are builded on a roe.
12 And marke you well her bulwarkes all,
behold her towres there:
That ye may tell thereof to them,
that after shalbe heere.

13 For this God is our God, for euermore is hee:
Yea and vnto the deeth also,
our guider shall he be.

Audite hæc omnes. Psal. xlix. I.H.

Gods spirit moueth the consideration of mans life, shewing that the wealthiest are not the happiest: but noteth how all things are ruled by Gods prouidence vvho as he iudgeth these vvorldly misers to euerlasting torments, so he preserueth his, and vvill reward them in the day of the resurrection. 1. Thes. 1.

Sing this as the 46. Psalme.

ALl people harken and giue eare,
to that that I shall tell:
2 Both high and low, both rich and poore,
that in the world doe dwell:
3 For why? my mouth shall make discourse, of many things right wise:
In vnderstanding shall my heart his studie exercise.

4 I will incline my heart to know the parable so darke?
And open all the doubtfull speech,
in meeter on my harpe.
5 Why should I feare afflictions, or any carefull toyle:
Or els my foes which at my heeles,
are prest my life to spoile?

6 For as for such as riches haue, wherein their trust is most:
And they which of their treasures great,
themselues doe brag and boast.
7 There is not one of them that can,
his brothers death redeeme:
Or that can giue a price to God sufficient for him.
8 It is to great a price to pay,
none can thereto attaine:
9 Or that he might his life prolong,
or nor in graue remaine.
10 They see wise men as well as fooles, subiect vnto deaths bands:
And being dead, strangers possesse their goods, their rents, their lands?
11 Their care is to build houses faire,
and to determine sure,
To make their name right great on earth
for euer to endure.
12 Yet shall no man alwayes enioy, high honnor, wealth and rest:

But

But ſhall at length taſte of deaths cup, as well as the bruite beaſt.

The ſecond part.

13 And though they try their fooliſhneſſe to be moſt lewd and vaine:
Their children yet approoue their talke,
and in like ſinne remaine.
14 As ſheepe into the fould are brought,
ſo ſhall they into graue:
Death ſhall them eate, and in that day,
the iuſt ſhall Lordſhip haue.

Their Image and their royall port ſhall fade and quite decay:
When as from houſe to pit they paſſe with woe and well away.
15 But God ſhall ſurely preſerue me from death and endleſſe paine: Becauſe he will of his good grace
my ſoule receiue againe.

16 If any man waxe wondrous rich, feare not I ſay therefore:
Although the glory of his houſe encreaſeth more and more.
17 For when he dyeth, of all theſe things nothing ſhall he receiue:
His glory will not follow him,
his pompe will take her leaue.

18 Yet in this life he takes himſelfe
the happieſt vnder ſunne:
And others likewiſe flatter him,
and ſay all is well done.
19 And preſuppoſe he liue as long as did his fathers old:
Yet muſt he needs at length giue place,
and be brought to deaths fould.

20 Thus man to honour God hath call'd, yet doth he not conſider:
But like bruite beaſts ſo doth he liue, which turne to duſt and powder.

Deus Deorum. Pſal. L. W. W.

Hee prophecied that God vvill call all nations by the Goſpell, and require no other ſacrifice of his people, but confeſſion of his benefits, and thankgiuing: and howv he deteſteth all ſuch as ſeeme zealous of ceremonies, and not of the pure vvord of God onely.

THe mighty God th'eternall hath thus ſpoke, And all the world he will call and prouoke, Euen from the Eaſt, and ſo foorth to the Weſt. 2. From toward Sion which place him liketh beſt: God will appeare in beauty moſt excellent. 3. Our God will come before that long time be ſpent.

Deuouring fire
ſhall goe before his face,
A great tempeſt
ſhall round about him trace.
4 Then ſhall he call the earth and heauens bright,
To iudge his folke
with equitie and right.
5 Saying, goe to,
and now my Saints aſſemble:
My peace they keepe,
their gifts doe not diſſemble.

6 The heauens ſhall declare his righteouſneſſe:
For God is iudge of all things more and leſſe.
7 Heare my people,
For I will now reueale:
Liſt Iſrael,
I will thee nought conceale, Thy God, thy God am I, and will not blame thee, 8 For giuing not,
all manner offrings to me.

9 I haue no neede to take of thee at all Goats of thy fould, or Calfe out of thy ſtall:
10 For all the beaſts are mine within the woods:
On thouſand hils
Cattell are mine owne goods.
11 I know for mine
all birds that are on mountaines,
All beaſts are mine that haunt the fields and fountaines.

12 Hungry if I were
I would not thee it tell:
For all is mine
That in the world doth dwell.
13 Eate I the fleſh of great buls and bullocks?
Or drinke the blood of Goates and of the flockes?
14 Offer to God
praiſe and hearty thankeſgiuing
And pay thy vowes vnto God euerliuing.

15 Call vpon me when troubled thou ſhalt be, Then will I helpe,
and thou ſhalt honour me.
16 To the wicked
thus ſaith th'eternall God:
Why doſt thou preach
my lawes and teſts abroad?

Seeing thou haſt
them with thy mouth abuſed, 17 And hat'ſt to be by diſcipline reformed.
My words I ſay,
thou doſt reiect and hate:
18 If that thou ſee
a theefe as with thy mate, Thou runn'ſt with him
and ſo your prey doe ſeeke:
And art all one with bawds and ruffians eke.
19 Thou giu'ſt thy ſelfe to backebite and to ſlaunder, And how thy tongue
deceiueth it's a wonder.

20 Thou ſitteſt muſing,
thy brother how to blame,
And how to put thy mothers ſonne to ſhame.
21 Theſe things thou didſt, and whilſt I held my tongue Thou didſt me iudge, becauſe I ſtaid ſo long,
Like to thy ſelfe:
yet though I keepe long ſilence, Once ſhalt thou feele of thy wrongs iuſt recompence.

22 Conſider this ye that forget the Lord:
And feare not when hee threatneth with his word, Leaſt without helpe
I ſpoyle you as a prey.
23 But hee that thankes
offreth, praiſeth me aye, Saith the Lord God:
and hee that walketh this trace,
I will him teach
Gods ſauing health to embrace.

Another of the ſame by I. H.

THe God of Gods, the Lord, hath call'd the earth by name:
From where the Sunne doth riſe vnto
the ſetting of the ſame.
2 From Sion his faire place, his glory bright and cleare:
The perfect beauty of his grace,
from thence it did appeare.

3 Our God ſhall come in haſte, to ſpeake hee ſhall not doubt:
Before him ſhall the fire waſte, and tempeſt round about.
4 The heauens from on hie
the earth below likewiſe:
Hee will call forth to iudge and trie his folke hee doth deuiſe.

5 Bring forth my Saints (ſaith hee)
my faithfull flocke ſo deare:
Which are in bond and league with me
my law to loue and feare.
6 And when theſe things are tride
the heauens ſhall record:
That God is iuſt, and all muſt bide
the iudgement of the Lord.

7 My people, O giue heed,
Iſrael to thee I crie:
I am thy God thy helpe at neede,
thou canſt it not denie.
8 I doe not ſay to thee,
thy ſacrifice is ſlacke:
Thou offereſt dayly vnto me much more then I doe lacke.

9 Think'ſt thou that I doe neede thy cattell yong or old?
Or elſe deſire ſo much to feede on Goates out of thy fold?
10 Nay, all the beaſts are mine,
in woods that eate their fils.
And thouſands more of neate and kine that runne wilde on the hils.

The ſecond part.

11 The birds that build on high in hils and out of ſight:
And beaſts that in the fields doe ly, are ſubiect to my might.
12 Then though I hungred ſore, what neede I ought of thine:
Sith that the earth with her great ſtore,
and all therein is mine?

13 To buls fleſh haue I minde, to eate it, doſt thou thinke?
Or ſuch a ſweetneſſe doe I finde
the blood of Goates to drinke?
14 Giue to the Lord his prayſe, with thanks to him apply:
And ſee thou pay thy vowes alwayes
vnto the God moſt hie.

15 Then ſeeke and call to me, when ought would worke thee blame:
And I will ſure deliuer thee,
that thou maiſt prayſe my name.
16 But to the wicked traine, which talke of God each day:
And yet their workes are foule and vaine,
to them the Lord will ſay:

17 With what a face dar'ſt thou my word once ſpeake or name?
Why doth thy talke my law allow?
thy deedes denie the ſame.
18 Whereas for to amend thy life thou art ſo ſlacke:
My word the which thou doſt pretend,
is caſt behinde thy backe.

The third part.

19 When thou a thiefe doſt ſee
by theft to liue in wealth:
With him thou runſt, and doſt agree likewiſe to thriue by ſtealth:
20 When thou doſt them behold, that wiues and maids defile:
Thou lik'ſt it well, and waxeſt bold,
to lead that life moſt vile.

21 Thy lips thou doſt apply to ſlander and deſame:
Thy tongue is taught to craft and lye,
and ſtill doth vſe the ſame.

22 Thou

22 Thou studiest to reuile, thy friends to thee so neere
With slander thou would'st needs defile, thy mothers sonne most deare.
23 Hereat while I doe winke, as though I did not see:
Thou goest on still, and so dost thinke that I am like to thee:
24 But sure I will not let,
to strike when I begin:
Thy faults in order I will set,
and open all thy sinne.

25 Marke this I you require, that haue not God in minde:
Least when I plague you in mine ire,
your helpe be farre to finde.
26 He that doth giue to me,
the sacrifice of prayse Doth please me well, and he shall see,
to walke in godly wayes.

Miserere mei. Psal. Lj. W. W.

Dauid rebuked by the Prophet Nathan for his great offences, acknowledged the same to God, protestings his naturall corruption, wherefore he prayeth God to forgiue his sinnes, & renewy in him his holy spirit, promising that hee will not be vnmindfull of those great graces. Finally fearing least God would punish the whole Church for his fault, he requires that he would rather increase his grace towards the same.

3 Remorse and sorow doth constraine, me to acknowledge mine excesse:
My sinnes alas doe still remaine.
4 Before my face without release,
For thee alone I haue offended, committing euill in thy sight,
And if I were therefore condemned,
yet were thy iudgements iust and right.

5 It is too manifest alas,
that first I was conceiued in sinne:
Yea of my mother so borne was,
and yet vile wretch remaine therein.
6 Also behold Lord thou dost loue,
the inward trueth of a pure heart:
Therefore thy wisedome from aboue, thou hast reueal'd me to conuert.

7 If thou with Isop purge this blot,
I shallbe cleaner then the glasse,
And if thou wash away my spot,
the snow in whitenesse shall I passe.
8 Therefore O Lord, such ioy me send,
that inwardly I may find grace:
And that my strength may now amend,
which thou hast swag'd for my trespasse.

9 Turne backe thy face and frowning ire,
for I haue felt enough thy hand:
And purge my sinnes I thee desire,
which doe in number passe the sand.
10 Make new my heart within my brest, and frame it to thy holy will:
Thy constant spirit in me let rest, which may these raging enemies kill.

The second part.

11 Cast me not Lord out from thy face,
but speedily my torments end,
Take not from me thy spirit and grace, which may from dangers me defend.
12 Restore me to those ioyes againe, which I was wont in thee to finde:
And let me thy free spirit retaine, which vnto thee may stirre my minde.

13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein:
And men that are likewise brought low,
by mine example shall flie sinne.
14 O God that of my health art Lord, forgiue me this my bloody vice:
My heart and tongue shall then accord,
to sing thy mercies and iustice.

15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue vntie,
O Lord, which art the onely kay:
And then my mouth shall testifie,
thy wondrous workes and prayse alway.
16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would haue offered many one:
But thou esteem'st them of no price,
and therein pleasure takest none.

17 The heauy heart, the minde oppresst,
O Lord thou neuer dost reiect:
And to speake trueth it is the best and of all sacrifice the effect.
18 Lord vnto Sion turne thy face, powre out thy mercy on thy hill,
And on Ierusalem thy grace, build vp the walles and loue it still.

19 Thou shalt accept then our offrings, of peace and righteousnesse I say:
Yea calues and many other things,
vpon thine altar will we lay.

Another of the ſame by T.S.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

HAue mercy on me God after,
thy great abundant grace:
After thy mercies multitude,
doe thou my ſinnes deface.
2 Yea, waſh me more from mine offence, and cleanſe me from my ſinne,
For I doe know my faults, and ſtill my ſinnes are in mine eyne.

3 Againſt thee, thee alone I haue offended in this caſe:
And euill haue I done before the preſence of thy face.
4 That in the things that thou doſt ſay, vpright thou maiſt be tride:
And eke in iudgement that the dome
may paſſe vpon thy ſide.

5 Behold in wickedneſſe my kinde, and ſhape I did receiue:
And loe my ſinfull mother eke,
in ſinne did me conceiue.
6 But loe the trueth in inward parts,
is pleaſant vnto thee:
And ſecrets of thy wiſedome thou,
reueaſed haſt to me.

7 With Iſope Lord beſprinkle me,
I ſhall be cleanſed ſo:
Yea, waſh thou me, and ſo ſhall I,
be whiter then the ſnow.
8 Of ioy and gladneſſe make thou mee, to heare the pleaſant voyce:
That ſo the bruiſed bones, which thou haſt broken may reioyce.

9 From the beholding of my ſinnes,
Lord turne away thy face:
And all my deeds of wickednes, doe vtterly deface:
10 O God create in me a heart,
vnſpotted in thy ſight:
And eke within my bowels Lord,
renue a ſtable ſpirit.

11 Ne caſt me from thy ſight, nor take thy holy ſpirit away:
The comforts of thy ſauing helpe,
giue me againe I pray.
12 With thy free ſpirit eſtabliſh me, and I will teach therefore Sinners thy wayes, and wicked ſhall, be turn'd vnto thy lore.

The ſecond part.

13 O God, that art my God of health,
from blood deliuer me:
That praiſes of thy righteouſneſſe,
my tongue may ſing to thee.
14 My lips that yet faſt cloſed be,
doe thou O Lord vnloſſe:
The praiſes of thy maieſtie,
my mouth ſhall ſo diſcloſe.

15 I would haue offered ſacrifice,
if that had pleaſed thee:
But pleaſed with burnt offrings
I know thou wilt not be:
16 A troubled ſpirit is ſacrifice, delightfull in Gods eyes.
A broken and an humble heart,
God thou wilt not deſpiſe.

17 In thy good will deale gently Lord, to Sion, and withall:
Grant that of thy Ieruſalem, vpreard may be the wall.
18 Burnt offrings, gifts, and ſacrifice, of iuſtice in that day:
Thou ſhalt accept, and Calues they ſhall vpon thine altar lay.

Quid gloriaris? Pſal. Lij. I.H.

Dauid deſcribeth the arrogant tyrannie of Doeg, Sauls chiefe ſhepheard, who by falſe ſurmiſes cauſed Abimelech and the Prieſts to be ſlaine, he prophecyeth his deſtruction, encourageth the faithfull to truſt in God, who moſt ſharpely reuengeth his, and rendreth thankes for his deliuerance. Herein is liuely ſet foorth the kingdome of Antichriſt.

3 On miſchiefe why ſetſt thou thy minde, and wilt not walke vpright?
Thou haſt more luſt falſe tales to fiude,
then bring the trueth to light.
4 Thou doeſt delight in fraud and guile, in miſchiefe, blood and wrong,
Thy lips haue learn'd the flattering ſtile,
O falſe deceitfull tongue.

5 Therefore ſhall God for euer confound and pluckt thee from thy place:
Thy ſeed root out from off the ground,
and ſo ſhall thee deface.
6 The iuſt when they behold thy fall, with feare will prayſe the Lord.
And in reproach of thee withall, cry out with one accord.

7 Behold the man that would not take the Lord for his defence:
But of his goods his God did make,
and truſt his corrupt ſenſe.
8 But I an Oliue freſh and greene, will ſpring and ſpread abroad:

For why? my truſt all times hath beene
vpon the liuing God.
9 For this therefore will I giue prayſe to thee with heart and voyce:
I will ſet forth thy name alwayes, wherein thy Saints reioyce.

Dixit inſipiens. Pſal. Liij. T.S.

Dauid deſcribeth the crooked nature, cruelty and puniſhment of the vvicked, vvhen they looke not for it, and deſireth the deliuerance of the godly, that they may reioyce together.

Sing this as the 46 Pſalme.

THe fooliſh man in that which he,
within his heart hath ſayd,
That there is any God at all,
he vtterly denaid.
2 They are corrupt and they alſo,
a haynous worke haue wrought:
Among them all there is not one,
of good that worketh ought.
3 The Lord lookt downe on ſons of men,
from heauen all abroad,
To ſee if any were that would be wiſe, and ſeeke for God.
4 They are all gone out of the way,
they are corrupted all:
There is not one doth any good,
there is not one at all.
5 Doe not all wicked workers know, that they doe feede vpon,
My people as they feed on bread,
the Lord they call not on.
6 Euen there they were afraid, and ſtood, with trembling all diſmaid:
Whereas there was no cauſe at all,
why they ſhould be afraid.
7 For God his bones, that thee beſieg'd, hath ſcattered all abroad:
Thou haſt confounded them, for they reiected are of God.
8 O Lord, giue thou thy people health,
and thou, O Lord fulfill:
Thy promiſe made to Iſraell,
from out of Sion hill.
9 When God his people ſhall reſtore, that earſt was captiue lad:
Then Iaakob ſhall therein reioyce,
and Iſrael ſhalbe glad.

Deus in nomine. Pſal. Liiij. I.H.

Dauid in great danger through Ziphims, calleth vpon God to deſtroy his enemies, promiſing ſacrifice for his deliuerance.

Sing this as the 46 Pſalme.

GOd ſaue mee for thy holy name,
and for thy goodneſſe ſake:
Vnto the ſtrength Lord of the ſame,
I doe my cauſe betake.
2 Regard, O Lord, and giue an eare to me when I doe pray, Bow downe thy ſelfe to me and heare,
the words that I doe ſay.
3 For ſtrangers vp againſt mee riſe, and tyrants vexe me ſtill,
Which haue not God before their eyes,
they ſeeke my ſoule to ſpill.
4 But loe, my God doth giue me aide,
the Lord is ſtraight at hand:
With them by whom my ſoule is ſtaid,
the Lord doth euer ſtand.
5 With plagues repay againe all thoſe,
for me that lie in waite:
And in thy truth deſtroy my foes,
with their owne ſnare and baite.
6 And offring of free heart and will,
then I to thee ſhall make:
And prayſe thy name, for therein ſtill great comfort I doe take.
7 O Lord, at length doe ſet me free, from them that craft conſpire:
And now mine eyes with ioy doe ſee,
on them my hearts deſire.

Exaudi Deus. Pſal. Lv. I.H.

Dauid in great diſtreſſe, complaineth of Sauls cruelty, and falſhood of his familiar acquaintance, effectually mouing the Lord to pittie him. Then aſſured of deliuerance, he ſetteth foorth the grace of God as if he had already obteined his requeſt.

Sing this as the 46 Pſalme.

O God giue eare and doe apply,
to heare me when I pray:
And when to thee I call and cry, hide not thy face away.
2 Take heed to mee, grant my requeſt, and anſwere mee againe:
With plaints I pray, full ſore oppreſt, great griefe doth me conſtraine.
3 Becauſe my foes with threats and cries, oppreſſe me through deſpight:
And ſo the wicked ſort likewiſe,
to vexe mee haue delight.
4 For they in counſell doe conſpire, to charge me with ſome ill:
So with their haſtie wrath and ire,
they doe purſue me ſtill.
5 My heart doth faint for want of breath,
it panteth in my breſt:
The terrours and the dread of Death,
doth worke me much vnreſt.
6 Such dreadfull feare on me doth fall,
that I therewith doe quake:
Such horrour whelmeth me withall, that I no ſhift can make.
7 But I doe ſay, who will giue me the ſwift and pleaſant winges
Of ſome faire doue that I may flee, and reſt me from theſe things.
8 Loe then I would goe farre away,
to flie I would not ceaſe:
And I would hide my ſelfe and ſtay in ſome great wilderneſſe.
9 I would be gone in all the haſt,
and not abide behind:
That I were quite and ouerpaſt theſe blaſtes of boyſtrous winde.
10 Deuide them Lord, and from them pull their diueliſh double tongue:
For I haue ſpied their Citie full,
of rapine, ſtrife and wrong.

11 Which things both night & day through-did close her as a wall, (out,
In midst of her is mischiefe stout,
and sorrow eke withall.
12 Her private parts are wicked plaine, her deeds are much too vile :
And in her streets there doth remaine,
all craftie fraude and guile.

The second part.

13 If that my foes did seeke my shame,
I might it well abide :
From open enemies checke and blame,
some where I could mee hide :
14 But thou it was my fellow deare, which friendship did pretend :
And didst my secret counsell heare,
as my familiar friend.

15 With whom I had delight to talke,
in secret and abroad :
And wee together oft did walke,
within the house of God.
16 Let death in haste vpon them fall,
and send them quicke to hell :
For mischiefe raigneth in their hall,
and parlour where they dwell.

17 But I vnto my God doe crie, to him for helpe I flee :
The Lord doth heare mee by and by,
and he doth succour me.
18 At morning, noone, and euening tide :
vnto the Lord I pray :
When I so instantly haue cride,
he doth not say me nay.

19 To peace he shall restore me yet, though warres be neere at hand :
Although the number be full great,
that would against me stand.
20 The Lord that first and last doth raigne,
both now and euermore,
Will heare when I to him complaine, and punish them full sore.

21 For sure there is no hope that they to turne will once accord :
For why ? they will not God obey,
nor doe not feare the Lord.
22 Upon their friends they laid their hands, which were in couenant knit :
Of friendship to neglect the bands,
they passe or care no whit.

23 While they haue war within their hearts,
as butter are their words :
Although their words were smooth as oyle,
they cut as sharpe as swords.
24 Cast thou thy care vpon the Lord, and he shall nourish thee :
For in no wise will he accord
the iust in thrall to see.

25 But God shall cast them deepe in pit, that thirst for blood alwaies :
He will no guilefull man permit,
to liue out halfe his dayes.
26 Though such be quite destroi'd and gone,
in thee O Lord, I trust :
I shall depend thy grace vpon,
with all my heart and lust,

Miserere mei. Psal. Lvj. I.H.

Dauid being brought to Achis the King of Gath, 1. Sam. 21. 12. complaineth of his enemies, demandeth succour, trusteth in God, and promiseth to performe his vowe, which was to praise God in his Church.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

HAue mercy Lord on mee I pray,
for man would me deuoure :
He fighteth with me day by day,
and troubleth me eash houre.
2 Mine enemies dayly enterprise, to swallow mee outright :
To fight against mee many rise,
O thou most high of might.

3 When they would make me most afraid with boasts and brags of pride :
I trust in thee alone for aide,
By thee will I abide :
4 Gods promise I doe minde and praise,
O Lord, I sticke to thee :
I doe not care at all affaies,
what man can doe to mee.

5 What things I either did or spake, they wrest them at their will :
And all the counsell that they take,
is how to worke me ill.
6 They all consent themselues to hide, close watch for me to lay :
They spie my pathes, and snares haue layd,
to take my life away.

7 Shall they thus scape on mischiefe set ?
thou God on them wilt frowne :
For in his wrath he doth not let,
to throw whole kingdomes downe.
8 Thou seest how oft they make me flee, and on my teares doest looke :
Reserue them in a glasse by thee,
and write them in thy booke.

9 When I doe call vpon thy name,
my foes away doe start :
I well perceiue it by the same,
that God doth take my part.
10 I glory in the word of God,
to praise it I accord :
With ioy I will declare abroad,
the promise of the Lord.

11 I trust in God and yet I say,
as I before began :
The Lord he is my helpe and stay,
I doe not care for man.
12 I will performe with heart so free,
to God my vowds alwaies :
And I (O Lord) all times to thee, will offer thankes and praise.

13 My soule from death thou dost defend,
and keepest my feet vpright :
That I before thee may ascend, with such as liue in light.

Miserere mei. Psal. Lvij. I.H.

Dauid in the desart of Ziph, betraied by the inhabitants, and in the same caue vvith Saul, calleth to God, vvith full confidence that hee vvill performe his promise, and shevv his glory in heauen, and in earth against his cruell enemies, therefore he rendreth laud and praise,

Sing

Sing this as the 44 Pſalme.

TAke pitty for thy promiſe ſake,
haue mercy Lord on me:
For why my ſoule doth her betake
vnto the helpe of thee.
2 Within the ſhaddow of thy wings
I ſet my ſelfe full faſt:
Till miſchiefe, malice, and like things,
be gone and ouerpaſt.

3 I call vpon the God moſt high,
to whom I ſticke and ſtand:
I meane the God that will ſtand by the cauſe I haue in hand.
4 From heauen he hath ſent his aide,
to ſaue me from their ſpight:
That to deuoure me haue affaid,
his mercy, trueth, and right.

5 I lead my life with lyons fell,
all ſet on wrath and ire:
And with ſuch wicked men I dwell, that fret like flames of fire.
6 Their teeth are ſpeares and arrowes long,
as ſharpe as I haue ſeene:
They wound and cut with their quicke tongue like ſwords and weapons keene.

7 Set vp and ſhew thy ſelfe, O God,
aboue the heauens bright:
Exalt thy prayſe in earth abroad,
thy maieſty and might.
8 They lay their nets, and doe prepare a priuie caue and pit:
Wherein they thinke my ſoule to ſnare,
but they are fallen in it.

9 My heart is ſet to laud the Lord,
in him to ioy alwayes:
My heart I ſay doth well accord to ſing his laud and prayſe.
10 Awake my ioy, awake I ſay, my lute, my harpe, and ſtring:
For I my ſelfe before the day will riſe, reioyce, and ſing.

11 Among the people I will tell
The goodneſſe of my God:
And ſhew his prayſe that doth excell,
in heathen lands abroad.
12 His mercy doth extend as farre
as heauens all are hie.
His truth as high as any ſtarre, that ſhineth in the skie.

13 Set foorth and ſhew thy ſelfe, O God,
aboue the heauens bright:
Extoll thy prayſe on earth abroad,
thy maieſty and might.

Si vere utique. Pſal. Lviij. I. H.

Hee deſcribeth his malicious enemies, Sauls flatterers, who ſecretly and openly ſought his deſtruction, from whom he appealed to Gods iudgement, ſhewing that the iuſt ſhall reioyce at the puniſhment of the wicked, to Gods glorie.

Sing this as the 43. Pſalme.

YE rulers which are put in truſt to iudge of wrong and right:
Be all your iudgements true and iuſt, not knowing neede or might?
2 Nay in your hearts ye marke and muſe
in miſchiefe to conſent:
And where ye ſhould true iuſtice vſe,
your hands to bribes are bent.

3 The wicked ſort from their birth-day
haue erred on this wiſe:
And from the mothers wombe alway haue vſed craft and lies.
4 In them the poiſon and the breath of ſerpents doe appeare:
Yea, like the Adder that is deafe and faſt doth ſtop her eare.

5 Becauſe he will not heare the voyce, of one that charmeth well:
No though hee were the chiefe of choyce,
and therein doth excell.
6 O God, breake thou their teeth at once, within their mouths throughout.
The tuskes that in their great iawbones, like Lyons whelpes hang out.

7 Let them conſume away and waſte,
as water runns foorth right.
The ſhafts that they doe ſhoote in haſt,
let them be broke in flight.
8 As Snailes doe waſte within the ſhell, and vnto ſlime doe turne:
As one before his time that fell,
and neuer ſaw the Sunne.

9 Before the thornes that now are yong to buſhes big ſhall grow:
The ſtormes of anger waxing ſtrong,
ſhall take them ere they know.
10 The iuſt ſhall ioy it doth them good, that God doth vengeance take:
And they ſhall waſh their feete in blood,
of them that him forſake.

11 Then ſhall the world ſhew forth and tell that good men haue reward:
And that a God on earth doth dwell, that iuſtice doth regard.

Eripe me. Pſal. Lix. I. H.

Dauid in great danger of Saul, who ſent to ſlay him in his bed, declareth his innocencie, and their fury, praying God to deſtroy all malicious ſinners, who liue for a time to vexe his people: but in the ende conſume in his wrath, to Gods glorie. For this he ſingeth prayſe to God, aſſured of his mercies.

not good: And let me sure and safe from them that still thirst after blood.

3 For loe they waite my soule to take,
they rage against me still:
Yea, for no fault that I did make:
I neuer did them ill.
4 They runne, and doe themselues prepare,
when I no whit offend:
Arise, and saue me from their snare,
and see what they intend.

5 O Lord, of hoasts of Israel arise and strike all lands:
And pittie none that doe rebel,
and in their mischiefe stands.
6 At night they stirre and seeke about,
as hounds they howle and grin:
And all the Citie cleane throughout,
from place to place they runne.

7 They speake of me with mouth alway,
but in their lips are swords:
They greed my death, and then would say,
what? none doth heare our words:
8 But Lord thou hast their wayes espide, and laught thereat apace:
The heathen folke thou shalt deride,
and mocke them to their face.

9 The strength that doth my foes withstand,
O Lord doth come of thee:
My God he is my helpe at hand,
a fort of fence to me.
10 The Lord to me doth shew his grace in great abundance still:
That I may see my foes in case such as my heart doth will.

The second part.

11 Destroy them not at once, O God, least it from minde doe fall:
But with thy strength driue them abroad,
and so consume them all.
12 For their ill words and truthlesse tongues, confound them in their pride:
Their wicked oaths, with lyes and wrong,
let all the world deride.

13 Consume them in thy wrath, O Lord, that nought of them remaine:
That men may know throughout the world that Iacobs God doth raigne.
14 At euening they returne apace,
as dogs they grin and crie:
Throughout the streets in euery place,
they runne about and spie.

15 They seeke about for meate I say,
but let them not be fed:
Nor finde a house wherein they may behold to put their head.
16 For I will shew thy strength abroad,
thy goodnesse I will prayse:
For thou art my defence and God,
at neede in all assaies.

17 Thou art my strength, thou hast me staid,
O Lord, I sing to thee:
Thou art my fort, my fence, and aid,
a louing God to mee.

Deus repulisti. Psal. Lx. I.H.

Dauid now king ouer Iudah, after many victories, shewed by euident signes, that God elected him King, assuring the people, that God will prosper them if they approoue the same. After he prayeth vnto God to finish that hee had begun.

Sing this as the 59. Psalme.

O Lord, thou didst displeasure vs cleane for sake,
and scattred'st vs abroad:
Such great displeasure thou didst take,
returne to vs, O God.
2 Thy might did mooue the land so sore,
that it in sunder brake:
The hurt thereof, O Lord, restore,
for it doth bow and quake.

3 With heauy chance thou plagu'est thus the people that are thine:
And thou hast giuen vnto vs
a drinke of deadly wine.
4 But yet to such as feare thy name a token shall ensue
That they might triumph in the same, because thy word is true.

5 So that thy might may keepe and saue thy folke that fauour thee:
That they thy helpe at hand may haue,
O Lord, grant this to mee.
6 The Lord did speake from his owne place,
this was his ioyfull tale:
I will diuide Sichem by pace,
and mete out Succoths vale.

7 Gilead is giuen to my hand,
Manasses mine beside:
Ephraim the strength of all my land,
my Law doth Iuda guide.
8 In Moab I will wash my feete, ouer Edom throw my shooe:
And thou Palistine ough'st to seeke,
for fauour me vnto.

9 But who will bring me at this tide,
vnto the City strong?
Or who to Edom will me guide,
so that I goe not wrong?
10 Wilt thou O God, which didst forsake, thy flocke, their land and coasts?
Our warres in hand thou would'st not take,
nor walke among our hoasts.

11 Giue aide O Lord, and vs relieue, from them that vs disdaine:
The helpe that hoasts of men can giue,
it is but all in vaine.
12 But through our God wo shall haue might to take great things in hand:
He will tread downe, and put to flight all those that vs withstand.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. Lxj. I.H.

Sing this as the 39. Pſalme.

REgard, O Lord, for I complaine, and make my ſuite to thee,
Let not my wordes returne in vaine,
but giue an eare to me.
2 From of the coaſts and vtmoſt parts, of all the earth abroad
In griefe and anguiſh of my heart,
I crie to thee, O God.
3 Vpon the rocke of thy great power,
my wofull minde repoſe:
Thou art my hope, my fort, and tower,
my fence againſt my foes.
4 Within thy tents I luſt to dwell,
for euer to endure:
Vnder thy wings I know right well,
I ſhall be ſafe and ſure.
5 The Lord doth my deſire regard,
and doth fulfill the ſame:
With goodly gifts doth he reward,
all them that feare his name.
6 The King ſhall he in health maintaine, and ſo prolong his dayes,
That he from age to age ſhall raigne,
for euermore allwayes.
7 That he may haue a dwelling place,
before the Lord for aye:
O let thy mercy, trueth and grace, defend him from decay.
8 Then ſhall I ſing for euer ſtill, with prayſe vnto thy name:
That all my vowes I may fulfill,
and dayly pay the ſame.

Nonne Deo. Pſal. Lxij. I.H.

Dauid declareth by this example and the nature of God, that he and all people muſt truſt in God alone, ſeeing that all vvithout God goes to nought, vvho onely is of povver to ſaue, and that he reuvardeth man according to his vvorkes.

Sing this as the 59 Pſalme.

MY ſoule to God ſhall giue good head,
and him alone attend:
For why my health and hope to ſpeed, doth whole on him depend.
2 For he alone is my defence,
my rocke, my health and aide:
He is my ſtay, that no pretence,
ſhall make me much diſmaid.
3 O wicked folke how long will ye vſe craft? ſure you muſt fall,
For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tottering wall.
4 Whom God doth loue, ye ſeeke allwaies to put him to the worſe, Ye loue to lie, with mouth ye prayſe,
and yet your heart doth curſe.
5 Yet ſtill my ſoule doth whole depend,
on God my chiefe defire:
From all ill feates me to defend,
none but him I require.
6 He is my rocke, my ſtrength and tower,
my health is of his grece:
He doth ſupport me, that no power can moone me out of place.
7 God is my glory and my health,
my ſoules deſire and luſt:
My fort, my ſtrength, my ſtay, my wealth,
God is mine onely truſt.
8 Oh haue your hope in him alway,
ye folke with one accord:
Powre out your hearts to him and ſay,
our truſt is in the Lord.
9 The ſonnes of men deceitfull are,
on ballance but a ſlight,
With things moſt vile doe them compare,
for they can keepe no weight.
10 Truſt not in wrong robbery or ſtealth,
let vaine delights be gone:
Though goods well got flow in with wealth,
ſet not your hearts thereon.
11 The Lord long ſith one thing did tell, which heare to minde I call:
He ſpake it oft I heard it well:
that God alone doth all.
12 And that thou Lord art good and kinde, thy mercy doth exceed?
So that all ſorts with thee ſhall finde,
according to their meede.

Deus Deus meus. Pſal. Lxiij. I.H.

Dauid after his danger of Ziph, giueth God thanke for his vvonderfull deliuerance, in vvhoſe mercies hee truſteth euen in the midſt of miſerie, propheſying the deſtruction of Gods enemies, and contrarivviſe happineſſe to all them that truſt in the Lord. 1. Sam. 3.

Sing this as the 44 Pſalme.

O God, my God, I watch betime, to come to the in haſt:
For why? my ſoule and bodie both,
doe thirſt of thee to taſt.
2 And in this barren wilderneſſe, where waters there are none:
My fleſh is parcht for thought of thee:
for thee I wiſh alone.
3 That I might ſee yet once againe, thy glory ſtrength and might,
As I was wont it to behold, within thy temple bright.
4 For why? thy mercies farre ſurmount, this life and wretched dayes:
My lips therefore ſhall giue to thee,
due honour, laud and prayſe.
5 And whilſt I liue I will not faile, to worſhip thee alway:
And in thy name I ſhall liſt vp,
my hands when I doe pray.
6 My ſoules is fill'd as with marrow, which is both fat and ſweet,
My mouth therefore ſhall ſing ſuch ſongs
as are for thee moſt meete.
7 When as in bed I thinke on thee, are eke all the night tide:
For vnder couert of thy wings,
thou art my ioyfull guide.
8 My ſoule doth ſurely ſticke to thee,
thy right hand is my power.
9 And thoſe that ſeeke my life to ſtroy, them death ſhall ſoone deuoure.

10 The sword shall them devoure each one their carkases shall feede
The hongry foxes which doe runne, their prey to seeke at neede.
11 The King and all men shall reioyce, that doe professe Gods word:
For liars mouths shall then be stopt, which haue the truth disturb'd.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. Lxiiij. I.H.

David prayeth against the false reporters and slanderers, wee declareth their punishment and destruction, to the comfort of the iust, and the glory of God.

Sing this as the 18. Psalme.

O Lord, vnto my voice giue eare, with plaints when I doe pray:
And rid my life and soule from dread,
of foes that threat to slay.
2 Defend me from that sort of men, which in deceits doe lurke?
And from the frowning face of them,
that all ill feates doe worke.
3 Who whet their tongues as wee haue seene men whet and sharpe their swords:
They shoot abroad their arrowes keene,
I meane most bitter words.
4 With privie sleights shoote they their shafts
the vpright man to hit:
The iust vnware to hit by craft,
they care or feare no whit.
5 A wicked worke they haue decreed, in counsell thus they crie:
To vse deceit let vs not dread,
what? who can it espie?
6 What waies to hurt they talke and muse,
all times within their heart:
They all consult what feats to vse,
each doth inuent his part.
7 But yet all this shall not auaile,
when they thinke least vpon:
God with his dart shall sure assault,
and wound them euery one.
8 Their crafts and their ill tongues withall, shall worke themselues such blame:
That they which then behold their fall,
shall wonder at the same.
9 Then all that see shall know right well,
that God the thing hath wrought:
And prayse his wittie workes, and tell what he to passe hath brought.
10 Yet shall the iust in God reioyce, still trusting in his might:
So shall they ioy with minde and voyce, whose heart is pure and right.

Te decet hymnus. Psal. Lxv. I.H.

A thanksgiuing vnto God by the faithfull, who are signified by Sion and Ierusalem, for the chusing, preseruation, and gouernance of them, and for the plentifull blessings powred forth vpon all the earth.

Sing this as the 30. Psalme.

THy prayse alone (O Lord) doth raigne,
in Sion thine owne hill,
Their vowes to thee they doe maintaine, and their behests fulfill.
2 For that thou dost their prayers heare,
and dost thereto agree,
Thy people all both farre and neere, with trust shall come to thee.
3 Our wicked life so farre exceeds,
that wee should fall therein:
But Lord forgiue our great misdeeds, and purge vs from our sinne.
4 The man is blest whome thou dost chuse, within thy courts to dwell:
Thy house and temple he shall vse, with pleasures that excell.
5 Of thy great iustice heare vs God,
our healt of thee doth rise:
The hope of all the earth abroad,
and the sea coastes likewise.
6 With strength thou art beset about,
and compast with thy power:
Thou makest the mountaines strong and stout,
to stand in euery showre.
7 The swelling seas thou doest asswage, and make their streames full still:
Thou dost restraine the peoples rage,
and rule them at thy will.
8 The folke that dwell full farre on earth, shall dread thy signes to see:
Which morne and euening in great mirth,
doe passe with prayse to thee.
9 When that the earth is chopt and dry, and thirsteth more and more:
Then with thy drops thou dost apply and much increase her store.
The floud of God doth ouerflow, and so doth cause to spring:
The seede and corne which men doe sow,
for he doth guide the thing.
10 With wet thou dost her furrowes fill, whereby her clods doe fall:
Thy drops on her thou doest distill, and blesse her fruite withall.
11 Thou dekst the earth of thy good grace, with faire and pleasant crop:
Thy clouds distill their dew apace, great plenty they doe drop.
12 Whereby the desert shall beginne, full great increase to bring:
The little hils shall ioy therein, much fruite in them shall spring.
13 In places plaine the flocke shal feed,
and couer all the earth:
The vales with corne shall so exceed,
that men shall sing for mirth.

Iubilate Deo. Psal. Lxvj. T.S.

Hee exhorteth to prayse the Lord in his wonderfull woorks, he sets forth the power of God to affray rebels, and sheweth Gods mercy to Israel, to prouoke all men to heare and prayse his name.

Sing this as the 18 Psalme.

YE men on earth in God reioyce, with prayse set forth his name:
2 Extoll his might with heart and voyce, giue glory to the same.
3 How wonderfull (O Lord) say ye,
in all thy works thou art?
Thy foes for feare doe seeke to thee,
full sore against their heart.
4 All men that dwell the earth throughout, doe prayse the name of God,

The

The laud thereof the world about is shew'd and set abroad:
5 All folke come forth, behold and see what things the Lord hath wrought: Marke well the wondrous workes that he for man to passe hath brought.

6 He layd the sea like heapes on hie, therein a way they had:
On foot to passe both faire and drie, whereof their hearts were glad.
7 His might doth rule the world alway, his eyes all things behold:
And such as would him disobey,
by him shall be control'd.

8 Ye people giue vnto our God due laud and thankes alwayes:
With ioyfull voyce declare abroad,
and sing vnto him prayse.
9 Which doth endue our soules with life,
and it preserue withall:
Hee staieth our feet, so that no strife can make vs slip or fall.

10 The Lord doth prooue our deeds with fire,
if that they will abide:
As workemen doe when they desire to haue their metals tride.
11 Although thou suffer vs so long in prison to be cast:
And there with chaines and fetters strong to lye in bondage fast.

The second part.

12 Although I say thou suffer men on vs to ride and raigne:
Though wee through fire and water runne of very griefe and paine.
Yet sure thou dost of thy good grace dispose it to the best:
And bring'st vs out into a place to liue in wealth and rest.

13 Vnto thy house resort will I,
to offer and to pray:
And there I will my selfe apply
my vowes to thee to pay.
14 The vowes that with my mouth I spake in all my griefe and smart:
The vowes I say which I did make in dolour of my heart.

15 Burnt offrings I will giue to thee of oxen fat and Rams:
None other sacrifice shall be,
of bullockes, Goates and lambs.
16 Come foorth and harken here full soone,
all ye that feare the Lord:
What he for my poore soule hath done,
to you I will record.

17 Full oft I call vpon his grace,
this mouth to him doth crie:
And thou my tongue make speede apace,
to prayse him by and by.
18 But if I feele my heart within,
in wicked workes reioyce,
Or if I haue delight to sinne
God will not heare my voyce.
19 But surely God my voyce hath heard,
and what I doe require:
My prayer he doth well regard,
and granteth my desire.

20 All prayse to him that hath not put,
nor cast me out of minde:
Nor yet his mercy from me shut, which I did euer finde.

Deus misereatur. Psal. Lxvij.

A sweet prayer for all the faithfull to obteine the fauour of God, and to be lightned with his countenance, to the end that his wayes and iudgements may be knowne throughout the earth: a reioycing that God is the gouernour of all nations.

Sing this as the 30. Psalme.

HAue mercy on vs Lord,
and grant vs thy grace:
To shew to vs doe thou accord
the brightnesse of thy face.
2 That all the earth may know
the way to godly wealth,
And all the nations on a row may see thy sauing health.

3 Let all the world, O God,
giue prayse vnto thy name:
O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the same.
4 Throughout the world so wide,
let all reioyce with mirth:
For thou with trueth and right dost guide
the nations of the earth.

5 Let all the world, O God,
giue prayse vnto thy name:
O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the same:
6 Then shall the earth increase,
great store of fruite shall fall:
And then our God the God of peace, shall blesse vs eke with all.

7 God shall vs blesse I say,
And then both farre and neere;
The folke throughout the earth alway, of him shall stand in feare.

Exurgat Deus. Psal. Lxviij. T. S.

Dauid expresseth the wonderfull mercies of God towards his people, who by all meanes and most strange sort, declareth himselfe vnto them. Gods Church therefore by reason of his promises, grace and victories, doth excell and worldly things: wherefore all men are moued to prayse God for euer.

ſmoake away : So in the preſence of the Lord, the wicked ſhall decay.

3 But righteous men before the Lord,
ſhall heartily reioyce :
They ſhall be glad, and merry all,
and chearefull in their ioyce.
4 Sing prayſe, ſing prayſe vnto the Lord,
who rideth on the skie :
Extoll the name of Iah our God,
and him doe magnifie.

5 The ſame is hee that is aboue
within his holy place :
That father is of fatherleſſe,
and iudge of widowes caſe.
6 Houſes he giues, and iſſue both,
vnto the comfortleſſe :
He bringeth bond men out of thrall :
and rebels to diſtreſſe.

7 When thou diddeſt march before thy folkes the Egyptians from among :
And brought'ſt them through the wildernes, which was both wide and long.
8 The earth did quake, the rain pour'd downe, heard were great claps of thunder :
The mount Sinai ſhooke in ſuch ſort,
as it would cleaue in ſunder.
9 Thide heritage with drops of rain abundantly was waſht :
And if ſo be it barren waxt,
by thee it was refreſht.
10 Thy choſen flocke doth there remaine, thou haſt prepar'd that place :
And for the poore thou doſt proui de of thine eſpeciall grace.

The ſecond part.

11 God will giue women cauſes iuſt to magnifie his name :
When as his people triumphs make,
and purchaſe bruite and fame.
12 And puiſant Kings for all their power, ſhall flie, and take the foyle :
And women which remaine at home,
ſhall helpe to part the ſpoyle.

13 And though yee were as blacke as pots, your hew ſhall paſſe the Doue :
Whoſe wings and feathers ſeeme to haue ſiluer and gold aboue.
14 When in this land God ſhall triumph
ouer Kings both hie and low :
Then ſhall it be like Salmon hill,
as white as any ſnow.

15 Though Baſan be a fruitfull hill, and in height others paſſe :
Yet Syon Gods moſt holy hill doth farre excell in grace.
16 Why brag ye thus, ye hils moſt hie, and leape for pride together ?
The hill of Syon God doth loue, and there will dwell for euer.

17 Gods armie is two millions of warriours good and ſtrong :
The Lord alſo in Sinai is preſent them among.
18 Thou diddeſt, O Lord, aſcend on high,
and captiue led them all.
Which in time paſt thy choſen flocke in priſon kept and thrall.

Thou mad'ſt them tribute for to pay,
and ſuch as did repine.
Thou diddeſt ſubdue that they might dwell in thy temple diuine.
19 Now prayſed be the Lord for that he poures on vs ſuch grace :
From day to day he is the God of our health and ſolace.

The third part.

20 He is the God from whom alone,
ſaluation commeth plaine :
He is the God, by whom I ſcape all dangers death, and paine.
21 Thus God will wound his enemies head, and breake the hayrie ſcalpe Of thoſe that in their wickedneſſe continually doe walke.

22 From Baſan will I bring ſayd he my people and my ſheepe :
And all mine owne, as I haue done from danger of the deepe.
23 And make them dip their feet in blood of thoſe that heate thy name :
And dogs ſhall haue their tongues imbrude with licking of the ſame.

24 All men haue ſeene how thou, O God, thine enemies doſt deface :
And how thou goeſt as God and King,
into thy holy place :
25 The ſingers goe before with ioy, the minſtrels follow after :
And in the midſt the damſels play,
with timbrell and with taber.
26 Now in the congregation,
(O Iſrael) prayſe the Lord :
And Iaakobs whole poſteritie, giue thankes with one accord, 27 Their chiefe was little Beniamin,
but Iuda made their boaſt :
With Zabulon and Nephtalim, which dwell about their coaſt.

28 As God hath giuen power to thee, ſo Lord make firme and ſure
The thing that thou haſt wrought in vs,
for euer to endure.
29 And in thy temple gifts will wee giue vnto thee, O Lord,
For thine vnto Ieruſalem ſure promiſe made by word.

The fourth part.

Yea and ſtrange Kings to vs ſubdude, ſhall doe like in thoſe dayes :
I meane to thee they ſhall preſent their gifts of laud and prayſe.
30 Hee ſhall deſtroy the ſpearemens mucks, their calues and buls of might:
And cauſe them tribute pay, and daunt
all ſuch as loue to fight.

31 Then ſhall the Lords of Egypt come, and preſent with them bring :

The Mores moſt blacke ſhall ſtretch their vnto their Lord and King. (hands 33 Therefore ye kingdomes of the earth
giue prayſe vnto the Lord:
Sing Pſalmes to God with one conſent, thereto let all accord.

34 Who though hee ride, and euer hath,
aboue the heauens bright:
Yet by the fearefull thunder claps men may well know his might.
35 Therefore the ſtrength of Iſrael aſcribe to God on hie:
Whoſe might and power doth farre extend aboue the cloudy skie.

36 O God, thy holineſſe and power is dread for euermore:
The God of Iſrael giues vs ſtrength, praiſed be God therefore.

Salum me fac. Pſal. Lxix. I.H.

Chriſt and his elect are figured in Davids zeale and anguiſh, the malicious cruelty of whoſe enemies and their puniſhment, Iudas and ſuch traitors noteth, who are accurſed: then gathereth hee courage in afflictions, and offereth prayſes to God, which are more acceptable then all ſacrifices. Finally, hee doth prouoke all creatures to prayſes, propheſying of the kingdome of Chriſt and building of Iuda, where all the faithfull and their ſeede ſhall dowell for euer.

3 With crying oft I faint and quaile, my throat is hoarſe and drie:
With looking vp my ſight doth faile,
for helpe of God on hie.
4 My foes that guiltleſſe doe oppreſſe my ſoule, with hate are led:
In number ſure they are no leſſe
then hayres are on my head.

5 Though for no cauſe they vex'd me ſore, they proſper and are glad,
They doe compell me to reſtore
the things I neuer had.
6 What I haue done for went of wit, thou Lord all times canſt tell:
And all the faults that I commit to thee are knowne full well.

7 O God of hoaſtes, defend and ſtay all thoſe that truſt in thee:
Let no man doubt or ſhrinke away,
for ought that chanceth mee.
8 It is for thee and for thy ſake, that I doe beare this blame:
In ſpight of thee they would mee make,
to hide my face for ſhame.

9 My mothers ſonnes my brethren all,
forſake mee on a row:
And as a ſtranger they mee call,
my face they will not know.
10 Vnto thy houſe ſuch zeale I beare, that it doth pine mee much:
Their checkes and taunts at thee to heare
my very heart doth grutch.

The ſecond part.

11 Though I doe faſt my fleſh to chaſt, yea, if I weepe and mone:
Yet in my teeth this geare is caſt,
they paſſe not therevpon.
12 If I for griefe and paine of heart,
in ſackecloath vſe to walke:
Then they anon would it peruert, thereof they ieſt and talke.

13 Both hie and low, and all the throng,
that ſit within the gate:
They haue mee euer in their tongue,
of mee they talke and prate.
14 The drunkards which in wine delight,
it is their chiefe paſtime,
To ſeeke which wayes to worke mee ſpight,
of mee they ſing and rime.

15 But thee the while, O Lord I pray, that when it pleaſeth thee,
For thy great trueth thou wilt alway
ſend downe thine aide to mee.
16 Plucke thou my feete out of the mire,
from drowning doe me keepe:
From ſuch as owe me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deepe.

17 Leaſt with the waues I ſhould be drownd and depth my ſoule deuoure:
And that the pit ſhould me confound,
and ſhut mee in her power.
18 O Lord of hoaſts, to mee giue eare,
as thou art good and kinde:
And as thy mercy is moſt deare,
Lord haue me in thy minde.

19 And doe not from thy ſeruant hide,
nor turne thy face away:
I am oppreſt on euery ſide, with haſte giue eare I ſay.
20 O Lord vnto my ſoule draw nie,
the ſame with aide repoſe: Becauſe of their great tyranny,
acquite me from my foes.

The third part.

21 That I abide rebuke and ſhame, thou knoweſt and thou canſt tell:
For thoſe that ſeeke and worke the ſame thou ſeeſt them all full well.
22 When they with brags doe breake my hart,
I ſeeke for helpe anone:

But finde no friends to eaſe my ſmart, to comfort me not one.

22 But in my meate they gaue me gall, too cruell for to thinke:
And gaue me in my thirſt withall ſtrong vineger to drinke.

23 Lord turne their table to a ſnare, to take themſelues therein:
And when they thinke full well to fare,
then trap them in the gin.

24 And let their eyes be darke and blinde, that they may nothing ſee:
Bow downe their backe, and doe them binde in thraldome for to bee.

25 Powre out thy wrath as hot as fire,
that it on them may fall:
Let thy diſpleaſure in thine ire,
take hold vpon them all.

26 As deſart dry their houſe diſgrace, their off-ſpring eke expell:
That none thereof poſſeſſe their place,
nor in their tents doe dwell.

27 If thou doſt ſtricke the man to tame,
on him they lye full ſore:
And if that thou doſt wound the ſame,
they ſeeke to hurt him more.

28 Then let them heape vp miſchiefe ſtill, ſith they are all peruert:
That of thy fauour and good will they neuer haue no part.

29 And daſh them cleane out of the booke of life, of hope, of truſt:
That for their names they neuer looke,
in number of the iuſt.

The fourth part.

30 Though I (O Lord) with woe and griefe haue beene full ſore oppreſt:
Thy helpe ſhall giue me ſuch releiſe, that all ſhall be redreſt.

31 That I may giue thy name the prayſe, and ſhew it with a ſong:
I will extoll the ſame alwayes, with hearty thankes among.

32 Which is more pleaſant vnto thee, ſuch minde thy grace hath borne:
Then either Oxe or Calfe can be that hath both hoofe and horne.

33 When ſimple folke doe this behold,
it ſhall reioyce them ſure.
All ye that ſeeke the Lord, behold, your life for aye ſhall dure.

34 For why? the Lord of hoaſts doth heare,
the poore when they complaine:
His priſoners are to him full deare,
he doth them not diſdaine.

35 Wherefore the skie and earth below,
the ſea with flood and ſtreame,
His prayſe they ſhall declare and ſhew,
with all that liue in them.

36 For ſure our God will Sion ſaue, and Iudahs Cities build:
Much folke poſſeſſion there ſhall haue,
her ſtreetes ſhall all be fild:

37 His ſeruants ſeede ſhall keepe the ſame
all ages out of minde:
And there all they that feare his name
a dwelling place ſhall finde.

Deus in adiuto. Pſal. Lxx. I. H.

Hee prayeth to be right ſpeedily deliuered, his enemies to be aſhamed, and all that ſeeke the Lord to be comforted.

Sing this as the 72 Pſalme.

O God to me take heede,
of helpe I thee require:
O Lord of hoaſts with haſte make ſpeed, help, help, I thee deſire.

2 With ſhame confound them all that ſeeke my ſoule to ſpill:
Rebuke them backe with blame to fall,
that thinke and wiſh me ill.

3 Confound them that apply, and ſeeke to worke me ſhame:
And at my harme doe laugh and cry,
ſo, ſo, there goeth the game.

4 But let them ioyfull be in thee with ioy and wealth:
Which onely truſt and ſeeke to thee,
and to thy ſauing health.

5 That they may ſay alwayes,
in mirth and one accord:
All glory, honour, laud, and prayſe be giuen to thee, O Lord.

6 But I am weake and poore, come Lord thine aide I lacke:
Thou art my ſtay and helpe, therefore make ſpeed and be not ſlacke.

In te Domine. Pſal. Lxxj. I. H.

He prayeth in faith, eſtabliſhed by promiſe, and confirmed by the word of God from his youth, to be deliuered from his wicked and cruell ſonne Abſalon, with his confederacie, promiſing to be thankefull therefore.

Sing this as the 69. Pſalme.

MY Lord my God in all diſtreſſe,
my hope is whole in thee:
Then let no ſhame my ſoule oppreſſe, nor once take hold on me.

2 As thou art iuſt, defend me Lord,
and rid me out of dread:
Giue eare, and to my ſuite accord, and ſend me helpe at neede.

3 Be thou my rocke, to whom I may for aide all time reſort:
Thy promiſe is to helpe alway, thou art my fence and fort.

4 Saue me my God from wicked men, and from their ſtrength and power:
From folke vniuſt, and eke from them,
that cruelly deuoure.

5 Thou art the ſtay wherein I truſt, thou Lord of hoaſts art hee:
Yea, from my youth I had a luſt, ſtill to depend on thee.

6 Thou haſt me kept euen from my birth, and I through thee was borne:
Wherefore I will thee prayſe with mirth,
both euening and at morne.

7 As to a monſter ſeldome ſeene, much folke about me throng:
But thou art now, and ſtill haſt beene

my

my ſence and aid ſo ſtrong.
8 Wherefore my mouth no time ſhall lack,
thy glory and thy prayſe:
And eke my tongue ſhall not be ſlacke,
to honour thee alwayes.

9 Refuſe me not, O Lord, I ſay, when age my limbs doth take:
And when my ſtrength doth waſte away,
doe not my ſoule forſake.
10 Among themſelues my foes enquire,
to take me through deceit:
And they againſt me doe conſpire, that for my ſoule laid waite.

The ſecond part.

11 Lay hand and take him now they ſaid,
for God from him is gone:
Diſpatch him quite, for to his aide,
I wis there commeth none.
12 Doe not abſent thy ſelfe away,
O Lord, when neede ſhall be:
But that in time of griefe thou mayſt
in haſt giue helpe to me.

13 With ſhame confound and ouerthrow, all thoſe that ſeeke my life:
Oppreſſe them with rebuke alſo,
that faine would worke me ſtrife.
14 But I will patiently abide,
thy helpe at all aſſaies,
Still more and more each time and tide,
I will ſet foorth thy prayſe.

15 My mouth thy iuſtice ſhall record, that dayly helpe doth ſend:
But of thy benefits O Lord,
I know no count nor end.
16 Yet I will goe and ſeeke forth one,
with thy good helpe O God:
The ſauing health of thee alone,
to ſhew and ſet abroad.

17 For of my youth thou took ſt the care,
and doſt inſtruct me ſtill,
Therefore thy wonders to declare,
I haue great minde and will.
18 And as in youth from wanton rage, thou didſt me keepe and ſtay, Forſake me not vnto mine age,
and till my head be gray.

The third part.

19 That I thy ſtrength and might may ſhew to them that now be heere:
And that our ſeede thy power may know,
hereafter many a yeere.
20 O Lord, thy iuſtice doth exceed,
thy doings all may ſee:
Thy works are wonderfull indeed,
oh who is like to thee?

21 Thou mad'ſt me feele affliction ſore, and yet thou didſt me ſaue:
Yea, thou didſt helpe and me reſtore, and took'ſt me from the graue.
22 And thou mine honour doeſt increaſe,
my dignity maintaine:
Yea thou doſt make all ſtriefe to ceaſe,
and comfort'ſt me againe.

23 Therefore thy faithfulneſſe to prayſe,
I will both lute and ſing:
My harpe ſhall ſound thy laud alwayes,
O Iſraels holy king.

24 My mouth ſhall ioy with pleaſant voyce,
when I ſ all ſing to thee:
And eke my ſoule ſhall much reioyce,
for thou haſt made me free.

25 My tongue thy vprightneſſe ſhall ſound, and ſpeake it dayly ſtill:
For griefe and ſhame doe them confound, that ſought to worke me ill.

Deus judicium. Pſal. Lxxij. I.H.

Gods kingdome by Chriſt is repreſented by Salomon, vnder vvhom ſhall be righteouſneſſe, peace and felicity, vnto vvhom all kings and nations ſhall doe homage, vvhoſe name and power ſhall endure for euer.

LOrd giue thy iudgements to the King therein inſtruct him well: And with his ſon that princely thing, Lord let thy iuſtice dwell.

2. That he may gouerne vprightly, and rule thy folke aright. And ſo defend through equitie, the poore that haue no might.

3 And let the mountaines that are high,
vnto their folke giue peace,
And eke the little hils apply,
in iuſtice to increaſe.
4 That he may helpe the weake and poore with aide, and make them ſtrong:
And eke deſtroy for euermore,
all thoſe that doe them wrong.

5 And then from age to age ſhall they regard and feare thy might:
So long as Sunne ſhall ſhine by day,
or elſe the Moone by night.
6 Lord make the king vnto the iuſt, like raine to fields new mowne:
And like to drops that lay the duſt and freſh the land new ſowne.

7 The iuſt ſhall flouriſh in his time,
and all ſhall be at peace:
Vntill the moone ſhall leaue to prime,
waſte, change, and to increaſe.
8 He ſhall be Lord of Sea and land, from ſhore to ſhore throughout,
And from the floods within the land,
through all the earth about.

9 The people that in deſert dwell, ſhall kneele to him full thicke;

And all his enemies that rebell,
the earth and dust shall lick.
10 The Lords of all the Iles thereby, great gifts to him shall bring:
The kings of Saba and Araby, giue many a costly thing.

The second part.

11 All kings shall seeke with one accord,
in his good grace to stand:
And all the people of the world,
shall serue him at his hand.
12 For he the needy sort doth saue, that vnto him doth call:
And eke the simple folke that haue
no helpe of man at all.

13 He taketh pitie on the poore, that are with neede oppreſt:
He doth preserue them euermore, and brings their soule to rest.
14 He shall redeeme their life from dread, from fraud, from wrong, from might,
And eke the blood that they shall bleed,
is precious in his sight.

15 But he shall liue, and they shall bring to him of Sabaes gold:
He shalbe honored as a King,
and dayly be extold.
16 The mightie mountaine of his land,
of corne shall beare such throng:
That it like Cedar trees shall stand,
in Libanus full long.

17 Their cities eke full well shall speed,
the fruites thereof shall passe:
In plentie it shall farre exceede, and spring as greene as grasse.
18 For euer they shall prayse his name,
while that the sunne is light:
And thinke them happy through the same,
all folke shall blesse his might.

19 Prayse ye the Lord of hoasts and sing,
to Israels God each one:
For he doth euery wondrous thing,
yea, he himselfe alone.
20 And blessed be his holy Name,
all times eternally,
That all the earth may prayse the same,
Amen, Amen say I.

Quâ bonus Deus. Psal. Lxxiij. T. S.

Dauid teacheth that neither the prosperity of the vngodly, nor the affliction of the good ought to discourage Gods children, but rather mooue them to consider Gods prouidence, and to reuerence his iudgements for that the wicked vanisheth away like smoake, and the godly enter into life euerlasting, in hope whereof hee resigneth himselfe to Gods hands.

Sing this as the 42 Psalme.

HOwsoeuer it be, yet God is good,
and kinde to Israel:
And to all such as safely keepe their conscience pure and well, 2 Yet like a foole I almost slipt,
my feete began to slide:
And ere I wist euen at a pinch,
my steps away gan glide.
3 For when I saw such foolish men,
I grudg'd and did disdaine:
That wicked men all things should haue, without turmoile or paine.
4 They neuer suffer pangs nor griefe,
as if death should them smite:
Their bodies are both stout and strong,
and euer in good plight.
5 And free from all aduersity,
when other men be shent:
And with the rest they take no part of plague or punishment.
6 Therefore presumption doth embrace their necks as doth a chaine:
And are euen wrapt as in a robe,
with rapine and disdaine.
7 They are so fed that euen for fat, their eyes oft times out start:
And as for worldly goods they haue,
more then can with their heart.
8 Their life is most licentious, boasting much of the wrong
Which they haue done to simple men, and euer pride among.
9 The heauens and the liuing Lord,
they spare not to blaspheme:
And prate they doe of worldly things,
no wight they doe esteeme.
10 The people of God oft times turne backe, to see their prosperous state:
And almost drinke the selfe same cup,
and follow the same rate.

The second part.

11 How can it be that God say they should know or vnderstand
These worldly things, since wicked men, be Lords of Sea and land?
12 For we may see how wicked men,
in riches still increase:
Rewarded well with worldly goods,
and liue in rest and peace.
13 Then why doe I from wickednesse, my fantasie refraine?
And wash my hands with innocents,
and cleanse my heart in vaine?
14 And suffer scourges euery day,
as subiect to all blame:
And euery morning from my youth,
sustaine rebuke and shame?
15 And I had almost said as they,
misliking mine estate:
But that I should thy children iudge,
as folke vnfortunate.
16 Then I bethought me how I might,
this matter vnderstand:
But yet the labour was too great for me to take in hand.
17 Vntill the time I went vnto thy holy place and then,
I vnderstood right perfectly,
the end of all these men.
18 And namely, how thou setteſt them,
vpon a slippery place:
And at thy pleasure and thy will,
Thou dost them all deface.
19 Then shall men muse at that strange sight,
to see how sodainely,
They are destroy'd, dispatcht, consumde,
and dead so horribly.

20 Much like a dreame when one awakes, so ſhall their wealth decay:
Their famous names in all mens ſight, ſhall ebbe and paſſe away.

The third part.

21 Yet thus my heart was grieued then,
my minde was much oppreſt:
22 So fond was I and ignorant, and in this point a beaſt.
23 Yet neuertheleſſe by thy right hand,
thou hold'ſt me euer faſt:
24 And with thy counſell doſt me guide to glory at the laſt.
25 What thing is there that I can wiſh, but thee in heauen aboue?
And in the earth there is no thing like thee that I can loue.
26 My fleſh and eke my heart doth faile,
but God doth faile me neuer:
For of my heart God is my ſtrength,
my portion eke for euer.
27 And loe, all ſuch as thee forſake, thou ſhalt deſtroy each one:
And thoſe that truſt in any thing,
ſauing in thee alone.
28 Therefore will I draw neare to God,
and euer with him dwell:
In God alone I put my truſt, his wonders I will tell.

Vt quid Deus? Pſal. Lxxiiij. I. H.

A complaint of the deſtruction of the Church and true Religion, vnder the name of Sion, and the Altars deſtroyed. But truſting in the might and free mercies of God by his couenant, he requireth helpe and ſuccour to the glory of his name, the ſaluation of his poore afflicted ſeruants, and the confuſion of his proud enemies.

Sing this as the 72. Pſalme.

WHy art thou Lord ſo long from vs,
in all this danger deepe?
Why doth thine anger kindle thus at thine owne paſture ſheepe?
1 Lord call the people to thy thought which haue beene thine ſo long:
The which thou haſt redeem'd and brought
From bondage ſore and ſtrong.
Haue mind I ſay, and thinke vpon,
remember it full well:
Thy pleaſant place, thy mount Sion,
where thou waſt wont to dwell.
3 Lift vp thy foote, and come in haſte,
and all thy foes deface:
Which now at pleaſure rob and waſt
within thy holy place.
4 Amid the Congregations all thy enemies roare O God:
They ſet as ſignes on euery wall their banners ſplaid abroad.
5 As men with axes hew downe trees,
that on the hils doe grow:
So ſhine the bils and ſwords of theſe, within thy temple now.
6 The ſeeling ſwa'd the carued boards,
the goodly grauen ſtones,
With axes hammers, bils, and ſwords,
they beate them downe atonce.
7 Thy places they conſume with flame, and eke in all this toile
The houſe appointed to thy name, they raze downe to the ſoile.
8 And thus they ſayd within their heart,
diſpatch them out of hand:
Then burnt they vp in euery place,
Gods houſes through the land.
9 Yet thou no ſigne of helpe doſt ſend,
our Prophets all are gone:
To tell when this our plague ſhall end
among vs there is none.
10 When wilt thou Lord once end this ſhame, and ceaſe thine enemies ſtrong?
Shall they alway blaſpheme thy name,
and raile on thee ſo long?
11 Why doſt withdraw thy hand a backe,
And hide it in thy lap?
O plucke it out and be not ſlacke to giue thy foes a rap.

The ſecond part.

12 O God thou art my king and Lord,
and euermore haſt beene:
Yea thy good grace throughout the world,
for our good helpe hath ſeene.
13 The ſeas that are ſo deepe and dead:
thy might did make them dry.
And thou didſt breake the ſerpents head,
that he therein did die.
14 Ye thou didſt breake the heade ſo great of Whales that are ſo fell:
And gau'ſt them to thy folke to eate,
that in the deſerts dwell.
15 Thou mad'ſt a ſpring with ſtreames to riſe from rocks both hard and hie:
And eke thy hand hath make likewiſe
deepe riuers to be drie.
16 Both day and eke the the night are thine,
by thee they were begun:
Thou ſet'ſt to ſerue vs with their ſhine
the light and eke the Sunne.
17 Thou doſt appoint the ends and coaſts of all the earth about:
Both ſummer heats and winter froſts,
thy hand hath found them out.
18 Thinke on, O Lord, no time forget thy foes that thee deſame:
And how the fooliſh folk are ſet
to raile vpon thy name, 19 O let no cruell beaſt deuoure
the Turtle that is true:
Forget not alwayes in thy power
the poore that much doe rue.
20 Regard thy couenant, and behold thy foes poſſeſſe the land:
All ſad and darke, forworne and old,
our realme as now doth ſtand.
21 Let not the ſimple goe away with diſappointed ſhame:
But let the poore and needy aye,
giue praiſe vnto thy name.
22 Riſe Lord, let be by thee maintain'd the cauſe that is thine owne:
Remember how that thou blaſphem'd art by the fooliſh one:
23 The voyce forget not of thy foes,
for the preſuming hie.
Is more and more increaſt of thoſe, that hate thee ſpightfully.

Confitebimur tibi. Psal. Lxxv. N.

The faithfull prayse the Lord, who shall come to iudge at his time, when the wicked shall drinke the cup of his wrath, But the righteous shalbe exalted to honour.

Sing this as the 45 Psalme.

VNto thee God will wee giue thankes, wee will giue thanks to thee:
Sith thy name is so neere, declare thy wondrous works will we.
2 I will vprightly iudge, when get conuenient time I may:
The earth is weake, and all therein,
but I her pillars stay.

3 I did to the mad people say,
deale not so furiously:
And vnto the vngodly ones set not your hornes on high.
4 I said vnto them, Set not vp your raised hornes one hie:
And see that you doe with stiffe necke,
not speake presumptuously.

5 For neither from the Easterne parts, nor from the Westerne side:
Nor from forsaken wildernesse, protection doth proceede.
6 For why? the Lord our God he is the righteous Iudge alone;
He putteth downe the one, and sets another in the throne.
7 For why? a cup of mighty wine is in the hand of God:
And all the mighty wine therein himselfe doth powre abroad.
8 As for the lees and filthy dregs, that doe remaine of it:
The wicked of the earth shall drinke,
and suck them euery whit.
9 But I will talke of God, I say, of Iacobs God therefore:
And will not cease to celebrate his prayse for euermore.
10 In sunder breake the hornes of all vngodly men will I:
But then the hornes of righteous men shall be exalted hie.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Sonne, and holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be euermore.

In Iudea. Psal. Lxxvj. I. H.

Here is described the power of God, and care for the defence of his people, by the destruction of Senacheribs army, for which the faithfull are exhorted to be thankefull.

Sing this as the 66. Psalme.

TO all that now in Iurie dwell
the Lord is clearely knowne:
His name is great in Israel a people of his owne.
2 At Salem he his tents hath pight,
to tarry there a space:
In Sion eke he hath delight, to make his dwelling place.

3 And there he brake both shaft and bow,
the sword, the speare and shield:
And brake the ray to ouerthrow,
in battell on the field.
4 Thou art more worthy honour Lord, more might in thee doth lie,
Then in the strongest of the world,
that rob on mountaines hie.

5 But now the proud are spoild through thee and they are fallen on sleepe:
Through men of warre no helpe can bee, themselues they could not keepe.
6 At thy rebuke, O Iacobs God, when thou didst them reproue:
As halfe a sleepe their chariots stood,
no horsemen once did moue.

7 For thou art dreadfull Lord indeede, what man the courage hath To bide thy sight, and doth not dread when thou art in thy wrath?
8 When thou dost make thy iudgements heard from heauen through the ground:
Then all the earth full sore afraid,
in silence shall be found.

9 And that when thou, O God dost stand, in iudgement for to speake:
To saue th'afflicted of the land,
on earth that are full weake.
10 The fury that in man doth raigne shall turne vnto thy praise:
Hereafter Lord, doe thou restraine their wrath and threats alwayes.

11 Make vowes and pay them to your God, ye folke that nigh him be:
Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadfull sure is he.
12 For he doth take both life and might from Princes great of birth:
And full of terrour is his sight,
to all the Kings on earth.

Voce mea ad. Psal. Lxxvij. I. H.

Dauid rehearseth his great afflictions and grieuous temptations, wherehy hee is driuen to consider his former conuersation, and the course of Gods works in the preseruation of his seruants, and so he confirmeth his faith against these temptations.

abroad, my ſoule comfort forſooke,

3 When I to thinke on God intend,
my trouble then is more :
I ſpake, but could not make an end,
my breath was ſtopt ſo ſore.
4 Thou holdſt mine eyes alwayes from reſt, that I alwayes awake :
With feare am I ſo ſore oppreſt,
my ſpeech doth me forſake.

5 The dayes of olde in minde I caſt, and oft did thinke vpon.
The times and ages that are paſt,
full many yeeres agone.
6 By night my ſongs I call to minde, once made thy prayſe to ſhew :
And with my heart much talke I finde,
my ſpirits doe ſearch to know.

7 Will God ſaid I, at once for all, caſt off his people thus :
So that hencefoorth no time he ſhall be friendly vnto vs ?
8 What? is his goodneſſe cleane decaid, for euer and a day ?
Or is his promiſe now delayd,
and doth his truth decay ?

9 And will the Lord our God forget his mercies manifold ?
Or ſhall his wrath increaſe ſo hot,
his mercies to withhold ?
10 At laſt I ſayd, my weakeneſſe is the cauſe of this miſtruſt :
Gods mightie hand can helpe all this and change it when he luſt.

The ſecond part.

11 I will regard and thinke vpon
the vvorking of the Lord:
Of all his wonders paſt and gone,
I gladly will record.
12 Yea all his workes I will declare,
and what he did deuiſe :
To tell his facts I will not ſpare,
and eke his counſell wiſe.

13 Thy workes, O Lord, are all vpright, and holy all abroad :
What one hath ſtrength to match the might of thee, O Lord our God ?
14 Thou art a God that oft didſt ſhew thy wonders euery houre.
And ſo doſt make thy people know,
thy vertue and thy power.

15 And thine owne folke thou doſt defend with ſtrength and ſtretched arme ;
The ſonnes of Iacob that deſcend, and Ioſephs ſeed from harme.
16 The waters Lord, perceiued thee,
the waters ſaw thee well :
And they for feare aſide did flee,
the depths on trembling fell.

The cloudes that were both thicke and blacke did raine full plenteouſly ;
The thunder in the aire did cracke,
thy ſhafts abroad did flie.
17 The thunder in the aire was heard,
the lightnings from aboue :
18 With flaſhes great made them afraid,
the earth did quake and mooue.

19 Thy wayes within the ſeas doe lie,
thy paths in waters deepe :
Yet none can there thy ſteps eſpie,
nor know thy pathes to keepe.
20 Thou leadeſt thy folke vpon the land,
as ſheepe on euery ſide;
Through Moſes and through Aarons hand, thou didſt them ſafely guide.

Attendite populi. Pſal. Lxxviij. T. S

Hee ſheeweth how God of his mercy choſe his Church of the poſteritie of Abraham, caſting in their teeth the rebellion of their fathers, that their children might acknowledge Gods free mercies, and be aſhamed of their peruerſe anceſtors. The holy Ghoſt hath comprehended as it were the ſumme of all Gods benefites, that the groſſe people might ſee in fewe words the effect of the whole hiſtorie.

ATtend my people to my Law, and to my words incline. 2. My mouth ſhall ſpeake ſtrange parables, and ſentences diuine. 3. Which we our ſelues haue heard and learn'd, euen of our Fathers old: And which for our inſtruction

our Fathers haue vs told.

4 Becauſe we ſhould not keepe it cloſe, from them that ſhould come after :
Who ſhould Gods power to their race praiſe,
and all his workes of wonder.
5 To Iacob he commandement gaue,
how Iſrael ſhould liue :
Willing our Fathers ſhould the ſame vnto their children giue.

6 That they and their poſteritie, which were not ſprung vp tho :
Should haue the knowledge of the law,
and teach their ſeede alſo.
7 That they may haue the better hope in God that is aboue,
And not forget to keepe his lawes and his precepts in loue.

8 Not being as our Fathers were,
rebelling in Gods ſight,
And would not frame their wicked hearts to know their God aright.

9 How went the people of Ephraim their neighbours for to spoyle:
Shooting their darts the day of warre,
and yet they tooke the foyle?

10 For why? they did not keepe with God,
the couenant that was made:
Nor yet would walke or leade their liues,
according to his trade.

11 But put into obliuion, his counsell and his will.
And all his works most magnifique,
Which he declared still.

The second part.

12 What wonders to our forefathers,
did he himselfe disclose:
In Egypt land within the field,
that called is Thaneos?

13 He did diuide and cut the sea,
that they might passe at once:
And made the water stand as still,
as doth an heape of stones.

14 He led them secret in a cloud
by day, when it was bright:
And in the night when darke it was,
with fire he gaue them light.

15 He brake the rocke in wildernesse, and gaue the people drinke,
As plentifull as when the deepes doe flow vp to the brinke.

16 He drew out riuers out of rocks, that were both dry and hard:
Of such abundance that no floods,
to them might be comparde.

17 Yet for all this against the Lord, their sinne they did increase:
And stirred him that is most hie,
to wrath in wildernesse.

18 They tempted him within their hearts,
like people of mistrust:
Requiring such a kinde of meate,
as serued to their lust.

19 Saying with murmuration, in their vnfaithfulnesse,
What? can this God prepare for vs,
a feast in wildernesse?

20 Behold hee strake the stonie rocke, and floods forth-with did flow:
But can hee now giue to his folke, both bread and flesh also?

21 When God heard this he waxed wrath, with Iacob and his seed,
So did his indignation on Israel proceed.

The third part.

22 Because they did not faithfully
beleeue and hope that hee Could alwayes helpe and succour them in their necessity.

23 Wherefore he did command the clouds, forthwith they brake in sunder:

24 And rainde downe Manna for them to eat, a food of mickle wonder.

25 When earthly men with Angels food, were fed at their requeste:

26 He bad the East winde blow away, and brought in the South-west.

27 And rain'd downe flesh as thick as dust,
and fowle as thicke as sand:

28 Which he did cast amidst the place,
Where all the tents did stand.

29 Then did they eat exceedingly, and all men had their fils,
Yet more and more they did desire,
to serue their lusts and wils.

30 But as the meate was in their mouthes, his wrath vpon them fell:

31 And slew the flower of all their youth, and choise of Israel.

32 Yet fell they to their wonted sinne, and still they did him grieue,
For all the wonders that he wrought,
they would him not beleeue.

33 Their dayes therefore he shortned, and made their honour vaine:
Their yeeres did waste and passe away,
with terrour and with paine.

34 But euer when he plagued them, they sought him by and by:

35 Remembring then he was their strength, their helpe and God most hie.

36 Though in their mouthes they did but and flatter with the Lord: (glose.
And with their tongues and in their hearts, dissembled euery word.

The fourth part.

37 For why? their hearts were nothing bent to him, nor to his trade:
Nor yet so keepe, nor to performe,
the couenant that was made.

38 Yet vvas he still so mercifull, vvhen they deserued to die:
That he forgaue them their misdeeds,
and vvould not them destroy.

Yea many a time he turn'd his vvrath,
and did himselfe aduise:
And vvould not suffer all his vvhole displeasure to arise.

39 Considering that they vvere but flesh,
and euen as a vvinde,
That passeth avvay and cannot vvell
returne by his owne kinde.

40 How oftentimes in wildernesse, did they the Lord prouoke?
How did they moue and stirre the Lord, to plague them with his stroke?

41 Yet did they turne againe to sinne, and tempted God eft-soone:
Prescribing to the holy Lord,
what things they would haue done.

42 Not thinking of his hand and power, nor of the day when he Deliuered them out of the hands, of the fierce enemie.

43 Nor how he wrought his miracles, as they themselues beheld In Egypt and the wonders that he did in Zoan field.

44 Nor how he turned by his power,
their waters into blood,
That no man might receiue his drinke at riuer nor at flood.

45 Nor how he sent them swarmes of flies, which did them sore annoy.

And

And fild their country full of frogs, which did their land destroy.
The fifth part.
46 Nor how he did commit their fruits
vnto the Caterpiller:
And all the labour of their hands,
he gaue to the Grashopper.
47 With hailestones he destroyd their vines,
so that they were all lost:
And not so much as wilde figge trees,
but he consumde with frost.
48 And yet with hailestones once againe,
The Lord their cattell smote,
And all their flocks and heards likewise,
vvith thunder-bolts full hot.
49 He cast vpon them in his ire,
and in his fury strong:
Displeasure, vvrath, and euill spirits,
to trouble them among.
50 Then to his vvrath he made a vvay,
and spared not the least:
But gaue vnto the pestilence,
the man and eke the beast, 51 He strake also the first borne all,
that vp in Egypt came:
And all the chiefe of men and beasts,
vvithin the tents of Ham.
52 But as for all his owne deare folke,
he did preserue and keepe,
And carried them through vvilderneſſe,
euen like a flocke of sheepe.
53 Without all feare, both safe and sound,
he brought them out of thrall:
Whereas their foes vvith rage of seas,
were ouer vvhelmed all.
54 And brought them out into the coasts,
of his owne holy land:
Euen to the mount vvhich he had got,
by his strong arme and hand.
55 And there cast out the heathen folke,
and did the land diuide:
And in their tents he set the tribes of Israel to abide.
56 Yet for all this their God most hie, they stirr'd and tempted still:
And vvould not keepe his testament
nor yet obey his vvill.
57 But as their fathers turned backe, euen so they vvent astray:
Much like a bow that vvill not bend:
but slip and start away.
The sixt part.
58 And grieued him vvith their hill altars, vvith offrings and vvith fire:
And vvith their idoles vehemently prouoked him to ire.
59 Therevvith his vvrath began againe:
to kindle in his breast:
The naughtineſſe of Israel,
he did so much detest.
60 Then he forsooke the tabernacle of Silo, vvhere he vvas Right conuersant vvith earthly men, euen as his dvvelling place.
61 Then suffered he his might and powver,
in bondage for to stand:
And gaue the honour of his Arke, into his enemies hand.
62 And did commit them to the svvord, vvroth vvith his heritage:
63 The young men vvere deuoured vvith fire, maydes had no marriage.
64 And vvith the svvord the Priests also, did perish euery one:
And not a vvidovv left aliue,
their death for to bemone.
65 And then the Lord began to vvake, like one that slept a time?
And as a valiant man of warre, refreshed after vvine.
66 With Emrods in their hinder parts,
he strake his enemies all:
And put them then vnto a shame,
that was perpetuall.
67 Then he the tent and Tabernacle, of Ioseph did refuse:
As for the tribe of Ephraim,
he would in no wise chuse.
68 But chose the tribe of Iehuda, whereas he thought to dwell:
Euen the noble mount Sion, which he did loue so well.
69 Whereas he did his temple build,
both sumptuously and sure:
Like as the earth, which he hath made
for euer to endure.
70 Then chose he Dauid him to serue,
his people for to keepe:
Whom he tooke vp and brought away,
euen from the folds of sheepe.
71 As he did follow the Ewes with yong,
the Lord did him aduance:
To feede his people Israel,
and his inheritance.
72 Then Dauid with a faithfull heart, his flocke and charge did feede:
And prudently vvith all his power,
did gouerne them indeed.

Deus venerunt. Psal. Lxxix. I. H.

The Israelites complaine to God for the calamities that they suffered, vvhen Antiochus destroyed their Temple and Citie, desiring ayde against his tyranny, least God and religion should be contemned by the heathen, vvho should see them forsaken and perish.

Sing this as the 77. Psalme.

O Lord, the Gentiles doe inuade, thine heritage to spoyle, Ierusalem an heape is made,
thy Temple they defile.
2 The bodies of thy Saints most deare abroad to birds they cast:
The flesh of such as doe thee feare,
the beasts deuoure and waste.
3 Their blood throughout Ierusalem, as water spilt they haue.
So that there is not one of them,
to lay their dead in graue.
4 Thus are we made a laughing stock, almost the world throughout:
The enemies at vs ieft and mock,
which dwell our coast about.
5 Wilt thou, O Lord, thus in thine ire, against vs euer fume?

And

And shew thy wrath as hot as fire,
thy folke for to consume:
6 Vpon those people powre the same,
which did thee neuer know:
All realmes which call not on thy name, consume and ouerthrow.

7 For they haue got the vpper hand,
and Iacobs seede destroyd:
His habitation and his land,
they haue left waste and void.
8 Beare not in minde our former faults, with speede some pitie shew:
And aide vs Lord in all assaults, for we are weake and low.

The second part.

9 O God that giu'st all health and grace,
on vs declare the same:
Weigh not our works, our sinnes deface,
for honour of thy name.
10 Why shall the wicked still alway, to vs as people dumbe:
In thy reproach reioyce and say,
where is their God become?

11 Require O Lord, as thou seest good,
before our eyes in sight:
Of all these folke thy seruants blood,
which they spilt in despight.
12 Receiue into thy sight in hast, the clamours, griefe and wrong,
Of such as are in prison cast, sustaining yrons strong.

Thy force and strength to celebrate,
Lord set them out of band,
Which vnto death are destinate,
and in their enemies hand.
13 The nations which haue beene so bold,
as to blaspheme thy name:
Into their laps with seuen fold, repay againe the same.

14 So we thy folke and pasture sheepe, will prayse thee euermore:
And teach all ages for to keepe,
for thee like prayse in store.

Qui regis Israel. Psal. Lxxx. I.H.

A lamentable prayer to God to helpe the miseries of the Church, desiring him to consider the first estat, when his fauour shined toward them, that hee might finish that worke which he had begun.

Sing this as the 67 Psalme.

THou Heard that Israel dost keepe, giue eare and take good heed:
Which leadest Ioseph like a sheepe,
and dost him watch and feed.
2 Thou Lord, I say, whose seat is set,
on Cherubins so bright:
Shew foorth thy selfe, and doe not let,
send downe thy beames of light.

3 Before Ephraim and Beniamin, Manasses eke like wise:
To shew thy power doe thou begin,
come helps vs Lord arise.
4 Direct our hearts vnto thy grace,
conuert vs Lord to thee:
Shew vs the brightnesse of thy face,
and then full safe are we.

5 Lord God of hoasts of Israel,
how long wilt thou, I say, Against thy folke in anger swell,
and wilt not heare them pray:
6 Thou doest them feede with sorrowes deepe, their bread with teares they eate,
And drinke the teares that they doe weepe,
in measure full and great.

7 Thou hast vs made a very strife to those that dwell about:
And that our foes doe loue alife,
they laugh and iest it out.
8 O take vs Lord vnto thy grace, conuert our mindes to thee:
Shew forth to vs thy ioyfull face,
and we full safe shall be.

9 From Egypt where it grew not well, thou brought'st a vine full deare:
The heathen folke thou didst expell,
and thou didst plant it there.
10 Thou didst prepare for it a place,
and set her rootes full fast:
That it did grow and spring apace,
and fill'd the land at last.

The second part.

11 The hils were couered round about,
with shade that from it came,
And eke the Cedars high and stout,
with branches of the same.
12 Why then didst thou her wall destroyes?
her hedge pluckt vp thou hast:
That all the folke that passe thereby,
thy vine may spoyle and wast.

13 The Bore out of the wood so wild, doth dig and root it out:
The fuirions beast out of the field
deuoure it all about.
14 O Lord of hoasts returne againe, from heauen looke betime:
Behold, and with thy helpe sustaine,
this poore vineyard of thine.

15 Thy plant I say, thine Israel, whom thy right hand hath set:
The same which thou did loue so well,
O Lord, do not forget.
16 They lop and cut it downe apace,
they burne it eke with fire:
And through the frowning of thy face,
we perish in thine ire.

17 Let thy right hand be with them now, whom thou hast kept so long:
And with the sonne of man, whom thou to thee hast made so strong.
18 And so when thou hast set vs free,
and saued vs from shame,
Then will wee neuer fall from thee,
but call vpon thy name.

19 O Lord of hoasts, through thy good grace, conuert vs vnto thee:
Behold vs with a pleasant face,
and then full safe are wee.

Exultate Deo. Psal. Lxxxj. I.H.

An exhortation to prayse God for his benefits, condemning their ingratitude.

BE light and glad in God reioyce,
which

3 Blovv as it vvere in the nevv moone, vvith Trumpets of the beſt :
As it is vſed to be done
at any ſolemne feaſt.
4 For this is vnto Iſrael
a ſtatute and a trade :
A lavv that muſt be kept full vvell vvhich Iacobs God hath made.
5 This clauſe vvith Ioſeph vvas decreed, vvhen he from Egypt came :
That as a vvitneſſe all his ſeede ſhould ſtill obſerue the ſame.
6 When God, I ſay, had thus prepar'd to bring him from that land :
Whereas the ſpeech vvhich he had heard
he did not vnderſtand.
7 I from his ſhoulders tooke, ſaith he,
the burthen cleane avvay :
And from the furnace quit him free,
from burning brick of clay.
8 When thou in griefe didſt cry and call
I holpe thee by and by :
And I did anſvvere thee vvithall in thunder ſecretly.
9 Yea, at the vvaters of diſcord,
I did thee tempt and prooue :
Whereas the goodnes of the Lord
vvith muttering thou didſt mooue.
10 Heare O my folke, O Iſrael, and I aſſure it thee :
Regard and marke my vvords full vvell,
if thou vvilt cleaue to me.

The ſecond part.

11 Thou ſhalt no god in thee reſerue of any land abroad:
Nor in no vviſe to bovv or ſerue
a ſtrange and forraine god.
12 I am the Lord thy God, and I from Egypt ſet thee free :
Then aske of me abundantly,
and I vvill giue it thee.
13 And yet my people vvould not heare
my voyce, vvhen that I ſpake :
Nor Iſrael vvould not obey,
but did me quite forſake.
14 Then did I leaue them to their vvill, in hardneſſe of their heart ;
To vvalke in their ovvne counſell ſtill, themſelues they might peruert.
15 O that my people vvould haue heard the vvords that I did ſay?
And eke that Iſrael vvould regard to vvalke vvithin my vvay.
16 How ſoone would I confound their foes and bring them downe full low :
And turne my hand vpon all thoſe that would them ouerthrow ?
17 And they that at the Lord doe rage, as ſlaues ſhould ſeeke him till :
But of his folke the time and age
ſhould flouriſh euer ſtill.
18 I would haue fed them with the crop and fineſt of the wheat :
And made the rocke with hony drop that they their ſils ſhould eate.

Deus ſtetit. Pſal. Lxxxij. I. H.

Dauid declaring God to be preſent vvith Iudges and Magiſtrates, reproueth their partialitie and vnrighteouſneſſe, and exhorteth them to doe iuſtice, but ſeeing no amendment, he deſireth God to execute iuſtice himſelfe.

Sing this as the 77. Pſalme.

A Mid the preaſe with men of might,
the Lord himſelfe did ſtand,
To plead the cauſe of truth and right,
with Iudges of the land.
2 How long, ſaid he, will you proceede, falſe iudgement to award ?
And haue reſpect for loue of meede,
the wicked to regard ?
3 Whereas of due you ſhould defend the fatherleſſe and weake :
And when the poore man doth contend in iudgement iuſtly ſpeake.
4 If ye be wiſe, defend the cauſe of poore men in their right :
And rid the needy from the clawes of tyrants force and might.
5 But nothing will they know or learne,
in vaine to them I talke :
They will not ſee, or ought diſerne
but will in darkeneſſe walke.
For loe, euen now the time is come that all things fall to nought,
And likewiſe lawes both all and ſome,
for gaine are ſold and bought.
6 I had decreed it in my ſight,
as Gods to take you all :
And children to the moſt of might for loue I did you call.
7 But notvvithſtanding ye ſhall die
as men, and ſo decay :
O tyrants, I ſhall you deſtroy, and plucke you quite avvay.
8 Vp Lord, and let thy ſtrength be knovvne and iudge the vvorld vvith might :
For vvhy ? all nations are thine ovvne,
to take them as thy right.

Deus quis ſimilis? Pſa. Lxxxiij. I. H.

The Iſraelites pray the Lord to deliuer them from their enemies, both at home and far off: alſo that all ſuch vvicked people be ſtricken vvith his ſtormy tempeſts, that they may knovv his povver.

Sing

Sing this as the 77 Pſalme.

DOs not, O Lord, refraine thy tongue,
in ſilence doe not ſtay:
With-hold not Lord thy ſelfe to long,
nor make no more delay:
2 For why? behold thy foes, and ſee
how they doe rage and crie;
And thoſe that beare an hate to thee hold vp their heads on hie.

3 Againſt thy folke they vſe deceit,
and craftily enquire:
For thine elect to lie in waite their counſell doth conſpire.
4 Come on ſay they, let vs expell,
and plucke theſe folke away:
So that the name of Iſrael may vtterly decay.

5 They all conſpire within their hearts,
how they may thee withſtand:
Againſt the Lord to take a part they are in league and band.
6 The tents of all the Edomites, the Iſmaelites alſo:
The Haggarens and Moabites, with diuers other moe.

7 Geball with Ammon, and likewiſe
doth Amalecke conſpire:
The Philiſtims againſt thee riſe, with them that dwell at Tire.
8 And Aſſur eke is well apaid,
with them in league to be:
And doth become a fence and aid to Lots poſteritie.

9 As thou didſt to the Midianites, ſo ſerue them Lord each one:
As to Siſer, and to Iabin, beſide the brooke Kiſon.
10 Whom thou in Enddor didſt deſtroy, and waſte them through thy might:
That they like dung on earth did lie,
and that in open ſight.

The ſecond part.

11 Make them now and their Lords appeare like Zeb and Oreb than:
As Zeba and Zalmana were,
the Kings of Midian.
12 Which ſayd, let vs throughout the land in all the coaſts abroad, Poſſeſſe and take into our hand
the faire houſes of God.

13 Turne them, O God, with ſtormes as faſt as wheeles that haue no ſtay:
Or like the chaffe which men doe caſt with windes to flie away.
14 Like as the fire with rage and fume,
the mighty forreſts ſpils:
And as the flame doth quite conſume
the mountaines and the hils.

15 So let the rempeſt of thy wrath
vpon their necks be laid:
And of thy ſtormy wrath and ſhower
Lord make them all afraid.
16 Lord bring them all I thee deſire to ſuch rebuke and ſhame:
That it may cauſe them to enquire,
and learne to ſeeke thy name.

17 And let them euermore daily to ſhame and ſlander fall:
And in rebuke and obloquie to periſh eke withall.
18 That they may know and feele full well,
that thou art called Lord:
And that alone thou doſt excell and raigne throughout the world.

Quam dilecta? Pſal. Lxxxiiij. I.H.

Dauid exiled his country, diſireth ardently to returne to Gods Tabernacle, and aſſembly of the Saints; to prayſe God: then hee prayſeth the courage of the people that paſſe the wylderneſſe, to aſſemble themſelues in Sion.

Sing this as the 67 Pſalme.

HOw pleaſant is thy dwelling place,
O Lord of hoaſts to mee?
The Tabernacles of thy grace,
how pleaſant Lord they be?
2 My ſoule doth long full ſore to goe into thy Courts abroad:
My heart doth luſt, my fleſh alſo
in thee the liuing Lord.
3 The ſparrowes finde a roome to reſt, and ſaue themſelues from vvrong;
And eke the ſvvallovv hath a neſt vvherein to keepe her yong.
4 Theſe birds full nigh thine Altar may haue place to ſit and ſing;
O Lord of hoaſts, thou art I ſay,
my God and eke my king.

5 O they be bleſſed that may dvvell
vvithin thy houſe alvvayes;
For they all times thy facts doe tell,
and euer giue thee prayſe.
6 Yea, happy ſure likevviſe are they,
vvhoſe ſtay and ſtrength thou art;
Which to thy houſe doe minde the vvay,
and ſeeke it in their heart.

7 As they goe through the vale of teares they digge vp fountaines ſtill;
That as a ſpring it all appeares, and thou their pits doſt fill.
8 From ſtrength to ſtrength they vvalke full (faſt, no faintneſſe there ſhall be;
And ſo the God of Gods at laſt
in Sion they doe ſee.

9 O Lord of hoaſts to me giue heede, and heare vvhen I doe pray;
And let it through thine eares proceede,
O Iaakobs God I ſay.
10 O Lord our ſhield of thy good grace regard and ſo drawv neare: Regard I ſay, behold the face of thine anoynted deare.

11 For vvhy? vvithin thy Courts on day is better to abide;
Then other vvhere to keepe or ſtay
a thouſand dayes beſide.
12 Much rather vvould I keepe a doore
vvithin the houſe of God,
Then in the tents of vvickedneſſe to ſettle mine aboade.

13 For God the Lord light and defence, vvill grace and vvorſhip giue;
And no good thing vvill he vvith-hold from them that purely liue.

24 O Lord, of hoastes that man is blest, and happy sure is hee:
That is perswaded in his brest,
to trust all times in thee.

Benedixisti Dom. Psal. Lxxxv. I. H.

Because God withdrew not his rod from his Church after the returne from Babylon, first they put him in minde, that he should not leaue the worke of his grace unperfect, and complaine of their long affliction. Then they reioyce in hope of promised deliuerance, which was a figure of Christs kingdome, under which should be perfect felicity.

Sing this as the 81. Psalme.

THou hast beene mercifull indeed,
O Lord, vnto thy land:
For thou restoredst Iacobs seed,
from thraldome out of hand.
2 The wicked wayes that they were in,
thou didst them cleane remit:
And thou didst hide thy peoples sinne,
full close thou coueredst it.

3 Thine anger eke thou didst assuage, that all thy wrath was gone:
And so didst turne thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.
4 O God of health, doe now conuert thy people vnto thee:
Put all thy wrath from vs apart,
and angry cease to be.

5 Why? shall thine anger neuer end,
but still proceed on vs,
And shall thy wrath in selfe extend,
vpon all ages thus?
6 Wilt thou not rather turne therefore,
and quicken vs, that wee
And all thy folke may enermore, be glad and ioy in thee?

7 O Lord, on vs doe thou declare, thy goodnesse to our wealth:
Shew forth to vs and doe not spare, thine aide and sauing health.
8 I will hearke what God saith, for he speakes to his people peace:
And to his Saints that neuer they,
returne to fooli shnesse.

9 For why? his helpe is still at hand,
to such as doe him feare:
Whereby great glory in the land shall dwell and flourish there.
10 For truth and mercy there shall meete,
in one to take their place:
And peace shall iustice with kisse greet,
and there they shall embrace.

11 As truth from earth shall spring apace,
and flourish pleasantly:
So righteousnesse shall shew her face,
and looke from heauen hie.
12 Yea, God himselfe doth take in hand, to giue vs each good thing:
And through the coasts of all the land,
the earth her fruits shall bring.

13 Before his face shall iustice goe, much like a guide or stay:
He shall direct his steps also,
and keepe them in the way.

Inclina Dom. Psal. Lxxxvj. I. H.

Dauid sore afflicted, prayeth feruently for deliuerances, sometimes rehearsing his miseries and mercies receiued, desiring also to be instructed of the Lord, that hee may feare and glorifie his name. He complaineth also of his aduersaries, and requireth to be deliuered from them.

Sing this as the 81 Psalme.

LOrd bow thine eare to my request, and heare me by and by:
With grieuous paine and griefe oppreſt,
full poore and weake am I.
2 Preserue my soule, because my wayes, and doings holy be,
And saue thy seruant, O my Lord, that puts his trust in thee.

3 Thy mercy Lord on me expresse, defend me eke withall:
For through the day I doe not cease,
on thee to cry and call.
4 Comfort O Lord, thy seruants soule, that now with paine is pinde:
For vnto thee Lord I extoll, and lift my soule and minde.

5 For thou art good and bountifull, thy gifts of grace are free:
And eke thy mercie plentifull,
to all that call on thee.
6 O Lord, likewise when I doe pray, regard and giue an eare:
Marke well the words that I doe say,
and all my prayers heare.

7 In time when trouble doth me moone, to thee I doe complaine:
For why? I know and well doe proone, thou answerest me againe.
8 Among the Gods (O Lord) is none, with thee to be comparde:
And none can doe as thou alone,
the like hath not beene heard.

The second part.

9 The Gentiles and the people all,
which thou didst make and frame:
Before thy face on knees will fall,
and glorifie thy name.
10 For why? thou art so much of might,
all power is thine owne,
Thou worke st wonders still in sight,
for thou art God alone.

11 O teach me Lord the way, and I shall in thy truth proceed:
O ioyne my heart to thee so nie,
that I thy name may dread.
12 To thee my God will I giue prayse, with all my heart, O Lord:
And glorifie thy name alwayes, for euer through the world.

13 For why? thy mercie shewed to me is great, and doth excell:
Thou setst my soule at liberty,
out from the lower hell.
14 O Lord the proud against me rise, and heapes of men of might,
That seeke my soule, and in no wise,
will haue thee in their sight.

15 Thou Lord art mercifull and meeke, full slacke and slow to wrath:

Thy goodneſſe is full great, and eke thy truth no meaſure hath.
16 O turne to me, and mercy grant,
thy ſtrength to me apply:
O helpe and ſaue thine owne ſeruant,
thy handmaids ſonne am I.
17 On me ſome ſigne of fauour ſhow,
that all my foes may ſee:
And be aſham'd, becauſe Lord thou doeſt helpe and comfort me.

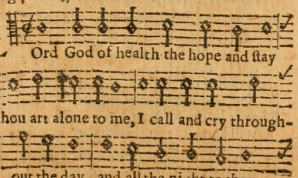
Fundamentum ejus. Pſal. Lxxxvij.



The holy Ghoſt promiſeth that the Church as yet in miſerie after the Captiuity of Babylon, ſhould be reſtored to great excellencie, ſo that nothing ſhould be more comfortable then to be numbred among the members thereof.

Sing this as the 81. Pſalme.

THe Citie ſhall full well endure, her ground-worke ſtill doth ſtay:
Vpon the holy hill full ſure,
it can no time decay.
2 God loues the gates of Sion beſt, his grace doth there abide,
He loues them more then all the reſt,
of Iacobs tents beſide.
3 Full glorious things reported be,
in Sion and abroad:
Great things I ſay are ſayd of thee,
thou Citie of our God.
4 On Rahab I will caſt an eye,
and beare in minde the ſame,
And Babylon ſhall eke apply, and learne to know my name.
5 Loe Paleſtine and Tyre alſo, with Ethiope likewiſe,
A people old full long agoe, were borne and there did riſe.
6 Of Sion they ſhall ſay abroad, that diuers men of fame.
Haue there ſprung vp, and the high God hath founded faſt the ſame.
7 In their records to them it ſhall, through Gods deuiſe appeare:
Of Sion that the chiefe of all had his beginning there.
8 Their trumpetters with ſuch as ſing, therein great plenty be:
My fountaines and my pleaſant ſprings, are compaſt all in thee.

Domine Deus. Pſal. Lxxxviij. I. H.

The faithfull ſore afflicted by ſickeneſſe, perſecution, aduerſity, and as it were left of God without any conſolation: yet call on God by faith, and ſtriue againſt deſperation.

2. O let my prayers ſoone aſcend, vnto thy ſight on hie: Encline thine eare, O Lord entend, and harken to my crie.

3 For why? my ſoule with woe is fil'd,
and doth in trouble dwell:
My life and breath almoſt doth yeeld,
and draweth nie to hell.
4 I am eſteem'd as one of them,
that in the pit doe fall:
And made as one among thoſe men,
that haue no ſtrength at all.
5 As one among the dead and free from things that here remaine:
It were more eaſe for me to bee,
with them the which were ſlaine;
As thoſe that lie in graue I ſay, whom thou haſt cleane forgot:
The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regardſt them not.
6 Ye like to one ſhut vp full ſure, within the lower pit,
In places darke and all obſcure,
and in the depth of it.
7 Thine anger and thy wrath likewiſe, full ſore on me doth lie:
And all thy ſtormes againſt me riſe,
my ſoule to vexe and trie.
8 Thou puſt my friends farre off from me,
and makeſt them hate me ſore;
I am ſhut vp in priſon faſt,
and can come forth no more.
9 My ſight doth faile through griefe and woe,
I call to thee O God,
Throughout the day, my hands alſo to thee I ſtretch abroad.

The ſecond part.

10 Doeſt thou vnto the dead declare, thy wondrous workes of fame?
Shall dead to life againe repaire, and prayſe thee for the ſame?
11 Or ſhall thy louing kindneſſe Lord, be preached in the graue?
Or ſhall with them that are deſtroide,
thy truth her honour haue?
12 Shall they that lie in darke full low,
of all thy wonders wot?
Or there ſhall they thy iuſtice know,
where all things are forgot?
13 But I, O Lord, to thee alway, doe cry and call apace:
My prayer eke ere it be day,
ſhall come before thy face.
14 Why doſt thou Lord abhorre my ſoule, in griefe that ſeeketh thee?
And now O Lord, why doſt thou hide thy face away from me?
15 I am afflict as dying ſtill,
from youth this many a yeere,

Thy terrours that doe vexe me till with troubled minde I beare.
16 The furies of thy wrathfull rage
full sore vpon mee fall:
Thy terrours eke doe not asswage, but mee oppresse withall.
17 All day they compasse mee about as water at the tide:
And all at once with streames full stout beset me on each side.
18 Thou settest farre from me my friends, and louers euery one:
Yea, and mine old acquaintance all out of my sight are gone.

Misericordias. Psal. Lxxxix. I. H.

David prayseth God for his couenant made betweene him and his elect by Iesus Christ: then hee complaineth of the desolation of his kingdome, so that the promise seemed to be broken. Finally, hee prayeth to be deliuered from afflictions, mentioning the shortnesse of mans life, and confirming himselfe by Gods promises.

Sing this as the 67 Psalme.

TO sing the mercies of the Lord,
my tongue shall neuer spare:
And with my mouth from age to age,
thy truth I will declare.
2 For I haue sayd, that mercy shall for euermore remaine,
In that thou dost the heauens stay thy truth appeareth plaine.
3 To mine elect, sayth God, I made a couenant and beheest:
My seruant Dauid to perswade,
I sware and did protest.
4 Thy seede for euer will I stay,
and stablish it full fast:
And still vphold thy throne alway,
from age to age to last.
5 The heauens shew with ioy and mirth thy wondrous workes, O Lord:
Thy Saints within thy Church on earth,
thy faith and truth record.
6 Who with the Lord is equall then in all the clouds abroad?
Among the sonnes of all the Gods
what one is like our God?
7 God in assembly of the Saints is greatly to be dread:
And ouer all that dwell about,
in terrour to be had.
8 Lord God of hoasts in all the world
what one is like to thee;
On euery side most mighty Lord thy truth is seene to be.
9 The raging sea by thine aduise, thou rulest at thy will:
And when the waues thereof arise,
thou mak'st them calme and still.
10 And Egypt thou Lord hast subdude, and thou hast it destroid:
Yea, thou thy foes with mighty arme, hast scattered all abroad.

The second part.

11 The heauens are thine and still haue bene, likewise the earth and land:
The world with all that is therein,
thou foundedst with thy hand.
12 Both North and South, with East & West, thy selfe didst make and frame:
Both Tabor mount and eke Hermon, reioyce and prayse thy name.
13 Thine arme is strong and full of power
all might therein doth lie:
The strength of thy right hand each howre,
thou liftest vp on hie.
14 In righteousnesse and equity, thou hast thy seate and place:
Mercy and truth are still with thee and goe before thy face.
15 That folke is blest that knoweth aright,
thy present power O God:
For in the fauour of thy sight,
they walke full safe abroad.
16 For in thy name throughout the day,
they ioy and much reioyce:
And through thy righteousnesse haue they
a pleasant fame and noyse.
17 For why? their glory, strength, and aide in thee alone doth lie:
Thy goodnesse eke that hath vs staid,
shall lift our horne on hie.
18 Our strength that doth defend vs well,
the Lord to vs doth bring:
The holy one of Israel
he is our guide and King.
19 Sometimes thy will vnto thy Saints in visions thou didst show:
And thus then didst thou say to them,
thy minde to make them know,
A man of might I haue erect your King and guide to be:
And set him vp whom I elect,
among the folke to me.

The third part.

20 My seruant Dauid I appoint, whom I haue searched out:
And with my holy oyle annoynt, him King of all the rout.
21 For why? my hand is readie still,
with him for to remaine,
And with mine arme also I will,
him strengthen and sustaine.
22 The enemies shall him not oppresse,
they shall him not deuoure:
Ne yet the sonnes of wickednesse,
on him shall haue no power.
23 His foes likewise I will destroy,
before his face in sight:
And those that hate him I will plague, and strike them with my might.
24 My truth and mercy eke withall, shall still vpon him lie:
And in my name his horne eke shall be lifted vp on hie.
25 His kingdome will I set to be vpon the sea and land:
And eke the running floudes shall he embrace with his right and.
26 He shall depend with all his heart,
on me and thus shall say:
27 My Father and my God thou art,
My rocke of health and stay,

28 As my first borne I will him take,
of all on earth that springs:
His might and honour I shall make above all worldly Kings.
29 My mercy shall be with him still,
as I my selfe haue told:
My faithfull couenant to fulfill my mercy I will hold.
30 And eke his seede I will sustaine for euer strong and sure:
So that his seat shall still remaine, while heauen and earth endure.

The fourth part.

31 If that his sonnes forsake my Law,
and so beginne to swerue:
And of my iudgements haue none awe,
nor will not them obserue:
32 Or if they doe not vse aright,
my statutes to them made:
And set all my commandements light,
and will not keepe my trade:
33 Then with the rod will I beginne their doings to amend:
And so with scourging for their sinne,
when that they doe offend.
34 My mercy yet and my goodnesse,
I will not take him fro:
Nor handle him with crafinesse,
and so my truth forgoe.
35 But sure my couenant I will hold,
with all that I haue spoke:
No word the which my lips haue told shall alter or be broke.
36 Once swore I by my holinesse, and that performe will I:
With Dauid I will keepe promise to him I will not lie.
37 His seede for euermore shall raigne, and eke his throne of might,
As doth the Sunne it shall remaine for euer in my sight.
38 And as the moone within the skie for euer standeth fast:
A faithfull witnesse from on hie,
so shall his Kingdome last.
39 But now, O Lord, thou dost reject, and now thou changest cheare:
Yea thou art wroth with thine elect,
thine owne anoynted deare.
40 The couenant with thy seruant made Lord thou hast quite vndone:
And downe vpon the ground also hath cast his royall Crowne.

The fift part.

41 Thou pluck'st his hedges vp with might,
his wals thou dost confound:
Thou beatest eke his bulwarkes downe,
and break'st them to the ground.
42 That he is sore destroid and torne of commers by throughout,
And so is made a mocke and scorne to all that dwell about.
43 Thou their right hand hast lifted vp,
that him so sore annoy:
And all his foes that him deuoure,
loe thou hast made to ioy.
44 His swords edge thou diddst take away, that should his foes withstand:
To him in warre no victory
thou gau'st, nor vpper hand.
45 His glory thou dost also waste, his throne, his ioy, and mirth,
By thee is ouerthrowne, and cast full low vpon the earth.
46 Thou hast cut off, and made full short his youth and lustie dayes:
And rais'd of him an ill report,
with shame and great dispraise.
47 How long away from mee, O Lord, for euer wilt thou turne?
And shall thine anger still alway,
as fire consume and burne?
48 O call to minde, remember then,
my time consumeth fast,
Why hast thou made the sonnes of men,
as things in vaine to waste?
49 What man is he that liueth here,
and death shall neuer see;
Or from the hand of hell his soule shall he deliuer free?
50 Where is O Lord, thine old goodnesse,
so oft declar'd before:
Which by thy truth and vprightnesse to Dauid thou hast sworne?
51 The great rebukes to minde I call,
that on thy seruants lye:
The railing of the people all borne in my breast haue I.
52 Wherewith O Lord, thine enemies blasphemed haue thine name:
The steps of thine anoynted one they cease not to defame.
53 All prayse to thee O Lord, of hostes,
both now and eke for aye;
Through skie, and earth, and all the coasts:
Amen, Amen, I say.

Domine refugium. Psal. xc. I. H.

Moses seeing the people neither admonished by the brewity of their life, nor by plagues to be thankfull, prayeth God to turne their hearts, and continue his mercy towards them and their posterity for euer.

Sing this as the 78 Psalme.

THou Lord hast beene our sure defence,
our place of ease and rest:
In all times past, yea, so long since,
as cannot be expresst.
2 Ere there was made mountaine or hill,
the earth and all abrood:
From age to age, and alwayes still,
for euer thou art God.
3 Thou grindest man through griefe & paine, to dust, or clay, and then,
And then thou saist againe, returne
againe, ye sonnes of men.
4 The lasting of a thousand yeare what is it in thy sight?
As yesterday it doth appeare or as a watch by night.
5 So soone as thou dost scatter them,
then is their life and trade,
All as a sleepe, and like the grasse, whose beauty soone doth fade.

6 Which in the morning ſhines full bright, but fadeth by and by :
And is cut downe ere it be night,
all withered, dead and drie.

7 For through thine anger we conſume our might is much decaid :
And of thy feruent wrath and fume
we are full ſore affraid.

8 The wicked workes that we haue wrought thou ſetſt before thine eye :
Our priuy faults, yea, eke our thoughts thy countenance doth ſpye.

9 For through thy wrath our dayes doe waſte,
there of doth nought remaine :
Our yeares conſume as words or blaſts,
and are not cald againe.

10 Our time is threeſcore yeeres and ten,
that we doe liue on mould :
If one ſee foureſcore, ſurely then we count him wondrous olde.

The ſecond part.

11 Yet of this time the ſtrength and chiefe
the which wee count vpon :
Is nothings els but painefull griefe,
and wee like blaſts are gone.

12 Who once doth know what ſtrength is there what might thine anger hath ?
Or in his heart who doth thee feare
according to thy wrath ?

13 Inſtruct vs Lord to know and try,
how long our dayes remaine :
That then we may our hearts apply true wiſedome to attaine.

14 Returne, O Lord, how long wilt thou foorth on in wrath proceed ?
Shew fauour to thy ſeruants now,
and helpe them at their need.

15 Refreſh vs with thy mercy ſoone, and then our ioy ſhall be :
All times ſo long as life ſhall laſt in heart reioyce ſhall we.

16 As thou haſt plagued vs before :
now alſo make vs glad :
And for the yeeres wherein full ſore affliction we haue had.

17 O let thy worke and power appeare, and on thy ſeruants light :
And ſhew vnto thy children deare, thy glory and thy might.

18 Lord let thy grace and mercy ſtand ou vs thy ſeruants thus :
Confirme the workes we take in hand,
Lord proſper them to vs.

Qui habitat. Pſal. XCI. I.H.

Here is deſcribed the aſſurance he liueth in, that committeth himſelfe wholly to Gods protection in all temptation, a promiſe of God to thoſe that loue him, know him, and truſt in him, to deliuer them, and giue them immortall glory.

Sing this as the 99. Pſalme.

HE that within the ſecret place,
of God moſt high doth dwell :
In ſhadow of the mightieſt grace at reſt ſhall keepe him well.

2 Thou art my hope and my ſtrong hold,
I to the Lord will ſay :
My God he is in him will I my whole affiaance ſtay.

3 He ſhall defend thee from the ſnare
the which the hunter layd :
And from the deadly plague and care whereof thou art afraid.

4 And with his wings ſhall couer thee,
and keepe thee ſafely there,
His faith and truth thy fence ſhall be as ſure as ſhield and ſpeare.

5 So that thou ſhalt not neede I ſay, to feare, or be affright
Of all the ſhafts that flie by day, nor terrours of the night.

6 Nor of the plague that priuily doth walke in darke ſo faſt :
Nor yet of that which doth deſtroy,
and at noone dayes doth waſte.

7 Yea, at thy ſide as thou doſt ſtand
a thouſand dead ſhall bee :
Ten thouſand eke at thy right hand,
and yet thou ſhalt be free.

8 But thou ſhalt ſee it for thy part,
thine eyes ſhall well regard :
That euen like to their deſert
the wicked haue reward.

9 For why ? O Lord, I onely luſt, to ſtay my hope on thee :
And in the higheſt I put my truſt,
my ſure defence is hee.

10 Thou ſhalt not neede noone ill to feare, with thee it ſhall not mell :
Nor yet the plague ſhall once come neare
the houſe where thou doeſt dwell.

11 For why ? vnto his Angels all with charge commanded hee.
That ſtill in all thy wayes they ſhall preſerue and proſper thee.

12 And in their hands ſhall beare thee
ſtill waiting thee vpon :
So that thy foote ſhal neuer chance to ſpurne at any ſtone.

13 Vpon the Lyon thou ſhalt goe, the Adder fell and long :
And tread vpon the Lyons yong with Dragons ſtout and ſtrong.

14 For he that truſteth vnto me,
I will diſpatch him quite :
And him defend becauſe that he doth know my name aright.

15 When hee for helpe to me doth cry,
an anſwer I will giue :
And from his griefe take him will I,
in glory for to liue.

16 With length of yeeres, and dayes of wealth
I will fulfill his time :
The goodneſſe of my ſauing health,
I will declare to him.

Bonum eſt. Pſal. XCII. I.H.

A Pſalme for the Sabbath, to ſtirre vp the people to acknowledge & praiſe God in his workes, Dauid reioyceth therein, but the wicked conſider not that the vngodly when he is the moſt flouriſhing, ſhall moſt ſpeedily periſh. In the end is deſcribed the felicitie of the iuſt, planted in the houſe of God, in praiſe of the Lord.

Sing this as the 88. Pſalme.

IT is a thing both good and meet to praiſe the higheſt Lord:

And in thy name, O thou moſt high,
to ſing with one accord.
2 To ſhew the kindneſſe of the Lord
betime ere day be light:
And eke declare his truth abroad,
when it doth draw to night.
3 Vpon ten ſtrenged inſtruments, on Lute and Harpe ſo ſweet:
With all the mirth you can inuent,
of inſtruments moſt meete.
4 For thou haſt made mee to reioyce in things ſo wrought by thee:
And I haue ioy in heart an voyce thy handy works to ſee.
5 O Lord, how glorious and how great are all thy works ſo ſtout?
So deepely are thy counſels ſet that none can trie them out.
6 The man vnwiſe hath not the wit this geare to paſſe to bring:
And all ſuch fooles are nothing fit to vnderſtand this thing.
7 When ſo the wicked at their will,
as graſſe doe ſpring full faſt:
They when they flouriſh in their ill for euer ſhall be waſte.
8 But thou art mighty Lord moſt hie, yea, thou doſt raigne therefore:
In euery time eternally,
both now and euermore.
9 For why? O Lord behold and ſee, behold thy foes I ſay:
How all that worke iniquity, ſhall periſh and decay.
10 But thou like as an Vnicorne, ſhalt liſt my horne on hie:
With freſh and new prepared Oyle, thine oynted king am I.
11 And of my foes before mine eyes,
ſhall ſee the fall and ſhame:
Of all that vp againſt me riſe,
mine eare ſhall heare the ſame.
12 The iuſt ſhall flouriſh vp on hie,
as Date tres bud and blow:
And as the Cedars multiplie,
in Libanus that grow.
13 For they are planted in the place,
and dwelling of our God:
Within his courtes they ſpring apace,
and flouriſh all abroad.
14 And in their age much fruite ſhall bring,
both fat and well beſeene:
And pleſantly both bud and ſpring, with boughes and branches greene.
15 To ſhew that God is good and iuſt, and vpright in his will:
He is my rocke, my hope, my truſt,
in him there is none ill.

Dominus regnauit. Pſal. xciij. I.H.

He praiſeth the power of God, in the creation of the world, and beateth downe all people which liſt themſelues againſt his Maieſty, and prouoketh to conſider his promiſes.

Sing this as the 77. Pſalme.

THe Lord as King aloft doth raigne, in glory goodly dight:
And he to ſhew his ſtrength and maine hath girt himſelfe with might.
2 The Lord likewiſe the earth hath made,
and ſhaped it ſo ſure:
No might can moeue or make it fade,
at ſtay it doth endure.
3 Ere that the world was made or wrought, thy ſeate was ſet before:
Beyond all time that can be thought,
thou haſt bene euermore.
4 The floods, O Lord, the floods doe riſe, they roare and make a noyſe:
The floods (I ſay) did enterpriſe, and lifted vp their voyce.
5 Yea, though the ſtorme ariſe in ſight, though ſeas doe rage and ſwell:
The Lord is ſtrong and more of might,
for hee on high doth dwell.
6 And looke what promiſe hee doth make his houſhold to defend,
For iuſt and true they ſhall it take all times without an end.

Deus vltionum. Pſal. xciiij. I.H.

Hee prayeth God againſt the violence of tyrants, and comforteth the afflicted, by the good iſſue of their afflictions, and by the ruine of the wicked.

Sing this as the 78. Pſalme.

O Lord, thou doſt reuenge all wrong,
that office longs to thee:
Sith vengeance doth to thee belong, declare that all may ſee.
2 Set forth thy ſelfe, for thou of right
the earth doſt iudge and guide:
Reward the proud and men of might
according to their pride.
3 How long ſhall wicked men beare ſway, with lifting vp their voyce;
How long ſhall wicked men I ſay, thus triumph and reioyce?
4 How long ſhall they with brags burſt out, and proudly prate their fill?
Shall they reioyce which be ſo ſtout,
whoſe works are euer ill?
5 Thy flocke O Lord, thine heritage, they ſpoyle and vexe full ſore:
Againſt thy people they doe rage
ſtill dayly more and more.
6 Thy widowes which are comfortleſſe, and ſtrangers they deſtroy:
They ſlay the children fatherleſſe, and none doth put them by.
7 And when they take theſe things in hand
this talke they haue of thee:
Can Iacobs God this vnderſtand?
tuſh no, he cannot ſee.
8 O folke vnwiſe and people rude, ſome knowledge now diſcerne.
Ye fooles among the multitude,
at length begin to learne.
9 The Lord which made the eare of man,
he needes of right muſt heare:
He made the eyne all things muſt than before his ſight appeare.
10 The Lord doth all the world correct, and make them vnderſtand:
Shall he not then your deeds detect;
how can you ſcape his hand?

The ſecond part.

11 The Lord doth know the thoughts of man his heart hee ſeeth full plaine:
The Lord I ſay, mens thoughts doe ſcan,
and findeth them but vaine.
12 But Lord that man is happy ſure, whom thou doſt keepe in awe:
And through correction doſt procure,
to teach him in thy law.

13 Whereby hee ſhall in quiet reſt,
in time of trouble ſit:
When wicked men ſhall be ſuppreſt,
and fall into the pit.
14 For ſure the Lord will not refuſe, his people for to take:
His heritage whom he did chuſe,
hee will no time forſake.

15 Vntill that iudgement be decreed, to iuſtice to conuert:
That all may follow her with ſpeed:
that are of vpright heart.
16 But who vpon my part ſhall ſtand, againſt the curſed traine?
Or who ſhall rid mee from their hand,
that wicked works maintaine?

17 Except the Lord had beene mine aide, mine enemies to expell:
My ſoule and life had now beene laid almoſt as low as hell.
18 When I did ſay my foote did ſlide, and I am like to fall:
Thy goodneſſe Lord did ſo prouide, to ſtay mee vp withall.

19 When with my ſelfe I muſed much,
and could no comfort finde:
Then Lord thy goodneſſe did me touch,
and that did eaſe my minde:
20 Wilt thou inhaunt thy ſelfe and draw with wicked men to ſit:
Which with pretence in ſtead of law,
much miſchiefe doe commit?

21 For they conſult againſt the life of righteous men and good:
And in their counſels they are riſe,
to ſhed the guiltleſſe blood.
22 But yet the Lord hee is to mee
a ſtrong defence or rocke:
Hee is my God, to whom I flee, hee is my ſtrength and rocke.

23 And hee ſhall cauſe their miſchiefes all themſelues for to annoy:
And in their malice they ſhall fall,
our God ſhall them deſtroy.

Venite exultemus. Pſal. xcv. I. H.

An earneſt exhortation to praiſe God for the gouernement of the vvorld & election to his Church, to eſchevv the rebellion of the old fathers, vvho tempted God in the vvilderneſſe, and therefore entred not the land of promiſe.

Sing this as the 77 Pſalme.

O Come let vs lift vp our voyce,
and ſing vnto the Lord:
In him our rocke of health reioyce
let vs with one accord.
2 Yea, let vs come before his face, to giue him thankes and praiſe:
In ſinging Pſalmes vnto his grace,
let vs be glad alwayes.

3 For why? the Lord hee is no doubt,
a great and mighty God,
A king aboue all Gods throughout,
in all the world abroad.
4 The ſecrets of the earth ſo deepe,
and corners of the land:
The tops of hils that are ſo ſteepe,
hee hath them in his hand.

5 The ſea and waters all are his,
for he the ſame hath wrought,
The earth and all that therein is,
his hand hath made of nought.
6 Come let vs bow and praiſe the Lord,
before him let vs fall;
And kneele to him with one accord,
the which hath made vs all.

7 For why? he is the Lord our God,
for vs he doth prouide:
We are his flocke, he doth vs feede,
his ſheepe and he our guide.
8 To day if ye his voyce will heare,
then hearden not your heart:
As ye with grutching many a yeere prouoke me in deſert.

9 Whereas your fathers tempted me,
my power for to prooue:
My wondrous works when they did ſee,
yet ſtill they would mee mooue.
10 Twice twenty yeeres they did mee grieue,
and I to them did ſay:
They erre in heart, and not beleeue,
they haue not knowne my way.

11 Wherefore I ſware that when my wrath was kindled in my breaſt:
That they ſhould neuer tread the path,
to enter in my reſt.

Cantate Dom. Pſal. xcvj. I. H.

An exhortation both to the Ievves and Gentiles to praiſe God for his mercie: and this ſpecially ought to be referred to the kingdome of Chriſt.

Sing this as the 77 Pſalme.

SIng ye with praiſe vnto the Lord
new ſongs of ioy and mirth:
Sing vnto him with one accord,
all people on the earth.
2 Yea, ſing vnto the Lord, I ſay,
praiſe ye his holy name:
Declare and ſhew from day to day,
ſaluation by the ſame.

3 Among the heathen eke declare his honour round about:
To ſhew his wonders doe not ſpare,
in all the world throughout.
4 For why? the Lord is much of might,
and worthy praiſe alway:
And hee is to be dread of right,
aboue all Gods I ſay.

5 For all the Gods of heathen folke, are Idols that will fade:
But yet our God hee is the Lord, that hath the heauens made.
6 All praiſe and honour eke doth dwell,
for aye before his face:

Both power and might likewiſe excell
within his holy place.

7 Aſcribe vnto the Lord alway, ye people of the world,
All might and worſhip eke, I ſay, aſcribe vnto the Lord.
8 Aſcribe vnto the Lord alſo,
the glory of his name:
And eke into his courts doe goe, with gifts vnto the ſame.

The ſecond part.

9 Fall downe and worſhip ye the Lord,
within his temple bright:
Let all the people of the world,
be fearefull at his ſight.
10 Tell all the world, be not agaſt,
the Lord doth raigne aboue:
Yea, he hath ſet the earth ſo faſt,
that it can neuer moue.

11 And that it is the Lord alone, that rules with princely might,
To iudge the nations euery one,
with equity and right.
12 The heauens ſhall great ioy begin,
the earth eke ſhall reioyce:
The ſea with all that is therein
ſhall ſhoute and make a noiſe.

13 The field ſhall ioy, and euery thing that ſpringeth on the earth:
The wood and euery tree ſhall ſing,
with gladneſſe and with mirth.
14 Before the preſence of the Lord, and comming of his might,
When he ſhall iuſtly iudge the world,
and rule his folke with right.

Dominus reg. Pſal.xcvij.I.H.

Dauid exhorteth all to reioyce for the comming of the kingdome of Chriſt, dreadfull to the rebels and Idolaters, and ioyfull to the iuſt, vvhom he exhorteth to innocency, to reioycing and thankeſgiuing.

Sing this as the 95. Pſalme.

THe Lord doth raigne, where at the earth may ioy with pleaſant voyce:
And eke the Iles with ioyfull mirth,
may triumph and reioyce.
2 Both clouds and darkeneſſe eke doe ſwell, and round about him beat:
Yea, right and iuſtice euer dwell,
and bide about his ſeat.

3 Yea, fire and heate at once doe ruune,
and goe before his face:
Which ſhall his foes and enemies burne, abroad in euery place.
4 His lightnings eke full bright did blaze,
and to the world appeare:
Whereat the earth did looke and gaze,
with dread and deadly feare.

5 The hils like waxe did melt in ſight,
and preſence of the Lord:
They fled before that rulers might,
which guideth all the world.
6 The heauens eke declare and ſhew his iuſtice all abroad:
That all the world may ſee and know
the glory of our God.

7 Confuſion ſure ſhall come to ſuch,
as worſhip idoles vaine:
And eke to thoſe that glory much,
dumbe pictures to maintaine.
8 For all the idoles of the world, which they as Gods doe call:
Shall feele the power of the Lord,
and downe to him ſhall fall.

9 With joy ſhall Sion heare this thing,
and Iuda ſhall reioyce:
For at thy iudgement they ſhall ſing,
and make a pleaſant noiſe.
10 That thou, O Lord, art ſet on high,
in all the earth abroad.
And art exalted wondrouſly, aboue each other God.

11 All ye that loue the Lord doe this, hate all things that are ill:
For hee doth keepe the ſoules of his from ſuch as would them ſpill.
12 And light doth ſpring vp to the iuſt, with pleaſure for his part:
Great ioy with gladneſſe, mirth, and luſt,
to them of vpright heart.

13 Ye righteous in the Lord reioyce,
his holineſſe proclaime:
Be thankefull eke with heart and voyce,
and mindfull of the ſame.

Cantate Dom. Pſal.xcviij.I.H.

An earneſt exhortation to all creatures to prayſe the Lord for his powver, mercy and fidelity in his promiſe by Chriſt, by vvhom he hath communicated his ſaluation to all nations.

Sing this as the 95 Pſalme.

OSing ye now vnto the Lord
a new and pleaſant ſong:
For he hath wrought throughout the world,
his wonders great and ſtrong.
2 With his right hand full worthily,
he doth his foes deuoure:
And gets himſelfe the victory:
with his owne arme and power.

3 The Lord doth make the people know his ſauing health and might,
The Lord doth eke his iuſtice ſhow,
in all the heathens ſight.
4 His grace and truth to Iſrael,
in minde he doth record:
That all the earth hath ſeene right well,
the goodneſſe of the Lord.

5 Be glad in him with ioyfull voyce,
all people on the earth:
Giue thanks to God, ſing and reioyce to him with ioy and mirth.
6 Vpon the harpe vnto him ſing, giue thanks to him with Pſalmes:
Reioyce before the Lord our King:
with trumpets and with ſhalmes.

7 Yea, let the ſea with all therein, for ioy both roare and ſwell:
The earth likewiſe let it begin,
with all that therein dwell.
8 And let the flouds reioyce their fils, and clap their hands apace.
And eke the mountaines and the hils,
before the Lord his face.

9 For he ſhall come to iudge and try
the world and euery wight:
And rule the people mightily with iuſtice and with right.

Dominus regnauit. Pſal. xcix. I.H.

Hee commendeth the power, equitie, and excellency of the kingdome of God by Chriſt, ouer the Iewes and Gentiles, prouoking them to magnifie the ſame, and to feare the Lord as the ancient Fathers, Moſes, Aaron, and Samuel, who calling vpon God, were heard in their prayers.

Sing this as the 65. Pſalme.

THe Lord doth raigne, although at it
the people rage full ſore:
Yea, he on Cherubims doth ſit though all the worlde doe roare.
2 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell, is high and wonderous great:
Aboue all folke he doth excell,
and he aloft is ſet.

3 Let all men praiſe thy mightie name, for it is fearefull ſure:
And let them magnifie the ſame,
that holy is and pure.
4 The Princely power of our king doth loue iudgement and right:
Thou rightly ruleſt euery thing in Iacob through thy might.

5 To praiſe the Lord our God deuiſe,
all honour to him doe:
His foot-ſtoole worſhip him before,
for he is holy too.
6 Moſes, Aaron and Samuel,
as Prieſts on him did call:
When they did pray, he heard them well,
and gaue them anſwere all.
7 Within the clould to them he ſpake, then did they labour ſtill:
To keepe ſuch lawes as he did make and pointed them vntill.
8 O Lord our God thou didſt them heare, and anſwereſt them againe:
Thy mercy did on them appeare, their deeds didſt not maintaine.

9 O laud and praiſe our Lord and God, within his holy hill:
For why? our God throughout the world is holy euer ſtill.

Iubilate Deo omnes. Pſal. C.

Hee exhorteth all men to ſerue the Lord, who hath made vs to enter into his courts and aſſemblies, to praiſe his name.

ALl people that on earth doe dwell,

ſing to the Lord with chearfull voyce:

2. Him ſerue with feare his praiſe forth tell,

Come ye before him and reioyce.

3 The Lord ye know is God indeed, without our aid he did vs make:
We are his flocke he doth vs feede,
and for his ſheepe he doth vs take.
4 O enter then his gates with praiſe, approach with ioy his courts vnto, Praiſe, laud and bleſſe his name alwayes,
for it is ſeemely ſo to doe.

5 For why? the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for euer ſure:
His trueth at all times firmely ſtood, and ſhall from age to age endure.

Another of the ſame.

Sing this as the 68. Pſalme.

IN God the Lord be glad and light, praiſe him throughout the earth:
Serue him and come before his ſight, with ſinging and with mirth.
2 Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did vs make and keepe:
Not we our ſelues, for wee are his owne flocke and paſture ſheepe.

3 O goe into his gates alwayes, giue thankes within the ſame:
Within his courts ſet forth his praiſe,
and laud his holy name.
4 For why? the goodneſſe of the Lord for euermore doth raigne:
From age to age throughout the world his trueth doth ſtill remaine.

Miſericordiam. Pſal. Cj. N.

Dauid deſcribeth what gouernment he will obſerue in his houſe and Kingdome, by rooting out the wicked, and cheriſhing the godly perſons.

Sing this as the 81. Pſalme.

I Mercy will and iudgement ſing,
O Lord God vnto thee:
2 And wiſely doe in perfect way,
vntill thou come to me.
3 And in the midſt of my houſe walke,
in pureneſſe of my ſpirit:
And I no kinde of wicked thing will ſet before my ſight.

4 I hate their workes that fall away,
it ſhall not cleaue to me,
From me ſhall part the froward heart,
none euill will I ſee.
5 Him will I ſtroy that ſlandereth his neighbour priuily;
The loftie heart I cannot beare,
nor him that looketh hie.

6 Mine eyes ſhall be on them, within the land, that faithfull be;
In perfect way who walketh ſhall be ſeruant vnto me.
7 I will no guilefull perſon haue within my houſe to dwell,
And in my preſence he ſhall not remaine that lyes doth tell.

8 Betimes will I deſtroy euen all the wicked of the land;
That I might from Gods citie cut the wicked workers hand.

Domine exaudi. Pſal. Cij. I.H.

It ſeemeth that this prayer was appointed to the faithfull to pray in the captiuitie of Babylon. A conſolation for the building of the Church, wherevnto followeth the praiſe of God to be publiſhed vnto all poſteritie. The conuerſion of the Gentiles, and ſtabilitie of the Church.

Sing this as the 67 Pſalme.

O Heare my prayer Lord, and let my cry come vnto thee;
2 In time of trouble doe not hide
thy face away from mee, 3 Incline thine eares to mee, make haſte to heare me when I call:
For as the ſmoake doth fade, ſo doe
my dayes conſume and fall.

4 And as a harth my bones are burnt,
my heart is ſmitten dead:
And withers as the graſſe, that I forget to eate my bread.
5 By reaſon of my groaning voyce,
my bones cleaue to my skin:
6 As pelican in wildernesſe, ſuch caſe now am I in.
7 And as an Owle in deſert is,
loe I am ſuch a one:
I watch, and as a Sparrow on the houſe top am alone.
8 Loe daily in reproachfull wiſe mine enemies doe me ſcorne:
And they that doe againſt me rage,
againſt me they haue ſworne.

9 Surely with aſnes as with bread,
my hunger I haue fild:
And mingled haue my drinke with teares,
that from my eyes haue ſtild.
10 Becauſe of thy diſpleaſure Lord, thy wrath, and thy diſdaine;
For thou haſt lifted me aloft,
and caſt me downe againe.

11 The dayes wherein I paſſe my life,
are like the fleeting ſhade;
And I am withered like the graſſe, that ſoone away doth fade.
12 But thou, O Lord, for euer doſt remaine in ſteady place;
And thy remembrance euer doth abide from race to race.

The ſecond part.

13 Thou wilt ariſe, and mercy thou to Sion wilt extend,
The time of mercy, now the time
foreſet, is come to end.
14 For euen in the ſtones thereof thy ſeruants doe delight;
And on the duſt thereof they haue compaſſion in their ſpirit.

15 Then ſhall the heathen people feare,
the Lords moſt holy name;
And all the kings on earth ſhall dread thy glory and thy fame.
16 Then when the Lord the mighty God
againe ſhall Sion reare:
And then when he moſt nobly in his glory ſhall appeare.

17 To prayer of the deſolate, when he himſelfe ſhall bend;
When he ſhall not diſdaine vnto their prayers to attend.
18 This ſhalbe written for the age that after ſhall ſucceede;
The people yet vncreated
the Lords renovvne ſhall ſpread.

19 For he from his high Sanctuarie hath looked downe belovv;
And out of heauen hath the Lord beheld the earth alſo.
20 That of the morning captiue he might heare the wofull cry:
And that he might deliuer thoſe that damned are to dye.

21 That they in Sion might declare
the Lords moſt holy name:
And in Ieruſalem ſet forth
the praiſes of the ſame.
22 Then when the people of the land,
and kingdomes with accord, Shall be aſſembled for to doe their ſeruice to the Lord.

The third part.

23 My former force and ſtrength he hath abated in the way:
And ſhorter he did cut my dayes,
thus I therefore did ſay, 24 My God in midſt of all my dayes
now take me not away:
Thy yeeres endure eternally,
from age to age for eye.

25 Thou the foundation of the earth before all times haſt laid:
And Lord the heauens are the worke, which thine owne hands haue made.
26 Yea, they ſhall periſh and decay,
but thou ſhalt tarry ſtill:
And they ſhall all in time waxe old,
euen as a garment will.

27 Thou as a garment ſhalt them change, and changed ſhall they be;
But thou doſt ſtill abide the ſame,
thy yeeres doe neuer flee.
28 The children of thy ſeruants ſhall continually endure:
And in thy ſight their happy ſeede for euer ſhall ſtand ſure.

Benedic anima. Pſal. Ciij. T.S.

all his gifts, ſhew not thy ſelfe vnkinde,

And ſuffer not his benefits to ſlip out of thy minde.

3 That gaue thee pardon for thy faults,
and thee reſtor'd againe:
For all thy weake and traile diſeaſe,
and heald thee of thy paine.
4 That did redeeme thy life from death,
from which thou couldſt not flee,
His mercy and compaſſion both,
he did extend to thee.

5 That fill'd with goodneſſe thy deſire, and did prolong thy youth:
Like as the Eagle caſts her bill,
whereby her age reneweth:
6 The Lord with iuſtice doth repay
all ſuch as be oppreſt:
So that their ſuffrings and their wrongs,
are turned to the beſt.

7 His wayes and his commandements, to Moſes he did ſhew,
His counſels and his valiant acts,
the Iſraelites did know.
8 The Lord is kind and mercifull, when ſinners doe him grieue,
The ſloweſt to conceiue a wrath,
and readieſt to forgiue.

9 He chides not vs continually, though we be full of ſtrife:
Nor keepes our faults in memory,
for all our ſinfull life.
10 Nor yet according to our ſinnes
the Lord doth vs regard:
Nor after our iniquities,
he doth not vs reward.

11 But as the ſpace is wondrous great,
twixt earth and heauen aboue:
So is his goodnes much more large,
to them that doe him loue.
12 God doth remooue our ſinnes from vs,
and our offences all:
As farre as is the ſunne riſing, full diſtant from his fall.

The ſecond part.

13 And looke what pitie parents deare
vnto their children beare:
Like pitie beareth God to ſuch
as worſhip him in feare.
14 The Lord that made vs knowes our ſhape our moulde and faſhion iuſt:
How weake and fraile our nature is,
and how we be but duſt.

15 And how the time of mortall men,
is like the withering hay:
Or like the flower right faire in field,
that fades full ſoone away.
16 Whoſe gloſſe and beauty ſtormy windes,
doe viterly diſgrace,
And make that after their aſſaults,
ſuch bloſſomes haue no place.

17 But yet the goodneſſe of the Lord,
with his ſhall euer ſtand:
Their childrens children doe receiue,
his righteouſneſſe at hand.
18 I meane which keepe his couenant, with all their whole deſire:
And not forget to doe the thing,
that he doth them require.

19 The heauens hie are made the ſeate, and footſtoole of the Lord;
And by his power imperiall,
he gouernes all the world.
20 Ye Angels which are great in power, praiſe ye and bleſſe the Lord:
Which to obey and doe his will, immediately accord.

21 Ye noble hoaſts and miniſters, ceaſe not to laud him ſtill:
Which ready are to execute,
his pleaſure and his will;

praiſe ye his holy name:

curtaine compared may be.

3 His chamber beames lie,
in the cloudes full ſure:
Which as his chariots,
are made him to beare.
And there with much ſwiftnes his courſe doth endure:
Vpon the wings riding,
of winde in the ayre.
4 He maketh his ſpirits
as heralds to goe:
And lightnings to ſerue,
we ſee alſo preſt,
His will to accompliſh,
they runne to and fro,
To ſaue or conſume things
as ſeemeth to him beſt.
5 He grounded the earth
ſo firmely and faſt,
That it once to moue,
none ſhall haue ſuch power:
6 The deepe a faire couering, for it made thou haſt:
Which by his owne nature
the hils would deuoure.
7 But at thy rebuke,
the waters doe flie,
And ſo giue due place,
thy word to obey:
At thy voyce of thunder ſo fearefull they be,
That in their great raging,
they haſt ſoone away.
8 The mountaines full high,
they then vp aſcend:
If thou doe but ſpeake thy word they fulfill So likewiſe the waues moſt quickely deſcend.
Where thou them appointeſt, remaine they doe ſtill.
9 Their bounds thou haſt ſet, how farre they ſhall runne,
So as in their rage,
not that paſſe they can.
For God hath appointed,
they ſhall not returne,
The earth to deſtroy more,
which was made for man.

The ſecond part.

10 He ſendeth the ſprings to ſtrong ſtreames and lakes:
Which runne doe full ſwift
among the huge hils.
11 Where both the wilde aſſes their thirſt oft-times ſlackes;
And beaſts of the mountaines, thereof drinke their fils.
12 By theſe pleaſant ſprings, or fountaines full faire:
The fowles of the aire abide ſhall and dwell.
13 Who mooued by nature,
to hop here and there:
Among the greene branches their ſongs ſhall excell.
14 The mountaines moyſt
the cloudes he doth vſe:
The earth with his workes, are wholly repleate.
15 So as the bruite cattell he doth not refuſe:
But graſſe doth prouide them,
and herbe for mans meate.
Yea bread, Wine and Oyle,
he made for mans ſake,
His face to refreſh
and heart to make ſtrong.
16 The Cedars of Liban, this great God did make,
Which trees he doth nouriſh, that grow vp ſo long.
17 In thoſe may birds build and make there their neſt:
In firre trees the Storkes remaine and abide.
18 The high hils are ſuccours for wilde Goates to reſt;
And eke the rocks ſtonie,
for Conies to hide.
19 The Moone then is ſet,
her ſeaſons to runne;
The dayes from the nights,
thereby to diſcerne.
And by the deſcending alſo of the Sunne,
The cold from heate alway thereby we doe learne.
20 When darkneſſe doth come,
by Gods will and power,
Then creepe forth doe all the beaſts of the wood.
21 The Lions range roaring, their prey to deuoure;
But yet it is thou (Lord)
which giueſt them food.
22 As ſoone as the Sunne is vp, they retire:
To couch in their dens
then are they full faine:
23 That man to his worke may as right doth require,
Till night come and call him,
to take reſt againe.

The third part.

24 How ſundry (O Lord)
are all thy vvorks found?
With vviſedome full great,
they are indeed vvrought,
So that the vvhole vvorld of thy praiſe doth ſound.
And as for thy riches
they paſſe all mens thought.
25 So as the great Sea, vvhich large is and broad,
Where things that creepe ſvvarme, and beaſts of each ſort.
26 There both mightie ſhips ſaile,
and ſome lie at road:
The Whale huge and monſtrous, there alſo doth ſport.
27 All things on thee vvaite, thou doſt them relieue,
And thou in due time
full vvell doſt them feede.

28 Now when it doth pleaſe thee,
the ſame ſo to giue.
They gather full gladly thoſe things which they need, Thou openeſt thy hand,
and they finde ſuch grace:
That they with good things are filled we ſee.
29 But ſore are they troubled,
if thou turne thy face:
For if thou their breath take,
vile duſt then they be.
30 Againe, when thy ſpirit from them doth proceed:
All things to appoint and what ſhall enſue, 31 Then are they created,
as thou haſt decreed:
And doſt by thy goodneſſe
the dry earth renue.
32 The prayſe of the Lord for euer ſhall laſt.
Who may in his works
by right well reioyce.
His looke can the earth make to tremble full faſt:
And likewiſe the mountaines to ſmoake at his voyce.
33 To this Lord and God, ſing will I alwaies,
So long as I liue
my God prayſe will I.
34 Then am I moſt certaine,
my words ſhall him pleaſe:
I will reioyce in him,
to him will I cry.
35 The ſinners, O Lord, conſume in thine ire,
And eke the peruerſe them roote out with ſhame:
But as for my ſoule now,
let it ſtill deſire,
And ſay with the faithfull,
prayſe ye the Lords name.

Hee prayſeth the ſingular goodneſſe of God, for chuſing a peculiar people to himſelfe, neuer ceaſing to doe them good, euen for his promiſe ſake.

Sing this as the 50. Pſalme.

GIue prayſes vnto God the Lord,
and call vpon his name;
Among the people eke declare his works to ſpread his fame.
2 Sing ye vnto the Lord I ſay, and ſing vnto him prayſe,
And talke of all the wondrous works,
that he hath wrought alwaies.
3 In honour of his holy name,
reioyce with one accord:
And let the heart alſo reioyce,
of them that ſeeke the Lord.
4 Seeke ye the Lord, and ſeeke the ſtrength of his eternall might:
And ſeeke his face continually,
and preſence of his light.
5 The wondrous works that he hath done,
keepe ſtill in mindfull heart.
Ne let the iudgements of his mouth,
out of your mindes depart.
6 Ye that of faithfull Abraham his ſeruant are the ſeed:
Ye his elect the children that of Iacob doe proceed.
7 For hee, he onely is, I ſay,
the mighty Lord our God:
And his moſt rightfull iudgements are through all the earth abroad.
8 His promiſe and his couenant, which he hath made to his:
He hath remembred euermore, to thouſands of degrees.

The ſecond part.

9 The couenant which he hath made,
with Abraham long agoe:
And faithfull oath which he hath ſworne,
to Iſaac alſo:
10 And did confirme the ſame for law,
that Iacob ſhould obey:
And for eternall couenant, to Iſrael for aye.
11 When thus he ſaid, Loe I to you,
all Canaan land will giue:
The lot of your inheritance, wherein your ſeede ſhall liue.
12 Although the number at that time,
did very ſmall appeare:
Yet very ſmall, and in the land,
they then but ſtrangers were.
13 While yet they walkt from land to land without a ſure aboade,
And while from ſundry kingdomes they did wander all abroad.
14 And wrong at no oppreſſors hand,
he ſuffred them to take:
But euen the great and mighty Kings, reprooued for their ſake.
15 And thus he ſayd touch ye not thoſe, that mine anoynted be:
Ne doe the Prophets any harme,
that doe pertaine to me.
16 He call'd a dearth vpon the land, of bread he ſtroyed the ſtore:
But he againſt the time of neede had ſent a man before:

was knowne apparantly;
The mighty word of God the Lord,
his faultleſſe trueth did trie.
20 The King ſent and deliuered him, from priſon where he was:
The ruler of the people then did freely let him paſſe.
21 And ouer all his houſe he made him Lord, to beare the ſway:
And of his ſubſtance made him haue
the rule and all the ſtay.
22 That he might to his will inſtruct
the Princes of the land:
And wiſedomes lore his ancient men might teach to vnderſtand.

23 Then into the Egyptian land, came Iſrael alſo :
And Iacob in the land of Ham
did liue a ſtranger tho.

24 His people he exceedingly in number made to flow :
And ouer all their enemies,
in ſtrength he made them grow.
25 Whoſe hearts he turn'd, that they with hate his people did intreat :
And did his ſeruants wrongfully, abuſe with falſe deceit.

The fourth part.

26 His faithfull ſeruant Moſes then,
and Aaron whom he choſe,
He did command to goe to them,
his meſſage to diſcloſe.
27 The wondrous meſſage of his ſignes
among them they did ſhow :
And wonders in the land of Ham
then they did worke alſo.

28 Darkneſſe he ſent and made it darke, in ſtead of brighter day :
And vnto his commiſſion
they did not diſobey.
29 He turn'd their waters into blood,
he did their fiſhes ſlay :
30 Their land brought frogs, euen in the where their King Pharaoh lay. (place

31 He ſpake and at his voyce there came great ſwarmes of noyſome flies :
And all the quarters of their land were fild with crawling lice.
32 He gaue them cold and ſtony haile in ſtead of milder raine :
And fiery flames within their land
he ſent vnto their paine.

33 He ſmote their vines, and all their trees, whereas their figs did grow,
And all the trees within their coaſts,
downe did he ouerthrow.
34 He ſpake, then Caterpillers did,
and Graſhoppers abound.
35 Which eate the graſſe in all their land, and fruit of all their ground.

The fift part.

36 The firſt begotten in their land,
eke deadly did he ſmite :
Yea, the beginning and firſt fruit,
of all their ſtrength and might.
37 With gold and ſiluer he them brought,
from Egypt land to paſſe :
And in the number of the tribes,
no feeble one there was.

38 Egypt was glad and ioyfull then,
when they did thence depart :
For terror and the feare of them,
was fallen into their heart.
39 To ſhrowd them from the parching heat,
a cloud he did diſplay,
And fire he ſent to giue them light,
when night had hid the day.

40 They asked and he cauſed Quailes to raine at their requeſt :
And fully with the bread of heauen,
their hunger he repreſt.

41 He opened then the ſtony rooke, and water guſhed out :
And in the dry and parched grounds,
like riuers runne about.

42 For of his holy couenant, aye mindefull was he tho :
Which to his ſeruant Abraham,
he plighted long agoe.
43 He brought his people forth with mirth and his elect with ioy :
Out of the cruell land, where they had liu'd in great annoy.

44 And of the heathen men he gaue to them the fruitfull lands,
The labour of the people eke,
they tooke into their hands.
45 That they his holy ſtatutes might obſerue for euermore :
And faithfully obey his lawes, praſe ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Dom. Pſal. Cvj. N.

The people diſperſed vnder Antiochus, doe magnifie the goodneſſe of God among the repentant, and pray to be gathered from among the heathens, that they may prayſe his name.

Sing this as the 95 Pſalme.

PRayſe ye the Lord, for he is good,
his mercy dures for aye :
2 Who can expreſſe his noble acts, or all his prayſe diſplay ?
3 They bleſſed are that iudgement keepe, and iuſtly doe alway :
With fauour of thy people Lord, remember me I pray.

4 And with thy ſauing health, O Lord, vouchſafe to viſit mee :
That I the great felicity of thine elect may ſee.
5 And with thy peoples ioy I may a ioyfull minde poſſeſſe :
And may with thine inheritance,
a glorying heart expreſſe.

6 Both we and eke our fathers all,
haue ſinned euery one :
We haue committed wickedneſſe, and lewdly we haue done.
7 The wonders great which thou, O Lord,
haſt done in Egypt land :
Our fathers though they ſaw them all yet did not vnderſtand.

Nor they thy mercies multitude did keepe in thankfull minde,
But at the ſea, yea the red ſea, rebelled moſt vnkinde.
8 Neuertheleſſe he ſaued them,
for honour of his name :
That he might make his power knowne,
and ſpread abroad his fame.

9 The red ſea he did then rebuke, and forthwith it was dride :
And as in wilderneſſe, ſo through the deepe he did them guide.
10 He ſau'd them from the cruell hand of their deſpitefull foe :
And from the enemies hand he did deliuer them alſo.

The ſecond part.

21 The waters their oppreſſors whelmde, not one was left aliue :
22 Then they beleeu'd his words, and prayſe in ſong they did him giue.
23 But by and by vnthankefully his workes they cleane forgate :
And for his counſell and his law
they did neglect to waite.

24 But luſted in the wilderneſſe with ſound and greedy luſt :
And in the deſart tempted God,
the ſtay of all their truſt.
25 And then their want on mindes deſire
he ſuffred them to haue :
But waſting leanneſſe therewithall, into their ſoule he gaue.

26 Then when they lodged in their tents,
at Moſes they did grutch :
Aaron the holy of the Lord
ſo did they enuy much.
27 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did deuoure :
And all Abirams company did couer in that houre.

28 In their aſſembly kindled was the hot conſuming fire :
And waſting flames did then burne vp the wicked in his ire.
29 Vpon the hill of Horeb they an Idoll Calfe did frame :
And there the moulten image they did worſhip of the ſame.

30 Into the likeneſſe of a Calfe, that feedeth on the graſſe, Thus they their glory turn'd, and all their honor did deface.
31 And God their onely Sauiour vnkindly they forgot :
Which many great and mightie things in Egypt land had wrought.

The third part.

32 And in the land of Ham, for them
moſt wondrous works had done :
And by the red ſea dreadfull things performed long agone.
33 Therefore for their ſo ſhewing them
forgetfull and vnkinde :
To bring deſtruction on them all he purpoſ'd in his minde.

Had not his choſen Moſes ſtood before him in the breake :
To turne his wrath leaſt he on them,
with ſlaughter ſhould him wreake.
34 They did deſpiſe the pleaſant land,
that he behight to giue :
Yea, and the words that he had ſpoke
they did no whit beleeue.

35 But in their tents with grudging hearts,
they wickedly repin'd :
Nor to the voyce of God the Lord
they gaue an harkning minde.
36 Therefore againſt them lifted he his ſtrong reuenging hand :
Them to deſtroy in wilderneſſe,
ere they ſhould ſee the land.

37 And to deſtroy their ſeed among the nations with his rod :
And through the countries of the world to ſcatter them abroad.
38 To Baal peor then they did adioyne themſelues alſo :
And are the offrings of the dead,
ſo they forſooke him tho.

39 Thus with their owne inuentions, his wrath they did prouoke :
And in his ſo enkindled wrath
the plague vpon them broke.
40 But Phinees ſtood vp with zeale
the ſinners vile to ſlay :
And iudgment he did executе,
and then the plague did ſtay.

The fourth part.

41 It was imputed vnto him for righteouſneſſe that day :
And from thence-forth ſo counted is from race to race for aye.
42 At waters eke of Meribah they did him angry make :
Yea, ſo farre forth that Moſes was then puniſht for their ſake :

43 Becauſe they vext his ſpirit ſo ſore,
that in impatient heat,
His lips ſpake vnadui ſedly,
his feruour was ſo great.
44 Nor as the Lord commanded them,
they ſlew the people tho :
45 But were among the heathen mixt, and learn'd their workes alſo.

46 And did their Idols ſerue, which were their ruine and decay :
47 To fiends their ſons and daughters they did offer vp and ſlay :
48 Yea, with vnkindly murdring knife
the guiltleſſe blood they ſpilt :
Yea, their owne ſonnes and daughters blood,
without all cauſe of gilt.

Whom they to Canaan Idoles then offred with wicked hand :
And ſo with blood of innocents defiled was the land.
49 Thus were they ſtained with the workes of their owne filthy way :
And with their owne inuentions
a whoring did they ſtray.

50 Therefore againſt his people was the Lords wrath kindled ſore :
And euen his owne inheritance,
therefore he did abhorre.
51 Into the hands of heathen men,
he gaue them for a prey :
And made their foes their Lords, whom they were forced to obey.

The fift part.

52 Yea, and their hatefull enemies
oppreſt them in the land :
And they were humbly made to ſtoope,
as ſubiect to their hand.
53 Full often times from thrall had he,
deliuered them before :
But with their counſels they to wrath prouokt him euermore.

There-

Therefore they by their wickednesse were brought full low to lie : 44 Yet when hee saw them in distresse, he hearkned to their cry.
45 He cald to minde his couenant, which he to them hath swore :
And by his mercies multitude, repented him therefore.
46 And fauour he them made to finde before the sight of those That led them captiue from their land, when earst they were their foes.
47 Saue vs, O Lord, that art our God,
saue vs, O Lord, we pray:
And from among the heathen folke,
Lord gather vs away.
48 That we may spread the noble prayse of thy most holy name :
That we may glory in thy prayse,
and sounding of thy fame.
49 The Lord the God of Israel, be blest for euermore :
Let all the people say Amen, prayse ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Dom. Pſ. Cvij. W.K.

Dauid exhorteth all that are redeemed by the Lord and gathered vnto him, to giue thanks therefore, who by sending prosperity and aduersity, bringeth men vnto him. Therefore as the righteous thereat reioyce, so shall the wicked haue their mouthes stopped.

Sing this as the 96. Pſalme.

GIue thankes vnto the Lord our God,
for gracious is hee :
And that his mercy hath no end
all mortall men may see.
2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath,
with thankes should prayse his name:
And shew how they from foes are freed,
and how he wrought the same.
3 He gathered them forth of the land :
that lay so farre about:
From East to West, from North to South his hand did finde them out.
4 They wandred in the wildernesse, and strayed from the way :
And found no citie where to dwell,
that serue might for their stay.
5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great,
in those deserts so voyde :
That faintnesse did them sore assault,
and eke thier soules annoid.
6 Then did they cry in their distresse
vnto the Lord for aid :
Who did remooue their troublous state,
according as they praid.
7 And by that way that was most right,
he led them like a guide :
That they might to a citie goe,
and there also abide.
8 Let them therefore before the Lord, confesse his goodnesse then :
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.
9 For he the empty soule sustainde, whom thirst had made to faint :
The hungry soule with goodnesse fed,
and did them eke acquaint.
10 Such as doe dwell in darknesse deepe, where they on death doe wait :
Fast bound to taste such troublous stormes as iron chaines doe threat.

The second part.

11 For that against the Lords owne word,
they sought so to rebell :
Esteeming light his counsels hie,
which doe so farre excell.
12 But when he humbled them full low,
they then fell downe with griefe :
And none was found so much to helpe, whereby to get reliefe.
13 Then did they cry in their distresse,
vnto the Lord for aid :
Who did remooue their troublous state,
according as they praid.
14 For he from darknesse out them brought,
and from deaths dreadfull shade :
Bursting with force the iron bands,
which did before them lade.
15 Let men therefore before the Lord,
confesse his kindnesse then :
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.
16 For hee threw downe the gates of brasse, and brake them with strong hand :
The iron barres he smote in two :
nothing could him withstand.
17 The foolish folke great plagues doe feele, and cannot from them wend :
But heape on moe to those they haue,
because they doe offend.
18 Their soules so much did loath all meate, that none they could abide :
Whereby death had them almost caught,
as they full cruely tride.
19 Then did they crie in their distresse
vnto the Lord for aid :
Who did remooue their troublous state,
according as they praid.
20 For he then sent to them his word, which health did soone restore :
And brought them from those dangers deep,
wherein they were before.

The third part.

21 Let men therefore before the Lord,
confesse his kindnesse then :
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.
22 And let them offer sacrifice, with thanks and also feare :
And speake of all his wondrous workes,
with glad and ioyfull cheare.
23 Such as in ships or brittle barkes into the seas descend :
Their merchandize through fearefull flouds to compasse and to end.
24 Those men are forced to behold the Lords workes what they be :
And in the dangerous deepe the same most marualous they see.
25 For at his word the stormy winde, ariseth in a rage :
And stirreth vp the surges so,
as nought can them assuage.
26 Then are they lifted vp so high,
the clouds they seeme to gaine,

And

And plunging downe the depth vntill their ſoules conſume with paine.
27 And like a drunkard to and fro,
now here, now there they reele:
As men with feare of wit bereft,
or had of ſenſe no feele.
28 Then did they cry in their diſtreſſe,
vnto the Lord for aide,
Who did remooue their troublous ſtate,
according as they praide.
29 For with his word the Lord doth make the ſturdie ſtormes to ceaſe:
So that the great waues from their rage,
are brought to reſt and peace.
30 Then are men glad, when reſt is come,
which they ſo much doe craue,
And are by him in hauen brought,
which they ſo faine would haue.

The fourth part.

31 Let men therefore before the Lord,
confeſſe his kindneſſe then:
And ſhew the wonders that he doth before the ſonnes of men.
32 Let them in preſence of the folke, with prayſe extoll his name:
And where the Elders doe conuent,
let them there doe the ſame.
33 For running floods to dry deſerts
he doth oft change and turne,
And drieth vp as it were duſt,
the ſpringing well and bourne.
34 A fruitfull land with pleaſures deckt, full barren doth he make:
When on their ſinnes that dwell therein,
he doth iuſt vengeance take.
35 Againe, the wilderneſſe full rude,
he maketh fruit to beare:
With pleaſant ſprings of waters cleare,
though none before were there.
36 Where in ſuch hungry ſoules are ſet,
as he doth freely chuſe:
That they a citie may them build to dwell in for their vſe.
37 That they may ſow their pleaſant land,
and vineyards alſo plant:
To yeeld them fruits of ſuch increaſe,
as none may ſeeme to want.
38 They multiplie exceedingly,
the Lord doth bleſſe them ſo:
Who doth alſo their bruit beaſts make by numbers great to grow.
39 But when the faithfull are low brought,
by the oppreſſors ſtout,
And miniſh doe through many plagues,
that compaſſe them aboue:
40 Then doth hee Princes bring to ſhame, which did them ſore oppreſſe:
And likewiſe cauſed them to erre
within the wilderneſſe.
41 But yet the poore he raiſeth vp out of their troubles deepe:
And oft-times doth his traine augment,
much like a flocke of ſheepe.
42 The righteous ſhall behold this ſight,
and alſo much reioyce:
Whereas the wicked and peruerſe with griefe ſhall ſtop their voyce.
43 But who is wiſe, that now full well
he may theſe things record?
For certainely ſuch ſhall perceiue
the kindneſſe of the Lord.

Paratum cor. Pſal. Cviij. N.

Dauid with heart and voyce prayſeth the Lord, and aſſureth himſelfe of the promiſe of God concerning his kingdome ouer Iſrael, and his power againſt other nations, who though he ſeeme to forſake vs for a time, yet hee alone in the end will caſt downe our enemies.

Sing this as the 95 Pſalme.

O God my heart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is ſo:
I will aduance my voyce in ſong,
and giuing prayſe alſo:
2 Awake my viole and my harpe
ſweet melody to make:
And in the morning I my ſelfe, right early will awake.
3 By me among the people (Lord)
ſtill prayſed ſhalt thou bee:
And I among the heathen folke, will ſing (O Lord) to thee.
4 Becauſe thy mercy Lord is great aboue the heauens hie:
And eke thy truth doth reach the cloude within the lofty skie.
5 Aboue the ſtarrie heauens high,
exalt thy ſelfe, O God:
And Lord diſplay vpon the earth thy glory all abroad.
6 That thy dearely beloued may be ſet at liberty:
Helpe O my God with thy right hand,
and hearken vnto mee.
7 God in his holines hath ſpoke:
(wherefore my ioyes abound) Sichem I will diuide, and mete
the valley of Succoth ground.
8 And Gilead ſhalbe mine owne, Manaſſes mine ſhalbe:
My head-ſtrength Ephraim, and Law
ſhall Iudah giue for mee.
9 Moab my waſhpot, and my ſhoe on Edom I will throw:
Vpon the land of Paleſtine in triumph will I goe.
10 Who ſhall into the citie ſtrong be guide to conduct me?
Or how by whom to Edom land, conueyed ſhall I be?
11 Is it not thou (O God) which late hadſt vs forſaken quite?
And thou (O Lord) which with our hoaſt didſt not goe forth to fight:
12 Giue vs (O Lord) thy ſauing aid,
when troubles doe aſſaile:
For all the helpe of man is vaine,
and can no whit auaile.
13 Through God we ſhall doe valiant acts, and worthy of renowne:
He ſhall ſubdue our enemies,
yea he ſhall tread them downe.

Deus, laudem meum. Pſal. Cix. N.

Dauid being falſely accuſed by Sauls flatterers, prayeth prayeth God to helpe him to deſtroy his enemies, who repreſent Iudas the traitor vnto Ieſus Chriſt, and all like enemies of the children of God.

Sing this as the 98. Pſalme.

IN ſpeechleſſe ſilence doe not hold,
O God thy tongue alwaies:
O God, euen thou I ſay that art
the God of all my prayſe.
2 The wicked mouth and guileful lips, on me diſcloſed be:
And they with falſe and lying tongue,
haue ſpoken vnto me.
3 They did beſet me round about,
with words of hatefull ſpight:
Without all cauſe of my deſert, againſt me they did fight.
4 For my good will they were my foes,
but then gan I to pray:
My good with ill, my friendlineſſe with hate they did repay.
5 Set thou the wicked ouer him,
to haue the vpper hand:
At his right hand eke ſuffer thou,
his hatefull foe to ſtand.
6 When hee is iudged, let him then condemned be therein:
7 And let the prayer that hee makes,
be turned into ſinne.
8 Few be his daies, his charge alſo, let thou another take:
9 His children let be fatherleſſe, his wife a widow make.
10 Let his off-ſpring be vagabonds,
to beg and ſeeke their bread:
Wandring out of the wonted place,
where earſt they haue bene fed.
11 Let couetous extortioners catch all his goods and ſtore:
And let the ſtrangers ſpoyle the fruit of all his toyle before.
12 Let there be none to pitie him,
let there be none at all:
That on his children fatherleſſe, will let their mercy fall.

The ſecond part.

13 And ſo let his poſterity, for euer be deſtroyed:
Their names out-blotted in the age,
that after ſhall ſucceed.
14 Let not his fathers wickedneſſe, from Gods remembrance fall:
And let thou not his mothers ſinne,
be done away at all.
15 But in the preſence of the Lord,
let them remaine for aye:
That from the earth their memory,
he may cut cleane away.
16 Sith mercy he forgate to ſhew,
but did purſue with ſpight:
The troubled man, and ſought to ſlay
the wofull hearted wight.
17 As he did curſing loue, it ſhall
betide vnto him ſo:
And as he did not bleſſing loue,
it ſhall be farre him fro.
18 As hee with curſing clad himſelfe, ſo it like water ſhall
Into his bowels, and like oyle, into his bones be fall.
19 As garment let it be to him,
to couer him for aye:
And as a girdle wherewith he ſhall girded be alway.
20 Loe let the ſame be from the Lord,
the guerdon of my foe:
Yea and of thoſe that euill ſpeake
againſt my ſoule alſo.
21 But thou O Lord, that art my God,
deale thou I ſay with me:
After thy name deliuer me,
for good thy mercies be.
22 Becauſe in depth of great diſtreſſe,
I needy am and poore:
And eke within my pained breſt,
my heart is wounded ſore.

The third part.

23 Euen ſo doe I depart away,
as doth declining ſhade:
And as the Graſſhopper, ſo I am ſhaken off and fade.
24 With faſting long from needfull food, enfeebled are my knees:
And all her fatneſſe hath my fleſh enforced bene to leeſe.
25 And I alſo a vile reproach to them was made to be:
And they that did vpon me looke did ſhake their heads at me.
26 But thou O Lord, that art my God,
mine aide and ſuccour be:
According to thy mercy Lord,
ſaue and deliuer me.
27 And they ſhall know thereby, that this Lord is thy mighty hand:
And that thou, thou haſt done it Lord,
ſo ſhall they vnderſtand.
28 Although they curſe with ſpite, yet thou ſhalt bleſſe with louing voyce:
They ſhall ariſe and come to ſhame,
thy ſeruant ſhall reioyce.
29 Let them be cloathed all with ſhame, that enemies are to me:
And with confuſion as a cloake, eke couered let them be.
30 But greatly I will with my mouth
giue thanks vnto the Lord:
And I among the multitude his prayſes will record.
31 For he with helpe at his right hand, will ſtand the poore man by,
To ſaue him from the man that would condemne his ſoule to die.

Dixit Dominus. Pſal. Cx. N.

Dauid prophecieth of the power and euerlaſting kingdome of Chriſt, and the Prieſthood, which ſhould put an end to the Prieſthood of Leui.

Sing this as the 68 Pſalme.

THE Lord did ſay vnto my Lord,
ſit thou on my right hand,
Till I haue made thy foes a ſtone, wheron thy feete ſhall ſtand.
2 The Lord ſhall out of Sion ſend, the Scepter of thy might.

Amid thy mortall foes be thou the ruler in their ſight.

3 And in the day on which thy raigne and power they ſhall ſee:
Then hereby free-will offrings ſhall
the people offer thee.
Yea, with an holy worſhipping,
then ſhall they offer all:
Thy birth due is the dew that doth from wombe of morning fall.

4 The Lord hath ſworne, and neuer will repent what he doth ſay:
By th'order of Melchiſedech thou art a Prieſt for aye.
5 The Lord thy God, on thy right hand that ſtandeth for thy ſtay:
Shall wound for thee the ſtately Kings
vpon his wrathfull day.

6 The heathen he ſhall iudge, and fill the place with bodies dead:
And ouer diuers countries ſhall
in ſunder ſmite the head.
7 And he ſhall drinke out of the brooke that runneth in the way:
Therefore he ſhall lift vp on high his royall head that day.

Confitebor tibi. Pſal. Cxj. N.

Hee giueth thankes to the Lord for his merciſull vvorks tovvard his Church, and declareth vvherein true vviſedome and right knovvledge conſiſteth.

With heart I doe accord to prayſe and laud the Lord, in preſence of the iuſt: 2 For great his workes are found, to ſearch them ſuch are bound, as doe him loue and truſt. 3. His works are glorious, alſo his righteouſneſſe it doth endure for euer. 4. His wondrous works

he would, wee ſtill remember ſhould,

His mercy failleth neuer.

5 Such as to him loue beare
A portion full faire
he hath vp for them laid,
For this they ſhall well finde,
He will them haue in minde, and keepe them, as he ſaid.
6 For he did not diſdaine
His workes to ſhew them plaine, by lightnings and by thunders:
When he the heathens land
Did giue into their hand where they beheld his wonders.

7 Of all his workes euſueth both iudgement, right, and trueth, whereto his ſtatutes tend:
8 They are decreed ſure
For euer to endure,
which equitie doth end.
Redemption he gaue,
His people for to ſaue:
9 And hath alſo required
His promiſe not to faile,
But alwaies to preuaile:
his holy name be feared.
10 Who ſo with heartfull faine True wiſedome would attaine, the Lord feare and obey.
Such as his lawes doe keepe Shall knowvledge haue full deepe, his prayſe ſhall laſt for aye.

Beatus vir. Pſal. Cxij. W.K.

Hee prayſeth the felicitie of them that feare God and condemneth the curſed eſtate of the contemners of God.

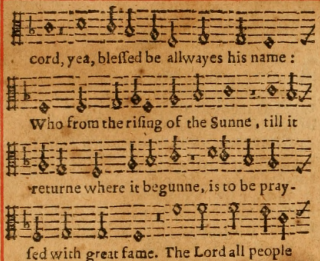
Sing this as the Lords Prayer.

THe man is bleſt that God doth feare,
and that his lawes doth loue indeed,
2 His ſeede on earth God will vpreare.
And bleſſe ſuch as from him proceede:
3 His houſe with good hee will fulfill,
His righteouſnes endure ſhall ſtill.

4 Vnto the righteous doth ariſe
In trouble ioy, in darkenes light:
Compaſſion is in his eyes,
And mercy alwaies in his ſight:
5 Yea, pitty moueth ſuch to lend,
Hee doth by iudgement things expend.

6 And ſurely ſuch ſhall neuer faile,
For in remembrance had is hee:
7 No tidings ill can make him quaile,
Who in the Lord ſure hope doth ſee:
8 His heart is firme, his feare is paſt,
For hee ſhall ſee his foes downe caſt.

9 Hee did well for the poore prouide,
His righteouſneſſe ſhall ſtill remaine,
And his eſtate with praiſe abide,
Though that the wicked man diſdaine:
10 Yea, gnaſh his teeth thereat ſhall he,
And ſo conſume his ſtate to fee.



Laudate pueri, Pſal. Cxiij. W.K.

cord, yea, bleſſed be allwayes his name:
Who from the riſing of the Sunne, till it returne where it begunne, is to be prayſed with great fame. The Lord all people doth turmount: As for his glory wee may count, aboue the heauens high to be. With God the Lord who may com pare, whoſe dwellings in the heauens are?
of ſuch great power and force is hee.

6 He doth abaſe himſelfe we know Things to behold both heare below, and alſo in heauen aboue.
7 The needie out of duſt to draw,
And eke the poore which helpe none ſaw,
his onely mercy did him moue.
8 And ſo him ſet in high degree
With princes of great dignitie, that rule his people with great fame.
9 The barren he doth make to beare,
And with great ioy her fruite to reare:
therefore prayſe ye his holy name.

In exitu Iſraël. Pſal. Cxiiij. W. W.

Iſraels deliuerie out of Egypt, putteth them in remembrance of Gods great mercies towardes his children, and of our vnthankefulneſſe for the ſame.

Sing this as the 85 Pſalme.

WHen Iſrael by Gods adreſſe, from Pharaohs land was bent:
And Iacob houſe the ſtrangers left,
And in the ſame traine went.
2 In Iuda God his glory ſhew'd his holineſſe moſt bright:
So did the Iſraelites declare his kingdome, power, and might.
3 The ſea it ſaw, and ſodainly
as all amaz'd did flie:
The roaring ſtreames of Iordans floud reculed backwardly.
4 As rammes affraid the mountaines ſkipt, their ſtrength did them forſake:
And as the ſilly trembling Lambes,
Their tops did beate and ſhake.
5 What aild the ſea as all amaz'd, ſo ſodainely to flee?
Ye rouling waues of Iordans flood,
why ranne ye backewardly?
6 VVhy ſtooke ye hils as Rams affrayd, why did your ſtrength ſo ſhake?
Why did your tops as trembling lambes,
for feare quiuer and quake?
7 O Earth confeſſe thy ſoueraigne Lord, and dread his mighty hand:
Before the face of Iacobs God, feare yee both ſea and land.
8 I meane the God which from hard rockes, doth cauſe maine floodes appeare:
And from the ſtony flint doth make,
guſh out the fountaines cleare.

Non nobis domine. Pſal. Cxv. N.

The faithfull oppreſſed by Idolatrous tirants, promiſe that they will not be vnmindfull of ſo great a benefite, if it would pleaſe God to heare their prayer, & deliuer them by his omnipotent power.

Sing this as the 68. Pſalme.

NOt vnto vs, Lord, not vnto vs,
but to thy name giue prayſe:
Both for the mercy and the trueth,
that are in the alwayes.
2 Why ſhall the heathen ſcorners ſay,
where is their God become?
3 Our God in heauen is, and what he will, that hath he done.
4 Their idols ſiluer are and gold, worke of mens hands they be:
5 They haue a mouth and doe not ſpeake and eyes and doe not ſee.
6 And they haue eares ioyn'd to their heads, and doe not heare at all:
And noſes eke they formed haue,
and doe not ſmell withall.
7 And hands they haue and handle not,
and feete and doe not goe:
8 A throat they haue, yet through the ſame,
they make no ſound to blow.
Thoſe that make them be like to them, and thoſe whoſe truſt they be:
9 O Iſrael truſt in the Lord, their helpe and ſhield is he.
10 O Aarons houſe truſt in the Lord, their help and ſhield is hee:
11 Truſt ye the Lord that feare the Lord, their helpe and ſhield is hee.
12 The Lord hath mindefull bene of vs,
and will bleſſe vs alſo:
On Iſrael and Aarons houſe his bleſſing hee will ſhow.
13 Them that be fearers of the Lord,
the Lord will bleſſe them all:
Euen hee will bleſſe them euery one,
the great and eke the ſmall.
14 To you (I ſay) the liuing Lord, will multiplie his grace:
To you and to the children that ſhall follow of your race.

euen of the Lord I ſay:
Which both the heauen and the earth hath made and ſet in ſtay.
16 The heauens, yea, the heauens high belong vnto the Lord:
The earth vnto the ſonnes of men
he gaue of free accord.
17 They that be dead doe not with praiſe
ſet foorth the Lords renoune:
Nor any that into the place of ſilence doe goe downe.
18 But we will praiſe the Lord our God from henceforth and for aye:
Sound ye the praiſes of the Lord,
praiſe ye the Lord I ſay.

Dilexi quoniam. Pſal. Cxvj. N.

Dauid being in great danger of Saul in the deſart of Maon, perceiuing the great and ineſtimable loue of God towards him, magnifieth ſuch great mercies, and proteſteth that he will be thankefull for the ſame.

Sing this as the 111. Pſalme.

I Loue the Lord, becauſe my voyce and prayer heard hath he:
2 When in my dayes I cald on him,
he bowed his eare to me.
3 Euen when the ſnares of cruell death about beſet me round:
When paines of hell me caught and when I woe and ſorrow found.

4 Vpon the name of God the Lord,
then did I call and ſay:
Deliuer thou my ſoule O Lord,
I doe thee humbly pray.
5 The Lord is very mercifull, and iuſt he is alſo:
And in our God compaſſion doth plentifully flow.

6 The Lord in ſafety doth preſerue all thoſe that ſimple be:
I was in wofull miſerie and he relieued me.
7 And now my ſoule, ſith thou art ſafe
returne vnto thy reſt:
For largely loe the Lord to thee his bounty hath expreſt.

8 Becauſe thou haſt deliuered my ſoule from deadly thrall:
My moiſtened eyes from mournefull teares,
my ſliding feete from fall.
9 Before the Lord I in the land of life will walke therefore:
10 I did beleeue, therefore I ſpake, for I was troubled ſore.

The ſecond part.

11 I ſaid in my diſtreſſe and feare, that all men lyars be:
12 What ſhall I pay the Lord for all his benefits to me?
13 The wholſome cup of ſauing health
I thankefully will take:
And on the Lords name I will call when I my prayer make.

14 I to the Lord will pay the vowes,
that I haue him behight,
Yea, euen at this preſent time,
in all his peoples ſight.
15 Right deare and precious in his ſight
the Lord doth aye eſteeme
The death of all his holy ones, what euer men do deeme.

16 Thy ſeruant Lord, thy ſeruant loe
I doe my ſelfe confeſſe:
Sonne of thy handmaid, thou haſt broke the bonds of my diſtreſſe.
17 And I will offer vp to thee
a ſacrifice of praiſe,
And I will call vpon the name of God the Lord alwayes.

18 I to the Lord will pay the vowes,
that I haue him behight:
Yea, euen at this preſent time,
in all his peoples ſight.
19 Yea, in the courts of Gods owne houſe, and in the midſt of thee,
O thou Ieruſalem, I ſay:
wherefore the Lord praiſe yee.

Laudate Dom. Pſal. Cxvij. N.

Hee exhorteth the Gentiles to praiſe God, becauſe he hath accompliſhed as well to them, as to the Iewes, the promiſe of life euerlaſting by Ieſus Chriſt.

Sing this as the 98 Pſalme.

O All ye nations of the world,
praiſe ye the Lord alwayes,
And all ye people euery where,
ſet forth his noble praiſe.
2 For great his kindneſſe is to vs,
his truth endures for aye:
Wherefore praiſe ye the Lord our God,
praiſe ye the Lord I ſay.

Confitemini. Dom. Pſa. Cxviij. N.

Dauid reiected of Saul and of the people, at the time appointed obtained the kingdome, for the which he biddeth all them that feare the Lord to be thankefull, vnder whoſe perſon Chriſt is liuely ſet forth, who ſhould be of his people reiected.

Sing this as the 84 Pſalme.

O Giue ye thankes vnto the Lord,
for gracious is hee:
Becauſe his mercy doth endure
for euer towards thee.
2 Let Iſrael confeſſe and ſay,
his mercy dures for aye,
3 Now let the houſe of Aaron ſay:
his mercie dures for aye.

4 Let all that feare the Lord our God
euen now confeſſe and ſay:
The mercy of the Lord our God, endureth ſtill for aye.
5 In trouble and in heauineſſe vnto the Lord I cride:
Which louingly heard me at large,
my ſuite was not denide.
6 The Lord himſelfe is on my ſide:
I will not ſtand in doubt,
Nor feare what man can doe to mee, when God ſtands me about.
7 The Lord doth take my part with them that helpe to ſuccour me:
Therefore I ſhall ſee my deſire, vpon mine enemie.
8 Better it is to truſt in God,
then in mans mortall ſeede:

Or to put confidence in Kings, or princes in our need.
All nations haue incloſed me,
and compaſſed me round, 10 But in the name of God ſhall I mine enemies confound.

11 They kept me in on euerie ſide,
they kept me in I ſay:
But through the Lords moſt mightie name
I ſhall worke their decay.
12 They came about me all like Bees,
but yet in the Lords name Iquencht the thornes that were on fire.
and will deſtroy the ſame.

The ſecond part.

13 Thou haſt with force thruſt ſore at me that I indeed might fall:
But through the Lord I found ſuch helpe that they were vanquiſh all.
14 The Lord is my defence and ſtrength, my ioy, my mirth, and ſong:
He is become for me indeed a Sauiour moſt ſtrong.

15 The right hand of the Lord our God doth bring to paſſe great things:
He cauſeth voyce of ioy and health in righteous mens dwellings.
16 The right hand of the Lord doth bring moſt mightie things to paſſe:
His hand hath the preeminence, his force is as it was.

17 I will not die, but euer liue to vtter and declare
The Lord his might and wondrous power
his workes, and what they are.
18 The Lord himſelfe hath chaſtened, and hath corrected me:
But hath not giuen me ouer yet to death, as yee may ſee.

19 Set open vnto me the gates of trueth and righteouſneſſe:
That I may enter into them,
the Lords praiſe to confeſſe.
20 This is the gate euen of the Lord, which ſhall not ſo be ſhut,
But good and righteous men alway ſhall enter into it.

The third part.

21 I will giue thankes to thee, O Lord, becauſe thou haſt heard me:
And art become moſt louingly
a Sauiour vnto me.
22 The ſtone which ere this time among the builders was refuſed:
Is now become the corner ſtone,
and chiefly to be vſed.

23 This was the mightie worke of God,
this was the Lords owne fact:
And it is marueilous to behold with eyes that noble act.
24 This is the ioyfull day indeed, which God himſelfe hath wrought:
Let vs be glad and ioy therein,
in heart, in minde, and thought.

25 Now helpe vs Lord and proſper vs,
we wiſh with one accord:
26 Bleſſed be he that comes to vs
in the name of the Lord.
27 God is the Lord that ſheweth vs light:
binde ye therefore with cord
Your ſacrifice to the Altar, and giue thankes to the Lord.

28 Thou art my God, I will confeſſe, and render thankes to thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praiſe thy mercy towards me.
29 O giue ye thankes vnto the Lord,
for gracious is hee:
Becauſe his mercy doth endure
for euer towards mee.

Beati immaculati. Pſ. Cxix. W. W.

The Prophet wonderfully commendeth Gods Lawe, wherein he cannot ſatiſfie himſelfe, nor expreſſe ſufficiently his affections, therevnto adding notable complaints and conſolations, meete for the faithfull to haue both in heart and voyce: and in Hebrew euery eight verſes begynne with one letter of the Alphabet.

Thy noble and diuine precepts we learne and keepe indeede.

my wayes ſo to addreſſe:
That I might both in heart and voyce thy lawes keepe and confeſſe.

and likewiſe proone the ſame.
8 And wholy will I giue my ſelfe, to keepe thy lawes moſt right:
Forſake me not for euer Lord but ſhew thy grace and might.

BETH. The ſecond part.

9 BY what meanes may a yong man beſt, his life learne to amend?
If that he marke and keepe thy word,
and therein his time ſpend.
10 Vnfainedly I haue thee ſought, and thus ſeeking abide;
O neuer ſuffer me, O Lord,
from thy precepts to ſlide.

11 Within my heart and ſecret thoughts,
thy words I haue hid ſtill:
That I might not at any time, offend thy godly will:
12 We magnifie thy name, O Lord,
and praiſe thee euermore:
Thy ſtatutes of moſt worthy fame,
O Lord, teach me therefore.

13 My lips haue neuer ceaſt to preach,
and publiſh day and night:
The iudgements all which did proceede, from thy mouth full of might.
14 Thy teſtimonies and thy wayes, pleaſe me no leſſe indeed:
Then all the treaſures of the earth,
which worldlings make their meed.

15 Of thy precepts ſtill will I muſe, and there to frame my talke:
As at a marke ſo will I aime,
thy wayes how I may walke.
16 My onely ioy ſhall be ſo fixt,
and on thy lawes ſo ſet:
That nothing can me ſo farre blinde,
that I thy words forget.

GIMEL. The third part.

17 GRant to thy ſeruant now ſuch grace,
as may my life prolong:
Thy holy word then will I keepe, both in my heart and tongue.
18 Mine eyes which were dim and ſhut vp ſo open and make bright:
That of thy law and marueilous workes,
I may haue the cleare ſight.

19 I am a ſtranger in this earth,
wandring now here now there:
Thy word therefore to mee diſcloſe,
my footſteps for to cleare.
20 My ſoule is rauiſht with deſire, and neuer is at reſt:
But ſeeks to know thy iudgements iuſt,
and what may pleaſe thee beſt.

21 The proud men and malicious thou haſt deſtroyed each one,
And curſed are ſuch as doe not thy hеſts attend vpon.
22 Lord turne from me rebuke and ſhame, which wicked men conſpire:
For I haue kept thy couenants, with zeale as hot as fire.

23 The Princes great in counſell ſate, and did againſt me ſpeake:
But then thy ſeruant thought how he thy ſtatutes might not breake.
24 For why? thy couenants are my ioy,
and my hearts great ſolace:
They ſerue in ſtead of counſellours,
my matters for to paſſe.

DALETH. The fourth part.

25 I Am alas as brought to graue,
and almoſt turn'd to duſt:
Reſtore therefore my life againe,
as thy promiſe is iuſt.
26 My wayes when I acknowledged, with mercy thou didſt heare:
Heare now eft-ſoones and mee inſtruct,
thy lawes to loue and feare.

27 Teach me once throughly for to know,
thy precepts and thy lore:
Thy workes then will I meditate,
and lay them vp in ſtore.
28 My ſoule I feele ſo ſore oppreſt, that it melteth for griefe:
According to thy word therefore,
haſt Lord to ſend reliefe.

29 From lying and deceitfull lips, let thy grace mee defend:
And that I may learne thee to loue,
thy holy law me ſend.
30 The way of truth both ſtraight and ſure,
I haue choſen and found:
I ſet thy iudgements me before,
vvhich keepe me ſafe and ſound.

31 Since then, O God, I forc't my ſelfe, thy couenants to embrace:
Let me therefore haue no rebuke,
nor cheeke in any caſe.
32 Then vvill I ronne vvith ioyfull cheare, vvhere thy vvord doth me call,
When thou haſt ſet my heart at large,
and rid me out of thrall.

HE. The fift part.

33 INſtruct me Lord in the right trade, of thy ſtatutes diuine,
And it to keepe euen to the end,
my heart vvill I encline:
34 Grant me the knovvledge of thy lavv,
and I ſhall it obey:
With heart and minde, and all my might,
I vvill it keepe I ſay.

35 In the right paths of thy precepts, guide me Lord I require:
None other pleaſure doe I vviſh,
nor greater thing deſire.
36 Incline my heart thy lavves to keepe,
and couenants to embrace:
And from all filthy auarice,
Lord ſhield mee vvith thy grace.

37 From vaine deſires and vvorldly luſts turne backe mine eyes and light, Giue me the ſpirit of life and povver,
to vvalke thy vvayes a right.
38 Confirme thy gracious promiſe Lord, vvhich thou haſt made to mee:
Which am thy ſeruant, and doe loue,
and feare nothing but thee.

39 Reproach and ſhame which I ſo feare, from me O Lord expell:
For thou doſt iudge vvith equity,

and therein doſt excell.
40 Behold my hearts deſire is bent, thy lawes to keepe for aye:
Lord ſtrengthen me ſo with thy grace,
that it performe I may.

VAV. The vj. part.

41 THy mercies great and manifold, let me obtaine (O Lord) Thy ſaning health let me enioy, according to thy word.
42 So ſhall I ſtop the ſlanderous mouthes, of lewd men and vniuſt:
For in thy faithfull promiſes, ſtands my comfort and truſt.

43 The word of truth within my mouth,
let euer ſtill be preſt:
For in thy iudgements wonderfull,
my hope doth ſtand and reſt:
44 And whilſt that breath within my breaſt doth naturall life preſerue:
Yea till this world ſhall be diſſolu'd,
thy law will I obſerue.

45 So walke will I as ſet at large,
and made free from all dread:
Becauſe I ſought how for to keepe,
thy precepts and thy read.
46 Thy noble acts I will deſcribe, as things of moſt great fame:
Euen before Kings I will them blaze, and ſhrinke no whit for ſhame.

47 I will reioyce then to obey, thy worthy hests and will,
Which euermore I haue lou'd beſt,
and ſo will loue them ſtill.
48 My handes will I lift to thy lawes, which I haue dearely ſought:
And practiſe thy commandements, in will, in deede, in thought.

ZAIN. The vij. part.

49 THy promiſe which thou mad'ſt to me,
thy ſeruant, Lord remember,
For therein haue I put my truſt, and confidence for euer.
50 It is my comfort and my ioy,
when troubles me aſſaile:
For were my life not by thy word,
my life would ſoone me faile.

51 The proud and ſuch as God contemne, ſtill made of me a ſcorne:
Yet would I not thy Law forſake,
as he that was forlorne.
52 But call'd to minde Lord thy great works, ſhew'd to our fathers old:
Whereby I feele my ioyes ſurmount my griefe an hundred fold.

53 But yet alas for feare I quake, ſeeing how wicked men,
Thy lawe forſooke, and did procure thy iudgements, who knoweth when?
54 And as for me I framde my ſongs thy ſtatutes to exalt:
When I among the ſtrangers dwelt,
and thoughts gan me aſſault.

55 I thought vpon thy name O Lord,
by night when others ſleepe,
As for thy lawe alſo I kept,
and I euer will it keepe.
56 This grace I did obtaine, becauſe thy couenants ſweete and deare:
I did embrace and alſo keepe, with reuerence and with feare.

HETH. The viij. part.

57 O God, which art my part and lot,
my comfort and my ſtay:
I haue decreed and promiſed,
thy lawe to keepe alway.
58 Mine earneſt heart doth humbly ſue,
in preſence of thy face:
As thou therefore haſt promiſed,
Lord grant me of thy grace.

59 My life I haue examined, and tride my ſecret heart:
Which to thy ſtatutes cauſed me
my feet ſtraight to conuert.
60 I did not ſtay, nor linger long, as they that ſloathfull are:
But haſtily thy lawes to keepe,
I did my ſelfe prepare.

61 The cruell hands of wicked men,
haue made of me their pray:
Yet would I not thy lawe forget,
nor from thee goe aſtray.
62 Thy righteous iudgements ſhewed toward me, ſo great are and ſo high.
That euen at midnight will I riſe,
thy name to magnifie.

63 Companion am I to all them, which feare thee in their heart:
And neither will for feare nor dread,
from thy commandements ſtart.
64 Thy mercies Lord moſt plenteouſly doe all the world fulfill:
O teach me how I may obey, thy ſtatutes and thy will.

TETH. The ix. part.

65 ACcording to thy promiſe Lord, ſo haſt thou with me dealt:
For of thy grace in ſundry ſorts,
haue I thy ſeruant felt.
66 Teach me alwayes to iudge aright,
and giue mee knowledge ſure:
For certainely beleeue I doe, that thy precepts are pure.

67 Ere thou didſt touch me with thy rod,
I erred and went aſtray:
But now I keepe thy holy word,
and make it all my ſtay.
68 Thou art both good and gracious, and giu'ſt moſt liberally:
Thy ordinances how to keepe, therefore (O Lord) teach mee.

69 The proud and wicked men haue forg'd againſt me many a lie:
Yet thy commandements ſtill obſerue,
with all my heart will I.
70 Their hearts are ſwolne with worldly wealth
as greaſe ſo are they fat,
But in thy Lawe doe I delight, and nothing ſeeke but that.

71 O happy time may I well ſay, when thou didſt me correct:

For

For as a guide to learne thy Lawes, thy rods did me direct.
72 So that to me thy word and Law is dearer manifold,
Then thousands great of siluer and gold,
or ought that can be told.

IOD. The x. part.

73 SEeing thy hands haue made me Lord to be thy creature:
Grant knowledge likewise how to learne
to put thy Lawes in vre, 74 So they that feare thee shall reioyce, when euer they mee see:
Because I haue learn'd by thy word,
to put my truſt in thee.

75 When with thy rod the world is plagu'd,
I know the cauſe is iuſt:
So when thou doſt correct me, Lord,
the cauſe iuſt needes be muſt.
76 Now of thy goodneſſe I thee pray, some comfort to me send:
As thou to me thy ſeruant heir'ſt,
ſo from all ill me ſhend.

77 Thy tender mercies poure on mee,
and I ſhall ſurely liue:
For ioy and conſolation both thy lawes to me doe giue, 78 Confound the proud: whoſe falſe pretence is me for to deſtroy:
But as for me thy hests to know
I will my ſelfe imploy.

79 Who ſo with reuerence doe thee feare, to me let them retire,
And ſuch as doe thy couenants know,
and them alone deſire.
80 My heart without all wauering
ſet on thy lawes be bent:
That no confuſion come to mee, whereby I ſhould be ſhent.

CAPH. The xj. part.

81 MY ſoule doth faint, and ceaſeth not thy ſauing health to craue:
And for thy words ſake ſtill I truſt
my heartes deſire to haue.
82 Mine eyes doe faile with looking for thy word, and thus I ſay:
Oh when wilt thou me comfort Lord,
why doſt thou thus delay?

83 As a skin bottle in the ſmoake,
ſo am I partcht and dride:
Yet will I not out of my heart let thy commandements ſlide.
84 Alas how long ſhall I yet liue, before I ſee the houre:
That on my foes vvhich me torment thy vengeance thou vvilt powre?

85 Preſumptuous men haue digged pits, thinking to make me ſure:
Thus contrary againſt thy Lavv my hurt they doe procure.
86 But thy commandements are all true,
and cauſeleſſe they me grieue,
To thee therefore I doe complaine, that thou mighſt me relieue.

87 Almoſt they had me cleane deſtroyd, and brought me quite to ground:
Yet by thy ſtatute I abode,
and therein ſuccour found.
88 Reſtore me Lord againe to life,
for thy mercies excell:
And ſo ſhall I thy couenants keepe, till death my life expell.

LAMED. The xij. part.

89 IN heauen Lord, vvhere thou doſt dvvell, thy vvord is ſtabliſht ſure:
And ſhall for all eternitie, faſt grauen there endure.
90 From age to age thy trueth abides,
as doth the earth vvitneſſe:
Whoſe ground-vvorke thou haſt laid ſo ſure,
as no tongue can expreſſe.

91 Euen to this day vve may vvell ſee, hovv all things perſeuere
According to thy ordinance, for all things thee reuere.
92 Had it not beene that in thy Lavv my ſoule had comfort ſought:
Long time ere novv in my diſtreſſe,
I had beene brought to nought.

93 Therefore vvill I thy precepts aye,
in memory keepe faſt:
By them thou haſt my life reſtor'd,
vvhen I vvas at laſt caſt.
94 No vvight to me can ſtille make,
for I am onely thine:
Saue me therefore, for to thy Lavves mine eares and heart encline.

95 The vvicked men doe ſeeke my bane,
and thereto lye in vvayte:
But I the vvhile conſidered, thy noble acts and great.
96 I ſee nothing in this vvide vvorld,
at length vvhich hath not end:
But thy commandements and thy Word beyond all end extend.

MEM. The xiij. part.

97 WHat great deſire and feruent loue doe I beare to thy Lavv?
All the day long my vvhole deuiſe, is onely on thy ſavv.
98 Thy vvord hath taught me farre to paſſe
my foes in policie:
For ſtill I keepe it as a thing of moſt excellencie.

99 My teachers vvhich did me inſtruct in knovvledge, I excell: Becauſe I doe thy couenants keepe,
and them to others tell.
100 In vviſedome I doe paſſe alſo
the ancient men indeed:
And all becauſe to keepe thy Lavves,
I held it aye beſt reede.

101 My feete I haue refrained eke from euery euill vvay: Becauſe that I continually thy vvord might keepe, I ſay.
102 I haue not ſvverv'd from thy iudgements, nor yet ſhrunke any deale:
For vvhy? thou haſt me taught thereby to liue godly and well.

103 O Lord how sweet vnto my taste
finde I thy words alway?
Doubtlesse no hony in my mouth
feele ought so sweet I may.
104 Thy lawes haue me such wisedome learn'd that vtterly I hate
All wicked and vngodly wayes, in euery kinde of rate.

NVN. The xiiij. part.

105 EVen as a lanterne to my feet,
so doth thy word shine bright:
And to my paths where ere I goe
it is a flaming light.
106 I haue both sworne, and will performe
most certainely doubtlesse:
That I will keepe thy iudgements iust,
and them in life expresse.

107 Affliction hath me sore oppress, and brought we to deaths dore:
O Lord, as thou hast promised,
so me to life restore.
108 The offrings which with heart & voyce
most franckly I thee giue, Accept, and teach me how I may after thy iudgements liue.

109 My soule is aye so in my hand,
that dangers me assaile:
Yet doe I not thy Law forget, nor it to keepe will faile.
110 Although the wicked laid their nets,
to catch me at a bay:
Yet did I not from thy precepts,
once swerue, or go astray.

111 Thy Law I haue so claim'd alway,
as mine owne heritage:
And why? for therein I delight,
and set my whole courage.
112 For euermore I haue beene bent thy statutes to fulfill:
Euen so likewise vnto the end,
I will continue still.

SAMECH. The xv. part.

113 THe crafty thoughts & double hearts,
I doe alwayes detest:
But as for thy Lawes and precepts
I lou'd them euer best.
114 Thou art my hid and secret place, my shield and strong defence:
Therefore I haue thy promises, look't for with patience.

115 Goe to therefore ye wicked men, depart from me anone:
For the Commandments will I keepe of God my Lord alone.
116 As thou hast promis'd, so performe, that death me not assaile:
Nor let my hope abuse me so,
that through distrust I quaile.

117 Vphold me, and I shall be safe, for ought they doe or say:
And in thy statures pleasure take will I both night and day.
118 Thou hast trood such vnder thy feet,
as doe thy statutes breake:
For nought auailes their subtiltie, their counsell is but weake.

119 Like drosse thou casts the wicked out, where ere they goe or dwell:
Therefore can I as thy statutes,
loue nothing halfe so well.
120 My flesh alas is taken with feare,
as though it were benum'd:
For when I see thy iudgements straight
I am as one aston'd.

AIN. The xvj. part.

121 I Doe the thing that lawfull is,
and giue to all men right:
Resigne me not to them that would,
oppresse me with their might.
122 But for thy seruant surety be in that thing that is good:
That proud men giue me not the foile, which rage as they were wood.

123 Mine eyes with waiting are now blind,
thy health so much I craue:
And eke thy righteous promise Lord, whereby thou wilt me saue.
124 Intreat thy seruant louingly,
and fauour to him show:
Thy statutes of most excellency, teach me also to know.

125 Thy humble seruant Lord I am,
graunt me to vnderstand:
How by thy statutes I may know best what to take in hand.
126 It it now time Lord to beginne, for trueth is quite decaid:
Thy Lavv likevvise they haue transgrest, and none against them said.

127 This is the cause vvherefore I loue thy Lavves better thou gold:
Or Ievvels fine, vvhich are esteem'd
most costly to be sold:
128 I thought thy precepts all most iust,
and so them laid in store:
All craftie and malicious vvayes
I doe abhorre therefore.

PE. The xvij. part.

129 THy couenants are most vvonderfull, and full of things profound:
My soule therefore doth keepe them sure,
vvhen they are tride and found.
130 When men first enter into thy vvord, they finde a light most cleare:
And very Ideots vnderstand, vvhen they it reade or heare.

131 For ioy I haue both gap'd and breath'd to knovv thy Commandments:
That I might guide my life thereby,
I sought vvnat thing it meant.
132 With mercie and compassion Lord behold me from aboue:
As thou art vvont to behold such as thy name feare and loue.

133 Direct my foot-steps by thy vvord, that I thy vvill may knovv:
And neuer let iniquity thy seruant ouerthrovv.
134 From slanderous tongues and deadly hate preserue and keepe me sure:

Thy

Thy precepts then will I obserue, and put them eke in vre.

135 Thy countenance which doth surmount
the Sunne in his bright hew:
Let shine on me, and by thy Law, teach me what to eschew.
136 Out of mine eyes great flouds gush out, of drearie reares and feil:
When I behold how wicked men, thy lawes keepe neuer a dell.

ZADE. The xviij. part.

137 IN euery point Lord thou art iust, the wicked though they grudge:
And when thou dost sentence pronounce thou art a righteous Iudge.
138 To render right and flie from guile, are two chiefe points most hie:
And such as thou hast in thy law, commanded vs straitly.

139 With zeale and wrath I am consumde, and euen pinde away:
To see my foes thy word forget,
for ought that I doe may.
140 So pure and perfect is thy word,
as any heart can deeme:
And I thy seruant nothing more,
doe loue or yet esteeme.

141 And though I be nothing set by,
as one of base degree:
Yet doe I not thy hestes forget,
nor shrinke away from thee.
142 Thy righteousnesse Lord is most iust:
for euer to endure:
Also thy law is trueth it selfe,
most constant and most pure.

143 Trouble and griefe haue seaz'd on me,
and brought me wondrous low:
Yet doe I still of thy precepts, delight to heare and know.
144 The righteousnesse of thy iudgments, doth last for euermore:
Then teach thou me, for euen in them
my life lieth vp in store.

KOPH. The xix. part.

145 WIth feruent heart I call'd and cride,
now answere me, O Lord:
That thy commandements to obserue,
I may fully accord.
146 To thee my God I make my suit, with most humble request:
Saue me therefore, and I will keepe thy precepts and thy heft.

147 To thee I cry euen in the morne, before the day waxe light:
Because that I haue in thy word,
my confidence wholly plight.
148 Mine eyes preuent the watch by night and ere they call I wake:
That by deuising on thy word,
I might some confort take.

149 Incline thine eares to heare my voyce, and pitie on mee take:
As thou wast wont, so iudge me Lord, least life should me forsake.
150 My foes draw neere, and doe procure my death maliciously:
Which from thy law are farre gone backe,
and strayd from it lewdly.

151 Therefore O Lord, approach thou neere for needes doth so require:
And all thy precepts true they are,
then helpe I thee desire.
152 But thy commandements I haue learn'd not now, but long agoe:
That they remaine for euermore, thou hast them grounded so.

RESH. The xx. part.

153 MY trouble and affliction, consider and behold:
Deliuer me for of thy law,
I euer take fast hold.
154 Defend my good and righteous cause, with speed me succour send.
From death as thou hast promised,
Lord keepe me and defend.

155 As for the wicked farre they are,
for hauing health and grace:
Whereby they might thy statures know,
they enter not the trace.
156 Great are thy mercies Lord I graunt, what tongue can them attaine?
And as thou hast me iudg'd ere now,
so let me life obtaine.

157 Though many men did trouble me,
and persecute me sore:
Yet from thy lawes I neuer shrunke, nor went away therefore.
158 And trueth it is for griefe I die, when I these traitors see:
Because they keepe no whit thy word,
nor yet seeke to know thee.

159 Behold, for I doe loue thy lawes, with heart most glad and faine:
As thou art good and gracious Lord, restore my life againe.
160 What thy word doth decree, must be,
and so it hath beene euer:
Thy righteous iudgements are also,
most true and decay neuer.

SCHIN. The xxj. part.

161 PRinces haue sought by cruelty, causelesse to make me couch.
But all in vaine, for of thy word,
the feare did my heart touch.
162 And certainely euen of thy word,
I was more merry and glad,
Then he that of rich spoiles and preyes, great store and plenty had.

163 And for all lies and falsity,
I hate most and detest:
For why thy holy lawes doe I,
aboue all things loue best, 164 Seuen times a day I praise the Lord, singing with heart and voyce:
Thy righteous acts and wonderfull, to cause me to reioyce.

165 Great peace and rest shall all such haue
as doe thy statutes loue:
No danger shall their quiet state
impaire or once remoue.
166 Mine onely health and comfort Lord,

I looke for at thy hand:
And therefore haue I done those things, which thou didst me command.
167 Thy lawes haue beene my exercise, which my soule most desired:
So much to them my loue was bent,
that nought else I required.
168 Thy statures and commandements
I keepe, thou knowest aright:
For all the things that I haue done, are present in thy sight.

TAV. The xxij part.

169 O Lord, let my complaint and cry, before thy face appeare,
And as thou hast me promise made,
so teach me thee to feare.
170 Mine humble supplication toward thee, let finde accesse:
And grant mee Lord deliuerance, for so is thy promise.

171 Then shall my lips thy praises speake,
after most ample sort:
When thou thy statures hast me taught,
wherein standes my comfort.
172 My tongue shal sing & preach thy word, and on this wise say shall:
Gods famous actes and noble lawes, are iust and perfect all.

173 Stretch out thy hand, I thee beseech, and speedily me saue:
For thy commandements to obserue, chosen, O Lord, I haue.
174 Of thee alone Lord I craue health,
for other I know none:
And in thy law and nothing else,
I doe delight alone.

175 Grant me therefore long dayes to liue,
thy name to magnifie:
And of thy iudgements mercifull,
let me thy fauour trie.
176 For I was lost and went astray, much like a wandring sheepe:
Oh seeke mee, for I haue not fail'd, thy commandements to keepe.

Ad Dominum. Psal. Cxx. T.S.

Dauid being banished among the barbarous Arabians through false reports of enuious flatterers lamenteth his long abode among such infidels, giuen to all kinde of wickednesse and contention.

I N trouble and in thrall, vnto the Lord I call, and he doth mee comfort:

Deliuer mee, I say, from lyars lips al-way, and tongues of false report.

4 What vantage or what thing,
Getst thou thus for to sting,
thou false and flattering lyer?
5 Thy tongue doth hurt, I weene,
No lesse then arrowes keene of hot consuming fire.

6 Alas, too long I slake,
Within these tents so blacke,
Which Kedars are by name,
By whom the flocke elect,
And all of Isaacks sect
Are put to open shame.

7 With them that peace did hate,
I came a peace to make,
and set a quiet life:
8 But when my tale was told,
Causelesse I was controld,
by them that would haue strife.

Leuaui oculos. Pſ. Cxxj. W.W.

The Prophet sheweth by his owne example, that the faithfull ought to looke for all their succour of God alone, who will gouerne and giue good successe to all their godly enterprises.

I Lift mine eyes to Sion hill,

from whence I doe attend, that succour

God me send. The mightie God mee succour will: which heauen and earth framed, and all things therein named.

3 Thy foote from slip he will preserue,
And will thee safely keepe:
For he will neuer sleepe.
4 Loe, he that doth Israel conserue,
No sleepe at all can him catch,
But his eyes doe euer watch.

5 The Lord is thy warrant alway,
The Lord eke doth thee couer,
As at thy right hand euer.
6 The Sunne shall not thee partch by day,
Nor the Moone not hurt so bright,
Shall with cold thee hurt by night.

7 The Lord will keepe thee from distresse,
And will thy life sure saue,
And thou also shalt haue.
8 In all thy businesse good successe,
Where euer thou goest in or out,
God will thy things bring about.

Lætatus sum. Pſal. Cxxij. W.K.

For let vs vp ſay they, and in the Lords houſe pray, thus ſpake the folke full louingly: Our feete that wandred wide, ſhall in thy gates abide. O thou Ieruſalem full faire, which art ſo ſeemely ſet, much like a Citie neat, the like whereof is not elſewhere.

4 The tribes with one accord,
the tribes of God the Lord, are thither bent their way to take:
So God before did tell,
That there his Iſrael, their prayers ſhould together make.

5 For there are thrones erect,
and that for this reſpect:
to ſet forth iuſtice orderly:
Which thrones right to maintaine,
To Dauids houſe pertaine,
his folke to iudge accordingly.

6 To pray let vs not ceaſe, for Ieruſalems peace,
thy friends God proſper mightily.
7 Peace be thy wals about,
And proſper thee throughout,
thy places eke continually.

8 I wiſh thy proſperous ſtate, for my poore brethrens ſake:
that comfort haue by meanes of thee,
Gods houſe doth me allure,
Thy wealth for to procure:
So much alwaies as lies in mee.

Ad te Leuaui. Pſal. Cxxiij. T.S.

A prayer of the faithfull, which are afflicted by the wicked worldlings, and contemners of God.

Sing this as the 137. Pſalme.

O Lord, that heauen doſt poſſeſſe,
I lift mine eyes to thee:
Euen as the ſeruant lifteth his,
his maſters hands to ſee.
2 As handmaids watch their miſtres hands
ſome grace for to atchieue:
So we behold the Lord our God,
till he doe vs forgiue.

3 Lord grant vs thy compaſſion, and mercy in thy ſight:
For wee are fill'd and ouercome with hatred and deſpight.
4 Our minds be ſtuff'd with great rebuke,
the rich and worldly wiſe Doe make of vs their mocking ſtockes the proud doe vs deſpiſe.

Niſi quia Dom. Pſ. Cxxiiij. W.W.

The faithfull deliuered out of great danger, acknowledge not to haue eſcaped by their owne power, but through the fauour of God.

NOw Iſrael may ſay, and that truely, if that the Lord had not our cauſe maintain'd, if that the Lord had not our right ſuſtain'd, When all the world againſt vs furiouſly, made their vprores, and ſayd, wee ſhould all die,

3 Now long agoe,
they had deuour'd vs all,
And ſwallowed quicke,
for ought that we could deeme,
Such was their rage,
as wee might well eſteeme:
4 And as the floods with mightie force do fall:
So had they now
our liues euen brought to thrall.

5 The raging ſtreames, moſt proud in roaring noiſe:
Had long agoe,
ouerwhelm'd vs in the deepe.
6 But loued be God, which doth vs ſafely keepe:
From bloodie teeth,
and their moſt cruell voyce.
Which as a prey,
to eate vs vvould reioyce.

7 Euen as a bird,
out of the fovvlers grin, Eſcapeth avvay,
right ſo it fareth vvith vs:
Broke are their nets,
and vve eſcaped thus,
8 God that made heauen and earth is our helpe then:
His name hath ſaued vs,
euen from theſe vvicked men.

truſt, as mount Sion ſhall firmely ſtand, and be remooued at no hand, the Lord will count them right and iuſt, ſo that they ſhall be ſure, for to endure.

2 As mighty mountaines huge and great,
Ieruſalem about doe cloſe:
So will the Lord be vnto thoſe,
Who on his godly will doe waite.
Such are to him ſo deare,
They neuer neede to feare.

3 For though the righteous trie doth he,
By making wicked men his rod.
Leaſt they through griefe forſake their God,
It ſhall not as their lot ſtill be,
4 Giue Lord to thoſe thine light,
Whoſe hearts are true and right.

5 But as for ſuch as turne aſide,
By crooked waies which they out ſought:
The Lord will ſurely bring to nought.
With workes moſt vile they ſhall abide,
But peace with Iſrael
For euermore ſhall dwell.

Another of the ſame by R. W.

Sing this as the 10. Commandements.

THoſe that doe put their confidence
Vpon the Lord our God onely:
And flie to him for their defence,
In all their need and miſery.
Their faith is ſure firme to endure,
Grounded on Chriſt the corner ſtone,
Mooued with none ill but ſtandeth ſtill,
Stedfaſt, like to the mount Syon.

And as about Ieruſalem,
The mighty hils doe it compaſſe:
So that no enemies come to them,
To hurt that towne in any caſe,
So God indeed, in euery neede,
His faithfull people doth defend:
Standing them by, aſſuredly,
From this time forth world without end.

Right wiſe and good is our Lord God,
And will not ſuffer certainely:
The ſinners and vngodlies rod,
To tarry vpon his familie,
Leaſt they alſo from God ſhould goe
Falling to ſinne and wickednеſſe:
O Lord defend world without end,
Thy chriſtian flock through thy goodnes.

O Lord, doe good to Chriſtians all,
That ſtedfaſt in thy word abide:
Such as willingly from God fall,
And to falſe doctrine daily ſlide.
Such will the Lord ſcatter abroad,
With hypocrites throwne downe to hell,
God will them ſend paines without end,
But Lord grant peace to Iſrael.

Glory to God the Father of might,
And to his ſonne our Sauiour,
And to the holy Ghoſt whoſe light,
Shine in our hearts and vs ſuccour,
That the right way from day to day,
We may walke and him glorifie:
With hearts deſire all that are here,
Worſhip the Lord and ſay, Amen.

In conuertendo. Pſal. Cxxvj. N.

This Pſalme was made after the returne of the people from Babylon, and ſheweth that the meanes of their deliuerance was wonderfull, after the ſeuentie yeeres of captiuitie, foreſpoken by Ieremie 23. 12. and 29. 10.

WHen that the Lord againe his Syon had foorth brought, from bondage great and alſo ſeruitude extreame. His worke was ſuch as did ſurmount mans heart and thought, ſo that we were much like to them that vſe to dreame: our mouthes were with laughter filled then, and eke

our tongues did ſhew vs ioyfull men.

2 The heathen folke were forced then this to confeſſe:
How that the Lord,
for them alſo great things had done.
3 But much more wee and therefore can confeſſe no leſſe:
Wherefore to ioy,
we haue good cauſe as we begunne:
4 O Lord goe forth,
thou canſt our bondage end,
As to Deſerts,
the flowing riuers ſend.

5 Full true it is, that they which ſow in teares indeed,
A time will come when they ſhall reape in mirth and ioy.
6 They went and wept,
in bearing of their precious ſeed:
For that their foes full often times did them annoy:
But their returne

with ioy they ſhall ſure ſee:
Their ſheaues home bring.
and not impaired be.

Niſi Dominus. Pſa. Cxxvij. W.W.

It is not mans wit, power, or labour, but the free goodneſſe of God that giueth riches, preſerueth townes and countries, graunteth noble iſhment and children.

Sing this as the Lords prayer.

EXcept the Lord the houſe doe build,
And therevnto doe ſet his hand:
What men doe build it cannot ſtand.
Likewiſe in vaine men vndertake
Cities and holds to watch and ward,
Except the Lord be their ſafe guard.

2 Though ye ariſe earely in the morne,
And ſo at night goe late to bed,
Feeding full hardly with browne bread:
Yet were your labour loſt and worne.
But they whom God doth loue and keepe
Receiue all things with quiet ſleepe.

3 Therefore marke well when euer you ſee
That men haue heires to enioy their land,
It is the gift of Gods owne hand:
For God himſelfe doth multiply
Of his great liberalitie,
The bleſſings of poſteritie.

4 And when the children come to age,
They grow in ſtrength and actiueneſſe,
In perſon and in comelines:
So that a ſhaft ſhot with courage,
Of one that hath a moſt ſtrong arme,
Flyes not ſo ſwift, nor doth like harme.

5 O well is hee that hath his quiuer
Furniſhed with ſuch artillery:
For when in perill he ſhall be,
Such one ſhall neuer ſhake nor ſhiuer,
When that he pleadeth before the Iudge
Againſt his foes that beare him grudge.

Beat. omnes. Pſal. Cxxviij. W.W.

Here is deſcribed the proſperous eſtate of perſons married in the feare of God, and the promiſes of Gods bleſſings to all them that liue in this honorable eſtate according to his commandements.

Sing this as the 137. Pſalme.

BLeſſed art thou that feareſt God,
and walkeſt in his way:
For of thy labour thou ſhalt eate,
happy art thou I ſay.
2 Like fruitfull Vine on thy houſe ſide, ſo doth thy wife ſpring out:
Thy children ſtand like Oliue plants thy table round about.

3 Thus art thou bleſt that feareſt God, and he ſhall let thee ſee
The promiſed Ieruſalem, and his felicitie.
4 Thou ſhalt thy childrens children ſee, to thy great ioyes increaſe,
And likewiſe grace on Iſrael proſperity and peace.

Sæpe expugnauerũt. Pſ. Cxxix. N.

He admoniſheth the Church to reioyce though afflicted in all ages, for God will deliuer and ſodainly deſtroy the enemies thereof.

Sing this as the 137. Pſalme.

OFt they now Iſrael may ſay, me from my youth aſſaild:
2 Oft they aſſaild me from my youth yet neuer they preuail'd.
3 Vpon my backe the plowers plow'd, and furrowes long did caſt:
4 The righteous Lord hath cut the cords of wicked foes at laſt.

5 They that hate me ſhalbe aſham'd, and trurned backe alſo:
6 And make as graſſe vpon the houſe, which withereth ere it grow.
7 Where of the mower cannot finde enough to fill his hand:
Nor he can fill his lap, that goeth to gleane vpon the land.

8 Nor paſſers by pray God on them to let his bleſſing fall:
Nor ſay we bleſſe you in the name of God the Lord at all.

De profundis. Pſal. Cxxx. T.S.

An effectuall prayer to obteine mercie and forgiueneſſe of his ſinne, and at length deliuerance from all euils.

LOrd to thee I make my mone, when dangers me oppreſſe: I call, I ſigh, plaine, and groone, truſting to finde releaſe. 2. Heare now, O Lord, my re-queſt, for it is full due time: And let thine eares aye be preſt vnto this prayer mine.

3 O Lord our God if thou weigh our ſinnes, and them peruſe:
Who ſhall then eſcape and ſay,
I can my ſelfe excuſe?
4 But Lord thou art mercifull, and turn'ſt to vs thy grace:

That

That we with hearts moſt carefull, ſhould feare before thy face.

5 In God I put my whole truſt, my ſoule waites on his vvill :
For his promiſe is moſt iuſt,
and I hope therein ſtill.
6 My ſoule to God hath regard,
vviſhing for him alvvay :
More then thy that vvatch and vvard to ſee the dawning day.
7 Let Iſraël then boldly in the Lord put his truſt :
He is that God of mercy that his deliuer muſt.
8 For he it is that muſt ſaue
Iſrael from his ſinne :
And all ſuch as ſurely haue their confidence in him.

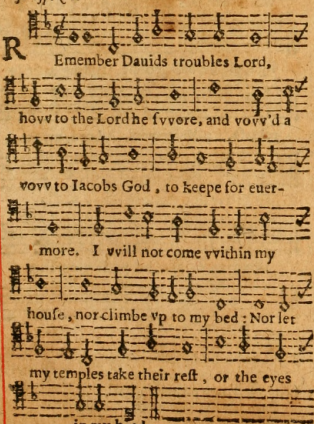
Domine non eſt. Pſal. Cxxxj. N.



Dauid charged vvith ambition, proteſteth his humility before God.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

O Lord, I am not puft in minde,
I haue no ſcornefull eye :
I doe not exerciſe my ſelfe in things that be too hie.
2 But as the childe that vvained is,
euen from his mothers breaſt :
So haue I Lord behau'd my ſelfe in ſilence and in reſt.
3 O Iſrael, truſt in the Lord,
let him be all thy ſtay :
From this time forth for euermore,
from age to age for aye.

Memento Domin. Pſa. Cxxxij. N.

The faithfull grounded on Gods promiſe made vnto Dauid, deſireth that hee vvould eſtabliſh the ſame, both as touching his poſteritie, and the building of the Temple, to pray there as vvas foreſpoken.

5 Till I haue found out for the Lord,
a place to ſit thereon :
An houſe for Iacobs God to be an habitation.
6 We heard of it at Euphrata, there did vve heare this ſound:
And in the fields and forreſts there,
theſe voyces firſt vvere found.
7 We vvill aſſay and goe in novv his tabernacle there :
Before his foot-ſtoole to fall dovvne,
vpon our knees in feare.
8 Ariſe, O Lord, ariſe I ſay, into thy reſting place :
Both thou and the Arke of thy ſtrength,
the preſence of thy grace.
9 Let all thy Prieſts be cloathed Lord vvith trueth and righteouſneſſe :
Let all thy Saints and holy men
ſing all with ioyfulneſſe.
10 And for thy ſeruant Dauids ſake refuſe not Lord, I ſay
The face of thine annointed Lord,
nor turne thy face away.

The ſecond part.

11 The Lord to Dauid ſwore in truth, and will not ſhrinke from it :
Saying, the fruit of thy body
vpon thy ſeate ſhall ſit.
12 And if thy ſonnes my couenant keepe, that I ſhall learne each one :
Then ſhall their ſonnes for euer ſit
vpon thy Princely throne.
13 The Lord himſelfe hath choſe Sion, and loues therein to dvvell :
14 Saying, this is my reſting place,
I loue and like it well.
15 And I will bleſſe with great increaſe her victuals euery vvhere :
And I will ſatisfie with bread
the needy that be there.
16 Yea, I will decke and cloathe her Prieſts with my ſaluation :
And all her Saints ſhall ſing for ioy of my protection.
17 There will I ſurely make the horne of Dauid for to bud :
For I haue there ordein'd for mine
a lanterne bright and good.
18 As for his enemies, I will cloathe with ſhame for euermore :
But I vvil cauſe his crovvne to ſhine more freſh then heretofore.

Ecce quam? Pſal. Cxxxiij. W.W.

The commandement of godly and brotherly amitie, compared to the moſt precious oyle mentioned in Exod. 30.

Sing this as the 127. Pſalme.

O How happy a thing it is,
and ioyfull for to ſee Brethren together faſt to hold the band of amitie.
2 It eals to thinde the ſweete perfume,
and that coſtly ornament,
Which on the Sacrifiers head,
by Gods precept was ſpent.

3 It wer not Aarons head alone, but drencht his beard throughout:
And finally it did runne dovvne his rich attire about:
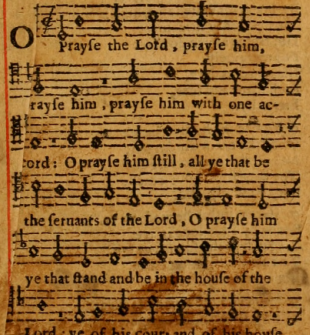
4 And as the lovver ground doth drinke
the devv of Hermon hill:
And Sion vvith her ſiluer drops,
the fields vvith fruit doth fill.

5 Euen ſo the Lord doth povvre on them,
his bleſſings manifold:
Whoſe hearts and minds vvithout all guile,
this knot doe keepe and hold.

Ecce nunc, Pſal. Cxxxiiij. W. K.

Hee exhorteth the Leuites that vvatch in the Temple to prayſe the Lord.



2 Lift vpyour hands on high,
vnto his holy place.
And giue the Lord his prayſes due his benefits embrace.

3 For vvhy? the Lord who did both earth and heauen frame, Doth Sion bleſſe and will conſerue for euermore the ſame.

Laudate nomen. Pſal. Cxxxv. N.

Hee exhorteth all the faithfull to prayſe God for his marcilous vvorkes and graces, vvherevvith he hat declared his Maieſtie, to the confuſion of all Idolaters.

prayſe him with one accord.

3 Prayſe ye the Lord, for he is good,
ſing prayſes to his name:
It is a comely and good thing, alwayes to doe the ſame.
4 For why? the Lord hath choſe Iacob, his very one we ſee:
So hath he choſen Iſrael,
his treaſure for to be.

5 For this I know and am right ſure,
the Lord is very great:
He is indeed aboue all Gods,
moſt eaſie to intreat.
6 For whatſoeuer pleaſed him,
all that full well he wrought.
In heauen, in earth, and in the ſea, which he hath framde of nought.

7 He lifts vp clouds euen from the earth
he makes lightning and raine:
He bringeth forth the windes alſo,
he made nothing in vaine.
8 He ſmote the firſt borne of each thing,
in Egypt that tooke reſt,
He ſpared there no liuing thing,
the man nor yet the beaſt.

9 He hath in thee ſhew'd wonders great,
O Egypt voide of vaunts,
On Pharao thy curſed King and his ſeuere ſeruants.
10 He ſmote then many nations, and did great acts and things:
He ſlew the great and mightieſt, and chiefeſt of their Kings.

11 Sehon King of the Amorites, and Og King of Baſan:
He ſlew alſo the kingdomes all,
that were of Canaan.
12 And gaue their land to Iſrael and heritage we ſee:
To Iſrael his owné people, an heritage to be.

The ſecond part.

13 Thy name O Lord, ſhall ſtill endure, and thy memoriall
Throughout all generations,
that are or euer ſhall.
14 The Lord will ſurely now auenge his people all indeed:
And to his ſeruants he will ſhew fauour in time of neede.

15 The Idoles of the heathen are made,
in all their coaſts and lands:
Of ſiluer and of gold be they
the works euen of mens hands.
16 They haue their mouthes & cannot ſpeak and eyes and haue no ſight:
17 They eke haue eares and heare nothing, their mouths be breathleſſe quite.

18 Wherefore all they are like to them, that doe ſo ſet them forth,
And likewiſe thoſe that truſt in them,
or thinke they be ought worth.

19 O all ye houſe of Iſrael, ſee that ye prayſe the Lord:
And ye that be of Aarons houſe,
prayſe him with one accord.
20 And ye that be of Leuites houſe, prayſe ye likewiſe the Lord:
And all that ſtand in awe of him,
prayſe him with one accord.

A moſt earneſt exhortation to giue thankes vnto God for the creation and gouernance of all things.

5 Which by his wiſedome made the heauens
for his mercy endureth, &c.
6 Which on the waters ſtretcht the earth,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
7 Which made great lights to ſhine abroad,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
8 As Sunne to rule the lightſome day,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
9 The Moone and ſtarres to guide the night
for his mercy endureth, &c.
10 Which ſmote Egypt with the firſt borne,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
11 And Iſrael brought out from them,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
12 With mightie hand and ſtretched arme,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
13 Which cut the red ſea in two parts,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
14 And Iſrael made paſſe there through,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
15 And drowned Pharao and his hoaſt,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
16 Through wilderneſſe his people led,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
17 He which did ſmite great noble Kings,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
18 And which hath ſlaine the mighty Kings,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
19 As Sehon King of the Ammorites,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
20 And Og the King of Baſan land,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
21 And gaue their land for heritage,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
22 Euen to his ſeruant Iſrael,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
23 Remembring vs in baſe eſtate,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
24 And from oppreſſors reſcued vs,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
25 Which giueth food vnto all fleſh,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
26 Prayſe ye the Lord of heauen aboue,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
27 Giue thanks vnto the Lord of Lords,
for his mercy endureth, &c.

Sing this as the 148. Pſalme.

O Laud the Lord benigne,
Whoſe mercies laſt for aye.
2 Great thankes and prayſes ſing
To God of Gods I ſay,
For certainely,
His mercies dure,
Both firme and ſure,
Eternally.

3 The Lord of Lords prayſe ye,
Whoſe mercies aye doe dure.
4 Great wonders onely he Doth wvorke by his great powver:
For certainely,
His mercies dure,
Both firme and ſure,
Eternally.

5 Which God omnipotent,
By his great wviſedome high:
The heauenly firmament
Did frame as wve doe ſee:
For certainely,
His mercies dure,
Both firme and ſure,
Eternally.

6 Yea he the heauy charge
Of all the earth did ſtretch,
And on the wvaters large,
The ſame he did out-reach,
For certainely, &c.

7 Great lights he made to vs,
For wvhy? his loue is aye.
8 Such as the ſunne wve ſee,
To rule the lightſome day,
For certainely, &c.

9 And eke the Moone ſo cleare
Which ſhineth in our ſight:

And

And ſtarres that doe appeare,
To guide the darkeſome night.
For certainely, &c.

10 With grieuous plagues and ſore
All Egypt ſmote he than,
The firſt borne leſſe and more
He ſlew of beaſt and man.
For certainely, &c.

11 And from amidſt their land
His Iſrael foorth brought:
12 Which he with mighty hand,
And ſtretched arme hath wrought.
For certainely, &c.

13 The ſea he cut in two,
Which ſtood vp like a wall:
14 And made through it to goe
His choſen children all.
For certainely, &c.

15 But there he whelmed then
The proud King Pharao,
With his huge hoaſt of men
And Chariots eke alſo.
For certainely, &c.

16 Who led through wilderneſſe
His people ſafe and ſound:
17 And for his loue endleſſe
Great Kings he brought to ground:
For certainely, &c.

18 And ſlew with puiſſant hand,
Kings mighty and of fame:
19 As of Anorites land
Sehon the King by name.
For certainely, &c.

20 And Og the Gyant large,
Of Baſan King alſo:
21 Whoſe land for heritage
He gaue his people tho.
For certainely, &c.

22 Euen vnto Iſrael,
His ſeruant deare I ſay,
He gaue the ſame to dwell,
And there abide for aye.
For certainely, &c.

23 To minde he did vs call
In ou moſt baſe degree:
24 And from oppreſſors all
In ſafety ſet vs free.
For certainely, &c.

25 All fleſh on earth abroad
Wil food he doth fulfill:
26 Wherefore of heauen the God
To aud be it your will.
For certainely, &c.

The Iſraelites in their captiuity hearing the Chaldeans reproach and blaſpheme God and his religion, deſire God to puniſh the Edomites, who prouoked the Babylonians againſt them, and prophecied the deſtruction of Babylon.

When as we ſate in Babylon the riuers round about: And in remembrance of Sion, the teares for griefe burſt out. 2. We hang'd our harpes and inſtruments the willow trees vpon: For in that place men for their vſe had planted many one.

3 Then they to whom we priſoners were,
ſayd to vs tauntingly:
Now let vs heare your Hebrue ſongs, and pleaſant melodie.
4 Alas, ſayd we, who can once frame,
his ſorrowfull heart to ſing:
The prayſes of our louing God,
thus vnder a ſtrange king?

5 But yet if I Ieruſalem out of my heart let ſlide:
Then let my fingers quite forget the warbling harpe to guide.
6 And let my tongue within my mouth be tyed for euer faſt,
If that I ioy before I ſee thy full deliuerance paſt.

7 Therefore O Lord, remember now,
the curſed noiſe and cry:
That Edoms ſonnes againſt vs made,
when they raz'd our Citie.
Remember Lord, their cruell words,
when as with one accord:
They cryed, on, ſacke, and raze their walles
in deſpight of the Lord.

8 Euen ſo ſhalt thou (O Babylon) at length to duſt be brought,
And happy ſhall that man be cald,
that our reuenge hath wrought.
9 Yea bleſſed ſhall that man be cald, that takes thy children young,
To daſh their bones againſt hard ſtones which lye the ſtreets among.

Confitebor tibi. Pſal. Cxxxviij. N.

Dauid prayſeth the goodneſſe of God towards him, for vvhich euen forraigne Princes ſhall prayſe the Lord together vvith him. And he is aſſured to haue like comfort of God hereafter, as heretofore. Sing this as the 137. Pſalme.

THee will I prayſe with my whole heart,
my Lord my God alwayes:
Euen in the preſence of the Gods
I will aduance thy prayſe.
2 Towards thy holy Temple I will looke, and worſhip thee:
And prayſed in my thankefull mouth,
thy holy name ſhall be.

3 Euen for thy louing kindeneſſe ſake, and for thy truth withall:
For thou thy name haſt by thy word aduanced

aduanced ouer all.
4 When I did call thou heardest me, and thou hast made also
The power of encreased strength within my soule to grow.
5 Yea, all the Kings on earth they shall giue prayse to thee. O Lord:
For they of thy most holy mouth
haue heard the mighty word.
6 They of the wayes of God the Lord in singing shall intreat:
Because the glory of the Lord
it is exceeding great.

7 The Lord is hie and yet he doth behold the lowly spirit:
But he contemning knowes afarre
the proud and lofty wight.
8 Although in midst of trouble I doe walke, yet shall I stand:
Renewed by thee, O my Lord, thou wilt stretch forth thy hand.
9 Vpon the wrath of all my foes,
and saued shall I be:
By thy right hand the Lord God will performe his worke to me.
10 Thy mercies Lord endures for aye,
Lord doe me not forsake:
Forsake me not that am the worke which thine owne hand did make.

Domine probasti. Psal. Cxxxix. N.

Dauid to cleanse his heart from all hypocrisie, sheweth that nothing is so secret which God seeth not, after declaring his zeale and feare of God, he protesteth to be enemie to all them that contemne God.

Sing this as the 95. Psalme.

O Lord, thou hast me tride and knowne,
my sitting thou dost know:
2 And rising eke, my thoughts afarre, thou vnderstandst also.
3 My pathes, yea, and my lying downe,
thou compassest alwayes:
And by familiar custome art acquainted with my wayes.
4 No word is in my tongue, O Lord,
but knowne it is to thee:
Thou me behinde hol'dst, and before,
thou layest thy hands on mee.
6 Too wonderfull aboue my reach Lord is thy cunning skill:
It is so high, that I the same cannot attaine vntill.
7 From sight of thy all-seeing spirit,
Lord, whither shall I goe?
Or whither shall I flee away,
thy presence to scape fro?
8 To heauen if I mount aloft, loe thou art present there:
In hel if I lye downe below,
euen there thou dost appeare.

9 Yea, let me take the morning wings, and let me goe and hide Euen there where are the farthest parts, where flowing seas doe slide.
10 Yea, euen thither also shall thy reaching hand me guide:
And thy right hand shall hold me fast,
and make me to abide.

11 Yea if I say the darknesse shall yet shroud me from thy sight:
Loe euen also the darkest night,
about me shalbe light.
12 Yea darknesse hideth not from thee,
but night doth shine as day:
To thee the darknesse and the light,
are both alike alway.

The second part.

13 For thou possessed hast my reines,
and thou hast couered me:
When I within my mothers wombe, enclosed was by thee:
14 Thee will I prayse, made fearefully and wondrously I am:
Thy workes are marueilous right well my soule doth know the same.

15 My bones they are not hid from thee,
although in secret place:
I haue beene made and in the earth,
beneath I shaped was.
16 When I was formelesse, then thine eye, saw me, for in thy booke:
Were written all, nought was before,
that after fashion tooke.
17 The thoughts therefore of thee (O God)
how deare are they to me?
And of them all how passing great,
the endlesse number be.
18 If I should count them, loe their summe, more then the sand I see:
And whensoeuer I awake,
yet am I still with thee.
19 The wicked and the bloody men,
oh that thou wouldest slay:
Euen those O God, to whom depart, depart from me I say.
20 Euen those of thee, O Lord my God, that speake full wickedly:
Those that are lifted vp in vaine,
being enemies to thee.
21 Hate I not them that hate thee Lord,
and that in earnest wise?
Contend I not against them all,
against thee that arise?
22 I hate them with vnfained hate,
euen as my very foes:
23 Try me, O God, and know my heart,
my thoughts proone and disclose.
24 Consider Lord if wickednesse in me there any be:
And in thy way, O God, my guide, for euer lead thou me.

Eripe me Dom. Psal. Cxl. N.

¶ Dauid prayeth vnto the Lord against the cruelty, falshood, and iniuries of his enemies, assuring himselfe of his succour, wherefore he prouoketh to iust prayse the Lord, and to assure themselues of his sution.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

L Ord saue me from the euill man,
and from the cruell wights, 2 Deliuer me, which euill doe imagine in their sprites.
3 Which make on me continuall warre, their tongues loe haue they whet,
Like Serpents, vnderneath their lips is adders poyson set.

4 Keepe

4 Keepe me O Lord, from wicked hands, preſerue mee to abide Free from the cruell man that meanes to cauſe my ſteps to ſlide.
5 The proud haue laid a ſnare for mee, and they haue ſpread a net
With cordes in my path wayes, and gins for me eke haue they ſet.

6 Therefore I ſaid vnto the Lord, thou art my God alone:
Heare mee O Lord, O heare the voyce, wherewith I pray and mone.
7 O Lord my God, thou onely art
the ſtrength that laueth mee:
My head in day of battell hath beene couered ſtill by thee.

8 Let not O Lord the wicked haue
the end of his deſire: Performe not his ill thought, leaſt he with pride be set on fire.
9 Of them that compaſſe mee about,
the chiefeſt of them all:
Lord let the miſchiefe of their lips
vpon themſelues befall:

10 Let coales fall on them, let him caſt them in conſuming flame:
And in deepe pits, ſo as they may not riſe out of the ſame.
11 For no backbiter ſhall on earth,
be ſet in ſtable plight:
And euill to deſtruction ſtill ſhall haunt the cruell wight.

12 I know the Lord th'afflicted will reuenge, and iudge the poore:
The iuſt ſhall praiſe thy name, iuſt ſhall dwell with thee euermore.

Domine clamaui. Pſal. Cxlj. N.

Dauid being grieuouſly perſecuted vnder Saul, deſireth ſuccour and patience, till God take vengeance of his enemies.

3 My Lord for guiding of my mouth
ſet thou a watch before:
And alſo of my mouing lips
O Lord keepe thou the dore.

4 That I ſhould wicked workes commit, incline thou not my heart:
With ill men of their delicates
Lord let mee eat no part.

5 But let the righteous ſmite me Lord,
for that is good for mee, Let him repro oue me, and the ſame
a precious oyle ſhall be.
Such ſmiting ſhall not breake my head,
the time ſhall ſhortly fall,
When I ſhall in their miſery make prayers for them all.

6 Then when in ſtony places downe their Iudges ſhall be caſt:
Then ſhall they heare my words, for then they haue a pleaſant taſt.
7 Our bones about the graues mouth, loe ſcattered are they found:
As he that heweth wood or he that diggeth vp the ground.

8 But O my Lord my God, mine eyes
doe looke vp vnto thee:
In thee is all my truſt let not my ſoule forſaken be.
9 Which they haue laid to catch mee in,
Lord keepe mee from the ſnare:
And from the ſubtill gins of them that wicked workers are.

10 The wicked into their owne nets together let them fall:
While I doe by thy helpe eſcape
the danger of them all.

Voce mea ad Dom. Pſal. Cxlij. N.

Dauid neither for feare nor anger would kill Saul, but with a quiet minde prayeth vnto God, who preſerueth him.

Sing this as the 141. Pſalme.

BEfore the Lord God with my voyce,
I did ſend out my cry:
And with my ſtrained voyce vnto
the Lord God prayed I.
2 My meditation in his ſight to poure I did not ſpare:
And in the preſence of the Lord
my trouble did declare.

3 Although perplexed was my ſpirit,
my path was knowne to thee:
In way where I did walke a ſnare
they ſlily laid for mee.
4 I looked and view'd on my right hand,
but none there would me know;
All refuge failed me, and for my ſoule none cared tho.

5 Then cry de I Lord to thee, and ſaid, my hope thou onely art:
Thou in the land of liuing art
my portion and my part.
6 Hearke to my cry, for I am brought full low, deliuer me
From them that doe me perſecute, for me too ſtrong they be.

7 That I may praiſe thy name, my ſoule from priſon Lord bring out:
When thou art good to me, the iuſt ſhall preſſe me round about.

Domine exaudi. Pſal. Cxliij. N.

An earneſt prayer for remiſſion of ſinnes, acknowledging that the enemies did cruelly perſecute him by Gods iuſt iudgement, he deſireth to be reſtored to grace, to be gouerned by his holy Spirit, that hee may ſpend the reſt of his life in the true feare and worſhip of God.

Sing this as the 141. Pſalme.

LOrd heare my prayer, hearke the plaint,
that I doe make to thee:
Lord in thy natiue truth, and in thy iuſtice anſwere me.
2 In iudgement with thy ſeruant Lord,
oh enter not at all:
For iuſtified be in thy ſight not one that liueth ſhall.
3 The enemie hath purſude my ſoule, my life to ground hath throwne:
And laid me in the darke, like them,
that dead are long agone.
4 Within me in perplexitie was mine accumbred ſpirite:
And in me was my troubled heart amazed and affright.
5 Yet I record time paſt, in all thy workes I meditate: Yea, in the workes I meditate that thy hands haue create.
6 To thee O Lord my God, loe, I doe ſtretch my crauing hands:
My ſoule deſireth after thee
as doe the thirſtie lands.
7 Heare me with ſpeed, my ſpirit doth faile, hide not thy face me fro:
Elſe ſhall I be like them that downe into the pit doe goe.
8 Let me thy louing kindneſſe in the morning heare and know:
For in thee is my truſt, ſhew me
the way that I ſhall goe.
9 For I lift vp my ſoule to thee,
O Lord deliuer me
From all mine enemies: for I haue hidden me with thee.
10 Teach me to doe thy will, for thou,
thou art my God I ſay:
Let thy good ſpirit into the land of mercie me conuay.
11 For thy names ſake with quickning grace
aliue doe thou me make:
And out of trouble bring my ſoule,
euen for thy iuſtice ſake.
12 And for thy mercy ſlay my foes,
O Lord deſtroy them all That doe oppreſſe my ſoule, for I thy ſeruant am and ſhall.

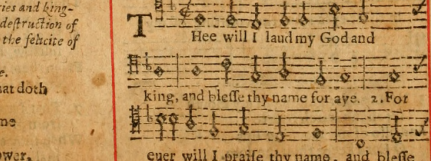
Benedictus Dom. Pſal. Cxliiij. N.



Dauid praiſeth the Lord for his victories and kingdome reſtored, yet calling for the deſtruction of the wicked, he declareth wherein the felicite of any people conſiſteth.

Sing this as the 141. Pſalme.

BLeſſed be the Lord my ſtrength, that doth inſtruct my hands to fight:
The Lord that doth my fingers frame to battell by his might.
2 He is my goodneſſe, fort and tower,
deliuerer and ſhield:
In him I truſt, my people he ſubdues to me to yeeld.
3 O Lord, what thing is man, that him thou holdeſt ſo in price?
Or ſonne of man, that vpon him thou thinkeſt in this wiſe?
4 Man is but like to vanitie, ſo paſſe his dayes to end.
5 As fleeting ſhade, bowe downe, O Lord,
the heauens and deſcend,
6 The mountains touch, and they ſhall ſmoake caſt forth thy lightning flame,
And ſcatter them: thine arrowes ſhoot,
conſume them with the ſame.
7 Send downe thy hand euen from aboue,
O Lord, deliuer me:
Take me from waters great, from hand of ſtrangers make me free.
8 Whoſe ſubtill mouth of vanitie and ſondneſſe doth intreat:
And their right hand is a right hand
of falſhood and deceit.
9 A new ſong will I ſing O God, and ſinging will I be On Violl and on Inſtrument ten ſtringed vnto thee.
10 Euen he it is that onely giues deliuerance to kings?
Vnto his ſeruant Dauid help from hurtfull ſword he brings.
11 From ſtrangers hand me ſaue and ſhield, whoſe mouthes talke vanitie:
And their right hand is a right hand
of guile and ſubtiltie.
12 That our ſonnes may be as the plants, whom growing youth doth reare:
Our daughters as caru'd corner ſtones,
like to a Palace faire.
13 Our garners full and plenty may with ſundry ſorts be found:
Our ſheepe bring thouſands, in our ſtreets ten thouſands may abound.
14 Our Oxen be to labour ſtrong, that none doe vs inuade:
There be no going out, no cries within our ſtreetes be made.
15 The people bleſſed are that with ſuch bleſſings are ſo ſtor'd:
Yea bleſſed all the people are,
whoſe God is God the Lord.

Exaltabo te. Pſal. Clxv. N.

Dauid deſcribeth the wonderfull prouidence of God in gouerning and in preſeruing all the other creatures. He praiſeth God for his iuſtice, mercy and ſpeciall louing kindneſſe towards thoſe that call vpon him, that feare him and loue him.

5 I of thy glorious Maieſtie,
the beautie will record :
And meditate vpon thy workes, moſt wonderfull O Lord.
6 And they ſhall of thy power and of thy fearefull acts declare :
And I to publiſh all abroad,
thy greatneſſe will not ſpare.

7 And they into the mention ſhall breake of thy goodneſſe great :
And I aloud thy righteouſneſſe,
in ſinging ſhall repeat.
8 The Lord our God is gracious, and mercifull alſo:
Of great abunding mercy, and to anger he is ſlow.

9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercy doth exceede :
10 Loe all thy works doe praiſe thee Lord, and doe thy honour ſpread.
11 Thy Saints doe bleſſe thee, and they doe thy kingdomes glory ſhew :
12 And blaſe thy power to cauſe the ſonnes of men thy power to know.
The ſecond part.
13 And of his mightie kingdome eke, to ſpread the glorious praiſe :
Thy kingdome Lord a kingdome is,
that doth endure alwayes.
14 And thy dominion through each age,
endures without decay :
The Lord vpholdeth them that fall, their ſliding he doth ſtay.

15 The eyes of all doe waite on thee,
thou doſt them all relieue :
And thou to each ſufficing foode,
in ſeaſon due doſt giue.
16 Thou openeſt thy plenteous hand, and bounteouſly doſt fill :
All things whatſoeuer doe liue, with gifts of thy good will.

17 The Lord is iuſt in all his wayes, his workes are holy all :
18 Neere all he is that call on him,
in truth that on him call.
19 He the deſires which they require, that feare him will fulfill :
And he will heare them when they crie,
and ſaue them all he will.

20 The Lord preſerues all thoſe, to him that beare a loving heart:
But he them all that wicked are,
will vtterly ſubuert.
21 My thankfull mouth ſhall gladly ſpeake
the praiſes of the Lord :
All fleſh to praiſe his holy name, for euer ſhall accord.

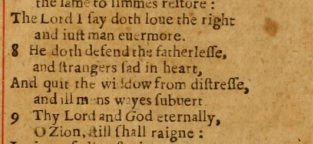
Lauda anima mea. Pſ. Cxlvj. I. H.

Dauid teacheth that none ſhould put their truſt in men, but in God alone, who is almighty, and deliuereth the afflicted, noriſheth the poore, ſetteth priſoners at liberty, comforteth the fatherleſſe, vvidovves, ſtrangers, and is king for euer.

Sing this as the 137. Pſalme.



MY ſoule praiſe thou the Lord alwayes,
my God I will confeſſe :
2 While breath and life prolong my dayes,
my tongue no time ſhall ceaſe.
3 Truſt not in worldly princes then,
though they abound in wealth :
Nor in the ſonnes of mortall men,
in whom there is no health.

4 For why? their breath doth ſoone depart to earth anone they fall,
And then the counſels of their hearts decay and periſh all.
5 O happy is that man I ſay, whom Iacobs God doth aide :
And he whoſe hope doth not decay,
but on the Lord is ſtaid.

6 Which made the earth and waters deepe,
the heauens high withall :
Which doth his word and promiſe keepe,
in truth and euer ſhall.
With right alwayes he doth proceede,
for ſuch as ſuffer wrong :
The poore and hungrie he doth feede,
and loſe the fetters ſtrong.
7 The Lord doth ſend the blinde their ſight
the lame to limmes reſtore :
The Lord I ſay doth loue the right and iuſt man euermore.
8 He doth defend the fatherleſſe, and ſtrangers ſad in heart,
And quite the widdow from diſtreſſe,
and ill mens wayes ſubuert.
9 Thy Lord and God eternally,
O Zion, ſtill ſhall raigne :
In time of all poſterity, for euer to remaine.

Laudate Dom. Pſal. Cxlvij. N.

thing. 2. The Lord his owne Ieruſalem, he buildeth vp alone, and the diſperſt of Iſrael, doth gather into one.

3 He heales the broken in their heart,
their ſores he doth vp binde :
4 He counts the number of the ſtarres, and names them in their kinde :
5 Great is the Lord, great is his power,
his wiſedome infinite :
6 The Lord relieues the meeke, and throwes to ground the wicked wight.
7 Sing vnto God the Lord with praiſe, vnto the Lord reioyce :
And to our God vpon the harpe,
aduance your ſinging voyce.
8 He couers heauen with clouds, and for the earth prepareth raine :
And on the mountaines he doth make the graſſe to grow amaine.

9 He giues to beaſts their food, and to young Rauens when they crie :
10 His pleaſure not in ſtrength of horſe, nor in mans legs doth lie.
11 But in all thoſe that feare the Lord,
the Lord hath his delight :
And ſuch as doe attend vpon his mercies ſhining light.

The ſecond part.

12 O prayſe the Lord Ieruſalem, thy God, O Sion prayſe :
13 For he the bars hath forged ſtrong, wherewith thy gates he ſtayes.
14 Thy children he hath bleſt in thee, and in thy borders he Doth ſettle peace, and with the flower of wheate he filleth thee.
15 And his commandement vpon
the earth he ſendeth out :
And eke his word with ſpeedie courſe, doth ſwiftly runne about.
16 He giueth ſnow like woll, hoare-froſt like aſhes he doth ſpread :
17 Like morſels caſt his ice thereof
the cold who can abide?
18 He ſendeth forth his mightie word,
and melteth them againe :
His wind he makes to blow, and then the waters flow amaine.
19 The doctrine of his holy word,
to Iacob he doth ſhow,
His ſtatutes and his iudgements, he giues Iſrael to know.
20 With euery nation he hath not ſo dealt, nor they haue knowne His ſecret iudgements, ye therefore praiſe yee the Lord alone.

Laudate Dom. Pſal. Cxlviij. I. H.

He prouoketh all creatures to praiſe the Lord, in Heauen and in all places, eſpecially for the power that he hath giuen to his people Iſrael.

Giue laud vnto the Lord, from heauen that is ſo hie : Praiſe him in deed and word, aboue the ſtarrie skie.
2. And alſo yee, his Angels all, armies royall, praiſe him with glee.

3 Praiſe him both Moone and Sunne,
Which are ſo cleare and bright :
The ſame of you be done,
Ye gliſtering ſtarres of light.
4 And eke no leſſe,
Ye heauens faire,
And clouds of the aire,
His laud expreſſe.

5 For at his word they vvere
All formed as vve ſee :
At his voyce did appeare
All things in their degree :
6 Which he ſet faſt :
To them he made,
A lavv and trade,
for aye to laſt.

7 Extoll and laud Gods name,
On earth ye dragons fell :
All deepes doe ye the ſame,
For it becommeth you vvell.
8 Him magnifie,
Fire, haile, ice, ſnovv,
And ſtormes that blovv,
at his decree.

9 The hils and mountaines all,
And trees that fruitfull are :
The Cedars great and tall.
His vvorthy praiſe declare.
10 Beaſts and cattell,
Ye birds flying,
And vvormes creeping,
that on earth dvvell.

11 All kings both more and leſſe,
With all their pompous traine :
Princes and all Iudges,
That in the world remaine.
12 Exalt his name,
Yong men and maides,
Old men and babes
Doe ye the ſame.

13 For his name ſhall we proone,
To be moſt excellent:
Whoſe praiſe is farre aboue
The earth and firmament.
14 For ſure he ſhall,
Exalt with bliſſe,
The horne of his,
And helpe them all.

His

15 His Saints all ſhall forth tell
His praiſe and worthineſſe.
The children of Iſrael,
Each one both more and leſſe:
16 And alſo they
That with good will His words fulfill and them obey.

Cantate Domino. Pſal. Cxlix. N.

An exhortation to the Church, to praiſe the Lord for his victory and conqueſt that he giueth his Saints againſt all mans power.

Sing this at the 145. Pſalme.

SInge ye vnto the Lord our God
a new reioycing ſong:
And let the praiſe of him be heard his holy Saints among.
2 Let Iſrael reioyce in him that made him of nothing.
And let the ſeede of Sion eke be ioyfull in their King.

3 Let them ſound praiſe with voyce of flute
vnto his holy name:
And with the Timbrell and the Harpe,
ſing praiſes of the ſame.
4 For why? the Lord his pleaſure all hath in his people ſet:
And by deliuerance he will raiſe
the meeke to glory great.

5 With glory and with honour both let all the Saints reioyce:
And now aloud vpon their beds aduance their ſinging voyce.
6 And in their mouthes let be the acts of God the mighty Lord:
And in their hands eke let them beare
a double edged ſword.

7 To plague the heathen, and correct
the people with their hands:
8 To binde their ſtately kings in chaines, their Lords in yron bands.
9 To execute on them the doome that written is before:
This honour all his Saints ſhall haue, praiſe ye the Lord therefore.

Laudate Dom. Pſal. CL. N.

An exhortation to praiſe the Lord without ceaſing by all maner of wayes, for all his mighty and wonderfull workes.

Sing this as the 147. Pſalme.

YEeld vnto God the mighty Lord,
praiſe in his Sanctuarie:
And praiſe him in the firmament, that ſheweth his power on hie.
2 Aduance his name and praiſe him in his mighty actes alwayes:
According to his excellency of greatneſſe giue him praiſe.
3 His praiſes with the Princely noyſe of ſounding Trumpers blow: Praiſe him vpon the Violl, and vpon the Harpe alſo.
4 Praiſe him with Timbrell, and with Flute, Organs and Virginals:
5 With ſounding Cimbals praiſe ye him,
praiſe him with loud Cymbals,

6 What euer hath the benefit of breathing praiſe the Lord:
To praiſe the name of God the Lord agree with one accord.

The end of the Pſalmes of Dauid.

An Exhortation vnto the praiſe of God, to be ſung before Morning prayer, T.B.

Sing this as the 100. Pſalme.

PRaiſe the Lord, O ye Gentiles all, which hath brought you into his light:
O praiſe him all people mortall,
as it is moſt worthy and right.

For he is full determined on vs to poure out his mercy,
And the Lords truth be ye aſſur'd, abideth perpetually.

Glory be to God the Father,
and to Ieſus Chriſt his true Sonne,
With the holy Ghoſt in like maner,
now and at euery ſeaſon.

An Exhortation vnto the praiſe of God to be ſung before Euening prayer. T.B.

Sing this as the 100. Pſalme.

BEhold now giue heede ſuch as be the Lords ſeruants faithfull and true, Come praiſe the Lord euery degree, with ſuch ſongs as to him are due.

O ye that ſtand in the Lords houſe, euen in our owne Gods manſions:
Praiſe ye the Lord ſo bounteous, which worketh our ſaluation.

Lift vp your hands in his holy place,
yea, and that in the time of night:
Praiſe yee the Lord which giueth all grace, for he is a Lord of great might.

Then ſhall the Lord out of Sion, which made heauen & earth by his power,
Giue to you and your nation,
his bleſſing mercy, and fauour.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

Audi Iſrael. Exod. xx. W. W.

The Lords prayer.

1 I am thy soueraigne Lord and God,
Which haue thee brought from carefull thrall,
And eke reclaim'd from Pharaohs rod,
Make thee no gods on them co call.

2 Nor fashioned forme of any thing,
In heauen or earth to worship it:
For I thy God by reuenging,
With grieuous plagues this sinne will smite.

3 Take not in vaine Gods holy name, Abuse it not after thy will:
For so thou might'st soone purchase blame,
And in his wrath he would thee spill.

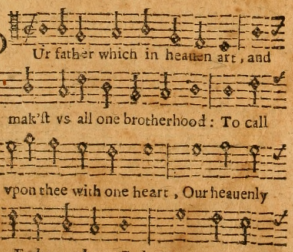
4 The Lord from work the seuenth day ceast,
And brought all things to perfect end:
So thou and thine that day take rest,
That to Gods hests ye may attend.

5 Vnto thy parents honour giue,
As Gods commandements doe pretend,
That thou long dayes and good maist liue
In earth where God a place doth lend.

6 Beware of murther and cruell hate.
7 All filthy fornication feare.
8 See thou steale nor in any rate.
9 False witnesse against no man beare.

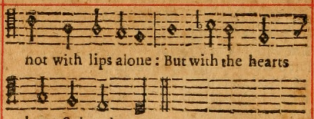
10 Thy neighbours house wish not to haue,
His wife nor ought that he cals mine:
His field, his Oxe, his Asse, his slaue,
Or any thing that is not thine.

A Prayer.



THe Spirit of grace grant vs (O Lord)
To keepe these Lawes our hearts restore:
And cause vs all with one accord
To magnifie thy name therefore.

For of our selues no strength we haue
To keepe these lawes after thy will:
Thy might therefore (O Christ) we crane;
That wee in thee may them fulfill.



Lord, for thy names sake graunt this,
Thou art our strength, O Sauiour Christ:
Of thee to speed how should we misse,
In whom our treasure doth consist?

To thee for euermore be praise,
With thee Father in each respect:
And with the holy Spirit alwayes,
The comforter of thine elect.

The Lords Prayer.

The Creed.

Thy blessed name be sanctified,
Thy holy word might vs inflame.
In holy life for to abide,
To magnifie thy holy name:
From all errors defend and keepe
The little flocke of thy poore sheepe.

Thy kingdome come euen at this houre,
And henceforth euerlastingly:
Thine holy Ghost into vs poure,
With all his gifts most plenteously.
From Sathans rage and filthy band Defend vs with thy mighty hand.

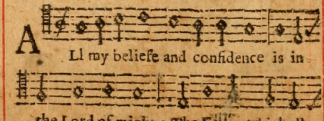
Thy will be done with diligence,
Like as in heauen in earth also:
In trouble grant vs patience,
Thee to obey in wealth and woe.
Let not flesh, blood, or any ill
Preuaile against thy holy will.

Giue vs this day our dayly bread,
And all other good gifts of thine:
Keepe vs from warre, and from blood-shed,
Also from sicknes, dearth, and pine:
That we may liue in quietnesse,
Without all greedy carefulnesse.



Forgiue vs our offences all,
Relieue our carefull conscience:
As we forgiue both great and small
Which vnto vs haue done offence:
Prepare vs Lord for to serue thee
In perfect loue and vnitie.

O Lord into temptation
Leade vs not when the fiend doth rage:
To withstand his inuasion,
Giue power and strength to euery age.
Arme and make strong thy feeble hoast,
With faith and with the holy Ghost.

O Lord from euill deliuer vs,
The dayes and times are dangerous.
From euerlasting death saue vs,
And in our last needs comfort vs:
A blessed end to vs bequeath,
Into thy hands our soules receiue.

For thou O Lord art king of kings
And thou hast power ouer all:
Thy glory shineth in all things,
In the wide world vniuersall
Amen, Let it be done, O Lord,
That wee haue pray'd with one accord.

The Creed.

The Creede.

things hath made, the day and eke the night: The heauens and the firmament and also many a starre: The earth and all that is therein, which passe mans reason far.

And in like maner I beleeue,
In Christ our Lord his Sonne:
Coequall with the Deitie,
And man in fleth and bone:
Conceiued by the holy Ghost,
His word doth me assure:
And of his mother Mary borne,
Yet she a Virgin pure.

Because mankinde to Sathan was,
For sinne in bond and thrall,
He came and offered vp himselfe,
To dea th to saue vs all.
And suffering most grieuous paine
Then Pilate being Iudge,
Was crucified on the Crosse,
And therat did not grudge.

And so he died in the flesh,
But quickened in the spirit,
His body then was buried,
As is our vse and right.
His Soule did after this descend
Into the lower parts:
To them that long in darkenesse were,
The true light of their hearts.

And in the third day of his death,
He rose to life againe:
To th'end he might be glorified,
Out of all griefe and paine.
Ascending to the heauens high,
To sit in glory still:
On Gods right hand his father deare,
According to his will.

Vntill the day of iudgement come,
When he shall come againe,
With Angels power, yet of that day
We all be vncertaine.
To iudge all people righteously,
Whom he hath dearely bought:
The liuing and the dead also,
Which he hath made of nought.

And in the holy Spirit of God,
My faith to satisfie,
The third person in Trinitie:
Beleeue I stedfastly.
The holy and Catholike Church,
That Gods word doth maintaine
And holy scripture doth allow,
Which Satan doth disdaine,

A prayer to the holy Ghost.

And also I doe trust to haue,
By Iesus Christ his death:
Release and pardon for my sinnes:
And that onely by faith.
What time all flesh shall rise againe,
Before the Lord of might,
And see him with their bodily eyes,
Which now doe giue them light.

And then shall Christ our Sauiour,
The sheepe and goates diuide:
And giue life euerlastingly,
To those whom he hath tride.
Within his Realme celestiall,
In glory for to rest:
With all the holy company,
Of Saints and Angels blest.

Which serue the Lord omnipotent, Obediently each houre:
To whom be all dominion,
And praise for euermore.

A prayer to the holy Ghost, to be sung before the Sermon.

Sing this as the 119. Psalme.

COme holy Spirit, the God of might, comforter of vs all:
Teach vs to know thy word a right,
that we doe neuer fall.
O Holy Ghost visit our coast, defend vs with thy shield:
Against all sinne and wickednesse,
Lord helpe vs winne the field.

Lord keepe our King and his counsell, and giue them will and might,
To perseuere in thy Gospell, which can put sinne to flight.
O Lord that giuest thy holy word,
send Preachers plenteously:
That in the same we way accord,
and therein liue and die.

O holy spirit direct a right,
the Preachers of thy word,
That thou by them mayst cut downe sinne,
as it were with a sword:
Depart not from those Pastors pure,
but aide them at all neede:
Which breake to vs the bread of life,
whereon our soules doe feede.

O blessed spirit of trueth keepe vs,
in peace and vnitie:
Keepe vs from sects and errors all,
and from all Papistrie.
Conuert all those that be our foes,
and bring them to thy light:
That they and wee may well agree,
and praise thee day & night.

O Lord increase our faith in vs,
and loue so to abound:
That man and wife be void of strife,
and neighbours about vs round.
In our time giue thy peace, O Lord,
to nations farre and nie:

And teach them all thy holy word,
that we may sing to thee.
All glory to the Trinitie, that is of mightes most,
The liuing Father, and the Sonne, and eke the holy Ghost.
As it hath beene in all the time,
that hath beene heretofore:
As it is now, and so shall be, henceforth for euermore.

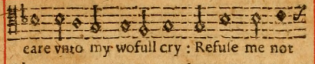
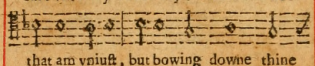
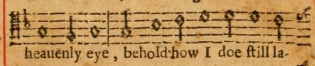
Da pacem Domine. E. G.



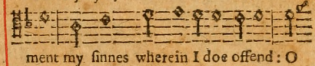
Giue vs that peace which we doe lacke,
Through misbeliefe and ill life:
Thy word to offer thou dost not slacke,
Which we vnkindly gaine strine.
With fire and sword,
This healthfull word,
Some persecute and oppresse:
Some with the mouth
Confesse the truth
Without sincere godlinesse.



Giue peace, and vs thy spirit downe send,
With griefe and repentance true,
Doe pierce our hearts our liues to amend,
And by faith Christ renue:
That feare and dread,
Warre and bloodshed,
Through thy sweet mercy and grace,
May from vs slide,
That thy truth may bide,
And shine in euery place.



The Lamentation.



Through perfect repentance the sinner hath a sure trust in God: that his sinnes shalbe washed away in Christs blood.

No, no, not so, thy will is bent, to deale with sinners in thine ire:
But when in heart they shall repent,
Thou grant'st with speed their iust desire,
To thee therefore still shall I cry,
to wash away my sinfull crime:
Thy blood O Lord, is not yet dry,
but that it may helpe me in time.
Haste thee O Lord, haste thee I say, to powre on me the gifts of grace:
That when this life shall flit away,
in heauen with thee I may haue place,
Where thou dost raigne eternally, with God which once did downe thee send Where Angels sing continually, to thee be praise world without end.

A thankesgiuing after the receiuing of the Lords Supper.

Sing this at the 137 Psalme.

THe Lord be thanked for his gifts,
and mercies euermore:
That he doth shew vnto his Saints,
to him be laud therefore.
Our tongues cannot so praise the Lord,
as he doth right deserue:
Our hearts cannot of him so thinke,
as he doth vs preserue.
His benefits they be so great,
to vs that be but sinne:
That at our hands for recompence, their is no hope to winne.
O sinfull flesh that thou shouldst haue
such mercies of the Lord:
Thou dost deserue more worthily, of him to be abhord.

Nought else but sinne and wretchednesse,
doth rest within our hearts:
And stubbornely against the Lord,
we dayly play our parts.
The sunne aboue the firmament which it to vs a light:
Doth shew it selfe more cleare and pure,
then we be in his sight.
